 and the pains that gnaw me take no rest.
 18 By great force is my garment disfigured.
 It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
 19 He has cast me into the mire.
 I have become like dust and ashes.
 20 I cry to you, and you do not answer me.
 I stand up, and you gaze at me.
 21 You have turned to be cruel to me.
 With the might of your hand you persecute me.
 22 You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it.
 You dissolve me in the storm.
 23 For I know that you will bring me to death,
 to the house appointed for all living.
 24 "However doesn't one stretch out a hand in his fall?
 Or in his calamity therefore cry for help?
 25 Didn't I weep for him who was in trouble?
 Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy?
 26 When I looked for good, then evil came;
 When I waited for light, there came darkness.
 27 My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest.
 Days of affliction have come on me.
 28 I go mourning without the sun.
 I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
 29 I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.
 30 My skin grows black and peels from me.
 My bones are burned with heat.
 31 Therefore my harp has turned to mourning,
 and my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

1 "I made a covenant with my eyes, how then should I look lustfully at a young woman?
 2 For what is the portion from God above,
 and the heritage from the Almighty on high?
 3 Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, and disaster to the workers of iniquity?
 4 Doesn't he see my ways,
 and number all my steps?
 5 "If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to deceit 6 (let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity);
 7 if my step has turned out of the way,
 if my heart walked after my eyes,

if any defilement has stuck to my hands,
 8 then let me sow, and let another eat.
 Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.
 9 "If my heart has been enticed to a woman,
 and I have laid wait at my neighbor's door, 10 then let my wife grind for another,
 and let others sleep with her.
 11 For that would be a heinous crime.
 Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
 12 For it is a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase.
 13 "If I have despised the cause of my male servant
 or of my female servant,
 when they contended with me;
 14 What then shall I do when God rises up?
 When he visits, what shall I answer him?
 15 Didn't he who made me in the womb make
 him?
 Didn't one fashion us in the womb?
 16 "If I have withheld the poor from their desire,
 or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, 17 or have eaten my morsel alone,
 and the fatherless has not eaten of it 18 (no, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,
 her have I guided from my mother's womb); 19 if I have seen any perish for want of clothing,
 or that the needy had no covering;
 20 if his heart hasn't blessed me, if he hasn't been warmed with my sheep's fleece;
 21 if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,
 because I saw my help in the gate, 22 then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade,
 and my arm be broken from the bone.
 23 For calamity from God is a terror to me.
 Because of his majesty, I can do nothing.
 24 "If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence';
 25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
 and because my hand had gotten much;
 26 if I have seen the sun when it shined,
 or the moon moving in splendor, 27 and my heart has been secretly enticed,
 and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, 28 this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges;
 for I should have denied the God who is above.
 29 "If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
 or lifted up myself when evil found him;
 30 (yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking his life with a curse); 31 if the men of my tent have not said,
 'Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?'
 32 (the foreigner has not camped in the street, but I have opened my doors to the traveler); 33 if like Adam I have covered my transgressions,

by hiding my iniquity in my heart, 34 because I feared the great multitude,
 and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and didn't go out of the door—

35 oh that I had one to hear me!
 (behold, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me);

let the accuser write my indictment!
 36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder;
 and I would bind it to me as a crown.

37 I would declare to him the number of my steps.

As a prince would I go near to him.

38 If my land cries out against me,
 and its furrows weep together;
 39 if I have eaten its fruits without money,
 or have caused its owners to lose their life, 40 let briars grow instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley.”

The words of Job are ended.

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO

1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. 2 Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job.
 His wrath was kindled because he justified himself rather than God. 3 Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. 4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he. 5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

6 Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered,

“I am young, and you are very old;
 Therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you my opinion.

7 I said, ‘Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.’

8 But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them
 understanding.

9 It is not the great who are wise, nor the aged who understand justice.

10 Therefore I said, ‘Listen to me;
 I also will show my opinion.’

11 “Behold, I waited for your words, and I listened for your reasoning,
 while you searched out what to say.

12 Yes, I gave you my full attention, but there was no one who convinced Job,
 or who answered his words, among you.

13 Beware lest you say, ‘We have found wisdom,

God may refute him, not man;’

14 for he has not directed his words against
 me;

neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 “They are amazed. They answer no more.
 They don't have a word to say.

16 Shall I wait, because they don't speak, because they stand still, and answer no more?

17 I also will answer my part,
 and I also will show my opinion.

18 For I am full of words.

The spirit within me constrains me.

19 Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent;

like new wineskins it is ready to burst.

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed.

I will open my lips and answer.

21 Please don't let me respect any man's person,

neither will I give flattering titles to any man.

22 For I don't know how to give flattering titles;
 or else my Maker would soon take me away.

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE

1 “However, Job, please hear my speech, and listen to all my words.

2 See now, I have opened my mouth.

My tongue has spoken in my mouth.

3 My tongue shall utter the uprightness of my heart.

That which my lips know they shall speak
 sincerely.

4 The Spirit of God has made me,
 and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

5 If you can, answer me.

Set your words in order before me, and stand up.

6 Behold, I am toward God even as you are.

I am also formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my pressure be heavy on you.

8 “Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
 I have heard the voice of your words, saying,

9 ‘I am clean, without disobedience.

I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he finds occasions against me.

He counts me for his enemy.

11 He puts my feet in the stocks.

He marks all my paths.’

12 “Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not just,

for God is greater than man.

13 Why do you strive against him, because he doesn't give account of any of his matters?

14 For God speaks once,
 yes twice, though man pays no attention.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men,

in slumbering on the bed;

16 then he opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction,

17 that he may withdraw man from his purpose,

and hide pride from man.

18 He keeps back his soul from the pit,
 and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain on his bed,
 with continual strife in his bones;

20 so that his life abhors bread, and his soul dainty food.

21 His flesh is so consumed away, that it can't be seen.

His bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yes, his soul draws near to the pit,
 and his life to the destroyers.

23 “If there is beside him an angel, an interpreter, one among a thousand,

to show to man what is right for him;

24 then God is gracious to him, and says,

‘Deliver him from going down to the pit,

I have found a ransom.'
 25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's.
 He returns to the days of his youth.
 26 He prays to God, and he is favorable to him, so that he sees his face with joy.
 He restores to man his righteousness.
 27 He sings before men, and says,
 'I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,
 and it didn't profit me.
 28 He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit.
 My life shall see the light.'
 29 "Behold, God does all these things, twice, yes three times, with a man, 30 to bring back his soul from the pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
 31 Mark well, Job, and listen to me.
 Hold your peace, and I will speak.
 32 If you have anything to say, answer me.
 Speak, for I desire to justify you.
 33 If not, listen to me.
 Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR

1 Moreover Elihu answered,
 2 "Hear my words, you wise men.
 Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
 3 For the ear tries words,
 as the palate tastes food.
 4 Let us choose for us that which is right.
 Let us know among ourselves what is good.
 5 For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
 God has taken away my right:
 6 Notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar.
 My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience.'
 7 What man is like Job,
 who drinks scorn like water, 8 who goes in company with the workers of iniquity,
 and walks with wicked men?
 9 For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.' 10 "Therefore listen to me, you men of
 understanding:
 far be it from God, that he should do
 wickedness,
 from the Almighty, that he should commit
 iniquity.
 11 For the work of a man he will render to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.
 12 Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert justice.
 13 Who put him in charge of the earth?
 or who has appointed him over the whole world?
 14 If he set his heart on himself, if he gathered to himself his spirit and his breath, 15 all flesh would perish together,
 and man would turn again to dust.
 16 "If now you have understanding, hear this.
 Listen to the voice of my words.
 17 Shall even one who hates justice govern?
 Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty?—

18 Who says to a king, 'Vile!'
 or to nobles, 'Wicked!'?
 19 Who doesn't respect the persons of princes, nor respects the rich more than the poor;
 for they all are the work of his hands.
 20 In a moment they die, even at midnight.
 The people are shaken and pass away.
 The mighty are taken away without a hand.
 21 "For his eyes are on the ways of a man.
 He sees all his goings.
 22 There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
 23 For he doesn't need to consider a man further,
 that he should go before God in judgment.
 24 He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding out,
 and sets others in their place.
 25 Therefore he takes knowledge of their works.
 He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
 26 He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others; 27 because they turned aside from following
 him,
 and wouldn't pay attention to any of his ways, 28 so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him.
 He heard the cry of the afflicted.
 29 When he gives quietness, who then can condemn?
 When he hides his face, who then can see him?
 Alike whether to a nation, or to a man, 30 that the godless man may not reign,
 that there be no one to ensnare the people.
 31 "For has any said to God,
 'I am guilty, but I will not offend any more.
 32 Teach me that which I don't see.
 If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more?'
 33 Shall his recompense be as you desire, that you refuse it?
 For you must choose, and not I.
 Therefore speak what you know.
 34 Men of understanding will tell me,
 yes, every wise man who hears me:
 35 'Job speaks without knowledge.
 His words are without wisdom.'
 36 I wish that Job were tried to the end, because of his answering like wicked men.
 37 For he adds rebellion to his sin.
 He claps his hands among us,
 and multiplies his words against God."

CHAPTER THIRTY-FIVE

1 Moreover Elihu answered,
 2 "Do you think this to be your right, or do you say, 'My righteousness is more than God's.'?
 3 For you ask, 'What advantage will it be to
 you?
 What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?'
 4 I will answer you,
 and your companions with you.
 5 Look to the heavens, and see.
 See the skies, which are higher than you.
 6 If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him?

If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?

7 If you are righteous, what do you give him?
Or what does he receive from your hand?

8 Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are,
and your righteousness may profit a son of man.

9 "By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out.

They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,

11 who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?'

12 There they cry, but no one gives answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear an empty cry, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 How much less when you say you don't see him.

The cause is before him, and you wait for him!

15 But now, because he has not visited in his anger, neither does he greatly regard arrogance.

16 Therefore Job opens his mouth with empty talk, and he multiplies words without knowledge."

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

1 Elihu also continued, and said,

2 "Bear with me a little, and I will show you;
for I still have something to say on God's behalf.

3 I will get my knowledge from afar,
and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words are not false.

One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

5 "Behold, God is mighty, and doesn't despise anyone.

He is mighty in strength of understanding.

6 He doesn't preserve the life of the wicked,
but gives to the afflicted their right.

7 He doesn't withdraw his eyes from the righteous,

but with kings on the throne,

he sets them forever, and they are exalted.

8 If they are bound in fetters,
and are taken in the cords of afflictions,

9 then he shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.

10 He also opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity.

11 If they listen and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity,
and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they don't listen, they shall perish by the sword;

they shall die without knowledge.

13 "But those who are godless in heart lay up anger.

They don't cry for help when he binds them.

14 They die in youth.

Their life perishes among the unclean.

15 He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear in oppression.

16 Yes, he would have allured you out of distress,

into a wide place, where there is no restriction.

That which is set on your table would be full of fatness.

17 "But you are full of the judgment of the wicked.

Judgment and justice take hold of you.

18 Don't let riches entice you to wrath, neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside.

19 Would your wealth sustain you in distress, or all the might of your strength?

20 Don't desire the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, don't regard iniquity;
for you have chosen this rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God is exalted in his power.

Who is a teacher like him?

23 Who has prescribed his way for him?

Or who can say, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'

24 "Remember that you magnify his work, whereof men have sung.

25 All men have looked on it.

Man sees it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we don't know him.

The number of his years is unsearchable.

27 For he draws up the drops of water, which distill in rain from his vapor,

28 Which the skies pour down and which drop on man abundantly.

29 Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds, and the thunderings of his pavilion?

30 Behold, he spreads his light around him.

He covers the bottom of the sea.

31 For by these he judges the people.

He gives food in abundance.

32 He covers his hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark.

33 Its noise tells about him, and the livestock also concerning the storm that comes up.

CHAPTER THIRTY-SEVEN

1 "Yes, at this my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place.

2 Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice,
the sound that goes out of his mouth.

3 He sends it out under the whole sky, and his lightning to the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roars.

He thunders with the voice of his majesty.

He doesn't hold back anything when his voice is heard.

5 God thunders marvelously with his voice.

He does great things, which we can't comprehend.

6 For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth;'

likewise to the shower of rain, and to the showers of his mighty rain.

7 He seals up the hand of every man, that all men whom he has made may know it.

8 Then the animals take cover, and remain in their dens.

9 Out of its room comes the storm, and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God, ice is given,

and the width of the waters is frozen.
 11 Yes, he loads the thick cloud with moisture.
 He spreads abroad the cloud of his lightning.
 12 It is turned around by his guidance, that they may do whatever he commands them on the surface of the habitable world, 13 Whether it is for correction, or for his land, or for loving kindness, that he causes it to come.
 14 "Listen to this, Job.
 Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
 15 Do you know how God controls them,
 and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
 16 Do you know the workings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
 17 You whose clothing is warm, when the earth is still by reason of the south
 wind?
 18 Can you, with him, spread out the sky,
 which is strong as a cast metal mirror?
 19 Teach us what we shall tell him, for we can't make our case by reason of darkness.
 20 Will it be told him that I would speak?
 Or should a man wish that he were swallowed
 up?
 21 Now men don't see the light which is bright in the skies,
 but the wind passes, and clears them.
 22 Out of the north comes golden splendor.
 With God is awesome majesty.
 23 We can't reach the Almighty.
 He is exalted in power.
 In justice and great righteousness, he will not oppress.
 24 Therefore men revere him.
 He doesn't regard any who are wise of heart."
CHAPTER THIRTY-EIGHT
 1 Then Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind,
 2 "Who is this who darkens counsel
 by words without knowledge?
 3 Brace yourself like a man,
 for I will question you, then you answer me!
 4 "Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
 Declare, if you have understanding.
 5 Who determined its measures, if you know?
 Or who stretched the line on it?
 6 Whereupon were its foundations fastened?
 Or who laid its cornerstone,
 7 when the morning stars sang together,
 and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
 8 "Or who shut up the sea with doors,
 when it broke out of the womb, 9 when I made clouds its garment, and wrapped it in thick darkness, 10 marked out for it my bound,
 set bars and doors, 11 and said, 'Here you may come, but no
 further.
 Here your proud waves shall be stayed?'
 12 "Have you commanded the morning in your days,
 and caused the dawn to know its place; 13 that it might take hold of the ends of the earth,

and shake the wicked out of it?
 14 It is changed as clay under the seal,
 and presented as a garment.
 15 From the wicked, their light is withheld.
 The high arm is broken.
 16 "Have you entered into the springs of the sea?
 Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?
 17 Have the gates of death been revealed to
 you?
 Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
 18 Have you comprehended the earth in its width?
 Declare, if you know it all.
 19 "What is the way to the dwelling of light?
 As for darkness, where is its place, 20 that you should take it to its bound,
 that you should discern the paths to its house?
 21 Surely you know, for you were born then,
 and the number of your days is great!
 22 Have you entered the treasuries of the snow,
 or have you seen the treasures of the hail, 23 which I have reserved against the time of trouble,
 against the day of battle and war?
 24 By what way is the lightning distributed,
 or the east wind scattered on the earth?
 25 Who has cut a channel for the flood water, or the path for the thunderstorm;
 26 to cause it to rain on a land where no man is;
 on the wilderness, in which there is no man; 27 to satisfy the waste and desolate ground,
 to cause the tender grass to grow?
 28 Does the rain have a father?
 Or who fathers the drops of dew?
 29 Out of whose womb came the ice?
 The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth
 to it?
 30 The waters become hard like stone,
 when the surface of the deep is frozen.
 31 "Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion?
 32 Can you lead the constellations out in their season?
 Or can you guide the Bear with her cubs?
 33 Do you know the laws of the heavens?
 Can you establish its dominion over the earth?
 34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
 that abundance of waters may cover you?
 35 Can you send out lightnings, that they may go?
 Do they report to you, 'Here we are?'
 36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts?
 Or who has given understanding to the mind?
 37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
 Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky, 38 when the dust runs into a mass,
 and the clods of earth stick together?
 39 "Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 40 when they crouch in their dens,
 and lie in wait in the thicket?
 41 Who provides for the raven his prey, when his young ones cry to God,

and wander for lack of food?

CHAPTER THIRTY-NINE

1 "Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth?

Do you watch when the doe bears fawns?

2 Can you number the months that they fulfill?

Or do you know the time when they give birth?

3 They bow themselves, they bear their young.

They end their labor pains.

4 Their young ones become strong.

They grow up in the open field.

They go out, and don't return again.

5 "Who has set the wild donkey free?

Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey,

6 whose home I have made the wilderness, and the salt land his dwelling place?

7 He scorns the tumult of the city, neither does he hear the shouting of the driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,

He searches after every green thing.

9 "Will the wild ox be content to serve you?

Or will he stay by your feeding trough?

10 Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with his harness?

Or will he till the valleys after you?

11 Will you trust him, because his strength is great?

Or will you leave to him your labor?

12 Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed, and gather the grain of your threshing floor?

13 "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly;
but are they the feathers and plumage of love?

14 For she leaves her eggs on the earth,

warms them in the dust,

15 and forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild animal may trample them.

16 She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers.

Though her labor is in vain, she is without fear,

17 because God has deprived her of wisdom,

neither has he imparted to her understanding.

18 When she lifts up herself on high,

she scorns the horse and his rider.

19 "Have you given the horse might?

Have you clothed his neck with a quivering mane?

20 Have you made him to leap as a locust?

The glory of his snorting is awesome.

21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength.

He goes out to meet the armed men.

22 He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed, neither does he turn back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattles against him,

the flashing spear and the javelin.

24 He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, neither does he stand still at the sound of the trumpet.

25 As often as the trumpet sounds he snorts, 'Aha!'

He smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and stretches her wings toward the south?

27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts

up,

and makes his nest on high?

28 On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home, on the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.

29 From there he spies out the prey.

His eyes see it afar off.

30 His young ones also suck up blood.

Where the slain are, there he is."

CHAPTER FORTY

1 Moreover Jehovah answered Job,

2 "Shall he who argues contend with the Almighty?

He who argues with God, let him answer it."

3 Then Job answered Jehovah,

4 "Behold, I am of small account. What shall I answer you?

I lay my hand on my mouth.

5 I have spoken once, and I will not answer;

Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

6 Then Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind,

7 "Now brace yourself like a man.

I will question you, and you will answer me.

8 Will you even annul my judgment?

Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?

9 Or do you have an arm like God?

Can you thunder with a voice like him?

10 "Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity.

Array yourself with honor and majesty.

11 Pour out the fury of your anger.

Look at everyone who is proud, and bring him low.

12 Look at everyone who is proud, and humble him.

Crush the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together.

Bind their faces in the hidden place.

14 Then I will also admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

15 "See now, behemoth, which I made as well as you.

He eats grass as an ox.

16 Look now, his strength is in his thighs.

His force is in the muscles of his belly.

17 He moves his tail like a cedar.

The sinews of his thighs are knit together.

18 His bones are like tubes of brass.

His limbs are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God.

He who made him gives him his sword.

20 Surely the mountains produce food for him,
where all the animals of the field play.

21 He lies under the lotus trees,

in the covert of the reed, and the marsh.

22 The lotuses cover him with their shade.

The willows of the brook surround him.

23 Behold, if a river overflows, he doesn't tremble.

He is confident, though the Jordan swells even to his mouth.

24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch, or pierce through his nose with a snare?

CHAPTER FORTY-ONE

1 "Can you draw out Leviathan with a fish hook, or press down his tongue with a cord?

2 Can you put a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
 3 Will he make many petitions to you,
 or will he speak soft words to you?
 4 Will he make a covenant with you,
 that you should take him for a servant forever?
 5 Will you play with him as with a bird?
 Or will you bind him for your girls?
 6 Will traders barter for him?
 Will they part him among the merchants?
 7 Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, or his head with fish spears?
 8 Lay your hand on him.
 Remember the battle, and do so no more.
 9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain.
 Won't one be cast down even at the sight of
 him?
 10 None is so fierce that he dare stir him up.
 Who then is he who can stand before me?
 11 Who has first given to me, that I should repay him?
 Everything under the heavens is mine.
 12 "I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
 13 Who can strip off his outer garment?
 Who shall come within his jaws?
 14 Who can open the doors of his face?
 Around his teeth is terror.
 15 Strong scales are his pride, shut up together with a close seal.
 16 One is so near to another,
 that no air can come between them.
 17 They are joined to one another.
 They stick together, so that they can't be pulled apart.
 18 His sneezing flashes out light.
 His eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
 19 Out of his mouth go burning torches.
 Sparks of fire leap out.
 20 Out of his nostrils a smoke goes,
 as of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.
 21 His breath kindles coals.
 A flame goes out of his mouth.
 22 There is strength in his neck.
 Terror dances before him.
 23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together.
 They are firm on him.
 They can't be moved.
 24 His heart is as firm as a stone,
 yes, firm as the lower millstone.
 25 When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid.
 They retreat before his thrashing.
 26 If one attacks him with the sword, it can't prevail;
 nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.
 27 He counts iron as straw;
 and brass as rotten wood.
 28 The arrow can't make him flee.
 Sling stones are like chaff to him.
 29 Clubs are counted as stubble.
 He laughs at the rushing of the javelin.
 30 His undersides are like sharp potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.
 31 He makes the deep to boil like a pot.
 He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
 32 He makes a path shine after him.

One would think the deep had white hair.
 33 On earth there is not his equal,
 that is made without fear.
 34 He sees everything that is high.
 He is king over all the sons of pride."
CHAPTER FORTY-TWO
 1 Then Job answered Jehovah,
 2 "I know that you can do all things,
 and that no purpose of yours can be restrained.
 3 You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?'
 therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand,
 things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know.
 4 You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak;
 I will question you, and you will answer me.'
 5 I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you.
 6 Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

7 It was so, that after Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, Jehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me rightly, as my servant Job has.
 8 Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me rightly, as my servant Job has."

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did what Jehovah commanded them, and Jehovah accepted Job.

10 Jehovah turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. Jehovah gave Job twice as much as he had before. 11 Then all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, came to him and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that Jehovah had brought on him. Everyone also gave him a piece of money, and everyone a ring of gold.

12 So Jehovah blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys. 13 He had also seven sons and three daughters. 14 He called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah;
 and the name of the third, Keren Happuch. 15 In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. 16 After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations.
 17 So Job died, being old and full of days.

PSALMS

BOOK I

PSALM 1

1 Blessed is the man who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand on the path of sinners,
nor sit in the seat of scoffers;
2 but his delight is in Jehovah's law.
On his law he meditates day and night.

3 He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that produces its fruit in its season,
whose leaf also does not wither.
Whatever he does shall prosper.

4 The wicked are not so,
but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.

5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For Jehovah knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 2

1 Why do the nations rage,
and the peoples plot a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth take a stand,
and the rulers take counsel together, against Jehovah, and against his Anointed,* saying,

3 "Let's break their bonds apart, and cast their cords from us."

4 He who sits in the heavens will laugh.
The Lord will have them in derision.

5 Then he will speak to them in his anger,
and terrify them in his wrath:

6 "Yet I have set my King on my holy hill of Zion."

7 I will tell of the decree.
Jehovah said to me, "You are my son.

Today I have become your father.

8 Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.

9 You shall break them with a rod of iron.

You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."

10 Now therefore be wise, you kings.

Be instructed, you judges of the earth.

11 Serve Jehovah with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Give sincere homage to the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish on the way, for his wrath will soon be kindled.

Blessed are all those who take refuge in him.

PSALM 3

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

1 Jehovah, how my adversaries have increased!
Many are those who rise up against me.

2 Many there are who say of my soul,
"There is no help for him in God."

Selah.

3 But you, Jehovah, are a shield around me,
my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

4 I cry to Jehovah with my voice, and he answers me out of his holy hill.

Selah.

5 I laid myself down and slept.

I awakened; for Jehovah sustains me.

6 I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

7 Arise, Jehovah!

Save me, my God!

For you have struck all of my enemies on the cheek bone.

You have broken the teeth of the wicked.

8 Salvation belongs to Jehovah.

Your blessing be on your people.

Selah.

PSALM 4

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by David.

1 Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness.

Give me relief from my distress.

Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

2 You sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonor?

Will you love vanity, and seek after falsehood?

Selah.

3 But know that Jehovah has set apart for himself him who is godly:

Jehovah will hear when I call to him.

4 Stand in awe, and don't sin.

Search your own heart on your bed, and be still.

Selah.

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness.

Put your trust in Jehovah.

6 Many say, "Who will show us any good?"

Jehovah, let the light of your face shine on us.

7 You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and their new wine are increased.

8 In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep, for you, Jehovah alone, make me live in safety.

PSALM 5

For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David.

1 Give ear to my words, Jehovah.

* 2:1-2 The early Christian disciples in Jerusalem applied this passage in prayer to what had been done to Jesus the Messiah (which means Anointed One): "For truly, in this city against your holy servant, Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen."—Acts 4:27-28

The Psalm goes on to refer to the time when all the nations to "the uttermost parts of the earth" will be subdued by Christ the King.

Consider my meditation.

2 Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God;

for to you do I pray.

3 Jehovah, in the morning you shall hear my voice.

In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and will watch expectantly.

4 For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness.

Evil can't live with you.

5 The arrogant shall not stand in your sight.

You hate all workers of iniquity.

6 You will destroy those who speak lies.

Jehovah abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will come into your house.

I will bow toward your holy temple in reverence of you.

8 Lead me, Jehovah, in your righteousness because of my enemies.

Make your way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth.

Their heart is destruction.

Their throat is an open tomb.

They flatter with their tongue.

10 Hold them guilty, God.

Let them fall by their own counsels;

Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.

11 But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice,

Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them.

Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.

12 For you will bless the righteous.

Jehovah, you will surround him with favor as with a shield.

PSALM 6

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by David.

1 Jehovah, don't rebuke me in your anger, neither discipline me in your wrath.

2 Have mercy on me, Jehovah, for I am faint. Jehovah, heal me, for my bones are troubled.

3 My soul is also in great anguish.

But you, Jehovah—how long?

4 Return, Jehovah. Deliver my soul, and save me for your loving kindness' sake.

5 For in death there is no memory of you.

In Sheol, who shall give you thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning.

Every night I flood my bed.

I drench my couch with my tears.

7 My eye wastes away because of grief.

It grows old because of all my adversaries.

8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for Jehovah has heard the voice of my weeping.

9 Jehovah has heard my supplication.

Jehovah accepts my prayer.

10 May all my enemies be ashamed and dismayed.

They shall turn back, they shall be disgraced suddenly.

PSALM 7

A meditation by David, which he sang to Jehovah, concerning the words of Cush, the Benjamite.

1 Jehovah, my God, I take refuge in you.

Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me,

2 lest they tear apart my soul like a lion, ripping it in pieces, while there is no one to deliver.

3 Jehovah, my God, if I have done this, if there is iniquity in my hands,

4 if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me

(yes, if I have delivered him who without cause was my adversary),

5 let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;

yes, let him tread my life down to the earth, and lay my glory in the dust.

Selah.

6 Arise, Jehovah, in your anger.

Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries.

Awake for me. You have commanded judgment.

7 Let the congregation of the peoples surround you.

Rule over them on high.

8 Jehovah administers judgment to the peoples.

Judge me, Jehovah, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,

but establish the righteous;

their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God.

10 My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

11 God is a righteous judge,

yes, a God who has indignation every day.

12 If a man doesn't relent, he will sharpen his sword;

he has bent and strung his bow.

13 He has also prepared for himself the instruments of death.

He makes ready his flaming arrows.

14 Behold, he travails with iniquity.

Yes, he has conceived mischief,

and brought out falsehood.

15 He has dug a hole, and has fallen into the pit which he made.

16 The trouble he causes shall return to his own head.

His violence shall come down on the crown of his own head.

17 I will give thanks to Jehovah according to his righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of Jehovah Most High.

PSALM 8

For the Chief Musician; on an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by David.

1 Jehovah, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth, who has set your glory above the heavens!

2 From the lips of babes and infants you have established strength, because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have ordained;

4 what is man, that you think of him?

What is the son of man, that you care for him?

5 For you have made him a little lower than angels, and crowned him with glory and honor.

6 You make him ruler over the works of your hands.

You have put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and cattle,

yes, and the animals of the field,

8 the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and whatever passes through the paths of the seas.

9 Jehovah, our Lord,

how majestic is your name in all the earth!

PSALM 9

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Death of the Son." A Psalm by David.

1 I will give thanks to Jehovah with my whole heart.

I will tell of all your marvelous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in you.

I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

3 When my enemies turn back,
they stumble and perish in your presence.

4 For you have maintained my just cause.

You sit on the throne judging righteously.

5 You have rebuked the nations.

You have destroyed the wicked.

You have blotted out their name forever and ever.

6 The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin.

The very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished.

7 But Jehovah reigns forever.

He has prepared his throne for judgment.

8 He will judge the world in righteousness.

He will administer judgment to the peoples in uprightness.

9 Jehovah will also be a high tower for the oppressed;

a high tower in times of trouble.

10 Those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you, Jehovah, have not forsaken those who seek you.

11 Sing praises to Jehovah, who dwells in Zion, and declare among the people what he has done.

12 For he who avenges blood remembers them.

He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.

13 Have mercy on me, Jehovah.

See my affliction by those who hate me,
and lift me up from the gates of death;

14 that I may show all of your praise.

In the gates of the daughter of Zion, I will rejoice in your salvation.

15 The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made.

In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.

16 Jehovah has made himself known.

He has executed judgment.

The wicked is snared by the work of his own hands.

Meditation. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.

19 Arise, Jehovah! Don't let man prevail.

Let the nations be judged in your sight.

20 Put them in fear, Jehovah.

Let the nations know that they are only men.

Selah.

PSALM 10

1 Why do you stand far off, Jehovah?

Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

2 In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak.

They are caught in the schemes that they devise.

3 For the wicked boasts of his heart's cravings.

He blesses the greedy, and condemns Jehovah.

4 The wicked, in the pride of his face, has no room in his thoughts for God.

5 His ways are prosperous at all times.

He is haughty, and your laws are far from his sight.

As for all his adversaries, he sneers at them.

6 He says in his heart, "I shall not be shaken.

For generations I shall have no trouble."

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression.

Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.

8 He lies in wait near the villages.

From ambushes, he murders the innocent.

His eyes are secretly set against the helpless.

9 He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush.

He lies in wait to catch the helpless.

He catches the helpless, when he draws him in his net.

10 The helpless are crushed.

They collapse.

They fall under his strength.

11 He says in his heart, "God has forgotten.

He hides his face.

He will never see it."

12 Arise, Jehovah!

God, lift up your hand!

Don't forget the helpless.

13 Why does the wicked person condemn God, and say in his heart, "God won't call me into account"?

14 But you do see trouble and grief.

You consider it to take it into your hand.

The poor commits himself to you.

You help the victim and the fatherless.

15 Break the arm of the wicked.

As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none.

16 Jehovah is King forever and ever!

The nations will perish out of his land.

17 Jehovah, you have heard the desire of the humble.

You will prepare their heart.

You will cause your ear to hear,

18 to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that man who is of the earth may terrify no more.

PSALM 11

For the Chief Musician. By David.

1 In Jehovah, I take refuge.
 How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain!"?
 2 For, behold, the wicked bend their bows.
 They set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.
 3 If the foundations are destroyed,
 what can the righteous do?
 4 Jehovah is in his holy temple.
 Jehovah is on his throne in heaven.
 His eyes observe.
 His eyes examine the children of men.
 5 Jehovah examines the righteous,
 but the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates.
 6 On the wicked he will rain blazing coals;
 fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.
 7 For Jehovah is righteous.
 He loves righteousness.
 The upright shall see his face.

PSALM 12

For the Chief Musician; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David.

1 Help, Jehovah; for the godly man ceases.
 For the faithful fail from among the children of men.
 2 Everyone lies to his neighbor.
 They speak with flattering lips, and with a double heart.
 3 May Jehovah cut off all flattering lips,
 and the tongue that boasts,
 4 who have said, "With our tongue we will prevail.
 Our lips are our own.
 Who is lord over us?"
 5 "Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy,
 I will now arise," says Jehovah;
 "I will set him in safety from those who malign him."
 6 Jehovah's words are flawless words, as silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times.
 7 You will keep them, Jehovah.
 You will preserve them from this generation forever.
 8 The wicked walk on every side, when what is vile is exalted among the sons of men.

PSALM 13

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 How long, Jehovah?
 Will you forget me forever?
 How long will you hide your face from me?
 2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
 having sorrow in my heart every day?
 How long shall my enemy triumph over me?
 3 Behold, and answer me, Jehovah, my God.
 Give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;
 4 Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him;"
 lest my adversaries rejoice when I fall.
 5 But I trust in your loving kindness.
 My heart rejoices in your salvation.
 6 I will sing to Jehovah, because he has been good to me.

PSALM 14

For the Chief Musician. By David.

1 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."
 They are corrupt.
 They have done abominable deeds.
 There is no one who does good.
 2 Jehovah looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there were any who understood,
 who sought after God.
 3 They have all gone aside.
 They have together become corrupt.
 There is no one who does good, no, not one.
 4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
 who eat up my people as they eat bread,
 and don't call on Jehovah?
 5 There they were in great fear,
 for God is in the generation of the righteous.
 6 You frustrate the plan of the poor,
 because Jehovah is his refuge.
 7 Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
 When Jehovah restores the fortunes of his people, then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 15

A Psalm by David.

1 Jehovah, who shall dwell in your sanctuary?
 Who shall live on your holy hill?
 2 He who walks blamelessly, does what is right, and speaks truth in his heart;
 3 He who doesn't slander with his tongue,
 nor does evil to his friend,
 nor casts slurs against his fellow man;
 4 In whose eyes a vile man is despised,
 but who honors those who fear Jehovah;
 he who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change;
 5 he who doesn't lend out his money for usury, nor take a bribe against the innocent.
 He who does these things shall never be shaken.

PSALM 16

A Poem by David.

1 Preserve me, God, for in you do I take refuge.
 2 My soul, you have said to Jehovah, "You are my Lord.
 Apart from you I have no good thing."
 3 As for the saints who are in the earth, they are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.
 4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied who give gifts to another god.
 Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer,
 nor take their names on my lips.
 5 Jehovah assigned my portion and my cup.
 You made my lot secure.
 6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places.
 Yes, I have a good inheritance.
 7 I will bless Jehovah, who has given me counsel.
 Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.
 8 I have set Jehovah always before me.
 Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices.

My body shall also dwell in safety.

10 For you will not leave my soul in Sheol, neither will you allow your holy one to see corruption.

11 You will show me the path of life.

In your presence is fullness of joy.

In your right hand there are pleasures forever more.

PSALM 17

A Prayer by David.

1 Hear, Jehovah, my righteous plea;

Attend to my cry.

Give ear to my prayer, that doesn't go out of deceitful lips.

2 Let my sentence come out of your presence.

Let your eyes look on equity.

3 You have proved my heart.

You have visited me in the night.

You have tried me, and found nothing.

I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey.

4 As for the deeds of men, by the word of your lips,

I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.

5 My steps have held fast to your paths.

My feet have not slipped.

6 I have called on you, for you will answer me, God.

Turn your ear to me.

Hear my speech.

7 Show your marvelous loving kindness, you who save those who take refuge by your right hand from their enemies.

8 Keep me as the apple of your eye.

Hide me under the shadow of your wings,

9 from the wicked who oppress me,

my deadly enemies, who surround me.

10 They close up their callous hearts.

With their mouth they speak proudly.

11 They have now surrounded us in our steps.

They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.

12 He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, Jehovah, confront him.

Cast him down.

Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;

14 from men by your hand, Jehovah, from men of the world, whose portion is in this life.

You fill the belly of your cherished ones.

Your sons have plenty,

and they store up wealth for their children.

15 As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness.

I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form.

PSALM 18

For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of Jehovah, who spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said,

1 I love you, Jehovah, my strength.

2 Jehovah is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;

my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge;

my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

3 I call on Jehovah, who is worthy to be praised;

and I am saved from my enemies.

4 The cords of death surrounded me.

The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

5 The cords of Sheol were around me.

The snares of death came on me.

6 In my distress I called on Jehovah, and cried to my God.

He heard my voice out of his temple.

My cry before him came into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled.

The foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken, because he was angry.

8 Smoke went out of his nostrils.

Consuming fire came out of his mouth.

Coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down.

Thick darkness was under his feet.

10 He rode on a cherub, and flew.

Yes, he soared on the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion around him, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed, hailstones and coals of fire.

13 Jehovah also thundered in the sky.

The Most High uttered his voice:

hailstones and coals of fire.

14 He sent out his arrows, and scattered them;

Yes, great lightning bolts, and routed them.

15 Then the channels of waters appeared.

The foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, Jehovah, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.

16 He sent from on high.

He took me.

He drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.

18 They came on me in the day of my calamity, but Jehovah was my support.

19 He brought me out also into a large place.

He delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 Jehovah has rewarded me according to my righteousness.

According to the cleanness of my hands has he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of Jehovah, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his ordinances were before me.

I didn't put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also blameless with him.

I kept myself from my iniquity.

24 Therefore Jehovah has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

25 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful.

With the perfect man, you will show yourself perfect.

26 With the pure, you will show yourself pure.
With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.

27 For you will save the afflicted people,
but the haughty eyes you will bring down.

28 For you will light my lamp, Jehovah.
My God will light up my darkness.

29 For by you, I advance through a troop.
By my God, I leap over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect.
Jehovah's word is tried.

He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.

31 For who is God, except Jehovah?
Who is a rock, besides our God,

32 The God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect?

33 He makes my feet like deer's feet,
and sets me on my high places.

34 He teaches my hands to war,
so that my arms bend a bow of bronze.

35 You have also given me the shield of your salvation.

Your right hand sustains me.
Your gentleness has made me great.

36 You have enlarged my steps under me.
My feet have not slipped.

37 I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them.

Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.

38 I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise.

They shall fall under my feet.

39 For you have armed me with strength to the battle.

You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

40 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me,
that I might cut off those who hate me.

41 They cried, but there was no one to save;
even to Jehovah, but he didn't answer them.

42 Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind.

I cast them out as the mire of the streets.

43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people.

You have made me the head of the nations.

A people whom I have not known shall serve
me.

44 As soon as they hear of me they shall obey
me.

The foreigners shall submit themselves to me.

45 The foreigners shall fade away, and shall come trembling out of their close places.

46 Jehovah lives; and blessed be my rock.

Exalted be the God of my salvation,

47 even the God who executes vengeance for
me,

and subdues peoples under me.

48 He rescues me from my enemies.

Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me.

You deliver me from the violent man.

49 Therefore I will give thanks to you, Jehovah,

among the nations,

and will sing praises to your name.

50 He gives great deliverance to his king,
and shows loving kindness to his anointed,
to David and to his offspring, forever more.

PSALM 19

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 The heavens declare the glory of God.
The expanse shows his handiwork.

2 Day after day they pour out speech, and night after night they display knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their voice has gone out through all the
earth,

their words to the end of the world.

In them he has set a tent for the sun,

5 which is as a bridegroom coming out of his room,

like a strong man rejoicing to run his course.

6 His going out is from the end of the heavens,
his circuit to its ends;

There is nothing hidden from its heat.

7 Jehovah's law is perfect, restoring the soul.

Jehovah's testimony is sure, making wise the simple.

8 Jehovah's precepts are right, rejoicing the
heart.

Jehovah's commandment is pure, enlightening
the eyes.

9 The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring forever.

Jehovah's ordinances are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yes,
than much fine gold;

sweeter also than honey and the extract of the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is your servant warned.

In keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can discern his errors?

Forgive me from hidden errors.

13 Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins.

Let them not have dominion over me.

Then I will be upright.

I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

be acceptable in your sight,

Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

PSALM 20

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 May Jehovah answer you in the day of trouble.

May the name of the God of Jacob set you up on high,

2 send you help from the sanctuary,

grant you support from Zion,

3 remember all your offerings, and accept your burnt sacrifice.

Selah.

4 May He grant you your heart's desire,
and fulfill all your counsel.

5 We will triumph in your salvation.

In the name of our God, we will set up our banners.

May Jehovah grant all your requests.

6 Now I know that Jehovah saves his anointed.
He will answer him from his holy heaven,
with the saving strength of his right hand.
7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,
but we trust the name of Jehovah our God.
8 They are bowed down and fallen,
but we rise up, and stand upright.
9 Save, Jehovah!
Let the King answer us when we call!

PSALM 21

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 The king rejoices in your strength, Jehovah!
How greatly he rejoices in your salvation!
2 You have given him his heart's desire,
and have not withheld the request of his lips.

Selah.

3 For you meet him with the blessings of goodness.

You set a crown of fine gold on his head.

4 He asked life of you, you gave it to him, even length of days forever and ever.

5 His glory is great in your salvation.

You lay honor and majesty on him.

6 For you make him most blessed forever.

You make him glad with joy in your presence.

7 For the king trusts in Jehovah.

Through the loving kindness of the Most High,
he shall not be moved.

8 Your hand will find out all of your enemies.

Your right hand will find out those who hate you.

9 You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger.

Jehovah will swallow them up in his wrath.

The fire shall devour them.

10 You will destroy their descendants from the earth, their posterity from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against you.

They plotted evil against you which cannot succeed.

12 For you will make them turn their back,
when you aim drawn bows at their face.

13 Be exalted, Jehovah, in your strength, so we will sing and praise your power.

PSALM 22

For the Chief Musician; set to "The Doe of the Morning." A Psalm by David.

1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?*

Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?

2 My God, I cry in the daytime, but you don't answer;

in the night season, and am not silent.

3 But you are holy,
you who inhabit the praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in you.

They trusted, and you delivered them.

5 They cried to you, and were delivered.

They trusted in you, and were not disappointed.

6 But I am a worm, and no man;

a reproach of men, and despised by the people.

7 All those who see me mock me.

They insult me with their lips.

They shake their heads, saying,

8 "He trusts in Jehovah;

let him deliver him.

Let him rescue him, since he delights in him."†

9 But you brought me out of the womb.

You made me trust at my mother's breasts.

10 I was thrown on you from my mother's womb.

You are my God since my mother bore me.

11 Don't be far from me, for trouble is near.
For there is no one to help.

12 Many bulls have surrounded me.

Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me.

13 They open their mouths wide against me, lions tearing prey and roaring.

14 I am poured out like water.

All my bones are out of joint.

My heart is like wax;

it is melted within me.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd.

My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.

You have brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have surrounded me.

A company of evildoers have enclosed me.

They have pierced my hands and feet.‡

17 I can count all of my bones.

They look and stare at me.

18 They divide my garments among them.

They cast lots for my clothing.§

19 But don't be far off, Jehovah.

You are my help: hurry to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword,
my precious life from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth!

Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen, you have

* 22:1 These are the words Jesus spoke on the cross around a thousand years after this Psalm was written. See Matt. 27:46 and Mark 15:34. Subsequent verses describe prophetically other aspects of Jesus' crucifixion.

The fulfillment of ancient Jewish prophecies concerning the Messiah should strengthen our faith that the remaining end-times prophecies will also be fulfilled.

† 22:7-8 Compare Matt. 27:41-44 to see how this was fulfilled when Jesus' enemies ridiculed him as he hung on the cross: "Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes, the Pharisees, and the elders, said, 'He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, "I am the Son of God."' The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach."

§ 22:18 As Jesus hung on the cross, the soldiers cast lots and divided his clothing—as prophesied here a thousand years before it occurred. Compare Matt. 27:35, Mark 15:24, Luke 23:34 and John 19:24.

22 I will declare your name to my brothers.

Among the assembly, I will praise you.

23 You who fear Jehovah, praise him!

All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him!

Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!

24 For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted,

Neither has he hidden his face from him;
but when he cried to him, he heard.

25 Of you comes my praise in the great assembly.

I will pay my vows before those who fear him.

26 The humble shall eat and be satisfied.

They shall praise Jehovah who seek after him.

Let your hearts live forever.

27 All the ends of the earth* shall remember and turn to Jehovah.

All the relatives of the nations shall worship before you.

28 For the kingdom is Jehovah's.

He is the ruler over the nations.

29 All the rich ones of the earth shall eat and worship.

All those who go down to the dust shall bow before him, even he who can't keep his soul alive.

30 Posterity shall serve him.

Future generations shall be told about the Lord.

31 They shall come and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born, for he has done it.

PSALM 23

A Psalm by David.

1 Jehovah is my shepherd:

I shall lack nothing.

2 He makes me lie down in green pastures.

He leads me beside still waters.

3 He restores my soul.

He guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for you are with me.

Your rod and your staff,

they comfort me.

5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil.

My cup runs over.

* 22:27 Written a thousand years before Christ, this would have seemed nearly impossible to people at that time. Only the Hebrew tribes worshiped the God of Abraham, while the rest of mankind worshiped various gods and goddesses.

Centuries later, Christ's parting words at Matthew 28:19 were, "Go, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them . . .," and that worldwide disciple-making brought about the fulfillment of this Psalm's prophecy that nations at the ends of the earth would turn back to the God of the Bible.

Bible prophecies that foretold the God of Abraham would be worshiped by people of all nations can be found at Psalm 22:27, Psalm 66:4, Psalm 67:2, Psalm 67:7, Psalm 86:9, Jeremiah 16:19-20, Zechariah 14:16, Malachi 1:11 and Revelation 15:4.

The partial fulfillment of these prophecies gives us reason to believe the other Bible prophecies about the 'end times' we are living in today. See also the note at Psalm 86:9.

6 Surely goodness and loving kindness shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in Jehovah's house forever.

PSALM 24

A Psalm by David.

1 The earth is Jehovah's, with its fullness;
the world, and those who dwell therein.

2 For he has founded it on the seas,
and established it on the floods.

3 Who may ascend to Jehovah's hill?

Who may stand in his holy place?

4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart;
who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood,
and has not sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive a blessing from Jehovah, righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek your face—even Jacob.

Selah.

7 Lift up your heads, you gates!

Be lifted up, you everlasting doors,

and the King of glory will come in.

8 Who is the King of glory?

Jehovah strong and mighty,

Jehovah mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, you gates;

yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors,

and the King of glory will come in.

10 Who is this King of glory?

Jehovah of Armies is the King of glory!

Selah.

PSALM 25

By David.

1 To you, Jehovah, do I lift up my soul.

2 My God, I have trusted in you.

Don't let me be shamed.

Don't let my enemies triumph over me.

3 Yes, no one who waits for you shall be shamed.

They shall be shamed who deal treacherously without cause.

4 Show me your ways, Jehovah.

Teach me your paths.

5 Guide me in your truth, and teach me,

for you are the God of my salvation,

I wait for you all day long.

6 Jehovah, remember your tender mercies and your loving kindness, for they are from old times.

7 Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions.

Remember me according to your loving kindness, for your goodness' sake, Jehovah.

8 Good and upright is Jehovah, therefore he will instruct sinners in the way.

9 He will guide the humble in justice.

He will teach the humble his way.

10 All the paths of Jehovah are loving kindness and truth to such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

11 For your name's sake, Jehovah, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.

12 What man is he who fears Jehovah?

He shall instruct him in the way that he shall choose.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease.

His offspring shall inherit the land.

14 The friendship of Jehovah is with those who fear him.

He will show them his covenant.

15 My eyes are ever on Jehovah, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged.
Oh bring me out of my distresses.

18 Consider my affliction and my travail.
Forgive all my sins.

19 Consider my enemies, for they are many.
They hate me with cruel hatred.

20 Oh keep my soul, and deliver me.

Let me not be disappointed, for I take refuge in you.

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you.

22 Redeem Israel, God, out of all his troubles.

PSALM 26

By David.

1 Judge me, Jehovah, for I have walked in my integrity.

I have trusted also in Jehovah without wavering.

2 Examine me, Jehovah, and prove me.
Try my heart and my mind.

3 For your loving kindness is before my eyes.
I have walked in your truth.

4 I have not sat with deceitful men, neither will I go in with hypocrites.

5 I hate the assembly of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wash my hands in innocence,
so I will go about your altar, Jehovah;

7 that I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, and tell of all your wondrous deeds.

8 Jehovah, I love the habitation of your house,
the place where your glory dwells.

9 Don't gather my soul with sinners,
nor my life with bloodthirsty men;

10 in whose hands is wickedness, their right hand is full of bribes.

11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity.
Redeem me, and be merciful to me.

12 My foot stands in an even place.

In the congregations I will bless Jehovah.

PSALM 27

By David.

1 Jehovah is my light and my salvation.
Whom shall I fear?

Jehovah is the strength of my life.
Of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an army should encamp against me,
my heart shall not fear.

Though war should rise against me,
even then I will be confident.

4 One thing I have asked of Jehovah, that I will seek after, that I may dwell in Jehovah's house all the days of my life,

to see Jehovah's beauty,

and to inquire in his temple.

5 For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion.

In the covert of his tabernacle he will hide me.
He will lift me up on a rock.

6 Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me.

I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent.

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to Jehovah.

7 Hear, Jehovah, when I cry with my voice.
Have mercy also on me, and answer me.

8 When you said, "Seek my face,"
my heart said to you, "I will seek your face, Jehovah."

9 Don't hide your face from me.

Don't put your servant away in anger.

You have been my help.

Don't abandon me,

neither forsake me, God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then Jehovah will take me up.

11 Teach me your way, Jehovah.

Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies.

12 Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen up against me,

such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I am still confident of this:

I will see the goodness of Jehovah in the land of the living.

14 Wait for Jehovah.

Be strong, and let your heart take courage.

Yes, wait for Jehovah.

PSALM 28

By David.

1 To you, Jehovah, I call.

My rock, don't be deaf to me;

lest, if you are silent to me,

I would become like those who go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to you,

when I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.

3 Don't draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of iniquity who speak peace with their neighbors,

but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings.

Give them according to the operation of their hands.

Bring back on them what they deserve.

5 Because they don't respect the works of Jehovah, nor the operation of his hands,

he will break them down and not build them up.

6 Blessed be Jehovah,

because he has heard the voice of my petitions.

7 Jehovah is my strength and my shield.

My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped.

Therefore my heart greatly rejoices.

With my song I will thank him.

8 Jehovah is their strength.

He is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.

9 Save your people,

and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd also,
and bear them up forever.

PSALM 29

A Psalm by David.

1 Ascribe to Jehovah, you sons of the mighty,
ascribe to Jehovah glory and strength.
2 Ascribe to Jehovah the glory due to his name.
Worship Jehovah in holy array.
3 Jehovah's voice is on the waters.
The God of glory thunders, even Jehovah on many waters.
4 Jehovah's voice is powerful.
Jehovah's voice is full of majesty.
5 Jehovah's voice breaks the cedars.
Yes, Jehovah breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
6 He makes them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox.
7 Jehovah's voice strikes with flashes of lightning.
8 Jehovah's voice shakes the wilderness.
Jehovah shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
9 Jehovah's voice makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare.
In his temple everything says, "Glory!"
10 Jehovah sat enthroned at the Flood.
Yes, Jehovah sits as King forever.
11 Jehovah will give strength to his people.
Jehovah will bless his people with peace.

PSALM 30

*A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple.
By David.*

1 I will extol you, Jehovah, for you have raised me up,
and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.
2 Jehovah my God, I cried to you,
and you have healed me.
3 Jehovah, you have brought up my soul from Sheol.
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
4 Sing praise to Jehovah, you saints of his.
Give thanks to his holy name.
5 For his anger is but for a moment.
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night,
but joy comes in the morning.
6 As for me, I said in my prosperity,
"I shall never be moved."
7 You, Jehovah, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong;
but when you hid your face, I was troubled.
8 I cried to you, Jehovah.
To Jehovah I made supplication:
9 "What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit?
Shall the dust praise you?
Shall it declare your truth?
10 Hear, Jehovah, and have mercy on me.
Jehovah, be my helper."
11 You have turned my mourning into dancing for me.
You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness,
12 To the end that my heart may sing praise to you, and not be silent.
Jehovah my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

PSALM 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 In you, Jehovah, I take refuge.
Let me never be disappointed.
Deliver me in your righteousness.
2 Bow down your ear to me.
Deliver me speedily.
Be to me a strong rock,
a house of defense to save me.
3 For you are my rock and my fortress,
therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me.
4 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me,
for you are my stronghold.
5 Into your hand I commend my spirit.
You redeem me, Jehovah, God of truth.
6 I hate those who regard lying vanities,
but I trust in Jehovah.
7 I will be glad and rejoice in your loving kindness,
for you have seen my affliction.
You have known my soul in adversities.
8 You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy.
You have set my feet in a large place.
9 Have mercy on me, Jehovah, for I am in distress.
My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.
10 For my life is spent with sorrow,
my years with sighing.
My strength fails because of my iniquity.
My bones are wasted away.
11 Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors,
a fear to my acquaintances.
Those who saw me on the street fled from me.
12 I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man.
I am like broken pottery.
13 For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side,
while they conspire together against me,
they plot to take away my life.
14 But I trust in you, Jehovah.
I said, "You are my God."
15 My times are in your hand.
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.
16 Make your face to shine on your servant.
Save me in your loving kindness.
17 Let me not be disappointed, Jehovah, for I have called on you.
Let the wicked be disappointed.
Let them be silent in Sheol.
18 Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently,
with pride and contempt.
19 Oh how great is your goodness, which you have laid up for those who fear you, which you have worked for those who take refuge in you,
before the sons of men!
20 In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of man.
You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.
21 Praise be to Jehovah, for he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a strong city.

22 As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before your eyes."

Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to you.

23 Oh love Jehovah, all you his saints!

Jehovah preserves the faithful, and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly.

24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in Jehovah.

PSALM 32

By David. A contemplative psalm.

1 Blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man to whom Jehovah doesn't impute iniquity, in whose spirit there is no deceit.

3 When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

4 For day and night your hand was heavy on me.

My strength was sapped in the heat of summer.

Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin to you.

I didn't hide my iniquity.

I said, I will confess my transgressions to Jehovah, and you forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Selah.

6 For this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found.

Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.

7 You are my hiding place.

You will preserve me from trouble.

You will surround me with songs of deliverance.

Selah.

8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go.

I will counsel you with my eye on you.

9 Don't be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.

10 Many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in Jehovah.

11 Be glad in Jehovah, and rejoice, you righteous!

Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

PSALM 33

1 Rejoice in Jehovah, you righteous!

Praise is fitting for the upright.

2 Give thanks to Jehovah with the lyre.

Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.

3 Sing to him a new song.

Play skillfully with a shout of joy!

4 For Jehovah's word is right.

All his work is done in faithfulness.

5 He loves righteousness and justice.

The earth is full of the loving kindness of Jehovah.

6 By Jehovah's word, the heavens were made;

all their army by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap.

He lays up the deeps in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear Jehovah.

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spoke, and it was done.

He commanded, and it stood firm.

10 Jehovah brings the counsel of the nations to nothing.

He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.

11 The counsel of Jehovah stands fast forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah, the people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance.

13 Jehovah looks from heaven.

He sees all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth,

15 he who fashions all of their hearts;

and he considers all of their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an army.

A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

17 A horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does he deliver any by his great power.

18 Behold, Jehovah's eye is on those who fear him,

on those who hope in his loving kindness;

19 to deliver their soul from death,

to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul has waited for Jehovah.

He is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart rejoices in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let your loving kindness be on us, Jehovah, since we have hoped in you.

PSALM 34

By David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

1 I will bless Jehovah at all times.

His praise will always be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall boast in Jehovah.

The humble shall hear of it, and be glad.

3 Oh magnify Jehovah with me.

Let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought Jehovah, and he answered me,

and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked to him, and were radiant.

Their faces shall never be covered with shame.

6 This poor man cried, and Jehovah heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 Jehovah's angel encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.

8 Oh taste and see that Jehovah is good.

Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

9 Oh fear Jehovah, you his saints, for there is no lack with those who fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek Jehovah shall not lack any good thing.

11 Come, you children, listen to me.

I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.

12 Who is someone who desires life,
and loves many days, that he may see good?
13 Keep your tongue from evil,
and your lips from speaking lies.
14 Depart from evil, and do good.
seek peace, and pursue it.
15 Jehovah's eyes are toward the righteous.
His ears listen to their cry.
16 Jehovah's face is against those who do evil,
to cut off their memory from the earth.
17 The righteous cry, and Jehovah hears,
and delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 Jehovah is near to those who have a broken
heart,
and saves those who have a crushed spirit.
19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
but Jehovah delivers him out of them all.
20 He protects all of his bones.
Not one of them is broken.
21 Evil shall kill the wicked.
Those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.
22 Jehovah redeems the soul of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him shall be condemned.

PSALM 35
By David.

1 Contend, Jehovah, with those who contend with me.
Fight against those who fight against me.
2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.
3 Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me.
Tell my soul, "I am your salvation."
4 Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor.
Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded.
5 Let them be as chaff before the wind,
Jehovah's angel driving them on.
6 Let their way be dark and slippery,
Jehovah's angel pursuing them.
7 For without cause they have hidden their net
in a pit for me.
Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul.
8 Let destruction come on him unawares.
Let his net that he has hidden catch himself.
Let him fall into that destruction.
9 My soul shall be joyful in Jehovah.
It shall rejoice in his salvation.
10 All my bones shall say, "Jehovah, who is like
you,
who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him;
yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs
him?"
11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up.
They ask me about things that I don't know about.
12 They reward me evil for good,
to the bereaving of my soul.
13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.
I afflicted my soul with fasting.
My prayer returned into my own bosom.
14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother.
I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother.

15 But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together.
The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it.
They tore at me, and didn't cease.
16 Like the profane mockers in feasts,
they gnashed their teeth at me.
17 Lord, how long will you look on?
Rescue my soul from their destruction,
my precious life from the lions.
18 I will give you thanks in the great assembly.
I will praise you among many people.
19 Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me;
neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes.
20 For they don't speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.
21 Yes, they opened their mouth wide against
me.

They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!"
22 You have seen it, Jehovah. Don't keep silent.
Lord, don't be far from me.
23 Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God!
My Lord, contend for me!
24 Vindicate me, Jehovah my God, according to your righteousness.
Don't let them gloat over me.
25 Don't let them say in their heart, "Aha!
That's the way we want it!"
Don't let them say, "We have swallowed him
up!"
26 Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity.
Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.
27 Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause.
Yes, let them say continually, "Jehovah be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant!"
28 My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.

PSALM 36

For the Chief Musician. By David, the servant of Jehovah.

1 A revelation is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked:
"There is no fear of God before his eyes."
2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to detect and hate his sin.
3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit.
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.
4 He plots iniquity on his bed.
He sets himself in a way that is not good.
He doesn't abhor evil.
5 Your loving kindness, Jehovah, is in the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
6 Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.
Your judgments are like a great deep.
Jehovah, you preserve man and animal.
7 How precious is your loving kindness, God!
The children of men take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house.

You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.

9 For with you is the spring of life.

In your light shall we see light.

10 Oh continue your loving kindness to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Don't let the foot of pride come against me.

Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

12 There the workers of iniquity are fallen.

They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM 37

By David.

1 Don't fret because of evildoers, neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither like the green herb.

3 Trust in Jehovah, and do good.

Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture.

4 Also delight yourself in Jehovah, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

5 Commit your way to Jehovah.

Trust also in him, and he will do this:

6 he will make your righteousness go out as the light, and your justice as the noon day sun.

7 Rest in Jehovah, and wait patiently for him.

Don't fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath.

Don't fret, it leads only to evildoing.

9 For evildoers shall be cut off,

but those who wait for Jehovah shall inherit the land.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more.

Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there.

11 But the humble shall inherit the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes at him with his teeth.

13 The Lord will laugh at him, for he sees that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, to kill those who are upright on the path.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart. Their bows shall be broken.

16 Better is a little that the righteous has, than the abundance of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but Jehovah upholds the righteous.

18 Jehovah knows the days of the perfect. Their inheritance shall be forever.

19 They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil.

In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish.

The enemies of Jehovah shall be like the beauty of the fields.

They will vanish—vanish like smoke.

21 The wicked borrow, and don't pay back, but the righteous give generously.

22 For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land.

Those who are cursed by him shall be cut off.

23 A man's goings are established by Jehovah. He delights in his way.

24 Though he stumble, he shall not fall, for Jehovah holds him up with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his children begging for bread.

26 All day long he deals graciously, and lends. His offspring is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good.

Live securely forever.

28 For Jehovah loves justice, and doesn't forsake his saints.

They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and live in it forever.

30 The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom.

His tongue speaks justice.

31 The law of his God is in his heart.

None of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to kill him.

33 Jehovah will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait for Jehovah, and keep his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land.

When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.

36 But he passed away, and behold, he was not. Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and see the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace.

38 As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together.

The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is from Jehovah.

He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.

40 Jehovah helps them, and rescues them.

He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, because they have taken refuge in him.

PSALM 38

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

1 Jehovah, don't rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.

2 For your arrows have pierced me, your hand presses hard on me.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.

4 For my iniquities have gone over my head.

As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds are loathsome and corrupt,
because of my foolishness.
6 I am pained and bowed down greatly.
I go mourning all day long.
7 For my waist is filled with burning.
There is no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am faint and severely bruised.
I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.
9 Lord, all my desire is before you.
My groaning is not hidden from you.
10 My heart throbs.
My strength fails me.
As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me.
11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague.
My kinsmen stand far away.
12 They also who seek after my life lay snares.
Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things,
and meditate deceits all day long.
13 But I, as a deaf man, don't hear.
I am as a mute man who doesn't open his mouth.
14 Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear,
in whose mouth are no reproofs.
15 For in you, Jehovah, do I hope.
You will answer, Lord my God.
16 For I said, "Don't let them gloat over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."
17 For I am ready to fall.
My pain is continually before me.
18 For I will declare my iniquity.
I will be sorry for my sin.
19 But my enemies are vigorous and many.
Those who hate me without reason are numerous.
20 They who also render evil for good are adversaries to me, because I follow what is good.
21 Don't forsake me, Jehovah.
My God, don't be far from me.
22 Hurry to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

PSALM 39

For the Chief Musician. For Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

1 I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue.
I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."
2 I was mute with silence.
I held my peace, even from good.
My sorrow was stirred.
3 My heart was hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire burned:
I spoke with my tongue:
4 "Jehovah, show me my end,
what is the measure of my days.
Let me know how frail I am.
5 Behold, you have made my days hand widths.
My lifetime is as nothing before you.
Surely every man stands as a breath."
Selah.
6 "Surely every man walks like a shadow.
Surely they busy themselves in vain.
He heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather.

7 Now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.
8 Deliver me from all my transgressions.
Don't make me the reproach of the foolish.
9 I was mute.
I didn't open my mouth,
because you did it.
10 Remove your scourge away from me.
I am overcome by the blow of your hand.
11 When you rebuke and correct man for
iniquity,
you consume his wealth like a moth.
Surely every man is but a breath."
Selah.
12 "Hear my prayer, Jehovah, and give ear to my cry.
Don't be silent at my tears.
For I am a stranger with you,
a foreigner, as all my fathers were.
13 Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go away, and exist no more."

PSALM 40

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 I waited patiently for Jehovah.
He turned to me, and heard my cry.
2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay.
He set my feet on a rock,
and gave me a firm place to stand.
3 He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God.
Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Jehovah.
4 Blessed is the man who makes Jehovah his trust,
and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
5 Many, Jehovah, my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, and your thoughts which are toward us.
They can't be declared back to you.
If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.
6 Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire.
You have opened my ears.
You have not required burnt offering and sin offering.
7 Then I said, "Behold, I have come.
It is written about me in the book in the scroll.
8 I delight to do your will, my God.
Yes, your law is within my heart."
9 I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly.
Behold, I will not seal my lips, Jehovah, you
know.
10 I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart.
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation.
I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.
11 Don't withhold your tender mercies from me, Jehovah.
Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.
12 For innumerable evils have surrounded me.
My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.
They are more than the hairs of my head.

My heart has failed me.

13 Be pleased, Jehovah, to deliver me.

Hurry to help me, Jehovah.

14 Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it.

Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.

15 Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!"

16 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.

Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let Jehovah be exalted!"

17 But I am poor and needy.

May the Lord think about me.

You are my help and my deliverer.

Don't delay, my God.

PSALM 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 Blessed is he who considers the poor.

Jehovah will deliver him in the day of evil.

2 Jehovah will preserve him, and keep him alive.

He shall be blessed on the earth, and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.

3 Jehovah will sustain him on his sickbed, and restore him from his bed of illness.

4 I said, "Jehovah, have mercy on me!

Heal me, for I have sinned against you."

5 My enemies speak evil against me:

"When will he die, and his name perish?"

6 If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood.

His heart gathers iniquity to itself.

When he goes abroad, he tells it.

7 All who hate me whisper together against me.

They imagine the worst for me.

8 "An evil disease," they say, "has afflicted him.

Now that he lies he shall rise up no more."

9 Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, who ate bread with me,

has lifted up his heel against me.

10 But you, Jehovah, have mercy on me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.

11 By this I know that you delight in me, because my enemy doesn't triumph over me.

12 As for me, you uphold me in my integrity, and set me in your presence forever.

13 Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel,

from everlasting and to everlasting!

Amen and amen.

BOOK II

PSALM 42

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

1 As the deer pants for the water brooks, so my soul pants after you, God.

2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

When shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"

4 These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to God's house,

with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.

5 Why are you in despair, my soul?

Why are you disturbed within me?

Hope in God!

For I shall still praise him for the saving help of his presence.

6 My God, my soul is in despair within me.

Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan,

the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.

7 Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.

All your waves and your billows have swept over me.

8 Jehovah will command his loving kindness in the daytime.

In the night his song shall be with me:

a prayer to the God of my life.

9 I will ask God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?"

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

10 As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"

11 Why are you in despair, my soul?

Why are you disturbed within me?

Hope in God! For I shall still praise him,

the saving help of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 43

1 Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.

Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked men.

2 For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 Oh, send out your light and your truth.

Let them lead me.

Let them bring me to your holy hill,

to your tents.

4 Then I will go to the altar of God,

to God, my exceeding joy.

I will praise you on the harp, God, my God.

5 Why are you in despair, my soul?

Why are you disturbed within me?

Hope in God!

For I shall still praise him:

my Savior, my helper, and my God.

PSALM 44

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. A contemplative psalm.

1 We have heard with our ears, God;

our fathers have told us,

what work you did in their days,

in the days of old.

2 You drove out the nations with your hand, but you planted them.

You afflicted the peoples,

but you spread them abroad.

3 For they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them;

but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your face,

 because you were favorable to them.
 4 You are my King, God.
 Command victories for Jacob!
 5 Through you, will we push down our adversaries.
 Through your name, will we tread them under who rise up against us.
 6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.
 7 But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have shamed those who hate us.
 8 In God we have made our boast all day long,
 we will give thanks to your name forever.
Selah.
 9 But now you rejected us, and brought us to dishonor,
 and don't go out with our armies.
 10 You make us turn back from the adversary.
 Those who hate us take plunder for themselves.
 11 You have made us like sheep for food,
 and have scattered us among the nations.
 12 You sell your people for nothing, and have gained nothing from their sale.
 13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and a derision to those who are around us.
 14 You make us a byword among the nations,
 a shaking of the head among the peoples.
 15 All day long my dishonor is before me,
 and shame covers my face, 16 At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses,
 because of the enemy and the avenger.
 17 All this has come on us,
 yet have we not forgotten you,
 neither have we been false to your covenant.
 18 Our heart has not turned back,
 neither have our steps strayed from your path, 19 though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals,
 and covered us with the shadow of death.
 20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread out our hands to a strange god;
 21 won't God search this out?
 For he knows the secrets of the heart.
 22 Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long.
 We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.
 23 Wake up!
 Why do you sleep, Lord?
 Arise!
 Don't reject us forever.
 24 Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?
 25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust.
 Our body clings to the earth.
 26 Rise up to help us.
 Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake.
PSALM 45
For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A contemplation by the sons of Korah. A wedding song.
 1 My heart overflows with a noble theme.
 I recite my verses for the king.
 My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.
 2 You are the most excellent of the sons of men.
 Grace has anointed your lips,

therefore God has blessed you forever.
 3 Strap your sword on your thigh, mighty one:
 your splendor and your majesty.
 4 In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness.
 Let your right hand display awesome deeds.
 5 Your arrows are sharp.
 The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies.
 6 Your throne, God, is forever and ever.
 A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.
 7 You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness.
 Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.
 8 All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
 Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.
 9 Kings' daughters are among your honorable women.
 At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir.
 10 Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear.
 Forget your own people, and also your father's house.
 11 So the king will desire your beauty, honor him, for he is your lord.
 12 The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
 The rich among the people entreat your favor.
 13 The princess inside is all glorious.
 Her clothing is interwoven with gold.
 14 She shall be led to the king in embroidered work.
 The virgins, her companions who follow her,
 shall be brought to you.
 15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led.
 They shall enter into the king's palace.
 16 Your sons will take the place of your fathers.
 You shall make them princes in all the earth.
 17 I will make your name to be remembered in all generations.
 Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks forever and ever.

PSALM 46

*For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah.
 According to Alamo.*

1 God is our refuge and strength,
 a very present help in trouble.
 2 Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes,
 though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;
 3 though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling.

Selah.

4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad,
 the holy place of the tents of the Most High.
 5 God is within her. She shall not be moved.
 God will help her at dawn.
 6 The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved.
 He lifted his voice, and the earth melted.

7 Jehovah of Armies is with us.
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah.

8 Come, see Jehovah's works,
what desolations he has made in the earth.
9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth.
He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear.
He burns the chariots in the fire.
10 "Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations.
I will be exalted in the earth."
11 Jehovah of Armies is with us.
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah.

PSALM 47

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

1 Oh clap your hands, all you nations.
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
2 For Jehovah Most High is awesome.
He is a great King over all the earth.
3 He subdues nations under us,
and peoples under our feet.
4 He chooses our inheritance for us,
the glory of Jacob whom he loved.

Selah.

5 God has gone up with a shout,
Jehovah with the sound of a trumpet.
6 Sing praise to God, sing praises.
Sing praises to our King, sing praises.
7 For God is the King of all the earth.
Sing praises with understanding.
8 God reigns over the nations.
God sits on his holy throne.
9 The princes of the peoples are gathered together,
the people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth belong to God.
He is greatly exalted!

PSALM 48

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

1 Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole
earth,
is Mount Zion, on the north sides,
the city of the great King.
3 God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge.
4 For, behold, the kings assembled themselves,
they passed by together.
5 They saw it, then they were amazed.
They were dismayed.
They hurried away.
6 Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a woman in travail.
7 With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.
8 As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of Jehovah of Armies, in the city of our God.
God will establish it forever.

Selah.

9 We have thought about your loving kindness,
God,
in the middle of your temple.
10 As is your name, God,
so is your praise to the ends of the earth.

Your right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let Mount Zion be glad!
Let the daughters of Judah rejoice,
because of your judgments.
12 Walk about Zion, and go around her.
Number its towers.
13 Mark well her bulwarks.
Consider her palaces,
that you may tell it to the next generation.
14 For this God is our God forever and ever.
He will be our guide over to death.

PSALM 49

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

1 Hear this, all you peoples.
Listen, all you inhabitants of the world,
2 both low and high,
rich and poor together.
3 My mouth will speak words of wisdom.
My heart shall utter understanding.
4 I will incline my ear to a proverb.
I will open my riddle on the harp.
5 Why should I fear in the days of evil,
when iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
6 Those who trust in their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches—7 none of them can by any means redeem his brother,
nor give God a ransom for him.
8 For the redemption of their life is costly,
no payment is ever enough, 9 that he should live on forever,
that he should not see corruption.
10 For he sees that wise men die;
likewise the fool and the senseless perish,
and leave their wealth to others.
11 Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever,
and their dwelling places to all generations.
They name their lands after themselves.
12 But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure.
He is like the animals that perish.
13 This is the destiny of those who are foolish,
and of those who approve their sayings.
Selah.
14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol.
Death shall be their shepherd.
The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning.
Their beauty shall decay in Sheol,
far from their mansion.
15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol,
for he will receive me.
Selah.
16 Don't be afraid when a man is made rich,
when the glory of his house is increased.
17 For when he dies he shall carry nothing
away.
His glory shall not descend after him.
18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul—and men praise you when you do well for yourself—
19 he shall go to the generation of his fathers.
They shall never see the light.
20 A man who has riches without
understanding,
is like the animals that perish.

PSALM 50

A Psalm by Asaph.

1 The Mighty One, God, Jehovah, speaks, and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset.
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines out.
3 Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire devours before him.
It is very stormy around him.
4 He calls to the heavens above,
to the earth, that he may judge his people:
5 "Gather my saints together to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."
6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge.

Selah.

7 "Hear, my people, and I will speak;
Israel, and I will testify against you.
I am God, your God.
8 I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices.
Your burnt offerings are continually before me.
9 I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor male goats from your pens.
10 For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the livestock on a thousand hills.
11 I know all the birds of the mountains.
The wild animals of the field are mine.
12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for the world is mine, and all that is in it.
13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?
14 Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving.
Pay your vows to the Most High.
15 Call on me in the day of trouble.
I will deliver you, and you will honor me."
16 But to the wicked God says,
"What right do you have to declare my statutes,
that you have taken my covenant on your lips, 17 since you hate instruction, and throw my words behind you?
18 When you saw a thief, you consented with
him,

and have participated with adulterers.
19 "You give your mouth to evil.
Your tongue frames deceit.
20 You sit and speak against your brother.
You slander your own mother's son.
21 You have done these things, and I kept silent.

You thought that I was just like you.
I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.
22 "Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be no one to deliver.

23 Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving
glorifies me,
and prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him."

PSALM 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

1 Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness.
According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.
2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity.

Cleanse me from my sin.
3 For I know my transgressions.
My sin is constantly before me.
4 Against you, and you only, have I sinned,
and done that which is evil in your sight;
that you may be proved right when you speak,
and justified when you judge.
5 Behold, I was born in iniquity.
In sin my mother conceived me.
6 Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts.
You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.
7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
8 Let me hear joy and gladness, that the bones which you have broken may rejoice.

9 Hide your face from my sins,
and blot out all of my iniquities.
10 Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a right spirit within me.
11 Don't throw me from your presence, and don't take your holy Spirit from me.
12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation.
Uphold me with a willing spirit.
13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways.
Sinners shall be converted to you.
14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O
God, the God of my salvation.

My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

15 Lord, open my lips.
My mouth shall declare your praise.
16 For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it.

You have no pleasure in burnt offering.
17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

18 Do well in your good pleasure to Zion.
Build the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then you will delight in the sacrifices of
righteousness,
in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings.
Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

PSALM 52

*For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul,
"David has come to Abimelech's house."*

1 Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man?
God's loving kindness endures continually.

2 Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
3 You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth.

Selah.

4 You love all devouring words,
you deceitful tongue.
5 God will likewise destroy you forever.
He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent,
and root you out of the land of the living.

Selah.

6 The righteous also will see it, and fear,
and laugh at him, saying,
7 "Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength,
but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
and strengthened himself in his wickedness."
8 But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house.

I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever.

9 I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it.

I will hope in your name, for it is good,
in the presence of your saints.

PSALM 53

*For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath."
A contemplation by David.*

1 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."

They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity.

There is no one who does good.

2 God looks down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there are any who understood,

who seek after God.

3 Every one of them has gone back.

They have become filthy together.

There is no one who does good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
who eat up my people as they eat bread,
and don't call on God?

5 There they were in great fear, where no fear was,

for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you.

You have put them to shame,
because God has rejected them.

6 Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!

When God brings back his people from captivity,

then Jacob shall rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 54

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.

A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?"

1 Save me, God, by your name.

Vindicate me in your might.

2 Hear my prayer, God.

Listen to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers have risen up against me.

Violent men have sought after my soul.

They haven't set God before them.

Selah.

4 Behold, God is my helper.

The Lord is the one who sustains my soul.

5 He will repay the evil to my enemies.

Destroy them in your truth.

6 With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you.

I will give thanks to your name, Jehovah, for it is good.

7 For he has delivered me out of all trouble.

My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

PSALM 55

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.

A contemplation by David.

1 Listen to my prayer, God.

Don't hide yourself from my supplication.

2 Attend to me, and answer me.

I am restless in my complaint, and moan,

3 Because of the voice of the enemy,

Because of the oppression of the wicked.

For they bring suffering on me.

In anger they hold a grudge against me.

4 My heart is severely pained within me.

The terrors of death have fallen on me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling have come on me.

Horror has overwhelmed me.

6 I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove!

Then I would fly away, and be at rest.

7 Behold, then I would wander far off.

I would lodge in the wilderness."

Selah.

8 "I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm."

9 Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language, for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they prowl around on its walls.

Malice and abuse are also within her.

11 Destructive forces are within her.

Threats and lies don't depart from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy who insulted me,
then I could have endured it.

Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him.

13 But it was you, a man like me,
my companion, and my familiar friend.

14 We took sweet fellowship together.

We walked in God's house amid the throng.

15 Let death come suddenly on them.

Let them go down alive into Sheol.

For wickedness is among them, in their dwelling.

16 As for me, I will call on God.

Jehovah will save me.

17 Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress.

He will hear my voice.

18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, although there are many who oppose me.

19 God, who is enthroned forever, will hear, and answer them.

Selah.

They never change,

who don't fear God.

20 He raises his hands against his friends.

He has violated his covenant.

21 His mouth was smooth as butter,

but his heart was war.

His words were softer than oil,

yet they were drawn swords.

22 Cast your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you.

He will never allow the righteous to be moved.

23 But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction.

Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, but I will trust in you.

PSALM 56

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

1 Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up.

All day long, he attacks and oppresses me.
 2 My enemies want to swallow me up all day long,
 for they are many who fight proudly against me.
 3 When I am afraid,
 I will put my trust in you.
 4 In God, I praise his word.
 In God, I put my trust.
 I will not be afraid.
 What can flesh do to me?
 5 All day long they twist my words.
 All their thoughts are against me for evil.
 6 They conspire and lurk,
 watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.
 7 Shall they escape by iniquity?
 In anger cast down the peoples, God.
 8 You number my wanderings.
 You put my tears into your bottle.
 Aren't they in your book?
 9 Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call.
 I know this, that God is for me.
 10 In God, I will praise his word.
 In Jehovah, I will praise his word.
 11 I have put my trust in God.
 I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
 12 Your vows are on me, God.
 I will give thank offerings to you.
 13 For you have delivered my soul from death,
 and prevented my feet from falling,
 that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

PSALM 57

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

1 Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for my soul takes refuge in you.
 Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge,
 until disaster has passed.
 2 I cry out to God Most High,
 to God who accomplishes my requests for me.
 3 He will send from heaven, and save me,
 he rebukes the one who is pursuing me.
Selah.
 God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.
 4 My soul is among lions.
 I lie among those who are set on fire,
 even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
 and their tongue a sharp sword.
 5 Be exalted, God, above the heavens!
 Let your glory be above all the earth!
 6 They have prepared a net for my steps.
 My soul is bowed down.
 They dig a pit before me.
 They fall into the middle of it themselves.
Selah.
 7 My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast.
 I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.
 8 Wake up, my glory! Wake up, lute and harp!
 I will wake up the dawn.
 9 I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples.

 I will sing praises to you among the nations.
 10 For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens, and your truth to the skies.
 11 Be exalted, God, above the heavens.
 Let your glory be over all the earth.
PSALM 58
For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David.
 1 Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones?
 Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of men?
 2 No, in your heart you plot injustice.
 You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth.
 3 The wicked go astray from the womb.
 They are wayward as soon as they are born,
 speaking lies.
 4 Their poison is like the poison of a snake;
 like a deaf cobra that stops its ear,
 5 which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be.
 6 Break their teeth, God, in their mouth.
 Break out the great teeth of the young lions,
 Jehovah.
 7 Let them vanish like water that flows away.
 When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.
 8 Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away,
 like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.
 9 Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns,
 he will sweep away the green and the burning alike.
 10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance.
 He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;
 11 so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous.
 Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth."
PSALM 59
For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.
 1 Deliver me from my enemies, my God.
 Set me on high from those who rise up against me.
 2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity.
 Save me from the bloodthirsty men.
 3 For, behold, they lie in wait for my soul.
 The mighty gather themselves together against me,
 not for my disobedience, nor for my sin,
 Jehovah.
 4 I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.
 Rise up, behold, and help me!
 5 You, Jehovah God of Armies, the God of Israel, rouse yourself to punish the nations.
 Show no mercy to the wicked traitors.
Selah.
 6 They return at evening, howling like dogs,
 and prowl around the city.

7 Behold, they spew with their mouth.
Swords are in their lips,
"For," they say, "who hears us?"
8 But you, Jehovah, laugh at them.
You scoff at all the nations.
9 Oh, my Strength, I watch for you,
for God is my high tower.
10 My God will go before me with his loving kindness.

God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.
11 Don't kill them, or my people may forget.
Scatter them by your power, and bring them down, Lord our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips,

let them be caught in their pride,
for the curses and lies which they utter.

13 Consume them in wrath.
Consume them, and they will be no more.
Let them know that God rules in Jacob,
to the ends of the earth.

Selah.

14 At evening let them return.
Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city.

15 They shall wander up and down for food,
and wait all night if they aren't satisfied.

16 But I will sing of your strength.
Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in
the morning.

For you have been my high tower,
a refuge in the day of my distress.

17 To you, my strength, I will sing praises.
For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

PSALM 60

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

1 God, you have rejected us.
You have broken us down.
You have been angry.

Restore us, again.
2 You have made the land tremble.
You have torn it.

Mend its fractures,
for it quakes.
3 You have shown your people hard things.
You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.

4 You have given a banner to those who fear
you,
that it may be displayed because of the truth.

Selah.

5 So that your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand, and answer us.

6 God has spoken from his sanctuary:
"I will triumph.

I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is the defense of my head.
Judah is my scepter.

8 Moab is my wash basin.
I will throw my shoe on Edom.
I shout in triumph over Philistia."

9 Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who has led me to Edom?
10 Haven't you, God, rejected us?
You don't go out with our armies, God.
11 Give us help against the adversary,
for the help of man is vain.
12 Through God we shall do valiantly, for it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

PSALM 61

*For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument.
By David.*

1 Hear my cry, God.
Listen to my prayer.
2 From the end of the earth, I will call to you,
when my heart is overwhelmed.

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
3 For you have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will dwell in your tent forever.
I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings.

Selah.

5 For you, God, have heard my vows.
You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

6 You will prolong the king's life;
his years shall be for generations.

7 He shall be enthroned in God's presence
forever.

Appoint your loving kindness and truth, that they may preserve him.

8 So I will sing praise to your name forever, that I may fulfill my vows daily.

PSALM 62

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthan. A Psalm by David.

1 My soul rests in God alone.
My salvation is from him.
2 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—

I will never be greatly shaken.
3 How long will you assault a man, would all of you throw him down,
like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

4 They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place.

They delight in lies.
They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.

Selah.

5 My soul, wait in silence for God alone, for my expectation is from him.

6 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress.

I will not be shaken.
7 With God is my salvation and my honor.

The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times, you people.
Pour out your heart before him.
God is a refuge for us.

Selah.

9 Surely men of low degree are just a breath, and men of high degree are a lie.

In the balances they will go up.
They are together lighter than a breath.

10 Don't trust in oppression.
Don't become vain in robbery.

If riches increase,
 don't set your heart on them.
 11 God has spoken once;
 twice I have heard this,
 that power belongs to God.
 12 Also to you, Lord, belongs loving kindness, for you reward every man according to his work.

PSALM 63

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

1 God, you are my God.
 I will earnestly seek you.
 My soul thirsts for you.
 My flesh longs for you,
 in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.
 2 So I have seen you in the sanctuary, watching your power and your glory.
 3 Because your loving kindness is better than life,
 my lips shall praise you.
 4 So I will bless you while I live.
 I will lift up my hands in your name.
 5 My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food.
 My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips,
 6 when I remember you on my bed,
 and think about you in the night watches.
 7 For you have been my help.
 I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.
 8 My soul stays close to you.
 Your right hand holds me up.
 9 But those who seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
 10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword.
 They shall be jackal food.
 11 But the king shall rejoice in God.
 Everyone who swears by him will praise him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

PSALM 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 Hear my voice, God, in my complaint.
 Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
 2 Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked,
 from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;
 3 who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
 and aim their arrows, deadly words,
 4 to shoot innocent men from ambushes.
 They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.
 5 They encourage themselves in evil plans.
 They talk about laying snares secretly.
 They say, "Who will see them?"
 6 They plot injustice, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!"
 Surely man's mind and heart are cunning.
 7 But God will shoot at them.
 They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.
 8 Their own tongues shall ruin them.
 All who see them will shake their heads.
 9 All mankind shall be afraid.
 They shall declare the work of God,
 and shall wisely ponder what he has done.
 10 The righteous shall be glad in Jehovah, and shall take refuge in him.
 All the upright in heart shall praise him!

PSALM 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

1 Praise waits for you, God, in Zion.
 To you shall vows be performed.
 2 You who hear prayer,
 to you all men will come.
 3 Sins overwhelmed me,
 but you atoned for our transgressions.
 4 Blessed is one whom you choose, and cause to come near,
 that he may live in your courts.
 We will be filled with the goodness of your house,
 your holy temple.
 5 By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us,
 God of our salvation.
 You who are the hope of all the ends of the
 earth,
 of those who are far away on the sea;
 6 who by his power forms the mountains,
 having armed yourself with strength;
 7 who stills the roaring of the seas,
 the roaring of their waves,
 and the turmoil of the nations.
 8 They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders.
 You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy.
 9 You visit the earth, and water it.
 You greatly enrich it.
 The river of God is full of water.
 You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it.
 10 You drench its furrows.
 You level its ridges.
 You soften it with showers.
 You bless it with a crop.
 11 You crown the year with your bounty.
 Your carts overflow with abundance.
 12 The wilderness grasslands overflow.
 The hills are clothed with gladness.
 13 The pastures are covered with flocks.
 The valleys also are clothed with grain.
 They shout for joy!
 They also sing.

PSALM 66

For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.

1 Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!
 2 Sing to the glory of his name!
 Offer glory and praise!
 3 Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds!
 Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to you.

4 All the earth* will worship
 you,
 and will sing to you;
 they will sing to your name."

Selah.

5 Come, and see God's deeds—awesome work on behalf of the children of men.

* 66:4 When the Psalms were written, the nations surrounding Israel worshiped a whole pantheon of different gods and goddesses, and distant nations had not even heard of the God of Israel. See also the note at Psalm 86:9.

6 He turned the sea into dry land.
They went through the river on foot.
There, we rejoiced in him.
7 He rules by his might forever.
His eyes watch the nations.
Don't let the rebellious rise up against him.

Selah.

8 Praise our God, you peoples!
Make the sound of his praise heard,
9 who preserves our life among the living, and doesn't allow our feet to be moved.
10 For you, God, have tested us.
You have refined us, as silver is refined.
11 You brought us into prison.
You laid a burden on our backs.
12 You allowed men to ride over our heads.
We went through fire and through water,
but you brought us to the place of abundance.
13 I will come into your temple with burnt offerings.

I will pay my vows to you,
14 which my lips promised,
and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.

15 I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals, with the offering of rams,
I will offer bulls with goats.

Selah.

16 Come, and hear, all you who fear God.
I will declare what he has done for my soul.
17 I cried to him with my mouth.
He was extolled with my tongue.
18 If I cherished sin in my heart,
the Lord wouldn't have listened.
19 But most certainly, God has listened.
He has heard the voice of my prayer.
20 Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor his loving kindness from me.

PSALM 67

*For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.
A Psalm. A song.*

1 May God be merciful to us, bless us,
and cause his face to shine on us.

Selah.

2 That your way may be known on earth,
and your salvation among all nations,
3 let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
4 Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you will judge the peoples with equity,
and govern the nations on earth.

Selah.

5 Let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
6 The earth has yielded its increase.
God, even our own God, will bless us.

7 God will bless us.

All the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM 68

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

1 Let God arise!
Let his enemies be scattered!

Let them who hate him also flee before him.
2 As smoke is driven away,
so drive them away.
As wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
3 But let the righteous be glad.

Let them rejoice before God.
Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.
4 Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Extol him who rides on the clouds:
to Jah, his name!
Rejoice before him!

5 A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows,
is God in his holy habitation.
6 God sets the lonely in families.
He brings out the prisoners with singing,
but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.
7 God, when you went out before your people,
when you marched through the wilderness...

Selah.

8 The earth trembled.
The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai—
at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 You, God, sent a plentiful rain.
You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Your congregation lived therein.
You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord announced the word.
The ones who proclaim it are a great company.

12 "Kings of armies flee! They flee!"
She who waits at home divides the plunder, 13 while you sleep among the camp fires,
the wings of a dove sheathed with silver,
her feathers with shining gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in her,
it snowed on Zalmon.

15 The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains.

The mountains of Bashan are rugged.

16 Why do you look in envy, you rugged
mountains,

at the mountain where God chooses to reign?
Yes, Jehovah will dwell there forever.

17 The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands.

The Lord is among them, from Sinai, into the sanctuary.

18 You have ascended on high.

You have led away captives.

You have received gifts among men,
yes, among the rebellious also, that Jah God might dwell there.

19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens,
even the God who is our salvation.

Selah.

20 God is to us a God of deliverance.

To Jehovah, the Lord, belongs escape from death.

21 But God will strike through the head of his enemies,
the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.

22 The Lord said, "I will bring you again from

* 67:7 Compare Psalm 66:4 and footnote.

Bashan,

I will bring you again from the depths of the sea;

23 that you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."

24 They have seen your processions, God, even the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,

among the ladies playing with tambourines,

26 "Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord in the assembly of Israel!"

27 There is little Benjamin, their ruler, the princes of Judah, their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

28 Your God has commanded your strength. Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us.

29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem, kings shall bring presents to you.

30 Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples.

Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver.

Scatter the nations that delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Egypt.

Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God.

32 Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth! Sing praises to the Lord!

Selah.

33 To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old;

behold, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe strength to God!

His excellency is over Israel,

his strength is in the skies.

35 You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries.

The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people.

Praise be to God!

PSALM 69

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Lilies." By David.

1 Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck!

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold.

I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary with my crying.

My throat is dry.

My eyes fail, looking for my God.

4 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head.

Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty.

I have to restore what I didn't take away.

5 God, you know my foolishness.

My sins aren't hidden from you.

6 Don't let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Lord Jehovah of Armies.

Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Israel.

7 Because for your sake, I have borne reproach.

Shame has covered my face.

8 I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of your house consumes me.

The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.

10 When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.

11 When I made sackcloth my clothing,

I became a byword to them.

12 Those who sit in the gate talk about me.

I am the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, Jehovah, in an acceptable time.

God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink.

Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15 Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up.

Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me.

16 Answer me, Jehovah, for your loving kindness is good.

According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me.

17 Don't hide your face from your servant,

for I am in distress.

Answer me speedily!

18 Draw near to my soul, and redeem it.

Ransom me because of my enemies.

19 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor.

My adversaries are all before you.

20 Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness.

I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;

for comforters, but I found none.

21 They also gave me gall for my food.

In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table before them become a snare.

May it become a retribution and a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see.

Let their backs be continually bent.

24 Pour out your indignation on them.

Let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate.

Let no one dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute him whom you have wounded.

They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt.

27 Charge them with crime upon crime.

Don't let them come into your righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am in pain and distress.

Let your salvation, God, protect me.

30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 It will please Jehovah better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs.

32 The humble have seen it, and are glad.

You who seek after God, let your heart live.

33 For Jehovah hears the needy, and doesn't despise his captive people.

 34 Let heaven and earth praise him;
 the seas, and everything that moves therein!
 35 For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah.

They shall settle there, and own it.
 36 The children also of his servants shall inherit it.

Those who love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM 70

For the Chief Musician. By David. A reminder.

1 Hurry, God, to deliver me.
 Come quickly to help me, Jehovah.
 2 Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul.

Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.

3 Let them be turned because of their shame
 Who say, "Aha! Aha!"

4 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.

Let those who love your salvation continually say,

"Let God be exalted!"

5 But I am poor and needy.

Come to me quickly, God.

You are my help and my deliverer.

Jehovah, don't delay.

PSALM 71

1 In you, Jehovah, I take refuge.
 Never let me be disappointed.
 2 Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue
 me.

Turn your ear to me, and save me.

3 Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go.

Give the command to save me,
 for you are my rock and my fortress.

4 Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked,
 from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel
 man.

5 For you are my hope, Lord Jehovah;
 my confidence from my youth.

6 I have relied on you from the womb.
 You are he who took me out of my mother's womb.

I will always praise you.

7 I am a marvel to many,
 but you are my strong refuge.

8 My mouth shall be filled with your praise,
 with your honor all the day.

9 Don't reject me in my old age.

Don't forsake me when my strength fails.

10 For my enemies talk about me.

Those who watch for my soul conspire
 together,

11 saying, "God has forsaken him.

Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue
 him."

12 God, don't be far from me.

My God, hurry to help me.

13 Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed.

Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn
 who want to harm me.

14 But I will always hope,
 and will add to all of your praise.

15 My mouth will tell about your
 righteousness,
 and of your salvation all day,
 though I don't know its full measure.

16 I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord
 Jehovah.

I will make mention of your righteousness,
 even of yours alone.

17 God, you have taught me from my youth.

Until now, I have declared your wondrous works.

18 Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired,
 God, don't forsake me,
 until I have declared your strength to the next generation,

your might to everyone who is to come.

19 Your righteousness also, God, reaches to the heavens;

you have done great things.

God, who is like you?

20 You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles,
 you will let me live.

You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Increase my honor, and comfort me again.

22 I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God.

I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall shout for joy!

My soul, which you have redeemed, sings praises to you!

24 My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long, for they are disappointed, and they are confounded,

who want to harm me.

PSALM 72

By Solomon.

1 God, give the king your justice;

your righteousness to the royal son.

2 He will judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice.

3 The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people.

The hills bring the fruit of righteousness.

4 He will judge the poor of the people.

He will save the children of the needy,

and will break the oppressor in pieces.

5 They shall fear you while the sun endures;
 and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

6 He will come down like rain on the mown
 grass,

as showers that water the earth.

7 In his days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
 from the River to the ends of the earth.

9 Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him.

His enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute.

The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yes, all kings shall fall down before him.
 All nations shall serve him.
 12 For he will deliver the needy when he cries;
 the poor, who has no helper.
 13 He will have pity on the poor and needy.
 He will save the souls of the needy.
 14 He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence.
 Their blood will be precious in his sight.
 15 They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba.
 Men shall pray for him continually.
 They shall bless him all day long.
 16 Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land.
 Its fruit sways like Lebanon.
 Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.
 17 His name endures forever.
 His name continues as long as the sun.
 Men shall be blessed by him.
 All nations will call him blessed.
 18 Praise be to Jehovah God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.
 19 Blessed be his glorious name forever!
 Let the whole earth be filled with his glory!
 Amen and amen.
 20 This ends the prayers by David, the son of Jesse.

BOOK III

PSALM 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

1 Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
 2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone.
 My steps had nearly slipped.
 3 For I was envious of the arrogant,
 when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
 4 For there are no struggles in their death,
 but their strength is firm.
 5 They are free from burdens of men,
 neither are they plagued like other men.
 6 Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck.
 Violence covers them like a garment.
 7 Their eyes bulge with fat.
 Their minds pass the limits of conceit.
 8 They scoff and speak with malice.
 In arrogance, they threaten oppression.
 9 They have set their mouth in the heavens.
 Their tongue walks through the earth.
 10 Therefore their people return to them,
 and they drink up waters of abundance.
 11 They say, "How does God know?
 Is there knowledge in the Most High?"
 12 Behold, these are the wicked.
 Being always at ease, they increase in riches.
 13 Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart, and washed my hands in innocence, 14 for all day long have I been plagued,
 and punished every morning.
 15 If I had said, "I will speak thus;"
 behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children.
 16 When I tried to understand this,
 it was too painful for me;
 17 Until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end.

18 Surely you set them in slippery places.
 You throw them down to destruction.
 19 How they are suddenly destroyed!
 They are completely swept away with terrors.
 20 As a dream when one wakes up, so, Lord, when you awake, you will despise their fantasies.
 21 For my soul was grieved.
 I was embittered in my heart.
 22 I was so senseless and ignorant.
 I was a brute beast before you.
 23 Nevertheless, I am continually with you.
 You have held my right hand.
 24 You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.
 25 Whom do I have in heaven?
 There is no one on earth whom I desire besides
 you.
 26 My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
 27 For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish.
 You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you.
 28 But it is good for me to come close to God.
 I have made the Lord Jehovah my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.

PSALM 74

A contemplation by Asaph.

1 God, why have you rejected us forever?
 Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
 2 Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old,
 which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance;
 Mount Zion, in which you have lived.
 3 Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
 4 Your adversaries have roared in the middle of your assembly.
 They have set up their standards as signs.
 5 They behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees.
 6 Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.
 7 They have burned your sanctuary to the ground.
 They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.
 8 They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely."
 They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.
 9 We see no miraculous signs.
 There is no longer any prophet, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.
 10 How long, God, shall the adversary reproach?
 Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
 11 Why do you draw back your hand, even your right hand?
 Take it out of your pocket and consume them!
 12 Yet God is my King of old, working salvation throughout the earth.
 13 You divided the sea by your strength.

You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

14 You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces.
You gave him as food to people and desert creatures.

15 You opened up spring and stream.

You dried up mighty rivers.

16 The day is yours, the night is also yours.

You have prepared the light and the sun.

17 You have set all the boundaries of the earth.

You have made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you, Jehovah.

Foolish people have blasphemed your name.

19 Don't deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts.

Don't forget the life of your poor forever.

20 Honor your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the earth.

21 Don't let the oppressed return ashamed.

Let the poor and needy praise your name.

22 Arise, God! Plead your own cause.

Remember how the foolish man mocks you all day.

23 Don't forget the voice of your adversaries.

The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

PSALM 75

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

1 We give thanks to you, God.

We give thanks, for your Name is near.

Men tell about your wondrous works.

2 When I choose the appointed time,

I will judge blamelessly.

3 The earth and all its inhabitants quake.

I firmly hold its pillars.

Selah.

4 I said to the arrogant, "Don't boast!"

I said to the wicked, "Don't lift up the horn.

5 Don't lift up your horn on high.

Don't speak with a stiff neck."

6 For neither from the east, nor from the west,
nor yet from the south, comes exaltation.

7 But God is the judge.

He puts down one, and lifts up another.

8 For in Jehovah's hand there is a cup, full of foaming wine mixed with spices.

He pours it out.

Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.

9 But I will declare this forever:

I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 I will cut off all the horns of the wicked,
but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

PSALM 76

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

1 In Judah, God is known.

His name is great in Israel.

2 His tabernacle is also in Salem;

His dwelling place in Zion.

3 There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
the shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war.

Selah.

4 Glorious are you, and excellent,
more than mountains of game.

5 Valiant men lie plundered,
they have slept their last sleep.

None of the men of war can lift their hands.

6 At your rebuke, God of Jacob,
both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.

7 You, even you, are to be feared.

Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?

8 You pronounced judgment from heaven.

The earth feared, and was silent,

9 when God arose to judgment,
to save all the afflicted ones of the earth.

Selah.

10 Surely the wrath of man praises you.

The survivors of your wrath are restrained.

11 Make vows to Jehovah your God, and fulfill them!

Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.

12 He will cut off the spirit of princes.

He is feared by the kings of the earth.

PSALM 77

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

1 My cry goes to God!

Indeed, I cry to God for help,
and for him to listen to me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord.

My hand was stretched out in the night, and didn't get tired.

My soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remember God, and I groan.

I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.

Selah.

4 You hold my eyelids open.

I am so troubled that I can't speak.

5 I have considered the days of old,
the years of ancient times.

6 I remember my song in the night.

I consider in my own heart;

my spirit diligently inquires:

7 "Will the Lord reject us forever?

Will he be favorable no more?

8 Has his loving kindness vanished forever?

Does his promise fail for generations?

9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?

Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?"

Selah.

10 Then I thought, "I will appeal to this:
the years of the right hand of the Most High."

11 I will remember Jah's deeds;

for I will remember your wonders of old.

12 I will also meditate on all your work,
and consider your doings.

13 Your way, God, is in the sanctuary.

What god is great like God?

14 You are the God who does wonders.

You have made your strength known among the peoples.

15 You have redeemed your people with your arm,

the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah.

16 The waters saw you, God.

The waters saw you, and they writhed.
 The depths also convulsed.
 17 The clouds poured out water.
 The skies resounded with thunder.
 Your arrows also flashed around.
 18 The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind.
 The lightnings lit up the world.
 The earth trembled and shook.
 19 Your way was through the sea;
 your paths through the great waters.
 Your footsteps were not known.
 20 You led your people like a flock,
 by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM 78

A contemplation by Asaph.

1 Hear my teaching, my people.
 Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.
 2 I will open my mouth in a parable.
 I will utter dark sayings of old,
 3 which we have heard and known,
 and our fathers have told us.
 4 We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of Jehovah,
 his strength, and his wondrous deeds that he has done.
 5 For he established a testimony in Jacob,
 and appointed a teaching in Israel,
 which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children;
 6 that the generation to come might know,
 even the children who should be born;
 who should arise and tell their children, 7 that they might set their hope in God,
 and not forget God's deeds,
 but keep his commandments,
 8 and might not be as their fathers,
 a stubborn and rebellious generation,
 a generation that didn't make their hearts loyal,
 whose spirit was not steadfast with God.
 9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
 turned back in the day of battle.
 10 They didn't keep God's covenant, and refused to walk in his law.
 11 They forgot his doings,
 his wondrous deeds that he had shown them.
 12 He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers,
 in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
 13 He split the sea, and caused them to pass through.
 He made the waters stand as a heap.
 14 In the daytime he also led them with a cloud,
 and all night with a light of fire.
 15 He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
 16 He brought streams also out of the rock,
 and caused waters to run down like rivers.
 17 Yet they still went on to sin against him,
 to rebel against the Most High in the desert.
 18 They tempted God in their heart
 by asking food according to their desire.
 19 Yes, they spoke against God.
 They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out,
 and streams overflowed.
 Can he give bread also?
 Will he provide flesh for his people?"
 21 Therefore Jehovah heard, and was angry.
 A fire was kindled against Jacob,
 anger also went up against Israel, 22 because they didn't believe in God,
 and didn't trust in his salvation.
 23 Yet he commanded the skies above,
 and opened the doors of heaven.
 24 He rained down manna on them to eat, and gave them food from the sky.
 25 Man ate the bread of angels.
 He sent them food to the full.
 26 He caused the east wind to blow in the sky.
 By his power he guided the south wind.
 27 He rained also flesh on them as the dust;
 winged birds as the sand of the seas.
 28 He let them fall in the middle of their camp, around their habitations.
 29 So they ate, and were well filled.
 He gave them their own desire.
 30 They didn't turn from their cravings.
 Their food was yet in their mouths, 31 when the anger of God went up against
 them,
 killed some of their fattest,
 and struck down the young men of Israel.
 32 For all this they still sinned,
 and didn't believe in his wondrous works.
 33 Therefore he consumed their days in vanity,
 and their years in terror.
 34 When he killed them, then they inquired after him.
 They returned and sought God earnestly.
 35 They remembered that God was their rock,
 the Most High God, their redeemer.
 36 But they flattered him with their mouth,
 and lied to him with their tongue.
 37 For their heart was not right with him,
 neither were they faithful in his covenant.
 38 But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them.
 Yes, many times he turned his anger away,
 and didn't stir up all his wrath.
 39 He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.
 40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness,
 and grieved him in the desert!
 41 They turned again and tempted God,
 and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They didn't remember his hand, nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;
 43 how he set his signs in Egypt,
 his wonders in the field of Zoan, 44 he turned their rivers into blood,
 and their streams, so that they could not drink.
 45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them;
 and frogs, which destroyed them.
 46 He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor to the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
 their sycamore fig trees with frost.
 48 He gave over their livestock also to the hail,
 and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
 49 He threw on them the fierceness of his anger,
 wrath, indignation, and trouble,
 and a band of angels of evil.
 50 He made a path for his anger.
 He didn't spare their soul from death,
 but gave their life over to the pestilence, 51 and struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
 the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
 52 But he led out his own people like sheep,
 and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
 53 He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid,
 but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
 54 He brought them to the border of his
 sanctuary,
 to this mountain, which his right hand had taken.
 55 He also drove out the nations before them, allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
 56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God,
 and didn't keep his testimonies;
 57 but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers.
 They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
 58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places,
 and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.
 59 When God heard this, he was angry,
 and greatly abhorred Israel;
 60 so that he abandoned the tent of Shiloh,
 the tent which he placed among men;
 61 and delivered his strength into captivity,
 his glory into the adversary's hand.
 62 He also gave his people over to the sword,
 and was angry with his inheritance.
 63 Fire devoured their young men.
 Their virgins had no wedding song.
 64 Their priests fell by the sword,
 and their widows couldn't weep.
 65 Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep,
 like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.
 66 He struck his adversaries backward.
 He put them to a perpetual reproach.
 67 Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph,
 and didn't choose the tribe of Ephraim, 68 but chose the tribe of Judah,
 Mount Zion which he loved.
 69 He built his sanctuary like the heights,
 like the earth which he has established forever.
 70 He also chose David his servant,
 and took him from the sheepfolds;
 71 from following the ewes that have their young,
 he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob,
 his people,
 and Israel, his inheritance.
 72 So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

PSALM 79

A Psalm by Asaph.

1 God, the nations have come into your inheritance.
 They have defiled your holy temple.
 They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
 2 They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your saints to the animals of the
 earth.
 3 Their blood they have shed like water around Jerusalem.
 There was no one to bury them.
 4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to those who are around us.
 5 How long, Jehovah?
 Will you be angry forever?
 Will your jealousy burn like fire?
 6 Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you;
 on the kingdoms that don't call on your name;
 7 for they have devoured Jacob,
 and destroyed his homeland.
 8 Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us.
 Let your tender mercies speedily meet us,
 for we are in desperate need.
 9 Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your name.
 Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.
 10 Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"
 Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes,
 that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.
 11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before
 you.
 According to the greatness of your power,
 preserve those who are sentenced to death.
 12 Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom
 their reproach with which they have reproached you, Lord.
 13 So we, your people and sheep of your pasture,
 will give you thanks forever.
 We will praise you forever, to all generations.

PSALM 80

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

1 Hear us, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock,
 you who sit above the cherubim, shine out.
 2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might!
 Come to save us!
 3 Turn us again, God.
 Cause your face to shine,
 and we will be saved.
 4 Jehovah God of Armies,
 how long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?

5 You have fed them with the bread of tears,
and given them tears to drink in large measure.
6 You make us a source of contention to our neighbors.

Our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, God of Armies.

Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.

8 You brought a vine out of Egypt.

You drove out the nations, and planted it.

9 You cleared the ground for it.

It took deep root, and filled the land.

10 The mountains were covered with its shadow.

Its boughs were like God's cedars.

11 It sent out its branches to the sea,
its shoots to the River.

12 Why have you broken down its walls,
so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?

13 The boar out of the wood ravages it.

The wild animals of the field feed on it.

14 Turn again, we beg you, God of Armies.

Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine,

15 the stock which your right hand planted,
the branch that you made strong for yourself.

16 It's burned with fire.

It's cut down.

They perish at your rebuke.

17 Let your hand be on the man of your right
hand,

on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.

18 So we will not turn away from you.

Revive us, and we will call on your name.

19 Turn us again, Jehovah God of Armies.

Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.

PSALM 81

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath.

By Asaph.

1 Sing aloud to God, our strength!

Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob!

2 Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine,
the pleasant lyre with the harp.

3 Blow the trumpet at the New Moon,
at the full moon, on our feast day.

4 For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

5 He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony,
when he went out over the land of Egypt,
I heard a language that I didn't know.

6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden.
His hands were freed from the basket.

7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you.
I answered you in the secret place of thunder.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah."

Selah.

8 "Hear, my people, and I will testify to you,
Israel, if you would listen to me!

9 There shall be no strange god in you, neither shall you worship any foreign god.

10 I am Jehovah, your God,
who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people didn't listen to my voice.
Israel desired none of me.

12 So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts,
that they might walk in their own counsels.

13 Oh that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!

14 I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of Jehovah would cringe before
him,

and their punishment would last forever.

16 But he would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat.

I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock."

PSALM 82

A Psalm by Asaph.

1 God presides in the great assembly.

He judges among the gods.

2 "How long will you judge unjustly, and show partiality to the wicked?"

Selah.

3 "Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless.

Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.

4 Rescue the weak and needy.

Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked."

5 They don't know, neither do they understand.
They walk back and forth in darkness.

All the foundations of the earth are shaken.

6 I said, "You are gods,

all of you are sons of the Most High.

7 Nevertheless you shall die like men, and fall like one of the rulers."

8 Arise, God, judge the earth,
for you inherit all of the nations.

PSALM 83

A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

1 God, don't keep silent.

Don't keep silent,

and don't be still, God.

2 For, behold, your enemies are stirred up.

Those who hate you have lifted up their heads.

3 They conspire with cunning against your
people.

They plot against your cherished ones.

4 "Come," they say, "let's destroy them as a nation*, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more."

5 For they have conspired together with one mind.

They form an alliance against
you.

6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;

Moab, and the Hagrites;

7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;

Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assyria also is joined with
them.

* 83:4-8 Repeatedly since the restoration of modern Israel in 1948, the surrounding nations have similarly conspired together to eliminate the Jewish state.

They have helped the children of Lot.

Selah.

9 Do to them as you did to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon;
10 who perished at Endor,
who became as dung for the earth.
11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb;
yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna; 12 who said, "Let us take possession of God's pasture lands."
13 My God, make them like tumbleweed;
like chaff before the wind.
14 As the fire that burns the forest,
as the flame that sets the mountains on fire, 15 so pursue them with your tempest,
and terrify them with your storm.
16 Fill their faces with confusion,
that they may seek your name, Jehovah.
17 Let them be disappointed and dismayed
forever.
Yes, let them be confounded and perish;
18 that they may know that you alone, whose name is Jehovah,
are the Most High over all the earth.

PSALM 84

*For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath.
A Psalm by the sons of Korah.*

1 How lovely are your dwellings,
Jehovah of Armies!
2 My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of Jehovah.
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living
God.
3 Yes, the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young,
near your altars, Jehovah of Armies, my King,
and my God.
4 Blessed are those who dwell in your house.
They are always praising you.

Selah.

5 Blessed are those whose strength is in you;
who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.
6 Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs.
Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings.
7 They go from strength to strength.
Everyone of them appears before God in Zion.
8 Jehovah, God of Armies, hear my prayer.
Listen, God of Jacob.

Selah.

9 Behold, God our shield,
look at the face of your anointed.
10 For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
11 For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield.
Jehovah will give grace and glory.
He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly.

12 Jehovah of Armies,
blessed is the man who trusts in you.

PSALM 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

1 Jehovah, you have been favorable to your land.

You have restored the fortunes of Jacob.

2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people.

You have covered all their sin.

Selah.

3 You have taken away all your wrath.

You have turned from the fierceness of your anger.

4 Turn us, God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease.

5 Will you be angry with us forever?

Will you draw out your anger to all generations?

6 Won't you revive us again,
that your people may rejoice in you?

7 Show us your loving kindness, Jehovah.

Grant us your salvation.

8 I will hear what God, Jehovah, will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, his saints;
but let them not turn again to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is near those who fear
him,
that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth meet together.

Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth springs out of the earth.
Righteousness has looked down from heaven.

12 Yes, Jehovah will give that which is good.

Our land will yield its increase.

13 Righteousness goes before him,
and prepares the way for his steps.

PSALM 86

A Prayer by David.

1 Hear, Jehovah, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul, for I am godly.

You, my God, save your servant who trusts in
you.

3 Be merciful to me, Lord,
for I call to you all day long.

4 Bring joy to the soul of your servant,
for to you, Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive; abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you.

6 Hear, Jehovah, my prayer.

Listen to the voice of my petitions.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call on you,
for you will answer me.

8 There is no one like you among the gods, Lord,
nor any deeds like your deeds.

9 All nations* you have made

* 86:9 This is one of many prophecies that "all nations" would come and worship the God of the Bible. We today are accustomed to the fact that there are Christians in every country, that Jews can be found everywhere, and that Muslims also profess to worship the same God who inspired the Psalms. But it wasn't always that way.

When this Psalm was written, each nation had its own gods and goddesses. The Ammonites worshipped Molech, and sacrificed their children as part of that worship. The people of Phoenicia and Canaan bowed down to Baal and Ashtoreth. The nation of Moab served their god Chemosh. The Philistines prostrated themselves before Dagon.

will come and worship before you, Lord.

They shall glorify your name.

10 For you are great, and do wondrous things.
You are God alone.

11 Teach me your way, Jehovah.

I will walk in your truth.

Make my heart undivided to fear your name.

12 I will praise you, Lord my God, with my whole heart.

I will glorify your name forever more.

13 For your loving kindness is great toward me.

You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.

14 God, the proud have risen up against me.

A company of violent men have sought after my soul,

and they don't hold regard for you before them.

15 But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth.

16 Turn to me, and have mercy on me!

Give your strength to your servant.

Save the son of your servant.

17 Show me a sign of your goodness, that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed,

because you, Jehovah, have helped me, and comforted me.

PSALM 87

A Psalm by the sons of Korah; a Song.

1 His foundation is in the holy mountains.

2 Jehovah loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God.

Selah.

4 I will record Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge me.

Behold, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia:

"This one was born there."

5 Yes, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one was born in her;"

the Most High himself will establish her.

6 Jehovah will count, when he writes up the peoples,

"This one was born there."

Selah.

7 Those who sing as well as those who dance say,

"All my springs are in you."

PSALM 88

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Suffering of Affliction." A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

1 Jehovah, the God of my salvation,

I have cried day and night before you.

2 Let my prayer enter into your presence.

Turn your ear to my cry.

3 For my soul is full of troubles.

My life draws near to Sheol.

4 I am counted among those who go down into the pit.

I am like a man who has no help,

5 set apart among the dead,

like the slain who lie in the grave,

whom you remember no more.

They are cut off from your hand.

6 You have laid me in the lowest pit,

in the darkest depths.

7 Your wrath lies heavily on me.

You have afflicted me with all your waves.

Selah.

8 You have taken my friends from me.

You have made me an abomination to them.

I am confined, and I can't escape.

9 My eyes are dim from grief.

I have called on you daily, Jehovah.

I have spread out my hands to you.

10 Do you show wonders to the dead?

Do the departed spirits rise up and praise you?

Selah.

11 Is your loving kindness declared in the grave?

Or your faithfulness in Destruction?

12 Are your wonders made known in the dark?

Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But to you, Jehovah, I have cried.

In the morning, my prayer comes before you.

14 Jehovah, why do you reject my soul?

Why do you hide your face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up.

While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.

16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me.

Your terrors have cut me off.

17 They came around me like water all day long.

They completely engulfed me.

18 You have put lover and friend far from me, and my friends into darkness.

PSALM 89

A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

1 I will sing of the loving kindness of Jehovah forever.

With my mouth, I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.

2 I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever.

You established the heavens.

Your faithfulness is in them."

3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen one,

Even hundreds of years after the Psalms were written, the Greeks in Ephesus shouted praise to their goddess Artemis. The Egyptians, Greeks and Romans all worshipped whole pantheons of gods, including Zeus, Mercury, deified emperors and pharaohs, and many, many others. But the people of Israel worshipped the unseen Creator of the universe, who revealed himself to Abraham and Abraham's offspring by the name Yahweh or Jehovah—the Hebrew tetragrammaton or word of four letters.

How many people today still worship Molech, Chemosh or Dagon? A better question might be, How many have even heard of these long-lost 'gods'? The names of Zeus and Mercury are still recognized today as gods of classical antiquity, but how many cities today boast of temples where people assemble to pray to these Greek and Roman deities? But the God of Abraham has worshipers today in Jewish synagogues throughout the earth. Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox churches devoted to this same God are found on every continent. And a billion Muslims spread across the earth also profess to worship the God of Abraham.

Bible prophecies that foretold the God of Abraham would be worshipped by people of all nations can be found at Psalm 22:27, Psalm 66:4, Psalm 67:2, Psalm 67:7, Psalm 86:9, Jeremiah 16:19-20, Zechariah 14:16, Malachi 1:11 and Revelation 15:4.

The fulfillment of these prophecies gives us reason to believe the other Bible prophecies about the 'end times' we are living in today.

I have sworn to David, my servant,

4 'I will establish your offspring forever, and build up your throne to all generations.'"^{*}

Selah.

5 The heavens will praise your wonders, Jehovah;
your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

6 For who in the skies can be compared to Jehovah?

Who among the sons of the heavenly beings is like Jehovah,

7 a very awesome God in the council of the holy ones,

to be feared above all those who are around him?

8 Jehovah, God of Armies, who is a mighty one, like you?

Jah, your faithfulness is around you.

9 You rule the pride of the sea.

When its waves rise up, you calm them.

10 You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain.

You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.

11 The heavens are yours.

The earth also is yours;

the world and its fullness.

You have founded them.

12 The north and the south, you have created them.

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.

13 You have a mighty arm.

Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.

14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.

Loving kindness and truth go before your face.

15 Blessed are the people who learn to acclaim you.

They walk in the light of your presence, Jehovah.

16 In your name they rejoice all day.

In your righteousness, they are exalted.

17 For you are the glory of their strength.

In your favor, our horn will be exalted.

18 For our shield belongs to Jehovah;

our king to the Holy One of Israel.

19 Then you spoke in vision to your saints, and said, "I have given strength to the warrior.

I have exalted a young man from the people.

20 I have found David, my servant.

I have anointed him with my holy oil,

21 with whom my hand shall be established.

My arm will also strengthen him.

22 No enemy will tax him.

No wicked man will oppress him.

23 I will beat down his adversaries before him, and strike those who hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with him.

In my name, his horn will be exalted.

25 I will set his hand also on the sea, and his right hand on the rivers.

26 He will call to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation!'

27 I will also appoint him my firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.

28 I will keep my loving kindness for him forever more.

My covenant will stand firm with him.

29 I will also make his offspring endure forever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If his children forsake my law,

and don't walk in my ordinances;

31 if they break my statutes, and don't keep my commandments;

32 then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 But I will not completely take my loving kindness from him, nor allow my faithfulness to fail.

34 I will not break my covenant,

nor alter what my lips have uttered.

35 Once have I sworn by my holiness,

I will not lie to David.

36 His offspring will endure forever, his throne like the sun before me.

37 It will be established forever like the moon,

the faithful witness in the sky."

Selah.

38 But you have rejected and spurned.

You have been angry with your anointed.

39 You have renounced the covenant of your servant.

You have defiled his crown in the dust.

40 You have broken down all his hedges.

You have brought his strongholds to ruin.

41 All who pass by the way rob him.

He has become a reproach to his neighbors.

42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries.

You have made all of his enemies rejoice.

43 Yes, you turn back the edge of his sword, and haven't supported him in battle.

44 You have ended his splendor, and thrown his throne down to the ground.

45 You have shortened the days of his youth.

You have covered him with shame.

Selah.

46 How long, Jehovah?

Will you hide yourself forever?

Will your wrath burn like fire?

47 Remember how short my time is!

For what vanity you have created all the children of men!

48 What man is he who shall live and not see death, who shall deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?

Selah.

49 Lord, where are your former loving kindnesses, which you swore to David in your faithfulness?

50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of your

^{*} 89:3-4 The Gospels of Matthew and Luke both establish Jesus genealogically as heir to the throne of King David. And it is Christ's eternal kingdom that fulfills this promise made in the Psalms.

servants,
 how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty peoples,
 51 With which your enemies have mocked,
 Jehovah,
 with which they have mocked the footsteps of your anointed one.
 52 Blessed be Jehovah forever more.
 Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV

PSALM 90

A Prayer by Moses, the man of God.

1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place for all generations.
 2 Before the mountains were born,
 before you had formed the earth and the world,
 even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.
 3 You turn man to destruction, saying,
 "Return, you children of men."
 4 For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past,
 like a watch in the night.
 5 You sweep them away as they sleep.
 In the morning they sprout like new grass.
 6 In the morning it sprouts and springs up.
 By evening, it is withered and dry.
 7 For we are consumed in your anger.
 We are troubled in your wrath.
 8 You have set our iniquities before you,
 our secret sins in the light of your presence.
 9 For all our days have passed away in your wrath.
 We bring our years to an end as a sigh.
 10 The days of our years are seventy,
 or even by reason of strength eighty years;
 yet their pride is but labor and sorrow,
 for it passes quickly, and we fly away.
 11 Who knows the power of your anger, your wrath according to the fear that is due to
 you?
 12 So teach us to number our days,
 that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
 13 Relent, Jehovah!
 How long?
 Have compassion on your servants!
 14 Satisfy us in the morning with your loving
 kindness,
 that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
 15 Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us,
 for as many years as we have seen evil.
 16 Let your work appear to your servants;
 your glory to their children.
 17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us;
 establish the work of our hands for us;
 yes, establish the work of our hands.

PSALM 91

1 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
 will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
 2 I will say of Jehovah, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
 my God, in whom I trust."
 3 For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler,
 and from the deadly pestilence.
 4 He will cover you with his feathers.

Under his wings you will take refuge.
 His faithfulness is your shield and rampart.
 5 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
 nor of the arrow that flies by day;
 6 nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
 nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.
 7 A thousand may fall at your side,
 and ten thousand at your right hand;
 but it will not come near you.
 8 You will only look with your eyes,
 and see the recompense of the wicked.
 9 Because you have made Jehovah your refuge, and the Most High your dwelling place, 10 no evil shall happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
 11 For he will put his angels in charge of you,
 to guard you in all your ways.
 12 They will bear you up in their hands, so that you won't dash your foot against a stone.
 13 You will tread on the lion and cobra.
 You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot.
 14 "Because he has set his love on me,
 therefore I will deliver him.
 I will set him on high, because he has known my name.
 15 He will call on me, and I will answer him.
 I will be with him in trouble.
 I will deliver him, and honor him.
 16 I will satisfy him with long life,
 and show him my salvation."

PSALM 92

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

1 It is a good thing to give thanks to Jehovah, to sing praises to your name, Most High;
 2 to proclaim your loving kindness in the morning,
 and your faithfulness every night, 3 with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp,
 and with the melody of the lyre.
 4 For you, Jehovah, have made me glad through your work.
 I will triumph in the works of your hands.
 5 How great are your works, Jehovah!
 Your thoughts are very deep.
 6 A senseless man doesn't know, neither does a fool understand this:
 7 though the wicked spring up as the grass, and all the evildoers flourish,
 they will be destroyed forever.
 8 But you, Jehovah, are on high forever more.
 9 For, behold, your enemies, Jehovah, for, behold, your enemies shall perish.
 All the evildoers will be scattered.
 10 But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox.
 I am anointed with fresh oil.
 11 My eye has also seen my enemies.
 My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.
 12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree.
 He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
 13 They are planted in Jehovah's house.
 They will flourish in our God's courts.
 14 They will still produce fruit in old age.
 They will be full of sap and green,

15 to show that Jehovah is upright.
He is my rock,
and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM 93

1 Jehovah reigns!
He is clothed with majesty!
Jehovah is armed with strength.
The world also is established.
It can't be moved.

2 Your throne is established from long ago.
You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, Jehovah,
the floods have lifted up their voice.
The floods lift up their waves.

4 Above the voices of many waters,
the mighty breakers of the sea,
Jehovah on high is mighty.

5 Your statutes stand firm.
Holiness adorns your house,
Jehovah, forever more.

PSALM 94

1 Jehovah, you God to whom vengeance belongs,
you God to whom vengeance belongs, shine out.

2 Rise up, you judge of the earth.
Pay back the proud what they deserve.

3 Jehovah, how long will the wicked,
how long will the wicked triumph?

4 They pour out arrogant words.
All the evildoers boast.

5 They break your people in pieces, Jehovah, and afflict your heritage.

6 They kill the widow and the alien,
and murder the fatherless.

7 They say, "Jah will not see, neither will Jacob's God consider."

8 Consider, you senseless among the people;
you fools, when will you be wise?

9 He who implanted the ear, won't he hear?
He who formed the eye, won't he see?

10 He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish?

He who teaches man knows.

11 Jehovah knows the thoughts of man,
that they are futile.

12 Blessed is the man whom you discipline,
Jah,

and teach out of your law;

13 that you may give him rest from the days of adversity,

until the pit is dug for the wicked.

14 For Jehovah won't reject his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 For judgment will return to righteousness.
All the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?

17 Unless Jehovah had been my help,
my soul would have soon lived in silence.

18 When I said, "My foot is slipping!"
your loving kindness, Jehovah, held me up.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, your comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you,

which brings about mischief by statute?

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But Jehovah has been my high tower,
my God, the rock of my refuge.

23 He has brought on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness.

Jehovah, our God, will cut them off.

PSALM 95

1 Oh come, let's sing to Jehovah.

Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!

2 Let's come before his presence with thanksgiving.

Let's extol him with songs!

3 For Jehovah is a great God,
a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth.
The heights of the mountains are also his.

5 The sea is his, and he made it.
His hands formed the dry land.

6 Oh come, let's worship and bow down.

Let's kneel before Jehovah, our Maker,
7 for he is our God.

We are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep in his care.

Today, oh that you would hear his voice!

8 Don't harden your heart, as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the wilderness,

9 when your fathers tempted me, tested me, and saw my work.

10 Forty long years I was grieved with that generation,

and said, "It is a people that errs in their heart.
They have not known my ways."

11 Therefore I swore in my wrath,
"They won't enter into my rest."

PSALM 96

1 Sing to Jehovah a new song!

Sing to Jehovah, all the earth.

2 Sing to Jehovah!

Bless his name!

Proclaim his salvation from day to day!

3 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.

4 For great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised!

He is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but Jehovah made the heavens.

6 Honor and majesty are before him.

Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Ascribe to Jehovah, you families of nations,
ascribe to Jehovah glory and strength.

8 Ascribe to Jehovah the glory due to his name.

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 Worship Jehovah in holy array.

Tremble before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the nations, "Jehovah reigns."

The world is also established.

It can't be moved.

He will judge the peoples with equity.

11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth
rejoice.

Let the sea roar, and its fullness!

12 Let the field and all that is in it exult!

Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy

13 before Jehovah; for he comes,
for he comes to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness,
the peoples with his truth.

PSALM 97

1 Jehovah reigns!
Let the earth rejoice!
Let the multitude of islands be glad!
2 Clouds and darkness are around him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
3 A fire goes before him,
and burns up his adversaries on every side.
4 His lightning lights up the world.
The earth sees, and trembles.
5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of Jehovah,
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
6 The heavens declare his righteousness.
All the peoples have seen his glory.
7 Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images,
who boast in their idols.
Worship him, all you gods!
8 Zion heard and was glad.
The daughters of Judah rejoiced,
because of your judgments, Jehovah.
9 For you, Jehovah, are most high above all the
earth.
You are exalted far above all gods.
10 You who love Jehovah, hate evil.
He preserves the souls of his saints.
He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.
12 Be glad in Jehovah, you righteous people!
Give thanks to his holy Name.

PSALM 98*A Psalm.*

1 Sing to Jehovah a new song,
for he has done marvelous things!
His right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him.
2 Jehovah has made known his salvation.
He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.
3 He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
4 Make a joyful noise to Jehovah, all the earth!
Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises!
5 Sing praises to Jehovah with the harp, with the harp and the voice of melody.
6 With trumpets and sound of the ram's horn, make a joyful noise before the King, Jehovah.
7 Let the sea roar with its fullness;
the world, and those who dwell therein.
8 Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing for joy together.
9 Let them sing before Jehovah,
for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with equity.

PSALM 99

1 Jehovah reigns! Let the peoples tremble.
He sits enthroned among the cherubim.
Let the earth be moved.
2 Jehovah is great in Zion.
He is high above all the peoples.
3 Let them praise your great and awesome

name.

He is Holy!
4 The King's strength also loves justice.
You do establish equity.
You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.
5 Exalt Jehovah our God.
Worship at his footstool.
He is Holy!
6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
Samuel among those who call on his name;
they called on Jehovah, and he answered them.
7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud.
They kept his testimonies,
the statute that he gave them.
8 You answered them, Jehovah our God.
You are a God who forgave them,
although you took vengeance for their doings.
9 Exalt Jehovah, our God.
Worship at his holy hill, for Jehovah, our God, is holy!

PSALM 100*A Psalm of thanksgiving.*

1 Shout for joy to Jehovah, all you lands!
2 Serve Jehovah with gladness.
Come before his presence with singing.
3 Know that Jehovah, he is God.
It is he who has made us, and we are his.
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, into his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him, and bless his name.
5 For Jehovah is good.
His loving kindness endures forever,
his faithfulness to all generations.

PSALM 101*A Psalm by David.*

1 I will sing of loving kindness and justice.
To you, Jehovah, I will sing praises.
2 I will be careful to live a blameless life.
When will you come to me?
I will walk within my house with a blameless
heart.
3 I will set no vile thing before my eyes.
I hate the deeds of faithless men.
They will not cling to me.
4 A perverse heart will be far from me.
I will have nothing to do with evil.
5 I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.
I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.
6 My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me.
He who walks in a perfect way,
he will serve me.
7 He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house.
He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.
8 Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land;
to cut off all the workers of iniquity from Jehovah's city.

PSALM 102*A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before Jehovah.*

1 Hear my prayer, Jehovah!
Let my cry come to you.

2 Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress.

Turn your ear to me.

Answer me quickly in the day when I call.

3 For my days consume away like smoke.

My bones are burned as a torch.

4 My heart is blighted like grass, and withered, for I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones stick to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness.

I have become as an owl of the waste places.

7 I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.

8 My enemies reproach me all day.

Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears,

10 because of your indignation and your wrath, for you have taken me up, and thrown me away.

11 My days are like a long shadow.

I have withered like grass.

12 But you, Jehovah, will remain forever; your renown endures to all generations.

13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion; for it is time to have pity on her.

Yes, the set time has come.

14 For your servants take pleasure in her stones, and have pity on her dust.

15 So the nations will fear Jehovah's name; all the kings of the earth your glory.

16 For Jehovah has built up Zion.

He has appeared in his glory.

17 He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.

18 This will be written for the generation to come.

A people which will be created will Praise Jah.

19 For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary.

From heaven, Jehovah saw the earth;

20 to hear the groans of the prisoner;

to free those who are condemned to death;

21 that men may declare Jehovah's name in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 when the peoples are gathered together, the kingdoms, to serve Jehovah.

23 He weakened my strength along the course. He shortened my days.

24 I said, "My God, don't take me away in the middle of my days.

Your years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old, you laid the foundation of the earth.

The heavens are the work of your hands.

26 They will perish, but you will endure.

Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment.

You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.

27 But you are the same.

Your years will have no end.

28 The children of your servants will continue.

Their offspring will be established before you."

PSALM 103

By David.

1 Praise Jehovah, my soul!

All that is within me, praise his holy name!

2 Praise Jehovah, my soul, and don't forget all his benefits;

3 who forgives all your sins;

who heals all your diseases;

4 who redeems your life from destruction; who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies;

5 who satisfies your desire with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 Jehovah executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the children of Israel.

8 Jehovah is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness.

9 He will not always accuse; neither will he stay angry forever.

10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities.

11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his loving kindness toward those who fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

13 Like a father has compassion on his children, so Jehovah has compassion on those who fear him.

14 For he knows how we are made.

He remembers that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are like grass.

As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone.

Its place remembers it no more.

17 But Jehovah's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear him, his righteousness to children's children;

18 to those who keep his covenant, to those who remember to obey his precepts.

19 Jehovah has established his throne in the heavens.

His kingdom rules over all.

20 Praise Jehovah, you angels of his, who are mighty in strength, who fulfill his word, obeying the voice of his word.

21 Praise Jehovah, all you armies of his,

you servants of his, who do his pleasure.

22 Praise Jehovah, all you works of his, in all places of his dominion.

Praise Jehovah, my soul!

PSALM 104

1 Bless Jehovah, my soul.

Jehovah, my God, you are very great.

You are clothed with honor and majesty.

2 He covers himself with light as with a garment.

He stretches out the heavens like a curtain.

3 He lays the beams of his rooms in the waters.

He makes the clouds his chariot.

He walks on the wings of the wind.

4 He makes his messengers winds;
his servants flames of fire.
5 He laid the foundations of the earth,
that it should not be moved forever.
6 You covered it with the deep as with a cloak.
The waters stood above the mountains.
7 At your rebuke they fled.
At the voice of your thunder they hurried away.
8 The mountains rose,
the valleys sank down,
to the place which you had assigned to them.
9 You have set a boundary that they may not pass over;
that they don't turn again to cover the earth.
10 He sends springs into the valleys.
They run among the mountains.
11 They give drink to every animal of the field.
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
12 The birds of the sky nest by them.
They sing among the branches.
13 He waters the mountains from his rooms.
The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.
14 He causes the grass to grow for the livestock,
and plants for man to cultivate,
that he may produce food out of the earth:
15 wine that makes glad the heart of man,
oil to make his face to shine,
and bread that strengthens man's heart.
16 Jehovah's trees are well watered,
the cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted;
17 where the birds make their nests.
The stork makes its home in the cypress trees.
18 The high mountains are for the wild goats.
The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.
19 He appointed the moon for seasons.
The sun knows when to set.
20 You make darkness, and it is night,
in which all the animals of the forest prowl.
21 The young lions roar after their prey,
and seek their food from God.
22 The sun rises, and they steal away,
and lay down in their dens.
23 Man goes out to his work,
to his labor until the evening.
24 Jehovah, how many are your works!
In wisdom have you made them all.
The earth is full of your riches.
25 There is the sea, great and wide,
in which are innumerable living things,
both small and large animals.
26 There the ships go,
and leviathan, whom you formed to play there.
27 These all wait for you,
that you may give them their food in due season.
28 You give to them; they gather.
You open your hand; they are satisfied with good.
29 You hide your face: they are troubled;
you take away their breath: they die, and return to the dust.
30 You send out your Spirit and they are created.
You renew the face of the ground.
31 Let Jehovah's glory endure forever.
Let Jehovah rejoice in his works.
32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles.

He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
33 I will sing to Jehovah as long as I live.
I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

34 Let your meditation be sweet to him.
I will rejoice in Jehovah.
35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth.
Let the wicked be no more.
Bless Jehovah, my soul.
Praise Jah!

PSALM 105

1 Give thanks to Jehovah! Call on his name!
Make his doings known among the peoples.
2 Sing to him, sing praises to him!
Tell of all his marvelous works.
3 Glory in his holy name.
Let the heart of those who seek Jehovah
rejoice.
4 Seek Jehovah and his strength.
Seek his face forever more.
5 Remember his marvelous works that he has done;
his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,
6 you offspring of Abraham, his servant,
you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
7 He is Jehovah, our God.
His judgments are in all the earth.
8 He has remembered his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand
generations,
9 the covenant which he made with Abraham,
his oath to Isaac,
10 and confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute;
to Israel for an everlasting covenant, 11 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan,
the lot of your inheritance;"
12 when they were but a few men in number,
yes, very few, and foreigners in it.
13 They went about from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people.
14 He allowed no one to do them wrong.
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,
15 "Don't touch my anointed ones!
Do my prophets no harm!"
16 He called for a famine on the land.
He destroyed the food supplies.
17 He sent a man before them.
Joseph was sold for a slave.
18 They bruised his feet with shackles.
His neck was locked in irons,
19 until the time that his word happened,
and Jehovah's word proved him true.
20 The king sent and freed him;
even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
21 He made him lord of his house,
and ruler of all of his possessions;
22 to discipline his princes at his pleasure,
and to teach his elders wisdom.
23 Israel also came into Egypt.
Jacob lived in the land of Ham.
24 He increased his people greatly,
and made them stronger than their adversaries.
25 He turned their heart to hate his people,
to conspire against his servants.
26 He sent Moses, his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
27 They performed miracles among them,

and wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark.
 They didn't rebel against his words.
 29 He turned their waters into blood,
 and killed their fish.
 30 Their land swarmed with frogs,
 even in the rooms of their kings.
 31 He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
 and lice in all their borders.
 32 He gave them hail for rain,
 with lightning in their land.
 33 He struck their vines and also their fig trees,
 and shattered the trees of their country.
 34 He spoke, and the locusts came,
 and the grasshoppers, without number, 35 ate up every plant in their land;
 and ate up the fruit of their ground.
 36 He struck also all the firstborn in their land,
 the first fruits of all their manhood.
 37 He brought them out with silver and gold.
 There was not one feeble person among his tribes.
 38 Egypt was glad when they departed,
 for the fear of them had fallen on them.
 39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
 fire to give light in the night.
 40 They asked, and he brought quails,
 and satisfied them with the bread of the sky.
 41 He opened the rock, and waters gushed out.
 They ran as a river in the dry places.
 42 For he remembered his holy word,
 and Abraham, his servant.
 43 He brought his people out with joy,
 his chosen with singing.
 44 He gave them the lands of the nations.
 They took the labor of the peoples in possession, 45 that they might keep his statutes,
 and observe his laws.
 Praise Jah!

PSALM 106

1 Praise Jehovah!
 Give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 2 Who can utter the mighty acts of Jehovah, or fully declare all his praise?
 3 Blessed are those who keep justice.
 Blessed is one who does what is right at all times.
 4 Remember me, Jehovah, with the favor that you show to your people.
 Visit me with your salvation,
 5 that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
 that I may glory with your inheritance.
 6 We have sinned with our fathers.
 We have committed iniquity.
 We have done wickedly.
 7 Our fathers didn't understand your wonders in Egypt.
 They didn't remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses,
 but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
 8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
 that he might make his mighty power known.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried
 up;
 so he led them through the depths, as through a desert.
 10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
 and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
 11 The waters covered their adversaries.
 There was not one of them left.
 12 Then they believed his words.
 They sang his praise.
 13 They soon forgot his works.
 They didn't wait for his counsel, 14 but gave in to craving in the desert,
 and tested God in the wasteland.
 15 He gave them their request,
 but sent leanness into their soul.
 16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron, Jehovah's saint.
 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
 18 A fire was kindled in their company.
 The flame burned up the wicked.
 19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image.
 20 Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.
 21 They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt, 22 wondrous works in the land of Ham,
 and awesome things by the Red Sea.
 23 Therefore he said that he would destroy
 them,
 had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach,
 to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.
 24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land.
 They didn't believe his word,
 25 but murmured in their tents,
 and didn't listen to Jehovah's voice.
 26 Therefore he swore to them that he would overthrow them in the wilderness,
 27 that he would overthrow their offspring
 among the nations,
 and scatter them in the lands.
 28 They joined themselves also to Baal Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds.
 The plague broke in on them.
 30 Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment,
 so the plague was stopped.
 31 That was credited to him for righteousness,
 for all generations to come.
 32 They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,
 so that Moses was troubled for their sakes; 33 because they were rebellious against his spirit,
 he spoke rashly with his lips.
 34 They didn't destroy the peoples,
 as Jehovah commanded them, 35 but mixed themselves with the nations,
 and learned their works.

36 They served their idols, which became a snare to them.
37 Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
38 They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
The land was polluted with blood.
39 Thus were they defiled with their works,
and prostituted themselves in their deeds.
40 Therefore Jehovah burned with anger against his people.
He abhorred his inheritance.
41 He gave them into the hand of the nations.
Those who hated them ruled over them.
42 Their enemies also oppressed them.
They were brought into subjection under their
hand.
43 Many times he delivered them,
but they were rebellious in their counsel,
and were brought low in their iniquity.
44 Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
when he heard their cry.
45 He remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
46 He made them also to be pitied
by all those who carried them captive.
47 Save us, Jehovah, our God, gather us from among the nations,
to give thanks to your holy name,
to triumph in your praise!
48 Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel,
from everlasting even to everlasting!
Let all the people say, "Amen."
Praise Jah!

BOOK V

PSALM 107

1 Give thanks to Jehovah,
for he is good,
for his loving kindness endures forever.
2 Let the redeemed by Jehovah say so, whom he has redeemed from the hand of the
adversary,
3 and gathered out of the lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way.
They found no city to live in.
5 Hungry and thirsty,
their soul fainted in them.
6 Then they cried to Jehovah in their trouble,
and he delivered them out of their distresses, 7 he led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city to live in.
8 Let them praise Jehovah for his loving
kindness,
for his wonderful deeds to the children of men!
9 For he satisfies the longing soul.
He fills the hungry soul with good.
10 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of
death,
being bound in affliction and iron, 11 because they rebelled against the words of God,
and condemned the counsel of the Most High.

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labor.
They fell down, and there was no one to help.
13 Then they cried to Jehovah in their trouble,
and he saved them out of their distresses.
14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
and broke away their chains.
15 Let them praise Jehovah for his loving
kindness,
for his wonderful deeds to the children of men!
16 For he has broken the gates of brass,
and cut through bars of iron.
17 Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience,
and because of their iniquities.
18 Their soul abhors all kinds of food.
They draw near to the gates of death.
19 Then they cry to Jehovah in their trouble,
he saves them out of their distresses.
20 He sends his word, and heals them,
and delivers them from their graves.
21 Let them praise Jehovah for his loving
kindness,
for his wonderful deeds to the children of men!
22 Let them offer the sacrifices of
thanksgiving,
and declare his deeds with singing.
23 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
who do business in great waters;
24 these see Jehovah's deeds,
and his wonders in the deep.
25 For he commands, and raises the stormy wind,
which lifts up its waves.
26 They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths.
Their soul melts away because of trouble.
27 They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken man,
and are at their wits' end.
28 Then they cry to Jehovah in their trouble,
and he brings them out of their distress.
29 He makes the storm a calm,
so that its waves are still.
30 Then they are glad because it is calm,
so he brings them to their desired haven.
31 Let them praise Jehovah for his loving
kindness,
for his wonderful deeds for the children of
men!
32 Let them exalt him also in the assembly of
the people,
and praise him in the seat of the elders.
33 He turns rivers into a desert,
water springs into a thirsty ground, 34 and a fruitful land into a salt waste,
for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35 He turns a desert into a pool of water,
and a dry land into water springs.
36 There he makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city to live in,
37 sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of increase.
38 He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly.
He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.
39 Again, they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.

 40 He pours contempt on princes, and causes them to wander in a trackless waste.

41 Yet he lifts the needy out of their affliction, and increases their families like a flock.

42 The upright will see it, and be glad.
 All the wicked will shut their mouths.

43 Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things.

They will consider the loving kindnesses of Jehovah.

PSALM 108

A Song. A Psalm by David.

1 My heart is steadfast, God.

I will sing and I will make music with my soul.

2 Wake up, harp and lyre!

I will wake up the dawn.

3 I will give thanks to you, Jehovah, among the nations.

I will sing praises to you among the peoples.

4 For your loving kindness is great above the heavens.

Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

5 Be exalted, God, above the heavens!

Let your glory be over all the earth.

6 That your beloved may be delivered,
 save with your right hand, and answer us.

7 God has spoken from his sanctuary: "In triumph,

I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.

Ephraim also is my helmet.

Judah is my scepter.

9 Moab is my wash pot.

I will toss my sandal on Edom.

I will shout over Philistia."

10 Who will bring me into the fortified city?

Who has led me to Edom?

11 Haven't you rejected us, God?

You don't go out, God, with our armies.

12 Give us help against the enemy,

for the help of man is vain.

13 Through God, we will do valiantly.

For it is he who will tread down our enemies.

PSALM 109

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 God of my praise, don't remain silent,
 2 for they have opened the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit against me.

They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.

3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,

and fought against me without a cause.

4 In return for my love, they are my adversaries;

but I am in prayer.

5 They have rewarded me evil for good,

and hatred for my love.

6 Set a wicked man over him.

Let an adversary stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him come out guilty.

Let his prayer be turned into sin.

8 Let his days be few.

Let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be wandering beggars.

Let them be sought from their ruins.

11 Let the creditor seize all that he has.

Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.

12 Let there be no one to extend kindness to
 him,

neither let there be anyone to have pity on his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off.

In the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by Jehovah.

Don't let the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before Jehovah continually, that he may cut off their memory from the
 earth;

16 because he didn't remember to show
 kindness,

but persecuted the poor and needy man,

the broken in heart, to kill them.

17 Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him.

He didn't delight in blessing, and it was far from him.

18 He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment.

It came into his inward parts like water,

like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers himself,

for the belt that is always around him.

20 This is the reward of my adversaries from
 Jehovah,

of those who speak evil against my soul.

21 But deal with me, Jehovah the Lord, for your
 name's sake,

because your loving kindness is good, deliver
 me;

22 for I am poor and needy.

My heart is wounded within me.

23 I fade away like an evening shadow.

I am shaken off like a locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting.

My body is thin and lacks fat.

25 I have also become a reproach to them.

When they see me, they shake their head.

26 Help me, Jehovah, my God.

Save me according to your loving kindness;

27 that they may know that this is your hand;

that you, Jehovah, have done it.

28 They may curse, but you bless.

When they arise, they will be shamed,

but your servant shall rejoice.

29 Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor.

Let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.

30 I will give great thanks to Jehovah with my mouth.

Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For he will stand at the right hand of the needy,

to save him from those who judge his soul.

PSALM 110

A Psalm by David.

1 Jehovah says to my Lord, "Sit at my right
 hand,

until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet.”

2 Jehovah will send out the rod of your strength out of Zion.

Rule among your enemies.

3 Your people offer themselves willingly in the day of your power, in holy array.

Out of the womb of the morning, you have the dew of your youth.

4 Jehovah has sworn, and will not change his mind:

“You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”

5 The Lord is at your right hand.

He will crush kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He will judge among the nations.

He will heap up dead bodies.

He will crush the ruler of the whole earth.

7 He will drink of the brook on the way; therefore he will lift up his head.

PSALM 111

1 Praise Jah!

I will give thanks to Jehovah with my whole heart,

in the council of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 Jehovah's works are great, pondered by all those who delight in them.

3 His work is honor and majesty.

His righteousness endures forever.

4 He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered.

Jehovah is gracious and merciful.

5 He has given food to those who fear him.

He always remembers his covenant.

6 He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are truth and justice.

All his precepts are sure.

8 They are established forever and ever.

They are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He has sent redemption to his people.

He has ordained his covenant forever.

His name is holy and awesome!

10 The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom.

All those who do his work have a good understanding.

His praise endures forever!

PSALM 112

1 Praise Jah!

Blessed is the man who fears Jehovah, who delights greatly in his commandments.

2 His offspring will be mighty in the land.

The generation of the upright will be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches are in his house.

His righteousness endures forever.

4 Light dawns in the darkness for the upright, gracious, merciful, and righteous.

5 It is well with the man who deals graciously and lends.

He will maintain his cause in judgment.

6 For he will never be shaken.

The righteous will be remembered forever.

7 He will not be afraid of evil news.

His heart is steadfast, trusting in Jehovah.

8 His heart is established.

He will not be afraid in the end when he sees his adversaries.

9 He has dispersed, he has given to the poor.

His righteousness endures forever.

His horn will be exalted with honor.

10 The wicked will see it, and be grieved.

He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away.

The desire of the wicked will perish.

PSALM 113

1 Praise Jah!

Praise, you servants of Jehovah,

praise Jehovah's name.

2 Blessed be Jehovah's name, from this time forward and forever more.

3 From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same,

Jehovah's name is to be praised.

4 Jehovah is high above all nations,

his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like Jehovah, our God,

who has his seat on high,

6 who stoops down to see in heaven and in the earth?

7 He raises up the poor out of the dust, lifts up the needy from the ash heap;

8 that he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

9 He settles the barren woman in her home, as a joyful mother of children.

Praise Jah!

PSALM 114

1 When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of foreign language;

2 Judah became his sanctuary,

Israel his dominion.

3 The sea saw it, and fled.

The Jordan was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams,

the little hills like lambs.

5 What was it, you sea, that you fled?

You Jordan, that you turned back?

6 You mountains, that you skipped like rams;

you little hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord,

at the presence of the God of Jacob,

8 who turned the rock into a pool of water,

the flint into a spring of waters.

PSALM 115

1 Not to us, Jehovah, not to us, but to your name give glory, for your loving kindness, and for your truth's sake.

2 Why should the nations say,

“Where is their God, now?”

3 But our God is in the heavens.

He does whatever he pleases.

4 Their idols are silver and gold,

the work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they don't speak.

They have eyes, but they don't see.

6 They have ears, but they don't hear.

They have noses, but they don't smell.

7 They have hands, but they don't feel.

They have feet, but they don't walk, neither do they speak through their throat.

8 Those who make them will be like them;

yes, everyone who trusts in them.

9 Israel, trust in Jehovah!

He is their help and their shield.

10 House of Aaron, trust in Jehovah!
 He is their help and their shield.
 11 You who fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah!
 He is their help and their shield.
 12 Jehovah remembers us. He will bless us.
 He will bless the house of Israel.
 He will bless the house of Aaron.
 13 He will bless those who fear Jehovah, both small and great.
 14 May Jehovah increase you more and more,
 you and your children.
 15 Blessed are you by Jehovah,
 who made heaven and earth.
 16 The heavens are the heavens of Jehovah; but the earth has he given to the children of
 men.
 17 The dead don't praise Jah, neither any who go down into silence;
 18 but we will bless Jah,
 from this time forward and forever more.
 Praise Jah!

PSALM 116

1 I love Jehovah, because he listens to my voice,
 and my cries for mercy.
 2 Because he has turned his ear to me,
 therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
 3 The cords of death surrounded me,
 the pains of Sheol got a hold of me.
 I found trouble and sorrow.
 4 Then I called on Jehovah's name:
 "Jehovah, I beg you, deliver my soul."
 5 Jehovah is gracious and righteous.
 Yes, our God is merciful.
 6 Jehovah preserves the simple.
 I was brought low, and he saved me.
 7 Return to your rest, my soul,
 for Jehovah has dealt bountifully with you.
 8 For you have delivered my soul from death,
 my eyes from tears,
 and my feet from falling.
 9 I will walk before Jehovah in the land of the living.
 10 I believed, therefore I said,
 "I was greatly afflicted."
 11 I said in my haste,
 "All men are liars."
 12 What will I give to Jehovah for all his benefits toward me?
 13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call on Jehovah's name.
 14 I will pay my vows to Jehovah,
 yes, in the presence of all his people.
 15 Precious in Jehovah's sight is the death of his saints.
 16 Jehovah, truly I am your servant.
 I am your servant, the son of your servant.
 You have freed me from my chains.
 17 I will offer to you the sacrifice of
 thanksgiving,
 and will call on Jehovah's name.
 18 I will pay my vows to Jehovah,
 yes, in the presence of all his people,
 19 in the courts of Jehovah's house,
 in the middle of you, Jerusalem.
 Praise Jah!

PSALM 117

1 Praise Jehovah, all you nations!

Extol him, all you peoples!
 2 For his loving kindness is great toward us.
 Jehovah's faithfulness endures forever.
 Praise Jah!

PSALM 118

1 Give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 2 Let Israel now say
 that his loving kindness endures forever.
 3 Let the house of Aaron now say
 that his loving kindness endures forever.
 4 Now let those who fear Jehovah say
 that his loving kindness endures forever.
 5 Out of my distress, I called on Jah.
 Jah answered me with freedom.
 6 Jehovah is on my side. I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
 7 Jehovah is on my side among those who help
 me.
 Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.
 8 It is better to take refuge in Jehovah,
 than to put confidence in man.
 9 It is better to take refuge in Jehovah,
 than to put confidence in princes.
 10 All the nations surrounded me,
 but in Jehovah's name, I cut them off.
 11 They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded
 me.
 In Jehovah's name I indeed cut them off.
 12 They surrounded me like bees.
 They are quenched like the burning thorns.
 In Jehovah's name I cut them off.
 13 You pushed me back hard, to make me fall,
 but Jehovah helped me.
 14 Jah is my strength and song.
 He has become my salvation.
 15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous.
 "The right hand of Jehovah does valiantly.
 16 The right hand of Jehovah is exalted!
 The right hand of Jehovah does valiantly!"
 17 I will not die, but live,
 and declare Jah's works.
 18 Jah has punished me severely,
 but he has not given me over to death.
 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness.
 I will enter into them.
 I will give thanks to Jah.
 20 This is the gate of Jehovah;
 the righteous will enter into it.
 21 I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me,
 and have become my salvation.
 22 The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner.
 23 This is Jehovah's doing.
 It is marvelous in our eyes.
 24 This is the day that Jehovah has made.
 We will rejoice and be glad in it!
 25 Save us now, we beg you, Jehovah!
 Jehovah, we beg you, send prosperity now.
 26 Blessed is he who comes in Jehovah's name!
 We have blessed you out of Jehovah's house.
 27 Jehovah is God, and he has given us light.
 Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
 28 You are my God, and I will give thanks to

you.

You are my God, I will exalt you.
29 Oh give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good,
for his loving kindness endures forever.

PSALM 119

ALEPH

1 Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to Jehovah's law.

2 Blessed are those who keep his statutes, who seek him with their whole heart.

3 Yes, they do nothing wrong.

They walk in his ways.

4 You have commanded your precepts, that we should fully obey them.

5 Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey your statutes!

6 Then I wouldn't be disappointed,
when I consider all of your commandments.

7 I will give thanks to you with uprightness of
heart,

when I learn your righteous judgments.

8 I will observe your statutes.
Don't utterly forsake me.

BET

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
By living according to your word.

10 With my whole heart, I have sought you.

Don't let me wander from your commandments.

11 I have hidden your word in my heart,
that I might not sin against you.

12 Blessed are you, Jehovah.

Teach me your statutes.

13 With my lips,

I have declared all the ordinances of your mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate on your precepts,
and consider your ways.

16 I will delight myself in your statutes.

I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

17 Do good to your servant.

I will live and I will obey your word.

18 Open my eyes,

that I may see wondrous things out of your law.

19 I am a stranger on the earth.

Don't hide your commandments from me.

20 My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.

21 You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,

who wander from your commandments.

22 Take reproach and contempt away from me,
for I have kept your statutes.

23 Though princes sit and slander me, your servant will meditate on your statutes.

24 Indeed your statutes are my delight, and my counselors.

DALED

25 My soul is laid low in the dust.

Revive me according to your word!

26 I declared my ways, and you answered me.

Teach me your statutes.

27 Let me understand the teaching of your precepts!

Then I will meditate on your wondrous works.

28 My soul is weary with sorrow:
strengthen me according to your word.

29 Keep me from the way of deceit.

Grant me your law graciously!

30 I have chosen the way of truth.

I have set your ordinances before me.

31 I cling to your statutes, Jehovah.

Don't let me be disappointed.

32 I run in the path of your commandments, for you have set my heart free.

HEY

33 Teach me, Jehovah, the way of your statutes.

I will keep them to the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I will keep your law.

Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart.

35 Direct me in the path of your
commandments,

for I delight in them.

36 Turn my heart toward your statutes, not toward selfish gain.

37 Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.

Revive me in your ways.

38 Fulfill your promise to your servant,
that you may be feared.

39 Take away my disgrace that I dread, for your ordinances are good.

40 Behold, I long for your precepts!

Revive me in your righteousness.

WAW

41 Let your loving kindness also come to me,
Jehovah,

your salvation, according to your word.

42 So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me,

for I trust in your word.

43 Don't snatch the word of truth out of my mouth,

for I put my hope in your ordinances.

44 So I will obey your law continually,
forever and ever.

45 I will walk in liberty,

for I have sought your precepts.

46 I will also speak of your statutes before kings,

and will not be disappointed.

47 I will delight myself in your
commandments,

because I love them.

48 I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love.

I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

49 Remember your word to your servant,
because you gave me hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction, for your word has revived me.

51 The arrogant mock me excessively,
but I don't swerve from your law.

52 I remember your ordinances of old, Jehovah, and have comforted myself.

53 Indignation has taken hold on me,
because of the wicked who forsake your law.

54 Your statutes have been my songs,
in the house where I live.

55 I have remembered your name, Jehovah, in the night, and I obey your law.

56 This is my way,
that I keep your precepts.

CHET

57 Jehovah is my portion.
I promised to obey your words.

58 I sought your favor with my whole heart.
Be merciful to me according to your word.

59 I considered my ways,
and turned my steps to your statutes.

60 I will hurry, and not delay,
to obey your commandments.

61 The ropes of the wicked bind me,
but I won't forget your law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you,
because of your righteous ordinances.

63 I am a friend of all those who fear you,
of those who observe your precepts.

64 The earth is full of your loving kindness,
Jehovah.

Teach me your statutes.

TET

65 Do good to your servant,
according to your word, Jehovah.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge,
for I believe in your commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
but now I observe your word.

68 You are good, and do good.
Teach me your statutes.

69 The proud have smeared a lie upon me.
With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.

70 Their heart is as callous as the fat,
but I delight in your law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn your statutes.

72 The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YUD

73 Your hands have made me and formed me.

Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments.

74 Those who fear you will see me and be glad,
because I have put my hope in your word.

75 Jehovah, I know that your judgments are righteous,

that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.

76 Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort,

according to your word to your servant.

77 Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;

for your law is my delight.

78 Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully.

I will meditate on your precepts.

79 Let those who fear you turn to me.

They will know your statutes.

80 Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees,

that I may not be disappointed.

KAF

81 My soul faints for your salvation.

I hope in your word.

82 My eyes fail for your word.

I say, "When will you comfort me?"

83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke.

I don't forget your statutes.

84 How many are the days of your servant?

When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?

85 The proud have dug pits for me, contrary to your law.

86 All of your commandments are faithful.

They persecute me wrongfully.

Help me!

87 They had almost wiped me from the earth,
but I didn't forsake your precepts.

88 Preserve my life according to your loving
kindness,

so I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

LAMED

89 Jehovah, your word is settled in heaven
forever.

90 Your faithfulness is to all generations.

You have established the earth, and it remains.

91 Your laws remain to this day,

for all things serve you.

92 Unless your law had been my delight,

I would have perished in my affliction.

93 I will never forget your precepts, for with them, you have revived me.

94 I am yours.

Save me, for I have sought your precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me, to destroy
me.

I will consider your statutes.

96 I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commands are boundless.

MEM

97 How I love your law!

It is my meditation all day.

98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,

for your commandments are always with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers,

for your testimonies are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the aged,

because I have kept your precepts.

101 I have kept my feet from every evil way, that I might observe your word.

102 I have not turned aside from your ordinances,

for you have taught me.

103 How sweet are your promises to my taste,

more than honey to my mouth!

104 Through your precepts, I get
understanding;

therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

105 Your word* is a lamp to my feet,

* 119:105 In the darkness of this world alienated from God, his written Word, the Bible, acts like a lamp that lights our path to show us how we should conduct ourselves, and how we ought to think about the issues and challenges that we face.

More and more, as we pass through the 'end times' and approach the time when God will intervene to destroy this corrupt world, our thoughts and actions will need to be different from those of our neighbors who don't live by the light of the Bible.

and a light for my path.

106 I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
that I will obey your righteous ordinances.
107 I am afflicted very much.
Revive me, Jehovah, according to your word.
108 Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth.
Jehovah, teach me your ordinances.
109 My soul is continually in my hand,
yet I won't forget your law.
110 The wicked have laid a snare for me,
yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts.
111 I have taken your testimonies as a heritage
forever,
for they are the joy of my heart.
112 I have set my heart to perform your statutes forever,
even to the end.

SAMEKH

113 I hate double-minded men,
but I love your law.
114 You are my hiding place and my shield.
I hope in your word.
115 Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my God.
116 Uphold me according to your word, that I may live.
Let me not be ashamed of my hope.
117 Hold me up, and I will be safe, and will have respect for your statutes continually.
118 You reject all those who stray from your statutes,
for their deceit is in vain.
119 You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross.
Therefore I love your testimonies.
120 My flesh trembles for fear of you.
I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN

121 I have done what is just and righteous.
Don't leave me to my oppressors.
122 Ensure your servant's well-being.
Don't let the proud oppress me.
123 My eyes fail looking for your salvation,
for your righteous word.
124 Deal with your servant according to your loving kindness.
Teach me your statutes.
125 I am your servant. Give me understanding, that I may know your testimonies.
126 It is time to act, Jehovah,
for they break your law.
127 Therefore I love your commandments more than gold,
yes, more than pure gold.
128 Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right.
I hate every false way.

PEY

129 Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps them.
130 The entrance of your words gives light.
It gives understanding to the simple.
131 I opened my mouth wide and panted,
for I longed for your commandments.
132 Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
as you always do to those who love your name.

133 Establish my footsteps in your word.
Don't let any iniquity have dominion over me.
134 Redeem me from the oppression of man,
so I will observe your precepts.
135 Make your face shine on your servant.
Teach me your statutes.
136 Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they don't observe your law.

TZADI

137 You are righteous, Jehovah.
Your judgments are upright.
138 You have commanded your statutes in righteousness.
They are fully trustworthy.
139 My zeal wears me out,
because my enemies ignore your words.
140 Your promises have been thoroughly tested,
and your servant loves them.
141 I am small and despised.
I don't forget your precepts.
142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness.
Your law is truth.
143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold of
me.
Your commandments are my delight.
144 Your testimonies are righteous forever.
Give me understanding, that I may live.

KUF

145 I have called with my whole heart.
Answer me, Jehovah!
I will keep your statutes.
146 I have called to you. Save me!
I will obey your statutes.
147 I rise before dawn and cry for help.
I put my hope in your words.
148 My eyes stay open through the night watches,
that I might meditate on your word.
149 Hear my voice according to your loving kindness.
Revive me, Jehovah, according to your ordinances.
150 They draw near who follow after wickedness.
They are far from your law.
151 You are near, Jehovah.
All your commandments are truth.
152 Of old I have known from your testimonies,
that you have founded them forever.

RESH

153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me,
for I don't forget your law.
154 Plead my cause, and redeem me!
Revive me according to your promise.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they don't seek your statutes.
156 Great are your tender mercies, Jehovah.
Revive me according to your ordinances.
157 Many are my persecutors and my adversaries.
I haven't swerved from your testimonies.
158 I look at the faithless with loathing, because they don't observe your word.
159 Consider how I love your precepts.
Revive me, Jehovah, according to your loving kindness.

160 All of your words are truth.
Every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever.

SIN and SHIN

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause,
but my heart stands in awe of your words.

162 I rejoice at your word,
as one who finds great plunder.

163 I hate and abhor falsehood.
I love your law.

164 Seven times a day, I praise you,
because of your righteous ordinances.

165 Those who love your law have great peace.
Nothing causes them to stumble.

166 I have hoped for your salvation, Jehovah.
I have done your commandments.

167 My soul has observed your testimonies.
I love them exceedingly.

168 I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies,
for all my ways are before you.

TAV

169 Let my cry come before you, Jehovah.
Give me understanding according to your word.

170 Let my supplication come before you.
Deliver me according to your word.

171 Let my lips utter praise,
for you teach me your statutes.

172 Let my tongue sing of your word, for all your commandments are righteousness.

173 Let your hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen your precepts.

174 I have longed for your salvation, Jehovah.
Your law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, that I may praise you.
Let your ordinances help me.

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep.
Seek your servant, for I don't forget your commandments.

PSALM 120

A Song of Ascents.

1 In my distress, I cried to Jehovah.
He answered me.

2 Deliver my soul, Jehovah, from lying lips,
from a deceitful tongue.

3 What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you,
you deceitful tongue?

4 Sharp arrows of the mighty,
with coals of juniper.

5 Woe is me, that I live in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!

6 My soul has had her dwelling too long with him who hates peace.

7 I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM 121

A Song of Ascents.

1 I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
Where does my help come from?

2 My help comes from Jehovah,
who made heaven and earth.

3 He will not allow your foot to be moved.
He who keeps you will not slumber.

4 Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

5 Jehovah is your keeper.

Jehovah is your shade on your right hand.

6 The sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

7 Jehovah will keep you from all evil.
He will keep your soul.

8 Jehovah will keep your going out and your coming in,
from this time forward, and forever more.

PSALM 122

A Song of Ascents. By David.

1 I was glad when they said to me,
"Let's go to Jehovah's house!"

2 Our feet are standing within your gates,
Jerusalem;

3 Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact together;

4 where the tribes go up, even Jah's tribes,
according to an ordinance for Israel,
to give thanks to Jehovah's name.

5 For there are set thrones for judgment,
the thrones of David's house.

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.
Those who love you will prosper.

7 Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.

8 For my brothers' and companions' sakes,
I will now say, "Peace be within you."

9 For the sake of the house of Jehovah our God,
I will seek your good.

PSALM 123

A Song of Ascents.

1 To you I do lift up my eyes,
you who sit in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress;

so our eyes look to Jehovah, our God,
until he has mercy on us.

3 Have mercy on us, Jehovah, have mercy on us,
for we have endured much contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM 124

A Song of Ascents. By David.

1 If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side,

let Israel now say,

2 if it had not been Jehovah who was on our side,

when men rose up against us;

3 then they would have swallowed us up alive,

when their wrath was kindled against us;

4 then the waters would have overwhelmed us,

the stream would have gone over our soul;

5 then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be Jehovah,

who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare.

The snare is broken, and we have escaped.

8 Our help is in Jehovah's name,
who made heaven and earth.

PSALM 125*A Song of Ascents.*

1 Those who trust in Jehovah are as Mount Zion, which can't be moved, but remains forever.

2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Jehovah surrounds his people from this time forward and forever more.

3 For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous; so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil.

4 Do good, Jehovah, to those who are good, to those who are upright in their hearts.

5 But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Jehovah will lead them away with the workers of iniquity.

Peace be on Israel.

PSALM 126*A Song of Ascents.*

1 When Jehovah brought back those who returned to Zion,

we were like those who dream.

2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing.

Then they said among the nations,

"Jehovah has done great things for them."

3 Jehovah has done great things for us, and we are glad.

4 Restore our fortunes again, Jehovah, like the streams in the Negev.

5 Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.

6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

PSALM 127*A Song of Ascents. By Solomon.*

1 Unless Jehovah builds the house, they labor in vain who build it.

Unless Jehovah watches over the city, the watchman guards it in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to stay up late,

eating the bread of toil;

for he gives sleep to his loved ones.

3 Behold, children are a heritage of Jehovah.

The fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of youth.

5 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them.

They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

PSALM 128*A Song of Ascents.*

1 Blessed is everyone who fears Jehovah, who walks in his ways.

2 For you will eat the labor of your hands.

You will be happy, and it will be well with you.

3 Your wife will be as a fruitful vine,

in the innermost parts of your house;

your children like olive plants, around your table.

4 Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears Jehovah.

5 May Jehovah bless you out of Zion, and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

6 Yes, may you see your children's children.

Peace be upon Israel.

PSALM 129*A Song of Ascents.*

1 Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up.

Let Israel now say,

2 many times they have afflicted me from my youth up,

yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed on my back.

They made their furrows long.

4 Jehovah is righteous.

He has cut apart the cords of the wicked.

5 Let them be disappointed and turned backward,

all those who hate Zion.

6 Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up;

7 with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand, nor he who binds sheaves, his bosom.

8 Neither do those who go by say,

"The blessing of Jehovah be on you.

We bless you in Jehovah's name."

PSALM 130*A Song of Ascents.*

1 Out of the depths I have cried to you, Jehovah.

2 Lord, hear my voice.

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.

3 If you, Jah, kept a record of sins,

Lord, who could stand?

4 But there is forgiveness with you, therefore you are feared.

5 I wait for Jehovah.

My soul waits.

I hope in his word.

6 My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long for the morning;

more than watchmen for the morning.

7 Israel, hope in Jehovah,

for with Jehovah there is loving kindness.

With him is abundant redemption.

8 He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

PSALM 131*A Song of Ascents. By David.*

1 Jehovah, my heart isn't haughty, nor my eyes lofty;

nor do I concern myself with great matters, or things too wonderful for me.

2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with his mother,

like a weaned child is my soul within me.

3 Israel, hope in Jehovah,

from this time forward and forever more.

PSALM 132*A Song of Ascents.*

1 Jehovah, remember David and all his affliction,

2 how he swore to Jehovah, and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:

3 "Surely I will not come into the structure of my house,

nor go up into my bed;

4 I will not give sleep to my eyes,

or slumber to my eyelids;

5 until I find out a place for Jehovah,

a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.”

6 Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah.

We found it in the field of Jaar:

7 “We will go into his dwelling place.

We will worship at his footstool.

8 Arise, Jehovah, into your resting place;

you, and the ark of your strength.

9 Let your priest be clothed with righteousness.

Let your saints shout for joy!”

10 For your servant David’s sake, don’t turn away the face of your anointed one.

11 Jehovah has sworn to David in truth.

He will not turn from it:

“I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.

12 If your children will keep my covenant,
my testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forever more.”

13 For Jehovah has chosen Zion.

He has desired it for his habitation.

14 “This is my resting place forever.

Here I will live, for I have desired it.

15 I will abundantly bless her provision.

I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 Her priests I will also clothe with salvation.

Her saints will shout aloud for joy.

17 There I will make the horn of David to bud.

I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.

18 I will clothe his enemies with shame,

but on himself, his crown will be resplendent.”

PSALM 133

A Song of Ascents. By David.

1 See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity!

2 It is like the precious oil on the head,
that ran down on the beard,
even Aaron’s beard;

that came down on the edge of his robes;

3 like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills of Zion:

for there Jehovah gives the blessing,
even life forever more.

PSALM 134

A Song of Ascents.

1 Look! Praise Jehovah, all you servants of Jehovah,

who stand by night in Jehovah’s house!

2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary.

Praise Jehovah!

3 May Jehovah bless you from Zion;

even he who made heaven and earth.

PSALM 135

1 Praise Jah!

Praise Jehovah’s name!

Praise him, you servants of Jehovah,

2 you who stand in Jehovah’s house,

in the courts of our God’s house.

3 Praise Jah, for Jehovah is good.

Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant.

4 For Jah has chosen Jacob for himself;

Israel for his own possession.

5 For I know that Jehovah is great,

that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatever Jehovah pleased, that he has done, in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;

7 who causes the clouds to rise from the ends

of the earth;

who makes lightnings with the rain;

who brings the wind out of his treasures;

8 who struck the firstborn of Egypt,

both of man and animal;

9 who sent signs and wonders into the middle of you, Egypt,

on Pharaoh, and on all his servants;

10 who struck many nations,

and killed mighty kings,

11 Sihon king of the Amorites,

Og king of Bashan,

and all the kingdoms of Canaan,

12 and gave their land for a heritage,

a heritage to Israel, his people.

13 Your name, Jehovah, endures forever; your renown, Jehovah, throughout all
generations.

14 For Jehovah will judge his people, and have compassion on his servants.

15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of men’s hands.

16 They have mouths, but they can’t speak.

They have eyes, but they can’t see.

17 They have ears, but they can’t hear;

neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 Those who make them will be like them;

yes, everyone who trusts in them.

19 House of Israel, praise Jehovah!

House of Aaron, praise Jehovah!

20 House of Levi, praise Jehovah!

You who fear Jehovah, praise Jehovah!

21 Blessed be Jehovah from Zion, who dwells at Jerusalem.

Praise Jah!

PSALM 136

1 Give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good;
for his loving kindness endures forever.

2 Give thanks to the God of gods;

for his loving kindness endures forever.

3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords;

for his loving kindness endures forever:

4 To him who alone does great wonders;

for his loving kindness endures forever:

5 To him who by understanding made the heavens;

for his loving kindness endures forever:

6 To him who spread out the earth above the waters;

for his loving kindness endures forever:

7 To him who made the great lights;

for his loving kindness endures forever:

8 The sun to rule by day;

for his loving kindness endures forever;

9 The moon and stars to rule by night;

for his loving kindness endures forever:

10 To him who struck down the Egyptian firstborn;

for his loving kindness endures forever;

11 And brought out Israel from among them;

for his loving kindness endures forever;

12 With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm;

for his loving kindness endures forever:

13 To him who divided the Red Sea apart;

for his loving kindness endures forever;

14 And made Israel to pass through the middle of it;

for his loving kindness endures forever;
 15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 16 To him who led his people through the wilderness;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 17 To him who struck great kings;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 18 And killed mighty kings;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 19 Sihon king of the Amorites;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 20 Og king of Bashan;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 21 And gave their land as an inheritance;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 22 Even a heritage to Israel his servant;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 23 Who remembered us in our low estate;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 24 And has delivered us from our adversaries;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 25 Who gives food to every creature;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 26 Oh give thanks to the God of heaven;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.

PSALM 137

1 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down.
 Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion.
 2 On the willows in that land,
 we hung up our harps.
 3 For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs.
 Those who tormented us demanded songs of
 joy:
 "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"
 4 How can we sing Jehovah's song in a foreign land?
 5 If I forget you, Jerusalem,
 let my right hand forget its skill.
 6 Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth
 if I don't remember you;
 if I don't prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.
 7 Remember, Jehovah, against the children of Edom,
 the day of Jerusalem;
 who said, "Raze it!
 Raze it even to its foundation!"
 8 Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, he will be happy who rewards you,
 as you have served us.
 9 Happy shall he be,
 who takes and dashes your little ones against
 the rock.

PSALM 138*By David.*

1 I will give you thanks with my whole heart.
 Before the gods, I will sing praises to you.
 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth;
 for you have exalted your Name and your Word above all.
 3 In the day that I called, you answered me.
 You encouraged me with strength in my soul.
 4 All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Jehovah,
 for they have heard the words of your mouth.

5 Yes, they will sing of the ways of Jehovah;
 for great is Jehovah's glory.
 6 For though Jehovah is high, yet he looks after the lowly;
 but the proud, he knows from afar.
 7 Though I walk in the middle of trouble, you will revive me.
 You will stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies.
 Your right hand will save me.
 8 Jehovah will fulfill that which concerns me;
 your loving kindness, Jehovah, endures forever.
 Don't forsake the works of your own hands.

PSALM 139*For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.*

1 Jehovah, you have searched me,
 and you know me.
 2 You know my sitting down and my rising up.
 You perceive my thoughts from afar.
 3 You search out my path and my lying down,
 and are acquainted with all my ways.
 4 For there is not a word on my tongue,
 but, behold, Jehovah, you know it altogether.
 5 You hem me in behind and before.
 You laid your hand on me.
 6 This knowledge is beyond me.
 It's lofty.
 I can't attain it.
 7 Where could I go from your Spirit?
 Or where could I flee from your presence?
 8 If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.
 If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there!
 9 If I take the wings of the dawn,
 and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea;
 10 even there your hand will lead me,
 and your right hand will hold me.
 11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm
 me;
 the light around me will be night;" 12 even the darkness doesn't hide from you,
 but the night shines as the day.
 The darkness is like light to you.
 13 For you formed my inmost being.
 You knit me together in my mother's womb.
 14 I will give thanks to you,
 for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
 Your works are wonderful.
 My soul knows that very well.
 15 My frame wasn't hidden from you,
 when I was made in secret,
 woven together in the depths of the earth.
 16 Your eyes saw my body.
 In your book they were all written,
 the days that were ordained for me,
 when as yet there were none of them.
 17 How precious to me are your thoughts, God!
 How vast is their sum!
 18 If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand.
 When I wake up, I am still with you.
 19 If only you, God, would kill the wicked.
 Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men!
 20 For they speak against you wickedly.
 Your enemies take your name in vain.
 21 Jehovah, don't I hate those who hate you?
 Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?
 22 I hate them with perfect hatred.

They have become my enemies.
 23 Search me, God, and know my heart.
 Try me, and know my thoughts.
 24 See if there is any wicked way in me,
 and lead me in the everlasting way.

PSALM 140

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 Deliver me, Jehovah, from the evil man.
 Preserve me from the violent man;
 2 those who devise mischief in their hearts.
 They continually gather themselves together for war.
 3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent.
 Viper's poison is under their lips.

Selah.

4 Jehovah, keep me from the hands of the wicked.
 Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet.

5 The proud have hidden a snare for me,
 they have spread the cords of a net by the path.
 They have set traps for me.

Selah.

6 I said to Jehovah, "You are my God."
 Listen to the cry of my petitions, Jehovah.
 7 Jehovah, the Lord, the strength of my salvation,
 you have covered my head in the day of battle.
 8 Jehovah, don't grant the desires of the wicked.

Don't let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud.

Selah.

9 As for the head of those who surround me,
 let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
 10 Let burning coals fall on them.
 Let them be thrown into the fire,
 into miry pits, from where they never rise.

11 An evil speaker won't be established in the earth.

Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow
 him.

12 I know that Jehovah will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
 and justice for the needy.

13 Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name.

The upright will dwell in your presence.

PSALM 141

A Psalm by David.

1 Jehovah, I have called on you.
 Come to me quickly!
 Listen to my voice when I call to you.
 2 Let my prayer be set before you like incense;
 the lifting up of my hands like the evening
 sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, Jehovah, before my mouth.
 Keep the door of my lips.
 4 Don't incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with men who work iniquity.

Don't let me eat of their delicacies.

5 Let the righteous strike me, it is kindness;
 let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head;
 don't let my head refuse it;
 yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.
 6 Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock.

They will hear my words, for they are well spoken.

7 "As when one plows and breaks up the earth, our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol."
 8 For my eyes are on you, Jehovah, the Lord.

In you, I take refuge.

Don't leave my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from the snare which they have laid
 for me,
 from the traps of the workers of iniquity.

10 Let the wicked fall together into their own nets,
 while I pass by.

PSALM 142

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

1 I cry with my voice to Jehovah.

With my voice, I ask Jehovah for mercy.

2 I pour out my complaint before him.

I tell him my troubles.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
 you knew my route.

On the path in which I walk,
 they have hidden a snare for me.

4 Look on my right, and see;
 for there is no one who is concerned for me.

Refuge has fled from me.

No one cares for my soul.

5 I cried to you, Jehovah.

I said, "You are my refuge,
 my portion in the land of the living."

6 Listen to my cry,

for I am in desperate need.

deliver me from my persecutors,

for they are stronger than me.

7 Bring my soul out of prison,
 that I may give thanks to your name.

The righteous will surround me,

for you will be good to me.

PSALM 143

A Psalm by David.

1 Hear my prayer, Jehovah.

Listen to my petitions.

In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve
 me.

2 Don't enter into judgment with your servant,
 for in your sight no man living is righteous.

3 For the enemy pursues my soul.

He has struck my life down to the ground.

He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within
 me.

My heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old.

I meditate on all your doings.

I contemplate the work of your hands.

6 I spread out my hands to you.

My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land.

Selah.

7 Hurry to answer me, Jehovah.

My spirit fails.

Don't hide your face from me,

so that I don't become like those who go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the morning,

for I trust in you.
 Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
 for I lift up my soul to you.
 9 Deliver me, Jehovah, from my enemies.
 I flee to you to hide me.
 10 Teach me to do your will,
 for you are my God.
 Your Spirit is good.
 Lead me in the land of uprightness.
 11 Revive me, Jehovah, for your name's sake.
 In your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.
 12 In your loving kindness, cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul,
 for I am your servant.

PSALM 144*By David.*

1 Blessed be Jehovah, my rock, who teaches my hands to war,
 and my fingers to battle:
 2 my loving kindness, my fortress,
 my high tower, my deliverer,
 my shield, and he in whom I take refuge;
 who subdues my people under me.
 3 Jehovah, what is man, that you care for him?
 Or the son of man, that you think of him?
 4 Man is like a breath.
 His days are like a shadow that passes away.
 5 Part your heavens, Jehovah, and come down.
 Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
 6 Throw out lightning, and scatter them.
 Send out your arrows, and rout them.
 7 Stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
 out of the hands of foreigners;
 8 whose mouths speak deceit,
 whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
 9 I will sing a new song to you, God.
 On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to you.
 10 You are he who gives salvation to kings, who rescues David, his servant, from the deadly sword.
 11 Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners,
 whose mouths speak deceit,
 whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
 12 Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants,
 our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.
 13 Our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision.
 Our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
 14 Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
 There is no breaking in, and no going away,
 and no outcry in our streets.
 15 Happy are the people who are in such a situation.
 Happy are the people whose God is Jehovah.

PSALM 145*A praise psalm by David.*

1 I will exalt you, my God, the King.
 I will praise your name forever and ever.
 2 Every day I will praise you.
 I will extol your name forever and ever.
 3 Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised!

His greatness is unsearchable.
 4 One generation will commend your works to another,
 and will declare your mighty acts.
 5 Of the glorious majesty of your honor,
 of your wondrous works, I will meditate.
 6 Men will speak of the might of your awesome acts.
 I will declare your greatness.
 7 They will utter the memory of your great goodness, and will sing of your righteousness.
 8 Jehovah is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, and of great loving kindness.
 9 Jehovah is good to all.
 His tender mercies are over all his works.
 10 All your works will give thanks to you, Jehovah.

Your saints will extol you.
 11 They will speak of the glory of your kingdom,
 and talk about your power;
 12 to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
 the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.
 Your dominion endures throughout all generations.
 Jehovah is faithful in all his words,
 and loving in all his deeds.
 14 Jehovah upholds all who fall,
 and raises up all those who are bowed down.
 15 The eyes of all wait for you.
 You give them their food in due season.
 16 You open your hand,
 and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
 17 Jehovah is righteous in all his ways,
 and gracious in all his works.
 18 Jehovah is near to all those who call on him,
 to all who call on him in truth.
 19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him.
 He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
 20 Jehovah preserves all those who love him,
 but all the wicked he will destroy.
 21 My mouth will speak the praise of Jehovah.
 Let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

PSALM 146

1 Praise Jah!
 Praise Jehovah, my soul.
 2 While I live, I will praise Jehovah.
 I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.
 3 Don't put your trust in princes, each a son of man in whom there is no help.
 4 His spirit departs, and he returns to the earth.
 In that very day, his thoughts perish.
 5 Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Jehovah, his God:
 6 who made heaven and earth,
 the sea, and all that is in them;
 who keeps truth forever;
 7 who executes justice for the oppressed;
 who gives food to the hungry.
 Jehovah frees the prisoners.
 8 Jehovah opens the eyes of the blind.
 Jehovah raises up those who are bowed down.

Jehovah loves the righteous.
 9 Jehovah preserves the foreigners.
 He upholds the fatherless and widow, but the way of the wicked he turns upside down.

10 Jehovah will reign forever;
 your God, O Zion, to all generations.
 Praise Jah!

PSALM 147

1 Praise Jah,
 for it is good to sing praises to our God;
 for it is pleasant and fitting to praise him.
 2 Jehovah builds up Jerusalem.
 He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
 3 He heals the broken in heart,
 and binds up their wounds.
 4 He counts the number of the stars.
 He calls them all by their names.
 5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power.
 His understanding is infinite.
 6 Jehovah upholds the humble.
 He brings the wicked down to the ground.
 7 Sing to Jehovah with thanksgiving.
 Sing praises on the harp to our God,
 8 who covers the sky with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth,
 who makes grass grow on the mountains.
 9 He provides food for the livestock, and for the young ravens when they call.
 10 He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse.

He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
 11 Jehovah takes pleasure in those who fear
 him,
 in those who hope in his loving kindness.
 12 Praise Jehovah, Jerusalem!
 Praise your God, Zion!
 13 For he has strengthened the bars of your gates.

He has blessed your children within you.
 14 He makes peace in your borders.
 He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
 15 He sends out his commandment to the
 earth.

His word runs very swiftly.
 16 He gives snow like wool,
 and scatters frost like ashes.
 17 He hurls down his hail like pebbles.
 Who can stand before his cold?
 18 He sends out his word, and melts them.
 He causes his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 He shows his word to Jacob;
 his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
 20 He has not done this for just any nation.
 They don't know his ordinances.
 Praise Jah!

PSALM 148

1 Praise Jah!
 Praise Jehovah from the heavens!
 Praise him in the heights!
 2 Praise him, all his angels!
 Praise him, all his army!
 3 Praise him, sun and moon!
 Praise him, all you shining stars!
 4 Praise him, you heavens of heavens,
 you waters that are above the heavens.
 5 Let them praise Jehovah's name, for he commanded, and they were created.

 6 He has also established them forever and ever.

He has made a decree which will not pass away.
 7 Praise Jehovah from the earth,
 you great sea creatures, and all depths!
 8 Lightning and hail, snow and clouds;
 stormy wind, fulfilling his word;
 9 mountains and all hills;
 fruit trees and all cedars;
 10 wild animals and all livestock;
 small creatures and flying birds;
 11 kings of the earth and all peoples;
 princes and all judges of the earth;
 12 both young men and maidens;
 old men and children:
 13 let them praise Jehovah's name,
 for his name alone is exalted.
 His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
 14 He has lifted up the horn of his people,
 the praise of all his saints;
 even of the children of Israel, a people near to
 him.

Praise Jah!

PSALM 149

1 Praise Jehovah!
 Sing to Jehovah a new song,
 his praise in the assembly of the saints.
 2 Let Israel rejoice in him who made them.
 Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
 3 Let them praise his name in the dance!
 Let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp!
 4 For Jehovah takes pleasure in his people.
 He crowns the humble with salvation.
 5 Let the saints rejoice in honor.
 Let them sing for joy on their beds.
 6 May the high praises of God be in their mouths,

and a two-edged sword in their hand;
 7 to execute vengeance on the nations,
 and punishments on the peoples;
 8 to bind their kings with chains,
 and their nobles with fetters of iron;
 9 to execute on them the written judgment.
 All his saints have this honor.
 Praise Jah!

PSALM 150

1 Praise Jah!
 Praise God in his sanctuary!
 Praise him in his heavens for his acts of power!
 2 Praise him for his mighty acts!
 Praise him according to his excellent greatness!
 3 Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet!
 Praise him with harp and lyre!
 4 Praise him with tambourine and dancing!
 Praise him with strangled instruments and flute!
 5 Praise him with loud cymbals!
 Praise him with resounding cymbals!
 6 Let everything that has breath Praise Jah!
 Praise Jah!

PROVERBS

CHAPTER ONE

1 The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel:

2 to know wisdom and instruction;

to discern the words of understanding;

3 to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity;

4 to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young man:

5 that the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;

that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsel:

6 to understand a proverb, and parables, the words and riddles of the wise.

7 The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge*;

but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, listen to your father's instruction, and don't forsake your mother's teaching:

9 for they will be a garland to grace your head, and chains around your neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice you, don't consent.

11 If they say, "Come with us,

Let's lay in wait for blood;

let's lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;

12 let's swallow them up alive like Sheol, and whole, like those who go down into the pit.

13 We'll find all valuable wealth.

We'll fill our houses with plunder.

14 You shall cast your lot among us.

We'll all have one purse."

15 My son, don't walk on the path with them.

Keep your foot from their path,

16 for their feet run to evil.

They hurry to shed blood.

17 For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird:

18 but these lay wait for their own blood.

They lurk secretly for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain.

It takes away the life of its owners.

20 Wisdom calls aloud in the street.

She utters her voice in the public squares.

21 She calls at the head of noisy places.

At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her words:

22 "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?

How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery,

and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn at my reproof.

Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you.

I will make known my words to you.

24 Because I have called, and you have refused;

I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention;

25 but you have ignored all my counsel, and wanted none of my reproof;

26 I also will laugh at your disaster.

I will mock when calamity overtakes you;

27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm,

when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind;

when distress and anguish come on you.

28 Then they will call on me, but I will not answer.

They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me;

29 because they hated knowledge, and didn't choose the fear of Jehovah.

30 They wanted none of my counsel.

They despised all my reproof.

31 Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes.

32 For the backsliding of the simple will kill them.

The careless ease of fools will destroy them.

33 But whoever listens to me will dwell securely, and will be at ease, without fear of harm."

CHAPTER TWO

1 My son, if you will receive my words, and store up my commandments within you;

2 so as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding;

3 yes, if you call out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding;

4 if you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures:

5 then you will understand the fear of Jehovah, and find the knowledge of God.

6 For Jehovah gives wisdom.

Out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.

7 He lays up sound wisdom for the upright.

He is a shield to those who walk in integrity;

8 that he may guard the paths of justice, and preserve the way of his saints.

9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice, equity and every good path.

10 For wisdom will enter into your heart.

Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

11 Discretion will watch over you.

Understanding will keep you,

12 to deliver you from the way of evil,

from the men who speak perverse things;

13 who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 who rejoice to do evil,

and delight in the perverseness of evil;

15 who are crooked in their ways,

and wayward in their paths:

* 1:7 This modern world boasts of its wisdom and knowledge, but those who don't know or reverence God have not even begun to learn. We learn to 'fear' or reverence God when we read the Bible.

God required whoever became king in Israel to make a copy of the Scriptures and to "read from it all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear Jehovah his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them." (Deut. 17:19) Daily reading of the Bible itself—not just some book about the Bible—will help us, too, to walk in the reverence and knowledge of God.

Part of that knowledge is the realization that the Creator has intervened in human history on many occasions, and will finally intervene dramatically to replace human governments with the Kingdom of God.

16 to deliver you from the strange woman, even from the foreigner who flatters with her words;

17 who forsakes the friend of her youth,
and forgets the covenant of her God:

18 for her house leads down to death,
her paths to the departed spirits.

19 None who go to her return again,
neither do they attain to the paths of life:

20 that you may walk in the way of good men,
and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright will dwell in the land.
The perfect will remain in it.

22 But the wicked will be cut off from the land.
The treacherous will be rooted out of it.

CHAPTER THREE

1 My son, don't forget my teaching;
but let your heart keep my commandments:

2 for length of days, and years of life,
and peace, will they add to you.

3 Don't let kindness and truth forsake you.
Bind them around your neck.

Write them on the tablet of your heart.

4 So you will find favor, and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and don't lean on your own understanding.

6 In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make your paths straight.

7 Don't be wise in your own eyes.
Fear Jehovah, and depart from evil.

8 It will be health to your body,
and nourishment to your bones.

9 Honor Jehovah with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase:

10 so your barns will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will overflow with new wine.

11 My son, don't despise Jehovah's discipline, neither be weary of his reproof:

12 for whom Jehovah loves, he reproves;
even as a father reproves the son in whom he delights.

13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
the man who gets understanding.

14 For her good profit is better than getting silver,

and her return is better than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies.

None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.

16 Length of days is in her right hand.

In her left hand are riches and honor.

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness.

All her paths are peace.

18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her.

Happy is everyone who retains her.

19 By wisdom Jehovah founded the earth.

By understanding, he established the heavens.

20 By his knowledge, the depths were broken
up,

and the skies drop down the dew.

21 My son, let them not depart from your eyes.
Keep sound wisdom and discretion:

22 so they will be life to your soul,
and grace for your neck.

23 Then you shall walk in your way securely.

Your foot won't stumble.

24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid.

Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.

25 Don't be afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes:

26 for Jehovah will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being taken.

27 Don't withhold good from those to whom it is due,

when it is in the power of your hand to do it.

28 Don't say to your neighbor, "Go, and come
again;

tomorrow I will give it to you,"

when you have it by you.

29 Don't devise evil against your neighbor,
since he dwells securely by you.

30 Don't strive with a man without cause,
if he has done you no harm.

31 Don't envy the man of violence.

Choose none of his ways.

32 For the perverse is an abomination to
Jehovah,

but his friendship is with the upright.

33 Jehovah's curse is in the house of the
wicked,

but he blesses the habitation of the righteous.

34 Surely he mocks the mockers,
but he gives grace to the humble.

35 The wise will inherit glory,
but shame will be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Listen, sons, to a father's instruction.

Pay attention and know understanding;

2 for I give you sound learning.

Don't forsake my law.

3 For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.

4 He taught me, and said to me:

"Let your heart retain my words.

Keep my commandments, and live.

5 Get wisdom.

Get understanding.

Don't forget, neither swerve from the words of
my mouth.

6 Don't forsake her, and she will preserve you.

Love her, and she will keep you.

7 Wisdom is supreme.

Get wisdom.

Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get
understanding.

8 Esteem her, and she will exalt you.

She will bring you to honor, when you embrace
her.

9 She will give to your head a garland of grace.

She will deliver a crown of splendor to you."

10 Listen, my son, and receive my sayings.

The years of your life will be many.

11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom.

I have led you in straight paths.

12 When you go, your steps will not be hampered.

When you run, you will not stumble.

13 Take firm hold of instruction.

Don't let her go.

Keep her, for she is your life.

14 Don't enter into the path of the wicked.
 Don't walk in the way of evil men.
 15 Avoid it, and don't pass by it.
 Turn from it, and pass on.
 16 For they don't sleep, unless they do evil.
 Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.
 17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
 and drink the wine of violence.
 18 But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light,
 that shines more and more until the perfect day.
 19 The way of the wicked is like darkness.
 They don't know what they stumble over.
 20 My son, attend to my words.
 Turn your ear to my sayings.
 21 Let them not depart from your eyes.
 Keep them in the center of your heart.
 22 For they are life to those who find them,
 and health to their whole body.
 23 Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it is the wellspring of life.
 24 Put away from yourself a perverse mouth.
 Put corrupt lips far from you.
 25 Let your eyes look straight ahead.
 Fix your gaze directly before you.
 26 Make the path of your feet level.
 Let all of your ways be established.
 27 Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left.
 Remove your foot from evil.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
 Turn your ear to my understanding:
 2 that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge.
 3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey.
 Her mouth is smoother than oil,
 4 but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword.
 5 Her feet go down to death.
 Her steps lead straight to Sheol.
 6 She gives no thought to the way of life.
 Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it.
 7 Now therefore, my sons, listen to me.
 Don't depart from the words of my mouth.
 8 Remove your way far from her.
 Don't come near the door of her house,
 9 lest you give your honor to others,
 and your years to the cruel one;
 10 lest strangers feast on your wealth,
 and your labors enrich another man's house.
 11 You will groan at your latter end,
 when your flesh and your body are consumed, 12 and say, "How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;
 13 neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers,
 nor turned my ear to those who instructed me!
 14 I have come to the brink of utter ruin,
 among the gathered assembly."
 15 Drink water out of your own cistern, running water out of your own well.
 16 Should your springs overflow in the streets, streams of water in the public squares?
 17 Let them be for yourself alone,
 not for strangers with you.
 18 Let your spring be blessed.
 Rejoice in the wife of your youth.

19 A loving doe and a graceful deer—
 let her breasts satisfy you at all times.
 Be captivated always with her love.
 20 For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress?
 Why embrace the bosom of another?
 21 For the ways of man are before Jehovah's eyes.
 He examines all his paths.
 22 The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him.
 The cords of his sin hold him firmly.
 23 He will die for lack of instruction.
 In the greatness of his folly, he will go astray.

CHAPTER SIX

1 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor,
 if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger;
 2 you are trapped by the words of your mouth.
 You are ensnared with the words of your mouth.
 3 Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, since you have come into the hand of your neighbor.
 Go, humble yourself.
 Press your plea with your neighbor.
 4 Give no sleep to your eyes,
 nor slumber to your eyelids.
 5 Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
 like a bird from the snare of the fowler.
 6 Go to the ant, you sluggard.
 Consider her ways, and be wise;
 7 which having no chief, overseer, or ruler,
 8 provides her bread in the summer,
 and gathers her food in the harvest.
 9 How long will you sleep, sluggard?
 When will you arise out of your sleep?
 10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
 a little folding of the hands to sleep:
 11 so your poverty will come as a robber,
 and your scarcity as an armed man.
 12 A worthless person, a man of iniquity, is he who walks with a perverse mouth;
 13 who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet,
 who motions with his fingers;
 14 in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually,
 who always sows discord.
 15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly.
 He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy.
 16 There are six things which Jehovah hates;
 yes, seven which are an abomination to him:
 17 haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
 hands that shed innocent blood;
 18 a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are swift in running to mischief, 19 a false witness who utters lies,
 and he who sows discord among brothers.
 20 My son, keep your father's commandment, and don't forsake your mother's teaching.
 21 Bind them continually on your heart.
 Tie them around your neck.
 22 When you walk, it will lead you.
 When you sleep, it will watch over you.
 When you awake, it will talk with you.
 23 For the commandment is a lamp,

and the law is light.
 Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,
 24 to keep you from the immoral woman,
 from the flattery of the wayward wife's tongue.
 25 Don't lust after her beauty in your heart,
 neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.
 26 For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread.

The adulteress hunts for your precious life.
 27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
 and his clothes not be burned?
 28 Or can one walk on hot coals,
 and his feet not be scorched?
 29 So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife.
 Whoever touches her will not be unpunished.
 30 Men don't despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry:
 31 but if he is found, he shall restore seven times.

He shall give all the wealth of his house.
 32 He who commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding.

He who does it destroys his own soul.
 33 He will get wounds and dishonor.
 His reproach will not be wiped away.
 34 For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband.

He won't spare in the day of vengeance.
 35 He won't regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 My son, keep my words.
 Lay up my commandments within you.
 2 Keep my commandments and live!
 Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.
 3 Bind them on your fingers.
 Write them on the tablet of your heart.
 4 Tell wisdom, "You are my sister."
 Call understanding your relative,
 5 that they may keep you from the strange
 woman,
 from the foreigner who flatters with her words.
 6 For at the window of my house,
 I looked out through my lattice.
 7 I saw among the simple ones.
 I discerned among the youths a young man
 void of understanding,
 8 passing through the street near her corner,
 he went the way to her house,
 9 in the twilight, in the evening of the day,
 in the middle of the night and in the darkness.
 10 Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute,
 and with crafty intent.
 11 She is loud and defiant.
 Her feet don't stay in her house.
 12 Now she is in the streets, now in the squares,
 and lurking at every corner.
 13 So she caught him, and kissed him.
 With an impudent face she said to him:
 14 "Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me.
 Today I have paid my vows.
 15 Therefore I came out to meet you,
 to diligently seek your face,
 and I have found you.

16 I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry,
 with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning.

Let's solace ourselves with loving.

19 For my husband isn't at home.

He has gone on a long journey.

20 He has taken a bag of money with him.

He will come home at the full moon."

21 With persuasive words, she led him astray.

With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him.

22 He followed her immediately,

as an ox goes to the slaughter,

as a fool stepping into a noose.

23 Until an arrow strikes through his liver,

as a bird hurries to the snare,

and doesn't know that it will cost his life.

24 Now therefore, sons, listen to me.

Pay attention to the words of my mouth.

25 Don't let your heart turn to her ways.

Don't go astray in her paths,

26 for she has thrown down many wounded.

Yes, all her slain are a mighty army.

27 Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the rooms of death.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Doesn't wisdom cry out?

Doesn't understanding raise her voice?

2 On the top of high places by the way,
 where the paths meet, she stands.

3 Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,
 at the entry doors, she cries aloud:

4 "To you men, I call!

I send my voice to the sons of mankind.

5 You simple, understand prudence.

You fools, be of an understanding heart.

6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things.

The opening of my lips is for right things.

7 For my mouth speaks truth.

Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness.

There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him who understands, right to those who find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction rather than silver;
 knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies.

All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.

12 "I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling.

Find out knowledge and discretion.

13 The fear of Jehovah is to hate evil.

I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.

14 Counsel and sound knowledge are mine.

I have understanding and power.

15 By me kings reign,
 and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule;
 nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the
 earth.

17 I love those who love me.

Those who seek me diligently will find me.

18 With me are riches, honor, enduring wealth, and prosperity.
19 My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold;
my yield than choice silver.
20 I walk in the way of righteousness,
in the middle of the paths of justice;
21 that I may give wealth to those who love me.
I fill their treasuries.
22 "Jehovah possessed me in the beginning of his work,
before his deeds of old.
23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
before the earth existed.
24 When there were no depths, I was born, when there were no springs abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains were settled in place,
before the hills, I was born;
26 while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,
nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
27 When he established the heavens, I was there;
when he set a circle on the surface of the deep, 28 when he established the clouds above,
when the springs of the deep became strong, 29 when he gave to the sea its boundary, that the waters should not violate his commandment,
when he marked out the foundations of the
earth;
30 then I was the craftsman by his side.
I was a delight day by day,
always rejoicing before him,
31 rejoicing in his whole world.
My delight was with the sons of men.
32 "Now therefore, my sons, listen to me,
for blessed are those who keep my ways.
33 Hear instruction, and be wise.
Don't refuse it.
34 Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates,
waiting at my door posts.
35 For whoever finds me, finds life,
and will obtain favor from Jehovah.
36 But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.

All those who hate me love death."

CHAPTER NINE

1 Wisdom has built her house.
She has carved out her seven pillars.
2 She has prepared her meat.
She has mixed her wine.
She has also set her table.
3 She has sent out her maidens.
She cries from the highest places of the city:
4 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!"
As for him who is void of understanding, she
says to him,
5 "Come, eat some of my bread,
Drink some of the wine which I have mixed!
6 Leave your simple ways, and live.
Walk in the way of understanding."
7 He who corrects a mocker invites insult.
He who reproves a wicked man invites abuse.
8 Don't reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you.
Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.

9 Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser.
Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
10 The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom.
The knowledge of the Holy One is
understanding.
11 For by me your days will be multiplied.
The years of your life will be increased.
12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself.
If you mock, you alone will bear it.
13 The foolish woman is loud, undisciplined, and knows nothing.
14 She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the high places of the city, 15 To call to those who pass by,
who go straight on their ways,
16 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here."
as for him who is void of understanding, she
says to him,
17 "Stolen water is sweet.
Food eaten in secret is pleasant."

18 But he doesn't know that the departed spirits are there,
that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

CHAPTER TEN

1 The proverbs of Solomon.
A wise son makes a glad father;
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.
2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
but righteousness delivers from death.
3 Jehovah will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry,
but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
4 He becomes poor who works with a lazy
hand,
but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.
5 He who gathers in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.
6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
7 The memory of the righteous is blessed,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
8 The wise in heart accept commandments,
but a chattering fool will fall.
9 He who walks blamelessly walks surely,
but he who perverts his ways will be found out.
10 One winking with the eye causes sorrow,
but a chattering fool will fall.
11 The mouth of the righteous is a spring of
life,
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
12 Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all wrongs.
13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has discernment,
but a rod is for the back of him who is void of
understanding.
14 Wise men lay up knowledge,
but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.
15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city.
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
16 The labor of the righteous leads to life.
The increase of the wicked leads to sin.
17 He is in the way of life who heeds correction,
but he who forsakes reproof leads others astray.

18 He who hides hatred has lying lips.
 He who utters a slander is a fool.
 19 In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience, but he who restrains his lips does wisely.
 20 The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver.
 The heart of the wicked is of little worth.
 21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
 but the foolish die for lack of understanding.
 22 Jehovah's blessing brings wealth,
 and he adds no trouble to it.
 23 It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness,
 but wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure.
 24 What the wicked fear, will overtake them,
 but the desire of the righteous will be granted.
 25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more;
 but the righteous stand firm forever.
 26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,
 so is the sluggard to those who send him.
 27 The fear of Jehovah prolongs days,
 but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
 28 The prospect of the righteous is joy,
 but the hope of the wicked will perish.
 29 The way of Jehovah is a stronghold to the upright, but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
 30 The righteous will never be removed,
 but the wicked will not dwell in the land.
 31 The mouth of the righteous produces wisdom,
 but the perverse tongue will be cut off.
 32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 A false balance is an abomination to Jehovah, but accurate weights are his delight.
 2 When pride comes, then comes shame,
 but with humility comes wisdom.
 3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them,
 but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.
 4 Riches don't profit in the day of wrath,
 but righteousness delivers from death.
 5 The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way,
 but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
 6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them,
 but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.
 7 When a wicked man dies, hope perishes, and expectation of power comes to nothing.
 8 A righteous person is delivered out of trouble,
 and the wicked takes his place.
 9 With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor,
 but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.
 10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices.

When the wicked perish, there is shouting.
 11 By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted,
 but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
 12 One who despises his neighbor is void of wisdom,
 but a man of understanding holds his peace.
 13 One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.
 14 Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls,
 but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.
 15 He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it,
 but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.
 16 A gracious woman obtains honor,
 but violent men obtain riches.
 17 The merciful man does good to his own soul,
 but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.
 18 Wicked people earn deceitful wages,
 but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
 19 He who is truly righteous gets life.
 He who pursues evil gets death.
 20 Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to Jehovah, but those whose ways are blameless are his delight.
 21 Most certainly, the evil man will not be unpunished,
 but the offspring of the righteous will be delivered.
 22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
 23 The desire of the righteous is only good.
 The expectation of the wicked is wrath.
 24 There is one who scatters, and increases yet more.
 There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty.
 25 The liberal soul shall be made fat.
 He who waters shall be watered also himself.
 26 People curse someone who withholds grain, but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.
 27 He who diligently seeks good seeks favor,
 but he who searches after evil, it shall come to him.
 28 He who trusts in his riches will fall,
 but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.
 29 He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind.
 The foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart.
 30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life.
 He who is wise wins souls.
 31 Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth;
 how much more the wicked and the sinner!

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Whoever loves correction loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid.

2 A good man shall obtain favor from Jehovah,
but he will condemn a man of wicked devices.
3 A man shall not be established by
wickedness,
but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
4 A worthy woman is the crown of her husband,
but a disgraceful wife is as rottenness in his bones.
5 The thoughts of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
6 The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood,
but the speech of the upright rescues them.
7 The wicked are overthrown, and are no more,
but the house of the righteous shall stand.
8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom,
but he who has a warped mind shall be despised.
9 Better is he who is lightly esteemed, and has a servant,
than he who honors himself, and lacks bread.
10 A righteous man respects the life of his animal,
but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
11 He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread,
but he who chases fantasies is void of
understanding.
12 The wicked desires the plunder of evil men,
but the root of the righteous flourishes.
13 An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips,
but the righteous shall come out of trouble.
14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth.
The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to him.
15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but he who is wise listens to counsel.
16 A fool shows his annoyance the same day,
but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.
17 He who is truthful testifies honestly,
but a false witness lies.
18 There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword,
but the tongue of the wise heals.
19 Truth's lips will be established forever,
but a lying tongue is only momentary.
20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,
but joy comes to the promoters of peace.
21 No mischief shall happen to the righteous,
but the wicked shall be filled with evil.
22 Lying lips are an abomination to Jehovah,
but those who do the truth are his delight.
23 A prudent man keeps his knowledge,
but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.
24 The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.
25 Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down,
but a kind word makes it glad.
26 A righteous person is cautious in friendship,
but the way of the wicked leads them astray.
27 The slothful man doesn't roast his game,
but the possessions of diligent men are prized.
28 In the way of righteousness is life;
in its path there is no death.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 A wise son listens to his father's instruction, but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.
2 By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things;
but the unfaithful crave violence.
3 He who guards his mouth guards his soul.
One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
4 The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing,
but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.
5 A righteous man hates lies,
but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.
6 Righteousness guards the way of integrity,
but wickedness overthrows the sinner.
7 There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing.
There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.
8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches,
but the poor hear no threats.
9 The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
10 Pride only breeds quarrels,
but with ones who take advice is wisdom.
11 Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away,
but he who gathers by hand makes it grow.
12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.
13 Whoever despises instruction will pay for it, but he who respects a command will be rewarded.
14 The teaching of the wise is a spring of life,
to turn from the snares of death.
15 Good understanding wins favor;
but the way of the unfaithful is hard.
16 Every prudent man acts from knowledge,
but a fool exposes folly.
17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a trustworthy envoy gains healing.
18 Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline,
but he who heeds correction shall be honored.
19 Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul,
but fools detest turning from evil.
20 One who walks with wise men grows wise,
but a companion of fools suffers harm.
21 Misfortune pursues sinners,
but prosperity rewards the righteous.
22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the
righteous.
23 An abundance of food is in poor people's fields,
but injustice sweeps it away.
24 One who spares the rod hates his son, but one who loves him is careful to discipline
him.
25 The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul,
but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.
2 He who walks in his uprightness fears
Jehovah,
but he who is perverse in his ways despises

him.

3 The fool's talk brings a rod to his back,
but the lips of the wise protect them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean,
but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A truthful witness will not lie,
but a false witness pours out lies.

6 A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it, but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.

7 Stay away from a foolish man,
for you won't find knowledge on his lips.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way,
but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools mock at making atonement for sins, but among the upright there is good will.

10 The heart knows its own bitterness and joy;
he will not share these with a stranger.

11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.

12 There is a way which seems right to a man,
but in the end it leads to death.

13 Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful, and mirth may end in heaviness.

14 The unfaithful will be repaid for his own
ways;
likewise a good man will be rewarded for his ways.

15 A simple man believes everything, but the prudent man carefully considers his ways.

16 A wise man fears, and shuns evil,
but the fool is hot headed and reckless.

17 He who is quick to become angry will commit folly,
and a crafty man is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly,
but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow down before the good,
and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor person is shunned even by his own neighbor,
but the rich person has many friends.

21 He who despises his neighbor sins,
but blessed is he who has pity on the poor.

22 Don't they go astray who plot evil?
But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.

23 In all hard work there is profit,
but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches,
but the folly of fools crowns them with folly.

25 A truthful witness saves souls,
but a false witness is deceitful.

26 In the fear of Jehovah is a secure fortress,
and he will be a refuge for his children.

27 The fear of Jehovah is a fountain of life, turning people from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's glory,
but in the lack of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He who is slow to anger has great
understanding,
but he who has a quick temper displays folly.

30 The life of the body is a heart at peace,
but envy rots the bones.

31 He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker,
but he who is kind to the needy honors him.

32 The wicked is brought down in his calamity,
but in death, the righteous has a refuge.

33 Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has
understanding,
and is even made known in the inward part of fools.

34 Righteousness exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.

35 The king's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely,
but his wrath is toward one who causes shame.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise commends
knowledge,
but the mouth of fools gushes out folly.

3 Jehovah's eyes are everywhere, keeping watch on the evil and the good.

4 A gentle tongue is a tree of life,
but deceit in it crushes the spirit.

5 A fool despises his father's correction,
but he who heeds reproof shows prudence.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure,
but the income of the wicked brings trouble.

7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge;
not so with the heart of fools.

8 The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to Jehovah,
but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to Jehovah,
but he loves him who follows after righteousness.

10 There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way:
whoever hates reproof shall die.

11 Sheol and Abaddon are before Jehovah—how much more than the hearts of the children of men!

12 A scoffer doesn't love to be reproved;
he will not go to the wise.

13 A glad heart makes a cheerful face;
but an aching heart breaks the spirit.

14 The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge,
but the mouths of fools feed on folly.

15 All the days of the afflicted are wretched, but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.

16 Better is little, with the fear of Jehovah, than great treasure with trouble.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is,
than a fattened calf with hatred.

18 A wrathful man stirs up contention,
but one who is slow to anger appeases strife.

19 The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch,
but the path of the upright is a highway.

20 A wise son makes a father glad,
but a foolish man despises his mother.

21 Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom, but a man of understanding keeps his way straight.

22 Where there is no counsel, plans fail;
but in a multitude of counselors they are established.

23 Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth.

How good is a word at the right time!

24 The path of life leads upward for the wise, to keep him from going downward to Sheol.

25 Jehovah will uproot the house of the proud,
but he will keep the widow's borders intact.

26 Jehovah detests the thoughts of the wicked,
but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing.

27 He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house,

but he who hates bribes will live.

28 The heart of the righteous weighs answers,
but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil.

29 Jehovah is far from the wicked,
but he hears the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart.

Good news gives health to the bones.

31 The ear that listens to reproof lives,
and will be at home among the wise.

32 He who refuses correction despises his own soul,

but he who listens to reproof gets understanding.

33 The fear of Jehovah teaches wisdom.

Before honor is humility.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from Jehovah.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes;

but Jehovah weighs the motives.

3 Commit your deeds to Jehovah, and your plans shall succeed.

4 Jehovah has made everything for its own end—

yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to Jehovah:

they shall certainly not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for.

By the fear of Jehovah men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please Jehovah,
he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues with injustice.

9 A man's heart plans his course,

but Jehovah directs his steps.

10 Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king.

He shall not betray his mouth.

11 Honest balances and scales are Jehovah's;
all the weights in the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination for kings to do wrong,
for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings.

They value one who speaks the truth.

14 The king's wrath is a messenger of death,

but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's face is life.

His favor is like a cloud of the spring rain.

16 How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!

Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil.

He who keeps his way preserves his soul.

18 Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

19 It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, than to divide the plunder with the proud.

20 He who heeds the Word finds prosperity.

Whoever trusts in Jehovah is blessed.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent.

Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.

22 Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the punishment of fools is their folly.

23 The heart of the wise instructs his mouth, and adds learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way which seems right to a man,
but in the end it leads to death.

26 The appetite of the laboring man labors for him;

for his mouth urges him on.

27 A worthless man devises mischief.

His speech is like a scorching fire.

28 A perverse man stirs up strife.

A whisperer separates close friends.

29 A man of violence entices his neighbor, and leads him in a way that is not good.

30 One who winks his eyes to plot perversities, one who compresses his lips, is bent on evil.

31 Gray hair is a crown of glory.

It is attained by a life of righteousness.

32 One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty;

one who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap,

but its every decision is from Jehovah.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 Better is a dry morsel with quietness, than a house full of feasting with strife.

2 A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers.

3 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold, but Jehovah tests the hearts.

4 An evildoer heeds wicked lips.

A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.

5 Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker.

He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.

6 Children's children are the crown of old men;
the glory of children are their parents.

7 Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a prince.

8 A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it;

wherever he turns, he prospers.

9 He who covers an offense promotes love;

but he who repeats a matter separates best friends.

10 A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent
against him.

12 Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoever rewards evil for good,
evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam,
therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.

15 He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to
Jehovah.

16 Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom,
since he has no understanding?

17 A friend loves at all times;
and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding strikes hands, and becomes collateral in the presence of his neighbor.

19 He who loves disobedience loves strife.

One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.

20 One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity,
and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.

21 He who becomes the father of a fool grieves.
The father of a fool has no joy.

22 A cheerful heart makes good medicine,
but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.

23 A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, to pervert the ways of justice.

24 Wisdom is before the face of one who has
understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the
earth.

25 A foolish son brings grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.

26 Also to punish the righteous is not good,
nor to flog officials for their integrity.

27 He who spares his words has knowledge.
He who is even tempered is a man of
understanding.

28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise.

When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 A man who separates himself pursues selfishness,
and defies all sound judgment.

2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his own opinion.

3 When wickedness comes, contempt also comes,
and with shame comes disgrace.

4 The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters.

The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.

5 To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good,

nor to deprive the innocent of justice.

6 A fool's lips come into strife,
and his mouth invites beatings.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare to his soul.

8 The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels:

they go down into a person's innermost parts.

9 One who is slack in his work is brother to him who is a master of destruction.

10 Jehovah's name is a strong tower:
the righteous run to him, and are safe.

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
like an unscalable wall in his own imagination.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is proud,

but before honor is humility.

13 He who gives answer before he hears,
that is folly and shame to him.

14 A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness,
but a crushed spirit, who can bear?

15 The heart of the discerning gets knowledge.
The ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

16 A man's gift makes room for him,
and brings him before great men.

17 He who pleads his cause first seems right;
until another comes and questions him.

18 The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a fortified city;

and disputes are like the bars of a fortress.

20 A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth.

With the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue;

those who love it will eat its fruit.

22 Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing,
and obtains favor of Jehovah.

23 The poor plead for mercy,
but the rich answer harshly.

24 A man of many companions may be ruined, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.

2 It isn't good to have zeal without knowledge; nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the
way.

3 The foolishness of man subverts his way;
his heart rages against Jehovah.

4 Wealth adds many friends,
but the poor is separated from his friend.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished.

He who pours out lies shall not go free.

6 Many will entreat the favor of a ruler, and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts.

7 All the relatives of the poor shun him:
how much more do his friends avoid him!

He pursues them with pleas, but they are gone.

8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul.

He who keeps understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished.

He who utters lies shall perish.

10 Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool, much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger.

It is his glory to overlook an offense.

12 The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father.

A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping.

14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers,

but a prudent wife is from Jehovah.

15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep.

The idle soul shall suffer hunger.

16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul,

but he who is contemptuous in his ways shall die.

17 He who has pity on the poor lends to Jehovah;

he will reward him.

18 Discipline your son, for there is hope; don't be a willing party to his death.

19 A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty, for if you rescue him, you must do it again.

20 Listen to counsel and receive instruction, that you may be wise in your latter end.

21 There are many plans in a man's heart, but Jehovah's counsel will prevail.

22 That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness.

A poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of Jehovah leads to life, then contentment;

he rests and will not be touched by trouble.

24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish;

he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;

rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.

26 He who robs his father and drives away his mother, is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

27 If you stop listening to instruction, my son, you will stray from the words of knowledge.

28 A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity.

29 Penalties are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler.

Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.

2 The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion.

He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own life.

3 It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife;

but every fool will be quarreling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter;

therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water;

but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Many men claim to be men of unfailing love, but who can find a faithful man?

7 A righteous man walks in integrity.

Blessed are his children after him.

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, "I have made my heart pure.

I am clean and without sin?"

10 Differing weights and differing measures, both of them alike are an abomination to Jehovah.

11 Even a child makes himself known by his doings, whether his work is pure, and whether it is right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, Jehovah has made even both of them.

13 Don't love sleep, lest you come to poverty. Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.

14 "It's no good, it's no good," says the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasts.

15 There is gold and abundance of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.

16 Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger; and hold him in pledge for a wayward woman.

17 Fraudulent food is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.

18 Plans are established by advice;

by wise guidance you wage war!

19 He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets;

therefore don't keep company with him who opens wide his lips.

20 Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.

21 An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning, won't be blessed in the end.

22 Don't say, "I will pay back evil."

Wait for Jehovah, and he will save you.

23 Jehovah detests differing weights, and dishonest scales are not pleasing.

24 A man's steps are from Jehovah;

how then can man understand his way?

25 It is a snare to a man to make a rash dedication, then later to consider his vows.

26 A wise king winnows out the wicked, and drives the threshing wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is Jehovah's lamp, searching all his innermost parts.

28 Love and faithfulness keep the king safe.

His throne is sustained by love.

29 The glory of young men is their strength.

The splendor of old men is their gray hair.

30 Wounding blows cleanse away evil, and beatings purge the innermost parts.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 The king's heart is in Jehovah's hand like the watercourses.

He turns it wherever he desires.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but Jehovah weighs the hearts.

3 To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Jehovah than sacrifice.

4 A high look, and a proud heart,

the lamp of the wicked, is sin.

5 The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit;

and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.

6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

7 The violence of the wicked will drive them away, because they refuse to do what is right.

8 The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.

9 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious woman.

10 The soul of the wicked desires evil; his neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes.

11 When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom.

When the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked, and brings the wicked to ruin.

13 Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor,

he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifies anger; and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the righteous to do justice; but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the departed spirits.

17 He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man.

He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous; the treacherous for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in a desert land, than with a contentious and fretful woman.

20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;

but a foolish man swallows it up.

21 He who follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.

22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and brings down the strength of its confidence.

23 Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.

24 The proud and haughty man, "scoffer" is his name;

he works in the arrogance of pride.

25 The desire of the sluggard kills him, for his hands refuse to labor.

26 There are those who covet greedily all day long;

but the righteous give and don't withhold.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination:

how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!

28 A false witness will perish, and a man who listens speaks to eternity.

29 A wicked man hardens his face; but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against Jehovah.

31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle; but victory is with Jehovah.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

1 A good name is more desirable than great riches, and loving favor is better than silver and gold.

2 The rich and the poor have this in common: Jehovah is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself;

but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.

4 The result of humility and the fear of Jehovah is wealth, honor, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked:

whoever guards his soul stays from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

7 The rich rule over the poor.

The borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He who sows wickedness reaps trouble, and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.

9 He who has a generous eye will be blessed; for he shares his food with the poor.

10 Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out; yes, quarrels and insults will stop.

11 He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully is the king's friend.

12 Jehovah's eyes watch over knowledge; but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.

13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside! I will be killed in the streets!"

14 The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit: he who is under Jehovah's wrath will fall into it.

15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a child: the rod of discipline drives it far from him.

16 Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich, both come to poverty.

17 Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise.

Apply your heart to my teaching.

18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you,

if all of them are ready on your lips.

19 That your trust may be in Jehovah, I teach you today, even you.

20 Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things of counsel and knowledge,

21 to teach you truth, reliable words,

to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?

22 Don't exploit the poor, because he is poor; and don't crush the needy in court;

23 for Jehovah will plead their case, and plunder the life of those who plunder them.

24 Don't befriend a hot-tempered man, and don't associate with one who harbors anger:

25 lest you learn his ways, and ensnare your soul.

26 Don't you be one of those who strike hands, of those who are collateral for debts.

27 If you don't have means to pay, why should he take away your bed from under
you?

28 Don't move the ancient boundary stone,
which your fathers have set up.

29 Do you see a man skilled in his work?
He will serve kings.

He won't serve obscure men.

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

1 When you sit to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before you;

2 put a knife to your throat,
if you are a man given to appetite.

3 Don't be desirous of his dainties, since they are deceitful food.

4 Don't weary yourself to be rich.
In your wisdom, show restraint.

5 Why do you set your eyes on that which is not?

For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle and flies in the sky.

6 Don't eat the food of him who has a stingy eye,

and don't crave his delicacies:

7 for as he thinks about the cost, so he is.

"Eat and drink!" he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.

8 The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up,

and lose your good words.

9 Don't speak in the ears of a fool,
for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

10 Don't move the ancient boundary stone.
Don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless:

11 for their Defender is strong.

He will plead their case against you.

12 Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Don't withhold correction from a child.

If you punish him with the rod, he will not die.

14 Punish him with the rod, and save his soul from Sheol.

15 My son, if your heart is wise,
then my heart will be glad, even mine:

16 yes, my heart will rejoice,
when your lips speak what is right.

17 Don't let your heart envy sinners;
but rather fear Jehovah all the day long.

18 Indeed surely there is a future hope,
and your hope will not be cut off.

19 Listen, my son, and be wise,
and keep your heart on the right path!

20 Don't be among ones drinking too much
wine,

or those who gorge themselves on meat:

21 for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor;

and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

22 Listen to your father who gave you life,
and don't despise your mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth, and don't sell it.

Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous has great joy.

Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.

25 Let your father and your mother be glad!

Let her who bore you rejoice!

26 My son, give me your heart;
and let your eyes keep in my ways.

27 For a prostitute is a deep pit;

and a wayward wife is a narrow well.

28 Yes, she lies in wait like a robber, and increases the unfaithful among men.

29 Who has woe?

Who has sorrow?

Who has strife?

Who has complaints?

Who has needless bruises?

Who has bloodshot eyes?

30 Those who stay long at the wine;
those who go to seek out mixed wine.

31 Don't look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly.

32 In the end, it bites like a snake,
and poisons like a viper.

33 Your eyes will see strange things,
and your mind will imagine confusing things.

34 Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the middle of the sea,

or as he who lies on top of the rigging:

35 "They hit me, and I was not hurt!

They beat me, and I don't feel it!

When will I wake up? I can do it again.

I can find another."

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

1 Don't be envious of evil men;
neither desire to be with them:

2 for their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about mischief.

3 Through wisdom a house is built;

by understanding it is established;

4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure.

5 A wise man has great power;
and a knowledgeable man increases strength;

6 for by wise guidance you wage your war;
and victory is in many advisors.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool:

he doesn't open his mouth in the gate.

8 One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.

9 The schemes of folly are sin.

The mocker is detested by men.

10 If you falter in the time of trouble,
your strength is small.

11 Rescue those who are being led away to death!

Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter!

12 If you say, "Behold, we didn't know this;"

doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it?

He who keeps your soul, doesn't he know it?

Shall he not render to every man according to his work?

13 My son, eat honey, for it is good;
the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste:

14 so you shall know wisdom to be to your
soul;

if you have found it, then there will be a reward,

your hope will not be cut off.

15 Don't lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous.

Don't destroy his resting place:

16 for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again;

but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.

17 Don't rejoice when your enemy falls.
Don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown;

18 lest Jehovah see it, and it displease him,
and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Don't fret yourself because of evildoers;
neither be envious of the wicked:

20 for there will be no reward to the evil man;
and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed
out.

21 My son, fear Jehovah and the king.

Don't join those who are rebellious;

22 for their calamity will rise suddenly;
the destruction from them both—who knows?

23 These also are sayings of the wise.

To show partiality in judgment is not good.

24 He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous;"

peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor him—

25 but it will go well with those who convict the guilty,

and a rich blessing will come on them.

26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

27 Prepare your work outside,
and get your fields ready.

Afterwards, build your house.

28 Don't be a witness against your neighbor without cause.

Don't deceive with your lips.

29 Don't say, "I will do to him as he has done
to me;

I will render to the man according to his work."

30 I went by the field of the sluggard, by the vineyard of the man void of
understanding;

31 behold, it was all grown over with thorns.

Its surface was covered with nettles,
and its stone wall was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and considered well.
I saw, and received instruction:

33 a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep;

34 so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your want as an armed man.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

1 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

3 As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth,

so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and material comes out for the refiner;

5 take away the wicked from the king's presence,

and his throne will be established in righteousness.

6 Don't exalt yourself in the presence of the king,

or claim a place among great men;

7 for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here,"

than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince, whom your eyes have seen.

8 Don't be hasty in bringing charges to court.
What will you do in the end when your neighbor shames you?

9 Debate your case with your neighbor,
and don't betray the confidence of another;

10 lest one who hears it put you to shame,
and your bad reputation never depart.

11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,

so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send
him;

for he refreshes the soul of his masters.

14 As clouds and wind without rain,
so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.

15 By patience a ruler is persuaded.

A soft tongue breaks the bone.

16 Have you found honey?

Eat as much as is sufficient for you,
lest you eat too much, and vomit it.

17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's
house,

lest he be weary of you, and hate you.

18 A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor

is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble

is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot.

20 As one who takes away a garment in cold weather,

or vinegar on soda,

so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat.

If he is thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 for you will heap coals of fire on his head, and Jehovah will reward you.

23 The north wind produces rain:

so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.

24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,

than to share a house with a contentious
woman.

25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul,

so is good news from a far country.

26 Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well, so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.

27 It is not good to eat much honey;

nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.

28 Like a city that is broken down and without walls

is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

1 Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.

2 Like a fluttering sparrow,
like a darting swallow,

so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest.

3 A whip is for the horse,

a bridle for the donkey,

and a rod for the back of fools!

4 Don't answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.

6 One who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off feet and drinking violence.

7 Like the legs of the lame that hang loose:
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As one who binds a stone in a sling,
so is he who gives honor to a fool.

9 Like a thorn bush that goes into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 As an archer who wounds all,
so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by.

11 As a dog that returns to his vomit,
so is a fool who repeats his folly.

12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road!
A fierce lion roams the streets!"

14 As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.

15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish.
He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer with discretion.

17 Like one who grabs a dog's ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own.

18 Like a madman who shoots torches, arrows,
and death,
19 is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?"

20 For lack of wood a fire goes out.
Without gossip, a quarrel dies down.

21 As coals are to hot embers,
and wood to fire,
so is a contentious man to kindling strife.

22 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
they go down into the innermost parts.

23 Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart.

24 A malicious man disguises himself with his lips,
but he harbors evil in his heart.

25 When his speech is charming, don't believe him;
for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 His malice may be concealed by deception,
but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

27 Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it.
Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him.

28 A lying tongue hates those it hurts;
and a flattering mouth works ruin.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

1 Don't boast about tomorrow;
for you don't know what a day may bring.

2 Let another man praise you,
and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own lips.

3 A stone is heavy,
and sand is a burden;
but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.

4 Wrath is cruel,

and anger is overwhelming;
but who is able to stand before jealousy?

5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.

7 A full soul loathes a honeycomb;
but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wanders from her nest,
so is a man who wanders from his home.

9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart;
so does earnest counsel from a man's friend.

10 Don't forsake your friend and your father's friend.
Don't go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster:
better is a neighbor who is near than a distant brother.

11 Be wise, my son,
and bring joy to my heart,
then I can answer my tormentor.

12 A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge;
but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.

13 Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger.
Hold it for a wayward woman!

14 He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse by him.

15 A continual dropping on a rainy day and a contentious wife are alike:
16 restraining her is like restraining the wind,
or like grasping oil in his right hand.

17 Iron sharpens iron;
so a man sharpens his friend's countenance.

18 Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit.
He who looks after his master shall be honored.

19 As water reflects a face,
so a man's heart reflects the man.

20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied;
and a man's eyes are never satisfied.

21 The crucible is for silver,
and the furnace for gold;
but man is refined by his praise.

22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, yet his foolishness will not be removed from him.

23 Know well the state of your flocks,
and pay attention to your herds:
24 for riches are not forever,
nor does even the crown endure to all generations.

25 The hay is removed, and the new growth appears,
the grasses of the hills are gathered in.

26 The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of a field.

27 There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food,
for your family's food,
and for the nourishment of your servant girls.

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

1 The wicked flee when no one pursues;
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

2 In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.

3 A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.

4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked; but those who keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men don't understand justice; but those who seek Jehovah understand it fully.

6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.

7 Whoever keeps the law is a wise son; but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.

8 He who increases his wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.

9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.

10 Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, he will fall into his own trap; but the blameless will inherit good.

11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes; but the poor who has understanding sees through him.

12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;

but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.

13 He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

14 Blessed is the man who always fears; but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble.

15 As a roaring lion or a charging bear, so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.

16 A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment. One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days.

17 A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death; no one will support him.

18 Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.

19 One who works his land will have an abundance of food; but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.

20 A faithful man is rich with blessings; but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.

21 To show partiality is not good; yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.

22 A stingy man hurries after riches, and doesn't know that poverty waits for him.

23 One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.

24 Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It's not wrong."

He is a partner with a destroyer.

25 One who is greedy stirs up strife; but one who trusts in Jehovah will prosper.

26 One who trusts in himself is a fool;

but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.

27 One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes his eyes will have many curses.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE

1 He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.

2 When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father; but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.

4 The king by justice makes the land stable, but he who takes bribes tears it down.

5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

6 An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing and be glad.

7 The righteous care about justice for the poor. The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge.

8 Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger.

9 If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man,

the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.

10 The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity; and they seek the life of the upright.

11 A fool vents all of his anger, but a wise man brings himself under control.

12 If a ruler listens to lies, all of his officials are wicked.

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:

Jehovah gives sight to the eyes of both.

14 The king who fairly judges the poor, his throne shall be established forever.

15 The rod of correction gives wisdom, but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked increase, sin increases; but the righteous will see their downfall.

17 Correct your son, and he will give you peace;

yes, he will bring delight to your soul.

18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but one who keeps the law is blessed.

19 A servant can't be corrected by words. Though he understands, yet he will not respond.

20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?

There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end.

22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin.

23 A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains honor.

24 Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul.

He takes an oath, but dares not testify.

25 The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever puts his trust in Jehovah is kept safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favor,
but a man's justice comes from Jehovah.
27 A dishonest man detests the righteous, and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.

CHAPTER THIRTY

1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the revelation:

the man says to Ithiel,
to Ithiel and Ucal:

2 "Surely I am the most ignorant man,
and don't have a man's understanding.

3 I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.

4 Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?

Who has gathered the wind in his fists?

Who has bound the waters in his garment?

Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?

5 "Every word of God is flawless.

He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

6 Don't you add to his words,
lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.

7 "Two things I have asked of you;

don't deny me before I die:

8 Remove far from me falsehood and lies.

Give me neither poverty nor riches.

Feed me with the food that is needful for me;

9 lest I be full, deny you, and say, 'Who is Jehovah?'

or lest I be poor, and steal,

and so dishonor the name of my God.

10 "Don't slander a servant to his master,

lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.

11 There is a generation that curses their father, and doesn't bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, yet are not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes!

Their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords, and their jaws like knives,

to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 "The leach has two daughters:

'Give, give.'

"There are three things that are never satisfied;

four that don't say, 'Enough.'

16 Sheol,

the barren womb;

the earth that is not satisfied with water;

and the fire that doesn't say, 'Enough.'

17 "The eye that mocks at his father, and scorns obedience to his mother:

the ravens of the valley shall pick it out,

the young eagles shall eat it.

18 "There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I don't understand:

19 The way of an eagle in the air;

the way of a serpent on a rock;

the way of a ship in the middle of the sea;

and the way of a man with a maiden.

20 "So is the way of an adulterous woman:

she eats and wipes her mouth,

and says, 'I have done nothing wrong.'

21 "For three things the earth tremble, and under four, it can't bear up:

22 For a servant when he is king;

a fool when he is filled with food;

23 for an unloved woman when she is married;

and a servant who is heir to her mistress.

24 "There are four things which are little on the earth,

but they are exceedingly wise:

25 the ants are not a strong people,

yet they provide their food in the summer.

26 The conies are but a feeble folk,

yet make their houses in the rocks.

27 The locusts have no king,

yet they advance in ranks.

28 You can catch a lizard with your hands,

yet it is in kings' palaces.

29 "There are three things which are stately in their march, four which are stately in going:

30 The lion, which is mightiest among animals, and doesn't turn away for any;

31 the greyhound,

the male goat also;

and the king against whom there is no rising up.

32 "If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil,

put your hand over your mouth.

33 For as the churning of milk produces butter, and the wringing of the nose produces blood;

so the forcing of wrath produces strife."

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

1 The words of king Lemuel; the revelation which his mother taught him.

2 "Oh, my son!

Oh, son of my womb!

Oh, son of my vows!

3 Don't give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

4 It is not for kings, Lemuel;

it is not for kings to drink wine;

nor for princes to say, 'Where is strong drink?'

5 lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.

6 Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish;

and wine to the bitter in soul:

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 Open your mouth for the mute,

in the cause of all who are left desolate.

9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and serve justice to the poor and needy."

10 Who can find a worthy woman?

For her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband trusts in her.

He shall have no lack of gain.

12 She does him good, and not harm,

all the days of her life.

13 She seeks wool and flax, and works eagerly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchant ships.

She brings her bread from afar.

15 She rises also while it is yet night, gives food to her household,
and portions for her servant girls.
16 She considers a field, and buys it.
With the fruit of her hands, she plants a vineyard.
17 She arms her waist with strength, and makes her arms strong.
18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
Her lamp doesn't go out by night.
19 She lays her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.
20 She opens her arms to the poor;
yes, she extends her hands to the needy.
21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
22 She makes for herself carpets of tapestry.
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
23 Her husband is respected in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.
24 She makes linen garments and sells them,
and delivers sashes to the merchant.
25 Strength and dignity are her clothing.
She laughs at the time to come.
26 She opens her mouth with wisdom.
Faithful instruction is on her tongue.
27 She looks well to the ways of her household, and doesn't eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children rise up and call her blessed.
Her husband also praises her:
29 "Many women do noble things,
but you excel them all."
30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain;
but a woman who fears Jehovah, she shall be praised.
31 Give her of the fruit of her hands!
Let her works praise her in the gates!

ECCLESIASTES

CHAPTER ONE

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem:

2 “Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher; “Vanity of vanities, all is vanity.” 3 What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? 4 One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. 5 The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. 6 The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. 7 All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. 8 All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. 9 That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done; and there is no new thing under the sun. 10 Is there a thing of which it may be said, “Behold, this is new?” It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. 11 There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 15 That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted. 16 I said to myself, “Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.” 17 I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. 18 For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

CHAPTER TWO

1 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;” and behold, this also was vanity. 2 I said of laughter, “It is foolishness;” and of mirth, “What does it accomplish?”

3 I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. 4 I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. 5 I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. 6 I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. 7 I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; 8 I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. 9 So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. 10 Whatever my eyes desired, I didn't keep from them. I didn't withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. 11 Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. 13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. 14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. 15 Then I said in my heart, “As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?” Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. 16 For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool!

17 So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 18 I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. 19 Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

20 Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. 21 For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22 For what has a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? 23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. 24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. 25 For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? 26 For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

CHAPTER THREE

1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:

2 a time to be born,

and a time to die;
 a time to plant,
 and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
 3 a time to kill,
 and a time to heal;
 a time to break down,
 and a time to build up;
 4 a time to weep,
 and a time to laugh;
 a time to mourn,
 and a time to dance;
 5 a time to cast away stones,
 and a time to gather stones together;
 a time to embrace,
 and a time to refrain from embracing;
 6 a time to seek,
 and a time to lose;
 a time to keep,
 and a time to cast away;
 7 a time to tear,
 and a time to sew;
 a time to keep silence,
 and a time to speak;
 8 a time to love,
 and a time to hate;
 a time for war,
 and a time for peace.

9 What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? 10 I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. 12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. 13 Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. 14 I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. 15 That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away.

16 Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. 17 I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." 18 I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. 19 For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. 20 All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. 21 Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

22 Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. 2 Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. 3 Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. 4 Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

5 The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. 6 Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind.

7 Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. 8 There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. "For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment?" This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business.

9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. 10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. 11 Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? 12 If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. 14 For out of prison he came out to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. 15 I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the second youth, who succeeded him. 16 There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they don't know that they do evil. 2 Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. 3 For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. 4 When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. 5 It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. 6 Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? 7 For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God.

8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter: for one official is observed by a higher one; and there are officials over them. 9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

10 He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. 11 When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. 14 Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. 15 As he came out of his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. 16 This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? 17 All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

18 Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. 19 Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. 20 For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER SIX

1 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: 2 a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: 4 for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. 5 Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. 6 Yes, though he live a thousand years twice, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place? 7 All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. 8 For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? 9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. 10 Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. 11 For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? 12 For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. 2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. 3 Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. 4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. 5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. 6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. 7 Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. 8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. 9 Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. 10 Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

11 Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. 12 For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

13 Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? 14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

15 All this I have seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. 16 Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? 17 Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? 18 It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that don't withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come out of them all. 19 Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. 20 Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. 21 Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; 22 for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. 23 All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. 24 That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? 25 I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

26 I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

27 "Behold, I have found this," says the Preacher, "laying one thing to another, to find out the scheme; 28 which my soul still seeks; but I have not found. One man among a thousand have I found; but I have not found a woman among all those. 29 Behold, this only have I found: that God made man upright*; but they search for many schemes."

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. 2 I say, "Keep the king's command!" because of the oath to God. 3 Don't be hasty to go out of his presence. Don't persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, 4 for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" 5 Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and manner. 6 For there is a time and manner for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. 7 For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? 8 There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

9 All this I have seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. 10 So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from the holy place. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. 11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. 12 Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. 13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he doesn't fear God.

* 7:29 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth, and created human beings. Our first parents, Adam and Eve, rebelled against their Creator, and they gave birth to rebellious offspring.

As the New Century Version renders the passage above, "God made people good, but they have found all kinds of ways to be bad."—Ecclesiastes 7:29 NCV

On a number of occasions God intervened in human affairs to remind us how he wants us to behave. Through the flood of Noah's day he wiped away a world that had become filled with violence and sin, leaving only eight people alive to rebuild the population. God intervened again at the tower of Babel. And again at Sodom and Gomorrah.

After that, when the inhabitants of the land of Canaan were murderously sacrificing their children to idols and practicing gross sexual immorality, God sent the descendants of Israel to wipe them out and inherit their land—giving the Israelites hundreds of strict laws to limit their sinful behavior and to keep them separate from surrounding nations.

But, as the history in the Old Testament shows, they too repeatedly ignored God's laws and returned to sexual immorality and idolatry. Meanwhile, the rest of the world completely forgot about the true God, worshipping idols instead, and following myths invented by their ancestors.

So, finally, as Paul explained to Greeks when he brought the Good News about the Messiah to Athens, "The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent, because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead." Acts 17:30-31

That risen Christ is coming again, to put an end to human rebellion.

14 There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. 15 Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), 17 then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it.

CHAPTER NINE

1 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them. 2 All things come alike to all.

There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice.

As is the good, so is the sinner†;

he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. 3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4 For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. 5 For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. 6 Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

7 Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. 8 Let your garments be always white, and don't let your head lack oil. 9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun. 10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you are going.

† 9:2 Like the Song of Solomon, which alternates between different speakers—sometimes without identifying them—the book of Ecclesiastes presents a debate between a speaker who sees life as meaningless and vain, and another speaker who sees life as meaningful due to our relationship with God (although the two speakers may represent an internal debate within the mind of the writer). In the end it is the viewpoint shaped by knowledge of God that wins.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. 12 For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. 14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. 15 Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. 16 Then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. 17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. 18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

CHAPTER TEN

1 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to produce an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. 3 Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. 4 If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, don't leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which proceeds from the ruler. 6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. 7 I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. 8 He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake. 9 Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby. 10 If the ax is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success.

11 If the snake bites before it is charmed, then there is no profit for the charmer's tongue. 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. 14 A fool also multiplies words.

Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? 15 The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.

16 Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning! 17 Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad; and money is the answer for all things. 20 Don't curse the king, no, not in your thoughts; and don't curse the rich in your bedroom: for a bird of the sky may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 Cast your bread on the waters; for you shall find it after many days. 2 Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you don't know what evil will be on the earth.

3 If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.

4 He who observes the wind won't sow; and he who regards the clouds won't reap.

5 As you don't know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; even so you don't know the work of God who does all.

6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun.

8 Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many.

All that comes is vanity. 9 Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;"

2 before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain; 3 in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened,

4 and the doors shall be shut in the street;
when the sound of the grinding is low,
and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

5 yes, they shall be afraid of heights,
and terrors will be on the way;
and the almond tree shall blossom,
and the grasshopper shall be a burden,
and desire shall fail;

because man goes to his everlasting home,
and the mourners go about the streets:

6 before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken,
or the pitcher is broken at the spring,
or the wheel broken at the cistern,

7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

8 "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher.

"All is vanity!"

9 Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. 10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, words of truth. 11 The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. 12 Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. 14 For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

* 12:13-14 Ecclesiastes here summarizes in just a few words the responsibility of all humans before their Creator. The writer had investigated the alternative pursuits that people came up with on their own, trying to give some other meaning to their lives, and he concluded that all of these pursuits were "vanity and a chasing after wind" (Eccl. 1:14; 2:11, 17, 26; 4:16; 6:9) Rather, he reached this inspired conclusion as to the real meaning of life, that it involves fearing God and keeping his commands.

SONG OF SOLOMON

CHAPTER ONE

1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.Beloved*

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth;
for your love is better than wine.

3 Your oils have a pleasing fragrance.

Your name is oil poured out,
therefore the virgins love you.

4 Take me away with you.

Let us hurry.

The king has brought me into his rooms.

Friends

We will be glad and rejoice in you.

We will praise your love more than wine!

Beloved

They are right to love you.

5 I am dark, but lovely,
you daughters of Jerusalem,
like Kedar's tents,
like Solomon's curtains.

6 Don't stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me.

My mother's sons were angry with me.

They made me keeper of the vineyards.

I haven't kept my own vineyard.

7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
where you graze your flock,
where you rest them at noon;
for why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover

8 If you don't know, most beautiful among women,

follow the tracks of the sheep.

Graze your young goats beside the shepherds'
tents.

9 I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.

11 We will make you earrings of gold,
with studs of silver.

Beloved

12 While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.

13 My beloved is to me a satchet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.

14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms

from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover

15 Behold, you are beautiful, my love.

Behold, you are beautiful.

Your eyes are doves.

Beloved

16 Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant;

and our couch is verdant.

Lover

17 The beams of our house are cedars.

Our rafters are firs.

CHAPTER TWO

Beloved

1 I am a rose of Sharon,
a lily of the valleys.

Lover

2 As a lily among thorns,
so is my love among the daughters.

Beloved

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood,

so is my beloved among the sons.

I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banquet hall.

His banner over me is love.

5 Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples;
for I am faint with love.

6 His left hand is under my head.

His right hand embraces me.

7 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
until it so desires.

8 The voice of my beloved!

Behold, he comes,
leaping on the mountains,
skipping on the hills.

9 My beloved is like a roe or a young deer.

Behold, he stands behind our wall!

He looks in at the windows.

He glances through the lattice.

10 My beloved spoke, and said to me,

"Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come
away.

11 For, behold, the winter is past.

The rain is over and gone.

12 The flowers appear on the earth.

The time of the singing has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our
land.

13 The fig tree ripens her green figs.

The vines are in blossom.

They give out their fragrance.

Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away."

Lover

14 My dove in the clefts of the rock,
in the hiding places of the mountainside,

* 1:1 The "Song of Songs" or "Song of Solomon" is a poetic story of love. The main speakers are a shepherd girl and the young man she loves. Many readers see this as an allegorical representation of the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, or between Christ and the Church as portrayed much later in the book of Revelation:

"... the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.' It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. ... I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. ... One of the seven angels ... spoke with me, saying, 'Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb's bride.' ... and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. ...' (Rev. 19:7-8; 21:2, 9-10)

The loyalty and faithfulness of the shepherd girl to her young man suitably portrays faithfulness to God on the part of those who make up his Church.

Despite attempts by God's enemies to corrupt the Church, down through history and during the end times, the 'saints' or holy people of God will remain faithful, and the prophecy will be fulfilled.

let me see your face.
 Let me hear your voice;
 for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.
 15 Catch for us the foxes,
 the little foxes that plunder the vineyards;
 for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his.
 He browses among the lilies.
 17 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee
 away,
 turn, my beloved,
 and be like a roe or a young deer on the mountains of Bethel.

CHAPTER THREE

1 By night on my bed,
 I sought him whom my soul loves.
 I sought him, but I didn't find him.
 2 I will get up now, and go about the city;
 in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.

I sought him, but I didn't find him.
 3 The watchmen who go about the city found
 me;

"Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"

4 I had scarcely passed from them,
 when I found him whom my soul loves.
 I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's
 house,

into the room of her who conceived me.

5 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
 by the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
 that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
 until it so desires.

6 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
 with all spices of the merchant?

7 Behold, it is Solomon's carriage!
 Sixty mighty men are around it,
 of the mighty men of Israel.

8 They all handle the sword, and are expert in war.

Every man has his sword on his thigh,
 because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a carriage of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
 the middle of it being paved with love,
 from the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go out, you daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon,

with the crown with which his mother has crowned him,

in the day of his weddings,
 in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER FOUR

Lover

1 Behold, you are beautiful, my love.
 Behold, you are beautiful.

Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
 Your hair is as a flock of goats,
 that descend from Mount Gilead.

2 Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock,
 which have come up from the washing,
 where every one of them has twins.

None is bereaved among them.

3 Your lips are like scarlet thread.

Your mouth is lovely.

Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.

4 Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory,

whereon a thousand shields hang,

all the shields of the mighty men.

5 Your two breasts are like two fawns

that are twins of a roe,

which feed among the lilies.

6 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee
 away,

I will go to the mountain of myrrh,

to the hill of frankincense.

7 You are all beautiful, my love.

There is no spot in you.

8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, with me from Lebanon.

Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon,

from the lions' dens,

from the mountains of the leopards.

9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride.

You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes,

with one chain of your neck.

10 How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!

How much better is your love than wine!

The fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices!

11 Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb.

Honey and milk are under your tongue.

The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 A locked up garden is my sister, my bride;

a locked up spring,

a sealed fountain.

13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits:

henna with spikenard plants,

14 spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree;

myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices,

15 a fountain of gardens,

a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved

16 Awake, north wind; and come, you south!

Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow
 out.

Let my beloved come into his garden,

and taste his precious fruits.

CHAPTER FIVE

Lover

1 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.

I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;

I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;

I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends

Eat, friends!

Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved

2 I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks:
"Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;

for my head is filled with dew,
and my hair with the dampness of the night."

3 I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on?

I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil
them?

4 My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening.

My heart pounded for him.

5 I rose up to open for my beloved.

My hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with liquid myrrh,
on the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved;
but my beloved left; and had gone away.
My heart went out when he spoke.

I looked for him, but I didn't find him.

I called him, but he didn't answer.

7 The watchmen who go about the city found
me.

They beat me.

They bruised me.

The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me.

8 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved,
that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends

9 How is your beloved better than another
beloved,

you fairest among women?

How is your beloved better than another
beloved,

that you do so adjure us?

Beloved

10 My beloved is white and ruddy.
The best among ten thousand.

11 His head is like the purest gold.

His hair is bushy, black as a raven.

12 His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks,

washed with milk, mounted like jewels.

13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes.

His lips are like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.

14 His hands are like rings of gold set with beryl.

His body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine gold.

His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

16 His mouth is sweetness;

yes, he is altogether lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER SIX*Friends*

1 Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women?

Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved

2 My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices,
to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies.

Lover

4 You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with banners.

5 Turn away your eyes from me,
for they have overcome me.

Your hair is like a flock of goats,
that lie along the side of Gilead.

6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
which have come up from the washing;
of which every one has twins;
no one is bereaved among them.

7 Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.

8 There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my perfect one, is unique.

She is her mother's only daughter.

She is the favorite one of her who bore her.

The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;
the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

Friends

10 Who is she who looks out as the morning, beautiful as the moon,
clear as the sun,
and awesome as an army with banners.

Lover

11 I went down into the nut tree grove, to see the green plants of the valley,
to see whether the vine budded,
and the pomegranates were in flower.

12 Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends

13 Return, return, Shulammitte!
Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammitte, as at the dance of Mahanaim?

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter!

Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

2 Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting.

Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies.

3 Your two breasts are like two fawns,
that are twins of a roe.

4 Your neck is like an ivory tower.

Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

5 Your head on you is like Carmel.

The hair of your head like purple.

The king is held captive in its tresses.

6 How beautiful and how pleasant you are,
love, for delights!

7 This, your stature, is like a palm tree,
your breasts like its fruit.

8 I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree.
I will take hold of its fruit."
Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
the smell of your breath like apples, 9 your mouth like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

Beloved

10 I am my beloved's.
His desire is toward me.
11 Come, my beloved, let us go out into the field.
Let us lodge in the villages.
12 Let's go early up to the vineyards.
Let's see whether the vine has budded,
its blossom is open,
and the pomegranates are in flower.
There I will give you my love.
13 The mandrakes produce fragrance.
At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits,
new and old,
which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Oh that you were like my brother, who nursed from the breasts of my mother!
If I found you outside, I would kiss you;
yes, and no one would despise me.
2 I would lead you, bringing you into my mother's house,
who would instruct me.
I would have you drink spiced wine,
of the juice of my pomegranate.
3 His left hand would be under my head.
His right hand would embrace me.
4 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
until it so desires.

Friends

5 Who is this who comes up from the
wilderness,
leaning on her beloved?

Beloved

Under the apple tree I aroused you.
There your mother conceived you.
There she was in labor and bore you.
6 Set me as a seal on your heart,
as a seal on your arm;
for love is strong as death.
Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol.
Its flashes are flashes of fire,
a very flame of Jehovah.
7 Many waters can't quench love,
neither can floods drown it.
If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love,
he would be utterly scorned.

Friends

8 We have a little sister.
She has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for?
9 If she is a wall,
we will build on her a turret of silver.
if she is a door,
we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers, then I was in his eyes like one who found peace.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.
He leased out the vineyard to keepers.
Each was to bring a thousand shekel of silver for its fruit.

12 My own vineyard is before me.
The thousand are for you, Solomon;
two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover

13 You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance,
let me hear your voice!

Beloved

14 Come away, my beloved!
Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

ISAIAH

CHAPTER ONE

1 The vision of Isaiah* the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, heavens,
and listen, earth; for Jehovah has spoken:
"I have nourished and brought up children,
and they have rebelled against me.

3 The ox knows his owner,
and the donkey his master's crib;
but Israel doesn't know,
my people don't consider."

4 Ah sinful nation,
a people loaded with iniquity,
offspring of evildoers,
children who deal corruptly!
They have forsaken Jehovah.
They have despised the Holy One of Israel.
They are estranged and backward.

5 Why should you be beaten more,
that you revolt more and more?
The whole head is sick,
and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head
there is no soundness in it:
wounds, welts, and open sores.
They haven't been closed, neither bandaged,
neither soothed with oil.

7 Your country is desolate.
Your cities are burned with fire.
Strangers devour your land in your presence,
and it is desolate,
as overthrown by strangers.

8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a
vineyard,
like a hut in a field of melons,
like a besieged city.

9 Unless Jehovah of Armies had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom;

we would have been like Gomorrah.†

10 Hear Jehovah's word, you rulers of Sodom!
Listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

11 "What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?" says Jehovah.

"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed animals.

I don't delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs,
or of male goats.

12 When you come to appear before me, who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts?

13 Bring no more vain offerings.
Incense is an abomination to me;
new moons, Sabbaths, and convocations:
I can't bear with evil assemblies.

14 My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts.

They are a burden to me.
I am weary of bearing them.

15 When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you.

Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear.

Your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash yourselves, make yourself clean.

Put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes.

Cease to do evil.

17 Learn to do well.

Seek justice.

Relieve the oppressed.

Judge the fatherless.

Plead for the widow."

18 "Come now, and let us reason together,"
says Jehovah:

"Though your sins[‡] be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.

Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the land;
20 but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword;

for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken it."

* 1:1 The prophet Isaiah served God during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. His book contains prophecies as well as history that overlaps the history found in some of the later chapters of 2 Kings and 2 Chronicles. Isaiah boldly proclaimed the coming judgment of God against the unfaithful Jewish nation.

Isaiah also prophesied concerning other nations in the Middle East and North Africa.

And he spoke of events in the distant future concerning the coming Messiah or Christ:

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever." (Isa. 9:6-7 NIV)

"But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed." (Isa. 53:5 NIV)

Jesus read publicly from the book of Isaiah when he visited the synagogue in Nazareth, the town where he had grown up, and stated, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." (Luke 4:16-21; Isa. 61:1-2)

† 1:9 Isaiah refers to the utter destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, as recorded in the Bible book of Genesis. In fact, the story of Sodom and Gomorrah is confirmed as real history by close to fifty references in the Bible books of Genesis, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Amos, Zephaniah, Matthew, Mark, Luke, 2 Peter, Jude and Revelation.

Isaiah goes on in the next verses to compare the rulers and people of Judah to the men of Sodom and Gomorrah, an extreme example of wickedness and sin against God. The "men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Jehovah."—Genesis 13:13

‡ 1:18 No matter how much we have offended God by our behavior, he is not eager to punish us. Rather, God is eager for us to repent and be saved from our sins and their dreadful consequences.

21 How the faithful city has become a prostitute!

She was full of justice; righteousness lodged in her,

but now murderers.

22 Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water.

23 Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves.

Everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards.

They don't judge the fatherless,
neither does the cause of the widow come to them.

24 Therefore the Lord, Jehovah of Armies,
the Mighty One of Israel, says:

"Ah, I will get relief from my adversaries, and avenge myself on my enemies;

25 and I will turn my hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross,
and will take away all your tin.

26 I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counselors as at the beginning.

Afterward you shall be called 'The city of righteousness, a faithful town.'

27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness.

28 But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake Jehovah shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen.

30 For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.

31 The strong will be like tinder,
and his work like a spark.

They will both burn together,
and no one will quench them."

CHAPTER TWO

1 This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 It shall happen in the latter days, that the mountain of Jehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills;

and all nations shall flow to it.

3 Many peoples shall go and say,
"Come, let's go up to the mountain of Jehovah,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths."

For out of Zion the law shall go out,
and Jehovah's word from Jerusalem.

4 He will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples;
and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war* any more.

5 House of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of Jehovah.

6 For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled from the east,

with those who practice divination like the Philistines,

and they clasp hands with the children of foreigners.

7 Their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures.

Their land also is full of horses,
neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of idols.
They worship the work of their own hands,
that which their own fingers have made.

9 Man is brought low,
and mankind is humbled;
therefore don't forgive them.

10 Enter into the rock,
and hide in the dust,
from before the terror of Jehovah,
and from the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man will be brought low,
the haughtiness of men will be bowed down,
and Jehovah alone will be exalted in that day.

12 For there will be a day of Jehovah of Armies for all that is proud and haughty, and for all that is lifted up;
and it shall be brought low:

13 for all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, for all the oaks of Bashan,

14 for all the high mountains,
for all the hills that are lifted up,

15 for every lofty tower,
for every fortified wall,

16 for all the ships of Tarshish, and for all pleasant imagery.

17 The loftiness of man shall be bowed down,
and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;

and Jehovah alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 The idols shall utterly pass away.

19 Men shall go into the caves of the rocks,
and into the holes of the earth,
from before the terror of Jehovah,
and from the glory of his majesty,
when he arises to shake the earth mightily.

20 In that day, men shall cast away their idols of silver, and their idols of gold,

which have been made for themselves to

* 2:4 This passage is engraved on the Isaiah Wall at Ralph Bunche Park across First Avenue from the United Nations headquarters building in New York City. Some distance away within the U. N. complex itself can be found a bronze statue titled "Let Us Beat Swords into Plowshares," which was a gift from the Soviet Union.

The United Nations organization has not been able to put an end to war, but Christ's coming Kingdom will accomplish that.

worship,
 to the moles and to the bats;
 21 to go into the caverns of the rocks,
 and into the clefts of the ragged rocks,
 from before the terror of Jehovah,
 and from the glory of his majesty,
 when he arises to shake the earth mightily.
 22 Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his nostrils;
 for of what account is he?

CHAPTER THREE

1 For, behold, the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support,

the whole supply of bread,
 and the whole supply of water;
 2 the mighty man,

the man of war,
 the judge,
 the prophet,
 the diviner,
 the elder,

3 the captain of fifty,
 the honorable man,
 the counselor,
 the skilled craftsman,
 and the clever enchanter.

4 I will give boys to be their princes, and children shall rule over them.

5 The people will be oppressed, everyone by another,
 and everyone by his neighbor.

The child will behave himself proudly against the old man,
 and the base against the honorable.

6 Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying,

"You have clothing, you be our ruler,
 and let this ruin be under your hand."

7 In that day he will cry out, saying, "I will not be a healer;

for in my house is neither bread nor clothing.
 You shall not make me ruler of the people."

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Jehovah,

to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The look of their faces testify against them.

They flaunt their sin like Sodom.

They don't hide it.

Woe to their soul!
 For they have brought disaster upon themselves.

10 Tell the righteous "Good!"

For they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.

11 Woe to the wicked!

Disaster is upon them;
 for the deeds of his hands will be paid back to
 him.

12 As for my people, children are their oppressors,
 and women rule over them.

My people, those who lead you cause you to err,

and destroy the way of your paths.

13 Jehovah stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples.

14 Jehovah will enter into judgment with the elders of his people,
 and their leaders:

"It is you who have eaten up the vineyard.

The plunder of the poor is in your houses.

15 What do you mean that you crush my
 people,

and grind the face of the poor?" says the Lord,
 Jehovah of Armies.

16 Moreover Jehovah said, "Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and flirting
 eyes,

walking to trip as they go,
 jingling ornaments on their feet;

17 therefore the Lord brings sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion, and Jehovah will make their scalps bald."

18 In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, the headbands, the crescent necklaces, 19 the earrings, the bracelets, the veils, 20 the headdresses, the ankle chains,
 the sashes, the perfume bottles, the charms, 21 the signet rings, the nose rings, 22 the fine robes, the capes, the cloaks, the purses, 23 the hand mirrors, the fine linen garments, the tiaras, and the shawls.

24 It shall happen that instead of sweet spices,
 there shall be rottenness;

instead of a belt, a rope;

instead of well set hair, baldness;

instead of a robe, a wearing of sackcloth;

and branding instead of beauty.

25 Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war.

26 Her gates shall lament and mourn;

and she shall be desolate and sit on the ground.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, "We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing; only let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach."

2 In that day, Jehovah's branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel. 3 It will happen, that he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem; 4 when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from within it, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning. 5 Jehovah will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy. 6 There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

* 3:9 Isaiah compares the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the men of Sodom who "were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Jehovah." (Gen. 13:13)

Today, too, as in the last days of Judah and Jerusalem before God brought destructive punishment upon them, people openly flaunt sinful behavior that God condemns. But their end will come, too, when God intervenes again with destructive power.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard.

My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill.

2 He dug it up,
gathered out its stones,
planted it with the choicest vine,
built a tower in the middle of it,
and also cut out a wine press therein.
He looked for it to yield grapes,
but it yielded wild grapes.

3 "Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it?

Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?

5 Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.

I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up.

I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down.

6 I will lay it a wasteland.

It won't be pruned nor hoed,
but it will grow briars and thorns.

I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it."

7 For the vineyard of Jehovah of Armies is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant:

and he looked for justice, but, behold, oppression;
for righteousness, but, behold, a cry of distress.

8 Woe to those who join house to house,
who lay field to field, until there is no room,
and you are made to dwell alone in the middle of the land!

9 In my ears, Jehovah of Armies says: "Surely many houses will be desolate, even great and beautiful, unoccupied.

10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield an ephah."

11 Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink;
who stay late into the night, until wine inflames them!

12 The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts;

but they don't respect the work of Jehovah, neither have they considered the operation of his hands.

13 Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge.

Their honorable men are famished,
and their multitudes are parched with thirst.

14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure;
and their glory, their multitude, their pomp,
and he who rejoices among them, descend into it.

15 So man is brought low, mankind is humbled,
and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled;

16 but Jehovah of Armies is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich.

18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart rope;

19 who say, "Let him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it;
and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
that we may know it!"

20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;

who put darkness for light,

and light for darkness;

who put bitter for sweet,

and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

22 Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, and champions at mixing strong drink;

23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe,

but deny justice for the innocent!

24 Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame,

so their root shall be as rottenness,

and their blossom shall go up as dust;

because they have rejected the law of Jehovah of Armies, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore Jehovah's anger burns against his people, and he has stretched out his hand against them, and has struck them.

The mountains tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the middle of the streets.

For all this, his anger is not turned away,

but his hand is still stretched out.

26 He will lift up a banner to the nations from far,

and he will whistle for them from the end of the earth.

Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly.

27 No one shall be weary nor stumble among them;

no one shall slumber nor sleep;

neither shall the belt of their waist be untied,
nor the strap of their sandals be broken:

28 whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent.

Their horses' hoofs will be like flint,

and their wheels like a whirlwind.

29 Their roaring will be like a lioness.

They will roar like young lions.

Yes, they shall roar,

and seize their prey and carry it off,

and there will be no one to deliver.

30 They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea.

If one looks to the land behold, darkness and distress.

The light is darkened in its clouds.

CHAPTER SIX

1 In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. 2 Above him stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings. With two he covered his face. With two he covered his feet. With two he flew. 3 One called to another, and said,

"Holy, holy, holy, is Jehovah of Armies!
The whole earth is full of his glory!"

4 The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. 5 Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell among a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of Armies!"

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. 7 He touched my mouth with it, and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven."

8 I heard the Lord's voice, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"

Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

9 He said, "Go, and tell this people,
'You hear indeed,
but don't understand;
and you see indeed,
but don't perceive.'

10 Make the heart of this people fat.
Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes;
lest they see with their eyes,
and hear with their ears,
and understand with their heart,
and turn again, and be healed."

11 Then I said, "Lord, how long?"

He answered,
"Until cities are waste without inhabitant,
and houses without man,
and the land becomes utterly waste,

12 and Jehovah has removed men far away,
and the forsaken places are many within the land.

13 If there is a tenth left in it,
that also will in turn be consumed:
as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stock remains when they are felled;
so the holy seed is its stock."

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. 2 David's house was told, "Syria is allied with Ephraim." His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind. 3 Then Jehovah said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the fuller's field. 4 Tell him, 'Be careful, and keep calm. Don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking torches, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. 5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying, 6 "Let's go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let's divide it among ourselves, and set up a king within it, even the son of Tabeel." 7 This is what the Lord Jehovah says: "It shall not stand, neither shall it happen." 8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people; 9 and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established."

10 Jehovah spoke again to Ahaz, saying, 11 "Ask a sign of Jehovah your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above."

12 But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, neither will I tempt Jehovah."

13 He said, "Listen now, house of David. Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God also? 14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.*

15 He shall eat butter and honey when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good. 16 For before the child knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken. 17 Jehovah will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. 18 It will happen in that day that Jehovah will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. 19 They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures. 20 In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard. 21 It shall happen in that day that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep; 22 and it shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter: for everyone will eat butter and honey that is left within the land. 23 It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels, shall be for briers and thorns. 24 People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land

* 7:14 The prophet Isaiah foretold the promised Messiah who would be born of a virgin.

In fulfillment of Isaiah 7:14, when an angel visited Mary to announce Jesus' birth, "Mary said to the angel, 'How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?' The angel answered her, 'The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God.'"—Luke 1:34-45

Matthew's Gospel tells us specifically that Jesus' birth fulfilled this prophecy of Isaiah: "Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, 'Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall give birth to a son. They shall call his name Immanuel;' which is, being interpreted, 'God with us.'"—Matthew 1:22-23

This same Jesus whose birth, life, death and resurrection fulfilled Old Testament prophecies will soon come again to fulfill Old and New Testament prophecies, putting an end to this wicked world and bringing in the righteous rule of God's Kingdom.

will be briars and thorns. 25 All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briars and thorns; but it shall be for the sending out of oxen, and for the treading of sheep.”

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Jehovah said to me, “Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man’s pen, ‘For Maher Shalal Hash Baz’; 2 and I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.”

3 I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then Jehovah said to me, “Call his name ‘Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’ 4 For before the child knows how to say, ‘My father,’ and, ‘My mother,’ the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria.”

5 Jehovah spoke to me yet again, saying, 6 “Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah’s son; 7 now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks. 8 It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings will fill the width of your land, Immanuel. 9 Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered! 10 Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand: for God is with us.” 11 For Jehovah spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying, 12 “Don’t say, ‘A conspiracy!’ concerning all about which this people say, ‘A conspiracy!’ neither fear their threats, nor be terrorized. 13 Jehovah of Armies is who you must respect as holy. He is the one you must fear. He is the one you must dread. 14 He will be a sanctuary, but a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense for both houses of Israel, a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 15 Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured.” 16 Wrap up the testimony. Seal the law among my disciples. 17 I will wait for Jehovah, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. 18 Behold, I and the children whom Jehovah has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Jehovah of Armies, who dwells in Mount Zion.

19 When they tell you, “Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter:” shouldn’t a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? 20 Turn to the law and to the testimony! If they don’t speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. 21 They will pass through it, very distressed and hungry; and it will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their king and by their God. They will turn their faces upward, 22 and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

CHAPTER NINE

1 But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee* of the nations.

2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

Those who lived in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light has shined.

3 You have multiplied the nation.

You have increased their joy.

They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the plunder. 4 For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian. 5 For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. 6 For to us a child is born. To us a son is given; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. 7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, on David’s throne, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever.†

The zeal of Jehovah of Armies will perform this.

8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it falls on Israel.

9 All the people will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of

* 9:1-2 This prophetic passage was fulfilled when Jesus the Messiah lived and preached in Galilee. (Matt. 2:22; John 1:43; Acts 10:37)

Old Testament prophecies that Jesus fulfilled centuries later include that he would be born of a virgin (Isa. 7:14; Matt. 1:18-25; Luke 1:26-35), born in Bethlehem (Micah 5:1-2; Matt. 2:1-6; Luke 2:1-20), that he would preach in Galilee (Isa. 9:1-2; Matt. 4:13-16), that he would be betrayed for thirty pieces of silver (Zech. 11:12-13; Matt. 27:1-10), that they would cast lots and divide his clothing (Ps. 22:18; Matt. 27:35), and that he would be buried in a rich man’s tomb (Isa. 53:9; Matt. 27:57-60). There are actually dozens of Old Testament prophecies that were fulfilled in Christ. You will encounter them as you read the four Gospels. Or you can find them by searching the Internet.

† 9:6-7 The prophet Isaiah foretold here the birth of the coming Messiah in the royal line of King David. His rule will bring in righteousness and peace forever.

This passage follows closely Isaiah’s words foretelling that the Messiah would be born of a virgin (Isa. 7:14) and would preach in Galilee. (9:1-2)

Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart,

10 "The bricks have fallen,
but we will build with cut stone.
The sycamore fig trees have been cut down,
but we will put cedars in their place."

11 Therefore Jehovah will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies,

12 the Syrians in front,
and the Philistines behind;
and they will devour Israel with open mouth.
For all this, his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.

13 Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them,
neither have they sought Jehovah of Armies.

14 Therefore Jehovah will cut off from Israel head and tail,
palm branch and reed, in one day.

15 The elder and the honorable man is the head,
and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail.

16 For those who lead this people lead them
astray;
and those who are led by them are destroyed.

17 Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows;

for everyone is profane and an evildoer,
and every mouth speaks folly.

For all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness burns like a fire.
It devours the briars and thorns;
yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest,
and they roll upward in a column of smoke.

19 Through Jehovah of Armies' wrath, the land is burnt up;

and the people are the fuel for the fire.

No one spares his brother.

20 One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry;

and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied.

Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah.

For all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER TEN

1 Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive decrees; 2 to deprive the needy from justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their plunder, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! 3 What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth?

4 They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain.

For all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.

5 Alas Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation! 6 I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me I will give him a command to take the plunder and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 However he doesn't mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. 8 For he says,
"Aren't all of my princes kings? 9 Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus?" 10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria; 11 shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?
12 Therefore it will happen that, when the Lord has performed his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his haughty looks. 13 For he has said, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding;
and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers.
14 My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, I have gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped."

15 Should an ax brag against him who chops with it? Should a saw exalt itself above him who saws with it? As if a rod should lift those who lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up someone who is not wood. 16 Therefore the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, will send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory a burning will be kindled like the burning of fire. 17 The light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. 18 He will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body. It will be as when a standard bearer faints.
19 The remnant of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child could write their number.

20 It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. 21 A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. 22 For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness.
23 For the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, will make a full end, and that determined, throughout all the earth. 24 Therefore the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, says "My people who dwell in Zion, don't be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strike you with the rod, and lift up his staff against you, as Egypt did. 25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you will be accomplished, and my anger will be directed to his destruction." 26 Jehovah of Armies will stir up a scourge against him, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. His rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up like he did against Egypt. 27 It will happen in that day, that his burden will depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

28 He has come to Aiath. He has passed through Migron. At Michmash he stores his baggage. 29 They have gone over the pass. They have taken up their lodging at Geba. Ramah trembles. Gibeah of Saul has fled. 30 Cry aloud with your voice, daughter of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! You poor Anathoth! 31 Madmenah is a fugitive. The inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety. 32 This very day he will halt at Nob. He shakes his hand at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. 33 Behold, the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low. 34 He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 A shoot will come out of the stock of Jesse,* and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.

2 Jehovah's Spirit will rest on him:

the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah.

3 His delight will be in the fear of Jehovah.

He will not judge by the sight of his eyes,

neither decide by the hearing of his ears;

4 but with righteousness he will judge the poor, and decide with equity for the humble of the earth.

He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth;

and with the breath of his lips he will kill the wicked.

5 Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his loins.

6 The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat;

The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf together;

and a little child will lead them.

7 The cow and the bear will graze.

Their young ones will lie down together.

The lion will eat straw like the ox.

8 The nursing child will play near a cobra's hole, and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den.

9 They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain;

for the earth will be full of the knowledge of Jehovah,

as the waters cover the sea.

10 It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse,† who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious. 11 It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. 12 He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed‡ of Judah

† 11:10 In his New Testament letter to the church at Rome, the Apostle Paul makes clear that Isaiah was prophesying here about Christ: "And again, Isaiah says, 'The Root of Jesse will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations; the Gentiles will hope in him.'" (Romans 15:12 NIV)

The Messiah is the root of Jesse (king David's father). "Jesse became the father of King David . . . Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ."—Matthew 1:6-16

Jesus himself says, "I am the root and the offspring of David."—Revelation 22:16

Isaiah here prophesies that the Gentiles, the non-Jewish "nations," would seek the Jewish Messiah, who would be a banner to "the peoples"—a prophecy that began to see fulfillment centuries later when Gentiles from Greece, Italy and Asia Minor turned to Christ and became Christians through the missionary teaching of the apostles. And the prophecy has seen further fulfillment as hundreds of millions of have turned to Christ in the nations on every continent around the world.

When Isaiah wrote that non-Jews would "seek" a ruler from Israelite King David's line, the odds against that ever actually happening must have seemed astronomical. But the prophecy came true when Christ's Gospel message spread worldwide. This amazing fulfillment of prophecy should give us confidence that the Bible's end times prophecies will likewise be fulfilled.

‡ 11:11-12 The restoration of the Jewish people to the Promised Land, after being dispersed for centuries to the four corners of the earth, is an amazing fulfillment of prophecy that should convince even the most skeptical that the Bible is a divinely inspired book of true prophecy.

During the Babylonian captivity in Old Testament times Jews were to be found scattered across that ancient empire, which ruled much of the known world at that time. When the Medo-Persian rulers who conquered Babylon later sent the Jews back to the Promised Land, this was the first time they

* 11:1-4 Descended from King David and his father Jesse, Jesus will rule the earth as Messianic King. The Messiah's kingdom will restore justice and fairness to government and will finally bring peace to this planet, in a way that human governments have never been able to do.

This king who will rule the earth after the coming war of Armageddon is Jesus of Nazareth, the Jewish Messiah, who rose from the dead and promised to return in power. Isaiah's words describe his qualities that make him a better ruler than any king or president the world has ever seen.

from the four corners of the earth.

13 The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won't envy Judah, and Judah won't persecute Ephraim. 14 They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west. Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them.

15 Jehovah will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals. 16 There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 In that day you will say, "I will give thanks to you, Jehovah; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me. 2 Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Jah, Jehovah, is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation." 3 Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation. 4 In that day you will say, "Give thanks to Jehovah! Call on his name. Declare his doings among the peoples. Proclaim that his name is exalted! 5 Sing to Jehovah, for he has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth! 6 Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy One of Israel is great among you!"

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw: 2 Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your were regathered; the modern return that culminated in restoration of the nation of Israel in 1948 was the second time.

As Jesus foretold during the Roman occupation, "they shall fall by the edge of the sword and be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." (Luke 21:24 KJV)

And as Isaiah and other Old Testament writers foretold, they would later be restored to their ancient homeland. This actually happened in 1948, with the re-establishment of the state of Israel, nearly two thousand years after Jesus spoke and some 2500 years after the Hebrew prophets foretold this event. Who could deny God's hand in such a seemingly impossible fulfillment?

Over the course of nearly two thousand years the Jewish people who were scattered across Europe and Asia, North and South America, and the islands of the seas kept hoping and believing as they recited these prophetic words from their Scriptures: "the LORD will . . . assemble the dispersed of Israel, and gather together the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth." (Isaiah 11:11-12 Jewish Publication Society of America) They patiently waited for the time the prophet spoke of when they would return to the Promised Land.

So the land of Israel was promised to the offspring of Jacob not just once, but also it was promised that the land would return to their possession at the time of the end. And this is the promise that began to be fulfilled when the state of Israel was re-established in 1948. But this was only the beginning of prophetic fulfillment regarding the Promised Land, because God promised that this land would belong to those people and their descendants forever under the rule of his Messiah, Jesus Christ.

Their presence as a functioning Jewish state in the Promised Land at 'the time of the end' is essential for the fulfillment of the remaining prophecies concerning Christ's return. This is no coincidence. Rather, the God who predicted these events has the power to make sure that they will be fulfilled exactly as he said they would be.

hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. 3 I have commanded my consecrated ones; yes, I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones. 4 The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Jehovah of Armies is mustering the army for the battle. 5 They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Jehovah, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 Wail; for the day of Jehovah is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. 7 Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone's heart will melt. 8 They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a woman in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame.

9 Behold, the day of Jehovah comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. 10 For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going out, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. 11 I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the haughtiness of the terrible. 12 I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in Jehovah of Armies' wrath, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped. 17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. 18 Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children.

19 Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. 20 It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there. 21 But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there. 22 Wolves will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 For Jehovah will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob. 2 The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in Jehovah's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. 3 It will happen in the day that Jehovah will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, 4 that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased!" 5 Jehovah has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers, 6 who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that no one restrained.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out into song. 8 Yes, the cypress trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us." 9 Sheol from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the departed spirits for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. 10 They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?" 11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you.

12 How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low! 13 You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!" 15 Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit. 16 Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, "Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; 17 who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who didn't release his prisoners to their home?"

18 All the kings of the nations sleep in glory, everyone in his own house. 19 But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. 20 You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land. You have killed your people. The offspring of evildoers will not be named forever. 21 Prepare for slaughter of his children because of the iniquity of their fathers, that they not rise up and possess the earth, and fill the surface of the world with cities. 22 "I will rise up against them," says Jehovah of Armies, "and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son," says Jehovah. 23 "I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says Jehovah of Armies. 24 Jehovah of Armies has sworn, saying, "Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: 25 that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread him under foot on my mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders.

26 This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. 27 For Jehovah of Armies has planned, and who can stop it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?"

28 This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died. 29 Don't rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root an adder will emerge, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent. 30 The firstborn of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed.

31 Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks. 32 What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That Jehovah has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 The burden of Moab: for in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. 2 They have gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads. Every beard is cut off. 3 In their streets, they clothe themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly. 4 Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them. 5 My heart cries out for Moab! Her nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for on the way to Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. 6 For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. 7 Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows. 8 For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab; its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer Elim. 9 For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. 2 For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. 3 Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the middle of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Don't betray the fugitive! 4 Let my outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortionist is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases. The oppressors are consumed out of the land. 5 A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing.

7 Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. 8 For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea. 9 Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen. 10 Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop. 11 Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres. 12 It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail. 13 This is the word that Jehovah spoke concerning Moab in time past.

14 But now Jehovah has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 The burden of Damascus: "Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. 2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and no one shall make them afraid. 3 The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel," says Jehovah of Armies. 4 "It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean. 5 It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleanes grain in the valley of Rephaim. 6 Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says Jehovah, the God of Israel. 7 In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel. 8 They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherah poles, or the incense altars. 9 In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation.

10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings. 11 In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! 13 The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. 14 At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; 2 that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, saying, "Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide!" 3 All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen!

4 For Jehovah said to me, "I will be still, and I will see in my dwelling place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest." 5 For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches. 6 They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them.

7 In that time, a present will be brought to Jehovah of Armies from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Jehovah of Armies, Mount Zion.

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 The burden of Egypt: "Behold, Jehovah rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt within it. 2 I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. 3 The spirit of Egypt will fail within it. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. 4 I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them," says the Lord, Jehovah of Armies.

5 The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. 6 The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and rushes will wither away. 7 The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. 8 The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. 9 Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded. 10 The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul. 11 The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?" 12 Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what Jehovah of Armies has purposed concerning Egypt. 13 The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes.

14 Jehovah has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the middle of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. 15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do. 16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of Jehovah of Armies's hand, which he shakes over them. 17 The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of Jehovah of Armies, which he determines against it.

18 In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Jehovah of Armies. One will be called "The city of destruction." 19 In that day, there will be an altar to Jehovah in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to Jehovah at its border. 20 It will be for a sign and for a witness to Jehovah of Armies in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to Jehovah because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them.

21 Jehovah will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know Jehovah in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will vow a vow to Jehovah, and will perform it. 22 Jehovah will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to Jehovah, and he will be entreated by them, and will heal them. 23 In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. 24 In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing within the earth; 25 because Jehovah of Armies has blessed them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; 2 at that time Jehovah spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your shoes from off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 Jehovah said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, 4 so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. 5 They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. 6 The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, 'Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?'"

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land. 2 A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media's sighing. 3 Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have taken hold on me, like the pains of a woman in labor. I am in so much pain that I can't hear. I am so dismayed that I can't see. 4 My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me. 5 They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princes, oil the shield!

6 For the Lord said to me, "Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees. 7 When he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall listen diligently with great attentiveness." 8 He cried like a lion: "Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post. 9 Behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs." He answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of her gods are broken to the ground. 10 You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor!" That which I have heard from Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

11 The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?" 12 The watchman said, "The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again."

13 The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites. 14 They brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. 15 For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. 16 For the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail, 17 and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be few; for Jehovah, the God of Israel, has spoken it."

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

1 The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? 2 You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. 3 All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. 4 Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people. 5 For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains.”

6 Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. 7 Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. 8 He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. 9 You saw the breaches of David’s city, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. 10 You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. 11 You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you didn’t look to him who had done this, neither did you have respect for him who purposed it long ago.

12 In that day, the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, called to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to dressing in sackcloth: 13 and behold, joy and gladness, killing cattle and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die.” 14 Jehovah of Armies revealed himself in my ears, “Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die,” says the Lord, Jehovah of Armies.

15 Thus says the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, “Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, 16 ‘What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?’ Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock!” 17 Behold, Jehovah will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, he will grasp you firmly. 18 He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your lord’s house. 19 I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station.

20 It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, 21 and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. 22 I will lay the key of David’s house on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. 23 I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father’s house. 24 They will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers. 25 “In that day,” says Jehovah of Armies, “the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for Jehovah has spoken it.”

1 The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. 2 Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. 3 On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. 4 Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, “I have not travailed, nor given birth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins.” 5 When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. 6 Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast! 7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel? 8 Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? 9 Jehovah of Armies has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. 10 Pass through your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more. 11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. Jehovah has ordered the destruction of Canaan’s strongholds. 12 He said, “You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest.”

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans. This people was not. The Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers. They overthrew its palaces. They made it a ruin. 14 Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste! 15 It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. 16 Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. 17 It will happen after the end of seventy years that Jehovah will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. 18 Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to Jehovah. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before Jehovah, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

1 Behold, Jehovah makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. 2 It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest.

3 The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for Jehovah has spoken this word. 4 The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. 5 The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. 6 Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. 7 The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh. 8 The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases. 9 They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it.

10 The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no man may come in. 11 There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone. 12 The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. 13 For it will be so in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done.

14 These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of Jehovah. They cry aloud from the sea. 15 Therefore glorify Jehovah in the east, even the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea! 16 From the uttermost part of the earth we have heard songs. Glory to the righteous! But I said, "I pine away! I pine away! woe is me!" The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. 17 Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabitant the earth. 18 It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. 19 The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. 20 The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again.

21 It shall happen in that day that Jehovah will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. 22 They shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited. 23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Jehovah of Armies will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before his elders will be glory.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

1 Jehovah, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth. 2 For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city. It will never be built. 3 Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you. 4 For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. 5 As the heat in a dry place you will bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low.

6 In this mountain, Jehovah of Armies will make all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines. 7 He will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. 8 He has swallowed up death forever! The Lord Jehovah will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of his people away from off all the earth, for Jehovah has spoken it. 9 It shall be said in that day, "Behold, this is our God! We have waited for him, and he will save us! This is Jehovah! We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation!" 10 For in this mountain Jehovah's hand will rest.

Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. 11 He will spread out his hands in the middle of it, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands. 12 He has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

1 In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city.

God appoints salvation for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter:

the one which keeps faith.

3 You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, because he trusts in you.

4 Trust in Jehovah forever;

for in Jah, Jehovah, is an everlasting Rock.

5 For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city.

He lays it low.

He lays it low even to the ground.

He brings it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down;

even the feet of the poor,

and the steps of the needy."

7 The way of the just is uprightness.

You who are upright make the path of the righteous level.

8 Yes, in the way of your judgments, Jehovah, we have waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul. 9 With my soul I have desired you in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me I will seek you earnestly; for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

10 Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not see Jehovah's majesty. 11 Jehovah, your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see; but they will see your zeal for the people, and be disappointed. Yes, fire will consume your adversaries.

12 Jehovah, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also done all our work for us. 13 Jehovah our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us, but by you only we will make mention of your name. 14 The dead shall not live. The departed spirits shall not rise. Therefore you have visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish. 15 You have increased the nation, O Jehovah. You have increased the nation! You are glorified! You have enlarged all the borders of the land. 16 Jehovah, in trouble they have visited you. They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them.

17 As a woman with child, who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so we have been before you, Jehovah.

18 We have been with child. We have been in pain. We gave birth, it seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Your dead shall live. My dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast out the departed spirits.

20 Come, my people, enter into your rooms, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation is past. 21 For, behold, Jehovah comes out of his place to punish* the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

1 In that day, Jehovah with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea. 2 In that day, sing to her, "A pleasant vineyard! 3 I, Jehovah, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day. 4 Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briars and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together. 5 Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me. Let him make peace with me."

6 In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. 7 Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? 8 In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. 9 Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherah poles and the incense altars shall rise no more. 10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. 11 When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor. 12 It will happen in that day, that Jehovah will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel. 13 It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship Jehovah in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

1 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine! 2 Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his hand. 3 The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. 4 The fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. 5 In that day, Jehovah of Armies will become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people; 6 and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. 7 They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. 8 For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. 9 Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts?

10 For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. 11 But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language; 12 to whom he said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to weary;" and "This is the refreshing;" yet they would not hear. 13 Therefore Jehovah's word will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken. 14 Therefore hear Jehovah's word, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: 15 "Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol are we in agreement. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood.'"

16 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah, "Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not act hastily. 17 I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. 18 Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it. 19 As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message." 20 For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap oneself in. 21 For Jehovah will rise up as on Mount Perazim. He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to pass his act, his extraordinary act. 22 Now therefore don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, on the whole earth.

23 Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech! 24 Does he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods? 25 When he has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place? 26 For his God instructs him in right judgment, and teaches him. 27 For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod. 28 Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses don't grind it. 29 This also comes out from Jehovah of Armies, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

1 Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around; 2 then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to me as an altar hearth. 3 I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you. 4 You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. 5 But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly. 6 She will be visited by Jehovah of Armies with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire. 7 The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night. 8 It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that. 9 Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For Jehovah has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and he has covered your heads, the seers. 11 All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't, for it is sealed." 12 and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't read." 13 The Lord said, "Because this people draws near with their mouth and with their lips to honor me, but they have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which has been taught; 14 therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hidden."

15 Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from Jehovah, and whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?" 16 You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about him who made it, "He didn't make me;" or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding?"

17 Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest? 18 In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness. 19 The humble also will increase their joy in Jehovah, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. 20 For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off— 21 who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for the arbiter in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony. 22 Therefore Jehovah, who redeemed Abraham, says concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale. 23 But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the middle of him, they will sanctify my name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. 24 They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."

1 "Woe to the rebellious children," says Jehovah, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin, 2 who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked my advice; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! 3 Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. 4 For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. 5 They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach."

6 The burden of the animals of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people. 7 For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore have I called her Rahab who sits still. 8 Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever.

9 For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear Jehovah's law; 10 who tell the seers, "Don't see!" and the prophets, "Don't prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant* things. Prophecy deceits. 11 Get out of the way. Turn aside from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us." 12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, "Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on it; 13 therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. 14 He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken pieces a piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern."

15 For thus said the Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, "You will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will be in quietness and in confidence." You refused, 16 but you said, "No, for we will flee on horses;" therefore you will flee; and, "We will ride on the swift;" therefore those who pursue you will be swift. 17 One thousand will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill. 18 Therefore Jehovah will wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you, for Jehovah is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him. 19 For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears you, he will answer you. 20 Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden any more, but your eyes will see your teachers; 21 and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way. Walk in it."

22 You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, "Go away!" 23 He will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures. 24 The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory feed, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. 25 There shall be brooks and streams of water on every lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. 26 Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that Jehovah binds up the fracture of his people, and heals the wound they were struck with.

27 Behold, Jehovah's name comes from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke. His lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a devouring fire. 28 His breath is as an overflowing stream that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction; and a bridle that leads to ruin will be in the jaws of the peoples. 29 You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to Jehovah's mountain, to Israel's Rock. 30 Jehovah will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the descent of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and hailstones. 31 For through Jehovah's voice the Assyrian will be dismayed. He will strike him with his rod. 32 Every stroke of the rod of punishment, which Jehovah will lay on him, will be with the sound of tambourines and harps. He will fight with them in battles, brandishing weapons. 33 For his burning place has long been ready. Yes, for the king it is prepared. He has made its pyre deep and large with fire and much wood. Jehovah's breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don't seek Jehovah!
2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit.
When Jehovah stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together.

4 For Jehovah says to me,
"As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey,
if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for their noise, so Jehovah of Armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights.

5 As birds hovering, so Jehovah of Armies will protect Jerusalem.

He will protect and deliver it.
He will pass over and preserve it."

6 Return to him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel. 7 For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin which your own hands have made for you.

* 30:9-10 Like the rebellious Jews of Isaiah's day, who wanted to hear "pleasant things" from their prophets, instead of God's judgment message, many churches in these last days instruct their pastors to avoid preaching messages that might offend listeners. (See the note at 2 Chronicles 18:12.)

But these so-called 'Christians' who don't want to hear from the true God will be forced to face him when he executes judgment against this world.

8 "The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of man;
and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour him.

He will flee from the sword,
and his young men will become subject to forced labor.

9 His rock will pass away by reason of terror, and his princes will be afraid of the banner," says Jehovah, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO

1 Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in justice.

2 A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind,
and a covert from the storm,

as streams of water in a dry place,
as the shade of a large rock in a weary land.

3 The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.

4 The heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.

5 The fool will no longer be called noble,
nor the scoundrel be highly respected.

6 For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work iniquity,
to practice profanity,
and to utter error against Jehovah,
to make empty the soul of the hungry,
and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The ways of the scoundrel are evil.
He devises wicked devices to destroy the humble with lying words, even when the needy speaks right.

8 But the noble devises noble things;
and he will continue in noble things.

9 Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear my voice!

You careless daughters, give ear to my speech!

10 For days beyond a year you will be troubled,
you careless women;

for the vintage shall fail.
The harvest won't come.

11 Tremble, you women who are at ease!

Be troubled, you careless ones!
Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked,
and put sackcloth on your waist.

12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vine.

13 Thorns and briars will come up on my people's land;

yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city.

14 For the palace will be forsaken.

The populous city will be deserted.

The hill and the watchtower will be for dens forever,

a delight for wild donkeys,
a pasture of flocks;

15 until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field is considered a forest.

16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness;
and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field.

17 The work of righteousness will be peace;
and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

18 My people will live in a peaceful habitation, in safe dwellings,
and in quiet resting places.

19 Though hail flattens the forest, and the city is leveled completely, 20 blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the feet of the ox and the donkey.

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE

1 Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed;

and who betray, but nobody betrayed you!

When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed;

and when you have finished betrayal, you will be betrayed.

2 Jehovah, be gracious to us. We have waited for you.

Be our strength every morning,
our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled.

When you lift yourself up, the nations are scattered.

4 Your plunder will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers.

Men will leap on it as locusts leap.

5 Jehovah is exalted, for he dwells on high.

He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.

6 There will be stability in your times,
abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.

The fear of Jehovah is your treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones cry outside;
the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.

8 The highways are desolate.

The traveling man ceases.

The covenant is broken.

He has despised the cities.

He doesn't respect man.

9 The land mourns and languishes.

Lebanon is confounded and withers away.

Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare.

10 "Now I will arise," says Jehovah;

"Now I will lift myself up.

Now I will be exalted.

11 You will conceive chaff.

You will give birth to stubble.

Your breath is a fire that will devour you.

12 The peoples will be like the burning of lime, like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire.

13 Hear, you who are far off, what I have done;
and, you who are near, acknowledge my might."

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid.

Trembling has seized the godless ones.

Who among us can live with the devouring fire?

Who among us can live with everlasting burning?

15 He who walks righteously, and speaks blamelessly;

he who despises the gain of oppressions, who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe,

 who stops his ears from hearing of blood,
 and shuts his eyes from looking at evil—
 16 he will dwell on high.
 His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks.
 His bread will be supplied.
 His waters will be sure.
 17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty.
 They will see a distant land.
 18 Your heart will meditate on the terror.
 Where is he who counted?
 Where is he who weighed?
 Where is he who counted the towers?
 19 You will no longer see the fierce people, a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend,
 with a strange language that you can't understand.
 20 Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals.
 Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation,
 a tent that won't be removed.
 Its stakes will never be plucked up,
 nor will any of its cords be broken.
 21 But there Jehovah has with us in majesty,
 a place of wide rivers and streams,
 in which no galley with oars will go,
 neither will any gallant ship pass by there.
 22 For Jehovah is our judge.
 Jehovah is our lawgiver.
 Jehovah is our king.
 He will save us.
 23 Your rigging is untied.
 They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast.
 They couldn't spread the sail.
 Then the prey of a great plunder was divided.
 The lame took the prey.
 24 The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick."
 The people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity.

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR

1 Come near, you nations, to hear!

Listen, you peoples.

Let the earth and all it contains hear;

the world, and everything that comes from it.

2 For Jehovah is enraged* against all the nations, and angry with all their armies.

He has utterly destroyed them.

He has given them over for slaughter.

3 Their slain will also be cast out,

and the stench of their dead bodies will come up;

and the mountains will melt in their blood.

4 All of the army of the sky will be dissolved.
 The sky will be rolled up like a scroll,
 and all its armies will fade away,
 as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree.
 5 For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky.
 Behold, it will come down on Edom,
 and on the people of my curse, for judgment.
 6 Jehovah's sword is filled with blood.
 It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats,

with the fat of the kidneys of rams;
 for Jehovah has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
 and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
 7 The wild oxen will come down with them,
 and the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
 and their land will be drunken with blood,
 and their dust made greasy with fat.
 8 For Jehovah has a day of vengeance,
 a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
 9 Its streams will be turned into pitch, its dust into sulfur,
 and its land will become burning pitch.
 10 It won't be quenched night nor day.
 Its smoke will go up forever.
 From generation to generation, it will lie waste.
 No one will pass through it forever and ever.
 11 But the pelican and the porcupine will possess it.

The owl and the raven will dwell in it.
 He will stretch the line of confusion over it,
 and the plumb line of emptiness.
 12 They shall call its nobles to the kingdom,
 but none shall be there;
 and all its princes shall be nothing.
 13 Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses;
 and it will be a habitation of jackals,
 a court for ostriches.

14 The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves,
 and the wild goat will cry to his fellow.
 Yes, the night creature shall settle there,
 and shall find herself a place of rest.

15 The arrow snake will make her nest there,
 and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade.
 Yes, the kites will be gathered there, every one with her mate.

16 Search in the book of Jehovah, and read:
 not one of these will be missing.
 None will lack her mate.
 For my mouth has commanded,
 and his Spirit has gathered them.
 17 He has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them with a measuring line.

They shall possess it forever.
 From generation to generation they will dwell
 in it.

CHAPTER THIRTY-FIVE

* 34:1-3 'God loves us, no matter what we do. He will always forgive us, and bless us'—that is the message people pay money to hear at church in these end times. But Isaiah here gives a foretaste of God's judgment message against all the nations of the earth—the message that is later detailed and reinforced in the New Testament's final book of Revelation.

1 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad.
The desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose.
2 It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing.
Lebanon's glory will be given to it,
the excellence of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see Jehovah's glory,
the excellence of our God.

3 Strengthen the weak hands,
and make firm the feeble knees.

4 Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong.

Don't be afraid.

Behold, your God will come with vengeance,
God's retribution.

He will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind* will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.

6 Then the lame man will leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the mute will sing;

for waters will break out in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert.

7 The burning sand will become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water.

Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals, where they lay.

8 A highway will be there, a road,
and it will be called The Holy Way.

The unclean shall not pass over it,
but it will be for those who walk in the Way.
Wicked fools will not go there.

9 No lion will be there,
nor will any ravenous animal go up on it.
They will not be found there;
but the redeemed will walk there.

10 Jehovah's ransomed ones will return,
and come with singing to Zion;
and everlasting joy will be on their heads.
They will obtain gladness and joy,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away."

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

1 Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them.

2 The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool in the fuller's field highway. 3 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came out to him.

4 Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah,
'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria,
'What confidence is this in which you trust? 5 I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? 6 Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. 7 But if you tell me,
'We trust in Jehovah our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem,
'You shall worship before this altar?'" 8 Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. 9 How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? 10 Have I come up now without Jehovah against this land to destroy it?
Jehovah said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it."'"

11 Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and don't speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

12 But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" 13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! 14 Thus says the king,
'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you. 15 Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, "Jehovah will surely deliver us. This city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 16 Don't listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria,
'Make your peace with me, and come out to me;
and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; 17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. 18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "Jehovah will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? 20 Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my
hand?'"

21 But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was,
"Don't answer him."

22 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him
the words of Rabshakeh.

* 35:5-6 The promised Messiah Jesus fulfilled this prophecy initially when he healed people during his earthly ministry, and will fulfill it completely when he returns in power.

When John the Baptist sent messengers from his prison cell to ask whether Jesus was the one prophesied to come, "Jesus answered them, 'Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.'"— Luke 7:22

1 When king Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into Jehovah's house. 2 He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. 3 They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'Today is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to give birth. 4 It may be Jehovah your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Jehovah your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'" 5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Jehovah says, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. 7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. 9 He heard news concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10 "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" 11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? 12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to Jehovah's house, and spread it before Jehovah. 15 Hezekiah prayed to Jehovah, saying, 16 "Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. 17 Turn your ear, Jehovah, and hear. Open your eyes, Jehovah, and behold. Hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. 18 Truly, Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land, 19 and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. 20 Now therefore, Jehovah our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are Jehovah, even you only."

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Jehovah, the God of Israel says, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, 22 this is the word which Jehovah has spoken concerning him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. 23 Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. 24 By your servants, you have defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. 25 I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt.'" 26 Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. 27 Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like a field before its crop has grown. 28 But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. 29 Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.

30 "This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. 31 The remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. 32 For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of Jehovah of Armies will perform this."

33 "Therefore Jehovah says concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. 34 By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come to this city,' says Jehovah. 35 'For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.'"

36 Jehovah's angel went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. 37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there. 38 As he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER THIRTY-EIGHT

1 In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, "Jehovah says, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.'"

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Jehovah, 3 and said, "Remember now, Jehovah, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight."

Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 Then Jehovah's word came to Isaiah, saying, 5 "Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'Jehovah says, the God of David your father, 'I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. 6 I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. 7 This shall be the sign to you from Jehovah, that Jehovah will do this thing that he has spoken. 8 Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps.'"" So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down.

9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness.

10 I said, "In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol.

I am deprived of the residue of my years."

11 I said, "I won't see Jah,
Jah in the land of the living.

I will see man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 My dwelling is removed,
and is carried away from me like a shepherd's tent.

I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life.
He will cut me off from the loom.

From day even to night you will make an end of me.

13 I waited patiently until morning.
He breaks all my bones like a lion.

From day even to night you will make an end of me.

14 I chattered like a swallow or a crane.
I moaned like a dove.

My eyes weaken looking upward.

Lord, I am oppressed.

Be my security."

15 What will I say?

He has both spoken to me, and himself has done it.

I will walk carefully all my years because of the anguish of my soul.

16 Lord, men live by these things;
and my spirit finds life in all of them:
you restore me, and cause me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great anguish, but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption;
for you have cast all my sins behind your back.

18 For Sheol can't praise you.

Death can't celebrate you.

Those who go down into the pit can't hope for your truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise you, as I do today.

The father shall make known your truth to the children.

20 Jehovah will save me.

Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in Jehovah's house.

21 Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover." 22 Hezekiah also had said,

"What is the sign that I will go up to Jehovah's house?"

CHAPTER THIRTY-NINE

1 At that time, Merodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. 2 Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them. 3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from to you?"

Hezekiah said, "They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon."

4 Then he asked, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of Jehovah of Armies: 6 'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until today, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says Jehovah. 7 'They will take away your sons who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon's palace.'"

8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "Jehovah's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days."

CHAPTER FORTY

1 "Comfort, comfort my people," says your God. 2 "Speak to the heart of Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of Jehovah's hand double for all her sins."

3 The voice of one who calls out,
"Prepare the way of Jehovah in the wilderness!
Make a level highway in the desert for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted,
and every mountain and hill shall be made low.
The uneven shall be made level,
and the rough places a plain.

5 Jehovah's glory shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together;
for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken it." 6 The voice of one saying, "Cry!"

One said, "What shall I cry?"

"All flesh is like grass,

and all its glory is like the flower of the field.

* 40:1 This verse, and those that follow, form the opening lyrics of Handel's Messiah, a beautiful musical piece that uses Scripture alone (from the King James Version of the Bible) to tell the story of Christ. Listening to it, Bible in hand, can be truly inspirational. It beautifully presents the prophecies that were fulfilled by Jesus when he came centuries ago, and those that will be fulfilled when he returns.

7 The grass withers,
the flower fades,
because Jehovah's breath blows on it.
Surely the people are like grass.
8 The grass withers,
the flower fades;
but the word of our God stands forever."
9 You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain.
You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength.
Lift it up. Don't be afraid.
Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold, your God!"
10 Behold, the Lord Jehovah will come as a mighty one,
and his arm will rule for him.
Behold, his reward is with him,
and his recompense before him.
11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd.
He will gather the lambs in his arm,
and carry them in his bosom.
He will gently lead those who have their young.
12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand,
and marked off the sky with his span,
and calculated the dust of the earth in a measuring basket,
and weighed the mountains in scales,
and the hills in a balance?
13 Who has directed Jehovah's Spirit, or has taught him as his counselor?
14 Who did he take counsel with,
and who instructed him,
and taught him in the path of justice,
and taught him knowledge,
and showed him the way of understanding?
15 Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket,*
and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance.
Behold, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.
16 Lebanon is not sufficient to burn,
nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.
17 All the nations are like nothing before him.
They are regarded by him as less than nothing, and vanity.
18 To whom then will you liken God?
Or what likeness will you compare to him?
19 A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold,
and casts silver chains for it.
20 He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot.
He seeks a skillful workman to set up an engraved image for him that will not be moved.
21 Haven't you known?
Haven't you heard, yet?
Haven't you been told from the beginning?
Haven't you understood from the foundations
of the earth?
22 It is he who sits above the circle of the

earth,
and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in;
23 who brings princes to nothing; who makes the judges of the earth like meaningless.
24 They are scarcely planted.
They are scarcely sown.
Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground.
He merely blows on them, and they wither,
and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.
25 "To whom then will you liken me?
Who is my equal?" says the Holy One.
26 Lift up your eyes on high,
and see who has created these,
who brings out their army by number.
He calls them all by name.
By the greatness of his might,
and because he is strong in power,
not one is lacking.
27 Why do you say, Jacob,
and speak, Israel,
"My way is hidden from Jehovah, and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?"
28 Haven't you known?
Haven't you heard?
The everlasting God, Jehovah, the Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't faint.
He isn't weary.
His understanding is unsearchable.
29 He gives power to the weak.
He increases the strength of him who has no might.
30 Even the youths faint and get weary,
and the young men utterly fall;
31 but those who wait for Jehovah will renew their strength.
They will mount up with wings like eagles.
They will run, and not be weary.
They will walk, and not faint.

CHAPTER FORTY-ONE

1 "Keep silent before me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength.
Let them come near,
then let them speak.
Let's meet together for judgment.
2 Who has raised up one from the east?
Who called him to his foot in righteousness?
He hands over nations to him,
and makes him rule over kings.
He gives them like the dust to his sword,
like the driven stubble to his bow.
3 He pursues them,
and passes by safely,
even by a way that he had not gone with his feet.
4 Who has worked and done it,
calling the generations from the beginning?
I, Jehovah, the first, and with the last, I am he."
5 The islands have seen, and fear.
The ends of the earth tremble.
They approach, and come.
6 Everyone helps his neighbor.
They say to their brothers, "Be strong!"
7 So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith.

* 40:15 Human governments, though armed with rockets and nuclear weapons, are powerless when confronting God—as will be demonstrated at the battle of Armageddon described in Revelation 16:16 and 19:11-19.

He who smoothes with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good;" and he fastens it with nails, that it might not totter.

8 "But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham my friend, 9 you whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from its corners, and said to you, 'You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you away.'

10 Don't you be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed and confounded.

Those who strive with you will be like nothing, and shall perish.

12 You will seek them, and won't find them, even those who contend with you.

Those who war against you will be as nothing, as a non-existent thing.

13 For I, Jehovah your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Don't be afraid. I will help you.'

14 Don't be afraid, you worm Jacob, and you men of Israel.

I will help you," says Jehovah, "and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I have made you into a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth.

You will thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and will make the hills like chaff.

16 You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind will scatter them.

You will rejoice in Jehovah.

You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 The poor and needy seek water, and there is none.

Their tongue fails for thirst.

I, Jehovah, will answer them.

I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and springs in the middle of the valleys.

I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will put cedar, acacia, myrtle, and oil trees in the wilderness.

I will set cypress trees, pine, and box trees together in the desert;

20 that they may see, know, consider, and understand together, that Jehovah's hand has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

21 Produce your cause," says Jehovah.

"Bring out your strong reasons," says the King of Jacob.

22 "Let them announce, and declare to us what shall happen.

Declare the former things, what they are,

that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or show us things to come.

23 Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods.

Yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and see it together.

24 Behold, you are of nothing, and your work is of nothing.

He who chooses you is an abomination.

25 "I have raised up one from the north, and he has come;

from the rising of the sun, one who calls on my name;

and he shall come on rulers as on mortar, and as the potter treads clay.

26 Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know?

And before, that we may say, 'He is right?'

Surely, there is no one who declares.

Surely, there is no one who shows.

Surely, there is no one who hears your words.

27 I am the first to say to Zion, 'Behold, look at them;'

and I will give one who brings good news to Jerusalem.

28 When I look, there is no man;

even among them there is no counselor who, when I ask of them, can answer a word.

29 Behold, all of them, their deeds are vanity and nothing.

Their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO

1 "Behold, my servant,* whom I uphold;

my chosen, in whom my soul delights—

I have put my Spirit on him.

He will bring justice to the nations.

2 He will not shout,

nor raise his voice,

nor cause it to be heard in the street.

3 He won't break a bruised reed.

He won't quench a dimly burning wick.

He will faithfully bring justice.

4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, until he has set justice in the earth, and the islands will wait for his law."

5 Thus says God Jehovah,

he who created the heavens and stretched them out,

he who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it, he who gives breath to its people and spirit to

* 42:1 Jesus the Messiah is the servant spoken of here, according to the Gospel of Matthew, which quotes Isaiah 42:1-4 and adds that Jesus fulfilled what "was spoken through Isaiah the prophet." (Matthew 12:17) Jesus brought justice to the nations when he sent the Gospel worldwide, teaching pagan nations God's ways, and he will bring justice and enforce it when his Kingdom topples the human governments that now rule the nations of this world.

those who walk in it:

6 "I, Jehovah, have called you in righteousness, and will hold your hand,
and will keep you,
and make you a covenant for the people,
as a light for the nations;
7 to open the blind eyes,
to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon,
and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.

8 "I am Jehovah.
That is my name.
I will not give my glory to another,
nor my praise to engraved images.
9 Behold, the former things have happened,
and I declare new things.
I tell you about them before they come up."
10 Sing to Jehovah a new song,
and his praise from the end of the earth,
you who go down to the sea,
and all that is therein,
the islands and their inhabitants.

11 Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices, with the villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing.
Let them shout from the top of the mountains!

12 Let them give glory to Jehovah, and declare his praise in the islands.
13 Jehovah will go out like a mighty man.
He will stir up zeal like a man of war.

He will raise a war cry.
Yes, he will shout aloud.
He will triumph over his enemies.
14 "I have been silent a long time.
I have been quiet and restrained myself.
Now I will cry out like a travailing woman. I will both gasp and pant.

15 I will destroy mountains and hills,
and dry up all their herbs.
I will make the rivers islands,
and will dry up the pools.
16 I will bring the blind by a way that they don't know.

I will lead them in paths that they don't know.
I will make darkness light before them,
and crooked places straight.
I will do these things,
and I will not forsake them.

17 "Those who trust in engraved images, who tell molten images,
'You are our gods'
will be turned back.
They will be utterly disappointed.

18 "Hear, you deaf,
and look, you blind,
that you may see.
19 Who is blind, but my servant?
Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send?

Who is as blind as he who is at peace,
and as blind as Jehovah's servant?
20 You see many things, but don't observe.
His ears are open, but he doesn't listen."

21 It pleased Jehovah, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law, and make it honorable.

22 But this is a robbed and plundered people.
All of them are snared in holes,
and they are hidden in prisons.
They have become captives, and no one delivers;
and a plunder, and no one says, "Restore them!"

23 Who is there among you who will give ear to this?

Who will listen and hear for the time to come?
24 Who gave Jacob as plunder, and Israel to the robbers?

Didn't Jehovah, he against whom we have sinned?

For they would not walk in his ways,
and they disobeyed his law.

25 Therefore he poured the fierceness of his anger on him,
and the strength of battle;
and it set him on fire all around, but he didn't know;
and it burned him, but he didn't take it to heart.

CHAPTER FORTY-THREE

1 But now Jehovah who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel says:
"Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by your name.
You are mine.

2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they will not overflow you.

When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned,
and flame will not scorch you.

3 For I am Jehovah your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
your Savior.

I have given Egypt as your ransom,
Ethiopia and Seba in your place.

4 Since you have been precious and honored in my sight, and I have loved you;

therefore I will give people in your place,
and nations instead of your life.

5 Don't be afraid; for I am with you.
I will bring your offspring from the east,
and gather you from the west.

6 I will tell the north, 'Give them up!'
and tell the south, 'Don't hold them back!
Bring my sons from far,
and my daughters from the ends of the earth—

7 everyone who is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed,
yes, whom I have made."

8 Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together,
and let the peoples be assembled.

* 42:6 When the baby Jesus was brought to the temple in Jerusalem, a man named Simeon declared, "my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared before the face of all peoples; a light for revelation to the nations."—Luke 2:31-32

And at a Jewish synagogue at Antioch of Pisidia, Paul and Barnabas quoted the above passage in Isaiah when they declared, ". . . behold, we turn to the Gentiles. For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, 'I have set you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'"—Acts 13:46-47

Who among them can declare this,
and show us former things?
Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified;
or let them hear, and say, "That is true."
10 "You are my witnesses," says Jehovah,
"and my servant whom I have chosen;
that you may know and believe me,
and understand that I am he.
Before me there was no God formed, neither will there be after me.
11 I myself am Jehovah;
and besides me there is no savior.
12 I have declared, I have saved, and I have shown;
and there was no strange god among you.
Therefore you are my witnesses," says Jehovah, "and I am God.
13 Yes, since the day was I am he;
and there is no one who can deliver out of my
hand.
I will work, and who can hinder it?"
14 Jehovah, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: "For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. 15 I am Jehovah, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King." 16 Jehovah, who makes a way in the sea,
and a path in the mighty waters says:
17 who brings out the chariot and horse,
the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they shall not rise;
they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick):
18 "Don't remember the former things,
and don't consider the things of old.
19 Behold, I will do a new thing.
It springs out now.
Don't you know it?
I will even make a way in the wilderness,
and rivers in the desert.
20 The animals of the field shall honor me,
the jackals and the ostriches;
because I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my people, my chosen, 21 the people which I formed for myself,
that they might declare my praise.
22 Yet you have not called on me, Jacob;
but you have been weary of me, Israel.
23 You have not brought me of your sheep for burnt offerings;
neither have you honored me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with offerings,
nor wearied you with frankincense.
24 You have bought me no sweet cane with money,
nor have you filled me with the fat of your
sacrifices;
but you have burdened me with your sins.
You have wearied me with your iniquities.
25 I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake;
and I will not remember your sins.
26 Put me in remembrance.
Let us plead together.
Declare your case,

that you may be justified.
27 Your first father sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against
me.

28 Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary;
and I will make Jacob a curse,
and Israel an insult."

CHAPTER FORTY-FOUR

1 "Yet listen now, Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen.
2 This is what Jehovah who made you,
and formed you from the womb,
who will help you says:
"Don't be afraid, Jacob my servant;
and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
and streams on the dry ground.
I will pour my Spirit on your descendants, and my blessing on your offspring 4 and they will spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses.
5 One will say, 'I am Jehovah's'; and another will be called by the name of Jacob;
and another will write with his hand 'to Jehovah,'
and honor the name of Israel."
6 This is what Jehovah, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, Jehovah of Armies, says:
"I am the first, and I am the last;
and besides me there is no God.
7 Who is like me?
Who will call,
and will declare it,
and set it in order for me,
since I established the ancient people?
Let them declare the things that are coming,
and that will happen.
8 Don't fear,
neither be afraid.
Haven't I declared it to you long ago,
and shown it?
You are my witnesses.
Is there a God besides me?
Indeed, there is not.
I don't know any other Rock."
9 Everyone who makes an engraved image is vain.
The things that they delight in will not profit.
Their own witnesses don't see, nor know, that they may be disappointed.
10 Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing?
11 Behold, all his fellows will be disappointed;
and the workmen are mere men.
Let them all be gathered together.
Let them stand up.
They will fear.
They will be put to shame together.
12 The blacksmith takes an ax, works in the coals,
fashions it with hammers,
and works it with his strong arm.
He is hungry,
and his strength fails;
he drinks no water,

and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretches out a line.
He marks it out with a pencil.
He shapes it with planes.

He marks it out with compasses, and shapes it like the figure of a man,
with the beauty of a man,
to reside in a house.

14 He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak,
and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest.

He plants a cypress tree,
and the rain nourishes it.

15 Then it will be for a man to burn;
and he takes some of it, and warms himself.
Yes, he burns it, and bakes bread.

Yes, he makes a god, and worships it;
he makes it an engraved image, and falls down
to it.

16 He burns part of it in the fire.

With part of it, he eats meat.

He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.

Yes, he warms himself, and says, "Aha! I am warm. I have seen the fire."

17 The rest of it he makes into a god, even his engraved image.

He bows down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, "Deliver me; for you are my god!"

18 They don't know, neither do they consider:
for he has shut their eyes, that they can't see;
and their hearts, that they can't understand.

19 No one thinks,
neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say,

"I have burned part of it in the fire.

Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals.

I have roasted meat and eaten it.

Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination?

Shall I bow down to a tree trunk?"

20 He feeds on ashes.

A deceived heart has turned him aside;

and he can't deliver his soul,

nor say, "Isn't there a lie in my right hand?"

21 "Remember these things, Jacob and Israel;

for you are my servant.

I have formed you.

You are my servant.

Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions,

and, as a cloud, your sins.

Return to me, for I have redeemed you.

23 Sing, you heavens, for Jehovah has done it!

Shout, you lower parts of the earth!

Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest, all of your trees,

for Jehovah has redeemed Jacob,

and will glorify himself in Israel.

24 Jehovah, your Redeemer, and he who formed you from the womb says:

"I am Jehovah, who makes all things;

who alone stretches out the heavens;

who spreads out the earth by myself;

25 who frustrates the signs of the liars,

and makes diviners mad;

who turns wise men backward,

and makes their knowledge foolish;

26 who confirms the word of his servant,

and performs the counsel of his messengers;

who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited;'

and of the cities of Judah, 'They will be built;'

and 'I will raise up its waste places;'

27 who says to the deep, 'Be dry;'

and 'I will dry up your rivers;'

28 Who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure;'

even saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be built;'

and of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"

CHAPTER FORTY-FIVE

1 Jehovah says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him, and strip kings of their armor; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut:

2 "I will go before you,

and make the rough places smooth.

I will break the doors of brass in pieces, and cut apart the bars of iron.

3 I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, Jehovah, who call you by your name,

even the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake,

and Israel my chosen,

I have called you by your name.

I have given you a title,

though you have not known me.

5 I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.

Besides me, there is no God.

I will strengthen you,

though you have not known me;

6 that they may know from the rising of the sun,

and from the west,

that there is no one besides me.

I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.

7 I form the light,

and create darkness.

I make peace,

and create calamity.

I am Jehovah,

who does all these things.

8 Rain, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness.

Let the earth open, that it may produce
salvation,

and let it cause righteousness to spring up with it.

I, Jehovah, have created it.

9 Woe to him who strives with his Maker—

a clay pot among the clay pots of the earth!

Shall the clay ask him who fashions it, 'What are you making?'

or your work, 'He has no hands?'

10 Woe to him who says to a father, 'What have you become the father of?'

or to a mother, 'To what have you given birth?'"

11 Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel,

and his Maker says:

"You ask me about the things that are to come,
concerning my sons,

and you command me concerning the work of my hands!

12 I have made the earth, and created man on it.

I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens;

and I have commanded all their army.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways.

He shall build my city,

and he shall let my exiles go free,

not for price nor reward," says Jehovah of Armies.

14 Jehovah says: "The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabceans, men of stature, shall come over to you, and they shall be yours.

They will go after you.

They shall come over in chains;

and they will bow down to you.

They will make supplication to you:

"Surely God is in you; and there is no one else.

There is no other god."

15 Most certainly you are a God who has hidden yourself,

God of Israel, the Savior.

16 They will be disappointed,

yes, confounded, all of them.

Those who are makers of idols will go into confusion together.

17 Israel will be saved by Jehovah with an everlasting salvation.

You will not be disappointed nor confounded to ages everlasting.

18 For Jehovah who created the heavens, the God who formed the earth and made it, who established it and didn't create it a waste, who formed it to be inhabited says:

"I am Jehovah;

and there is no other.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness.

I didn't say to the offspring of Jacob, "Seek me in vain."

I, Jehovah, speak righteousness.

I declare things that are right.

20 "Assemble yourselves and come.

Draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations.

Those have no knowledge who carry the wood of their engraved image, and pray to a god that can't save.

21 Declare and present it.

Yes, let them take counsel together.

Who has shown this from ancient time?

Who has declared it of old?

Haven't I, Jehovah?

There is no other God besides me, a just God and a Savior;

there is no one besides me.

22 "Look to me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth;

for I am God, and there is no other.

23 I have sworn by myself.

The word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and will not be revoked, that to me every knee shall bow,

every tongue shall take an oath.

24 They will say of me,

"There is righteousness and strength only in Jehovah."

Even to him shall men come; and all those who raged against him shall be disappointed.

25 All the offspring of Israel will be justified in Jehovah, and will rejoice!

CHAPTER FORTY-SIX

1 Bel bows down.

Nebo stoops.

Their idols are carried by animals, and on the livestock.

The things that you carried around are heavy loads,

a burden for the weary.

2 They stoop and they bow down together.

They could not deliver the burden,

but they have gone into captivity.

3 "Listen to me, house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel,

that have been carried from their birth,

that have been carried from the womb.

4 Even to old age I am he,

and even to gray hairs I will carry you.

I have made, and I will bear.

Yes, I will carry, and will deliver.

5 "To whom will you liken me, and consider my equal,

and compare me, that we may be equal?

6 Some pour out gold from the bag, and weigh silver in the balance.

They hire a goldsmith,

and he makes it a god.

They fall down—

yes, they worship.

7 They bear it on their shoulder.

They carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands there.

It cannot move from its place.

Yes, one may cry to it, yet it can not answer.

It cannot save him out of his trouble.

8 "Remember this, and show yourselves men.

Bring it to mind again, you transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old:

for I am God, and there is no other.

I am God, and there is none like me.

10 I declare the end* from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done.

I say: My counsel will stand, and I will do all that I please.

11 I call a ravenous bird from the east,

* 46:9-10 God is the one who knows the future. He knows "the end" from the beginning, and he foretells these things through Bible prophecy.

As the Apostle Peter wrote, "We have the word of prophecy more sure; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit."—2 Peter 1:19-21 the man of my counsel from a far country.

 Yes, I have spoken.
 I will also bring it to pass.
 I have planned.
 I will also do it.

12 Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, who are far from righteousness!

13 I bring my righteousness near.

It is not far off,
 and my salvation will not wait.
 I will grant salvation to Zion,
 my glory to Israel.

CHAPTER FORTY-SEVEN

1 "Come down, and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon.

Sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans.

For you will no longer be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind flour.

Remove your veil, lift up your skirt, uncover your legs,

and wade through the rivers.

3 Your nakedness will be uncovered.

Yes, your shame will be seen.

I will take vengeance,
 and will spare no one."

4 Our Redeemer, Jehovah of Armies is his
 name,

is the Holy One of Israel.

5 "Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans.

For you shall no longer be called the mistress of kingdoms.

6 I was angry with my people.

I profaned my inheritance,
 and gave them into your hand.

You showed them no mercy.

You laid a very heavy yoke on the aged.

7 You said, 'I will be a princess forever,' so that you did not lay these things to your
 heart,

nor did you remember the results.

8 "Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures,

who sit securely,
 who say in your heart,

'I am, and there is no one else besides me.

I shall not sit as a widow,

neither shall I know the loss of children.'

9 But these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day,

the loss of children and widowhood.

They will come on you in their full measure,

in the multitude of your sorceries, and the great abundance of your enchantments.

10 For you have trusted in your wickedness.

You have said, 'No one sees me.'

Your wisdom and your knowledge has perverted you.

You have said in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one else besides me.'

11 Therefore disaster will come on you.

You won't know when it dawns.

Mischief will fall on you.

You won't be able to put it away.

Desolation will come on you suddenly,
 which you don't understand.

12 "Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries,
 in which you have labored from your youth;
 as if you might profit;
 as if you might prevail.

13 You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels.

Now let the astrologers, the stargazers, and the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save you from the things that will come on you.

14 Behold, they shall be like stubble.

The fire will burn them.

They won't deliver themselves from the power of the flame.

It won't be a coal to warm at or a fire to sit by.

15 The things that you labored in will be like this:

those who have trafficked with you from your youth will each wander in his own way.

There will be no one to save you.

CHAPTER FORTY-EIGHT

1 "Hear this, house of Jacob,
 you who are called by the name of Israel,
 and have come out of the waters of Judah.

You swear by Jehovah's name,
 and make mention of the God of Israel,
 but not in truth, nor in righteousness

2 (for they call themselves citizens of the holy city,

and rely on the God of Israel;

Jehovah of Armies is his name);

3 I have declared the former things from of old;

yes, they went out of my mouth, and I revealed
 them.

I did them suddenly, and they happened.

4 Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew,

and your brow brass;

5 therefore I have declared it to you from of
 old;

before it came to pass I showed it to you;

lest you should say, 'My idol has done them,
 and my engraved image, and my molten image,
 has commanded them.'

6 You have heard it;

see all this.

And you, won't you declare it?

"I have shown you new things from this time,
 even hidden things, which you have not known.

7 They are created now, and not from of old;

and before today you didn't hear them;

lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them.'

8 Yes, you didn't hear;

yes, you didn't know;

yes, from of old your ear was not opened:

for I knew that you dealt very treacherously,
 and were called a transgressor from the womb.

9 For my name's sake, I will defer my anger, and for my praise I hold it back for you,

so that I don't cut you off.

10 Behold, I have refined you,

but not as silver.

I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.

11 For my own sake,

for my own sake, I will do it;

for how would my name be profaned?

I will not give my glory to another.

12 "Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel my called:
I am he;
I am the first,
I am also the last.
13 Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the
earth,
and my right hand has spread out the heavens.
When I call to them, they stand up together.
14 "Assemble yourselves, all of you, and hear;
who among them has declared these things?
He whom Jehovah loves will do what he likes to Babylon,
and his arm will be against the Chaldeans.
15 I, even I, have spoken;
yes, I have called him.
I have brought him,
and he shall make his way prosperous.
16 "Come near to me and hear this:
"From the beginning I have not spoken in secret;
from the time that it happened, I was there."
Now the Lord Jehovah has sent me, with his Spirit.
17 Jehovah,
your Redeemer,
the Holy One of Israel says:
"I am Jehovah your God,
who teaches you to profit,
who leads you by the way that you should go.
18 Oh that you had listened to my
commandments!
Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
19 Your offspring also would have been as the sand,
and the descendants of your body like its grains.
His name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me."
20 Leave Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With a voice of singing announce this,
tell it even to the end of the earth:
say, "Jehovah has redeemed his servant Jacob!" 21 They didn't thirst when he led them through the deserts.
He caused the waters to flow out of the rock
for them.
He split the rock also, and the waters gushed
out.
22 "There is no peace," says Jehovah, "for the wicked."

CHAPTER FORTY-NINE

1 Listen, islands, to me.
Listen, you peoples, from afar:
Jehovah has called me from the womb;
from the inside of my mother he has mentioned my name.
2 He has made my mouth like a sharp sword.
He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand.
He has made me a polished shaft.
He has kept me close in his quiver.
3 He said to me, "You are my servant;
Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
4 But I said, "I have labored in vain.
I have spent my strength in vain for nothing;

yet surely the justice due to me is with
Jehovah,
and my reward with my God."

5 Now Jehovah says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob again to him,
and to gather Israel to him,
for I am honorable in Jehovah's eyes,
and my God has become my strength.

6 Indeed, he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob,
and to restore the preserved of Israel.

I will also give you as a light to
the nations,
that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth.*"

7 Jehovah, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One,

says to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers:

"Kings shall see and rise up;
princes, and they shall worship;
because of Jehovah who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

8 Jehovah says, "In an acceptable time I have answered you,
and in a day of salvation I have helped you.

I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people,
to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage:

9 saying to those who are bound, 'Come out!';
to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves!'

"They shall feed along the paths, and their pasture shall be on all treeless heights.

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst;
neither shall the heat nor sun strike them:
for he who has mercy on them will lead them.
He will guide them by springs of water.

11 I will make all my mountains a road,
and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come from afar; and behold, these from the north and from the west;

and these from the land of Sinim."

13 Sing, heavens; and be joyful, earth;
and break out into singing, mountains:

for Jehovah has comforted his people,
and will have compassion on his afflicted.

14 But Zion said, "Jehovah has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me."

15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb?

Yes, these may forget,
yet I will not forget you!

16 Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands.

* 49:6 This prophecy was fulfilled by the Messiah Jesus centuries after Isaiah recorded it. God's salvation through the Gospel of Christ has indeed reached the Gentile nations to the ends of the earth.

Your walls are continually before me.
 17 Your children hurry.
 Your destroyers and those who devastated you will leave you.

18 Lift up your eyes all around, and see:
 all these gather themselves together, and come
 to you.

As I live," says Jehovah, "you shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament, and dress yourself with them, like a bride.

19 "For, as for your waste and your desolate
 places,
 and your land that has been destroyed, surely now that land will be too small for the inhabitants,
 and those who swallowed you up will be far
 away.

20 The children of your bereavement will say in your ears,
 'This place is too small for me.
 Give me a place to live in.'

21 Then you will say in your heart, 'Who has conceived these for me, since I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering back and forth?

Who has brought these up?
 Behold, I was left alone. Where were these?"

22 Thus says the Lord Jehovah, "Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and lift up my banner to the peoples;
 and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

23 Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers.
 They will bow down to you with their faces to
 the earth,
 and lick the dust of your feet;
 then you will know that I am Jehovah; and those who wait for me shall not be disappointed."

24 Shall the plunder be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captives be delivered?

25 But Jehovah says, "Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,
 and the plunder retrieved from the fierce;
 for I will contend with him who contends with
 you,
 and I will save your children.

26 I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh;
 and they will be drunk on their own blood, as with sweet wine.

Then all flesh shall know that I, Jehovah, am
 your Savior,
 and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

CHAPTER FIFTY

1 Jehovah says, "Where is the bill of your mother's divorce, with which I have put her
 away?

Or to which of my creditors have I sold you?
 Behold, you were sold for your iniquities, and your mother was put away for your transgressions.

2 Why, when I came, was there no one?
 When I called, why was there no one to answer?
 Is my hand shortened at all, that it can't redeem?

Or have I no power to deliver?
 Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea.
 I make the rivers a wilderness:
 their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering."

4 The Lord Jehovah has given me the tongue of those who are taught,
 that I may know how to sustain with words him who is weary.

He wakens morning by morning,
 he wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught.

5 The Lord Jehovah has opened my ear,
 and I was not rebellious.
 I have not turned back.

6 I gave my back to those who beat me, and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair.

I didn't hide my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord Jehovah will help me.
 Therefore I have not been confounded.
 Therefore I have set my face like a flint,
 and I know that I shall not be disappointed.

8 He who justifies me is near.
 Who will bring charges against me?

Let us stand up together.

Who is my adversary?

Let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord Jehovah will help me!

Who is he who will condemn me?
 Behold, they will all grow old like a garment.
 The moths will eat them up.

10 Who among you fears Jehovah, and obeys the voice of his servant?
 He who walks in darkness,
 and has no light,
 let him trust in Jehovah's name,
 and rely on his God.

11 Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who adorn yourselves with torches around
 yourselves;

walk in the flame of your fire,
 and among the torches that you have kindled.
 You will have this from my hand:
 You will lie down in sorrow.

CHAPTER FIFTY-ONE

1 "Listen to me, you who follow after righteousness,
 you who seek Jehovah:

look to the rock you were cut from,
 and to the quarry you were dug from.

2 Look to Abraham your father,
 and to Sarah who bore you;
 for when he was but one I called him,
 and I blessed him,
 and made him many.

3 For Jehovah has comforted Zion.
 He has comforted all her waste places,
 and has made her wilderness like Eden,
 and her desert like the garden of Jehovah.
 Joy and gladness will be found therein,
 thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 "Listen to me, my people;
 and hear me, my nation:
 for a law will go out from me, and I will establish my justice for a light to the peoples.

5 My righteousness is near.
My salvation has gone out,
and my arms will judge the peoples.
The islands will wait for me,
and they will trust my arm.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look on the earth beneath;
for the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
and the earth will wear out like a garment;
and its inhabitants will die in the same way:
but my salvation will be forever,
and my righteousness will not be abolished.

7 “Listen to me, you who know
righteousness,
the people in whose heart is my
law:

Don’t fear the reproach of men,
and don’t be dismayed at their insults.

8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool;
but my righteousness will be forever,
and my salvation to all generations.”

9 Awake, awake, put on strength, arm of Jehovah!

Awake, as in the days of old,
the generations of ancient times.
Isn’t it you who cut Rahab in pieces,
who pierced the monster?

10 Isn’t it you who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep;
who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?

11 Those ransomed by Jehovah will return,
and come with singing to Zion;
and everlasting joy shall be on their heads.
They will obtain gladness and joy.
Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

12 “I, even I, am he who comforts you.
Who are you, that you are afraid of man who shall die,
and of the son of man who will be made as grass?

13 Have you forgotten Jehovah your Maker, who stretched out the heavens,
and laid the foundations of the earth?

Do you live in fear continually all day because of the fury of the oppressor,
when he prepares to destroy?

Where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile will speedily be freed;
and he will not die and go down into the pit,
and his bread will not fail.

15 For I am Jehovah your God, who stirs up the
sea,

so that its waves roar:
Jehovah of Armies is his name.

16 I have put my words in your mouth, and have covered you in the shadow of my

hand,
that I may plant the heavens,
and lay the foundations of the earth,
and tell Zion, ‘You are my people.’”

17 Awake, awake!

Stand up, Jerusalem, you who have drunk from Jehovah’s hand the cup of his wrath.

You have drunk the bowl of the cup of staggering,
and drained it.

18 There is no one to guide her among all the sons to whom she has given birth;
and there is no one who takes her by the hand
among all the sons she has brought up.

19 These two things have happened to you—who will grieve with you?—
desolation and destruction, and famine and the sword.
How can I comfort you?

20 Your sons have fainted.
They lie at the head of all the streets,
like an antelope in a net.

They are full of Jehovah’s wrath,
the rebuke of your God.

21 Therefore now hear this, you afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:

22 Thus says your Lord Jehovah, your God who pleads the cause of his people, “Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering,

even the bowl of the cup of my wrath.

You will not drink it any more:

23 and I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you,
who have said to your soul, ‘Bow down, that we may walk over you;’

and you have laid your back as the ground, like a street to those who walk over.”

CHAPTER FIFTY-TWO

1 Awake, awake! Put on your strength, Zion.

Put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city:

for from now on the uncircumcised and the unclean will no more come into you.

2 Shake yourself from the dust!

Arise, sit up, Jerusalem!

Release yourself from the bonds of your neck,
captive daughter of Zion!

3 For Jehovah says, “You were sold for nothing;
and you will be redeemed without money.”

4 For thus says the Lord Jehovah:

“My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there:

and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause.

5 “Now therefore, what do I do here,” says
Jehovah,

“seeing that my people are taken away for nothing?

Those who rule over them mock,” says
Jehovah,

“and my name is blasphemed continually all the day.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name.

Therefore they shall know in that day that I am
he who speaks.

* 51:7 Those who don’t know or don’t believe the Bible hurl reproach and insults at those who faithfully uphold God’s message. But God urges us not to be afraid and not to be dismayed by such treatment. Recall the similar encouragement Jesus gives: “If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you. . . . If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you.”—John 15:18-20

Behold, it is I.”

7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace,
who brings good news,
who proclaims salvation,
who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!” 8 Your watchmen lift up their voice, together they sing;
for they shall see eye to eye, when Jehovah returns to Zion.

9 Break out into joy,
sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem;
for Jehovah has comforted his people.
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

10 Jehovah has made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations;
and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

11 Depart, depart, go out from there; touch no unclean thing!

Go out from among her!

Cleanse yourselves, you who carry Jehovah’s vessels.

12 For you shall not go out in haste, neither shall you go by flight;
for Jehovah will go before you;
and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

13 Behold, my servant will deal wisely.
He will be exalted and lifted up,
and will be very high.

14 Just as many were astonished at you (his appearance was marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men),

15 so he will cleanse many nations.

Kings will shut their mouths at him:

for they will see that which had not been told them;

and they will understand that which they had not heard.

CHAPTER FIFTY-THREE

1 Who has believed* our message?

To whom has the arm of Jehovah been revealed?

2 For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground.

He has no good looks or majesty.

When we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He was despised,
and rejected† by men;
a man of suffering,

* 53:1 Jesus often told his disciples “that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled.” (Luke 24:44) The fifty-third chapter of Isaiah offers several prophetic glimpses of the coming Messiah.

The Apostle John called attention to verse 1: “But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn’t believe in him, that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, ‘Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?’”—John 12:37-38

The Apostle Paul also referred to this verse in his letter to the church at Rome: “But they didn’t all listen to the glad news. For Isaiah says, ‘Lord, who has believed our report?’”—Romans 10:16 and acquainted with disease.

† 53:3 The Messiah was rejected by men, as Isaiah foretold here.

He was despised as one from whom men hide their face;
and we didn’t respect him.

4 Surely he has borne our sickness,‡ and carried our suffering;

yet we considered him plagued,
struck by God, and afflicted.

5 But he was pierced for our transgressions.§

He was crushed for our iniquities.

The punishment that brought our peace was on him;

and by his wounds we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray.

Everyone has turned to his own way;
and Jehovah has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed,
yet when he was afflicted he didn’t open his mouth.

As a lamb that is led to the slaughter,

and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent,
so he didn’t open his mouth.

8 He was taken away by oppression and judgment;

and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of my people?

9 They made his grave†† with the wicked,
and with a rich man in his death;

although he had done no violence,
nor was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased Jehovah to bruise him.

He has caused him to suffer.

‡ 54:4 When Jesus healed people who were brought to him, Matthew wrote “that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: ‘He took our infirmities, and bore our diseases.’”—Matthew 8:17

§ 53:5 The Apostle Peter wrote that Jesus “bore our sins in his body on the tree.”—1 Peter 2:24

 53:7 A first century Ethiopian eunuch read aloud Isaiah 53:7-8, and then asked the disciple Philip to explain the passage. “The eunuch answered Philip, ‘Who is the prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone else?’ Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him Jesus.”—Acts 8:34-35

†† 53:9 This was fulfilled when Jesus was buried in a rich man’s grave: “a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus’ disciple came. This man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus’ body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb.”—Matthew 27:57-60

When you make his soul an offering for sin,* he will see his offspring.

He will prolong his days,
and Jehovah's pleasure will prosper in his hand.

11 After the suffering of his soul,
he will see the light, and be satisfied.
My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of himself;
and he will bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I give him a portion with the great,

and he will divide the plunder with the strong;
because he poured out his soul to death,
and was numbered with the transgressors†;

yet he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

CHAPTER FIFTY-FOUR

1 "Sing, barren, you who didn't give birth;
break out into singing, and cry aloud, you who did not travail with child:

for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife," says Jehovah.

2 "Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch out the curtains of your habitations;

don't spare: lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes.

3 For you will spread out on the right hand and on the left;

and your offspring will possess the nations,
and settle in desolate cities.

4 "Don't be afraid; for you will not be ashamed.
Don't be confounded; for you will not be disappointed.

For you will forget the shame of your youth;
and the reproach of your widowhood you shall remember no more.

5 For your Maker is your husband; Jehovah of Armies is his name.

The Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer.
He will be called the God of the whole earth.

6 For Jehovah has called you as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off," says your God.

7 "For a small moment have I forsaken you;
but with great mercies will I gather you.

8 In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment;

but with everlasting loving kindness I will have mercy on you," says Jehovah your Redeemer.

9 "For this is like the waters of Noah to me;
for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah will no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you.

10 For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed;
but my loving kindness will not depart from you,
and my covenant of peace will not be removed,"

says Jehovah who has mercy on you.

11 "You afflicted, tossed with storms, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in beautiful colors,

and lay your foundations with sapphires.

12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of sparkling jewels,
and all your walls of precious stones.

13 All your children will be taught by Jehovah;
and your children's peace will be great.

14 In righteousness you will be established.

You will be far from oppression,
for you will not be afraid;
and far from terror,

for it shall not come near you.

15 Behold, they may gather together, but not by me.

Whoever gathers together against you will fall because of you.

16 "Behold, I have created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame, and forges a weapon for his work;
and I have created the destroyer to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against you will prevail;

and you will condemn every tongue that rises against you in judgment.

This is the heritage of Jehovah's servants,
and their righteousness is of me," says Jehovah.

CHAPTER FIFTY-FIVE

1 "Come, everyone who thirsts, to the waters!
Come, he who has no money, buy, and eat!

Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which doesn't satisfy?

Listen diligently to me, and eat that which is good,

and let your soul delight itself in richness.

3 Turn your ear, and come to me.

Hear, and your soul will live:

and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.

5 Behold, you shall call a nation that you don't know;

and a nation that didn't know you shall run to you,

because of Jehovah your God,
and for the Holy One of Israel;
for he has glorified you."

6 Seek Jehovah while he may be found.

Call on him while he is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way,
and the unrighteous man his thoughts.

Let him return to Jehovah, and he will have mercy on him;

* 53:10 "God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin" and "God declared an end to sin's control over us by giving his Son as a sacrifice for our sins."—Romans 3:25; 8:3 NLT

† 53:12 When Jesus was about to be arrested as a criminal, he told his disciples, "I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'He was counted with transgressors.'"—Luke 22:37 and to our God, for he will freely pardon.

8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways," says Jehovah.
9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky,
and doesn't return there, but waters the earth,
and makes it grow and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

11 so is my word that goes out of my mouth:
it will not return to me void,
but it will accomplish that which I please,
and it will prosper in the thing I sent it to do.

12 For you shall go out with joy, and be led out with peace.

The mountains and the hills will break out before you into singing;
and all the trees of the fields will clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn the cypress tree will come up;
and instead of the brier the myrtle tree will
come up:
and it will make a name for Jehovah,
for an everlasting sign that will not be cut off."

CHAPTER FIFTY-SIX

1 Jehovah says,
"Maintain justice,
and do what is right;
for my salvation is near,
and my righteousness will soon be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man who does this,
and the son of man who holds it fast;
who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it,
and keeps his hand from doing any evil."

3 Let no foreigner, who has joined himself to Jehovah, speak, saying,
"Jehovah will surely separate me from his people."

Do not let the eunuch say, "Behold, I am a dry
tree."

4 For Jehovah says, "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths,
and choose the things that please me,
and hold fast to my covenant:

5 I will give them in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters.

I will give them an everlasting name, that will not be cut off.

6 Also the foreigners who join themselves to Jehovah,
to serve him,
and to love Jehovah's name,
to be his servants,
everyone who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it,
and holds fast my covenant;

7 I will bring these to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer.

Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar;
for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

8 The Lord Jehovah, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says,

"I will yet gather others to him, besides his own who are gathered."

9 All you animals of the field,
come to devour,
all you animals in the forest.
10 His watchmen are blind.
They are all without knowledge.
They are all mute dogs.
They can't bark;
dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yes, the dogs are greedy.
They can never have enough.
They are shepherds who can't understand.
They have all turned to their own way,
each one to his gain, from every quarter.
12 "Come," say they, "I will get wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink;
and tomorrow will be as today,
great beyond measure."

CHAPTER FIFTY-SEVEN

1 The righteous perish,
and no one lays it to heart.
Merciful men are taken away, and no one considers that the righteous is taken away from the evil.

2 He enters into peace.
They rest in their beds,
each one who walks in his uprightness.
3 "But draw near here, you sons of a sorceress, you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes.

4 Whom do you mock?
Against whom do you make a wide mouth,
and stick out your tongue?
Aren't you children of disobedience,
and offspring of falsehood,

5 you who inflame yourselves among the oaks,
under every green tree;
who kill the children in the valleys,
under the clefts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion;
they, they are your lot.

You have even poured a drink offering to them.
You have offered an offering.

Shall I be appeased for these things?
7 On a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed.

You also went up there to offer sacrifice.

8 You have set up your memorial behind the doors and the posts;
for you have exposed yourself to someone besides me,

and have gone up;
you have enlarged your bed,
and made you a covenant with them.
You loved what you saw on their bed.

9 You went to the king with oil,
and increased your perfumes,
and sent your ambassadors far off,
and degraded yourself even to Sheol.

10 You were wearied with the length of your
ways;

yet you didn't say, 'It is in vain.'

You found a reviving of your strength;
therefore you weren't faint.

11 "Whom have you dreaded and feared,
so that you lie,
and have not remembered me, nor laid it to your heart?"

Haven't I held my peace for a long time,
and you don't fear me?
12 I will declare your righteousness;
and as for your works, they will not benefit
you.

13 When you cry,
let those whom you have gathered deliver you;
but the wind will take them.

A breath will carry them all away;
but he who takes refuge in me will possess the
land,
and will inherit my holy mountain."

14 He will say, "Build up, build up, prepare the way!

Remove the stumbling-block out of the way of my people."

15 For thus says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:

"I dwell in the high and holy place, with him
also who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble,
and to revive the heart of the contrite.

16 For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always angry;
for the spirit would faint before me,
and the souls whom I have made.

17 I was angry because of the iniquity of his covetousness, and struck him;
I hid myself and was angry;
and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him:
I will lead him also,
and restore comforts to him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips:
Peace, peace, to him who is far off and to him who is near,"

says Jehovah; "and I will heal them."
20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea;
for it can't rest, and its waters cast up mire and mud.

21 "There is no peace," says my God,
"for the wicked."

CHAPTER FIFTY-EIGHT

1 "Cry aloud, don't spare.
Lift up your voice like a trumpet.
Declare to my people their disobedience,
and to the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily,
and delight to know my ways.
As a nation that did righteousness,
and didn't forsake the ordinance of their God,
they ask of me righteous judgments.
They delight to draw near to God.

3 'Why have we fasted,' say they, 'and you don't see?

Why have we afflicted our soul, and you don't notice?"

"Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure,
and oppress all your laborers.

4 Behold, you fast for strife and contention,
and to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You don't fast today so as to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is this the fast that I have chosen?

A day for a man to humble his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself?

Will you call this a fast,
and an acceptable day to Jehovah?

6 "Isn't this the fast that I have chosen:
to release the bonds of wickedness,
to undo the straps of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and that you break every yoke?"

7 Isn't it to distribute your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house?

When you see the naked,
that you cover him;
and that you not hide yourself from your own flesh?

8 Then your light will break out as the
morning,
and your healing will appear quickly;
then your righteousness shall go before you;
and Jehovah's glory will be your rear guard.

9 Then you will call, and Jehovah will answer;
you will cry for help, and he will say, 'Here I am.'

"If you take away from among you the yoke, finger pointing,
and speaking wickedly;

10 and if you pour out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul:

then your light will rise in darkness,
and your obscurity will be as the noonday;

11 and Jehovah will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in dry places,

and make your bones strong;
and you shall be like a watered garden,
and like a spring of water,
whose waters don't fail.

12 Those who shall be of you shall build the old waste places;

you shall raise up the foundations of many
generations;

and you shall be called Repairer of the Breach, Restorer of Paths with Dwellings.

13 "If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath,

from doing your pleasure on my holy day;
and call the Sabbath a delight, and the holy of Jehovah honorable;

and shall honor it,

not doing your own ways,
nor finding your own pleasure,
nor speaking your own words:

14 then you shall delight yourself in Jehovah;
and I will make you to ride on the high places

of the earth;

and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father:"

for Jehovah's mouth has spoken it.

CHAPTER FIFTY-NINE

1 Behold, Jehovah's hand is not shortened, that it can't save;

nor his ear dull, that it can't hear.

2 But your iniquities have separated you and your God,

and your sins have hidden his face from you,
so that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity.
Your lips have spoken lies.
Your tongue mutters wickedness.
4 No one sues in righteousness, and no one pleads in truth.
They trust in vanity,
and speak lies.
They conceive mischief,
and give birth to iniquity.
5 They hatch adders' eggs,
and weave the spider's web.
He who eats of their eggs dies;
and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper.
6 Their webs won't become garments.
They won't cover themselves with their works.
Their works are works of iniquity,
and acts of violence are in their hands.
7 Their feet run to evil,
and they hurry to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity.
Desolation and destruction are in their paths.
8 They don't know the way of peace;
and there is no justice in their ways.
They have made crooked paths for themselves;
whoever goes in them doesn't know peace.
9 Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness doesn't overtake us.
We look for light, but see darkness;
for brightness, but we walk in obscurity.
10 We grope for the wall like the blind.
Yes, we grope as those who have no eyes.
We stumble at noon as if it were twilight.
Among those who are strong, we are like dead
men.
11 We all roar like bears,
and moan bitterly like doves.
We look for justice, but there is none;
for salvation, but it is far off from us.
12 For our transgressions are multiplied before
you,
and our sins testify against us;
for our transgressions are with us,
and as for our iniquities, we know them:
13 transgressing and denying Jehovah, and turning away from following our God,
speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
14 Justice is turned away backward,
and righteousness stands far away;
for truth has fallen in the street,
and uprightness can't enter.
15 Yes, truth is lacking;
and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.
Jehovah saw it,
and it displeased him that there was no justice.
16 He saw that there was no man,
and wondered that there was no intercessor.
Therefore his own arm brought salvation to
him;
and his righteousness sustained him.
17 He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head.
He put on garments of vengeance for clothing,
and was clad with zeal as a mantle.

18 According to their deeds,
he will repay as appropriate,
wrath to his adversaries,
recompense to his enemies;
he will repay the islands their due.
19 So shall they fear Jehovah's name from the west,
and his glory from the rising of the sun;
for he will come as a rushing stream,
which Jehovah's breath drives.
20 "A Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from disobedience in Jacob," says Jehovah.
21 "As for me, this is my covenant with them," says Jehovah. "My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your offspring, nor out of the mouth of your offspring's offspring," says Jehovah, "from henceforth and forever."

CHAPTER SIXTY

1 "Arise, shine; for your light has come,
and Jehovah's glory has risen on you.
2 For, behold, darkness will cover the earth,
and thick darkness the peoples;
but Jehovah will arise on you,
and his glory shall be seen on
you.
3 Nations* will come to your light,

and kings to the brightness of your rising.
4 "Lift up your eyes all around, and see:
they all gather themselves together.
They come to you.
Your sons will come from far away,
and your daughters will be carried in arms.
5 Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart will thrill and be enlarged;
because the abundance of the sea will be turned to you.
The wealth of the nations will come to you.
6 A multitude of camels will cover you,
the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah.
All from Sheba will come.
They will bring gold and frankincense,
and will proclaim the praises of Jehovah.
7 All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you.
The rams of Nebaioth will serve you.
They will be accepted as offerings on my altar;
and I will beautify my glorious house.
8 "Who are these who fly as a cloud,
and as the doves to their windows?
9 Surely the islands will wait for me,
and the ships of Tarshish first,

* 60:2 At the time when Isaiah penned these words, the nations around the world were all pagan, in darkness—ignorant of the God of the Bible, and lacking the light that God's written Word gives to show us how we ought to live. But the verses of this chapter go on to foretell a time when the nations would come to know God and to honor him. This was accomplished by the coming of the promised Messiah, Jesus Christ, and the subsequent proclamation of the Good News or Gospel of Christ worldwide.

to bring your sons from far,
 their silver and their gold with them,
 for the name of Jehovah your God,
 and for the Holy One of Israel,
 because he has glorified you.

10 "Foreigners will build up your walls, and their kings will serve you:
 for in my wrath I struck you,
 but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

11 Your gates also shall be open continually;
 they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive.

12 For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 "The glory of Lebanon shall come to you,
 the cypress tree, the pine, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary;
 and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you;
 and all those who despised you will bow themselves down at the soles of your feet.

They will call you Jehovah's City,
 The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 "Whereas you have been forsaken and hated,

so that no one passed through you,
 I will make you an eternal excellency,
 a joy of many generations.

16 You will also drink the milk of the nations,
 and will nurse from royal breasts.

Then you will know that I, Jehovah, am your Savior,

your Redeemer,
 the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold;
 for iron I will bring silver;

for wood, brass,
 and for stones, iron.

I will also make peace your governor,
 and righteousness your ruler.

18 Righteousness shall no more be heard in your
 land,

nor desolation or destruction within your borders;

but you will call your walls Salvation,
 and your gates Praise.

19 The sun will be no more your light by day;
 nor will the brightness of the moon give light
 to you,

but Jehovah will be your everlasting light,
 and your God will be your glory.

20 Your sun will not go down any more,
 nor will your moon withdraw itself;
 for Jehovah will be your everlasting light,
 and the days of your mourning will end.

21 Then your people will all be righteous.
 They will inherit the land forever,

the branch of my planting,
 the work of my hands,
 that I may be glorified.

22 The little one will become a thousand,
 and the small one a strong nation.

I, Jehovah, will do this quickly in its time."

CHAPTER SIXTY-ONE

1 The Lord Jehovah's Spirit is on me*;

because Jehovah has anointed me to preach good news to the humble.

He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted,

to proclaim liberty to the captives,

and release to those who are bound;

2 to proclaim the year of Jehovah's favor,

and the day of vengeance of our God;
 to comfort all who mourn;

3 to provide for those who mourn in Zion,
 to give to them a garland for ashes,

the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;

that they may be called trees of righteousness,
 the planting of Jehovah,
 that he may be glorified.

4 They will rebuild the old ruins.

They will raise up the places long devastated.

They will repair the ruined cities,

that have been devastated for many generations.†

5 Strangers will stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners will work your fields and your vineyards.

6 But you will be called Jehovah's priests.
 Men will call you the servants of our God.

You will eat the wealth of the nations,
 and you will boast in their glory.

7 Instead of your shame you will have double.
 Instead of dishonor, they will rejoice in their portion.

Therefore in their land, they will possess double.

Everlasting joy will be to them.

8 "For I, Jehovah, love justice.

I hate robbery and iniquity.

I will give them their reward in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with
 them.

* 61:1-2 Jesus opened the book of Isaiah and read this passage in a Jewish synagogue, and then said, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."—Luke 4:17-21

† 61:4 The Commentary on the Bible by Adam Clarke, published in 1831, noted that "these words cannot refer to the Jews in the Babylonish captivity, for they were not there many generations"—just seventy years—and added that therefore "this may be a promise of the restoration of the Jewish people." That restoration of the nation of Israel in 1948 did come after "many generations."

9 Their descendants will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will acknowledge them,
that they are the offspring which Jehovah has blessed."

10 I will greatly rejoice in Jehovah!
My soul will be joyful in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation.

He has covered me with the robe of righteousness,

as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth produces its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring up;

so the Lord Jehovah will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

CHAPTER SIXTY-TWO

1 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her righteousness shines out like the dawn,

and her salvation like a burning lamp.

2 The nations will see your righteousness,
and all kings your glory,
and you will be called by a new name,
which Jehovah's mouth will name.

3 You will also be a crown of beauty in Jehovah's hand, and a royal diadem in your God's hand.

4 You will not be called Forsaken any more;
nor will your land be called Desolate any more:
but you will be called Hephzibah,
and your land Beulah;

for Jehovah delights in you,
and your land will be married.

5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
so your sons will marry you.

As a bridegroom rejoices over his bride,
so your God will rejoice over you.

6 I have set watchmen on your walls,
Jerusalem.

They will never be silent day nor night.

You who call on Jehovah, take no rest,
7 and give him no rest, until he establishes,
and until he makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

8 Jehovah has sworn by his right hand,
and by the arm of his strength,

"Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies;
and foreigners will not drink your new wine,
for which you have labored;

9 but those who have harvested it will eat it,
and praise Jehovah;

and those who have gathered it will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary."

10 Go through, go through the gates!

Prepare the way of the people!

Build up, build up the highway!

Gather out the stones!

Lift up a banner for the peoples.

11 Behold, Jehovah has proclaimed to the end of the earth,

"Say to the daughter of Zion,

'Behold, your salvation comes.

Behold, his reward is with him,

and his recompense before him."

12 They will call them The holy people,
Jehovah's redeemed.

You will be called Sought out,

A city not forsaken.

CHAPTER SIXTY-THREE

1 Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah?

Who this who is glorious in his clothing, marching in the greatness of his strength?

"It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

2 Why is your clothing red,
and your garments like him who treads in the wine vat?

3 "I have trodden the wine press alone;
and of the peoples, no one was with me:

Yes, I trod them in my anger,
and trampled them in my wrath.

Their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments,
and I have stained all my clothing.

4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed has come.

5 I looked, and there was no one to help;
and I wondered that there was no one to uphold:

therefore my own arm brought salvation to me;
and my own wrath upheld me.

6 I trod down the peoples in my anger,
and made them drunk in my wrath,
and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth."

7 I will tell of the loving kindnesses of Jehovah and the praises of Jehovah,
according to all that Jehovah has given to us,
and the great goodness toward the house of Israel,

which he has given to them according to his mercies,
and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

8 For he said, "Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely;"
so he became their Savior.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted,
and the angel of his presence saved them.
In his love and in his pity he redeemed them.

He bore them,
and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and grieved his Holy Spirit.

Therefore he turned and became their enemy,
and he himself fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old,
Moses and his people, saying,
"Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?

Where is he who put his Holy Spirit among them?"

12 Who caused his glorious arm to be at Moses' right hand?

Who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 Who led them through the depths, like a horse in the wilderness,
so that they didn't stumble?

14 As the livestock that go down into the valley,

Jehovah's Spirit caused them to rest.

So you led your people, to make yourself a glorious name.

15 Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory.

Where are your zeal and your mighty acts?
The yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me.

16 For you are our Father, though Abraham doesn't know us,
and Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, Jehovah, are our Father.

Our Redeemer from everlasting is your name.
17 O Jehovah, why do you make us wander from your ways,

and harden our heart from your fear?
Return for your servants' sake,
the tribes of your inheritance.

18 Your holy people possessed it but a little while.

Our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary.

19 We have become like those over whom you never ruled,
like those who were not called by your name.

CHAPTER SIXTY-FOUR

1 Oh that you would tear the heavens, that you would come down,
that the mountains might quake at your presence.

2 As when fire kindles the brushwood, and the fire causes the water to boil;
make your name known to your adversaries,
that the nations may tremble at your presence!

3 When you did awesome things which we didn't look for,
you came down, and the mountains quaked at your presence.

4 For from of old men have not heard,
nor perceived by the ear,
nor has the eye seen a God besides you,
who works for him who waits for him.

5 You meet him who rejoices and does
righteousness,
those who remember you in your ways.
Behold, you were angry, and we sinned.
We have been in sin for a long time.
Shall we be saved?

6 For we have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteousness is like a polluted garment.

We all fade like a leaf;
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

7 There is no one who calls on your name, who stirs himself up to take hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us,
and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.

8 But now, Jehovah, you are our Father.
We are the clay, and you our potter.
We all are the work of your hand.

9 Don't be furious, Jehovah, and don't remember iniquity forever.
Look and see, we beg you,
we are all your people.

10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness.
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised you,
is burned with fire;
and all our pleasant places are laid waste.

12 Will you hold yourself back for these things,
Jehovah?

Will you keep silent, and punish us very severely?

CHAPTER SIXTY-FIVE

1 "I am inquired of by those who didn't ask.
I am found by those who didn't seek me.
I said, 'See me, see me,' to a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all day to a rebellious people,
who walk in a way that is not good,
after their own thoughts;

3 a people who provoke me to my face
continually,

sacrificing in gardens,
and burning incense on bricks;
4 who sit among the graves,
and spend nights in secret places;
who eat pig's flesh,
and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 who say, 'Stay by yourself,
don't come near to me,
for I am holier than you.'
These are smoke in my nose,
a fire that burns all day.

6 "Behold, it is written before me:
I will not keep silence,
but will repay,
yes, I will repay into their bosom, 7 your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together," says Jehovah,
"who have burned incense on the mountains,
and blasphemed me on the hills.

Therefore I will first measure their work into their bosom."

8 Jehovah says,
"As the new wine is found in the cluster,
and one says, 'Don't destroy it, for a blessing is
in it:'

so will I do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all.
9 I will bring offspring out of Jacob,
and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains.
My chosen will inherit it,
and my servants will dwell there.

10 Sharon will be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in,

for my people who have sought me.

11 "But you who forsake Jehovah, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune,
and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny;

12 I will destine you to the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter;
because when I called, you didn't answer.
When I spoke, you didn't listen;
but you did that which was evil in my eyes,
and chose that in which I didn't delight."

13 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah,
"Behold, my servants will eat,
but you will be hungry;

behold, my servants will drink,
 but you will be thirsty.
 Behold, my servants will rejoice,
 but you will be disappointed.
 14 Behold, my servants will sing for joy of heart,
 but you will cry for sorrow of heart,
 and will wail for anguish of spirit.
 15 You will leave your name for a curse to my chosen;
 and the Lord Jehovah will kill you.
 He will call his servants by another name, 16 so that he who blesses himself in the earth will bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of truth;
 because the former troubles are forgotten,
 and because they are hidden from my eyes.
 17 "For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth;
 and the former things will not be remembered,
 nor come into mind.
 18 But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create;
 for, behold, I create Jerusalem to be a delight,
 and her people a joy.
 19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
 and delight in my people;
 and the voice of weeping and the voice of crying
 will be heard in her no more.
 20 "No more will there be an infant who only lives a few days,
 nor an old man who has not filled his days;
 for the child will die one hundred years old,
 and the sinner being one hundred years old will be accursed.
 21 They will build houses, and inhabit them.
 They will plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.
 22 They will not build, and another inhabit.
 They will not plant, and another eat:
 for the days of my people will be like the days
 of a tree,
 and my chosen will long enjoy the work of their hands.
 23 They will not labor in vain,
 nor give birth for calamity;
 for they are the offspring of Jehovah's blessed,
 and their descendants with them.
 24 It will happen that, before they call, I will answer;
 and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.
 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together,
 and the lion will eat straw like the ox.
 Dust will be the serpent's food.
 They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain,"
 says Jehovah.

CHAPTER SIXTY-SIX

1 Jehovah says,
 "Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool.
 What kind of house will you build to me?
 Where will I rest?
 2 For my hand has made all these things, and so all these things came to be," says
 Jehovah:
 "but to this man will I look,
 even to him who is poor and of a contrite

spirit,
 and who trembles at my word.
 3 He who kills an ox is as he who kills a man;
 he who sacrifices a lamb, as he who breaks a dog's neck;
 he who offers an offering, as he who offers pig's blood;
 he who burns frankincense, as he who blesses an idol.

Yes, they have chosen their own ways,
 and their soul delights in their abominations:
 4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears on them;
 because when I called, no one answered;
 when I spoke, they didn't listen;
 but they did that which was evil in my eyes,
 and chose that in which I didn't delight."
 5 Hear Jehovah's word,
 you who tremble at his word:
 "Your brothers who hate you,
 who cast you out for my name's sake, have said,
 'Let Jehovah be glorified, that we may see your joy;'
 but it is those who shall be disappointed.
 6 A voice of tumult from the city,
 a voice from the temple,
 a voice of Jehovah that repays his enemies
 what they deserve.

7 "Before she travailed, she gave birth.
 Before her pain came, she delivered a son.

8 Who has heard of such a thing?

Who has seen such things?

Shall a land be born in one day?

Shall a nation* be born at once?

For as soon as Zion travailed,
 she gave birth to her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to be delivered?" says Jehovah.

"Shall I who cause to give birth shut the womb?" says your God.

10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her,
 all you who love her.

Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn over her;

11 that you may nurse and be satisfied at the comforting breasts;
 that you may drink deeply,
 and be delighted with the abundance of her glory."

12 For Jehovah says, "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream;

and you will nurse.

You will be carried on her side,
 and will be dandled on her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforts,
 so will I comfort you.

* 66:8 The modern nation of Israel was born in one day on May 14, 1948, when David Ben-Gurion, the Executive Head of the World Zionist Organization, publicly read in Tel Aviv the Declaration of the Establishment of the State of Israel.

You will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

14 You will see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones will flourish like the tender grass.

Jehovah's hand will be known among his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies.

15 For, behold, Jehovah will come with fire, and his chariots will be like the whirlwind;

to render his anger with fierceness,

and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For Jehovah will execute judgment by fire and by his sword on all flesh;*

and those slain by Jehovah will be many.

17 “Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating pig's flesh, abominable things, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together,” says Jehovah.

18 “For I know their works and their thoughts. The time comes that I will gather all nations and languages, and they will come, and will see my glory.

19 “I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape of them to the nations,† to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to far-away islands, who have not heard my fame, nor have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. 20 They shall bring all your brothers out of all the nations for an offering to Jehovah, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem”‡, says Jehovah, “as the children of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into

* 66:14-16 The prophet Isaiah here uses powerful language to describe the coming battle when God will wage war from heaven against humans who make themselves his enemies.

† 66:19 Jesus commanded his followers to “Go, and make disciples of all nations.” (Matt. 28:19) And, as Isaiah prophesied here, they have declared among the nations of the earth the glory of the God of Abraham.

‡ 66:20 Jews from all the nations have returned to Jerusalem since its capture during the Six Day War of 1967.

Jehovah's house. 21 Of them I will also select priests and Levites,” says Jehovah.

22 “For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me,” says Jehovah, “so your offspring and your name shall remain. 23 It shall happen that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all fleshs will come to worship before me,” says Jehovah. 24 “They will go out, and look at the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me; for their worm will not die, nor will their fire be quenched, and they will be loathsome to all mankind.”

§ 66:23-24 Isaiah speaks of the time when “all flesh will come to worship” the true God. Today there are people of all nationalities around the world who have left their ancestral gods to worship the God of the Bible. But Isaiah appears to be speaking here of a time yet future when the righteous and the wicked will have received their eternal rewards.

Jesus used Isaiah's language when he said, “If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire, ‘where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.’ . . . If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into God's Kingdom with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire, ‘where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.’”—Mark 9:43-48

JEREMIAH

CHAPTER ONE

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. 2 Jehovah's word came to him in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. 4 Now Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

5 "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.

Before you were born, I sanctified you.

I have appointed you a prophet to the nations."

6 Then I said, "Ah, Lord Jehovah! Behold, I don't know how to speak; for I am a child."

7 But Jehovah said to me, "Don't say, 'I am a child;' for you must go to whomever I send you, and you must say whatever I command you. 8 Don't be afraid because of them, for I am with you to rescue you," says Jehovah.

9 Then Jehovah stretched out his hand, and touched my mouth. Then Jehovah said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth. 10 Behold, I have today set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

11 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

12 Then Jehovah said to me, "You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it."

13 Jehovah's word came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a boiling cauldron; and it is tipping away from the north."

14 Then Jehovah said to me, "Out of the north, evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. 15 For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says Jehovah.

"They will come, and they will each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 I will utter my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

17 "You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and say to them all that I command you. Don't be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. 18 For, behold, I have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. 19 They will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you," says Jehovah, "to rescue you."

CHAPTER TWO

1 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Go,

and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'Jehovah says,

"I remember for you the kindness of your youth,

the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness to Jehovah, the first fruits of his increase.

All who devour him shall be held guilty. Evil shall come on them,'" says Jehovah."

4 Hear Jehovah's word, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel! 5 Jehovah says,

"What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after worthless vanity, and have become worthless?

6 They didn't say, 'Where is Jehovah who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that no one passed through, and where no man lived?'

7 I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.

8 The priests didn't say, 'Where is Jehovah?' and those who handle the law didn't know me.

The rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and followed things that do not profit.

9 "Therefore I will yet contend with you," says Jehovah,

"and I will contend with your children's children.

10 For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see;

and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing.

11 Has a nation changed its gods, which really are no gods?

But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.

12 "Be astonished, you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid.

Be very desolate," says Jehovah.

13 "For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a slave?

Is he born into slavery?

Why has he become a captive?

15 The young lions have roared at him, and yelled.

They have made his land waste.

His cities are burned up, without inhabitant.

16 The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

17 "Haven't you brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken Jehovah your God, when he led you by the way?"

18 Now what do you gain by going to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor?

Or why do you go on the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?

19 "Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backsliding will rebuke you.

Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing, that you have forsaken Jehovah your God, and that my fear is not in you," says the Lord, Jehovah of Armies.

20 "For long ago I broke off your yoke, and burst your bonds.

You said, 'I will not serve;' for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself, playing the prostitute.

21 Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a pure and faithful seed.

How then have you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me?

22 For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me," says the Lord Jehovah.

23 "How can you say, 'I am not defiled. I have not gone after the Baals'?"

See your way in the valley. Know what you have done.

You are a swift dromedary traversing her ways; 24 a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that sniffs the wind in her craving.

When she is in heat, who can turn her away?

All those who seek her will not weary themselves. In her month, they will find her.

25 "Keep your feet from being bare, and your throat from thirst.

But you said, 'It is in vain. No, for I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.' 26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed;

they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets;

27 who tell wood, 'You are my father;' and a stone, 'You have given birth to me:'

for they have turned their back to me, and not their face;

but in the time of their trouble they will say, 'Arise, and save us.'

28 "But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?"

Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble:

for you have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah.

29 "Why will you contend with me?"

You all have transgressed against me," says Jehovah.

30 "I have struck your children in vain.

They received no correction.

Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 Generation, consider Jehovah's word. Have I been a wilderness to Israel?

Or a land of thick darkness?

Why do my people say, 'We have broken loose. We will come to you no more'?"

32 "Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire?"

Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number.

33 How well you prepare your way to seek love! Therefore you have even taught the wicked women your ways.

34 Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts.

You did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things.

35 "Yet you said, 'I am innocent.

Surely his anger has turned away from me.'

"Behold, I will judge you, because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

36 Why do you go about so much to change your ways?"

You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria.

37 You will also leave that place with your hands on your head;

for Jehovah has rejected those in whom you trust, and you won't prosper with them.

CHAPTER THREE

1 "They say, 'If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and becomes another man's, should he return to her again?' Wouldn't that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me," says Jehovah.

2 "Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? You have sat waiting for them by the road, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness. 3 Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a prostitute's forehead. You refused to be ashamed. 4 Will you not from this time cry to me, 'My Father, you are the guide of my youth'?"

5 "'Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?' Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way."

6 Moreover, Jehovah said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and has played the prostitute there. 7 I said after she had done all these things, 'She will return to me;' but she didn't return; and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. 8 I saw when, for this very cause, that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, had no fear; but she also went and played the prostitute. 9 Because she took her prostitution lightly, the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with wood. 10 Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense," says Jehovah.

11 Jehovah said to me, "Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. 12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, 'Return, you backsliding Israel,' says Jehovah; 'I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,' says Jehovah. 'I will not keep anger forever. 13 Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against Jehovah your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice,' says Jehovah." 14 "Return, backsliding children," says Jehovah; "for I am a husband to you. I will take one of you from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. 15 I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding. 16 It will come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days," says Jehovah, "they will no longer say, 'the ark of Jehovah's covenant!' It will not come to mind. They won't remember it. They won't miss it, nor will another be made. 17 At that time they will call Jerusalem 'Jehovah's Throne;' and all the nations will be gathered to it, to Jehovah's name, to Jerusalem. They will no longer walk after the stubbornness of their evil heart. 18 In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land† that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.

19 "But I said, 'How I desire to put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations!' and I said, 'You shall call me "My Father," and shall not turn away from following me.‡

20 "Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel," says Jehovah. 21 A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten Jehovah their God. 22 Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your backsliding.

"Behold, we have come to you; for you are Jehovah our God. 23 Truly in vain is help from the hills, the tumult on the mountains. Truly the salvation of Israel is in Jehovah our God. 24 But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. 25 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against Jehovah our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed Jehovah our God's voice."

CHAPTER FOUR

1 "If you will return, Israel," says Jehovah, "if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you shall not be removed; 2 and you shall swear, 'As Jehovah lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory."

3 For Jehovah says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, "Break up your fallow ground, and don't sow among thorns. 4 Circumcise yourselves to Jehovah, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. 5 Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, 'Blow the trumpet in the land!' Cry aloud and say, 'Assemble yourselves! Let us go into the fortified cities!' 6 Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety! Don't wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction."

7 A lion has gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he has gone out from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. 8 For this clothe yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of Jehovah hasn't turned back from us. 9 "It shall happen at that day," says Jehovah, "that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder."

10 Then I said, "Ah, Lord Jehovah! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall have peace;' whereas the sword reaches to the heart."

11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; 12 a full wind from these shall come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them."

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! For we are ruined. 14 Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you? 15 For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: 16 "Tell the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, 'Watchers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah. 17 As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me,'" says Jehovah. 18 "Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart."

19 My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my

* 3:17 God's intention is for Jerusalem to become the center of true worship for the whole world. The New Testament, says:

"He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem . . . The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of the nations into it."—Revelation 21:10,-24

† 3:18 Long before Jeremiah's time, after the reign of King Solomon, the tribes of Israel were divided, with ten tribes forming the kingdom of Israel and the remaining tribes forming the kingdom of Judah.

Jeremiah speaks here of the time when all the Jews would live together again in the Promised Land, without such a division.

‡ 3:19 This began to find fulfillment when the early Jewish disciples of the crucified and resurrected and risen Messiah "received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, 'Abba! Father!'"—Romans 8:15

very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can't hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. 20 Destruction on destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste; suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment. 21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 "For my people are foolish, they don't know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but to do good they have no knowledge." 23 I saw the earth, and, behold, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. 24 I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. 25 I saw, and behold, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. 26 I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of Jehovah, before his fierce anger. 27 For Jehovah says, "The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. 28 For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it."

29 Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they go into the thickets, and climb up on the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein. 30 You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with makeup, you make yourself beautiful in vain. Your lovers despise you. They seek your life. 31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who gives birth to her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, "Woe is me now! For my soul faints before the murderers."

CHAPTER FIVE

1 "Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in its wide places, if you can find a man, if there are any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. 2 Though they say, 'As Jehovah lives;' surely they swear falsely."

3 O Jehovah, don't your eyes look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return.

4 Then I said, "Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they don't know the way of Jehovah, nor the law of their God. 5 I will go to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of Jehovah, and the law of their God." But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. 6 Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; everyone who goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding is increased.

7 "How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the prostitutes' houses. 8 They were as fed horses roaming at large: everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife. 9 Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says Jehovah; "and shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?*

10 "Go up on her walls, and destroy; but don't make a full end. Take away her branches; for they are not Jehovah's. 11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me," says Jehovah.

12 They have denied Jehovah, and said, "It is not he; neither shall evil come on us; neither shall we see sword nor famine. 13 The prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them."

14 Therefore Jehovah, the God of Armies says, "Because you speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. 15 Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far, house of Israel," says Jehovah. "It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know, neither understand what they say. 16 Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty men. 17 They shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds. They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.

18 "But even in those days," says Jehovah, "I will not make a full end with you. 19 It will happen, when you say, 'Why has Jehovah our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Just as you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'

20 "Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, 21 'Hear now this, foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and don't see; who have ears, and don't hear: 22 Don't you fear me?' says Jehovah 'Won't you tremble at my presence, who have

* 5:7-9 Through the prophet Jeremiah, God listed his complaints against the people of Jerusalem and Judah. They were worshipping false gods and practicing sexual immorality.

What about the leading nations of western Christendom today—the United States and European countries—aren't they doing the same? Haven't they abandoned the God of the Bible and opened the door to every sort of sexual immorality that the Bible condemns? As God said of ancient Judah in verse 9 above, "Shouldn't I punish them for these things?"

placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? and though its waves toss themselves, yet they can't prevail; though they roar, yet they can't pass over it.'

23 "But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. 24 Neither do they say in their heart, 'Let us now fear Jehovah our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.'

25 "Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. 26 For among my people are found wicked men. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap. They catch men. 27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich. 28 They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excel in deeds of wickedness. They don't plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they don't judge the right of the needy.

29 "Shall I not punish for these things?" says Jehovah. "Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?"

30 "An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land. 31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?"

CHAPTER SIX

1 "Flee for safety, you children of Benjamin, out of the middle of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem; for evil looks out from the north, and a great destruction. 2 I will cut off the comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion. 3 Shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her all around; they shall feed everyone in his place."

4 "Prepare war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. 5 Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces." 6 For Jehovah of Armies said, "Cut down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. 7 As a well produces its waters, so she produces her wickedness: violence and destruction are heard in her; before me continually are sickness and wounds. 8 Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, a land not inhabited."

9 Jehovah of Armies says, "They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Turn again your hand as a grape gatherer into the baskets."

10 To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can't listen. Behold, Jehovah's word has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. 11 Therefore I am full of Jehovah's wrath. I am weary with holding in.

"Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife shall be taken,

the aged with him who is full of days.

12 Their houses shall be turned to others, their fields and their wives together; for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land," says Jehovah.

13 "For from their least even to their greatest, everyone is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of my people superficially, saying, 'Peace, peace!' when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush.

Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I visit them, they shall be cast down," says Jehovah.

16 Jehovah says, "Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, 'Where is the good way?' and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not walk in it.' 17 I set watchmen over you, saying, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, 'We will not listen!' 18 Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them. 19 Hear, earth! Behold, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. 20 To what purpose does frankincense from Sheba come to me, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me."

21 Therefore Jehovah says, "Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend shall perish."

22 Jehovah says, "Behold, a people comes from the north country. A great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. 23 They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion."

24 We have heard its report; our hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. 25 Don't go out into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror, are on every side. 26 Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes! Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come on us.

27 "I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way. 28 They are all grievous rebels, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. 29 The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. 30 Men will call them rejected silver, because Jehovah has rejected them."

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from

Jehovah, saying, 2 "Stand in the gate of Jehovah's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, 'Hear Jehovah's word, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship Jehovah.'"

3 Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says, "Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. 4 Don't trust in lying words, saying, 'Jehovah's temple, Jehovah's temple, Jehovah's temple this is.' 5 For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; 6 if you don't oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: 7 then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forever more. 8 Behold, you trust in lying words, that can't profit. 9 Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, 10 and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, 'We are delivered;' that you may do all these abominations? 11 Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it," says Jehovah.

12 "But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. 13 Now, because you have done all these works," says Jehovah, "and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you didn't hear; and I called you, but you didn't answer: 14 therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. 15 I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole offspring of Ephraim.

16 "Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up a cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. 17 Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. 19 Do they provoke me to anger?" says Jehovah. "Don't they provoke themselves, to the shame of their own faces?"

20 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on man, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched."

21 Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat. 22 For I didn't speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: 23 but this thing I commanded them, saying, 'Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.' 24 But they didn't listen nor turn their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. 25 Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: 26 yet they didn't listen to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers.

27 "You shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you. 28 You shall tell them, 'This is the nation that has not listened to Jehovah their God's voice, nor received instruction. Truth has perished, and is cut off from their mouth.' 29 Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for Jehovah has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 "For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight," says Jehovah. "They have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. 31 They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I didn't command, nor did it come into my mind. 32 Therefore behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter; for they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. 33 The dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth; and no one shall frighten them away. 34 Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste."

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 "At that time," says Jehovah, "they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves; 2 and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the army of the sky, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung on the surface of the earth. 3 Death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them," says Jehovah of Armies. 4 "Moreover you shall tell them, 'Jehovah says:

"Shall men fall, and not rise up again?

Shall one turn away, and not return?

5 Why then have the people of Jerusalem fallen back by a perpetual backsliding?

They cling to deceit, they refuse to return.

6 I listened and heard, but they didn't say what is right.

No one repents of his wickedness, saying, 'What have I done?'

Everyone turns to his course,
as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle.
7 Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed
times;

and the turtledove, the swallow, and the crane observe the time of their coming;
but my people don't know Jehovah's law.

8 "How do you say, 'We are wise, and Jehovah's law is with us?'"

But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has worked falsely.

9 The wise men are disappointed.
They are dismayed and trapped.
Behold, they have rejected Jehovah's word.
What kind of wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give their wives to others, and their fields to those who shall possess
them.

For everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness;
from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely.

11 They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people superficially, saying,
'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No, they were not at all ashamed,
neither could they blush:
therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down," says Jehovah."

13 "I will utterly consume them," says Jehovah:
"no grapes shall be on the vine,
nor figs on the fig tree,
and the leaf shall fade;
and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them."

14 "Why do we sit still?
Assemble yourselves,
and let us enter into the fortified cities,
and let us be silent there;
for Jehovah our God has put us to silence,
and given us water of gall to drink,
because we have sinned against Jehovah.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came;
and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!

16 The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan:

at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones
the whole land trembles;

for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it;
the city and those who dwell therein."

17 "For, behold, I will send serpents, adders among you,
which will not be charmed;
and they shall bite you," says Jehovah.

18 Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow!

My heart is faint within me.
19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off:

"Isn't Jehovah in Zion?
Isn't her King in her?"

"Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign vanities?"

20 "The harvest is past,
the summer is ended,
and we are not saved."
21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people
am I hurt:

I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me.
22 Is there no balm in Gilead?
is there no physician here?
Why then isn't the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

CHAPTER NINE

1 Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! 2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. 3 "They bend their tongue, as their bow, for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they don't know me," says Jehovah. 4 "Take heed everyone of his neighbor, and don't trust in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. 5 They will deceive everyone his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. 6
Your habitation is in the middle of deceit;
through deceit they refuse to know me," says
Jehovah.

7 Therefore Jehovah of Armies says, "Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how should I deal with the daughter of my people? 8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he lays wait for him. 9 Shall I not visit them for these things?" says Jehovah; "shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
10 For the mountains I will take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that no one passes through;
neither can men hear the voice of the livestock;
both the birds of the sky and the animals are fled, they are gone. 11 I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of Jehovah has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

13 Jehovah says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein, 14 but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them;" 15 therefore Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says, "Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. 16 I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them."

17 Jehovah of Armies says, "Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come;
and send for the skillful women, that they may come: 18 and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. 19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, 'How are we ruined! We are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.'" 20 Yet hear Jehovah's word, you women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor lamentation. 21 For death has come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets.

22 "Speak," Jehovah says, "The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester; and no one shall gather them."

23 Jehovah says, "Don't let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, don't let the rich man glory in his riches; 24 but let him who glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am Jehovah who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight," says Jehovah.

25 "Behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised in uncircumcision: 26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

CHAPTER TEN

1 Hear the word which Jehovah speaks to you, house of Israel! 2 Jehovah says, "Don't learn the way of the nations, and don't be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them. 3 For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the ax. 4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it not move. 5 They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and don't speak: they must be carried, because they can't go. Don't be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good."

6 There is no one like you, Jehovah; you are great, and your name is great in might. 7 Who should not fear you, King of the nations? For it belongs to you; because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is no one like you. 8 But they are together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols! It is but a tree. 9 There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skillful men.

10 But Jehovah is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to withstand his indignation. 11 You shall say this to them: "The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens." 12 He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: 13 when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings the wind out of his treasures.

14 Every man has become brutish and without knowledge; every goldsmith is disappointed by his engraved image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. 15 They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. 16 The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: Jehovah of Armies is his name. 17 Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege. 18 For Jehovah says, "Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it."

19 Woe is me because of my hurt! My wound is grievous: but I said, "Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it." 20 My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children have gone away from me, and they are no more. There is no one to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. 21 For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of Jehovah: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. 22 The voice of news, behold, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals.

23 Jehovah, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. 24 Jehovah, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing. 25 Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, and on the families that don't call on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, 2 "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; 3 and say to them, 'Jehovah, the God of Israel says: "Cursed is the man who doesn't hear the words of this covenant, 4 which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, 'Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; 5 that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today.'"'" Then I answered, and said, "Amen, Jehovah."

6 Jehovah said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. 7 For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, "Obey my voice." 8 Yet they didn't obey, nor turn their ear, but walked everyone in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they didn't do them."

9 Jehovah said to me, "A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers." 11 Therefore Jehovah says, "Behold, I will bring evil on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not listen to them. 12 Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. 13 For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal. 14 Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble. 15 What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has worked lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from you? When you do evil, then you rejoice."

16 Jehovah called your name, a green olive tree, beautiful with good fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire on it, and its branches are broken. 17 For Jehovah of Armies, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have worked for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal.

18 Jehovah gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings. 19 But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I didn't know that they had devised devices against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered." 20 But, Jehovah of Armies, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore Jehovah says concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, "You shall not prophesy in Jehovah's name, that you not die by our hand;" 22 therefore Jehovah of Armies says, "Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; 23 and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation."

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 You are righteous, Jehovah, when I contend with you; yet I would reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are all they at ease who deal very treacherously?

2 You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they produce fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. 3 But you, Jehovah, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? For the wickedness of those who dwell therein, the animals are consumed, and the birds; because they said, "He shall not see our latter end."

5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? And though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the rising of the Jordan? 6 For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: don't believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you. 7 I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. 8 My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. 9 Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? Are the birds of prey against her all around? Go, assemble all the animals of the field, bring them to devour. 10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. 11 They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart."

12 Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of Jehovah devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace. 13 They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing; and you shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of Jehovah.

14 Jehovah says against all my evil neighbors, "who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. 15 It shall happen, after I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. 16 It shall happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'As Jehovah lives;' even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the middle of my people. 17 But if they will not hear, then I will pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it," says Jehovah.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Jehovah said to me, "Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and don't put it in water." 2 So I bought a belt according to Jehovah's word, and put it on my waist. 3 Jehovah's word came to me the second time, saying, 4 "Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock." 5 So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as Jehovah commanded me.

6 After many days, Jehovah said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there." 7 Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the belt was spoiled, it was profitable for nothing. 8 Then Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 9 "Jehovah says, 'In this way I will spoil the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. 10 This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing. 11 For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so have I caused to cling to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah,' says Jehovah; 'that they may be to me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.'

12 "Therefore you shall speak to them this word: 'Jehovah, the God of Israel says, "Every bottle shall be filled with wine:" and they shall tell you, 'Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?' 13 Then you shall tell them, 'Jehovah says, "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. 14 I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together," says Jehovah: "I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them."'" 15 Hear, and give ear; don't be proud; for Jehovah has spoken. 16 Give glory to Jehovah your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it gross darkness. 17 But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because Jehovah's flock is taken captive.

18 "Say to the king and to the queen mother, 'Humble yourselves, sit down; for your headdresses have come down, even the crown of your glory. 19 The cities of the South are shut up, and there is no one to open them: Judah is carried away captive, all of it; it is wholly carried away captive. 20 Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? 21 What will you say, when he shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? Shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail? 22 If you say in your heart, "Why are these things come on me?" For the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence.

23 "Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. 24 Therefore I will scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness. 25 This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me,' says Jehovah; 'because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. 26 Therefore I will also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame shall appear. 27 I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, Jerusalem! You will not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?'"

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 Jehovah's word that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. 2 Judah mourns, and its gates languish, they sit in black on the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. 3 Their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are disappointed and confounded, and cover their heads. 4 Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed, they cover their heads. 5 Yes, the hind also in the field calves, and forsakes her young, because there is no grass. 6 The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage.

7 Though our iniquities testify against us, act for your name's sake, Jehovah; for our rebellions are many; we have sinned against you. 8 You hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night? 9 Why should you be like a scared man, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, Jehovah, are in the middle of us, and we are called by your name; don't leave us.

10 Jehovah says to this people, "Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet:" therefore Jehovah does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Jehovah said to me, "Don't pray for this people for their good. 12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence." 13 Then I said, "Ah, Lord Jehovah! Behold, the prophets tell them, 'You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.'" 14 Then Jehovah said to me, "The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I didn't send them, neither have I commanded them, neither have I spoken to them: they prophesy to you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their own heart."

15 Therefore Jehovah says concerning the prophets "who prophesy in my name, and I didn't send them, yet they say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land.' By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. 16 The people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have no one to bury them—their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness on them."

17 "You shall say this word to them, 'Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. 18 If I go out into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! And if I enter into the city, then, behold, those who are sick with famine! For both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge.”

19 Have you utterly rejected Judah? Has your soul loathed Zion? Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!

20 We acknowledge, Jehovah, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you. 21 Do not abhor us, for your name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of your glory: remember, don't break your covenant with us. 22 Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? Or can the sky give showers? Aren't you he, Jehovah our God? Therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Then Jehovah said to me, “Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go out. 2 It shall happen, when they tell you, ‘Where shall we go out?’ Then you shall tell them, ‘Jehovah says: “Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity. 3 I will appoint over them four kinds,” says Jehovah: “the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy. 4 I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.””

5 “For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? Or who will bemoan you? Or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare? 6 You have rejected me,” says Jehovah, “you have gone backward: therefore I have stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting. 7 I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they didn't return from their ways. 8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly. 9 She who has borne seven languishes; she has given up the spirit; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she has been disappointed and confounded: and their residue I will deliver to the sword before their enemies,” says Jehovah.

10 Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; yet everyone of them curses me. 11 Jehovah said, “Most certainly I will strengthen you for good; most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.” 12 “Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and brass?

13 Your substance and your treasures I will give for plunder without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders. 14 I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you don't know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn on you.”

15 Jehovah, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; you are patient, so don't take me away. Know that for your sake I have suffered reproach. 16 Your words were found, and I ate them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, Jehovah, God of Armies. 17 I didn't sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation. 18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, like waters that fail?

19 Therefore Jehovah says, “If you return, then I will bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take out the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth: they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them. 20 I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says Jehovah. 21 I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.”

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 Jehovah's word came also to me, saying, 2 “You shall not take a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place.” 3 For Jehovah says concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land: 4 “They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth.”

5 For Jehovah says, “Don't enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people,” says Jehovah, “even loving kindness and tender mercies. 6 Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; 7 neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. 8 You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink.” 9 For Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: “Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.”

10 “It shall happen, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall tell you, ‘Why has Jehovah pronounced all this great evil against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against Jehovah our God?"

11 "Then you shall tell them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me,' says Jehovah, 'and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; 12 and you have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, you walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you don't listen to me: 13 therefore I will cast you out of this land into a land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.'"

14 "Therefore behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that it shall no more be said, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;' 15 but, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them.' I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers. 16 Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says Jehovah, "and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks."

17 "For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes. 18 First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations."

19 Jehovah, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations* come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, "Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit. 20 Shall a man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods?"

21 "Therefore behold, I will cause them to know, this once I will cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Jehovah."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 "The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars; 2 while their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles by the green trees on the high hills. 3 My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a plunder, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders. 4 You, even of yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in a land which you don't know: for you have kindled a fire in my anger which shall burn forever."

5 Jehovah says: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from Jehovah. 6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited. 7 Blessed is the man who trusts in Jehovah, and whose trust Jehovah is. 8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, that spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be anxious in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 "The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it? 10 I, Jehovah, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.

11 "As the partridge that sits on eggs which she has not laid, so is he who gets riches, and not by right; in the middle of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall be a fool. 12 A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary." 13 "Jehovah, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you shall be disappointed." "Those who depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken Jehovah, the spring of living waters."

14 Heal me, O Jehovah, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for you are my praise. 15 Behold, they tell me, "Where is Jehovah's word? Let it come now." 16 As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face. 17 Don't be a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil. 18 Let them be disappointed who persecute me, but let not me be disappointed; let them be dismayed, but don't let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

19 Thus said Jehovah to me: "Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; 20 and tell them, 'Hear Jehovah's word, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: 21 Jehovah says, "Be careful, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; 22 neither carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, neither do any work: but make the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers.'"

23 But they didn't listen, neither turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not

* 16:19-20 This prediction is that the gods of the gentile nations—Baal, Ashtoreth, Chemosh, Dagon, Artemis, Zeus and the rest—would be abandoned and forgotten, while the God of Abraham would come to be worshiped worldwide by people of all nations.

Throughout much of human history each nation had its own gods and goddesses, and in Jeremiah's day that was still the case. But the people of Israel worshipped the unseen Creator of the universe, who revealed himself to Abraham and Abraham's offspring by the Hebrew tetragrammaton or word of four letters, YHWH, translated into English as Yahweh or Jehovah.

24 "It shall happen, if you diligently listen to me," says Jehovah, "to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein; 25 then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. 26 They shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to Jehovah's house. 27 But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, 2 "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words." 3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was making a work on the wheels. 4 When the vessel that he made of the clay was spoiled in the hand of the potter, he made it again into another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. 5 Then Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 6 "House of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter?" says Jehovah. "Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel. 7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; 8 if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. 9 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; 10 if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them. 11 Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Jehovah says: "Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return now everyone from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings."' 12 But they say, 'It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of his evil heart.' 13 Therefore Jehovah says: 'Ask now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. 14 Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? Shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up? 15 For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up; 16 to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. 17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity."

18 Then they said, "Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words."

19 Give heed to me, Jehovah, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. 20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them. 21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain by death, and their young men struck by the sword in battle. 22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. 23 Yet, Jehovah, you know all their counsel against me to kill me; don't forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal with them in the time of your anger.

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 Thus said Jehovah, "Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; 2 and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you; 3 and say, 'Hear Jehovah's word, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says, "Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle. 4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they didn't know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, 5 and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I didn't command, nor spoke it, neither did it come into my mind: 6 therefore, behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter. 7 I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies I will give to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. 8 I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. 9 I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat everyone the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, shall distress them."

10 "Then you shall break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you, 11 and shall tell them, 'Jehovah of Armies says: "Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that can't be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. 12 Thus I will do to this place," says Jehovah, "and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth: 13 and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.""

14 Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where Jehovah had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of Jehovah's house, and said to all the people: 15 "Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says, 'Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.'"

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in Jehovah's house, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. 2 Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in Jehovah's house. 3 On the next day, Pashhur released Jeremiah out of the stocks.

Then Jeremiah said to him, "Jehovah has not called your name Pashhur, but Magormissabib. 4 For Jehovah says, 'Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword. 5 Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all the precious things of it, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them captives, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. 6 You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.'"

7 Jehovah, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded; you are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I am become a laughing-stock all the day, every one mocks me. 8 For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, "Violence and destruction!" because Jehovah's word is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day. 9 If I say, "I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name," then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can't.

10 For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. "Denounce, and we will denounce him," say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall; "perhaps he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him." 11 But Jehovah is with me as an awesome mighty one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten. 12 But, Jehovah of Armies, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you I have revealed my cause. 13 Sing to Jehovah, praise Jehovah; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

14 Cursed is the day in which I was born: don't let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. 15 Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, "A boy is born to you;" making him very glad. 16 Let that man be as the cities which Jehovah overthrew, and didn't repent: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; 17 because he didn't kill me from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great. 18 Why did I come out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, 2 "Please inquire of Jehovah for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: perhaps Jehovah will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us." 3 Then Jeremiah said to them, "You shall tell Zedekiah: 4 'Jehovah, the God of Israel says, "Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the middle of this city. 5 I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. 6 I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 "'Afterward," says Jehovah, "I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.'"

8 "To this people you shall say, 'Jehovah says: "Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. 9 He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey. 10 For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good," says Jehovah: "it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.'"

11 "'Touching the house of the king of Judah, hear Jehovah's word: 12 "House of David," Jehovah says, "Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. 13 Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain," says Jehovah; "you that say, 'Who shall come down against us? Or who shall enter into our habitations?' 14 I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings," says Jehovah; "and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is around her.""

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

1 Thus said Jehovah: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, 2 Say, 'Hear Jehovah's word, king of Judah, who sits on David's throne, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. 3 Jehovah says: "Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. 4 For if you do this thing indeed, then there shall enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. 5 But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself," says Jehovah, "that this house shall become a desolation."

6 "For Jehovah says concerning the house of the king of Judah: "You are Gilead to me, the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited. 7 I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. 8 Many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, 'Why has Jehovah done thus to this great city?' 9 Then they shall answer, 'Because they abandoned the covenant of Jehovah their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.'"

10 "Don't weep for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. 11 For Jehovah says touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went out of this place: "He shall not return there any more. 12 But in the place where they have led him captive, there he shall die, and he shall see this land no more. 13 Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice; who uses his neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give him his hire; 14 who says, 'I will build me a wide house and spacious rooms,' and cuts out windows for himself; and it is paneled with cedar, and painted with vermilion. 15 Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Didn't your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him. 16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this to know me?" says Jehovah.

17 "But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it." 18 Therefore Jehovah says concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: "They shall not lament for him, saying, 'Ah my brother!' or, 'Ah sister!' They shall not lament for him, saying 'Ah lord!' or, 'Ah his glory!' 19 He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 "Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed. 21 I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, 'I will not hear.' This has been your way from your youth, that you didn't obey my voice. 22 The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. 23 Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you, the pain as of a woman in travail! 24 As I live," says Jehovah, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you there; 25 and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. 26 I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. 27 But to the land to which their soul longs to return, there they shall not return.""

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? Is he a vessel in which no one delights? Why are they cast out, he and his offspring, and are cast into the land which they don't know? 29 O earth, earth, earth, hear Jehovah's word. 30 Jehovah says, "Write you this man childless, a man who shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his offspring prosper, sitting on David's throne, and ruling in Judah."

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

1 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" says Jehovah. 2 Therefore Jehovah, the God of Israel, says against the shepherds who feed my people: "You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings," says Jehovah.

3 "I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. 4 I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking," says Jehovah.

5 "Behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. 6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name by which he shall be called: Jehovah our righteousness. 7 Therefore behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that they shall no more say, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;' 8 but, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up and who led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them.' They shall dwell in their own land."

9 Concerning the prophets: My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of Jehovah, and because of his holy words. 10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. "Their course is evil, and their might is not right; 11 for both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house I have found their wickedness," says Jehovah. 12 "Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation," says Jehovah.

13 "I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. 14 In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one returns from his wickedness: they have all become to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah."*

15 Therefore Jehovah of Armies says concerning the prophets: "Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone out into all the land." 16 Jehovah of Armies says, "Don't listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of Jehovah. 17 They say continually to those who despise me, 'Jehovah has said, "You shall have peace;"' and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, 'No evil shall come on you.'"

18 For who has stood in the council of Jehovah, that he should perceive and hear his word? Who has marked my word, and heard it? 19 Behold, Jehovah's storm, his wrath, has gone out. Yes, a whirling storm. It shall burst on the head of the wicked. 20 Jehovah's anger shall not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you shall understand it perfectly.

21 "I did not send these prophets, yet they ran: I didn't speak to them, yet they prophesied. 22 But if they had stood in my council, then they would have caused my people to hear my words, and would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. 23 Am I a God at hand," says Jehovah, "and not a God afar off? 24 Can any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him?" says Jehovah. "Don't I fill heaven and earth?" says Jehovah. 25 "I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed.' 26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart, 27 who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal? 28 The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat?" says Jehovah.

29 "Isn't my word like fire?" says Jehovah; "and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? 30 Therefore behold, I am against the prophets," says Jehovah, "who steal my words everyone from his neighbor. 31 Behold, I am against the prophets," says Jehovah, "who use their tongues, and say, 'He says.'"

32 "Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams," says Jehovah, "and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting; yet I didn't send them, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all," says Jehovah.

33 "When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, 'What is the burden of Jehovah?' Then you shall tell them, "'What burden! I will cast you off,'" says Jehovah.' 34 As for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, 'The burden of Jehovah,' I will even punish that man and his house."

35 "You shall say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, 'What has Jehovah answered?' and, 'What has Jehovah spoken?' 36 You shall mention the burden of Jehovah no more: for every man's own word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of Jehovah of Armies our God. 37 You shall say to the prophet, 'What has Jehovah answered you?' and, 'What has Jehovah spoken?'"

38 "But if you say, 'The burden of Jehovah,' therefore Jehovah says: 'Because you say this word, "The burden of Jehovah," and I have sent to you, saying, "You shall not say, 'The burden of Jehovah;'" 39 therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence: 40 and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.'"

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

1 Jehovah showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs set before Jehovah's temple, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. 2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

3 Then Jehovah said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

I said, "Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can't be eaten, they are so bad."

4 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 5 "Jehovah, the God of Israel says: 'Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah,

* 23:14 God told Jeremiah that he viewed the people of Jerusalem at that time as being just like the sexually immoral inhabitants of Sodom and Gomorrah, whom he destroyed centuries earlier, as recorded in the Bible book of Genesis.

whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good. 6 For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. 7 I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Jehovah: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart.' 8 As the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad, surely Jehovah says, 'So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt, 9 I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. 10 I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.'"

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), 2 which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:

3 "From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, Jehovah's word has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened. 4 Jehovah has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear) 5 saying,

"Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that Jehovah has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forever more; 6 and don't go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and don't provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm. 7 Yet you have not listened to me,' says Jehovah; 'that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.'

8 "Therefore Jehovah of Armies says: 'Because you have not heard my words, 9 behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,' says Jehovah, 'and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. 10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. 11 This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. 12 It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation,' says Jehovah, 'for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever. 13 I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. 14 For many nations and great kings shall make bondservants of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.'

15 "For Jehovah says, the God of Israel, to me: 'take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. 16 They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.'"

17 Then I took the cup at Jehovah's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom Jehovah had sent me: 18 Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is today; 19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; 20 and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; 21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; 22 and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; 23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off; 24 and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness; 25 and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; 26 and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 "You shall tell them," Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: "'Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.' 28 It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, 'Jehovah of Armies says: "You shall surely drink. 29 For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth," says Jehovah of Armies.'"

30 "Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and tell them, 'Jehovah will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. 31 A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for Jehovah has a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword,' says Jehovah. 32 Jehovah of Armies says, 'Behold, evil shall go out from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth. 33 The slain of Jehovah shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground. 34 Wail, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow in dust, you principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and you shall fall like a desirable vessel. 35 The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.”

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock! For Jehovah lays waste their pasture. 37 The peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of Jehovah. 38 He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppression, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from Jehovah, saying,

2 “Jehovah says: ‘Stand in the court of Jehovah’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Jehovah’s house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; don’t diminish a word. 3 It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings.’”

4 “You shall tell them, ‘Jehovah says: “If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, 5 to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; 6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.””

7 The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in Jehovah’s house. 8 When Jeremiah had finished speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, “You shall surely die. 9 Why have you prophesied in Jehovah’s name, saying, ‘This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?’” All the people were gathered to Jeremiah in Jehovah’s house.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to Jehovah’s house; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of Jehovah’s house. 11 Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying, “This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.”

12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, “Jehovah sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. 13 Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey Jehovah your God’s voice; and Jehovah will repent of the evil that he has pronounced against you. 14 But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes. 15 Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for of a truth Jehovah has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

16 Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: “This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of Jehovah our God.”

17 Then certain of the elders of the land rose up, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, 18 “Micah the Morastite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Jehovah of Armies says: “Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.”’ 19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Didn’t he fear Jehovah, and entreat the favor of Jehovah, and Jehovah relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls. 20 There was also a man who prophesied in Jehovah’s name, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: 21 and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt: 22 and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; 23 and they fetched Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.”

24 But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, 2 “Jehovah says to me: ‘Make bonds and bars, and put them on your neck; 3 and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; 4 and give them a command to their masters, saying, “Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says, ‘You shall tell your masters: 5 “I have made the earth, the men and the animals that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. 6 Now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the animals of the field also I have given him to serve him. 7 All the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son’s son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their bondservant. 8 It shall happen, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish,” says Jehovah, “with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. 9 But as for you, don’t listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon:' 10 for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. 11 But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation I will let remain in their own land, says Jehovah; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.'""

12 I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. 13 Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Jehovah has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14 Don't listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon;' for they prophesy a lie to you. 15 'For I have not sent them,' says Jehovah, 'but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you.'"

16 Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Jehovah says: 'Don't listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, "Behold, the vessels of Jehovah's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon;" for they prophesy a lie to you. 17 Don't listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation? 18 But if they be prophets, and if Jehovah's word be with them, let them now make intercession to Jehovah of Armies, that the vessels which are left in Jehovah's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon. 19 For Jehovah of Armies says concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, 20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon didn't take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; 21 yes, Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning the vessels that are left in Jehovah's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: 22 "They shall be carried to Babylon, and there they shall be, until the day that I visit them," says Jehovah; "then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place.'""

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

1 That same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in Jehovah's house, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, 2 "Thus speaks Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of Jehovah's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon: 4 and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon,' says Jehovah; 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in Jehovah's house, 6 even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen: Jehovah do so; Jehovah perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Jehovah's house, and all those in captivity, from Babylon to this place. 7 Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: 8 The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. 9 The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall happen, then shall the prophet be known, that Jehovah has truly sent him."

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. 11 Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Jehovah says: "Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations.'"

The prophet Jeremiah went his way. 12 Then Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 "Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Jehovah says: "You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their place bars of iron." 14 For Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: "I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the animals of the field also.'"

15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hananiah: Jehovah has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. 16 Therefore Jehovah says, 'Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against Jehovah.'" 17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE

1 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, 2 (after Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem), 3 by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying,

4 Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: 5 "Build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit. 6 Take wives, and father sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and don't be diminished. 7 Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to Jehovah for it; for in its peace you shall have peace." 8 For Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: "Don't let your prophets who are among you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. 9 For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them," says Jehovah. 10 For Jehovah says, "After seventy years* are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. 11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you," says Jehovah, "thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope and a future. 12 You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. 13 You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. 14 I will be found by you," says Jehovah, "and I will restore you from captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you," says Jehovah; "and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive. 15 Because you have said, 'Jehovah has raised us up prophets in Babylon;'" 16 Jehovah says concerning the king who sits on David's throne, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who haven't gone with you into captivity; 17 Jehovah of Armies says: "Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. 18 I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a hissing,† and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them; 19 because they have not listened to my words," says Jehovah, "with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear," says Jehovah. 20 Hear therefore Jehovah's word, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. 21 Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: "Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes; 22 and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, 'Jehovah make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; 23 because they have worked folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I didn't command them; and I am he who knows, and am witness," says Jehovah.

24 "Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying, 25 'Thus speaks Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, saying, "Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, 26 'Jehovah has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in Jehovah's house, for every man who is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. 27 Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you, 28 because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, "The captivity is long: build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit?'"'"

29 Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. 30 Then Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, saying, 31 "Send to all those in captivity, saying, 'Jehovah says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: "Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I didn't send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie;" 32 therefore Jehovah says, "Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his offspring; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he see the good that I will do to my people," says Jehovah, because he has spoken rebellion against Jehovah."

CHAPTER THIRTY

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, 2 "Thus speaks Jehovah, the God of Israel, saying, 'Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. 3 For, behold, the days come,' says Jehovah, 'that I will restore my people Israel and Judah from captivity,' says Jehovah; 'and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.'"

4 These are the words that Jehovah spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. 5 For

* 29:10 This is an example of Bible prophecy specifying the exact number of years that would pass before fulfillment—seventy years. At the end of that time the prophet Daniel read Jeremiah's words and knew that the time had arrived to end the Jews' captivity. (See Daniel 9:2.) Similarly today, we can read the Bible's end-times prophecies and know the end is near for this world.

† 29:18 This passage appears to foretell the worldwide hatred of the Jews that is called "anti-Semitism."

The New Century Version renders it, "I will make them hated by all the kingdoms of the earth. People will curse them . . ."—Jeremiah 29:18 NCV

Jehovah says: "We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. 6 Ask now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? 7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble;* but he shall be saved out of it. 8 It shall come to pass in that day," says Jehovah of Armies, "that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondservant; 9 but they shall serve Jehovah their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. 10 Therefore don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant," says Jehovah; "neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid. 11 For I am with you," says Jehovah, "to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished."

12 For Jehovah says, "Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. 13 There is no one to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. 14 All your lovers have forgotten you; they don't seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased. 15 Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you. 16 Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who plunder you shall be plundered, and all who prey on you will I give for prey. 17 For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds," says Jehovah; "because they have called you an outcast, saying, 'It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.'"

18 Jehovah says: "Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited in its own way. 19 Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. 20 Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them. 21 Their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from among them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me?" says Jehovah. 22 "You shall be my people, and I will be your God."

23 Behold, Jehovah's storm, his wrath, has gone out, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked. 24 The fierce anger of Jehovah will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.†

1 "At that time," says Jehovah, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people." 2 Jehovah says, "The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest."

3 Jehovah appeared of old to me, saying, "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness I have drawn you. 4 Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again you shall be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go out in the dances of those who make merry. 5 Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy its fruit. 6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, 'Arise, and let us go up to Zion to Jehovah our God.'"

7 For Jehovah says, "Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, 'Jehovah, save your people, the remnant of Israel.' 8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company they shall return here. 9 They shall come with weeping; and with petitions I will lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn."

10 Hear Jehovah's word, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, "He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock. 11 For Jehovah has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. 12 They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of Jehovah,

* 30:5-7 This "time of Jacob's trouble" may refer initially to the destruction of Jerusalem and captivity of the Jewish people that took place in Jeremiah's day. But the language surrounding this passage, and the reference to the New Covenant in the following chapter, makes it likely that Jeremiah was also given a prophetic preview of the centuries-long great tribulation on the Jewish people that began in 70 A.D. with the destruction of Jerusalem and its Temple, followed by the scattering of the Jewish people worldwide, and climaxing in horrors of the Holocaust when six million Jews were systematically killed by the Nazi regime at the urging of the Islamic Grand Mufti of Jerusalem. Jeremiah could not have grasped this at the time, of course, but the chapter ends with the promise that "In the latter days you will understand it."—Jeremiah 30:24 to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd; and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. 13 Then the virgin shall rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. 14 I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, says Jehovah."

15 Jehovah says: "A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more."

16 Jehovah says: "Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded," says Jehovah; "and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. 17 There is hope for your latter end," says Jehovah; "and your children shall come again to their own border. 18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, 'You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf: turn me, and I shall be turned; for you are Jehovah my God. 19 Surely after I was turned, I repented; and after I was instructed, I struck my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth.' 20 Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a darling child? For as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him," says Jehovah.

21 Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. 22 How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? For Jehovah has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man.

23 Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall return them from their captivity: 'Jehovah bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness.' 24 Judah and all its cities shall dwell therein together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks. 25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul I have replenished."

26 On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me.

27 "Behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of animal. 28 It shall happen that, as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant," says Jehovah. 29 "In those days they shall say no more, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.' 30 But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge."

31 "Behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will make a new covenant* with the house of

* 31:31-34 When Jeremiah recorded these words, the Jews were under the "old covenant" that God had established with Israel through Moses centuries earlier. Jews were in a special relationship with God through this formal agreement, or covenant, by virtue of being members of the nation of Israel. This arrangement was to be superseded by a new covenant at some future time, according to this prophecy of Jeremiah, chapter 31.

The new covenant was instituted by Jesus, the promised Messiah. Breaking an unsliced hunk of bread at the Last Supper, "He gave to the disciples, and said, 'Take, eat; this is my body.' He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, 'All of you drink it, for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins.'"—Matthew 26:26-28

Hebrews chapter 8 explains the relationship between the old covenant and the new covenant, declaring that Jesus is "the mediator of a better covenant" (Heb. 8:6).

Under this new covenant "I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more." (verse 34 NIV) All sorts of sinful people—even prostitutes and corrupt tax collectors—came to Jesus and received forgiveness of their sins. The forgiveness was a free gift, not earned by good works.

Besides promising forgiveness of sins, the prophecy of Jeremiah 31:34 also went on to say, "they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the LORD." This did not mean just additional details of knowledge or information about God, but actually knowing God personally. How? By personally living with Jesus Christ, the Son of God, on a day-to-day basis. When Philip asked to see the Father, "Jesus answered: 'Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father?'" (John 14:9 NIV)

"The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being," according to Hebrews 1:3 (NIV). So, those who actually lived with Jesus could get to know God in this new intimate way that was not possible for people who just "study the Scriptures" as the Pharisees did. (John 5:39 NIV) The "knowing the LORD" that Jeremiah prophesied about is this sort of close, personal relationship with God through His Son.

And Jeremiah was not offering a new covenant for just a handful of people in the First Century. Rather, it would be God's way of dealing with people from that time onward. For example, Paul's relationship with God through His Son began when Jesus appeared to Paul on the road to Damascus. Later on, Paul told of occasions when the "Lord stood at my side and gave me strength" (2 Tim. 4:17 NIV), and when Paul spoke to the Lord about his "thorn in my flesh." (2 Cor. 12:7-9) As a zealous Jew, Paul had had a relationship with God before, but only from a distance. Now, as a Christian, he really knew God.

The different ways in which the two covenants were instituted set the pattern. The old covenant was established with Moses conveying messages back and forth between God and the people, while the people stood at a distance from Mount Sinai where God appeared:

"When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance and said to Moses, 'Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die.' Moses said to the people, 'Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning.' The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was."—Exodus 20:18-21 NIV

By contrast, the new covenant was established at the Last Supper with the Son of God sitting privately to share a meal with his twelve apostles. The setting was so intimate that John leaned back onto Jesus' breast to ask him a question. (John 13:25) That intimacy was to continue, as Jesus made clear in the words that he prayed in the hearing of his apostles:

"My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us . . . Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me. I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them."—John 17:20-26 NIV

Jesus promised his continuing presence with his disciples: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."—Matthew 18:20 KJV

In fact, we have Jesus' promise that "He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. . . .

Israel, and with the house of Judah: 32 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; my covenant which they broke, although I was a husband to them,” says Jehovah. 33 “But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says Jehovah: “I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart I will write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people: 34 and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know Jehovah;’ for they shall all know me, from their least to their greatest,” says Jehovah: “for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.”

35 Jehovah, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; Jehovah of Armies is his name, says: 36 “If these ordinances depart from before me,” says Jehovah, “then the offspring of Israel also shall cease from being a nation* before me forever.” 37 Jehovah says: “If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all the offspring of Israel for all that they have done,” says Jehovah.

and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.”—John 14:21-23 KJV

The Living Bible paraphrases it this way: “When I come back to life again . . . I will only reveal myself to those who love and obey me. The Father will love them too, and we will come to them and live with them.”—vss. 20-23

How does Jesus live with us today? “God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ‘Abba! Father!’”—Galatians 4:6 RSV

It is in this way that God has fulfilled what he spoke at Jeremiah 31:34, that “they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.”

* 31:35-36 Will God ever abandon having Israel as a holy nation? According to this passage, that could happen only if God also abandoned the natural laws governing the moon and the stars and the oceans.

38 “Behold, the days come,” says Jehovah, “that the city shall be built to Jehovah from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner. 39 The measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah. 40 The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy to Jehovah; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever.”

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2 Now at that time the king of Babylon’s army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah’s house. 3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, “Why do you prophesy, and say, ‘Jehovah says, “Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; 4 and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall see his eyes; 5 and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he shall be there until I visit him,” says Jehovah: “Though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper?””

6 Jeremiah said, “Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 7 ‘Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, “Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.””

8 So Hanamel my uncle’s son came to me in the court of the guard according to Jehovah’s word, and said to me, “Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.” Then I knew that this was Jehovah’s word.

9 I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle’s son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. 10 I signed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. 11 So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; 12 and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle’s son, and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard.

13 I commanded Baruch before them, saying, 14 “Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days.’ 15 For Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land.’”

16 Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to Jehovah, saying, 17 “Ah Lord Jehovah! Behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you, 18 who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the great, the mighty God, Jehovah of Armies is his name; 19 great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: 20 who performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men; and made yourself a name, as it is today; 21 and brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror; 22 and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; 23 and they came in, and possessed it, but they didn't obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come upon them. 24 Behold, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and behold, you see it. 25 You have said to me, Lord Jehovah, 'Buy the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.'

26 Then Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, saying, 27 'Behold, I am Jehovah, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me?' 28 Therefore Jehovah says: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: 29 and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. 30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands,' says Jehovah.

31 'For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face, 32 because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. 34 But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. 35 They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech; which I didn't command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.'

36 Now therefore Jehovah, the God of Israel, says concerning this city, about which you say, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence:' 37 'Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: 38 and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: 39 and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and of their children after them: 40 and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. 41 Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.'

42 For Jehovah says: 'As I have brought all this great evil on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them. 43 Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, 'It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.' 44 Men shall buy fields for money, and sign the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will return them from their captivity, says Jehovah.'

1 Moreover Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, 2 'Jehovah who does it, Jehovah who forms it to establish it; Jehovah is his name, says: 3 'Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great things, and difficult, which you don't know.'" 4 For Jehovah, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword; 5 'While men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city: 6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. 7 I will return Judah from captivity and return Israel from captivity, and will build them, as at the first. 8 I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have transgressed against me. 9 This city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it.'

10 Jehovah says: 'Yet again there shall be heard in this place, about which you say, 'It is waste, without man and without animal,' even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal, 11 the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, 'Give thanks to Jehovah of Armies, for Jehovah is good, for his loving kindness endures forever;' who bring thanksgiving into Jehovah's house. For I will return the land from captivity as at the first," says Jehovah.

12 Jehovah of Armies says: "Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. 13 In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks shall again pass under the hands of him who numbers them," says Jehovah.

14 "Behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. 15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. 16 In those days Judah shall be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name by which she shall be called: Jehovah our righteousness."

17 For Jehovah says: "David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; 18 neither shall the priests the Levites lack a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually."

19 Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, saying, 20 "Jehovah says: 'If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season; 21 then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. 22 As the army of the sky can't be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so I will multiply the offspring of David my servant, and the Levites who minister to me.'"

23 Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, saying, 24 "Have you not considered what this people has spoken, saying, 'The two families which Jehovah chose, he has cast them off'? Thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them." 25 Jehovah says: "If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; 26 then I will also cast away the offspring of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his offspring to be rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will return them from captivity, and will have mercy on them."

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR

1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying: 2 "Jehovah, the God of Israel, says, 'Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, "Jehovah says, 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: 3 and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon.'" 4 Yet hear Jehovah's word, 'O Zedekiah king of Judah: Jehovah says concerning you, "You shall not die by the sword; 5 you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, 'Ah Lord!' for I have spoken the word," says Jehovah.'"

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities.

8 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, after the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; 9 that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that no one should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. 10 All the princes and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant, go free, that no one should make bondservants of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: 11 but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 Therefore Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, 13 "Jehovah, the God of Israel, says: 'I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, 14 "At the end of seven years you shall let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you:" but your fathers didn't listen to me, neither inclined their ear. 15 You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: 16 but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids.'"

17 Therefore Jehovah says: "You have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim to you a liberty," says Jehovah,

"to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. 18 I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; 19 the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; 20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth. 21 Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who have gone away from you. 22 Behold, I will command," says Jehovah, "and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

CHAPTER THIRTY-FIVE

1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2 "Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into Jehovah's house, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink."

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; 4 and I brought them into Jehovah's house, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. 5 I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine!" 6 But they said, "We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever: 7 neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you live.' 8 We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; 9 nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: 10 but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. 11 But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we will dwell at Jerusalem.'"

12 Then Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, saying, 13 "Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Go, and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?" says Jehovah. 14 "The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me. 15 I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, 'Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and don't go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers:' but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. 16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me;" 17 therefore Jehovah, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.'"

18 Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you; 19 therefore Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not lack a man to stand before me forever.'"

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

1 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, 2 "Take a scroll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. 3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all Jehovah's words, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll of a book. 5 Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am shut up; I can't go into Jehovah's house: 6 therefore you go, and read in the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, Jehovah's words in the ears of the people in Jehovah's house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. 7 It may be they will present their supplication before Jehovah, and will return everyone from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that Jehovah has pronounced against this people."

8 Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book Jehovah's words in Jehovah's house. 9 Now in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Jehovah. 10 Then Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the book in Jehovah's house, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Jehovah's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all Jehovah's words, 12 he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room: and behold, all the princes were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. 13 Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them.

15 They said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our ears." So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." 17 They asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words at his mouth?"

18 Then Baruch answered them, "He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

19 Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go, hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are."

20 They went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. 21 So the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll; and he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king.

22 Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him. 23 When Jehudi had read three or four leaves, the king cut it with a penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. 24 They were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words. 25 Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll; but he would not hear them.

26 The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Jehovah hid them.

27 Then Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 28 "Take again another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. 29 Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, 'Jehovah says: "You have burned this scroll, saying, 'Why have you written therein, saying, "The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and animal"?'"

30 Therefore Jehovah says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: "He will have no one to sit on David's throne; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. 31 I will punish him and his offspring and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen.""

32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

CHAPTER THIRTY-SEVEN

1 Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to Jehovah's words, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah. 3 Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Pray now to Jehovah our God for us."

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. 5 Pharaoh's army had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke off from Jerusalem. 6 Then Jehovah's word came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 7 "Jehovah, the God of Israel, says, 'You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: "Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come out to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. 8 The Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire. 9 Jehovah says, 'Don't deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us;" for they shall not depart. 10 For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yes they would rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.'"

11 When the army of the Chaldeans had broken off from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the middle of the people. 13 When he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are falling away to the Chaldeans."

14 Then Jeremiah said, "It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans." But he didn't listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. 15 The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days, 17 then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from Jehovah?"

Jeremiah said, "There is." He said also, "You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon." 18 Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? 19 Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?' 20 Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

CHAPTER THIRTY-EIGHT

1 Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, 2 "Jehovah says, 'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey, and he shall live.' 3 Jehovah says, 'This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it.'"

4 Then the princes said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt."

5 Zedekiah the king said, "Behold, he is in your hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you."

6 Then they took Jeremiah, and cast him into the cistern of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. In the cistern there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

7 Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), 8 Ebedmelech went out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, 9 "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the cistern; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city."

10 Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern, before he dies."

11 So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the cistern to Jeremiah. 12 Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords." Jeremiah did so. 13 So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the cistern: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in Jehovah's house: and the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me." 15 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me."

16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As Jehovah lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Jehovah, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'If you will go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house. 18 But if you will not go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand.'"

19 Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me."

20 But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, Jehovah's voice, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live. 21 But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that Jehovah has shown me: 22 'Behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought out to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, 'Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, and they have turned away.' 23 They shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.'"

24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you:' 26 then you shall tell them, 'I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.'"

27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. 28 So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER THIRTY-NINE

1 When Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it; 2 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city), 3 all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, Nergal Sharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. 4 When Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah.

5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. 6 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah. 7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. 8 The Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. 10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard concerning Jeremiah, saying, 12 "Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall tell you."

13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; 14 they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he lived among the people.

15 Now Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, 16 "Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished before you in that day. 17 But I will deliver you in that day," says Jehovah; "and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. 18 For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be for a prey to you; because you have put your trust in me," says Jehovah."

CHAPTER FORTY

1 The word which came to Jeremiah from

Jehovah, after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. 2 The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, "Jehovah your God pronounced this evil on this place; 3 and Jehovah has brought it, and done according as he spoke: because you have sinned against Jehovah, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you. 4 Now, behold, I release you today from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, don't: behold, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go."

5 Now while he had not yet gone back, "Go back then," he said, "to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go.

6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

7 Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and some of the poorest of the land, some of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; 8 then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

9 Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, "Don't be afraid to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. 10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who shall come to us: but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken."

11 Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; 12 then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 and said to him, "Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam didn't believe them.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?" 16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael."

CHAPTER FORTY-ONE

1 Now in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal offspring and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. 2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah arose, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. 3 Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

4 The second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it, 5 men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to Jehovah's house. 6 Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and as he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam."

7 It was so, when they came into the middle of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the middle of a pit, he, and the men who were with him. 8 But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey." So he stopped, and didn't kill them among their brothers.

9 Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (the same one that Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed. 10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon.

11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now when all the people who were with

Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. 14 So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. 15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.

16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: 17 and they departed, and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, 18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO

1 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, 2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to Jehovah your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us: 3 that Jehovah your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do."

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you; behold, I will pray to Jehovah your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing Jehovah shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you."

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, "Jehovah be a true and faithful witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which Jehovah your God shall send you to us. 6 Whether it is good, or whether it is bad, we will obey the voice of Jehovah our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Jehovah our God."

7 After ten days, Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah. 8 Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, 9 and said to them, "Jehovah, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him, says: 10 'If you will still live in this land, then I will build you, and not pluck you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. 11 Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; don't be afraid of him,' says Jehovah: 'for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. 12 I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land. 13 But if you say, "We will not dwell in this land;" so that you don't obey Jehovah your God's voice, 14 saying, "No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell.” 15 now therefore hear Jehovah’s word, O remnant of Judah: Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says, ‘If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; 16 then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow close behind you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. 17 So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.’

18 “For Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘As my anger and my wrath has been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured out on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.’ 19 Jehovah has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, ‘Don’t go into Egypt:’ know certainly that I have testified to you today. 20 For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to Jehovah your God, saying, ‘Pray for us to Jehovah our God; and according to all that Jehovah our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it.’ 21 and I have declared it to you today; but you have not obeyed Jehovah your God’s voice in anything for which he has sent me to you. 22 Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to live there.”

1 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of Jehovah their God, with which Jehovah their God had sent him to them, even all these words, 2 then Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, “You speak falsely: Jehovah our God has not sent you to say, ‘You shall not go into Egypt to live there;’ 3 but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon.”

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn’t obey Jehovah’s voice, to dwell in the land of Judah. 5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah; 6 the men, and the women, and the children, and the king’s daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; 7 and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn’t obey Jehovah’s voice: and they came to Tahpanhes.

8 Then Jehovah’s word came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, 9 “Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 and tell them, ‘Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: “Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. 11 He shall come, and shall strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. 12 I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go out from there in peace. 13 He shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt he shall burn with fire.””

CHAPTER FORTY-FOUR

1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, 2 “Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, today they are a desolation, and no man dwells therein, 3 because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods, that they didn’t know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. 4 However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, “Oh, don’t do this abominable thing that I hate.” 5 But they didn’t listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. 6 Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured out, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is today.’

7 “Therefore now Jehovah, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the middle of Judah, to leave yourselves no one remaining; 8 in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? 9 Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.’

11 “Therefore Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. 12 I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt they shall fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. 13 For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; 14 so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for no one shall return save such as shall escape."

15 Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, 16 "As for the word that you have spoken to us in Jehovah's name, we will not listen to you. 17 But we will certainly perform every word that has gone out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then we had plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. 18 But since we left off burning incense to the queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. 19 When we burned incense to the queen of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?"

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying, 21 "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, didn't Jehovah remember them, and didn't it come into his mind? 22 So that Jehovah could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed; therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is today. 23 Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against Jehovah, and have not obeyed Jehovah's voice, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is today."

24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, "Hear Jehovah's word, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: 25 Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says, 'You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, "We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her:" Establish then your vows, and perform your vows.'

26 "Therefore hear Jehovah's word, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Behold, I have sworn by my great name,' says Jehovah, 'that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "As the Lord Jehovah lives." 27 Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. 28 Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. 29 This shall be the sign to you,' says Jehovah, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil.' 30 Jehovah says, 'Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.'

CHAPTER FORTY-FIVE

1 The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2 "Jehovah, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: 3 'You said, "Woe is me now! for Jehovah has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest." 4 You shall tell him, Jehovah says: "Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. 5 Do you seek great things for yourself? Don't seek them; for, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh, says Jehovah; but your life I will give to you for a prey in all places where you go."

CHAPTER FORTY-SIX

1 Jehovah's word which came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations. 2 Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. 3 "Prepare the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle! 4 Harness the horses, and get up, you horsemen, and stand up with your helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail. 5 Why have I seen it? They are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled apace, and don't look back: terror is on every side," says Jehovah. 6 "Don't let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen. 7 Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? 8 Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he says, I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and their inhabitants. 9 Go up, you horses; and rage, you chariots; and let the mighty men go out: Cush and Put, who handle the shield; and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow. 10 For that day is of the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge himself of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiated, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. 11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain do you use many medicines; there is no healing for you. 12 The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together."

13 The word that Jehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. 14 "Declare in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say, 'Stand up, and prepare; for the sword has devoured around you. 15 Why are your strong ones swept away? They didn't stand, because Jehovah pushed them. 16 He made many to stumble, yes, they fell one on another: and they said, "Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword." 17 They cried there, "Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by." 18 As I live, says the King, whose name is Jehovah of Armies, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. 19 You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant. 20 Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but destruction out of the north has come, it has come. 21 Also her hired men in the middle of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they didn't stand: for the day of their calamity has come on them, the time of their visitation. 22 The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters. 23 They shall cut down her forest,' says Jehovah, 'though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. 24 The daughter of Egypt shall be disappointed; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.'"

25 Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: 26 and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old," says Jehovah. 27 "But don't you be afraid, Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid. 28 Don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant," says Jehovah; "for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished."

1 Jehovah's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before

Pharaoh struck Gaza. 2 "Jehovah says: 'Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and those who dwell therein; and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail. 3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers don't look back to their children for feebleness of hands; 4 because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains:' for Jehovah will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor. 5 Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself? 6 You sword of Jehovah, how long will it be before you be quiet? Put up yourself into your scabbard; rest, and be still. 7 How can you be quiet, since Jehovah has given you a command? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there has he appointed it."

CHAPTER FORTY-EIGHT

1 Of Moab. Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Woe to Nebo! For it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is disappointed, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. 2 The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you. 3 The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction! 4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. 5 For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping they shall go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. 6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. 7 For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go out into captivity, his priests and his princes together. 8 The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as Jehovah has spoken. 9 Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get herself away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein. 10 Cursed is he who does the work of Jehovah negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. 11 Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed."

12 "Therefore behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will send to him those who pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. 13 Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. 14 How do you say, 'We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war?' 15 Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter," says the King, whose name is Jehovah of Armies.

16 "The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. 17 All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, 'How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod!' 18 You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds. 19 Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, 'What has been done?' 20 Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. 21 Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath, 22 and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth Diblathaim, 23 and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon, 24 and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. 25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken," says Jehovah.

26 "Make him drunken; for he magnified himself against Jehovah: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. 27 For wasn't Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. 28 You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. 29 We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. 30 I know his wrath," says Jehovah, "that it is nothing; his boastings have worked nothing."

31 "Therefore I will wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir Heres they shall mourn. 32 With more than the weeping of Jazer I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen. 33 Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: no one shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. 34 From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz they have uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate."

35 "Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab," says Jehovah, "him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods. 36 Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished. 37 For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth. 38 On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation everywhere; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which no one delights," says Jehovah.

39 "How it is broken down! How they wail! How Moab has turned the back with shame! So shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him." 40 For Jehovah says: "Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. 41 Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. 42 Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against Jehovah. 43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab," says Jehovah. 44 "He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation," says Jehovah.

45 "Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the middle of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. 46 Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh are undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. 47 Yet I will restore Moab from captivity in the latter days," says Jehovah.

Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

1 Of the children of Ammon.

Jehovah says: "Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities? 2 Therefore behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then Israel shall possess those who possessed him," says Jehovah.

3 "Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you daughters of Rabbah, clothe yourself in sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. 4 Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter who trusted in her treasures, saying, 'Who shall come to me?'" 5 Behold, I will bring a fear on you," says the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, "from all who are around you; and you shall be driven out every man right out, and there shall be no one to gather together the fugitives. 6 But afterward I will restore the children of Ammon from captivity," says Jehovah.

7 Of Edom.

Jehovah of Armies says: "Is wisdom no more in Teman? Is counsel perished from the prudent? Is their wisdom vanished? 8 Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I shall visit him. 9 If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves by night, wouldn't they destroy until they had enough? 10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his offspring are destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more. 11 Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me."

12 For Jehovah says: "Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. 13 For I have sworn by myself," says Jehovah, "that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities shall be perpetual wastes."

14 I have heard news from Jehovah, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. 15 For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. 16 As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there," says Jehovah.

17 "Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all its plagues. 18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbor cities," says Jehovah, "no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. 19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who will stand before me?" 20 Therefore hear the counsel of Jehovah, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: "Surely they shall drag them away, the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. 21 The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea. 22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs."

23 Of Damascus.

"Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet. 24 Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. 25 How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? 26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day," says Jehovah of Armies. 27 "I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad."

28 Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck: Jehovah says: "Arise, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east. 29 Their tents and their flocks they shall take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry to them, 'Terror on every side!' 30 Flee, wander far off, dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor," says Jehovah; "for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you. 31 Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care," says Jehovah; "that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone. 32 Their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a plunder: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them," says Jehovah. 33 "Hazor shall be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein."

34 Jehovah's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 "Jehovah of Armies says: 'Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. 36 On Elam I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. 37 I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger," says Jehovah; "and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; 38 and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes," says Jehovah. 39 "But it shall happen in the latter days, that I will restore Elam from captivity," says Jehovah.

CHAPTER FIFTY

1 The word that Jehovah spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. 2 "Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and don't conceal: say, 'Babylon is taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodach is dismayed; her images are disappointed, her idols are dismayed.' 3 For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and no one shall dwell therein: they are fled, they are gone, both man and animal."

4 In those days, and in that time," says Jehovah, "the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek Jehovah their God. 5 They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, 'Come, and join yourselves to Jehovah in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten.' 6 My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. 7 All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, 'We are not guilty, because they have sinned against Jehovah, the habitation of righteousness, even Jehovah, the hope of their fathers.'"

8 "Flee out of the middle of Babylon, and go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the male goats before the flocks. 9 For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from there she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty man; no one shall return in vain. 10 Chaldea shall be a prey: all who prey on her shall be satisfied," says

Jehovah.

11 "Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; 12 your mother shall be utterly disappointed; she who bore you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. 13 Because of Jehovah's wrath she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues."

14 "Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against Jehovah. 15 Shout against her all around: she has submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Jehovah: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. 16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to his people, and they shall flee everyone to his own land. 17 Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."

18 Therefore Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. 19 I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead."

20 "In those days, and in that time," says Jehovah, "the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be no one; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant."

21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them," says Jehovah, "and do according to all that I have commanded you. 22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. 23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken! How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! 24 I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren't aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against Jehovah."

25 Jehovah has opened his armory, and has brought out the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 "Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. 27 Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their visitation."

28 The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Jehovah our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 "Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; encamp against her all around; let none of it escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against Jehovah, against the Holy One of Israel. 30 Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says Jehovah.

31 "Behold, I am against you, you proud one," says the Lord, Jehovah of Armies; "for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. 32 The proud one shall stumble and fall, and no one shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all who are around him."

33 Jehovah of Armies says: "The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go."

34 Their Redeemer is strong; Jehovah of Armies is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 "A sword is on the Chaldeans," says Jehovah, "and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her princes, and on her wise men. 36 A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. 37 A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the middle of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they shall be robbed. 38 A drought is on her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols. 39 Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. 40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbor cities," says Jehovah, "so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein."

41 "Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. 42 They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon. 43 The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. 44 Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him I will appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who can stand before me?"

* 50:40 The reference here is to the utter destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, as recorded in the Bible book of Genesis.

In fact, the story of Sodom and Gomorrah is confirmed as real history by close to fifty references in the Bible books of Genesis, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Amos, Zephaniah, Matthew, Mark, Luke, 2 Peter, Jude and Revelation.

45 Therefore hear the counsel of Jehovah, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: "Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. 46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations."

CHAPTER FIFTY-ONE

1 Jehovah says: "Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind. 2 I will send to Babylon strangers, who shall winnow her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her around. 3 Against him who bends let the archer bend his bow, and against him who lifts himself up in his coat of mail: and don't spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army. 4 They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets."

5 For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of Jehovah of Armies; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

6 Flee out of the middle of Babylon, and save every man his life; don't be cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of Jehovah's vengeance; he will render to her a recompense. 7 Babylon has been a golden cup in Jehovah's hand, who made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. 8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. 9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go everyone into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 Jehovah has produced our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of Jehovah our God. 11 Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: Jehovah has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of Jehovah, the vengeance for his temple. 12 Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for Jehovah has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. 13 You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness.

14 Jehovah of Armies has sworn by himself, saying, "Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you."

15 He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: 16 when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightning for the rain, and brings the wind out of his treasures. 17 Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. 19 The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: Jehovah of Armies is his name.

20 "You are my battle ax and weapons of war: and with you I will break in pieces the nations; and with you I will destroy kingdoms; 21 and with you I will break in pieces the horse and his rider; 22 and with you I will break in pieces the chariot and him who rides therein; and with you I will break in pieces man and woman; and with you I will break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you I will break in pieces the young man and the virgin; 23 and with you I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke; and with you I will break in pieces governors and deputies. 24 I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight," says Jehovah.

25 "Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain," says Jehovah, "which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain. 26 They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever," says Jehovah.

27 Set up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm. 28 Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion. 29 The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of Jehovah against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are broken. 31 One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: 32 and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are frightened. 33 For Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel says: "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her."

34 "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out. 35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon," the inhabitant of Zion shall say; and, "My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea," Jerusalem shall say.

36 Therefore Jehovah says: "Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. 37 Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. 38 They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. 39 When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake," says Jehovah. 40 "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats."

41 "How Sheshach is taken! And the praise of the whole earth seized! How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations! 42 The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. 43 Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. 44 I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall."

45 "My people, go away from the middle of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of Jehovah. 46 Don't let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year news shall come, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. 47 Therefore behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the middle of her. 48 Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north," says Jehovah. 49 "As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land."

50 You who have escaped the sword, go, don't stand still; remember Jehovah from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. 51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of Jehovah's house.

52 "Therefore behold, the days come," says Jehovah, "that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. 53 Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me destroyers shall come to her," says Jehovah.

54 The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans! 55 For Jehovah lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: 56 for the destroyer has come on her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for Jehovah is a God of recompenses, he will surely requite.

57 "I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up," says the King, whose name is Jehovah of Armies.

58 Jehovah of Armies says: "The wide walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary."

59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. 60 Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. 61 Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, 62 and say, 'Jehovah, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one shall dwell therein, neither man nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever.' 63 It shall be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Euphrates: 64 and you shall say, 'Thus Babylon shall sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her;' and they shall be weary."

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER FIFTY-TWO

1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 2 He did that which was evil in Jehovah's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 3 For through Jehovah's anger this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence.

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. 4 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. 5 So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. 7 Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city all around;) and they went toward the Arabah.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. 10 The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. 11 He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem: 13 and he burned Jehovah's house, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with fire. 14 All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. 15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. 16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers.

17 The Chaldeans broke in pieces the pillars of brass that were in Jehovah's house, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in Jehovah's house, and carried all of their brass to Babylon. 18 They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered. 19 The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lamp stands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. 20 They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for Jehovah's house. The brass of all these vessels was without weight. 21 As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. 22 A capital of brass was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. 23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around.

24 The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: 25 and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. 26 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. 27 The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land.

28 These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand twenty-three Jews; 29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; 30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand six hundred.

31 In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and released him from prison; 32 and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, 33 and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: 34 and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

LAMENTATIONS

CHAPTER ONE

1 How the city sits solitary, that was full of people!

She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations!

She who was a princess among the provinces has become tributary!

2 She weeps bitterly in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;

among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her:

All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude;

she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest:

all her persecutors overtook her within the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn assembly;

all her gates are desolate, her priests do sigh:

her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are become the head, her enemies prosper;

for Jehovah has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions:

her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.

6 From the daughter of Zion all her majesty is departed:

her princes are become like deer that find no pasture,

they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old:

when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her.

The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations.

8 Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she has become as an unclean thing;

all who honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness:

yes, she sighs, and turns backward.

9 Her filthiness was in her skirts; she didn't remember her latter end;

therefore she is come down wonderfully; she has no comforter:

see, Jehovah, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself.

10 The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things:

for she has seen that the nations are entered into her sanctuary, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul:

look, Jehovah, and see; for I am become abject.

12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?

Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me, with which Jehovah has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them;

he has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back:

he has made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand.

They are knit together, they have come up on my neck; he has made my strength to fail.

The Lord has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

15 The Lord has set at nothing all my mighty men within me.

He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men.

The Lord has trodden as in a wine press the virgin daughter of Judah.

16 For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water;

because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me:

my children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.

17 Zion spreads out her hands; there is no one to comfort her;

Jehovah has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his adversaries:

Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.

18 Jehovah is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment.

Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me.

My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city, while they sought food for themselves to refresh their souls.

20 See, Jehovah; for I am in distress; my heart is troubled.

My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled.

Abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh; there is no one to comfort me.

All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it.

You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they shall be like me.

22 Let all their wickedness come before you.

Do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions, for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAPTER TWO

1 How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!

He has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, and hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

2 The Lord has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied.

He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah.

He has brought them down to the ground; he has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

3 He has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel.

He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy.

He has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around.

4 He has bent his bow like an enemy, he has stood with his right hand as an adversary, has killed all that were pleasant to the eye.

In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire.

5 The Lord has become as an enemy, he has swallowed up Israel.

He has swallowed up all her palaces, he has destroyed his strongholds.

He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 He has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly:

Jehovah has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion.

Has despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The Lord has cast off his altar, he has abhorred his sanctuary.

He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces.

They have made a noise in Jehovah's house, as in the day of a solemn assembly.

8 Jehovah has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.

He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying.

He has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars.

Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not.

Yes, her prophets find no vision from Jehovah.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground, they keep silence.

They have cast up dust on their heads; they have clothed themselves with sackcloth.

The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 My eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled.

My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They tell their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?"

when they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What shall I testify to you? What shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem?

What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion?

For your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you?

14 Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions.

They have not uncovered your iniquity, to restore you from captivity, but have seen for you false revelations and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at you.

They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying,

"Is this the city that men called the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth?"

16 All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you.

They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, "We have swallowed her up.

Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it."

17 Jehovah has done that which he purposed; he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old.

He has thrown down, and has not pitied.

He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; he has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

18 Their heart cried to the Lord:

wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night.

Give yourself no respite; don't let the apple of your eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches.

Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.

Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.

20 Look, Jehovah, and see to whom you have done thus!

Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands?

Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets.

My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword.

You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, and not pitied.

22 You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side.

There was no one that escaped or remained in the day of Jehovah's anger.

Those that I have dandled and brought up my enemy has consumed.

CHAPTER THREE

1 I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.

3 Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin he has made old; he has broken my bones.

5 He has built against me, and surrounded me with gall and travail.

6 He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.

7 He has walled me about, that I can't go out; he has made my chain heavy.

8 Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.

9 He has walled up my ways with cut stone; he has made my paths crooked.

10 He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.

11 He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he has made me desolate.

12 He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my kidneys.

14 I am become a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.

16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he has covered me with ashes.

17 You have removed my soul far off from peace; I forgot prosperity.

18 I said, "My strength is perished, and my expectation from Jehovah."

19 Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me.

21 This I recall to my mind; therefore I have hope.

22 It is because of Jehovah's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassion doesn't fail.

23 They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

24 "Jehovah is my portion," says my soul; "therefore will I hope in him."

25 Jehovah is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

26 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Jehovah.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him.

29 Let him put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.

30 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled full with reproach.

31 For the Lord will not cast off forever.

32 For though he cause grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

33 For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,

35 to turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,

36 to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord doesn't approve.

37 Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, when the Lord doesn't command it?

38 Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?

39 Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to Jehovah.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned.

43 You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have killed, you have not pitied.

44 You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.

45 You have made us an off-scouring and refuse in the middle of the peoples.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.

47 Fear and the pit have come on us, devastation and destruction.

48 My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 My eye pours down, and doesn't cease, without any intermission,

50 until Jehovah looks down, and sees from heaven.

51 My eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.

52 They have chased me relentlessly like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me.

54 Waters flowed over my head; I said, "I am cut off."

55 I called on your name, Jehovah, out of the lowest dungeon.

56 You heard my voice; don't hide your ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 You came near in the day that I called on you; you said, "Don't be afraid."

58 Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life.

59 Jehovah, you have seen my wrong. Judge my cause.

60 You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me.

61 You have heard their reproach, Jehovah, and all their devices against me, 62 the lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 You see their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song.

64 You will render to them a recompense, Jehovah, according to the work of their hands.

65 You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them.

66 You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Jehovah.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 How the gold has become dim! The most pure gold has changed!

The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how they are esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the jackals draw out the breast, they nurse their young ones.

The daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the nursing child clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst.

The young children ask bread, and no man breaks it to them.

5 Those who fed delicately are desolate in the streets.

Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom,* that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid on her.

7 Her nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk.

They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire.

8 Their appearance is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets.

Their skin clings to their bones; it is withered, it has become like a stick.

9 Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger;

for these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children.

They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 Jehovah has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger.

He has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured its foundations.

12 The kings of the earth didn't believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world, that the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the middle of her.

14 They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood, so that men can't touch their garments.

15 "Depart!" they cried to them, "Unclean! Depart, depart, don't touch!"

When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, "They shall not live here any more."

16 Jehovah's anger has scattered them; he will no more regard them.

They didn't respect the persons of the priests, they didn't favor the elders.

17 Our eyes still fail, looking in vain for our help.

In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.

18 They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets.

Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end has come.

19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky.

They chased us on the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Jehovah, was taken in their pits;

of whom we said, "Under his shadow we shall live among the nations."

21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz.

The cup shall pass through to you also; you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked.

22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity.

He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Remember, Jehovah, what has come on us.

Look, and see our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless.

Our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money.

Our wood is sold to us.

5 Our pursuers are on our necks.

We are weary, and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers sinned, and are no more.

We have borne their iniquities.

8 Servants rule over us.

There is no one to deliver us out of their hand.

9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our skin is black like an oven,

because of the burning heat of famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion,

the virgins in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes were hanged up by their hand.

The faces of elders were not honored.

13 The young men bare the mill.

The children stumbled under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate,

the young men from their music.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased.

Our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crown is fallen from our head.

Woe to us! For we have sinned.

17 For this our heart is faint.

For these things our eyes are dim.

18 For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate:

the foxes walk on it.

19 You, Jehovah, remain forever.

Your throne is from generation to generation.

20 Why do you forget us forever, and forsake us so long time?

21 Turn us to yourself, Jehovah, and we shall be turned.

Renew our days as of old.

22 But you have utterly rejected us.

You are very angry against us.

* 4:6 The author of Lamentations here compares the sins of his own people to sin of the men of Sodom who "were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Jehovah." (Gen. 13:13) He also confirms as real history the utter destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah recorded in the Bible book of Genesis.

The story of Sodom and Gomorrah is confirmed as real history by close to fifty references in the Bible books of Genesis, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Amos, Zephaniah, Matthew, Mark, Luke, 2 Peter, Jude and Revelation.

EZEKIEL

CHAPTER ONE

1 Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. 2 On the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, 3 Jehovah's word came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and Jehovah's hand was there on him.

4 I looked, and behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of the middle of it as it were glowing metal, out of the middle of the fire.

5 Out of its center came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. 6 Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. 7 Their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished brass. 8 They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings thus: 9 their wings were joined to one another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward. 10 As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them also had the face of an eagle. 11 Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies.

12 Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. 13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and lightning went out of the fire. 14 The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. 16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel.

17 When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. 18 As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. 19 When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. 20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. 21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 Over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of an expanse, like awesome crystal to look on, stretched out over their heads above. 23 Under the expanse their wings were straight, the one toward the other: each one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. 24 When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings. 25 There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings.

26 Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. 27 I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. 28 As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of Jehovah's glory. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

CHAPTER TWO

1 He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you." 2 The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. 3 He said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. 4 The children are impudent and stiff-hearted: I am sending you to them; and you shall tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah.' 5 They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. 6 You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 7 You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious. 8 But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; don't be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you."

9 When I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was therein; 10 He spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER THREE

1 He said to me, "Son of man, eat that which you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll.

3 He said to me, "Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you." Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

4 He said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. 5 For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; 6 not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are obstinate and hard-hearted. 8 Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. 9 I have made your forehead like a diamond harder than flint: don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house."

10 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. 11 Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah,' whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear."

12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, "Blessed be Jehovah's glory from his place."

13 I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. 14 So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and Jehovah's hand was strong on me. 15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.

16 At the end of seven days, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. 18 When I tell the wicked, 'You shall surely die;' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. 19 Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. 20 Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand. 21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul."

22 Jehovah's hand was on me there; and he said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and I will talk with you there." 23 Then I arose, and went out into the plain: and behold, Jehovah's glory stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.

24 Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, "Go, shut yourself inside your house. 25 But you, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: 26 and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. 27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house."

CHAPTER FOUR

1 "You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem: 2 and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it all around. 3 Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 "Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. 5 For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days: so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. 6 Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, I have appointed it to you. 7 You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. 8 Behold, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

9 "Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. 10 Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time you shall eat it. 11 You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you shall drink. 12 You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man."

13 Jehovah said, "Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them."

14 Then I said, "Ah Lord Jehovah! Behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither has abominable flesh come into my mouth."

15 Then he said to me, "Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread on it."

16 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: 17 that they may lack bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity."

CHAPTER FIVE

1 "You, son of man, take a sharp sword; You shall take it as a barber's razor to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. 2 A third part you shall burn in the fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. 3 You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. 4 Some of these again you shall take, and cast them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it a fire shall come out into all the house of Israel."

5 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the middle of the nations, and countries are around her. 6 She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them."

7 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Because you are turbulent more than the nations, and countries are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you;" 8 therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. 9 I will do in you that which I have not done, and which I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. 10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in your midst, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you I will scatter to all the winds."

11 "Therefore as I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. 12 A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine they shall be consumed within you; and a third part shall fall by the sword around you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. 13 Thus my anger shall be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them."

14 "Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. 15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, Jehovah, have spoken it); 16 when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; 17 and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, Jehovah, have spoken it."

CHAPTER SIX

1 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them, 3 and say, 'You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: "Thus says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: 'Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. 4 Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. 5 I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. 6 In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. 7 The slain shall fall among you, and you shall know that I am Jehovah."

8 ""Yet I will leave a remnant, in that you shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries. 9 Those of you that escape shall remember me among the nations where they shall be carried captive, how I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which play the prostitute after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. 10 They shall know that I am Jehovah: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.'""

11 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, 'Alas!' because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. 12 He who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus I will accomplish my wrath on them. 13 You shall know that I am Jehovah, when their slain men shall be among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols. 14 I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "You, son of man, thus says the Lord Jehovah to the land of Israel, 'An end: the end has come on the four corners of the land. 3 Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. 4 My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations shall be among you: and you shall know that I am Jehovah.'"

5 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "An evil, an only evil; behold, it comes. 6 An end has come, the end has come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes. 7 Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land: the time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. 8 Now I will shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. 9 My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be among you; and you shall know that I, Jehovah, do strike.

10 "Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom has gone out; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded. 11 Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There shall be nothing of value among them. 12 The time has come, the day draws near: don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. 13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude of it, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 "They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but no one goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude. 15 The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. 16 But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity. 17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. 18 They shall also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads.

19 "They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. 20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore I have made it to them as an unclean thing. 21 I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a plunder; and they shall profane it. 22 My face I will turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it. 23 Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 "Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned. 25 Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. 26 Mischief shall come on mischief, and rumor shall be on rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. 27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments I will judge them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the Lord Jehovah's hand fell there on me. 2 Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal.

3 He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. 4 Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.

5 Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north."

So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they do, even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you shall again see yet other great abominations."

7 He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. 8 Then he said to me, "Son of man, dig now in the wall:" and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door.

9 He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here."

10 So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. 11 There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in the middle of them Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan stood, every man with his censer in his hand; and the smell of the cloud of incense went up.

12 Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? For they say, 'Jehovah doesn't see us; Jehovah has forsaken the land.'"

13 He said also to me, "You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do."

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of Jehovah's house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? You shall again see yet greater abominations than these."

16 He brought me into the inner court of Jehovah's house; and see, at the door of Jehovah's temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward Jehovah's temple, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshiping the sun toward the east.

17 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and behold, they put the branch to their nose. 18 Therefore I will also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them."

CHAPTER NINE

1 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand."

2 Behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the middle of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. 4 Jehovah said to him, "Go through the middle of the city, through the middle of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done within it." 5 To the others he said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him, and strike: don't let your eye spare, neither have pity; 6 kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary."

Then they began at the old men that were before the house. 7 He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!"

They went out, and struck in the city. 8 While they were killing, and I was left, I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Lord Jehovah! will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

9 Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, 'Jehovah has forsaken the land, and Jehovah doesn't see.' 10 As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head."

11 Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, "I have done as you have commanded me."

CHAPTER TEN

1 Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2 He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city."

He went in as I watched. 3 Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. 4 Jehovah's glory mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Jehovah's glory. 5 The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

6 It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. 7 The cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. 8 There appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. 10 As for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. 11 When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went. 12 Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. 13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "the whirling wheels."

14 Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. 16 When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. 17 When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Jehovah's glory went out from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. 19 The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went out, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of Jehovah's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. 21 Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. 22 As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of Jehovah's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five men; and I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; 3 who say, 'The time is not near to build houses: this is the cauldron, and we are the meat.' 4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man."

5 Jehovah's Spirit fell on me, and he said to me, "Speak," Jehovah says: "Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. 6 You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain. 7 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Your slain whom you have laid in the middle of it, they are the meat, and this is the cauldron; but you shall be brought out of the middle of it. 8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you," says the Lord Jehovah. 9 "I will bring you out of the middle of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. 10 You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 11 This shall not be your cauldron, neither shall you be the meat in the middle of it; I will judge you in the border of Israel; 12 and you shall know that I am Jehovah: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you.""

13 When I prophesied, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord Jehovah! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

14 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 15 "Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far away from Jehovah. This land has been given to us for a possession.' 16 Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come." 17 Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. 18 They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all its abominations from there. 19 I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; 20 that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. 21 But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads," says the Lord Jehovah."

22 Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 23 Jehovah's glory went up from the middle of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. 24 The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. 25 Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that Jehovah had shown me.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Jehovah's word also came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, you dwell in the middle of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house. 3 Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight; and you shall move from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. 4 You shall bring out your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for moving; and you shall go out yourself in the evening in their sight, as when men go out into exile. 5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. 6 In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you don't see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel."

7 I did so as I was commanded: I brought out my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it out in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight.

8 In the morning, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?' 10 Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are." 11 Say, 'I am your sign: as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity. 12 The prince who is among them shall bear on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go out: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes. 13 My net also I will spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there. 14 I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. 15 They shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. 16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.”

17 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 18 “Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; 19 and tell the people of the land, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: “They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. 20 The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.””

21 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 22 “Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, ‘The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?’ 23 Tell them therefore, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel;”’ but tell them, ‘The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. 24 For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. 25 For I am Jehovah; I will speak, and the word that I speak will be performed. It will be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, I will speak the word, and will perform it,’ says the Lord Jehovah.”

26 Again Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 27 “Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, ‘The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.’ 28 Therefore tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “None of my words shall be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed,” says the Lord Jehovah.”

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, ‘Hear Jehovah’s word: 3 Thus says the Lord Jehovah, “Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! 4 Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. 5 You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of Jehovah. 6 They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, ‘Jehovah says;’ but Jehovah has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. 7 Haven’t you seen a false vision, and haven’t you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, ‘Jehovah says;’ but I have not spoken?”

8 “Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you,” says the Lord Jehovah. 9 “My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah. 10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, ‘Peace;’ and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they plaster it with whitewash: 11 tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it. 12 Behold, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, ‘Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it?’

13 “Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: “I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. 14 So I will break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the middle of it: and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 15 Thus I will accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will tell you, ‘The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; 16 to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace,’” says the Lord Jehovah.”

17 “You, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, 18 and say, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Woe to the women who sew amulets on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? 19 You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies.” 20 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against your amulets, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. 21 Your kerchiefs also I will tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 22 Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: 23 therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.””

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 Then certain of the elders of Israel came to me, and sat before me. 2 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 3 “Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? 4 Therefore speak to them, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I Jehovah will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols; 5 that I may take the house of Israel by their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.”

6 “Therefore tell the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Return, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. 7 For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I Jehovah will answer him by myself: 8 and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from among my people; and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 9 If the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, Jehovah, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from among my people Israel. 10 They shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; 11 that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God,” says the Lord Jehovah.”

12 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 13 “Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; 14 though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness,” says the Lord Jehovah. 15 “If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it is made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; 16 though these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord Jehovah, “they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate. 17 Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, ‘Sword, go through the land;’ so that I cut off from it man and animal; 18 though these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord Jehovah, “they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves. 19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; 20 though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live,” says the Lord Jehovah, “they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.”

21 For thus says the Lord Jehovah: “How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal! 22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be carried out, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come out to you, and you shall see their way and their doings; and you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. 23 They shall comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it,” says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3 Will wood be taken of it to make anything? Will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it? 4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and the middle of it is burned: is it profitable for any work? 5 Behold, when it was whole, it was fit for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be fit for any work!” 6 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: “As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 7 I will set my face against them; they shall go out from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am Jehovah, when I set my face against them. 8 I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass,” says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 Again Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; 3 and say, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah to Jerusalem: “Your birth and your nativity is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. 4 As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you weren’t salted at all, nor swaddled at all. 5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, for your person was abhorred, in the day that you were born.

6 ““When I passed by you, and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you, ‘Though you are in your blood, live;’ yes, I said to you, ‘Though you are in your blood, live.’ 7 I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare.

8 ““Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you,” says the Lord Jehovah, “and you became mine. 9 Then I washed you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. 10 I clothed you also with embroidered work, and shod you with sealskin, and I dressed you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. 11 I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. 12 I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. 13 Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. 14 Your renown went out among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you," says the Lord Jehovah.

15 "But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; his it was. 16 You took some of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them. This shall not come, neither shall it be. 17 You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them; 18 and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. 19 My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and so it was," says the Lord Jehovah.

20 "Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, 21 that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? 22 In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood. 23 It has happened after all your wickedness, ("Woe, woe to you!" says the Lord Jehovah), 24 that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. 25 You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. 26 You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger.

27 "See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your portion, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way.

28 "You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. 29 You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this. 30 How weak is your heart," says the Lord Jehovah, "since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; 31 in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay. 32 A wife who commits adultery! Who takes strangers instead of her husband! 33 They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. 34 You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give payment, and no payment is given to you, therefore you are different.

35 "Therefore, prostitute, hear Jehovah's word: 36 Thus says the Lord Jehovah, "Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; 37 therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those whom you have loved, with all those whom you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. 38 I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. 39 I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare.

40 "They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. 41 They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you shall also give no payment any more. 42 So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 "Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head," says the Lord Jehovah: "and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations. 44 Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, 'As is the mother, so is her daughter.' 45 You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. 46 Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 "Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, soon you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. 48 As I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters. 49 Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. 50 They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away when I saw it.

51 "Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. 52 You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters. 53 I will restore them from captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives among them; 54 that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them.

55 ““Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. 56 For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, 57 before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you all around. 58 You have borne your lewdness and your abominations,” says Jehovah. 59 For thus says the Lord Jehovah: “I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 ““Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. 61 Then you shall remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. 62 I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am Jehovah; 63 that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done,” says the Lord Jehovah.”

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, tell a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; 3 and say, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: 4 he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to the land of Canaan; he set it in a city of merchants. 5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow tree. 6 It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, and produced branches, and shot out sprigs.

7 ““There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot out its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. 8 It was planted in good soil by many waters, that it might produce branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a noble vine.”

9 “Say, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? And not by a strong arm or many people can it be raised from its roots. 10 Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the beds where it grew.””

11 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 12 “Say now to the rebellious house, ‘Don’t you know what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to himself to Babylon: 13 and he took one of the royal offspring, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; 14 that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? Shall he escape who does such things? Shall he break the covenant, and yet escape? 16 As I live,’ says the Lord Jehovah, ‘surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the middle of Babylon he shall die. 17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. 18 For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape.”

19 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: “As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. 20 I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. 21 All his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken it.”

22 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: 23 in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall produce boughs, and bear fruit, and be a noble cedar: and under it all birds of every wing shall dwell; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. 24 All the trees of the field shall know that I, Jehovah, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, Jehovah, have spoken and have done it.”

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 Jehovah’s word came to me again, saying, 2 “What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge?’ 3 As I live,” says the Lord

Jehovah, "you shall not use this proverb any more in Israel. 4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins, he shall die. 5 But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, 6 and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity, 7 and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 8 he who has not lent on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, 9 has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live," says the Lord Jehovah.

10 "If he fathers a son who is a robber who sheds blood, and who does any one of these things, 11 or who does not do any of those things, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, 12 has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, 13 has lent on interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? He shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on himself.

14 "Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not do like them; 15 who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, 16 neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 17 who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 "As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die in his iniquity."

19 "Yet you say, 'Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. 20 The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on himself. 21 But if the wicked turns from all his sins that he has committed, and keeps all my statutes, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. 22 None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live.

23 "Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" says the Lord Jehovah; "and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? 24 But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he shall die.

25 "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear now, house of Israel: Is my way not fair? Aren't your ways unfair?"

26 "When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done he shall die. 27 Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. 28 Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 "Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' House of Israel, aren't my ways fair? Aren't your ways unfair?"

30 "Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways," says the Lord Jehovah. "Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. 31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies," says the Lord Jehovah: "therefore turn yourselves, and live."

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 "Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, 2 and say, 'What was your mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the middle of the young lions she nourished her cubs. 3 She brought up one of her cubs: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. 4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt. 5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. 6 He went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. 7 He knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring. 8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. 9 They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.

10 "Your mother was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. 11 It had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. 12 But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. 13 Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. 14 Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule.' This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation."

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Jehovah, and sat before me. 2 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "I will not be inquired of by you."'"

4 "Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; 5 and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the offspring of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, 'I am Jehovah your God; 6 in that day I swore to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. 7 I said to them, 'Cast away every man the abominations of his eyes, and don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.'"

8 "But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they each didn't throw away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the middle of the land of Egypt. 9 But I acted for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them out of the land of Egypt. 10 So I caused them to go out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. 11 I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he shall live by them. 12 Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Jehovah who sanctifies them. 13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keeps, he shall live by them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned.

"Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. 14 But I acted for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. 15 Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; 16 because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. 17 Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.

18 "I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Don't walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. 19 I am Jehovah your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; 20 and make my Sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am Jehovah your God.' 21 But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man does, he shall live by them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. 22 Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and acted for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.

23 "Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; 24 because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. 25 Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances by which they should not live; 26 and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that opens the womb to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Jehovah.""

27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. 28 For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their pleasant aroma, and they poured out there their drink offerings. 29 Then I said to them, 'What does the high place where you go mean?' So its name is called Bamah to this day.""

30 "Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? And do you play the prostitute after their abominations? 31 And when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? And shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel?" As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, "I will not be inquired of by you; 32 and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, 'We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.'"

33 "As I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you: 34 and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; 35 and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face. 36 As I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you," says the Lord Jehovah.

37 "I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; 38 and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and you shall know that I am Jehovah."

39 "As for you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Go, serve everyone his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. 40 For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel,' says the Lord Jehovah, 'there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. 41 As a pleasant aroma will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. 42 You shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. 43 There you shall remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. 44 You shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel,' says the Lord Jehovah."

45 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 46 "Son of man, set your face toward the south, and preach toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; 47 and tell the forest of the South, 'Hear Jehovah's word: "Thus says the Lord Jehovah, 'Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby. 48 All flesh shall see that I, Jehovah, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.'""

49 Then I said, "Ah Lord Jehovah! They say of me, 'Isn't he a speaker of parables?'"

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and preach toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel; 3 and tell the land of Israel, 'Jehovah says: "Behold, I am against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore my sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: 5 and all flesh shall know that I, Jehovah, have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more.'""

6 "Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your heart and with bitterness you will sigh before their eyes. 7 It shall be, when they say to you, 'Why do you sigh?' that you shall say, 'Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done,' says the Lord Jehovah."

8 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Jehovah says: "Say, 'A sword, a sword,' it is sharpened, and also polished; 10 it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is polished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? The rod of my son, it condemns every tree. 11 It is given to be polished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is polished, to give it into the hand of the killer.'" 12 Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. 13 For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more?" says the Lord Jehovah.

14 "You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their rooms. 15 I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter.

16 "Gather yourselves together, go to the right, set yourselves in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set. 17 I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, Jehovah, have spoken it."

18 Jehovah's word came to me again, saying, 19 "Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they both shall come out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. 20 You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. 21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in the liver. 22 In his right hand was the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. 23 It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken."

24 "Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand. 25 You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end,' 26 thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this will not be as it was; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he comes whose right it is; and I will give it.”

28 “You, son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach,’ and say, ‘A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is polished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; 29 while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. 30 Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, I will judge you. 31 I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. 32 You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the middle of the land; you shall be remembered no more: for I, Jehovah, have spoken it.’”

1 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 2 “You, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. 3 You shall say, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “A city that sheds blood within herself, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! 4 You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years: therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. 5 Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult. 6 Behold, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. 7 In you they have made light of father and mother; among you they have dealt oppressively with the foreigner; in you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow. 8 You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. 9 Slandering men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: they have committed lewdness among you. 10 In you have they uncovered their fathers’ nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. 11 One has committed abomination with his neighbor’s wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father’s daughter. 12 In you they have taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me,” says the Lord Jehovah.

13 “Behold, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been within you. 14 Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, Jehovah, have spoken it, and will do it. 15 I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. 16 You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.””

17 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the middle of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. 19 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: ‘Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem. 20 As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. 21 Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the middle of it. 22 As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you will be melted in the middle of it; and you will know that I, Jehovah, have poured out my wrath on you.’”

23 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 24 “Son of man, tell her, ‘You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation.’ 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets within it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many within it. 26 Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. 27 Her princes within it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. 28 Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, “Thus says the Lord Jehovah,” when Jehovah has not spoken. 29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully. 30 I sought for a man among them, who should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one. 31 Therefore I have poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way I have brought on their heads,’ says the Lord Jehovah.”

1 Jehovah’s word came again to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: 3 and they played the prostitute in Egypt; they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. 4 Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.

5 “Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, 6 who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses.

7 She gave herself as a prostitute to them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. 8 Neither has she left her prostitution since leaving Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on her.

9 "Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted. 10 These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they killed with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her.

11 "Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her prostitutions which were more than the prostitution of her sister. 12 She doted on the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. 13 I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. 14 She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, 15 dressed with girdles on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princes to look on, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. 16 As soon as she saw them she doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea.

17 "The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. 18 So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, as my soul was alienated from her sister. 19 Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. 20 She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. 21 Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth.

22 "'Therefore, Oholibah,' thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: 23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. 24 They shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet all around; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. 25 I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. 26 They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. 27 Thus I will make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more."

28 "For thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; 29 and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. 30 These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. 31 You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore will I give her cup into your hand.'

32 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. 33 You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. 34 You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it,' says the Lord Jehovah.

35 "Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution.'

36 Jehovah said moreover to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. 37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. 38 Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. 39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, thus have they done in the middle of my house.

40 "Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and decorate yourself with ornaments, 41 and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you set my incense and my oil.'

42 "The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands, and beautiful crowns on their heads. 43 Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, 'Now they will play the prostitute with her, and she with them.'

44 "They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. 45 Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 "For thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. 47 The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. 48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. 49 "They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.'"

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

1 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, write the name of the day, this same day. The king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this same day. 3 Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah, "Set on the cauldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: 4 gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. 5 Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the cauldron; make it boil well; yes, let its bones be boiled within it."

6 "Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Woe to the bloody city, to the cauldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! Take out of it piece after piece. No lot is fallen on it. 7 For her blood is in the middle of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. 8 That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered."

9 "Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. 10 Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. 11 Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its brass may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed. 12 She is weary with toil; yet her great rust doesn't leave her; her rust doesn't go by fire. 13 'In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. 14 I, Jehovah, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, they shall judge you,' says the Lord Jehovah.'"

15 Also Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 16 "Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. 17 Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and don't cover your lips, and don't eat men's bread."

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning; and in the evening my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. 19 The people said to me, "Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?"

20 Then I said to them, "Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 21 'Speak to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. 22 You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. 23 Your turbans shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. 24 Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord Jehovah.'"

25 "You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, 26 that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? 27 In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so you will be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

1 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them: 3 and tell the children of Ammon, 'Hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: "Thus says the Lord Jehovah, 'Because you said, "Aha," against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: 4 therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. 5 I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks: and you shall know that I am Jehovah.'"

6 "For thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with a spiteful heart against the land of Israel; 7 therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a plunder to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.'"

8 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Because Moab and Seir say, "Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations;" 9 therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim, 10 to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. 11 and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.'"

12 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them; 13 therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah, 'I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword. 14 I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance,' says the Lord Jehovah."

15 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a spiteful heart to destroy with perpetual hostility;' 16 therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah, 'Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. 17 I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.'"

1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, 'Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste:' 3 therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah, 'Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. 4 They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. 5 She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have spoken it,' says the Lord Jehovah; 'and she shall become a plunder to the nations. 6 Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am Jehovah.'

7 "For thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Behold, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. 8 He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. 9 He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. 10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which a breach is made. 11 With the hoofs of his horses he shall tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. 12 They shall make a plunder of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the middle of the waters. 13 I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. 14 I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I Jehovah have spoken it,' says the Lord Jehovah.

15 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah to Tyre: 'Shall not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made within you? 16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. 17 They shall take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, "How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there!" 18 Now the islands shall tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the islands that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure.'

19 "For thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; 20 then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: 21 I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again,' says the Lord Jehovah."

1 Jehovah's word came again to me, saying, 2 "You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre; 3 and tell Tyre, 'You who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, thus says the Lord Jehovah: "You, Tyre, have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.' 4 Your borders are in the heart of the sea; your builders have perfected your beauty. 5 They have made all your planks of cypress trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. 6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the islands of Kittim. 7 Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for a banner; blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning.

8 "The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. 9 The old men of Gebal and the wise men of it were in you your repairers of ship seams: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise. 10 Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they showed your beauty. 11 The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls all around; they have perfected your beauty.

12 ““Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares. 13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for your merchandise. 14 They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war horses and mules. 15 The men of Dedan were your traffickers; many islands were the market of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. 16 Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies.

17 ““Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm. 18 Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. 19 Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. 20 Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding.

21 ““Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these they were your merchants. 22 The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. 23 Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers. 24 These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. 25 The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

26 ““Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. 27 Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is among you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin.

28 ““At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. 29 All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, 30 and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: 31 and they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe themselves with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning.

32 ““In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, ‘Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the middle of the sea?’

33 When your wares went out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. 34 In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell within you. 35 All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. 36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.””

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

1 Jehovah’s word came again to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the middle of the seas;’ yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God— 3 behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; 4 by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; 5 by your great wisdom and by your trade you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches”— 6 therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, 7 therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. 8 They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas.

9 ““Will you yet say before him who kills you, ‘I am God,’ whereas you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you? 10 You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it,” says the Lord Jehovah.”

11 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 12 “Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “You seal up the measure of perfection, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared.

14 You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the middle of the stones of fire.

15 ““You were perfect* in your

* 28:13-17 This parable directed at the king of Tyre seems to indicate the angelic cherub who became Satan was originally assigned to care for things on earth when the first humans were placed in the garden of Eden. Just as “God made people good, but they have found all kinds of ways to be bad” (Eccl. 7:29 NCV), fallen angels like Satan appear to have exercised their free will to rebel against God. As the first one to do so, Satan evidently became their chief or leader. Scripture calls him the devil (from a Greek word meaning slanderer) or Satan (from a ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you.

16 By the abundance of your trade they filled your insides with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the middle of the stones of fire. 17 Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. 18 By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your trade, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore I have brought out a fire from the middle of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. 19 All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.””

20 Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 21 “Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, 22 and say, “Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified among you;” and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. 23 For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall within her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. 24 There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them, that scorned them; and they shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.”

25 “Thus says the Lord Jehovah: ‘When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. 26 They shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who despise them all around them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah their God.’”

1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. 3 Speak and say, “Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the middle of his rivers, that has said, ‘My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.’ 4 I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the middle of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. 5 I’ll cast you out into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You’ll fall on the open field. You won’t be brought together, nor gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky. 6 All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Jehovah, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. 7 When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their thighs.”

8 “Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. 9 The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. Because he has said, ‘The river is mine, and I have made it;’ 10 therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveh even to the border of Ethiopia. 11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. 12 I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the middle of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.””

13 “For thus says the Lord Jehovah: ‘At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered; 14 and I will restore Egypt from captivity, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a lowly kingdom. 15 It shall be the lowest of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. 16 It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, by their turning after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.””

17 It came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, Jehovah’s word came to me, saying, 18 “Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet he had no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. 19 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: ‘Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her plunder, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. 20 I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me,’ says the Lord Jehovah. 21 ‘In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth among them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.””

CHAPTER THIRTY

1 Jehovah’s word came again to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, prophesy, and say, “Thus says the Hebrew word meaning adversary). He is “the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world”—an apparent reference to the serpent in Eden. (Revelation 12:9)

Lord Jehovah: "Wail, 'Alas for the day!' 3 For the day is near, even the day of Jehovah is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations. 4 A sword shall come on Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. 5 Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mixed people, and Cub, and the children of the land that is allied with them, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 "Jehovah says: "They also who uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Seveneh they shall fall in it by the sword," says the Lord Jehovah. 7 "They shall be desolate in the middle of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the middle of the cities that are wasted. 8 They shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed.

9 "In that day messengers shall go out from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes." 10 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. 11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. 12 I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, Jehovah, have spoken it."

13 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. 14 I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No. 15 I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. 16 I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime. 17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and they shall go into captivity. 18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. 19 Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.""

20 In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and behold, it has not been bound up, to apply medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. 22 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. 23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. 24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groaning of a mortally wounded man. 25 I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt. 26 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

1 In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his multitude: 'Whom are you like in your greatness? 3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs. 4 The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. 5 Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it spread them out. 6 All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth to their young; and all great nations lived under its shadow.

7 "Thus it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. 8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the cypress trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. 9 I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.

10 "Therefore thus said the Lord Jehovah: "Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; 11 I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. 12 Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. 13 On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; 14 to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.""

15 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "In the day when he went down to Sheol I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. 16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. 17 They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the middle of the nations. 18 'To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the middle of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.' This is Pharaoh and all his multitude," says the Lord Jehovah."

1 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him, 'You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet you are as a monster in the seas; and you broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. 3 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. 4 I will leave you on the land, I will cast you out on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. 5 I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. 6 I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. 7 When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. 8 All the bright lights of the sky I will make dark over you, and set darkness on your land," says the Lord Jehovah.

9 "I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. 10 Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall." "

11 "For thus says the Lord Jehovah: "The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. 12 By the swords of the mighty I will cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. 13 I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. 14 Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil," says the Lord Jehovah."

15 "When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell therein, then shall they know that I am Jehovah. 16 This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, they shall lament therewith,' says the Lord Jehovah."

17 Also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. 19 'Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. 20 They shall fall among those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. 21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the middle of Sheol with those who help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 "Asshur is there and all her company; her graves are all around her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; 23 whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

24 "There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. 25 They have set her a bed among the slain with all her multitude; her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put among those who are slain.

26 "There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude; their graves are around them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. 27 They shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. 28 But you shall be broken among the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword.

29 "There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit. 30 There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. 31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword,' says the Lord Jehovah. 32 'For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE

1 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, 'When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; 3 if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blows the trumpet, and warns the people; 4 then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn't take warning, if the sword comes, and takes him away, his blood shall be on his own head. 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn't take warning; his blood shall be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul.

6 "But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and takes any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.'

7 "So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. 8 When I tell the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die,' and you don't speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. 9 Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

10 "You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: 'Thus you speak, saying, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live?"' 11 Tell them, "As I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Israel?"'

12 "You, son of man, tell the children of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins.' 13 When I tell the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trusts in his righteousness, and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, therein he shall die. 14 Again, when I say to the wicked, "You shall surely die;" if he turns from his sin, and does that which is lawful and right; 15 if the wicked restores the pledge, gives again that which he had taken by robbery, walks in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. 16 None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 "Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair:' but as for them, their way is not fair. 18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die therein. 19 When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. 20 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways."

21 In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city has been struck." 22 Now Jehovah's hand had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute.

23 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, 'Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.' 25 Therefore tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? 26 You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife: and shall you possess the land?"' 27 You shall tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field I will give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. 28 I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that no one shall pass through. 29 Then they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.'"

30 "As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak to one another, everyone to his brother, saying, 'Please come and hear what is the word that comes out from Jehovah.' 31 They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. 32 Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them. 33 When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes), then they shall know that a prophet has been among them."

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR

1 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and tell them, even the shepherds, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep? 3 You eat the fat, and you clothe yourself with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but you don't feed the sheep. 4 You haven't strengthened the diseased, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor you have ruled over them. 5 They were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth; and there was no one who searched or sought.

7 "Therefore, you shepherds, hear Jehovah's word: 8 "As I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep; 9 therefore, you shepherds," hear Jehovah's word:

10 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them." 11 For thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. 12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. 13 I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them with good pasture; and their fold shall be on the mountains of the height of Israel: there they shall lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. 15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says the Lord Jehovah.

16 "I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice. 17 As for you, O my flock," thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. 18 Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? And to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? 19 As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.

20 "Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah to them: "Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21 Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; 22 therefore I will save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23 I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. 24 I, Jehovah, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I, Jehovah, have spoken it.

25 "I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. 26 I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. 27 The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. 28 They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and no one shall make them afraid. 29 I will raise up to them a renowned plantation, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more. 30 They shall know that I, Jehovah their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people," says the Lord Jehovah. 31 "You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord Jehovah.""

CHAPTER THIRTY-FIVE

1 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 3 and tell it, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment.

4 "I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 5 Because you have had a perpetual hostility, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end; 6 therefore, as I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you. 7 Thus I will make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns. 8 I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses they who are slain with the sword shall fall. 9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.

10 "Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it,' whereas Jehovah was there: 11 therefore, as I live," says the Lord Jehovah, "I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you. 12 You shall know that I, Jehovah, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are laid desolate, they have been given us to devour.' 13 You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it.

14 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.""

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

1 "You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, 'You mountains of Israel, hear Jehovah's word. 2 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Because the enemy has said against you, 'Aha!' and, 'The ancient high places are ours in possession;'" 3 therefore prophesy, and say, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; 4 therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah:" Thus says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around; 5 therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with a spiteful heart, to cast it out for a prey.'" "

6 "Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains and the hills, the watercourses and the valleys, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations:" 7 therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "I have sworn, Surely the nations that are around you, they shall bear their shame. 8 But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown; 10 and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; 11 and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and you will do better than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am Jehovah.

12 "Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children." 13 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Because they say to you, 'You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation;' 14 therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more," says the Lord Jehovah; 15 "neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more,"

says the Lord Jehovah."

16 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. 18 Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; 19 and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. 20 When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, 'These are the people of Jehovah, and are gone out of his land.' 21 But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went.

22 "Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "I don't do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went. 23 I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them; and the nations shall know that I am Jehovah," says the Lord Jehovah, "when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 "For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. 25 I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, I will cleanse you. 26 I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. 27 I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. 28 You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 "I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. 30 I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. 31 Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 "Nor for your sake do I this," says the Lord Jehovah, "be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel." 33 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. 34 The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. 35 They shall say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.' 36 Then the nations that are left around you shall know that I, Jehovah, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Jehovah, have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "For this, moreover, I will be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. 38 As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.""

CHAPTER THIRTY-SEVEN

1 Jehovah's hand was on me, and he brought me out in Jehovah's Spirit, and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2 He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. 3 He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "Lord Jehovah, you know."

4 Again he said to me, "Prophecy over these bones, and tell them, 'You dry bones, hear Jehovah's word. 5 Thus says the Lord Jehovah to these bones: "Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. 6 I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am Jehovah."'"

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

9 Then he said to me, "Prophecy to the wind, prophecy, son of man, and tell the wind, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.'" 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

11 Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off.' 12 Therefore prophecy, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. 13 You shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. 14 I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken it and performed it," says Jehovah.'"

15 Jehovah's word came again to me, saying, 16 "You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, 'For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions:' then take another stick, and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:' 17 and join them to one another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.

18 "When the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?' 19 tell them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand.'"

20 "The sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. 21 Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: 22 and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel;" and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all; 23 neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 "My servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. 25 They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. 26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them forever more. 27 My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 28 The nations shall know that I am Jehovah who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary shall be among them forever more.'"

CHAPTER THIRTY-EIGHT

1 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh,† Meshech, and Tubal, and

* 37:21-22 According to famed preacher Charles Haddon Spurgeon, speaking in 1864, this means "that there shall be a political restoration of the Jews to their own land and to their own nationality." ("The Restoration And Conversion Of The Jews. on Ezekiel 37.1-10")

† 38:2 Many modern commentators see "the prince of Rosh" as a reference to Russia. They see this passage as foretelling a future attack against Israel by Russia and a broad coalition of nations seven years before the battle of Armageddon.

But other commentators question the connection between Rosh and Russia. The Hebrew word rosh occurs 598 times in Scripture, according to Strong's Concordance, and none of those occurrences refer to a people or nation; rather, it is a common noun meaning head, chief, top, beginning or something similar, depending on the context. The New Scofield Reference Bible (1967 edition) says 'chief prince' in the main text and 'prince of Rosh' only in a marginal note. But the footnote says, "The reference is to the prophecy against him, 3 and say, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: 4 and I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; 5 Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; 6 Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.

7 "“Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. 8 After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel,† which have been a continual waste; but it is brought out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. 9 You shall ascend, you shall come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.

10 "“Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "It shall happen in that day, that things shall come into your mind, and you shall devise an evil device: 11 and you shall say, 'I will go up to the land of unwallled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates;' 12 to take the plunder and to take the prey; to powers in the north of Europe, headed by Russia. ... The entire prophecy belongs to the yet future day of the Lord."

Throughout the years of the Cold War it was the Soviet Union (primarily Russia) that took the lead in attacking Israel at the United Nations, along with the Arab states. In 1967 the forces of Egypt, Jordan, Syria and Iraq massed on Israel's borders in obvious preparation for an attack, but Israel struck first preemptively in what came to be called the Six Day War. Russia played a major role, reportedly supplying much of the sophisticated military equipment used by the Arab side. In the 1969-1970 War of Attrition, Russia supplied the Arabs with military hardware and thousands of "advisors." Russians flew Mig fighter planes, operated sophisticated radar installations, and launched surface-to-air missiles against Israeli planes. The IAF reported shooting down five Russian pilots.

The Apostle John's Apocalypse uses similar language to refer to all the nations—"the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog." (Revelation 20:8) So, Ezekiel's list of nations could likewise represent the entire world community of nations.

* 38:5-6 The prophet adds that Gog would have allies including Iran (Persia) and "many" other nations.

Genesis, chapter 10, lists Cush and Put as grandsons of Noah through his son Ham, and Magog, Gomer, Meshech and Tubal as grandsons through Japheth—plus Togarmah as a great-grandson—noting that "All the families grew and became different nations, each nation with its own land and its own language." (Genesis 10:5 NCV) Commentaries locate these nations across portions of Europe, Asia and Africa.

† 38:8 This description would fit the modern state of Israel, populated by Jews who returned to the Promised Land from distant places where they had been scattered for centuries.

turn your hand against the waste places that are inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth.

13 "“Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, shall tell you, 'Have you come to take the plunder? Have you assembled your company to take the prey, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?'"

14 "Therefore, son of man, prophecy, and tell Gog, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "In that day when my people Israel dwell securely, shall you not know it? 15 You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; 16 and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes."

17 "“Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for years that I would bring you against them? 18 It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel," says the Lord Jehovah, "that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils. 19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath I have spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; 20 so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. 21 I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains," says the Lord Jehovah: "every man's sword shall be against his brother. 22 With pestilence and with blood I will enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. 23 I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.""

CHAPTER THIRTY-NINE

1 "You, son of man, prophecy against Gog, and say, 'Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I am against you, Gog,‡ prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: 2 and I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel; 3 and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. 4 You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. 5 You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it," says the Lord Jehovah.

6 "I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. 7 My holy name I will make known among my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, the Holy One in Israel. 8 Behold, it comes, and it shall be done," says the Lord Jehovah; "this is the day about which I have spoken. 9 Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go out, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; 10 so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them," says the Lord Jehovah.

11 "It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it 'The valley of Hamon Gog.' 12 Seven months the house of Israel shall be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. 13 Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified," says the Lord Jehovah.

14 "They shall set apart men of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months they shall search. 15 Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a man's bone, then he shall set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. 16 Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus they shall cleanse the land."

17 "You, son of man,' thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, "Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. 18 You shall eat the flesh* of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. 19 You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20 You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war," says the Lord Jehovah.

21 "I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. 22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am Jehovah their God, from that day and forward. 23 The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I did to them; and I hid my face from them."

25 "Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah: "Now I will restore Jacob from captivity, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. 26 They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and no one shall make them afraid; 27 when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. 28 They shall know that I am Jehovah their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; 29 neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel," says the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER FORTY

1 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck, on the same day, Jehovah's hand was on me, and he brought me there. 2 In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. 3 He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a

* 39:17-20 There is a similarity of language between Ezekiel 39 and Revelation 19:17-18, which may imply that Ezekiel was writing concerning the same final war discussed in the nineteenth chapter of Revelation. In both passages all the birds are invited to eat the flesh of the world's rulers and their armies, after the nations are defeated by God's forces. The Apostle John, who wrote the Revelation under divine inspiration, was familiar with Ezekiel's earlier writings, so his use of similar language would not be a mere accident.

4 The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you are brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

5 Behold, a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a hand width each: so he measured the thickness of the wall, one reed; and the height, one reed. 6 Then he came to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; and the other threshold, one reed wide. 7 Every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed wide; and between the little chambers was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. 9 Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. 10 The little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. 11 He measured the width of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; 12 and a border before the little chambers, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the little chambers, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. 13 He measured the gate from the roof of the one little chamber to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits; door against door.

14 He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. 15 From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. 16 There were closed windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches; and windows were around inward; and on each post were palm trees. 17 Then he brought me into the outer court; and behold, there were rooms and a pavement, made for the court all around: thirty rooms were on the pavement. 18 The pavement was by the side of the gates, next to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the width from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. 20 The gate of the outer court whose face is toward the north, he measured its length and its width. 21 The little chambers of it were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 22 The windows of it, and its arches, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose face is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them.

23 There was a gate to the inner court facing the other gate, on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits. 24 He led me toward the south; and behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measurements. 25 There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 26 There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. 27 There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.

28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measurements; 29 and its little chambers, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements: and there were windows in it and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. 30 There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. 31 The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

32 He brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measurements; 33 and its little chambers, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements: and there were windows therein and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. 34 The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

35 He brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measurements; 36 its little chambers, its posts, and its arches: and there were windows therein all around; the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 37 The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. 38 A room with its door was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering.

39 In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, on which to kill the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering. 40 On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. 41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices. 42 There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice. 43 The hooks, a hand width long, were fastened within all around: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 Outside of the inner gate were rooms for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their face was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having its face toward the north. 45 He said to me, "This room, whose face is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the house; 46 and the room whose face is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to Jehovah to minister to him."

47 He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits wide, square; and the altar was before the house. 48 Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the width of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. 49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

1 He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits wide on the one side, and six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. 2 The width of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured its length, forty cubits, and the width twenty cubits. 3 Then he went inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. 4 He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

5 Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. 6 The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they might be supported, and not penetrate the wall of the house. 7 The side rooms were wider on the higher levels, because the walls were narrower at the higher levels. Therefore the width of the house increased upward; and so one went up from the lowest level to the highest through the middle level.

8 I saw also that the house had a raised base all around: the foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. 9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. 10 Between the rooms was a width of twenty cubits around the house on every side. 11 The doors of the side rooms were toward an open area that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. The width of the open area was five cubits all around. 12 The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred cubits long; 14 also the width of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits.

15 He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; 16 the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), 17 to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure.

18 It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; 19 so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. It was made like this through all the house all around: 20 from the ground to above the door cherubim and palm trees were carved: thus was the wall of the temple. 21 As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, its appearance was as the appearance of the temple. 22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood: and he said to me, "This is the table that is before Jehovah."

23 The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. 24 The doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two for the one door, and two leaves for the other. 25 There were carved on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, as were carved on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. 26 There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side rooms of the house, and the thresholds.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO

1 Then he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the room that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. 2 Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits. 3 Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third floor. 4 Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' width inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. 5 Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. 6 For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was set back more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. 7 The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits; and behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits.

9 From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court. 10 In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. 11 The way before them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their width: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. 12 According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

13 Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, they are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to Jehovah shall eat the most holy things: there they shall lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter in, then they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which is for the people."

15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the gate whose face is toward the east, and measured it all around. 16 He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. 17 He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. 18 He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 20 He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

1 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east.

2 Behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. 3 It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.

4 Jehovah's glory came into the house by the way of the gate whose face is toward the east. 5 The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, Jehovah's glory filled the house.

6 I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. 7 He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; 8 in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door post beside my door post, and there was a wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger.

9 "Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell among them forever. 10 You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. 11 If they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them.

12 "This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 "These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a hand width): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit, and its border around its edge a span; and this shall be the base of the altar. 14 From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the width a cubit. 15 The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. 16 The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square in its four sides. 17 The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide in its four sides; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and its bottom shall be a cubit around; and its steps shall look toward the east."

18 He said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord Jehovah: 'These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. 19 You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the offspring of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me,' says the Lord Jehovah, 'a young bull for a sin offering. 20 You shall take some of its blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around: thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. 21 You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary.

22 "On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. 23 When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without defect, and a ram out of the flock without defect. 24 You shall bring them near to Jehovah, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to Jehovah.

25 “Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without defect. 26 Seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. 27 When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you,” says the Lord Jehovah.”

1 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. 2 Jehovah said to me, “This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for Jehovah, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. 3 As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before Jehovah; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.”

4 Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, Jehovah’s glory filled Jehovah’s house: and I fell on my face.

5 Jehovah said to me, “Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of Jehovah’s house, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. 6 You shall tell the rebellious, even the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “You house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, 7 in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. 8 You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 “Thus says the Lord Jehovah, “No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel. 10 But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. 11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.

12 ““Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them,” says the Lord Jehovah, “and they shall bear their iniquity. 13 They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. 14 Yet I will make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done therein. 15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood,” says the Lord Jehovah: 16 “they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction.

17 ““It shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. 18 They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their waists; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that makes them sweat. 19 When they go out into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy rooms; and they shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments.

23 ““They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. 24 In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances they shall judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy. 25 They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. 26 After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. 27 In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering,” says the Lord Jehovah.

28 ““They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. 29 They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. 30 The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. 31 The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.””

CHAPTER FORTY-FIVE

1 ““Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to Jehovah, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the width shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all its border all around. 2 Of this there shall be a five hundred by five hundred square for the holy place; and fifty cubits for its suburbs all around. 3 Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a width of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. 4 It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Jehovah; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. 5 Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, for twenty rooms.

6 ““You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand wide, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. 7 What is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length next to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. 8 In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.”

9 “Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “Let it suffice you, princes of Israel: remove violence and plunder, and execute justice and righteousness; stop dispossessing my people,” says the Lord Jehovah. 10 “You shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath. 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain one tenth of a homer, and the ephah one tenth of a homer: its measure shall be after the homer. 12 The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina. 13 This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley; 14 and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, one tenth of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;) 15 and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel—for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them,” says the Lord Jehovah.

16 ““All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel. 17 It shall be the prince’s part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

18 “Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without defect; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. 19 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is ignorant: so you shall make atonement for the house.

21 ““In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 On that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. 23 The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to Jehovah, seven bulls and seven rams without defect daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. 24 He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 25 In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, he shall do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.””

CHAPTER FORTY-SIX

1 “Thus says the Lord Jehovah: “The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. 2 The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3 The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Jehovah on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.

4 ““The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to Jehovah shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without defect and a ram without defect; 5 and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 6 On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without defect, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without defect: 7 and he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

8 ““When the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by its way. 9 But when the people of the land shall come before Jehovah in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go out straight before him. 10 The prince, when they go in, shall go in with them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

11 ““In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 12 When the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to Jehovah, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day: then he shall go out; and after his going out one shall shut the gate. 13 You shall prepare a lamb a year old without defect for a burnt offering to Jehovah daily: morning by morning you shall prepare it. 14 You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to Jehovah continually by a perpetual ordinance. 15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.

16 "Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he gives of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. 18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people not be scattered every man from his possession.""

19 Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. 20 He said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them out into the outer court, to sanctify the people."

21 Then he brought me out into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. 22 In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty wide: these four in the corners were of one measure. 23 There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. 24 Then he said to me, "These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people."

CHAPTER FORTY-SEVEN

1 He brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. 2 Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 When the man went out eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. 4 Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through waters that were to the waist. 5 Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through.

6 He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen?" Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. 8 Then he said to me, "These waters flow out toward the eastern region, and will go down into the Arabah; and they will go toward the sea; and flow into the sea and when they flow into the sea, its waters will be healed. 9 It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. 10 It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, very many. 11 But the miry places of it, and its marshes, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. 12 By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall its fruit fail: it shall produce new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing."

13 Thus says the Lord Jehovah: "This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. 14 You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.

15 "This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. 17 The border from the sea, shall be Hazar Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

18 "The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea you shall measure. This is the east side.

19 "The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth Kadesh, to the brook, to the great sea. This is the south side southward.

20 "The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.

21 "So you shall divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. 22 It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. 23 It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance," says the Lord Jehovah.

1 "Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath, (and they shall have their sides east and west), Dan, one portion. 2 By the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion. 3 By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion. 4 By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion. 5 By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion. 6 By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion. 7 By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion. 8 By the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in width, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it.

9 "The offering that you shall offer to Jehovah shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in width. 10 For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in width, and toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of Jehovah shall be in the middle of it. 11 It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn't go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. 12 It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

13 "Next to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width: all the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand. 14 They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to Jehovah.

15 "The five thousand that are left in the width, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the middle of it. 16 These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand five hundred, and the south side four thousand five hundred, and on the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred. 17 The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty.

18 "The remainder in the length, next to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be next to the holy offering; and its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city. 19 Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. 20 All the offering shall be a square of twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer it as a holy offering, with the possession of the city.

21 "The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, next to the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it. 22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the middle of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince.

29 "This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions," says the Lord Jehovah.

30 "These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand five hundred reeds by measure; 31 and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. 32 At the east side four thousand five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. 33 At the south side four thousand five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. 34 At the west side four thousand five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one.

35 "It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, Jehovah is there."

DANIEL

CHAPTER ONE

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2 The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the children of Israel, even of the royal offspring and of the nobles; 4 youths in whom was no defect, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans.

5 The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king. 6 Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7 The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, Shadrach; and to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego. 8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God made Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. 10 The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? So would you endanger my head with the king."

11 Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: 12 "Test your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. 13 Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants."

14 So he listened to them in this matter, and provided them ten days. 15 At the end of ten days their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. 16 So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them vegetables.

17 Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. 18 At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 The king talked with them; and among them all no one was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore they stood before the king. 20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm.

21 Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER TWO

1 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.

3 The king said to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream."

4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in the Syrian language, "O king, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."

5 The king answered the Chaldeans, "The thing is gone from me: if you don't make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. 6 But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered the second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."

8 The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. 9 But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation."

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. 11 It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 So the decree went out, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

14 Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon; 15 he answered Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation. 17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: 18 that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. 20 Daniel answered, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. 21 He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; 22 he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. 23 I thank you, and praise you, you God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter."

24 Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said this to him: "Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation."

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said this to him: "I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation."

26 The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

27 Daniel answered before the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded neither wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, can show to the king; 28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: 29 as for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen.

30 "But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

31 "You, O king, saw, and behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its appearance was awesome. 32 As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, 33 its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay.

34 "You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. 35 Then the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold was all broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 "This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. 37 You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; 38 and wherever the children of men dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky he has given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold.

39 "After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all* the earth. 40 The fourth kingdom† shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, it shall break in pieces and crush.

41 Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it some of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. 42 As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. 43 Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cling to one another, even as iron does not mingle with clay.

44 "In the days of those kings the God of heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its

* 2:39 Daniel explained that the king's dream was a prophecy concerning the succession of world powers that would come after Babylon. The only mention here of a government ruling "all the earth" or "the whole world" is the reference to the "bronze" belly and thighs of the statue, the Greek empire of Alexander the Great. "After you [Babylon], another kingdom will rise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, that will rule over the whole earth." (Dan. 2: 39 NIV)

What did Daniel mean by that expression? Evidently that Babylon and its Persian, Greek and Roman successors all ruled over the civilized world, the known world of their day, from the standpoint of the nation of Israel and the Jewish people. None of them ruled over southern Africa, east Asia, Australia or North and South America. Daniel was not speaking of what we today would call a 'world government.'

Compare the discussion of Daniel 7:23b.

† 2:40 In later chapters Daniel used symbolic "beasts" or animals to reveal who the successors to Nebuchadnezzar's Babylonian Empire would be. His empire would fall to the Medo-Persian Empire, followed later by the Greek Empire. ("The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia. The shaggy goat is the king of Greece." - Daniel 8:20-21 NIV)

Here in chapter 2, Babylon was the image's head of gold, Persia the chest and arms of silver, and Greece the belly and thighs of bronze. Although Daniel did not name it (because it had not yet come into existence as a nation in his day), commentators are nearly unanimous in identifying the Roman Empire as the legs of iron.

The prophecy concludes that human governments would eventually be replaced by the Kingdom of God. (See verse 44.)

sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.* 45 Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet incense to him. 47 The king answered to Daniel, and said, "Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret."

48 Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the

* 2:44 This is the government Christians pray for when we recite the "Our Father" prayer and say, "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven." (Matt. 6:10 KJV) Rather than put our trust in some politician or political party, we long for God's kingdom to come, and for his will to be done on earth as it is in heaven.

This is also the government that Jewish believers have hoped for down through history. For example, Joseph of Arimathea who got permission from Pontius Pilate to take Jesus' body down from the cross is described as a Jew who was "waiting for God's Kingdom."—Luke 23:41

So, Nebuchadnezzar's dream showed the Babylonian ruler that other world powers would succeed his empire, and that the Kingdom of God would eventually replace them all.

When? Jesus, the Messianic king showed himself alive to his disciples after his death on the cross, and visited them "speaking about God's Kingdom." (Acts 1:3) They asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?" (Acts 1:6) But he responded, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority," and instead of answering their question, he assigned them to preach his Gospel message worldwide: "You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."—Acts 1:7-8

Jesus had already told them, "This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come." (Matt. 24:14) He had already answered their earlier question, "What sign will signal your return and the end of the world?"—Matthew 24:3 New Living Translation

Today's news stories, along with the events of modern history, signal that the time is fast approaching when the Messianic King will fight the battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:16) against the human governments of "the whole inhabited earth" (Rev. 16:14), and will replace these human democracies and kingdoms with the Kingdom of God.

Meanwhile, as we see things in this world go from bad to worse, our hope should not be in electing 'Christian' politicians, but rather our hope should be in God who will soon put an end to human rulership forever. "Don't put your trust in princes, each a son of man in whom there is no help. His spirit departs, and he returns to the earth. In that very day, his thoughts perish. Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Jehovah, his God: who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them"—Psalm 146:3-6 affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.†

CHAPTER THREE

1 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and its width six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then the herald cried aloud, "To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, 5 that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up; 6 and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace."

7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 8 Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews.

9 They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, "O king, live for ever. 10 You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; 11 and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not respected you. They don't serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before

† 2:48-49 The ancient neo-Babylonian empire was Israel's enemy. But, after occupying Israel and Judah, and deporting the Jewish population, the king of Babylon installed some bright young Jewish men in positions of power in his government.

The Hebrew prophet Daniel was eventually given a position equivalent to prime minister in the Babylonian government. Daniel's Jewish friends Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were made governors over certain Babylonian territories. And it was due to his high position that Daniel was later able to deliver God's message personally to the king of Babylon—the message that led to our modern day expression "the handwriting on the wall"—when Babylon was about to fall to its arch enemy, the Medo-Persian empire. (See Daniel chapter 5.) the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar answered them, "Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, good: but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the middle of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17 If it happens, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18 But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods,* nor worship the golden image which you have set up."

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the form of his appearance was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. 20 He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were cast into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. 22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. 23 These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the middle of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spoke and said to his counselors, "Didn't we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire?"

They answered the king, "True, O king."

25 He answered, "Look, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spoke and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here."

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of the fire. 27 The satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their pants changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

28 Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. 29 Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver after this sort."

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.

2 It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me. 3 How great are his signs! And how mighty are his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. 5 I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. 6 Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. 7 Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation.

8 But at last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, 9 "Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. 10 Thus were the visions of

* 3:16-18 The prophet Daniel's Jewish friends Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were made governors over certain Babylonian territories. But they did not allow their political positions to go to their heads. Their remained loyal to God, not to men. And so, when they were forced to choose between obeying God and obeying the head of Babylon's government, they chose faithfulness to God—even though the penalty was death.

Their example should inspire Bible-believers today to take a similar stand when modern governments demand that we compromise our faith in matters like abortion and same-sex relationships.

We may not face immediate death in a fiery furnace, but the threat could be that we will lose our job or be fined or imprisoned, or penalized in some other way, if we fail to obey a law enacted by godless men. We should respond as Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego did, and as Christ's Apostles did when they were commanded by the authorities to stop preaching in Jesus' name: "Peter and the apostles answered, 'We must obey God rather than men.'"—Acts 5:29

"Don't let the world around you squeeze you into its own mould."—Romans 12:2 J. B. Phillips

my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the middle of the earth; and its height was great. 11 The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth. 12 The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all: the animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. 13 I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky.

14 "He cried aloud, and said this: 'Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. 15 Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth: 16 let his heart be changed from man's, and let an animal's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. 17 The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men.'

18 "This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you."

Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, the dream be to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries."

20 "The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth; 21 whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation: 22 it is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

23 "Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, 'Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him;' 24 this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king: 25 that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.

26 "Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after you shall have known that the heavens do rule. 27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquility."

28 All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon. 30 The king spoke and said, "Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?" 31 While the word was in the king's mouth, a voice came from the sky, saying, "O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: 'The kingdom has departed from you. 32 You shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen. Seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.'"

33 This was fulfilled the same hour on Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. 35 All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and no one can stay his hand, or ask him, "What are you doing?"

36 At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me.

37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of God's house which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. 4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the same hour, the fingers of a man's hand came out and wrote* near the lamp stand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace. The king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6 Then the king's face was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his thighs were loosened, and his knees struck one against another. 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers.

The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

8 Then all the king's wise men came in; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation.

9 Then king Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his face was changed, and his lords were perplexed.

10 The queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. 11 There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar your father, the king, your father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; 12 because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation."

13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? 14 I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. 15 Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. 16 But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

17 Then Daniel answered before the king, "Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18 O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: 19 and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down.

20 "But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 21 and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals,' and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will.

22 "You, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, 23 but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand your breath is, and all your ways, you have not glorified.

24 "Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.

25 This is the writing† that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; 27 TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. 28 PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to

† 5:25-28 This Bible passage is the source of the modern expression 'the handwriting on the wall.' This message was from God, telling King Belshazzar that he was about to lose his kingdom. Similarly, the Bible's end times prophecies, documented throughout this book, constitute 'the handwriting on the wall' for mankind today.

God's intervention will soon bring this modern world to a violent end, with the Battle of Armageddon destroying all human governments and replacing them with the Kingdom of God in the hands of the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

the Medes and Persians.”

29 Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain. 31 Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

CHAPTER SIX

1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king should have no damage. 3 Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find a pretext for accusation against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no pretext nor fault, because he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5 Then these men said, “We shall not find any pretext for accusation against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.”

6 Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the king, and said this to him, “King Darius, live forever. 7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter.”

9 Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. 11 Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: “Haven't you signed a decree, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?”

The king answered, “The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter.”

13 Then they answered and said before the king, “That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't respect you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.”

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him.

15 Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, “Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed.”

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions.

The king spoke and said to Daniel, “Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you.”

17 A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. 20 When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spoke and said to Daniel, “Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?”

21 Then Daniel said to the king, “O king, live forever. 22 My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because innocence was found in me before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no hurt.”

23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

24 The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you. 26 I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever, His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even to the end. 27 He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed: then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spoke and said, “I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke out on the great sea. 3 Four great animals* came up from the sea, different one from another.

4 “The first was like a lion†, and had eagle’s wings: I saw until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man’s heart was given to it.

5 “Behold, another animal, a second, like a bear‡; and it was raised up on one

” 7:3 This passage is a key to understanding the beasts of Revelation. Many translations use the term “beasts” here, rather than “animals,” and that causes some confusion in the minds of modern readers, since we associate “beast” with something cruel or evil. The word in the original language, however, simply means “animal”—and that is how the word “beast” was understood in the 1600s when the King James Version of the Bible was originally published.

Animals were used here to represent certain human governments in much the same way as people today use the bald eagle to represent America and the bear to represent Russia.

The beasts here in Daniel’s prophecy form the basis for the symbolism in Revelation chapter 13, which has prophetic significance for the end times of our modern world.

The seventh chapter of Daniel deals with visions the prophet saw in a dream (verse 1). Four animals appeared before him, representing a series of “kings” or governments (verse 17) that would rule over the world inhabited by Daniel’s people, the Jews.

The footnote on verse 3 in The New Scofield Reference Bible says, “The monarchy vision of Nebuchadnezzar (ch. 2) covers the same order of fulfillment as Daniel’s beast vision.” Paralleling the four parts of the statue in Daniel chapter 2, the “four great beasts” in chapter 7 verse 3 are likewise the Babylonian (Chaldean), Persian, Greek and Roman empires.

Bible commentators have long agreed on this, in general, with some variation on the details. Reformer John Calvin was familiar with the works of other scholars and declared, “It is clear that the four monarchies are here depicted. But it is not agreed upon among all writers which monarchy is the last, and which the third. With regard to the first, all agree in understanding the vision of the Chaldean Empire, which was joined with the Assyrian, as we saw before. For Nineveh was absorbed by the Chaldeans and Babylonians.” (Calvin’s Commentaries on the Book of Daniel, volume 2) So, while there were differences in the details, most traditional writers agreed that Daniel was referring to the Babylonian, Persian, Greek and Roman empires.

These beasts are the key to understanding the seven-headed beast in the thirteenth chapter of Revelation. While Daniel’s vision uses a different beast to represent each of four successive empires, John’s vision rolls the four beasts into one. Daniel’s beasts have a total of seven heads and ten horns, while John sees a single beast with seven heads and ten horns.

“a lion” (Dan. 7:4)	1 head 0 horns
“a bear” (Dan. 7:5)	1 head 0 horns
“a leopard” (Dan. 7:6)	4 heads 0 horns
4 th “beast” (Dan. 7:7)	1 head 10 horns
<hr/>
Daniel ch. 7 totals	7 heads 10 horns
compare
Revelation ch. 13:1	7 heads 10 horns

An angel gave Daniel the interpretation, namely that “The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth.” (Dan. 7:16-17 NIV) John likewise described the composite beast he saw as having governmental “power” and a “throne and great authority.”—Revelation 13:2 NIV

Daniel’s beasts were four separate successive empires that ruled over much of the earth. The composite beast of Revelation chapter 13 “was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation” (Rev. 13:7 NIV) and so likely represents mankind’s governments as a whole.

† 7:4 Commentators generally agree that this first beast “like a lion” represented Babylon, the world power that was ruling over Daniel’s people, the Jews, at the time when he received this vision.

‡ 7:5 Most Bible commentators agree that this second beast “like a bear” represented Persia, the Medo-Persian empire that defeated side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said to it, ‘Arise, devour much flesh.’ 6 After this I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the animal had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.§

7 “After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was different from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns. 8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one,†† before which three

Babylon and took its place as the dominant world power occupying the Promised Land.

§ 7:6 The four-headed “leopard” is generally seen to represent Greece, which succeeded Persia as the dominant power ruling over the Middle East. But this empire forged by Alexander the Great split up into four parts soon after Alexander’s death, as prefigured by the leopard having “four heads” in the vision.

” 7:7 Commentators generally agree that this fourth animal or ‘beast’ is the Roman Empire.

For example, respected Bible commentator Albert Barnes took this position in his Notes. Commenting on the beast of Revelation 13:1, he referred back to Daniel’s vision and wrote, “Thus in Daniel (vii. 2-7) the lion is introduced as the symbol of the Babylonian power; the bear, as the symbol of the Medo-Persian; the leopard, as the symbol of the Macedonian; and a nondescript animal, fierce, cruel, and mighty, with two horns, as the symbol of the Roman.”

Just as the Greek empire broke up into four ‘heads’ or nations, the Roman empire decayed into ten ‘horns’ or nations.

†† 7:8 This ‘little horn’ is also discussed in verses 24 through 26. What nation is depicted by this little horn? “The learned are not agreed concerning this anonymous beast,” wrote Matthew Henry in his Commentary on the Whole Bible. “Some make . . . the little horn which rose by the fall of three of the other horns . . . to be the Turkish empire. Others [say] . . . the little horn is Antiochus Epiphanes.”

(English scientist and mathematician Sir Isaac Newton (1643-1727) and colonial American Congregationalist theologian and missionary Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) both identified the little horn as the Church of Rome.)

Carol A. Newsom, Professor of Old Testament at Emory’s Candler School of Theology, writes in her commentary on Daniel that “the ninth-century Iberian Mozarab scholar Paulus Alvarus argued that Muhammad was the eleventh horn of the fourth beast in Dan 7:8, as he had uprooted the Franks, Greeks, and Goths . . . After the fall of Constantinople in 1453 to Muslim Turkish armies, Western Christians outside of Iberia, as well, began to identify the little horn with the Turkish invaders; Luther had argued that the antichrist was the pope, but in later writings and sermons he clarified that one should also interpret Muhammad to be the little horn in Dan 7:8.”

Luther wrote: “In the seventh chapter [of Daniel] . . . one small horn shall knock off three among the top ten horns—meaning Mohammad or the Turk.” (from Luther’s Preface to Daniel in the 1960 American edition of his Works, 35:299-300, as quoted by Rev. Prof. Dr. Francis Nigel Lee in his article “Luther on Islam and the Papacy.”)

The Islamic empire survived into modern times as the Ottoman Empire, which still held most the Middle East when its leader Sultan Mehmed V formed an alliance in 1914 with Kaiser Wilhelm II of Germany and Kaiser Franz Joseph of Austria-Hungary, as a major player in the Central Powers—the losing side in the First World War.

of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 "I saw until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days sat: his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire. 10 A fiery stream issued and came out from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 "I kept looking at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I saw even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. 12 As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 "I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man,* and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. 14 There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. 16 I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things: 17 "These great animals, which are four, are four kings,† who shall arise out of the earth. 18 But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.'

19 "Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was different from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more imposing than its fellows. 21 I saw, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;‡ 22 until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.§

23 "Thus he said, 'The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the

† 7:17 Each of the four animals or "beasts" Daniel saw stood for empires—four empires that succeeded each other in dominating the world of the Middle East where Daniel's people lived.

See the notes on the earlier verses of Daniel 7.

‡ 7:21 See the note on verse 8, where Martin Luther and others identified the 'little horn' as the Islamic empire. Verse 21 says this 'horn' made war with "the saints"—not the nation of Israel, but Daniel's people, the Jewish people, living not as a nation but as exiles scattered among the Gentiles.

(The Old Testament writers used the term "saints" (Hebrew kodesh = 'holy' or 'set apart') to refer to the Jews. At Mount Sinai, according to Moses, God gave his law to the "saints." (Deut. 33:2) King David called true-worshipping Jews of his day "the saints who are on the earth."—Ps. 16:2 NKJV)

Daniel was given visions of "what will happen to your people [the Jews] in the days to come" (Dan. 10:14 Jerusalem Bible), including "a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then" from which "your people [the Jews]...will be delivered." (Dan 12:1 NIV) So, when Daniel used the term "saints," he had in mind God's 'holy people'—Daniel's own people, the Jews.

Political Islam has certainly oppressed the Jews down through the centuries, but the verse 25 points to a specific time period.

§ 7:22 If the 3 ½ years in verse 25 refer to the the period from December 1941 to May 1945 when the Jews were being gassed in death camps (See the note at 7:25), then the time when "the saints possessed the kingdom" could refer to the establishment of the modern state of Israel in 1948 in the hands of Daniel's people.

Modern Israel is a democracy where the people possess ruling power, or 'the saints possess the kingdom.' This modern democratic 'kingdom' of Israel was set up right after the 3 ½ years when Jews were being exterminated in the Holocaust's death camps.

 7:23a The fourth animal or 'beast' is a fourth kingdom. Most commentators see this as the Roman Empire, out of which ten smaller kingdoms later arise as ten 'horns' when Rome loses its grip on power.

The 'little horn' that arises after the others appears to be the Islamic empire, or the German-Islamic alliance which 'wages war' against Daniel's people (the Jews) and exercises total power over them for 3 ½ years while operating death camps during the Holocaust.

"During the 1930s and 1940s, a unique and lasting political alliance was forged among Third Reich leaders, Arab nationalists, and Muslim religious authorities," according to a Yale University Press advertisement promoting the 2014 book Nazis, Islamists and the Making of the Modern Middle East by Barry Rubin and Wolfgang G. Schwanitz. The ad says the authors document "the full scope of Palestinian leader Amin al-Husaini's support of Hitler's genocidal plans against European and Middle Eastern Jews. In addition, they expose the extent of Germany's long-term promotion of Islamism and jihad."

See also Daniel 7:24-26 and Daniel chapter 8, where the same little horn appears again.

* 7:13-14 Jesus referred to himself repeatedly as "the son of man" (for example, Mark 14:41, 62; Luke 22:48, 69) and his Jewish listeners would have understood this to mean Jesus is the one Daniel prophesied about here.

After a vision outlining a succession of world powers that would encroach on the territory of Israel over a period of hundreds of years, the prophet Daniel saw another vision depicting this promised immortal ruler, the promised seed who would be born "like a son of man," yet who would have access to heaven and to the presence of God the Father. He would become King over all the earth—an everlasting kingdom that would replace human governments, and that would rule the world forever.

kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be different from the former, and he shall put down three kings. 25 He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time.† 26 But the judgment shall be

* 7:23b Some modern commentators argue that "the beast of Revelation" will be an individual, a particular man who will rule the whole world. But Revelation uses the imagery of Daniel, where each "beast" is an historical empire, and where the expression "the whole earth" refers to the world of the Middle East in which Daniel's people (the Jews) lived.

Compare the discussion of Daniel 2:39, where a similar phrase is used—"the whole earth" or "all the earth"—to describe the rule of Alexander the Great, whose Greek Empire encompassed the Middle East and beyond, but obviously did not rule this entire planet.

† 7:25 The expression "a time and times and half a time" is commonly understood to mean three and a half years, and some translations actually render it that way: "God's people will be helpless in his hands for three and a half years" (Dan. 7:25 The Living Bible) Has this already happened? Yes, Adolf Hitler's Nazi Third Reich operated its extermination camps for three and a half years, and Daniel's "saints" (the Jews) were helpless: some six million of them were systematically slaughtered, for a time and times and half a time.

The camp at Chelmo, Poland—the first concentration camp built exclusively to kill everyone sent there—was established in November, 1941, and mass murder began there on December 8, 1941. The last death camp, Mauthausen, was liberated three and a half years later in May, 1945. (Concentration camps set up to house Jews existed before this, but camps set up specifically to carry out mass genocide were operational for just three and a half years.)

In a satanic attempt to block the fulfillment of prophecy regarding the return of Israel to the Promised Land, Hitler's Nazi government arose and began the systematic slaughter of six million Jews in gas chambers and ovens. It took the Second World War to stop this demonic madness and to keep the prophecy on track to fulfillment, so that enough Jews survived to see the formation of the State of Israel in 1948.

Dispensational futurists expect a future Antichrist to arise during a coming seven-year Tribulation that will be divided into two halves, each 3 ½ years long. In the novel Armageddon: The Cosmic Battle of the Ages, volume eleven in the Left Behind series, the authors show their Antichrist character, Nicolae Carpathia, attempting to implement "the final solution of the Jewish problem." (p. 223) However, that scenario has already played out during the rule of Adolf Hitler. Why look for another fulfillment?

Daniel 7:19-21 makes it clear that it is the "little horn" that wages war against the Jews, and has them in its power for 3-1/2 years—and that "little horn" was been identified by Martin Luther as the Islamic world power. Historians have documented that political Islam was closely allied with Germany during the 1st and 2nd World Wars—and that the Holocaust took place at the urging of the founding president of the World Islamic Congress, the Islamic Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Mohammed Amin al-Husaini.

Nazi Reichsführer-SS Heinrich Himmler is widely quoted on the Internet as saying, "Germany [and] the Reich have been friends of Islam for the past two centuries, owing not to expediency but to friendly conviction. We have the same goals." (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Relations_between_Nazi_Germany_and_the_Arab_world#cite_note-64)

Ben Zion Netanyahu was Professor of History at Cornell University. His son, Benjamin Netanyahu serving as Prime Minister of Israel said ". . . the Mufti of Jerusalem Haj Amin al-Husseini. . . was later sought for war crimes in the Nuremberg trials because he had a central role in fomenting the final solution. . . . Hitler didn't want to exterminate the Jews at the time, he wanted to expel the Jews. And Haj Amin al-Husseini went to Hitler and said, 'If you expel them, they'll all come here.' So what should I do with them?' he asked. He said, 'Burn them.' And he was sought in, during the Nuremberg set, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. 27 The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole sky, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.'

28 "Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed: but I kept the matter in my heart."

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. 2 I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is trials for prosecution." (from the official transcript issued by the Israeli Prime Minister's office, at <http://www.pmo.gov.il/English/MediaCenter/Speeches/Pages/speechcongress201015.aspx>)

Netanyahu was savagely denounced in the press for saying this, but historical facts back up his claim.

At the war crimes trial of Holocaust implementer Adolf Eichmann, his aid Dieter Wisliceny testified, "The Mufti is one of the originators of the systematic destruction of European Jewry by the Germans, and he has become a permanent colleague, partner and advisor to Eichmann." (Nazis, Islamists and the Making of the Modern Middle East by Barry Rubin and Wolfgang G. Schwanitz, Yale University Press, page 299)

Former London mayor Ken Livingstone explained on BBC Radio London that "When Hitler won his election in 1932 his policy then was that Jews should be moved to Israel." (www.BBC.com/news/uk-politics-36160135) And that emigration policy continued through October 1941.

In 1933 Hitler made the well-documented "Haavara" agreement with Zionists to allow Jews to leave Germany (in exchange for money and property) and emigrate to Palestine.

According to the Third Reich's official "Wannsee Protocol" document, which was used as evidence at the Nuremberg trials, "537,000 Jews were sent out of the country" by October 1941, for whom "foreign Jews donated a total of around 9,500,000 dollars—roughly $160,000,000.00 in today's money. So, it was profitable for Hitler's regime.

But according to the Yale University Press book by Rubin and Schwanitz cited above, radical Islamists were constantly asking their German allies to stop that Jewish emigration.

Finally, Hitler agreed. "In February 1941 Hitler had received al-Husaini's proposal for a formal alliance with the Nazi cause, 'of which one condition—paragraph seven—was that Germany stop Jewish emigration from Europe.' Then, 'Hitler promised al-Husaini on March 11 to do so,' and 'Hitler ordered SS leader Reinhard Heydrich on July 31, 1941 to prepare an 'overall solution for the Jewish question in Europe.'" (Rubin and Schwanitz, p. 161)

After months of preparation, the Islamic leader met personally with Adolf Hitler on November 28, 1941, for over an hour and a half. Following the meeting Hitler ordered Heydrich to convoke a conference "within ten days to prepare 'the final solution of the Jewish question.'" (Rubin and Schwanitz, p. 161)

The official minutes of the "Reich Chancellery, Berlin November 28, 1941 meeting of German Chancellor Adolf Hitler and Grand Mufti Haj Amin al-Husseini" can be found widely published online. They include Hitler's promise to the Islamic leader that "Germany was resolved, step by step, to ask one European nation after the other to solve its Jewish problem."

So, it was the Islamic "little horn" together with its German ally that had Daniel's people helplessly in its hand for a time and times and half a time.

† 7:27 If the 3½ years in verse 25 refer to the time from December 1941 to May 1945 when the Jews were being gassed in death camps, then the time when "the kingdom" is given to "the people of the saints of the Most High" could refer to the establishment of the modern democratic state of Israel in 1948.

Modern Israel is a democracy where the people possess ruling power, or 'the saints possess the kingdom.' This modern democratic 'kingdom' of Israel was set up right after the 3½ years when Jews were being exterminated in the death camps.

in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5 As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran at him in the fury of his power. 7 I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him; and there was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 The male goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the sky.

9 Out of one of them came out a little horn,* which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. 10 It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and some of the army and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. 11 Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12 The army was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through disobedience; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered.

13 Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, "How long shall be the vision about the continual burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot?"

14 He said to me, "To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

15 When I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it; and behold, there stood before me the appearance of a man. 16 I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision."

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face: but he said to me, "Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end."

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. 19 He said, "Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. 20 The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21 The rough male goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 "As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power.

23 "In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; and he shall destroy astoundingly, and shall prosper in what he does; and he shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people.‡

25 Through his policy he shall cause deceit to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and he shall destroy many in their security. He shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. 26 The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but seal

† 8:21-22 Commentators generally agree this refers to the Greek empire of Alexander the Great, which after Alexander's death was divided into four nations, each ruled by one of his generals.

‡ 8:23-24 Who could this passage describe but the Islamic empire that virtually eliminated Christianity from the Middle East, North Africa, and surrounding lands, and that allied itself with Nazi Germany in an attempt to exterminate the prophet Daniel's people, the Jews?

During the Second World War, at the urging of the founding president of the World Islamic Congress, the Islamic Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Mohammed Amin al-Husaini the Nazi government of Adolph Hitler carried out what it called "the Final Solution" for the Jewish problem, and what others have since called "the Holocaust." Over a period of three and a half years death camps operated for the specific purpose of exterminating the Jewish people. Six million Jews were killed. (See the note at 7:25.)

Centuries earlier the prophet Daniel had foretold that an exceptionally cruel foreign ruler would hurt and kill the Jewish people over a period of three and a half years.

* 8:9 In his "Preface on Daniel" Martin Luther identified the 'little horn' of Daniel 8 as the being same as the 'little horn' of Daniel 7. Luther wrote: "'Behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man - and a mouth speaking great things' [Dan. 7:20]. These eyes are for 'understanding dark sentences' . . . The mouth, for blaspheming Christ, constitutes the 'fierce countenance' [of Dan. 8:23]." And, as noted above, Luther identified that 'little horn' as the Islamic empire.

It starts out 'little' but becomes a much bigger 'horn' (or world power) "whose look was more imposing than its fellows" (Daniel 7:20) and a power that "grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land" (Daniel 8:9), i.e., North Africa, (the Middle East and the Promised Land—the lands first occupied by Islamic invaders.

27 I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick for some days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but no one understood it.

CHAPTER NINE

1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the offspring of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years about which Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years.†

3 I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4 I prayed to Jehovah my God, and made confession, and said, "Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments, 5 we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances; 6 neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 "Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us shame of face, as it is today; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. 8 Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you.

9 "To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him; 10 neither have we obeyed Jehovah our God's voice, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 11 Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: therefore the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us; for we have sinned against him. 12 He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole

† 8:26 Daniel's vision "concerns the distant future" according to the NIV rendering of this verse. God sent his angels to show Daniel "what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days." (Daniel 10:14) Daniel recorded all of this more than 2500 years ago, long before the modern events in Europe and the Middle East fulfilled his prophecies.

† 9:2 Just as Daniel read Jeremiah's prophecy (29:10) and therefore knew the Jews' captivity was about to end, we today can read Bible prophecy and know that this world is about to end.

sky, such has not been done as has been done to Jerusalem.

13 "As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us: yet we have not entreated the favor of Jehovah our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. 14 Therefore Jehovah has watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for Jehovah our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice.

15 "Now, Lord our God, who has brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as it is today; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. 16 Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. 17 Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. 18 My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake.

19 "Lord, hear; Lord, forgive; Lord, listen and do; don't defer, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

20 While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Jehovah my God for the holy mountain of my God; 21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering.

22 He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, "Daniel, I have now come to give you wisdom and understanding. 23 At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went out, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.

24 "Seventy weeks‡ are decreed on your peoples and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity††,

‡ 9:24a Following the principle of "each day for a year" stated at Ezekiel 4:6 and "for every day a year" stated at Numbers 14:34, commentators generally conclude that these are "weeks" of years. So, the "seventy weeks" would be four hundred ninety years. (70 x 7 = 490)

This is a very important prophecy. It points forward to the Messiah, Jesus, and the year when he would begin his earthly ministry. (See the note on 9:25.) It also pointed to other events, as discussed below.

§ 9:24b Daniel's people were the Jews.

¶ 9:24c Daniel's holy city was Jerusalem.

†† 9:24d This "end of sins" would come about through Messiah's atonement. Under the new covenant God said, "I will forgive . . . remember their sins no more."—Jeremiah 31:34 and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint* the most holy. 25 Know therefore and discern, that from the going out of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Messiah†, the prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times.

26 “After the sixty-two weeks the Messiah shall be cut off‡, and shall have nothing; and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and its end shall be with a flood, and even to the end shall be war; desolations are determined. 27 He§ shall make a firm covenant

* 9:24e The word “Messiah” derives from a Hebrew word for “anointed one”—and the word “Christ” comes from a Greek word likewise meaning “anointed one.” So, the anointing of the most holy and the coming of the Messiah both refer to the same event—the beginning of Jesus’ earthly ministry during the first century.

As noted below, this amazing prophecy points ahead to the exact year when the long hoped-for Messiah would arrive.

† 9:25 This amazing prophecy foretold exactly when the Messiah Jesus would begin his earthly ministry.

Using ‘a year for a day’ as noted above at Daniel 9:24a, “seven weeks” (7x7=49 years) plus “sixty-two weeks” (62x7=434 years) would be 483 years after the command went out to rebuild Jerusalem in 455 B.C.—and that calculation points to the year 29 A.D., when Jesus began his public ministry.

The Bible marks the beginning and the end of the 483 years with events well known in secular history: “the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king” (Neh. 2:1) of the Medo-Persian empire in 455 B.C. and “the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar” (Luke 3:1) in 29 A.D.

So, the 483 years are understood as the time interval from the command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem during the reign of Persian King Artaxerxes, as related in the second chapter of Nehemiah, until Christ began his ministry 483 years later.

Luke 3:15 says “the people were in expectation” at that time, looking for “the Christ” to appear—perhaps because they understood this prophecy.

‡ 9:26 Daniel was told that the Messiah would be “cut off” (“will be put to death”—New International Version; “will be killed”—New Living Translation.)

§ 9:27a He “shall confirm the covenant” according to the King James Version. Who is the “he” spoken of here? Reformers Martin Luther and John Calvin both understood that “he” who confirms the covenant is Jesus Christ. But modern ‘Left Behind’ commentators say that “he” is a coming Antichrist. How much farther apart could a disagreement be?—a complete reversal of what Bible readers believed for hundreds of years.

The traditional Protestant understanding from the Reformation onward has been that the seventy ‘weeks’—490 years—ran uninterrupted from beginning to end. The first 483 years ran until the commencement of Jesus’ ministry, and the final 7 years consisted of Christ’s three-and-a-half year ministry plus another three-and-a-half years during which the Apostles preached the Gospel to the original Covenant people, the Jews. Luther expressed it this way:

“For when Christ sent out the Gospel through the ministry of himself and of the Apostles, it lasted three or three and a half years, that it almost amounts to the calculation of Daniel, namely the 490 years. Hence he also says, Christ shall take a half a week, in which the daily offerings shall cease; that is, the priesthood and reign of the Jews shall have an end; which all took place in the three and a half years in which Christ preached, and was almost completed in four years after Christ, in which the Gospel prospered the most, especially in Palestine . . . so that a whole week, or seven years, established with many for one week: and in the middle of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate††; and even to the full end, and that determined, wrath‡‡ shall be poured out on the desolate.”

CHAPTER TEN

1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. 3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither flesh nor wine came into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, 5 I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, the covenant, as Daniel says; that is, the Gospel was preached to the Jews, of which we spoke before.” (Luther’s “Sermon for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Trinity, Matthew 24:15-28” from his Church Postil, published in 1525)

Calvin spoke similarly, emphasizing that the middle of the last ‘week’ occurred at the time of Christ’s sacrificial death on the Cross:

“The angel now continues his discourse concerning Christ by saying, he should confirm the treaty with many for one week. . .the angel says, Christ should confirm the covenant for one week” (Lecture Fifty-First)

“In the last Lecture we explained how Christ confirmed the covenant with many during the last week” (Lecture Fifty-Second)

“The Prophet now subjoins, He will make to cease the sacrifice and offering for half a week. We ought to refer this to the time of the resurrection. For while Christ passed through the period of his life on earth, he did not put an end to the sacrifices; but after he had offered himself up as a victim, then all the rites of the law came to a close. . . . This is the Prophet’s intention when he says, Christ should cause the sacrifices to cease for half a week. . . . Christ really and effectually put an end to the sacrifices of the Law...” (Lecture Fifty-Second, Commentary on Daniel – Vol. 2)

So, after the Babylonian exile of the Jews there are 69 weeks of years (483 years) from the command to rebuild Jerusalem, until the coming of God’s Anointed One, the Messiah. Then there immediately follows a 70th week (7 years) of favor for God’s covenant people, the Jews: Jesus’ 3 1/2 year ministry exclusively to the Jews plus 3 1/2 years of the Apostles bringing Jews into the New Covenant (Jer. 31:31)—before opening the door to widespread Gentile conversion.

“ 9:27b As Luther and Calvin understood it, Christ’s sacrificial death cancelled the need for any more animal sacrifices at the Temple.

From God’s standpoint, these sacrifices ceased to have any value.

†† 9:27c Jesus referred to “the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet.” (Matt. 24:15)

Jesus said that when people “see” this, “then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.” (Matt. 24:16)

In Luke’s parallel account, Jesus said those in Judea should flee to the mountains when they “see” the Roman armies surrounding the city: “when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.” (Luke 21:20-21)

So, “the abomination of desolation” was the Roman armies that desolated Jerusalem in the first century.

‡‡ 9:27d This “wrath” corresponds to Jesus’ statement that “there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people.”—Luke 21:23

What wrath? “They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.”—Luke 21:24 whose thighs were adorned with pure gold of Uphaz: 6 his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. 7 I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me didn't see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8 So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for the appearance of my face was disfigured, and I retained no strength. 9 Yet I heard the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

10 Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. 11 He said to me, "Daniel, you man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I am now sent to you."

When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. 12 Then he said to me, "Don't be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I have come for your words' sake. 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people* in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days:"

15 And when he had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. 16 Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, "My lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned on me, and I retain no strength. 17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord?" For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.

18 Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. 19 He said, "Greatly beloved man, don't be afraid: peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong."

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me."

20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go out, behold, the prince of Greece shall come. 21 But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is no one who holds with me against these, but Michael your prince."

* 10:14 The angel told Daniel what would happen to his people—the Jews—in later times, thousands of years after Daniel's day.

Daniel was told to "seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future."—Daniel 8:26 NIV

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 "As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him. 2 Now I will show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than them all: and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. 3 A mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. 4 When he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these.

7 "But out of a shoot from her roots one shall stand up in his place, who shall come to the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. 8 Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold, he shall carry captive into Egypt; and he shall refrain some years from attacking the king of the north. 9 He shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. 10 His sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to his fortress.

11 "The king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come out and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall send out a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. 12 The multitude shall be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. 13 The king of the north shall return, and shall send out a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance.

14 "In those times many shall stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall. 15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to stand. 16 But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction.

† 11:4 The empire of Alexander the Great would be divided into four parts after his death. (See also Daniel 8:21-22.) Instead of leaving it to his sons or "posterity," Alexander's empire was inherited by his four generals, who, then waged war against each other.

17 "He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions; and he shall perform them: and he shall give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she shall not stand, neither be for him. 18 After this he shall turn his face to the islands, and shall take many; but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yes, moreover, he shall cause his reproach to turn on him. 19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found. 20 Then shall stand up in his place one who shall cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within a few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

21 "In his place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in quietly, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries. 22 The overwhelming forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yes, also the prince of the covenant. 23 After the treaty made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. 24 Peacefully he shall come even on the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and plunder, and substance: yes, he shall devise his plans against the strongholds, even for a time.

27 "As for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. 28 Then he will return into his land with great substance; and his heart will be against the holy covenant; and he will take action, and return to his own land. 29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former. 30 For ships of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall take action: he shall even return, and direct his attention to those who forsake the holy covenant.

31 "Forces shall stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination

that makes desolate*. 32 Such as do wickedly against the covenant he shall pervert by flatteries; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and take action. 33 Those who are wise among the people shall instruct many†; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity‡ and by plunder, many days. 34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries. 35 Some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

36 "The kings shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods; and he shall prosper until the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done. 37 Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women††, nor regard any god;

* 11:31 Although there may also have been an earlier initial fulfillment while the Promised Land was under the rule of the Greek empire, Christians are more concerned with Jesus' reference to "the abomination of desolation" at Matthew 24:15 and Mark 13:14—which Jesus clearly warned his followers to look for in the future.

Comparison of the Gospels shows that this expression referred to the Roman armies that would desolate Jerusalem and its Temple.

Matthew, Mark and Luke all record what Jesus said his followers should look for, to know when to escape from Judea. All three say that when they "see" this, "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains." Matthew and Mark both say it would be when they see "the abomination of desolation," and Luke says it would be when they see "Jerusalem surrounded by armies" because then its "desolation is at hand."

† 11:33a Jesus' disciples went on to teach many Jews and Gentiles.

‡ 11:33b After destroying Jerusalem and its Temple, the Romans took the Jews into captivity and scattered them worldwide.

§ 11:36 After the Eastern Roman Empire collapsed and surrendered control of Jerusalem and the Promised Land to Islamic rule, the role of "the king of the north" (vs. 15) fell to the Islamic empire.

From verse 5 onward, this chapter discusses "the king of the north" and "the king of the south." Scholars agreed that both kings are actually kingdoms, not individuals. The Greek empire of Alexander the Great is divided into four parts after his death, with four of his generals each ruling a part. (See Daniel 8:21-22.) The kingdoms that lie north and south of the land of Israel wage war against each other.

Over the centuries the king of the north and the king of the south change their identity—they are no longer the kingdoms of Alexander's generals, but rather the kingdoms and empires that succeed them.

Sir Isaac Newton commented to the effect that "these nations compose the Empire of the Turks, and therefore this Empire is here to be understood by the King of the North." (The Prophecies of Daniel and The Apocalypse, p. 189)

Islamic rulers held the Holy Land until the Turks suffered defeat along with their German allies during the First World War and Jerusalem was taken from them by the British in 1917.

†† 11:37a The Islamic empire forced its subjects to abandon the gods of their forefathers. Daniel's description of a king rejecting the gods of his fathers and rejecting the desire of women could well fit Islam, which Luther and Calvin considered the Eastern 'horn' or 'leg' of the Antichrist. (See the discussion of 2 Thess. 2:4)

†† 11:37b Women have been notoriously subjugated in the Muslim lands of the Middle East—forced to wear various body, head and face coverings, confined to the home unless escorted by a male relative, forbidden to drive a car, and so on.

for he shall magnify himself above all. 38 But in his place he shall honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers didn't know he shall honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. 39 He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges him he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price.

40 "At the time of the end the king of the south shall contend with him; and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries*, and shall overflow

In his article "Islam in the Bible" Dr. F. N. Lee writes:

"In Daniel 11:37, that Prophet predicts yet more about this tyrant who was so terrible that his coming was predicted already so many centuries before it fully came to pass. There, that Prophet declared: 'Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god. For he shall magnify himself above all.'

"Luther comments: 38 'The coarse undiligent Mohammed takes all wives, yet has none; the chaste Pope takes no wife, but yet has all wives.... He who has no wife, has all wives. He who has all wives, has none. What happens? This is what happens -- the unashamed undiligent Mohammed makes no pretence of chastity, and (like the whoremonger) takes as many "wives" as he wishes. Thus he has no marriage and cannot have a marriage -- and is thus without wife, and in no state of matrimony.'

"Comments Calvin: 39 'Some refer this prophecy to the Pope and to Mahomet, and the phrase 'the love of women' seems to give probability to this view. For Mahomet allowed to men the brutal liberty of chastising their wives, and thus he corrupted that conjugal love and fidelity which binds the husband to the wife.... Mahomet allowed full scope to various lusts -- by permitting a man to have a number of wives. This seems like an explanation.'

"Those who think the Pope to be intended here -- remind us of their enforcing celibacy, by means of which the honour of marriage is trodden underfoot.... We observe, then, some slight correspondence.... As Mahomet invented a new form of religion, so did the Pope. True indeed!

So, as Dr. Lee notes, both Martin Luther and John Calvin spoke of Islam's role in fulfilling Daniel's prophecies

 11:40 The Islamic empire swept across the Middle East and North Africa, then later into Asia and Europe and took over much of Spain, the Baltics, even Austria.

Discussing Daniel 11:36-45, Sir Isaac Newton saw this passage as fulfilled in the Islamic conquest—the lands ruled by the Muslim Turks. He said "these nations compose the Empire of the Turks, and therefore this Empire is here to be understood by the King of the North." (Newton's The Prophecies of Daniel and The Apocalypse, p. 189)

Colonial American theologian and missionary Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758), who served also as president of Princeton University, expressed the historic view that prevailed in the Church for hundreds of years that the Islamic sweep over the land of the eastern Roman Empire was foretold in Scripture. He summed it up this way:

"The Mahometan kingdom is another of mighty power and vast extent, set up by Satan against the kingdom of Christ. . . . And then the Turks, who were originally different from the Saracens, became followers of Mahomet, and conquered all the Eastern empire. They began their empire about the year of Christ twelve hundred and ninety-six; began to invade Europe in the year thirteen hundred; took Constantinople, and so became masters of all the Eastern empire, in the year fourteen hundred and fifty-three. And thus all the cities and countries where stood those famous churches of which we read in the New Testament, as Jerusalem, Antioch, Ephesus, Corinth, &c. now became subject to the Turks. These are supposed to be prophesied of by the horsemen in the 9th chapter of Revelation, beginning with the 15th verse." (Quoted from Jonathan Edwards' classic, A History of the Work of Redemption) and pass through. 41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.† 42 He shall stretch out his hand also on the countries; and the land of Egypt; shall not escape. 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.s 44 But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go out with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. 45 He shall plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain*; yet he shall come to his end, and no one shall help him."

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 "At that time Michael shall stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there shall be a time of trouble††, such as never

† 11:41 The "glorious land" that was once ancient Israel fell to the Islamic invasion shortly after Mohammed's death. But, centuries later, Britain defeated the Islamic Ottoman Empire in World War I, seizing in 1917 the land that is now Israel and Jordan—which includes the territories of ancient Edom, Moab and Ammon.

‡ 11:42 Christianity came to Egypt early—during the First Century—and Egypt was largely Christian for more than a thousand years, until centuries after the Islamic invasion. But as a result of discriminatory taxation of non-Muslims, and other forms of pressure, Egypt is around 90% Muslim today.

§ 11:43 Libya is about 97% Muslim today, and Ethiopia about 33%.

" 11:45 The "glorious holy mountain" evidently refers to Temple Mount in Jerusalem where the Jewish temple stood for centuries. It is now famous for the golden Dome of the Rock, which Muslims built shortly after the Islamic conquest. The al-Aqsa Mosque also sits there, and these two structures apparently constitute the "palace" of the Islamic "king of the north."

†† 12:1 God's angel told Daniel what would happen to "your people" in the future. This "time of trouble" on "your people" (Daniel's people, the Jews) apparently refers to the centuries-long tribulation on the Jewish people, climaxing in the Holocaust.

Jesus paraphrases this passage in Matthew 24:21-22 and Mark 13:19-20 when he speaks of "great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be." (Matt. 24:21 KJV) Did Daniel have in mind a time of trouble for a world of people "left behind" after the Rapture? No. The angel told him it was a time of trouble for "your people," the Jews. And Jesus' words also show it to be the trouble that would come upon that people, the Jews, after their rejection of the Messiah. This is the way that Reformer John Calvin understood it. Commenting on the parallel passages in Matthew 24 and Luke 21, he wrote:

"21 For there will then be great tribulation. Luke says also, that there will be days of vengeance, and of wrath on that people, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. For since the people, through obstinate malice, had then broken the covenant of God . . .

. . . And therefore Christ says that, unless God put a period to those calamities, the Jews will utterly perish, so that not a single individual will be left; but that God will remember his gracious covenant, and will spare his elect.

. . . But a question arises, how was it on account of the elect that God set a limit to these calamities, so as not utterly to destroy the Jews, when many of those who were saved were reprobate and was since there was a nation even to that same time; and at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. 2 Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life,* and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 3 Those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the expanse; and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. 4 But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end†: many shall run back and forth, and knowledge shall be increased.”

5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, and the other on the river bank on that side. 6 One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?”

7 I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have finished breaking in pieces the power of the holy people,‡ all these things shall be finished.

8 I heard, but I didn’t understand: then I said, “My lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?”

9 He said, “Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed§ desperate? The reply is easy. A part of the nation was preserved, that out of them God might bring his elect, who were mixed with them, like the seed after the chaff has been blown off.” (Calvin’s Commentary on a Harmony of the Evangelists)

So, Calvin understood Daniel’s “time of trouble” to refer to the calamities the Jews suffered, beginning shortly after they rejected the Messiah in the first century.

* 12:2 The angel gave Daniel a glimpse of the resurrection, when some will be raised from the dead to everlasting life, and others to everlasting contempt.

The Old Testament reveals very little about this, but in the New Testament we learn of the Messiah “Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News”—2 Timothy 1:10 † 12:4 Much of the prophecy in Daniel’s book remained “sealed” and hidden from men’s understanding until it began to be revealed with the appearing of the Messiah.

Other parts could not be properly understood until after the foretold events occurred down through the centuries: the rise and fall of world powers, the Holocaust, and the restoration of the state of Israel in the Promised Land.

‡ 12:7 See the note at Daniel 7:25.

§ 12:9 Daniel’s book began to be unsealed when the Messiah quoted it and applied its prophecies to coming events. (Matt. 24:15) See also the note at Daniel 12:4.

until the time of the end. 10 Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand. 11 From the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days.* 12 Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days.†† 13 But go your way until the end; for you shall rest, and shall stand in your lot, at the end of the days.”‡‡

* 12:11 Are these literal days, or do they figuratively point to 1290 years? Some commentators take the latter view, and calculate years of Papal rule, which they believe ran 1290 years from 508 to 1798 when Napoleon took the pope captive. In his Concise Commentary Matthew Henry says, “The imposture of Mohammed, and the papal usurpation, began about the same time; and these were a twofold attack upon the church of God. But all will end well at last.” However, he does not assign specific dates.

John Calvin, in his commentary, sees the taking away of the daily sacrifice in this verse as the time of Christ’s death on the cross—“the period at which Christ by his advent should abolish the shadows of the law, thus making all offering of sacrifices to God totally valueless,” and says the abomination was set up “as soon as the gospel began to be promulgated. God then deserted his temple . . .” But, of the 1290 and 1335 days, Calvin adds that the angel spoke “metaphorically.” See the note at 12:12.

†† 12:12 Some commentators apply these 1335 prophetic “days,” and those in the previous verse, to the time of Antiochus. Some, to the time surrounding the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem in 70 A.D. Some measure them as years related to the Islamic empire of the Turks. Others measure them as years from the founding of the papacy to its renunciation by early Protestants. And, of course, dispensational futurists see them as literal days during a supposed seven-year tribulation yet to come.

Prophesy is usually best understood in retrospect, after the events have taken place. With so many different explanations proposed, and in the absence of any that are compelling, it may be best not to speculate further here.

‡‡ 12:13 Daniel was given assurance that he will be resurrected from the dead at the end of the days. This would occur when “those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life.”—verse 2

HOSEA

CHAPTER ONE

1 Jehovah's word that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. 2 When Jehovah spoke at first by Hosea, Jehovah said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking Jehovah."

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

4 Jehovah said to him, "Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

6 She conceived again, and bore a daughter.

Then he said to him, "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. 7 But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by Jehovah their God, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.

9 He said, "Call his name Lo-Ammi; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours. 10 Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.' 11 The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel."

CHAPTER TWO

1 "Say to your brothers, 'My people!'

and to your sisters, 'My loved one!'

2 Contend with your mother!

Contend, for she is not my wife,

neither am I her husband;

and let her put away her prostitution from her face,

and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 lest I strip her naked, and make her bare as in the day that she was born,

and make her like a wilderness,

and set her like a dry land,

and kill her with thirst.

4 Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy; for they are children of unfaithfulness;

5 for their mother has played the prostitute.

She who conceived them has done shamefully;

for she said, 'I will go after my lovers,

who give me my bread and my water,

my wool and my flax,

my oil and my drink.'

6 Therefore behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her,

that she can't find her way.

7 She will follow after her lovers, but she won't overtake them;

and she will seek them,

but won't find them.

Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband;

for then was it better with me than now.'

8 For she did not know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal.

9 Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its season,

and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness.

10 Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her out of my hand.

11 I will also cause all her celebrations to cease:

her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.

12 I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, about which she has said, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me;'

and I will make them a forest, and the animals of the field shall eat them.

13 I will visit on her the days of the Baals, to which she burned incense,

when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels,

and went after her lovers,

and forgot me," says Jehovah.

14 "Therefore behold, I will allure her,

and bring her into the wilderness,

and speak tenderly to her.

15 I will give her vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope;

and she will respond there,

as in the days of her youth,

and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 It will be in that day," says Jehovah,

"that you will call me 'my husband,'

and no longer call me 'my master.'

17 For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name.

18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky,

and with the creeping things of the ground.

I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land, and will make them lie down safely.

19 I will betroth you to me forever.

Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.

20 I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness;

and you shall know Jehovah.

21 It will happen in that day, I will respond," says Jehovah,

"I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth; 22 and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil;

 and they will respond to Jezreel.
 23 I will sow her to me in the earth;
 and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;
 and I will tell those who were not my people,
 'You are my people;'
 and they will say, 'My God!'"

CHAPTER THREE

1 Jehovah said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress,* even as Jehovah loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins."

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley. 3 I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you."

4 For the children of Israel shall live many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols. 5 Afterward the children of Israel shall return, and seek Jehovah their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to Jehovah and to his blessings in the last days.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Hear Jehovah's word, you children of Israel; for Jehovah has a charge against the inhabitants of the land:

"Indeed there is no truth,
 nor goodness,
 nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery;
 they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.

3 Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells therein will waste away.

all living things in her,
 even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky;
 yes, the fish of the sea also die.

4 "Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; For your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.

5 You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night;
 and I will destroy your mother.

6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priest to me.

 Because you have forgotten your God's law,
 I will also forget your children.

7 As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me.

I will change their glory into shame.

8 They feed on the sin of my people,
 and set their heart on their iniquity.

9 It will be, like people, like priest;
 and I will punish them for their ways,
 and will repay them for their deeds.

10 They will eat, and not have enough.

They will play the prostitute, and will not increase;

because they have ceased listening to Jehovah.

11 Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.

12 My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood.

Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray, and they have been unfaithful to their God.

13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good.

Therefore your daughters play the prostitute,
 and your brides commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, nor your brides when they commit adultery;

because the men consort with prostitutes,
 and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes;

so the people without understanding will come to ruin.

15 "Though you, Israel, play the prostitute, yet don't let Judah offend;
 and don't come to Gilgal,
 neither go up to Beth Aven,
 nor swear, 'As Jehovah lives.'

16 For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer.

Then how will Jehovah feed them like a lamb in a meadow?

17 Ephraim is joined to idols.

Leave him alone!

18 Their drink has become sour.

They play the prostitute continually.

Her rulers dearly love their shameful way.

19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings;
 and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 "Listen to this, you priests!

Listen, house of Israel,

and give ear, house of the king!

For the judgment is against you;
 for you have been a snare at Mizpah,
 and a net spread on Tabor.

2 The rebels are deep in slaughter;
 but I discipline all of them.

3 I know Ephraim,
 and Israel is not hidden from me;

for now, Ephraim, you have played the prostitute.

Israel is defiled.

4 Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their God;

* 3:1 How does God feel when his people turn to falsehood? Like a man whose wife sleeps with another man. God commanded Hosea to marry an unfaithful wife, a prostitute, to illustrate the unfaithfulness of Israel and Judah. Hosea's prophecies go on to speak of God's anger toward Israel, and the blessings that would come when the nation would repent.

for the spirit of prostitution is within them,
and they don't know Jehovah.
5 The pride of Israel testifies to his face.
Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in
their iniquity.
Judah also will stumble with them.
6 They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Jehovah;
but they won't find him.
He has withdrawn himself from them.
7 They are unfaithful to Jehovah;
for they have borne illegitimate children.
Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.
8 "Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah!
Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin!
9 Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke.
Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be.
10 The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark.
I will pour out my wrath on them like water.
11 Ephraim is oppressed,
he is crushed in judgment;
because he is intent in his pursuit of idols.
12 Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth,
and to the house of Judah like rottenness.
13 "When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound,
then Ephraim went to Assyria,
and sent to king Jareb:
but he is not able to heal you,
neither will he cure you of your wound.
14 For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I myself will tear in pieces and go away.
I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.
15 I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense,
and seek my face.
In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."

CHAPTER SIX

1 "Come, and let us return to Jehovah; for he has torn us to pieces,
and he will heal us;
he has injured us,
and he will bind up our wounds.
2 After two days he will revive us.
On the third day he will raise us up,
and we will live before him.
3 Let us acknowledge Jehovah.
Let us press on to know Jehovah.
As surely as the sun rises,
Jehovah will appear.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the spring rain that waters the earth."
4 "Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
Judah, what shall I do to you?
For your love is like a morning cloud,
and like the dew that disappears early.
5 Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets;
I killed them with the words of my mouth.
Your judgments are like a flash of lightning.
6 For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice;

and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they, like Adam, have broken the covenant.

They were unfaithful to me, there.

8 Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity;
it is stained with blood.

9 As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man, so the company of priests murder on the path toward Shechem, committing shameful crimes.

10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing.

There is prostitution in Ephraim.

Israel is defiled.

11 "Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you,
when I restore the fortunes of my people."

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 "When I would heal Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered,
also the wickedness of Samaria;
for they commit falsehood,
and the thief enters in,
and the gang of robbers ravages outside.
2 They don't consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness.

Now their own deeds have engulfed them.

They are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their
wickedness,
and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers.

They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring,
from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.

5 On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine.

He joined his hand with mockers.

6 For they have prepared their heart like an oven,
while they lie in wait.

Their baker sleeps all the night.

In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges.

All their kings have fallen.

There is no one among them who calls to me.

8 Ephraim, he mixes himself among the nations.

Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength,

and he doesn't realize it.

Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him,

and he doesn't realize it.

10 The pride of Israel testifies to his face;
yet they haven't returned to Jehovah their God,
nor sought him, for all this.

11 "Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove, without understanding.

They call to Egypt.

They go to Assyria.

12 When they go, I will spread my net on them.

I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.

I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.

13 Woe to them!

For they have wandered from me.

Destruction to them!
 For they have trespassed against me.
 Though I would redeem them,
 yet they have spoken lies against me.
 14 They haven't cried to me with their heart,
 but they howl on their beds.
 They assemble themselves for grain and new wine.

They turn away from me.
 15 Though I have taught and strengthened their arms,
 yet they plot evil against me.
 16 They return, but not to the Most High.
 They are like a faulty bow.
 Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue.

This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 "Put the trumpet to your lips!
 Something like an eagle is over Jehovah's
 house,

because they have broken my covenant,
 and rebelled against my law.

2 They cry to me, 'My God, we Israel acknowledge you!'

3 Israel has cast off that which is good.
 The enemy will pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me.

They have made princes, and I didn't approve.
 Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols,
 that they may be cut off.

5 Let Samaria throw out his calf idol!
 My anger burns against them!
 How long will it be until they are capable of purity?

6 For this is even from Israel!
 The workman made it, and it is no God;
 indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they sow the wind,
 and they will reap the whirlwind.
 He has no standing grain.
 The stalk will yield no head.
 If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up.
 Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.

9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone.
 Ephraim has hired lovers for himself.

10 But although they sold themselves among
 the nations,

I will now gather them;
 and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones.

11 Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning,
 they became for him altars for sinning.

12 I wrote for him the many things of my law;
 but they were regarded as a strange thing.

13 As for the sacrifices of my offerings,
 they sacrifice flesh and eat it;
 But Jehovah doesn't accept them.

Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins.

They will return to Egypt.
 14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;

 and Judah has multiplied fortified cities;
 but I will send a fire on his cities,
 and it will devour its fortresses."

CHAPTER NINE

1 Don't rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations;
 for you were unfaithful to your God.

You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor.

2 The threshing floor and the wine press won't feed them,

and the new wine will fail her.

3 They won't dwell in Jehovah's land;

but Ephraim will return to Egypt,
 and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

4 They won't pour out wine offerings to
 Jehovah,

neither will they be pleasing to him.

Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;

all who eat of it will be polluted;
 for their bread will be for their appetite.

It will not come into Jehovah's house.

5 What will you do in the day of solemn assembly,

and in the day of the feast of Jehovah?

6 For, behold, they have gone away from destruction.

Egypt will gather them up.

Memphis will bury them.

Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver.

Thorns will be in their tents.

7 The days of visitation have come.

The days of reckoning have come.

Israel will consider the prophet to be a fool,

and the man who is inspired to be insane,

because of the abundance of your sins,

and because your hostility is great.

8 A prophet watches over Ephraim with my God.

A fowler's snare is on all of his paths,

and hostility in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves,

as in the days of Gibeah.

He will remember their iniquity.

He will punish them for their sins.

10 "I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.

I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season;

but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird.

There will be no birth, no one with child, and no conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left.

Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from
 them!

13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place;

but Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer."

14 Give them—Jehovah what will you give?
 Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
 15 “All their wickedness is in Gilgal;
 for there I hated them.
 Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house!
 I will love them no more.
 All their princes are rebels.
 16 Ephraim is struck.
 Their root has dried up.
 They will bear no fruit.
 Even though they give birth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb.”
 17 My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to him;
 and they will be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER TEN

1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit.
 According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars.
 As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones.
 2 Their heart is divided.
 Now they will be found guilty.
 He will demolish their altars.
 He will destroy their sacred stones.
 3 Surely now they will say, “We have no king;
 for we don’t fear Jehovah;
 and the king, what can he do for us?”
 4 They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants.
 Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.
 5 The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven;
 for its people will mourn over it,
 along with its priests who rejoiced over it,
 for its glory, because it has departed from it.
 6 It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great king.
 Ephraim will receive shame,
 and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.
 7 Samaria and her king float away,
 like a twig on the water.
 8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.
 The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars.
 They will tell the mountains, “Cover us!” and the hills, “Fall on us!”
 9 “Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah.
 There they remained.
 The battle against the children of iniquity doesn’t overtake them in Gibeah.
 10 When it is my desire, I will chastise them;
 and the nations will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two
 transgressions.
 11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh;
 so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck.
 I will set a rider on Ephraim.
 Judah will plow.
 Jacob will break his clods.
 12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness.
 Break up your fallow ground;

for it is time to seek Jehovah,
 until he comes and rains righteousness on you.
 13 You have plowed wickedness.
 You have reaped iniquity.
 You have eaten the fruit of lies, for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men.
 14 Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people,
 and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle.
 The mother was dashed in pieces with her children.
 15 So Bethel will do to you because of your great wickedness.
 At daybreak the king of Israel will be destroyed.”

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 “When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.
 2 They called to them, so they went from them.
 They sacrificed to the Baals,
 and burned incense to engraved images.
 3 Yet I taught Ephraim to walk.
 I took them by his arms;
 but they didn’t know that I healed them.
 4 I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love;
 and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks;
 and I bent down to him and I fed him.
 5 “They won’t return into the land of Egypt;
 but the Assyrian will be their king,
 because they refused to repent.
 6 The sword will fall on their cities,
 and will destroy the bars of their gates,
 and will put an end to their plans.
 7 My people are determined to turn from me.
 Though they call to the Most High,
 he certainly won’t exalt them.
 8 “How can I give you up, Ephraim?
 How can I hand you over, Israel?
 How can I make you like Admah?
 How can I make you like Zeboiim?
 My heart is turned within me,
 my compassion is aroused.
 9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger.
 I will not return to destroy Ephraim;
 for I am God, and not man; the Holy One
 among you;
 and I will not come in wrath.
 10 They will walk after Jehovah,
 who will roar like a lion;
 for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.
 11 They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt,
 and like a dove out of the land of Assyria;
 and I will settle them in their houses,” says
 Jehovah.
 12 Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit.
 Judah still strays from God,
 and is unfaithful to the Holy One.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Ephraim feeds on wind,
 and chases the east wind.
 He continually multiplies lies and desolation.

They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.
2 Jehovah also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways;
according to his deeds he will repay him.
3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel;
and in his manhood he contended with God.
4 Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed;
he wept, and made supplication to him.
He found him at Bethel, and there he spoke with us,
5 even Jehovah, the God of Armies;
Jehovah is his name of renown!
6 Therefore turn to your God.
Keep kindness and justice,
and wait continually for your God.
7 A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand.
He loves to defraud.
8 Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich,
I have found myself wealth.
In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin."
9 "But I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt.
I will yet again make you dwell in tents,
as in the days of the solemn feast.
10 I have also spoken to the prophets,
and I have multiplied visions;
and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables."
11 If Gilead is wicked, surely they are worthless.
In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls.
Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.
12 Jacob fled into the country of Aram, and Israel served to get a wife,
and for a wife he tended flocks and herds.
13 By a prophet Jehovah brought Israel up out of Egypt,
and by a prophet he was preserved.
14 Ephraim has bitterly provoked anger.
Therefore his blood will be left on him,
and his Lord will repay his contempt.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.
He exalted himself in Israel,
but when he became guilty in Baal, he died.
2 Now they sin more and more,
and have made themselves molten images of their silver,
even idols according to their own
understanding,
all of them the work of the craftsmen.
They say of them, "They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves."
3 Therefore they will be like the morning mist, and like the dew that passes away early,
like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor,
and like the smoke out of the chimney.
4 "Yet I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt;
and you shall acknowledge no god but me,
and besides me there is no savior.
5 I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled;
they were filled, and their heart was exalted.
Therefore they have forgotten me.
7 Therefore I am like a lion to them.
Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path.
8 I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs,
and will tear the covering of their heart.
There I will devour them like a lioness.
The wild animal will tear them.
9 You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me,
against your help.
10 Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities?
And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes?'
11 I have given you a king in my anger,
and have taken him away in my wrath.
12 The guilt of Ephraim is stored up.
His sin is stored up.
13 The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him.
He is an unwise son;
for when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb.
14 I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.
I will redeem them from death!
Death, where are your plagues?
Sheol, where is your destruction?
"Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.
15 Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come,
the breath of Jehovah coming up from the
wilderness;
and his spring will become dry,
and his fountain will be dried up.
He will plunder the storehouse of treasure.
16 Samaria will bear her guilt;
for she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword.
Their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open."

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 Israel, return to Jehovah your God;
for you have fallen because of your sin.
2 Take words with you, and return to Jehovah.
Tell him, "Forgive all our sins,
and accept that which is good:
so we offer our lips like bulls.
3 Assyria can't save us.
We won't ride on horses;
neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our gods!'
for in you the fatherless finds mercy."
4 "I will heal their waywardness.
I will love them freely;
for my anger is turned away from him.
5 I will be like the dew to Israel.
He will blossom like the lily,
and send down his roots like Lebanon.
6 His branches will spread,
and his beauty will be like the olive tree,
and his fragrance like Lebanon.
7 Men will dwell in his shade.
They will revive like the grain,

and blossom like the vine.

Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols?

I answer, and will take care of him.

I am like a green cypress tree;

from me your fruit is found.”

9 Who is wise, that he may understand these things?

Who is prudent, that he may know them?

For the ways of Jehovah are right, and the righteous walk in them;

But the rebellious stumble in them.

JOEL

CHAPTER ONE

1 Jehovah's word that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, you elders,
And listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has this ever happened in your days,
or in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell your children about it,
and have your children tell their children,
and their children, another generation.

4 What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten.

What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten.

What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten.

5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!

Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine;

for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number.

His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and he has the fangs of a lioness.

7 He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree.
He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away.
Its branches are made white.

8 Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth! 9 The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from Jehovah's house.

The priests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is laid waste.

The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed,
The new wine has dried up,
and the oil languishes.

11 Be confounded, you farmers!

Wail, you vineyard keepers;
for the wheat and for the barley;
for the harvest of the field has perished.

12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered;

the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree,

even all of the trees of the field are withered;

for joy has withered away from the sons of men.

13 Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests!

Wail, you ministers of the altar.

Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God, for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.

14 Sanctify a fast.

Call a solemn assembly.

Gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of Jehovah, your God, and cry to Jehovah.

15 Alas for the day!

For the day of Jehovah is at hand,
and it will come as destruction from the Almighty.

16 Isn't the food cut off before our eyes;

joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seeds rot under their clods.

The granaries are laid desolate.

The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.

18 How the animals groan!

The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture.

Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 Jehovah, I cry to you, for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field.

20 Yes, the animals of the field pant to you, for the water brooks have dried up, and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Blow the trumpet in Zion,

and sound an alarm in my holy mountain!

Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble,

for the day of Jehovah comes,

for it is close at hand:

2 a day of darkness and gloominess,

a day of clouds and thick darkness.

As the dawn spreading on the mountains,

a great and strong people;

there has never been the like,

neither will there be any more after them,

even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devours before them,

and behind them, a flame burns.

The land is as the garden of Eden before them,

and behind them, a desolate wilderness.

Yes, and no one has escaped them.

4 Their appearance is as the appearance of horses, and as horsemen, so do they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble,

as a strong people set in battle array.

6 At their presence the peoples are in anguish.

All faces have grown pale.

7 They run like mighty men.

They climb the wall like warriors.

They each march in his line, and they don't swerve off course.

8 Neither does one jostle another;

they march everyone in his path,

and they burst through the defenses,

and don't break ranks.

9 They rush on the city.

They run on the wall.

They climb up into the houses.

They enter in at the windows like thieves.

10 The earth quakes before them.

The heavens tremble.

The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

11 Jehovah thunders his voice before his army;

for his forces are very great;

for he is strong who obeys his command;

for the day of Jehovah is great and very awesome,
and who can endure it?

12 "Yet even now," says Jehovah, "turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning."

13 Tear your heart, and not your garments, and turn to Jehovah, your God;
for he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness,
and relents from sending calamity.

14 Who knows? He may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him,
even a meal offering and a drink offering to Jehovah, your God.

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion!
Sanctify a fast.

Call a solemn assembly.

16 Gather the people.

Sanctify the assembly.

Assemble the elders.

Gather the children, and those who nurse from breasts.

Let the bridegroom go out of his room,
and the bride out of her room.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of Jehovah, weep between the porch and the altar,
and let them say, "Spare your people, Jehovah,
and don't give your heritage to reproach,
that the nations should rule over them.

Why should they say among the peoples,
"Where is their God?"

18 Then Jehovah was jealous for his land,
And had pity on his people.

19 Jehovah answered his people,
"Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil,

and you will be satisfied with them;
and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

20 But I will remove the northern army far away from you,
and will drive it into a barren and desolate land,

its front into the eastern sea,
and its back into the western sea;
and its stench will come up,
and its bad smell will rise."

Surely he has done great things.

21 Land, don't be afraid.

Be glad and rejoice, for Jehovah has done great things.

22 Don't be afraid, you animals of the field;
for the pastures of the wilderness spring up,
for the tree bears its fruit.

The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.

23 "Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in Jehovah, your God;
for he gives you the former rain in just measure, and he causes the rain to come down for you,

the former rain and the latter rain,
as before.

24 The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

25 I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the great locust, the grasshopper, and the caterpillar,

my great army, which I sent among you.

26 You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, and will praise the name of Jehovah, your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you;
and my people will never again be disappointed.

27 You will know that I am among Israel, and that I am Jehovah, your God, and there is no one else;

and my people will never again be disappointed.

28 "It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit* on all flesh; and your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions.

29 And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days, I will pour out my Spirit.

30 I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Jehovah comes.

32 It will happen that whoever will call on Jehovah's name shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as Jehovah has said, and among the remnant, those whom Jehovah calls.

CHAPTER THREE

1 "For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, 2 I will gather all nations,† and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment on them there for my people, and for my heritage, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations. They have divided my land,

3 and have cast lots for my people, and have

* 2:28-29 When the Holy Spirit was poured out on the assembled disciples on Pentecost, days after the Messiah's death and resurrection, the Apostle Peter quoted Joel to explain what had just taken place: ". . . this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel"—Acts 2:16-18

† 3:1-2 While the first half of the Book of Joel warns of the punishment that would come on ancient Judah and Jerusalem, calling the Jews to repent, and promising that they would later be restored, the second half prophesies of events during the Christian era, and the final chapter appears to speak of end times events yet to come.

Chapter 3 tells of the days when Israel would be restored, and when final judgment would be brought against the Gentile nations.

given a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

4 “Yes, and what are you to me, Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia*?”

Will you repay me? And if you repay me, I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head.

5 Because you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my finest treasures into your temples,

6 and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks, that you may remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them, and will return your repayment on your own head;

8 and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba, to a faraway nation, for Jehovah has spoken it.”

9 Proclaim this among the nations:

“Prepare for war!

Stir up the mighty men.

Let all the warriors draw near.

Let them come up. 10 Beat your plowshares into swords,† and your pruning hooks into spears.

Let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’”

11 Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves together.”

Cause your mighty ones to come down there, Jehovah.

12 “Let the nations arouse themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge‡ all the surrounding nations.

13 Put in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe.

Come, tread, for the wine press is full, the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.”

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of Jehovah is near, in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

16 Jehovah will roar from Zion,

and thunder from Jerusalem;

and the heavens and the earth will shake;

but Jehovah will be a refuge to his people, and a stronghold to the children of Israel.

17 “So you will know that I am Jehovah, your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain.

Then Jerusalem will be holy, and no strangers will pass through her any more.§

18 It will happen in that day,

that the mountains will drop down sweet wine,

the hills will flow with milk,

all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters, and a fountain will flow out from Jehovah’s house,†† and will water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness,

for the violence done to the children of Judah,

because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed:

for Jehovah dwells in Zion.”

* 3:4 These neighbors that were troubling Israel in Joel’s day are troubling Israel in these end times as well, with Hezbollah in the regions of Tyre and Sidon in southern Lebanon and enemies who call themselves Palestinians in Gaza and the West Bank.

† 3:10 Unbelievers point to this passage as a supposed “contradiction” in the Bible—and an excuse not to believe. They say this passage teaches the opposite to Isaiah 2:4, where it says, “they shall beat their swords into plowshares.” But the messages appear contradictory only if pulled out of context.

The famous passage in Isaiah speaks of the peace that will prevail in God’s coming Kingdom under the Messiah.

But the prophet Joel speaks of a time shortly before that peace is established—the end times of this wicked world—a time when all the nations will come against Israel, and when God will wage war against the nations. In preparation for this final battle, God’s messenger challenges the nations to get ready for the fight by beating their plowshares into swords.

So, there is no contradiction, because the two passages apply to different people under different circumstances at different times. Other supposed ‘Bible contradictions’ similarly disappear when examined in context.

‡ 3:11-12 These verses refer to the final judgment when “the kings of the whole inhabited earth” are gathered together “for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty.”—Revelation 16:14

§ 3:17 Jesus said that “Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.”—Luke 21:24

And Joel speaks here of the time following that, when Jerusalem will no longer be trampled by strangers.

 3:18a The language here is poetic, symbolizing a land that has become abundantly productive, as when Moses spoke of the Promised Land as “a land flowing with milk and honey.” (Deut. 26:9)

†† 3:18b The Apostle John describes the same scene: “a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.”—Revelation 22:1

The prophet Zechariah also foretold “that living waters will go out from Jerusalem”—Zechariah 14:8

AMOS

CHAPTER ONE

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. 2 He said:

"Jehovah will roar from Zion,
and utter his voice from Jerusalem;
and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn,
and the top of Carmel will wither."

3 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron;

4 but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.

5 I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven,

and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden;

and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir,"

says Jehovah.

6 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they carried away captive the whole community,

to deliver them up to Edom;

7 but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
and it will devour its palaces.

8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
and I will turn my hand against Ekron;

and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,"
says the Lord Jehovah.

9 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they delivered up the whole community to Edom,

and didn't remember the brotherly covenant;

10 but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre,
and it will devour its palaces."

11 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because he pursued his brother with the sword,
and cast off all pity,

and his anger raged continually,
and he kept his wrath forever;

12 but I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

13 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,

that they may enlarge their border.

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,
and it will devour its palaces,
with shouting in the day of battle,
with a storm in the day of the whirlwind;

15 and their king will go into captivity, he and his princes together,"
says Jehovah.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime;

2 but I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth;
and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting,
and with the sound of the trumpet;

3 and I will cut off the judge from among them,
and will kill all its princes with him,"
says Jehovah.

4 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have rejected Jehovah's law,
and have not kept his statutes,
and their lies have led them astray,
after which their fathers walked.

5 But I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

6 Jehovah says:

"For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have sold the righteous for silver,
and the needy for a pair of shoes.

7 They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor,

and deny justice to the oppressed;
and a man and his father use the same maiden,

to profane my holy name;

8 and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge;

and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars,
and he was strong as the oaks;

yet I destroyed his fruit from above,
and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,

and led you forty years in the wilderness,
to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites.

Isn't this true,
you children of Israel?" says Jehovah.

12 "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Don't prophesy!'

13 Behold, I will crush you in your place,
as a cart crushes that is full of grain.

14 Flight will perish from the swift;

and the strong won't strengthen his force;
neither shall the mighty deliver himself;
15 neither shall he stand who handles the bow;
and he who is swift of foot won't escape;
neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself;

16 and he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that day," says Jehovah.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Hear this word that Jehovah has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying:

2 "You only have I chosen of all the families of the earth.

Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins."

3 Do two walk together,
unless they have agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the thicket,
when he has no prey?

Does a young lion cry out of his den,
if he has caught nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth,
where no snare is set for him?

Does a snare spring up from the ground,
when there is nothing to catch?

6 Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city, without the people being afraid?

Does evil happen to a city,
and Jehovah hasn't done it?

7 Surely the Lord Jehovah will do nothing, unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

8 The lion has roared.

Who will not fear?

The Lord Jehovah has spoken.

Who can but prophesy?

9 Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt,
and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see what unrest is in her,

and what oppression is among them."

10 "Indeed they don't know to do right," says Jehovah,

"who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces."

11 Therefore thus says the Lord Jehovah:

"An adversary will overrun the land;
and he will pull down your strongholds,
and your fortresses will be plundered."

12 Jehovah says:

"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs,

or a piece of an ear,

so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed."

13 "Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob," says the Lord Jehovah, the God of Armies.

14 "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel on him,

I will also visit the altars of Bethel;

and the horns of the altar will be cut off,
and fall to the ground.

15 I will strike the winter house with the summer house;

and the houses of ivory will perish,
and the great houses will have an end," says Jehovah.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, "Bring us drinks!"

2 The Lord Jehovah has sworn by his holiness that behold,

"The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks,

and the last of you with fish hooks.

3 You will go out at the breaks in the wall, everyone straight before her;

and you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says Jehovah.

4 "Go to Bethel, and sin;

to Gilgal, and sin more.

Bring your sacrifices every morning,

your tithes every three days,

5 offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim free will offerings and brag about them:

for this pleases you, you children of Israel," says the Lord Jehovah.

6 "I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in every town;

yet you haven't returned to me," says Jehovah.

7 "I also have withheld the rain from you,

when there were yet three months to the harvest;

and I caused it to rain on one city,

and caused it not to rain on another city.

One place was rained on,

and the piece where it didn't rain withered.

8 So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water,

and were not satisfied:

yet you haven't returned to me," says Jehovah.

9 "I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards;

and your fig trees and your olive trees the swarming locust devoured:

yet you haven't returned to me," says Jehovah.

10 "I sent plagues* among you

* 4:7-10 The drought and other disasters that ruined the Israelites' crops were sent for the purpose of bringing them to repentance—causing them to change their hearts and minds—and turning them back to God, as he told them through his prophet Amos. When some prominent preacher today declares an earthquake or a devastating storm to be a punishment sent by God, the news media heap ridicule on such a thought. Since "God is love," he doesn't do such things—Or does he?

If many people today who "believe in God" don't believe that God sends natural disasters, the reason may be that they don't believe in the God of the Bible—or that they are unfamiliar with what the Bible says about natural disasters in the final days of this world.

like I did Egypt.

I have slain your young men with the sword,
and have carried away your horses;
and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp,

yet you haven't returned to me," says Jehovah.

11 "I have overthrown some of you,

as when God overthrew Sodom*
and Gomorrah,

and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire;

yet you haven't returned to me," says Jehovah.

12 "Therefore thus will I do to you, Israel;

because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel.

13 For, behold, he who forms the mountains, and creates the wind,

and declares to man what is his thought;

who makes the morning darkness,

and treads on the high places of the earth:

Jehovah, the God of Armies, is his name."

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel.

2 "The virgin of Israel has fallen;

She shall rise no more.

She is cast down on her land;

there is no one to raise her up."

3 For thus says the Lord Jehovah:

"The city that went out a thousand shall have a hundred left,

and that which went out one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

4 For Jehovah says to the house of Israel:

"Seek me, and you will live;

5 but don't seek Bethel,

nor enter into Gilgal,

and don't pass to Beersheba:

for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,

and Bethel shall come to nothing.

6 Seek Jehovah, and you will live;

lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph,

and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel.

7 You who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth:

8 seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the

morning,

and makes the day dark with night;

who calls for the waters of the sea,

and pours them out on the surface of the earth,

Jehovah is his name,

9 who brings sudden destruction on the strong,
so that destruction comes on the fortress.

10 They hate him who reproves in the gate, and they abhor him who speaks blamelessly.

11 Therefore, because you trample on the poor, and take taxes from him of wheat:

you have built houses of cut stone,

but you will not dwell in them.

You have planted pleasant vineyards,

but you shall not drink their wine.

12 For I know how many your offenses, and how great are your sins—

you who afflict the just,

who take a bribe,

and who turn aside the needy in the courts.

13 Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time,

for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live;

and so Jehovah, the God of Armies, will be with
you,

as you say.

15 Hate evil, love good,

and establish justice in the courts.

It may be that Jehovah, the God of Armies, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph."

16 Therefore Jehovah, the God of Armies, the Lord, says:

"Wailing will be in all the wide ways;

and they will say in all the streets, 'Alas! Alas!'

and they will call the farmer to mourning, and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.

17 In all vineyards there will be wailing;

for I will pass through the middle of you," says
Jehovah.

18 "Woe to you who desire the day of Jehovah!

Why do you long for the day of Jehovah?

It is darkness,

and not light.

19 As if a man fled from a lion,

and a bear met him;

Or he went into the house and leaned his hand
on the wall,

and a snake bit him.

20 Won't the day of Jehovah be darkness, and not light?

Even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 I hate, I despise your feasts, and I can't stand your solemn assemblies.

22 Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings,

I will not accept them;

neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.

23 Take away from me the noise of your songs!

I will not listen to the music of your harps.

24 But let justice roll on like rivers, and righteousness like a mighty stream.

25 "Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel? 26 You also carried the tent of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves.

27 Therefore I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus," says Jehovah, whose name is the God of Armies.

CHAPTER SIX

1 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria,

the notable men of the chief of the nations,

to whom the house of Israel come!

2 Go to Calneh, and see;

* 4:11 The reference here is to the Genesis account of how God destroyed the men of Sodom who "were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Jehovah." (Gen. 13:13)

The story of Sodom and Gomorrah is confirmed as real history by close to fifty references in the Bible books of Genesis, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Amos, Zephaniah, Matthew, Mark, Luke, 2 Peter, Jude and Revelation.

and from there go to Hamath the great;
 then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
 are they better than these kingdoms?
 Or is their border greater than your border?
 3 Those who put far away the evil day,
 and cause the seat of violence to come near;
 4 who lie on beds of ivory,
 and stretch themselves on their couches,
 and eat the lambs out of the flock,
 and the calves out of the middle of the stall;
 5 who strum on the strings of a harp;
 who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David;
 6 who drink wine in bowls,
 and anoint themselves with the best oils;
 but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive;
 and the feasting and lounging will end.

8 "The Lord Jehovah has sworn by himself,"
 says Jehovah, the God of Armies:

"I abhor the pride of Jacob,
 and detest his fortresses.

Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it.

9 It will happen, if there remain ten men in one
 house,
 that they shall die.

10 "When a man's relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?' And he says, 'No;' then he will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention Jehovah's name.'

11 "For, behold, Jehovah commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits.

12 Do horses run on the rocky crags?

Does one plow there with oxen?

But you have turned justice into poison,
 and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness;

13 you who rejoice in a thing of nought, who
 say,

'Haven't we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?'

14 For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel,"

says Jehovah, the God of Armies;

"and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: and behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the king's harvest.

2 When they finished eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Lord Jehovah, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

3 Jehovah relented concerning this. "It shall not be," says Jehovah.

4 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me and behold, the Lord Jehovah called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. 5 Then I said, "Lord Jehovah, stop, I beg you! How could Jacob stand?
 For he is small."

6 Jehovah relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says the Lord Jehovah.

7 Thus he showed me and behold, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. 8 Jehovah said to me,
 "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. 9 The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

12 Amaziah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: 13 but don't prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house!"

14 Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; 15 and Jehovah took me from following the flock, and Jehovah said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' 16 Now therefore listen to Jehovah's word: 'You say, "Don't prophesy against Israel, and don't preach against the house of Isaac.'" 17 Therefore Jehovah says: 'Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit.

2 He said, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then Jehovah said to me,

"The end has come on my people Israel.

I will not again pass by them any more.

3 The songs of the temple will be wailings in that day," says the Lord Jehovah.

"The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence.

4 Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy,

and cause the poor of the land to fail,

5 saying, 'When will the new moon be gone,
 that we may sell grain?

And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel large,
 and dealing falsely with balances of deceit;

6 that we may buy the poor for silver,

and the needy for a pair of shoes,

and sell the sweepings with the wheat?"

7 Jehovah has sworn by the pride of Jacob,

"Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Won't the land tremble for this,

and everyone mourn who dwells in it?

Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River;

and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt.

9 It will happen in that day," says the Lord Jehovah,

"that I will cause the sun to go down at noon,
and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

10 I will turn your feasts into mourning,
and all your songs into lamentation;

and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies,

and baldness on every head.

I will make it like the mourning for an only son,
and its end like a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come," says the Lord Jehovah,

"that I will send a famine in the land,

not a famine of bread,

nor a thirst for water,

but of hearing Jehovah's words.

12 They will wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east;

they will run back and forth to seek Jehovah's word,

and will not find it.

13 In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint for thirst.

14 Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, 'As your god, Dan, lives;'

and, 'As the way of Beersheba lives;'

they will fall, and never rise up again."

CHAPTER NINE

1 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. 2 Though they dig into Sheol, there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down. 3 Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them. 4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good. 5 For the Lord, Jehovah of Armies, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt. 6 It is he who builds his rooms in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; Jehovah is his name. 7 Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?" says Jehovah. "Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? 8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord Jehovah are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob," says Jehovah. 9 "For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel

among all the nations,* as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth. 10 All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, 'Evil won't overtake nor meet us.' 11 In that day I will raise up the tent of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; 12 that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name," says Jehovah who does this.

13 "Behold, the days come," says Jehovah,

"that the plowman shall overtake the reaper,

and the one treading grapes him who sows seed;

and sweet wine will drip from the mountains,

and flow from the hills.

14 I will bring my people Israel back from captivity,

and they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them;

and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them.

They shall also make gardens, and eat their fruit.

15 I will plant them on their
land,

and they will no more be plucked up out of their land† which I have given them,"

says Jehovah your God.

* 9:9 The descendents of Israel spent centuries scattered or "sifted" among the nations, before returning to the Promised Land.

† 9:14-15 After nearly two thousand years in captivity and exile among the other nations of the world, in 1948 the people of Israel restored their own nation in the land assigned to them in the Bible.

OBADIAH

CHAPTER ONE

1 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord Jehovah says about Edom. We have heard news from Jehovah, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Arise, and let's rise up against her in battle. 2 Behold, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised. 3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?' 4 Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there," says Jehovah. 5 "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—oh, what disaster awaits you—wouldn't they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn't they leave some gleaning grapes? 6 How Esau will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out! 7 All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him."

8 "Won't I in that day," says Jehovah, "destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau? 9 Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter. 10 For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. 11 In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. 12 But don't look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and don't rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Don't speak proudly in the day of distress. 13 Don't enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don't look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. 14 Don't stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Don't deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. 15 For the day of Jehovah is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. 16 For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. 17 But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess their possessions. 18 The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau." Indeed, Jehovah has spoken.

19 Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. 20 The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. 21 Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be Jehovah's.

JONAH

CHAPTER ONE

1 Now Jehovah's word came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it, for their wickedness has come up before me."

3 But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah. 4 But Jehovah sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. 6 So the ship master came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God. Maybe your God will notice us, so that we won't perish."

7 They all said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for this evil that is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. 8 Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"

9 He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Jehovah, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Jehovah, because he had told them. 11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy. 12 He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you."

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. 14 Therefore they cried to Jehovah, and said, "We beg you, Jehovah, we beg you, don't let us die for this man's life, and don't lay on us innocent blood; for you, Jehovah, have done as it pleased you." 15 So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. 16 Then the men feared Jehovah exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to Jehovah, and made vows.

17 Jehovah prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.*

CHAPTER TWO

1 Then Jonah prayed to Jehovah, his God, out of the fish's belly. 2 He said, "I called because of my affliction to Jehovah. He answered me.

Out of the belly of Sheol I cried.

You heard my voice.

3 For you threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas.

The flood was all around me.

All your waves and your billows passed over me.

4 I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again toward your holy temple.'

5 The waters surrounded me, even to the soul.

The deep was around me.

The weeds were wrapped around my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains.

The earth barred me in forever:

yet have you brought up my life from the pit, Jehovah my God.

7 "When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Jehovah.

My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.

8 Those who observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving.

I will pay that which I have vowed.

Salvation belongs to Jehovah."

10 Jehovah spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Jehovah's word came to Jonah the second time, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I give you."

3 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to Jehovah's word. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. 4 Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!"

5 The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from their greatest even to their least. 6 The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; 8 but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. 9 Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?"

10 God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he didn't do it.

CHAPTER FOUR

* 1:17 Those who are inclined to dismiss the book of Jonah as a children's story should note that Jesus referred to it as factual. See Matt. 12:40-41 and Luke 11:29-32.

1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. 2 He prayed to Jehovah, and said, "Please, Jehovah, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. 3 Therefore now, Jehovah, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live."

4 Jehovah said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

5 Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. 6 Jehovah God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. 7 But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. 8 When the sun arose, God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9 God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?"

He said, "I am right to be angry, even to death."

10 Jehovah said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. 11 Shouldn't I be concerned* for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?"

* 4:11 The book of Jonah gives great insight into God's mercy toward people like the pagans of Nineveh, who knew virtually nothing about the God of the Bible, until they heard Jonah's preaching, and repented in response to his message.

MICAHA

CHAPTER ONE

1 Jehovah's word that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, you peoples, all of you.

Listen, O earth, and all that is therein:

and let the Lord Jehovah be witness against you,

the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, Jehovah comes out of his place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

4 The mountains melt under him, and the valleys split apart,

like wax before the fire,

like waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 "All this is for the disobedience of Jacob, and for the sins of the house of Israel.

What is the disobedience of Jacob?

Isn't it Samaria?

And what are the high places of Judah?

Aren't they Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field, like places for planting vineyards;

and I will pour down its stones into the valley,

and I will uncover its foundations.

7 All her idols will be beaten to pieces, and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire,

and all her images I will destroy;

for of the hire of a prostitute she has gathered them,

and to the hire of a prostitute they shall return."

8 For this I will lament and wail;

I will go stripped and naked;

I will howl like the jackals, and moan like the daughters of owls.

9 For her wounds are incurable;

for it has come even to Judah.

It reaches to the gate of my people,

even to Jerusalem.

10 Don't tell it in Gath.

Don't weep at all.

At Beth Ophrah I have rolled myself in the dust.

11 Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame.

The inhabitant of Zaanan won't come out.

The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you his protection.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil has come down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem.

13 Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish.

She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion;

for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

14 Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath.

The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.

15 I will yet bring an heir to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.

He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

16 Shave your heads, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight.

Enlarge your baldness like the vulture; for they have gone into captivity from you!

CHAPTER TWO

1 Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds!

When the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 They covet fields, and seize them;

and houses, and take them away:

and they oppress a man and his house,

even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore Jehovah says:

"Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, from which you will not remove your necks, neither will you walk haughtily;

for it is an evil time.

4 In that day they will take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying,

"We are utterly ruined!

My people's possession is divided up.

Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!"

5 Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in Jehovah's assembly.

6 "Don't prophesy!"

They prophesy.

"Don't prophesy about these things.

Disgrace won't overtake us."

7 Shall it be said, O house of Jacob:

"Is Jehovah's Spirit angry?

Are these his doings?

Don't my words do good to him who walks blamelessly?"

8 But lately my people have risen up as an enemy.

You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle.

9 You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses;

from their young children you take away my blessing forever.

10 Arise, and depart!

For this is not your resting place,

because of uncleanness that destroys,

even with a grievous destruction.

11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies:

"I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;"

he would be the prophet of this people.

12 "I will surely assemble, Jacob, all of you;

I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;

I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah,

as a flock in the middle of their pasture;

they will swarm with people.

13 He who breaks open the way goes up before them.

They break through the gate, and go out.
And their king passes on before them,
with Jehovah at their head."

CHAPTER THREE

1 I said,

"Please listen, you heads of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of Israel:
Isn't it for you to know justice?

2 You who hate the good,
and love the evil;
who tear off their skin,
and their flesh from off their bones;
3 who also eat the flesh of my people,
and flay their skin from off them,
and break their bones,
and chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
and as flesh within the cauldron."

4 Then they will cry to Jehovah,
but he will not answer them.

Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, because they made their deeds evil.

5 Jehovah says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, "Peace!" and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him:

6 "Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine;
and the sun will go down on the prophets,
and the day will be black over them.

7 The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded.

Yes, they shall all cover their lips;
for there is no answer from God."

8 But as for me, I am full of power by Jehovah's Spirit, and of judgment, and of might,

to declare to Jacob his disobedience,
and to Israel his sin.

9 Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob,

and rulers of the house of Israel,
who abhor justice,
and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 Her leaders judge for bribes,
and her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets tell fortunes for money:
yet they lean on Jehovah, and say,

"Isn't Jehovah among us?
No disaster will come on us."

12 Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble,

and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 But in the latter days,

it will happen that the mountain of Jehovah's temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills;

and peoples will stream to it.

2 Many nations will go and say,

"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob;

and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths."

For the law will go out of Zion,
and Jehovah's word from Jerusalem;

3 and he will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off.

They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
neither will they learn war any more.

4 But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree;

and no one will make them afraid:

for the mouth of Jehovah of Armies has spoken. 5 Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods;

but we will walk in the name of Jehovah our God forever and ever.

6 "In that day," says Jehovah,

"I will assemble that which is lame,
and I will gather that which is driven away,
and that which I have afflicted;

7 and I will make that which was lame a remnant,

and that which was cast far off a strong nation:
and Jehovah will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even forever."

8 You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come,

yes, the former dominion will come,
the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why do you cry out aloud?

Is there no king in you?

Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail?

10 Be in pain, and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail;

for now you will go out of the city,

and will dwell in the field,

and will come even to Babylon.

There you will be rescued.

There Jehovah will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

11 Now many nations have assembled against you, that say,

"Let her be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Zion."

12 But they don't know the thoughts of Jehovah, neither do they understand his counsel;

for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion;

for I will make your horn iron,
and I will make your hoofs brass;

and you will beat in pieces many peoples:

and I will devote their gain to Jehovah,
and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Now you shall gather yourself in troops, daughter of troops.

 He has laid siege against us.
 They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

2 But you, Bethlehem* Ephrathah,
 being small among the clans of Judah,
 out of you one will come out to me that is to be ruler in Israel;
 whose goings out are from of old, from ancient times.

3 Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth.

Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.

4 He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of Jehovah,
 in the majesty of the name of Jehovah his God:
 and they will live, for then he will be great to the ends of the earth.

5 He will be our peace when Assyria invades
 our land,
 and when he marches through our fortresses,
 then we will raise against him seven shepherds,
 and eight leaders of men.

6 They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword,

and the land of Nimrod in its gates.
 He will deliver us from the Assyrian,
 when he invades our land,
 and when he marches within our border.

7 The remnant of Jacob will be among many peoples,

like dew from Jehovah,
 like showers on the grass,
 that don't wait for man,
 nor wait for the sons of men.

8 The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,

among many peoples,
 like a lion among the animals of the forest,
 like a young lion among the flocks of sheep;
 who, if he goes through, treads down and tears
 in pieces,
 and there is no one to deliver.

9 Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries,

and let all of your enemies be cut off.

10 "It will happen in that day," says Jehovah,
 "that I will cut off your horses out from among
 you,

and will destroy your chariots.

11 I will cut off the cities of your land,
 and will tear down all your strongholds.

12 I will destroy witchcraft from your hand;
 and you shall have no soothsayers.

13 I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out from among you;

and you shall no more worship the work of your hands.

14 I will uproot your Asherah poles out from among you;

and I will destroy your cities.

15 I will execute vengeance in anger, and wrath on the nations that didn't listen."

CHAPTER SIX

1 Listen now to what Jehovah says:

"Arise, plead your case before the mountains,
 and let the hills hear what you have to say.

2 Hear, you mountains, Jehovah's controversy, and you enduring foundations of the earth;
 for Jehovah has a controversy with his people,
 and he will contend with Israel.

3 My people, what have I done to you?

How have I burdened you?

Answer me!

4 For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage.

I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised,

and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of
 Jehovah."

6 How shall I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the exalted God?

Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

7 Will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams?

With tens of thousands of rivers of oil?

Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience?

The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He has shown you, O man, what is good.

What does Jehovah require of you, but to act justly,

to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

9 Jehovah's voice calls to the city, and wisdom sees your name:

"Listen to the rod,
 and he who appointed it.

10 Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a short ephah that is accursed?

11 Shall I be pure with dishonest scales, and with a bag of deceitful weights?

12 Her rich men are full of violence,

her inhabitants speak lies,

and their tongue is deceitful in their speech.

13 Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound.

I have made you desolate because of your sins.

14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied.

Your humiliation will be within you.

You will store up, but not save;

and that which you save I will give up to the sword.

15 You will sow, but won't reap.

You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself with oil;

and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine.

16 For the statutes of Omri are kept,

and all the works of Ahab's house.

You walk in their counsels,
 that I may make you a ruin,

* 5:2 Hundreds of years before Christ, the prophet Micah indicated that the promised Messiah would come from the town of Bethlehem in Judah, and this actually took place when Jesus was born in Bethlehem as recorded at Matthew 2:1-6 and Luke 2:4-7.

and her inhabitants a hissing;
and you will bear the reproach of my people.”

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 Misery is mine!

Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard:

There is no cluster of grapes to eat.

My soul desires to eat the early fig.

2 The godly man has perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among men.

They all lie in wait for blood;
every man hunts his brother with a net.

3 Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently.

The ruler and judge ask for a bribe;
and the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul.

Thus they conspire together.

4 The best of them is like a brier.

The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge.

The day of your watchmen,
even your visitation, has come;
now is the time of their confusion.

5 Don't trust in a neighbor.

Don't put confidence in a friend.

With the woman lying in your embrace,
be careful of the words of your mouth!

6 For the son dishonors the father,
the daughter rises up against her mother,
the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 But as for me, I will look to Jehovah.

I will wait for the God of my salvation.

My God will hear me.

8 Don't rejoice against me, my enemy.

When I fall, I will arise.

When I sit in darkness, Jehovah will be a light
to me.

9 I will bear the indignation of Jehovah, because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for me.

He will bring me out to the light.

I will see his righteousness.

10 Then my enemy will see it,
and shame will cover her who said to me,
“Where is Jehovah your God?”

Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame.

Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

11 A day to build your walls—

In that day, he will extend your boundary.

12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River,
and from sea to sea,
and mountain to mountain.

13 Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein,
for the fruit of their doings.

14 Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock of your heritage,
who dwell by themselves in a forest,
in the middle of fertile pasture land, let them feed;

in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 “As in the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt,

I will show them marvelous things.”

16 The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might.

They will lay their hand on their mouth.

Their ears will be deaf.

17 They will lick the dust like a serpent.

Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens.

They will come with fear to Jehovah our God,
and will be afraid because of you.

18 Who is a God like you, who pardons
iniquity,

and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage?

He doesn't retain his anger forever,
because he delights in loving kindness.

19 He will again have compassion on us.

He will tread our iniquities under foot;
and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 You will give truth to Jacob,

and mercy to Abraham,

as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM

CHAPTER ONE

1 A revelation about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. 2 Jehovah is a jealous God and avenges. Jehovah avenges and is full of wrath. Jehovah takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies. 3 Jehovah is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. Jehovah has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. 4 He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes. 5 The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. 6 Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him. 7 Jehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. 8 But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness. 9 What do you plot against Jehovah? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up a second time. 10 For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. 11 There is one gone out of you, who devises evil against Jehovah, who counsels wickedness. 12 Jehovah says: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. 13 Now I will break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart." 14 Jehovah has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

15 Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, Judah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER TWO

1 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily! 2 For Jehovah restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. 3 The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. 4 The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the wide ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. 5 He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. 6 The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. 7 It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her servants moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. 8 But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back. 9 Take the plunder of silver. Take the plunder of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all precious furniture. 10 She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. 11 Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid? 12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey. 13 "Behold, I am against you," says Jehovah of Armies, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

CHAPTER THREE

1 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn't depart. 2 The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots, 3 the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, 4 because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft. 5 "Behold, I am against you," says Jehovah of Armies, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. 6 I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle. 7 It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"

8 Are you better than No-Amon, who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? 9 Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers. 10 Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. 11 You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. 12 All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. 13 Behold, your troops among you are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars. 14 Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. 15 There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. 16 You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away. 17 Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. 18 Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. 19 There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?

HABAKKUK

CHAPTER ONE

1 The revelation which Habakkuk the prophet saw. 2 Jehovah, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you "Violence!" and will you not save? 3 Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up. 4 Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never prevails; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice comes out perverted.

5 "Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you. 6 For, behold, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and impetuous nation, that march through the width of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. 7 They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. 9 All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. 10 Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. 11 Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god."

12 Aren't you from everlasting, Jehovah my God, my Holy One? We will not die. Jehovah, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. 13 You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, 14 and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? 15 He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. 16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. 17 Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

CHAPTER TWO

1 I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

2 Jehovah answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. 3 For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won't delay. 4 Behold, his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him, but the righteous will live by his faith. 5 Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. He is a haughty man who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol, and he is like death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. 6 Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?' 7 Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? 8 Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. 9 Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. 11 For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. 12 Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, isn't it of Jehovah of Armies that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? 14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of Jehovah's glory, as the waters cover the sea.

15 "Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies! 16 You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of Jehovah's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. 17 For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.

18 "What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols? 19 Woe to him who says to the wood, 'Awake!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all within it. 20 But Jehovah is in his holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before him!"

CHAPTER THREE

1 A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music.

2 Jehovah, I have heard of your fame.
I stand in awe of your deeds, Jehovah.
Renew your work in the middle of the years.
In the middle of the years make it known.

In wrath, you remember mercy.
3 God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Selah.

His glory covered the heavens,
and his praise filled the earth.
4 His splendor is like the sunrise.

Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden.

5 Plague went before him,
and pestilence followed his feet.
6 He stood, and shook the earth.
He looked, and made the nations tremble.
The ancient mountains were crumbled.
The age-old hills collapsed.
His ways are eternal.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction.
The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.

8 Was Jehovah displeased with the rivers?
Was your anger against the rivers,
or your wrath against the sea,
that you rode on your horses,
on your chariots of salvation?

9 You uncovered your bow.
You called for your sworn arrows.

Selah.

You split the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw you, and were afraid.
The storm of waters passed by.

The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in the sky,
at the light of your arrows as they went,
at the shining of your glittering spear.

12 You marched through the land in wrath.
You threshed the nations in anger.

13 You went out for the salvation of your
people,

for the salvation of your anointed.

You crushed the head of the land of
wickedness.

You stripped them head to foot.

Selah.

14 You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears.

They came as a whirlwind to scatter me,
gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.

15 You trampled the sea with your horses,
churning mighty waters.

16 I heard, and my body trembled.
My lips quivered at the voice.

Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble
in my place,

because I must wait quietly for the day of
trouble,

for the coming up of the people who invade us.

17 For though the fig tree doesn't flourish,
nor fruit be in the vines;
the labor of the olive fails,
the fields yield no food;
the flocks are cut off from the fold,
and there is no herd in the stalls:

18 yet I will rejoice in Jehovah.
I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

19 Jehovah, the Lord, is my strength.
He makes my feet like deer's feet,
and enables me to go in high places.

ZEPHANIAH

CHAPTER ONE

1 Jehovah's word which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. 2 I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says Jehovah. 3 I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says Jehovah. 4 I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests, 5 those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by Jehovah and also swear by Malcam, 6 those who have turned back from following Jehovah, and those who haven't sought Jehovah nor inquired after him.

7 Be silent at the presence of the Lord Jehovah, for the day of Jehovah is at hand. For Jehovah has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. 8 It will happen in the day of Jehovah's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. 9 In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit.

10 In that day, says Jehovah, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off.

12 It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "Jehovah will not do good, neither will he do evil." 13 Their wealth will become a plunder, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine.

14 The great day of Jehovah is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of Jehovah. The mighty man cries there bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, 16 a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. 17 I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against Jehovah, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. 18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, 2 before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Jehovah comes on you, before the day of Jehovah's anger comes on you. 3 Seek Jehovah, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of Jehovah's anger.

4 For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up. 5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! Jehovah's word is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. 6 The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. 7 The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for Jehovah, their God, will visit them, and restore them.

8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 "Therefore as I live," says Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel, "surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them."

10 This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Jehovah of Armies. 11 Jehovah will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. 12 You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword. 13 He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. 14 Herds will lie down in the middle of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. 15 This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city! 2 She didn't obey the voice. She didn't receive correction. She didn't trust in Jehovah. She didn't draw near to her God. 3 Her princes within her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. 4 Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law.

* 2:9 The prophet assigns Moab a fate like that of Sodom and Gomorrah, sinful ancient cities whose destruction is recorded in the book of Genesis—and confirmed as factual throughout the Bible.

5 Jehovah, within her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. 6 "I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. 7 I said, 'Just fear me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her.' But they rose early and corrupted all their doings."

8 "Therefore wait for me," says Jehovah, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations,* that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. 9 For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on Jehovah's name, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. 10 From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. 11 In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out from among you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. 12 But I will leave among you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in Jehovah's name. 13 The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

14 Sing, daughter of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. 15 Jehovah has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, Jehovah, is among you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. 16 In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Don't be afraid, Zion. Don't let your hands be weak." 17 Jehovah, your God, is among you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. 18 "I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you."

19 "Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. 20 At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says Jehovah.

* 3:8 God told Zephaniah of his intention to bring destruction on the nations. The language is similar to that found at Joel 3:2 and Revelation 16:14.

† 3:14-20 Zephaniah foretold a future restoration for the Jewish people to the Promised Land, including the city of Jerusalem.

HAGGAI

CHAPTER ONE

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, Jehovah's word came by Haggai, the prophet, to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 "This is what Jehovah of Armies says: 'These people say, "The time hasn't yet come, the time for Jehovah's house to be built.'"

3 Then Jehovah's word came by Haggai, the prophet, saying, 4 "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste? 5 Now therefore this is what Jehovah of Armies says: 'Consider your ways. 6 You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you don't have enough. You drink, but you aren't filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it.'"

7 This is what Jehovah of Armies says: "Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says Jehovah. 9 "You looked for much, and, behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says Jehovah of Armies, "Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. 10 Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. 11 I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground produces, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands."

12 Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed Jehovah their God's voice, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as Jehovah their God, had sent him; and the people feared Jehovah.

13 Then Haggai, Jehovah's messenger, spoke Jehovah's message to the people, saying, "I am with you," says Jehovah.

14 Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of Jehovah of Armies, their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAPTER TWO

1 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, Jehovah's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, 3 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn't it in your eyes as nothing? 4 Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,' says Jehovah. 'Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says Jehovah, 'and work, for I am with you,' says Jehovah of Armies. 5 'This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. Don't be afraid.' 6 For this is what Jehovah of Armies says: 'Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; 7 and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations* will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says Jehovah of Armies. 8 'The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says Jehovah of Armies. 9 'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says Jehovah of Armies; 'and in this place I will give peace,' says Jehovah of Armies."

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, Jehovah's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "Jehovah of Armies says: 'Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 "If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?'"

The priests answered, "No."

13 Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touches any of these, will it be unclean?"

The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

14 Then Haggai answered, "So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says Jehovah; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. 15 Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in Jehovah's temple. 16 Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. 17 I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says Jehovah. 18 'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of Jehovah's temple was laid, consider it. 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't produced. From today I will bless you.'"

20 Jehovah's word came the second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, 21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. 22 I will overthrow† the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. 23 In that day,' says Jehovah of Armies, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says Jehovah, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says Jehovah of Armies."

judges and makes war. . . . His name is called 'The Word of God.' The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. He treads the wine press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, 'KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.'"—Revelation 19:12-16

ZECHARIAH

CHAPTER ONE

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius,*

Jehovah's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 2 "Jehovah was very displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore tell them: 'Jehovah of Armies says: "Return to me," says Jehovah of Armies, "and I will return to you," says Jehovah of Armies. 4 "Don't you be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: 'Jehovah of Armies says, "Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;" but they did not hear, nor listen to me," says Jehovah. 5 "Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, didn't they overtake your fathers?"'"

"Then they repented and said, "Just as Jehovah of Armies determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us."'"

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, Jehovah's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8 "I had a vision in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. 9 Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?'"

The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10 The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones Jehovah has sent to go back and forth through the earth."

11 They reported to Jehovah's angel who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace."

12 Then Jehovah's angel replied, "O Jehovah of Armies, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?"

13 Jehovah answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. 14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Jehovah of Armies says: "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15 I am very angry with the nations that are at ease;

for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity." 16 Therefore Jehovah says: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house shall be built in it," says Jehovah of Armies, "and a line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem."

17 "Proclaim further, saying, 'Jehovah of Armies says: "My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and Jehovah will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem."'"

18 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns. 19 I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?"

He answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 Jehovah showed me four craftsmen. 21 Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?"

He said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

CHAPTER TWO

1 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then I asked, "Where are you going?"

He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

3 Behold, the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him, 4 and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. 5 For I,' says Jehovah, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the middle of her. 6 Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says Jehovah; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says Jehovah. 7 'Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.' 8 For Jehovah of Armies says: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. 9 For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a plunder to those who served them; and you will know that Jehovah of Armies has sent me. 10 Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell within you,' says Jehovah. 11 'Many nations shall join themselves to Jehovah in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell among you,' and you shall know that Jehovah of Armies has sent me to you. 12 Jehovah will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. 13 Be silent, all flesh, before Jehovah; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

CHAPTER THREE

1 He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before Jehovah's angel, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. 2 Jehovah said to Satan, "Jehovah rebuke you, Satan! Yes, Jehovah who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

* 1:1 Unlike ancient myths that are set 'once upon a time' in 'a land far away,' the history recorded in the Bible speaks of specific times, actual places and historical persons—confirmed by contemporary secular histories and by modern archaeology. The Bible relates events in Israel and Judah, and in the life of Christ, to specific years in the reigns of Babylonian, Persian and Roman emperors known to secular historians. In this case, the timing is the eighth month of the second year of Persian emperor Darius.

This grounding in historical fact gives us reason to believe the Bible's prophecies about the 'end times' of this world: the times we are living in now, when foretold events are beginning to take place—events that will culminate in the return of Christ.

3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. 4 He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

5 I said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head."

So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and Jehovah's angel was standing by. 6 Jehovah's angel protested to Joshua, saying, 7 "Jehovah of Armies says: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. 8 Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring out my servant, the Branch. 9 For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave its engraving,' says Jehovah of Armies, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 In that day,' says Jehovah of Armies, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

CHAPTER FOUR

1 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. 2 He said to me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I have seen, and behold, a lamp stand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; 3 and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."

4 I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

5 Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

6 Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is Jehovah's word to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says Jehovah of Armies. 7 Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, to it!'"

8 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that Jehovah of Armies has sent me to you. 10 Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are Jehovah's eyes, which run back and forth through the whole earth."

11 Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lamp stand and on the left side of it?"

12 I asked him the second time, "What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?"

13 He answered me, "Don't you know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll. 2 He said to me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits."

3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. 4 I will cause it to go out," says Jehovah of Armies, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the middle of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones."

5 Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing."

6 I said, "What is it?"

He said, "This is an ephah basket that is appearing." He said moreover, "This is their appearance in all the land 7 (and behold, a talent of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the middle of the ephah basket." 8 He said, "This is Wickedness;" and he threw her down into the middle of the ephah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

9 Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky. 10 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?"

11 He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

CHAPTER SIX

1 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. 2 In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; 3 in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. 4 Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5 The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go out from standing before the Lord of all the earth. 6 The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went out toward the south country." 7 The strong ones went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and he said, "Go around and through the earth!" So they walked back and forth through the earth.

8 Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."

9 Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 10 "Take from them of the captivity, even from Heldai, from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon. 11 Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; 12 and speak to him, saying, 'Jehovah of Armies says, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build Jehovah's temple; 13 even he shall build Jehovah's temple; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. 14 The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in Jehovah's temple. 15 Those who are far off shall come and build in Jehovah's temple; and you shall know that Jehovah of Armies has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey Jehovah your God's voice.'"

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 In the fourth year of king Darius, Jehovah's word came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. 2 The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their men, to entreat Jehovah's favor, 3 and to speak to the priests of the house of Jehovah of Armies, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?"

4 Then the word of Jehovah of Armies came to me, saying, 5 "Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me? 6 When you eat, and when you drink, don't you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? 7 Aren't these the words which Jehovah proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?'"

8 Jehovah's word came to Zechariah, saying, 9 "Thus has Jehovah of Armies spoken, saying, 'Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. 10 Don't oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.' 11 But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. 12 Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which Jehovah of Armies had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from Jehovah of Armies. 13 It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen," said Jehovah of Armies; 14 "but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate."

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 The word of Jehovah of Armies came to me. 2 Jehovah of Armies says: "I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath."

3 Jehovah says: "I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the middle of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called 'The City of Truth;' and the mountain of Jehovah of Armies, 'The Holy Mountain.'"

4 Jehovah of Armies says: "Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his cane in his hand due to old age. 5 The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

6 Jehovah of Armies says: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says Jehovah of Armies.

7 Jehovah of Armies says: "Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; 8 and I will bring them, and they will dwell within Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

9 Jehovah of Armies says: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of Jehovah of Armies was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. 10 For before those days there were no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. 11 But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says Jehovah of Armies. 12 "For the seed will be prosperous and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. 13 It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

14 For Jehovah of Armies says: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says Jehovah of Armies, "and I didn't repent; 15 so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Don't be afraid. 16 These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, 17 and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says Jehovah.

18 The word of Jehovah of Armies came to me. 19 Jehovah of Armies says: "The fasts of the fourth fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace."

20 Jehovah of Armies says: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; 21 and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of Jehovah, and to seek Jehovah of Armies. I will go also.' 22 Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek Jehovah of Armies in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of Jehovah."

23 Jehovah of Armies says: "In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

CHAPTER NINE

1 A revelation. Jehovah's word is against the land of Hadrach, and will rest upon Damascus; for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Jehovah;

2 and Hamath, also, which borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.

3 Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will strike her power in the sea; and she will be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon will see it, and fear; Gaza also, and will writhe in agony; as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed; and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

6 Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also will be a remnant for our God; and he will be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 I will encamp around my house against the army, that no one pass through or return; and no oppressor will pass through them any more: for now I have seen with my eyes.

9 Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion!

Shout, daughter of Jerusalem!

Behold, your King comes to you! He is righteous, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.*

10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow will be cut off;

and he will speak peace to the nations: and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

11 As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water.

12 Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope! Even today I declare that I will restore double to you.

13 For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me. I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and will make you like the sword of a mighty man.

14 Jehovah will be seen over them; and his arrow will go flash like lightning; and the Lord Jehovah will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 Jehovah of Armies will defend them; and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones; and they will drink, and roar as through wine; and they will be filled like bowls, like the corners of the altar.

16 Jehovah their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people; for they are like the jewels of a crown, lifted on high over his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

CHAPTER TEN

1 Ask of Jehovah rain in the spring time, Jehovah who makes storm clouds, and he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field.

2 For the teraphim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams.

They comfort in vain.

Therefore they go their way like sheep.

They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.

3 My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the male goats;

For Jehovah of Armies has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle.

4 From him will come the cornerstone, from him the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together.

5 They shall be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because Jehovah is with them; and the riders on horses will be confounded.

6 "I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them back;

for I have mercy on them;

and they will be as though I had not cast them off:

for I am Jehovah their God, and I will hear them.

7 Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as through wine; yes, their children will see it, and rejoice.

Their heart will be glad in Jehovah.

8 I will signal for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them;

and they will increase as they have increased.

9 I will sow them among the peoples;

and they will remember me in far countries;

and they will live with their children, and will return.

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria;

and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon;

* 9:9 When the Messiah Jesus centuries later presented himself to Jerusalem in this manner, "this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet."—Matthew 21:4

As verse 10 goes on to say, "his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth."

and there won't be room enough for them.

11 He will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile will dry up; and the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

12 I will strengthen them in Jehovah; and they will walk up and down in his name," says Jehovah.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 Open your doors, Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars.

2 Wail, cypress tree, for the cedar has fallen, because the stately ones are destroyed.

Wail, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has come down.

3 A voice of the wailing of the shepherds!

For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions!

For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

4 Jehovah my God says: "Feed the flock of slaughter. 5 Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be Jehovah, for I am rich,' and their own shepherds don't pity them. 6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says Jehovah; "but, behold, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."

7 So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor," and the other I called "Union," and I fed the flock. 8 I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. 9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." 10 I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. 11 It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that listened to me knew that it was Jehovah's word. 12 I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. 13 Jehovah said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces* of silver, and threw them to the potter, in Jehovah's house. 14 Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 Jehovah said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. 16 For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. 17 Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 A revelation, Jehovah's word concerning Israel. Jehovah, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: 2 "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples,† and it will also be on Judah in the siege against Jerusalem. 3 It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome‡ stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth§ will be † 12:2 In the wars since 1967 when Jerusalem once again came under Jewish control, after a gap of nearly two thousand years, Jerusalem has indeed sent the surrounding peoples reeling.

The combined armies of the Arab states and their allies have been repulsed and held at bay by the tiny Jewish state.

‡ 12:3a The Bible speaks prophetically of a time when Jerusalem would be viewed as a problem by the rest of the world—like a burdensome stone—leading up to concerted action against Israel by those nations. United Nations resolutions show that the international community does view Jerusalem as a problem for the whole world. And these U.N. resolutions form a legal basis for the international community to take concerted military action.

Centuries of Muslim control ended when British forces under General Allenby marched into the holy city in 1917. Then the League of Nations legitimized British occupation through an official Mandate. In 1947, United Nations General Assembly Resolution 181 called for a division of the land between Jews and Arabs, between two new states of Israel and Jordan, with Jerusalem under U.N. control and administration:

"The City of Jerusalem shall be established as a corpus separatum under a special international regime and shall be administered by the United Nations."

But in 1948 as British forces withdrew and the State of Israel was proclaimed, the surrounding Arab nations attacked. Their aim was to destroy Israel and to drive the Jews into the sea. That war ended in 1949 with an agreement dividing Jerusalem between Israel and Jordan—with the Old City in Jordanian hands.

A few years later in 1967, during the Six-Day War, Jewish control over Jerusalem was expanded, when the Old City was captured. Then, in 1980, Israel annexed East Jerusalem and declared the united city of Jerusalem to be its capital.

In 2002 the "Quartet" composed of the United States, Russia, the European Union and the United Nations drew up a "roadmap for peace" and presented it formally to the government of Israel and to the Palestinian Authority in May, 2003. That roadmap envisioned an international conference to achieve "resolution on the status of Jerusalem that takes into account the political and religious concerns of both sides, and protects the religious interests of Jews, Christians and Muslims worldwide."

As of this writing, that Roadmap has never been implemented, but a new peace plan is due to be unveiled by U.S. President Donald Trump.

This brings us to the present situation, with Jerusalem viewed by the international community as a problem for the whole world. U.N. resolutions call for the state of Israel to abandon its claim to Jerusalem as its eternal capital, and to withdraw from at least part of the city.

Eventually the nations of the world, 'united' as Zechariah foretold, will move to enforce their will. But, they will find themselves up against the will of God.

§ 12:3b "...all the nations on earth will come together to attack

* 11:12-13 Zechariah here foretold that the Messiah Jesus would be betrayed for thirty pieces of silver, which would be thrown into the temple and used to buy the potter's field. Compare Matthew 27:3, 10 and Acts 1:18-19 gathered together against it. 4 In that day," says Jehovah, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5 The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Jehovah of Armies their God.' 6 In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again be inhabited in her own place, even in Jerusalem. 7 Jehovah also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of David's house and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. 8 In that day Jehovah will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem.† He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and David's house will be like God, like Jehovah's angel before them. 9 It will happen in that day,

Jerusalem."—Zechariah 12:3 New Century Version

This parallels similar predictions recorded by Joel and the apostle John, which speak all the nations sending their armies to the region. "For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat," says the Lord, according to Joel 3:1-2. (The Holy Scriptures, The Jewish Publication Society of America) A demonic summons goes out to "all the kings of the world to call them together for the war of the Great Day of God the Almighty. . . . at the place called, in Hebrew, Armageddon." (Revelation 16:14, 16 The Jerusalem Bible; footnote: "Megiddo mountains")

There is also a modern political paper trail indicating that the nations of the world have already begun laying a legal foundation to justify such a move. First, the nations began to unite in the form of the League of Nations and, later, the United Nations organization. Then these organizations began passing resolutions regarding Palestine, Israel and Jerusalem. And, more recently, the nations began granting the United Nations more and more power to act militarily.

The Hebrew prophets speak of a time of world peace to follow this international attack on Jerusalem. The New Testament speaks of the Jewish Messiah Jesus Christ ruling in peace "for a thousand years" following his victory in that battle. (Rev. 20:4) Jesus' words recorded in Matthew chapter 24, Mark chapter 13 and Luke chapter 21 tell us the signs to look for, and Jesus concluded, "When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near . . . when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near." (Luke 21:28-31 NIV)

* 12:6 This could be a reference to the time since 1948, when the small Jewish state has been victorious in one war after another against Arab neighbors.

† 12:8 Has Almighty God been involved in defending the modern Jewish state with Jerusalem as its capital? How else can it be explained that a newborn tiny nation could stand up to repeated attacks from all the surrounding nations?

This does not imply that God approves of the conduct of the Jewish political leaders, or their policies—just that he is defending Jerusalem for his own Name's sake, and to fulfill Bible prophecy, much as was the case in the Old Testament when God upheld an ancient Jewish nation that repeatedly rebelled against him.

that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.‡ 10 I will pour on David's house, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me whom they have pierced;§ and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. 11 In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. 12 The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of David's house apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; 13 the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; 14 all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart."

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 "In that day there will be a spring opened to David's house and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. 2 It will come to pass in that day," says Jehovah of Armies, "that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. 3 It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in Jehovah's name;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. 4 It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive; 5 but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' 6 One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

7 "Awake, sword, against my shepherd, and against the man who is close to me," says Jehovah of Armies. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered;,

‡ 12:9 This fits our world today, with many nations hostile to the state of Israel and demanding, through United Nations resolutions, that the Jews surrender their hold over Jerusalem. When will this hostility finally reach a point where God steps in to defend the city and "destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem"?

Bible believers eagerly look forward to the fulfillment of prophecy that will culminate with Messiah's return as King of God's kingdom.

§ 12:10 The time will come when the Jews of Jerusalem will look to the Messiah Jesus whose hands and feet were "pierced" (Ps. 22:16), who "was pierced for our transgressions."—Isaiah 53:5

 13:7 "Then Jesus said to them, 'All of you will be made to stumble and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

8 It shall happen that in all the land," says Jehovah,

"two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it.

9 I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will test them like gold is tested.

They will call on my name, and I will hear them.

I will say, 'It is my people;'

and they will say, 'Jehovah is my God.'

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 Behold, a day of Jehovah comes, when your plunder will be divided within you. 2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. 3 Then Jehovah will go out and fight against those nations†, as when he fought in the day of battle. 4 His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives‡, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. 5 You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Jehovah my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. 6 It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. 7 It will be a unique day which is known to Jehovah; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

8 It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem§; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter will it be.

9 Jehovah will be King over all the earth. In that day Jehovah will be one, and his name one. 10 All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses. 11 Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely. 12 This will be the plague with which Jehovah will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. 13 It will happen in that day, that a great panic from Jehovah will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. 14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

15 So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague. 16 It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, Jehovah of Armies, and to keep the feast of tents. 17 It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Jehovah of Armies, on them there will be no rain. 18 If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which Jehovah will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tents. 19 This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tents. 20 In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO JEHOVAH;" and the pots in Jehovah's house will be like the bowls before the altar. 21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to Jehovah of Armies; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of Jehovah of Armies.

because of me tonight, for it is written, "I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered."'''—Matthew 26:31

* 14:2 The events predicted in chapters 12 through 14 apparently include some in the first century, and some at the end of this world. Is this passage in 14:2 prophetic of the Roman Empire's attack? Or does it speak of the final attack by all nations at the end of this world?

† If the latter is the case, then chapter fourteen seems to imply that the final attack on Jerusalem by all the nations will be successful at first, before God steps in. In any case, we know for sure that the final victory belongs to God, and that he will eventually triumph over the nations.

‡ 14:3 In the final battle, which is depicted in Joel and Revelation, God will come off victorious against the nations and armies of this world.

§ 14:4 Jesus stood on the Mount of Olives on more than one occasion. (For example, Matt. 21:1; 24:3; 26:30; Luke 19:37; 21:37; John 8:1) But Zechariah seems to refer here to an end-times event.

§ 14:8 "A fountain will flow out from Jehovah's house, and will water the valley of Shittim," according to Joel 3:18, and the Apostle John saw in vision "a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb."—Revelation 22:1

 14:16 Once these events take place, false worship will be gone, and everyone alive will worship the one true God in spirit and in truth.

MALACHI

CHAPTER ONE

1 A revelation, Jehovah's word to Israel by Malachi.

2 "I have loved you," says Jehovah.

Yet you say, "How have you loved us?"

"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says Jehovah, "Yet I loved Jacob; 3 but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." 4 Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" Jehovah of Armies says, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom Jehovah shows wrath forever."

5 Your eyes will see, and you will say, "Jehovah is great—even beyond the border of Israel!"

6 "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me?, says Jehovah of Armies to you, priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised your name?' 7 You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'Jehovah's table is contemptible.' 8 When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says Jehovah of Armies.

9 "Now, please entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says Jehovah of Armies.

10 "Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Jehovah of Armies, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. 11 For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name is great among the nations,* and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says Jehovah of Armies. 12 "But you profane it, in that you say, 'Jehovah's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.' 13 You say also, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it," says Jehovah of Armies; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says Jehovah.

14 "But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord a defective thing; for I am a great King," says

Jehovah of Armies, "and my name is awesome among the nations."

CHAPTER TWO

1 "Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. 2 If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name," says Jehovah of Armies, "then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. 3 Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. 4 You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says Jehovah of Armies.

5 "My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. 6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of Armies. 8 But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Jehovah of Armies.

9 "Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have been partial toward persons in the law." 10 Don't we all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Jehovah which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 Jehovah will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to Jehovah of Armies. 13 This again you do: you cover the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet you say, "Why?" Because Jehovah has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. 15 Did he not make you one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought godly offspring. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. 16 "For I hate divorce,"† says Jehovah, the

* 1:11 Prophecies that the God of Abraham would be worshiped by people of all nations can be found at Psalm 22:27, Psalm 66:4, Psalm 67:2, Psalm 67:7, Psalm 86:9, Jeremiah 16:19-20, Zechariah 14:16, Malachi 1:11 and Revelation 15:4. The amazing fulfillment gives us reason to believe the other Bible prophecies about the 'end times.'

† 2:15-16 God says that he hates divorce. So, what about our modern

God of Israel, “and him who covers his garment with violence!” says Jehovah of Armies.

Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you don't deal treacherously. 17 You have wearied Jehovah with your words. Yet you say, “How have we wearied him?” In that you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in Jehovah's sight, and he delights in them;” or “Where is the God of justice?”

CHAPTER THREE

1 “Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, he comes!” says Jehovah of Armies. 2 “But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap; 3 and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to Jehovah offerings in righteousness. 4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to Jehovah, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. 5 I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me,”* says Jehovah of Armies.

6 “For I, Jehovah, don't change†; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. 7 From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” says Jehovah of Armies.

“But you say, ‘How shall we return?’ 8 Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, ‘How have we robbed you?’ In tithes and offerings. 9 You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. 10 Bring the whole tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this,” says Jehovah of Armies, “if I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there will not be room enough for. 11 I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine drop its fruit before its time in the field,” says Jehovah of Armies. 12 “All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land,” says Jehovah of Armies.

13 “Your words have been hard against me,” says Jehovah. “Yet you say, ‘What have we spoken against you?’ 14 You have said, ‘It is vain to serve God;’ and ‘What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before Jehovah of Armies? 15 Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.’” 16 Then those who feared Jehovah spoke one with another; and Jehovah listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before him, for those who feared Jehovah, and who honored his name. 17 “They shall be mine,” says Jehovah of Armies, “my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. 18 Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.”

CHAPTER FOUR

1 “For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up,” says Jehovah of Armies, “that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But to you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. 3 You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make,” says Jehovah of Armies.

4 “Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances. 5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of Jehovah comes. 6 He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.”

world's view of divorce—commonly allowed for any reason or for no reason at all? The prophet Malachi expressed God's view.

And Jesus expressed the same view. He referred back to the first marriage in Genesis as the pattern God intended for mankind to follow:

“Haven't you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, ‘For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall join to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh?’ So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let man tear apart.” —Matthew 19:4-6

Jesus added, “Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is divorced commits adultery.” —Matthew 19:8-9 † 3:5 God, who gave his laws to Moses at the beginning of the Old Testament, here repeats at the end of the Old Testament that he still requires people to behave as he says they should behave.

Those who ignore God and engage in the behaviors he condemns will face punitive judgment.

† 3:6 God informs us that he does not change. Human governments may change, and popular views of right and wrong may change, but God does not change.

NEW TESTAMENT

MATTHEW

CHAPTER ONE

1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.*

2 Abraham became the father of Isaac. Isaac became the father of Jacob. Jacob became the father of Judah and his brothers. 3 Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez became the father of Hezron. Hezron became the father of Ram. 4 Ram became the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nahshon. Nahshon became the father of Salmon. 5 Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rahab. Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse. 6 Jesse became the father of King David.

David became the father of Solomon by her who had been Uriah's wife. 7 Solomon became the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam became the father of Abijah. Abijah became the father of Asa. 8 Asa became the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat became the father of Joram. Joram became the father of Uzziah. 9 Uzziah became the father of Jotham. Jotham became the father of Ahaz. Ahaz became the father of Hezekiah. 10 Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh. Manasseh became the father of Amon. Amon became the father of Josiah. 11 Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the exile to Babylon.

12 After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel. 13 Zerubbabel became the father of Abiud. Abiud became the father of Eliakim. Eliakim became the father of Azor. 14 Azor became the father of Zadok. Zadok became the father of Achim. Achim became the father of Eliud. 15 Eliud became the father of Eleazar. Eleazar became the father of Matthan. Matthan became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon to the Christ, fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was like this; for after his mother, Mary, was engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit. 19 Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly. 20 But when he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take to yourself Mary, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. 21 She shall give birth to a son. You shall call his name Jesus, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins."

22 Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet,[†] saying,

23 "Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall give birth to a son. They shall call his name Immanuel;" which is, being interpreted, "God with us." Isaiah 7:14

24 Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself; 25 and didn't know her sexually until she had given birth to her firstborn son. He named him Jesus.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King Herod, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, 2 "Where is he who is born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east, and have come to worship him." 3 When King Herod heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ would be born. 5 They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is written through the prophet,

6 'You Bethlehem, land of Judah, are in no way least among the princes of Judah:

* 1:1 Matthew here gives the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah through Joseph, his foster father. Matthew also goes on to relate the details of Jesus' birth from Joseph's perspective.

Our English word Messiah comes from a Hebrew word of similar pronunciation which means "anointed one." The word Christ comes from a Greek word for "anointed one." Both terms originally referred to a king chosen by God, because the first Israelite kings were designated as rulers when God's prophet anointed them by ceremonially pouring oil over their heads. The promised Messiah would, himself, be a future king, one descended from the ancient kings of Israel, in the line of David.

[†] 1:22-23 Of the four Gospel accounts—Matthew, Mark, Luke and John—it is Matthew's account that most emphasizes the fulfillment of prophecies from the Hebrew Scriptures—prophecies that pointed to the promised Messiah, and that Jesus fulfilled.

According to early Church writers Matthew wrote his account of Jesus' life and ministry first, before Mark, Luke and John, and wrote it in Hebrew, a language familiar to the earliest disciples, who were all Jews..

for out of you shall come a governor, who shall shepherd my people, Israel.” Micah 5:2

7 Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. 8 He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, “Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him.”

9 They, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was. 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. 11 They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. 12 Being warned in a dream that they shouldn’t return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.”

14 He arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, 15 and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called my son.” Hosea 11:1

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. 17 Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; she wouldn’t be comforted, because they are no more.” Jeremiah 31:15

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, 20 “Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child’s life are dead.”

21 He arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. 22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee, 23 and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

CHAPTER THREE

1 In those days, John the Baptizer came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying, 2 “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!” 3 For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness, make ready the way of the Lord.

Make his paths straight.” Isaiah 40:3

4 Now John himself wore clothing made of camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. 5 Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him. 6 They were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. 7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them, “You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance! 9 Don’t think to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham for our father,’ for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

10 “Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that doesn’t produce good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. 11 I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit. 12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.”

13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?”

15 But Jesus, answering, said to him, “Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he allowed him. 16 Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him. 17 Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. 3 The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

4 But he answered, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word*’

* 4:4 This passage highlights the importance of our personally reading the Bible. Our life depends on the words that have proceeded from God’s mouth, and we find those words in the Bible.

With apostasy infecting more and more churches during these end times, each believer is responsible before God to know what the Bible says, and to verify that the preachers and teachers we listen to are speaking the truth. Faithful pastors and teachers will not be insulted by this. The Apostle Paul welcomed it when his listeners noted what he told them and examined “the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.”—Acts 17:11

We also need to read the Bible to be sure that our preachers and teachers are telling us “the whole counsel of God” (Acts 20:27), not just the parts their audience wants to hear. It is common today for church leaders to pay their pastors to deliver Sunday morning sermons that are positive, that proceeds out of the mouth of God.” Deuteronomy 8:3

5 Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6 and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘He will put his angels in charge of you.’ and,

‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you don’t dash your foot against a stone.’” Psalm 91:11-12

7 Jesus said to him, “Again, it is written, ‘You shall not test the Lord, your God.’” Deuteronomy 6:16

8 Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory. 9 He said to him, “I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me.”

10 Then Jesus said to him, “Go away, Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.’” Deuteronomy 6:13

11 Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and served him. 12 Now when Jesus heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee. 13 Leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15 “The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles,

16 the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, to those who sat in the region and shadow of death,

to them light has dawned.” Isaiah 9:1-2

17 From that time, Jesus began to preach, and to say, “Repent!† For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.”

18 Walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19 He said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men.”

20 They immediately left their nets and followed him. 21 Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them. 22 They immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23 Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 24 The report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. 25 Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and from beyond the Jordan followed him.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Seeing the multitudes, he went up onto the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him. 2 He opened his mouth and taught† them, saying,

3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Isaiah their sins that they would quit practicing them and change their hearts and lives for the better.

The call to “Repent!” was the opening theme of Jesus’ teaching. It was also his closing theme. So, this message of ‘repentance and forgiveness of sins’ was the central theme of Jesus’ preaching, the main point he wanted us to learn and to preach to others.

He calls on us to repent when we first turn to him to as our Savior and Lord. But he also calls Christians to “Repent!” even later during our walk with him as his followers. For example, in Revelation chapters 2 and 3, Jesus calls five of the seven churches named there to “repent” for straying, in various ways, from following him:

“Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your . . .” —Rev. 2:5 NIV

To the church in the city of Pergamum, he said: “Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight . . .” —Rev. 2:16 NIV

To the church in the city of Sardis, the risen Christ said: “Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; obey it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what time I will come to you.” —Rev. 3:3 NIV

To the church in city of Laodicea, Jesus said: “Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So, be earnest, and repent.” —Rev. 3:19 NIV

When we read the Bible and prayerfully think about the things it says, God’s Holy Spirit shows us the changes we need to make to grow up as God’s adopted children and to become more like Jesus.

† 5:2 Jesus’ teaching revolved around different aspects of repenting from our sins and receiving forgiveness for our sins.

If we go through the four Gospels and analyze his words by topic, we find that Jesus devoted some of his teaching to salvation (about 4% of the words he spoke), the Kingdom of God (2%), the new covenant that he would institute (1%), and instructions for his followers to carry on their ministry (4%). But most of his words dealt with three major topics: discussing or proving by miracles his identity as the Savior who would save us from our sins (31%); outlining the behavior that God expects of us, distinguishing good behavior from sinful behavior (25%); and discussing rewards and punishments based on people’s behavior or conduct (32%).

The latter two add up to 57% of Jesus’ message focusing on human behavior and its consequences, whether good or bad.

upbeat, and pleasantly entertaining—devoid of the warnings, rebukes and judgment messages that people really need to hear. The Apostle Paul foretold that “the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires.”—2 Timothy 4:3 NASB

Personal Bible reading will keep us from succumbing to the ‘half-of-the-Word heresies’ that entertain many churches on Sunday mornings.

* 4:5 Like the Old Testament, the New Testament continues to refer to Jerusalem as “the holy city.”

Jerusalem plays an important role in prophecies regarding the end times—the last days of our world:

“I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples . . . and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. . . . It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.”—Zechariah 12:3-9

† 4:17 Matthew says Jesus began his ministry with a call to “Repent!” That word means to feel sorry for your past conduct, to regret or feel conscience-stricken about your past actions, attitudes, etc.—with such sorrow that you want to change your life for the better. Jesus also concluded his ministry by instructing his early followers to preach that same message:

“He told them, ‘This is what is written: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.’” —Luke 24:46-47 NIV

For people to repent from their sins means for them to be so sorry for 57:15; 66:2

4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Isaiah 61:2; 66:10,13

5 Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth. Psalms 37:11

6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after
righteousness,
for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called children of God.

10 Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

11 "Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute* you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

13 "You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men. 14 You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can't be hidden. 15 Neither do you light a lamp, and put it under a measuring basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house. 16 Even so, let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17 "Don't think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn't come to destroy, but to fulfill. 18 For most certainly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter or one tiny pen stroke shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished. 19 Whoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

21 "You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, 'You shall not murder;' Exodus 20:13 and 'Whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.' 22 But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause will be in danger of the judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raca!' will be in danger of the council; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of Gehenna.

23 "If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25 Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him on the way; lest perhaps the adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison. 26 Most certainly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last penny.

27 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery;' Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18 28 but I tell you that everyone who gazes at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna. 30 If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna.

31 "It was also said, 'Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce,' Deuteronomy 24:1 32 but I tell you that whoever puts away his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries her when she is put away commits adultery.

33 "Again you have heard that it was said to them of old time, 'You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to the Lord your vows,' 34 but I tell you, don't swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; 35 nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36 Neither shall you swear by your head, for you can't make one hair white or black. 37 But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No' be 'No.' Whatever is more than these is of the evil one.

38 "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.' Exodus 21:24; Leviticus 24:20; Deuteronomy 19:21 39 But I tell you, don't resist him who is evil; but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40 If anyone sues you to take away your coat, let him have your cloak also. 41 Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two. 42 Give to him who asks you, and don't turn away him who desires to borrow from you.

43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' Leviticus 19:18 44 But I tell you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you, 45 that you may be children of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have?

* 5:11-12 The Apostle Paul wrote that he himself had been "in prison . . . flogged . . . beaten with rods . . . stoned" and had faced many other dangers as a result of his ministry (1 Cor. 11:23-27 NIV). That is why Paul wrote, "If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men."—1 Corinthians 15:19 NIV

But our hope in Christ goes beyond this life. As Jesus said above, "Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven."

Don't even the tax collectors do the same? 47 If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? 48 Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER SIX

1 "Be careful that you don't do your charitable giving before men, to be seen by them, or else you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. 2 Therefore when you do merciful deeds, don't sound a trumpet before yourself, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may get glory from men. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward. 3 But when you do merciful deeds, don't let your left hand know what your right hand does, 4 so that your merciful deeds may be in secret, then your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

5 "When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Most certainly, I tell you, they have received their reward. 6 But you, when you pray,* enter into your inner room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. 7 In praying, don't use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking. 8 Therefore don't be like them, for your Father knows what things you need, before you ask† him. 9 Pray like this: 'Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. 10 Let your Kingdom come. Let your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. 11 Give us today our daily bread. 12 Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. 13 Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For yours is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.'

14 "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 "Moreover when you fast, don't be like the hypocrites, with sad faces. For they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen by men to be fasting. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward. 17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face; 18 so that you are not seen by men to be fasting, but by your Father who is in secret, and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

19 "Don't lay up treasures for yourselves on the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal; 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where thieves don't break through and steal; 21 for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

22 "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

24 "No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can't serve both God and Mammon. 25 Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life: what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor yet for your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing? 26 See the birds of the sky, that they don't sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns. Your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you of much more value than they?

27 "Which of you, by being anxious, can add one moment to his lifespan? 28 Why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin, 29 yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these. 30 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, won't he much more clothe you, you of little faith?

31 "Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?', 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?' 32 For the Gentiles seek after all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33 But seek first God's Kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things will be given to you as well. 34 Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.

1 "Don't judge, so that you won't be judged. 2 For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you. 3 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? 4 Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye;' and behold, the beam is in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of

* 6:5-6 Jesus gave instructions on how to pray—and how not to pray. We should not pray for show, to impress other people. Showy prayers have their reward only in the admiration of other people, but have no reward from God.

Rather, Jesus taught that most of our prayer life should be a private thing between ourselves and God.

† 6:8 So, the burden is not on us to come up with the right words, or the right formula, in our prayers. God cares about us and knows what we need even before we ask. Even when you don't know how to pray as you should, the Holy Spirit will help you out: "the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express."—Romans 8:26 NIV your brother's eye.

6 "Don't give that which is holy to the dogs, neither throw your pearls before the pigs, lest perhaps they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

7 "Ask,* and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you. 8 For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened. 9 Or who is there among you, who, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for a fish, who will give him a serpent? 11 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

12 Therefore whatever you desire for men to do to you, you shall also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

13 "Enter in by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter in by it. 14 How narrow is the gate, and restricted is the way that leads to life! Few are those who find it.

15 "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. 16 By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? 17 Even so, every good tree produces good fruit; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruit. 18 A good tree can't produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit. 19 Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire. 20 Therefore by their fruits you will know them. 21 Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will tell me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name† do many mighty works?' 23 Then I will tell them, 'I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.'

24 "Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house on a rock. 25 The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it didn't fall, for it was founded on the rock. 26 Everyone who hears these words of mine, and doesn't do them will be like a foolish man, who built his house on the sand. 27 The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it fell—and great was its fall."

28 When Jesus had finished saying these things, the multitudes were astonished at his teaching, 29 for he taught them with authority, and not like the scribes.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. 2 Behold, a leper came to him and worshiped him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."

3 Jesus stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 Jesus said to him, "See that you tell nobody, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

5 When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him, 6 and saying, "Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented."

7 Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

8 The centurion answered, "Lord, I'm not says here that many will be rejected, despite the powerful works they did in Jesus' name.

Why? Because, while carrying on Christian ministry, they also 'work iniquity' ("break God's laws" NLT). They may claim to be 'saved' because they have repeated 'the sinner's prayer' and they may point to crowds of people who were 'saved' through their mighty works in Jesus' name, but Jesus tells them, "I never knew you. Depart from me."

Commenting on Matthew 7:21, Reformer John Calvin wrote that Christ "speaks not only of false prophets, who rush upon the flock to tear and devour, but of hirelings, who insinuate themselves, under fair appearances, as pastors, though they have no feeling of piety." (Calvin's Commentary on a Harmony of the Evangelists)

A prominent Christian leader spends many years preaching the Gospel message and denouncing corruption, sin and sexual immorality. Then it comes to light that he has been leading a double life, practicing the very things he has denounced in his sermons. How do people react? How does God react? Many church members immediately jump to such a man's defense, arguing that God forgives everything. 'He is saved,' they say, 'covered by the blood of Christ,' so he is in no danger. But they say such things because they believe what popular religious books teach rather than what Jesus taught.

Many churches have given up preaching the real Jesus, the Jesus of the Bible. Instead, they preach a fictitious Jesus—a Jesus of popular culture who loves everyone and everything, forgives everyone and everything, and doesn't require anything of anyone. It is just as the Apostle Paul warned: "the time will come when people will not listen to the true teaching but will find many more teachers who please them by saying the things they want to hear."—2 Timothy 4:3 NCV

People want to hear about this easy-going Jesus of popular culture, not the real Jesus who told a man he healed, "Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you."—John 5:14 NIV

Jesus himself said that "many" who claim to be Christians and who preach in Jesus' name and who even accomplish great things in Jesus' name—but who live a lifestyle the Bible condemns—will be surprised to hear Jesus reject them and turn them away from the kingdom of God.

* 7:7-11 God cares for us as a good father does for his children. When we have needs, we should ask him in prayer to provide for our needs. This is true of physical needs, emotional needs and spiritual needs. The parallel passage in Luke 11:13 assures us that God will "give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him."

† 7:21-23 When Christ returns, will everyone who calls upon his name and boasts of an impressive 'Christian' ministry be saved? No, Jesus worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. 9 For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and tell another, 'Come,' and he comes; and tell my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

10 When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, "Most certainly I tell you, I haven't found so great a faith, not even in Israel. 11 I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the Kingdom of Heaven, 12 but the children of the Kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 13 Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed." His servant was healed in that hour.

14 When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever. 15 He touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and served him. 16 When evening came, they brought to him many possessed with demons. He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick; 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: "He took our infirmities, and bore our diseases." Isaiah 53:4 18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes around him, he gave the order to depart to the other side.

19 A scribe came, and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

20 Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

21 Another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

23 When he got into a boat, his disciples followed him. 24 Behold, a violent storm came up on the sea, so much that the boat was covered with the waves, but he was asleep. 25 They came to him, and woke him up, saying, "Save us, Lord! We are dying!"

26 He said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.

27 The men marveled, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

28 When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, two people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way. 29 Behold, they cried out, saying, "What do we have to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" 30 Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them. 31 The demons begged him, saying, "If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs."

32 He said to them, "Go!"

They came out, and went into the herd of pigs; and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water. 33 Those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons. 34 Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.

CHAPTER NINE

1 He entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city. 2 Behold, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you."

3 Behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man blasphemes."

4 Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? 5 For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Get up, and walk?' 6 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." (then he said to the paralytic), "Get up, and take up your mat, and go up to your house."

7 He arose and departed to his house. 8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

9 As Jesus passed by from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, "Follow me." He got up and followed him. 10 As he sat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples. 11 When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

12 When Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. 13 But you go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' Hosea 6:6 for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

14 Then John's disciples came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don't fast?"

15 Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16 No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made. 17 Neither do people put new wine into old wine skins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved."

18 While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live."

19 Jesus got up and followed him, as did his disciples. 20 Behold, a woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; 21 for she said within herself, "If I just touch his garment, I will be made well."

22 But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, "Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.

23 When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd in noisy disorder, 24 he said to them, "Make room, because the girl isn't dead, but sleeping."

They were ridiculing him. 25 But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose. 26 The report of this went out into all that land. 27 As Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, "Have mercy on us, son of David!"

28 When he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They told him, "Yes, Lord."

29 Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." 30 Their eyes were opened. Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, "See that no one knows about this." 31 But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

32 As they went out, behold, a mute man who was demon possessed was brought to him. 33 When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The multitudes marveled, saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"

34 But the Pharisees said, "By the prince of the demons, he casts out demons."

35 Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. 37 Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few. 38 Pray therefore that the Lord of the harvest will send out laborers into his harvest."

CHAPTER TEN

1 He called to himself his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness. 2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these. The first, Simon, who is called Peter; Andrew, his brother; James the son of Zebedee; John, his brother; 3 Philip; Bartholomew; Thomas; Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus; Lebbaeus, who was also called Thaddaeus; 4 Simon the Canaanite; and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 Jesus sent these twelve out, and commanded them, saying, "Don't go among the Gentiles, and don't enter into any city of the Samaritans. 6 Rather, go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 As you go, preach, saying, 'The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!' 8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, and cast out demons. Freely you received, so freely give. 9 Don't take any gold, silver, or brass in your money belts. 10 Take no bag for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of his food. 11 Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy; and stay there until you go on. 12 As you enter into the household, greet it. 13 If the household is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it isn't worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 Whoever doesn't receive you, nor hear your words, as you go out of that house or that city, shake off the dust from your feet. 15 Most certainly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

16 "Behold, I send you out as sheep among wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. 17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you. 18 Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations. 19 But when they deliver you up, don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say. 20 For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

21 "Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. 22 You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved. 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most certainly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel, until the Son of Man has come.

24 "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be like his teacher, and the servant like his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more those of his household! 26 Therefore don't be afraid of them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed; and hidden that will not be known. 27 What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in the ear, proclaim on the housetops. 28 Don't be afraid† of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.

29 "Aren't two sparrows sold for an assarion coin? Not one of them falls on the ground apart from your Father's will, 30 but the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows. 32 Everyone therefore who confesses me before men, him I will also confess before my Father who is in heaven. 33 But whoever denies me before men, him I will also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

34 "Don't think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn't come to send peace, but a † 10:28 Jesus warned that his faithful followers would also be hated, just as he was hated, and that some would be killed.

But he encouraged us to remain faithful and to trust in him. God's Spirit will carry us through our times of trial, and we will receive our reward in heaven with Jesus.

sword. 35 For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. 36 A man's foes will be those of his own household. Micah 7:6 37 He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn't worthy of me. 38 He who doesn't take his cross and follow after me, isn't worthy of me. 39 He who seeks his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for my sake will find it. 40 He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. 41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. He who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. 42 Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, most certainly I tell you he will in no way lose his reward."

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 When Jesus had finished directing his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and preach in their cities. 2 Now when John heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples 3 and said to him, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?"

4 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: 5 the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, Isaiah 35:5 the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. Isaiah 61:1-4 6 Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me."

7 As these went their way, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8 But what did you go out to see? A man in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in king's houses. 9 But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 10 For this is he, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.' Malachi 3:1 11 Most certainly I tell you, among those who are born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptizer; yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. 12 From the days of John the Baptizer until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 If you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, who is to come.

* 10:37 In our walk with Christ we may encounter opposition from friends and associates, from workmates, or even from close relatives. And that may prove to be a test for us. Will our strongest loyalty be to God?

There is a reward ahead for those who face such personal loss for the sake of following Jesus. He promised, "Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life."—Matthew 19:29

15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

16 "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions 17 and say, 'We played the flute for you, and you didn't dance.' We mourned for you, and you didn't lament.' 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her children."

20 Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they didn't repent. 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. 23 You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will go down to Hades. For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until today. 24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, on the day of judgment, than for you."

25 At that time, Jesus answered, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise† and understanding, and revealed them to infants. 26 Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight. 27 All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the Son desires to reveal him.

28 "Come to me, all you who

† 11:25 Could someone write a book that ordinary people can understand, while hiding its truths from well-educated intellectuals? That would be impossible for a human author, but God knows how to do it.

As Jesus expressed here, you don't have to be a theologian, in order to please God. He is not looking for intellectuals. The simplicity of the Gospel message often causes sophisticated, highly educated people to reject it and disbelieve, while simple, humble people without much formal education grasp the message and follow Christ.

Similarly, the Apostle Paul wrote that he was sent to preach "not with words of human wisdom . . . For it is written: 'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate.' Where is the wise man? Where is the scholar? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? . . . For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom . . . Brothers, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him. It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption. Therefore, as it is written: 'Let him who boasts boast in the Lord.'"—1 Corinthians 1:17-31 NIV labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest.* 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. 2 But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, “Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.”

3 But he said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him; 4 how he entered into God’s house, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests? 1 Samuel 21:3-6 5 Or have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbath day, the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are guiltless? 6 But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here. 7 But if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’ Hosea 6:6 you would not have condemned the guiltless. 8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

9 He departed there, and went into their synagogue. 10 And behold there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?” that they might accuse him.

11 He said to them, “What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won’t he grab on to it, and lift it out? 12 Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day.” 13 Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other. 14 But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. 15 Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all, 16 and commanded them that they should not make him known: 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 “Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;
my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:
I will put my Spirit on him.

He will proclaim justice to the nations.

19 He will not strive, nor shout;

neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

20 He won’t break a bruised reed.

He won’t quench a smoking flax,
until he leads justice to victory.

21 In his name, the nations will hope.” Isaiah 42:1-4

22 Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to him and he healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. 23 All the multitudes were amazed, and said, “Can this be the son of David?” 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “This man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.”

25 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? 27 If I by Beelzebul cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. 28 But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then God’s Kingdom has come upon you. 29 Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and plunder his goods, unless he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house.

30 “He who is not with me is against me, and he who doesn’t gather with me, scatters. 31 Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. 32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in that which is to come.

33 “Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit. 34 You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. 35 The good man out of his good treasure brings out good things, and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings out evil things. 36 I tell you that every idle word that men speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. 37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.”

39 But he answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given it but the sign of Jonah the prophet. 40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here. 42 The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here.

43 “When an unclean spirit has gone out of a

* 11:28-30 In contrast with the rulers of nations down through history and today, the Scriptures reveal Jesus to be kind, compassionate and merciful. He invites us to follow him, and promises that we will find rest under his gentle yoke.

You may find a group of Christians to fellowship with, but becoming a follower of Jesus is something different—a personal matter between you and him. If you accept his invitation and turn to Jesus in humble prayer, he will reveal himself to you. “One who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him.”—John 14:21 man, he passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and doesn't find it. 44 Then he says, 'I will return into my house from which I came out,' and when he has come back, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. 45 Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation."

46 While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him. 47 One said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you."

48 But he answered him who spoke to him, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" 49 He stretched out his hand towards his disciples, and said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 On that day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside. 2 Great multitudes gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat, and sat, and all the multitude stood on the beach. 3 He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow. 4 As he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. 5 Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. 6 When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. 7 Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them. 8 Others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. 9 He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 The disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

11 He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. 12 For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has. 13 Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand. 14 In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says,

'By hearing you will hear,
and will in no way understand;
Seeing you will see,
and will in no way perceive:

15 for this people's heart has grown callous,
their ears are dull of hearing,
they have closed their eyes;
or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes,

hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and would turn again;
and I would heal them.' Isaiah 6:9-10

16 "But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17 For most certainly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them.

18 "Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. 19 When anyone hears the word of the Kingdom, and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside. 20 What was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it; 21 yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22 What was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.* 23 What was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who most certainly bears fruit, and produces, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty."

24 He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field, 25 but while people slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel weeds also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up and produced fruit, then the darnel weeds appeared also. 27 The servants of the householder came and said to him, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where did these darnel weeds come from?'

28 "He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' "The servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and gather them up?'

29 "But he said, 'No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel weeds, you root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First, gather up the darnel weeds, and

* 13:18-23 Jesus explained here the parable he had given in 13:3-8. People will react differently to the urgency of the times and the Gospel message. Some will value the Good News about Christ, and some won't. Some will be diligent in their investigation, and some will not. Some will allow the Bible's message to change their lives, and some will not.

bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn.””

31 He set another parable before them, saying, “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field; 32 which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches.”

33 He spoke another parable to them. “The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, until it was all leavened.”

34 Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, he didn’t speak to them, 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

“I will open my mouth in parables;

I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.” Psalms 78:2

36 Then Jesus sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the darnel weeds of the field.”

37 He answered them, “He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, 38 the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the children of the Kingdom; and the darnel weeds are the children of the evil one. 39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age,* and the reapers are angels. 40 As therefore the darnel weeds are gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be at the end of this age. 41 The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his Kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and those who do iniquity, 42 and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

44 “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure† hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.

45 “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 who having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet, that was cast into the sea, and gathered some fish of every kind, 48 which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach. They sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they threw away. 49 So will it be in the end‡ of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked from among the righteous, 50 and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.” 51 Jesus said to them, “Have you understood all these things?”

They answered him, “Yes, Lord.”

52 He said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been made a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a householder, who brings out of his treasure new and old things.”

53 When Jesus had finished these parables, he departed from there. 54 Coming into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, “Where did this man get this wisdom, and these mighty works? 55 Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James,

† 13:44-45 Jesus illustrates here how much some people will value the Bible’s message about Christ and his coming Kingdom. Is your appreciation on a level with that of the man who found the treasure or the merchant who found the pearl? It is a matter of the heart—your appreciation for what God has done for you. Some will treasure their relationship with God and will do whatever it takes to gain or repair that relationship.

‡ Is there some unfinished business between you and God? Have you been putting it off until after you have finished raising the children? Or, have you been delaying until after your new business endeavor has gotten up and running and becomes firmly established? Or, have you been waiting until your busy career winds down and retirement gives you more time to spend in the Scriptures and in prayer?

If so, then the things discussed here should make you reconsider your priorities. You may need to re-order your life’s interests so as to move your relationship with God to center stage.

‡ 13:49-50 What will happen at “the end of the world”? Jesus did not teach universal salvation (that everyone will be saved and enjoy rewards in heaven). Rather, wicked and disobedient people will face punishment after this life.

This was a constant theme of Jesus’ teaching, although it is not a popular message today.

* 13:39-43 Jesus here compares “the end of this age” (“the end of the world”—NLT, “the end of this world”—KJV) to harvest time, when weeds are pulled up and burned, and then the good grain is harvested.

Jesus shows his wheat and the devil’s weeds growing “together” (vs. 30) throughout the history of the Church, until the harvesting angels finally do the separating and toss the weeds into the fire.

Notice the order of events Jesus gives in verse 30: “First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn.” (NIV) This precludes the notion, popular in churches today, that there would be a rapture of true Christians to heaven, followed by a seven-year tribulation, and then finally the destruction of the wicked. That is opposite to the order of events that Jesus presents here.

Compare, also, Jesus’ parables of the sheep and the goats (See Matt. 25:31-46.), the faithful and the evil slaves (See Matt. 24:45-51.), and the wise and foolish virgins (See Matt. 25:1-13.). All of them point to a sudden separation when Christ returns, with some rewarded and others sent into everlasting punishment at the same time (not seven years later).

Jesus, Simon, and Judas? 56 Aren't all of his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all of these things?" 57 They were offended by him.

But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house." 58 He didn't do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, 2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptizer. He is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in him." 3 For Herod had laid hold of John, and bound him, and put him in prison* for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. 4 For John said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 When he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. 6 But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced among them and pleased Herod. 7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask. 8 She, being prompted by her mother, said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptizer."

9 The king was grieved, but for the sake of his oaths, and of those who sat at the table with him, he commanded it to be given, 10 and he sent and beheaded John in the prison. 11 His head was brought on a platter, and given to the young lady: and she brought it to her mother. 12 His disciples came, and took the body, and buried it; and they went and told Jesus. 13 Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat, to a deserted place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed him on foot from the cities.

14 Jesus went out, and he saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them, and healed their sick. 15 When evening had come, his disciples came to him, saying, "This place is deserted, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food."

16 But Jesus said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."

17 They told him, "We only have here five loaves and two fish."

18 He said, "Bring them here to me." 19 He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes. 20 They all ate, and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces. 21 Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. 23 After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening had come, he was there alone. 24 But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. 25 In the fourth watch of the night, Jesus came to them, walking on the sea. 26 When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It's a ghost!" and they cried out for fear. 27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid."

28 Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters."

29 He said, "Come!"

Peter stepped down from the boat, and walked on the waters to come to Jesus. 30 But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

31 Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32 When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased. 33 Those who were in the boat came and worshiped him, saying, "You are truly the Son of God!"

34 When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. 35 When the people of that place recognized him, they sent into all that surrounding region, and brought to him all who were sick, 36 and they begged him that they might just touch the fringe of his garment. As many as touched it were made whole.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying, 2 "Why do your disciples disobey the tradition of the elders? For they don't wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 He answered them, "Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition? 4 For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,' Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16 and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.' Exodus 21:17; Leviticus 20:9 5 But you say, 'Whoever may tell his father or his mother, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God," 6 he shall not honor his father or mother.' You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition. 7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 "These people draw near to me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 And in vain do they worship me,

* 14:3-4 Just as John the Baptist was thrown into prison for the 'crime' of saying that Herod was wrong to take his brother's wife, so Christians in these last days may face similar treatment for the 'crime' of declaring what the Bible says about marriage and about homosexual conduct.

Remember that Jesus told us, "If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you."—John 15:20

made by men.” Isaiah 29:13

10 He summoned the multitude, and said to them, “Hear, and understand. 11 That which enters into the mouth doesn’t defile the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man.”

12 Then the disciples came, and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?”

13 But he answered, “Every plant which my heavenly Father didn’t plant will be uprooted. 14 Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit.”

15 Peter answered him, “Explain the parable to us.”

16 So Jesus said, “Do you also still not understand? 17 Don’t you understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and then out of the body? 18 But the things which proceed out of the mouth come out of the heart, and they defile the man. 19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies. 20 These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands doesn’t defile the man.”

21 Jesus went out from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon. 22 Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, “Have mercy on me, Lord, you son of David! My daughter is severely possessed by a demon!”

23 But he answered her not a word.

His disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away; for she cries after us.”

24 But he answered, “I wasn’t sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

25 But she came and worshiped him, saying, “Lord, help me.”

26 But he answered, “It is not appropriate to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

27 But she said, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.”

28 Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 Jesus departed there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. 30 Great multitudes came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them, 31 so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, injured whole, lame walking, and blind seeing—and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Jesus summoned his disciples and said, “I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way.”

33 The disciples said to him, “Where should we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?”

34 Jesus said to them, “How many loaves do you have?”

They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

35 He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; 36 and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 37 They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over. 38 Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 Then he sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven. 2 But he answered them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’ 3 In the morning, ‘It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you can’t discern the signs of the times! 4 An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah.”

He left them, and departed. 5 The disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread. 6 Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

7 They reasoned among themselves, saying, “We brought no bread.”

8 Jesus, perceiving it, said, “Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, ‘because you have brought no bread?’ 9 Don’t you yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? 10 Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? 11 How is it that you don’t perceive that I didn’t speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

12 Then they understood that he didn’t tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, “Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?”

14 They said, “Some say John the Baptizer, some, Elijah, and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.”

15 He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

17 Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. 18 I also tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my assembly, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. 19 I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will have been

* 15:9 The Pharisees objected to Jesus’ healing on the Sabbath, his disciples’ eating with unwashed hands, and other details of behavior that violated their traditions. We need to be careful that we don’t present man-made rules or traditions as if they were doctrines or God’s requirements.

bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven." 20 Then he commanded the disciples that they should tell no one that he was Jesus the Christ. 21 From that time, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

22 Peter took him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This will never be done to you."

23 But he turned, and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men."

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it. 26 For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? 27 For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds. 28 Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 After six days, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. 2 He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light. 3 Behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with him.

4 Peter answered, and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let's make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

6 When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid. 7 Jesus came and touched them and said, "Get up, and don't be afraid." 8 Lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus alone. 9 As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Don't tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

10 His disciples asked him, saying, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11 Jesus answered them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and will restore all things, 12 but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they didn't recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so the Son of Man will also suffer by them." 13 Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptizer.

14 When they came to the multitude, a man came to him, kneeling down to him, saying, 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water. 16 So

I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him."

17 Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me."

18 Jesus rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, "Why weren't we able to cast it out?"

20 He said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For most certainly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. 21 But this kind doesn't go out except by prayer and fasting."

22 While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, 23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up."

They were exceedingly sorry. 24 When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins came to Peter, and said, "Doesn't your teacher pay the didrachma?" 25 He said, "Yes."

When he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?"

26 Peter said to him, "From strangers."

Jesus said to him, "Therefore the children are exempt. 27 But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that, and give it to them for me and you."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"

2 Jesus called a little child to himself, and set him in the middle of them, 3 and said, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 4 Whoever therefore humbles himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. 5 Whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me, 6 but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him that a huge millstone should be hung around his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depths of the sea.

7 "Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it must be that the occasions come, but woe to that person through whom the occasion comes! 8 If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. 9 If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire. 10 See that you don't despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. 11 For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

12 “What do you think? If a man has one hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray? 13 If he finds it, most certainly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray. 14 Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

15 “If your brother sins against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother. 16 But if he doesn’t listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. 17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If he refuses to hear the assembly also, let him be to you as a Gentile or a tax collector. 18 Most certainly I tell you, whatever things you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever things you release on earth will have been released in heaven. 19 Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the middle of them.”*

21 Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?”

22 Jesus said to him, “I don’t tell you until seven times, but, until seventy times seven. 23 Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who wanted to reconcile accounts with his servants. 24 When he had begun to reconcile, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. 25 But because he couldn’t pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 The servant therefore fell down and knelt before him, saying, ‘Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay you all!’ 27 The lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

28 “But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, who owed him one hundred denarii, and he grabbed him, and took him by the throat, saying, ‘Pay me what you owe!’

29 “So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will repay you!’ 30 He would not, but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay back that which was due. 31 So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told to their lord all that was done. 32 Then his lord called him in, and said to him, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me. 33 Shouldn’t you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?’ 34 His lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to him. 35 So my heavenly Father will also do to you, if you don’t each forgive your brother from your hearts for his misdeeds.”

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 When Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan. 2 Great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there. 3 Pharisees came to him, testing him, and saying, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce† his wife for any reason?”

4 He answered, “Haven’t you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, Genesis 1:27 5 and said, ‘For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall join to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh’? Genesis 2:24 6 So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don’t let man tear apart.”

7 They asked him, “Why then did Moses command us to give her a bill of divorce, and divorce her?”

8 He said to them, “Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. 9 I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual

† 19:3-9 At Malachi 2:15-16 God says that he hates divorce. So, what about our modern world’s view of divorce—for any reason or no reason at all? The prophet Malachi expressed God’s view.

And Jesus expressed the same view. He referred back to the first marriage in Genesis as the pattern God intended for mankind to follow.

Did the ‘sexual revolution’ of the 1960’s cause God to become more tolerant of sex outside of marriage, divorce without biblical grounds, and adultery? Has the ‘gay pride’ movement of recent decades caused God to change his mind about homosexual relations?

God does not change. He tells us, “I the LORD do not change.”—Malachi 3:6 NIV

“God is not a man, that he should lie, nor a son of man, that he should change his mind.”—Numbers 23:19 NIV

* 18:20 Jesus here promises his continued presence with his disciples. If you wish to follow Jesus, it is important to find other followers of Jesus to meet with. Jesus said that he would be personally present in gatherings of his followers, even though we cannot see him.

Due to widespread apostasy (departing from the faith) in churches today, it is important to exercise caution when choosing a body of believers to associate with. But, at the same time, you should not look for perfection, because you won’t find it. When we fellowship, our focus should be on Jesus, and not on the shortcomings of fellow worshippers.

immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is divorced commits adultery.”

10 His disciples said to him, “If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry.”

11 But he said to them, “Not all men can receive this saying, but those to whom it is given. 12 For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven’s sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it.”

13 Then little children were brought to him, that he should lay his hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said, “Allow the little children, and don’t forbid them to come to me; for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to ones like these.” 15 He laid his hands on them, and departed from there.

16 Behold, one came to him and said, “Good teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?”

17 He said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.”

18 He said to him, “Which ones?”

Jesus said, “‘You shall not murder.’ ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ ‘You shall not steal.’ ‘You shall not offer false testimony.’ 19 ‘Honor your father and mother.’ Exodus 20:12-16; Deuteronomy 5:16-20 And, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” Leviticus 19:18

20 The young man said to him, “All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?”

21 Jesus said to him, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” 22 But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sad, for he was one who had great possessions. 23 Jesus said to his disciples, “Most certainly I say to you, a rich man will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven with difficulty. 24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye, than for a rich man to enter into God’s Kingdom.”

25 When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly astonished, saying, “Who then can be saved?”

26 Looking at them, Jesus said, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

27 Then Peter answered, “Behold, we have left everything, and followed you. What then will we have?”

28 Jesus said to them, “Most certainly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 Everyone who has left* houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name’s sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life. 30 But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 “For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who was the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. 2 When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 He went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace. 4 He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.’ So they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 About the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle. He said to them, ‘Why do you stand here all day idle?’

7 “They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’

“He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.’ 8 When evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.’

9 “When those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius. 10 When the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise each received a denarius. 11 When they received it, they murmured against the master of the household, 12 saying, ‘These last have spent one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat!’

13 “But he answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me for a denarius? 14 Take that which is yours, and go your way. It is my desire to give to this last just as much as to you. 15 Isn’t it lawful for me to do what I want to with what I own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?’ 16 So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.”

17 As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, 18 “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death, 19 and will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to

* 19:29 What an encouragement for those who have suffered loss as a result of persecution on account of following Jesus!

These words are not meant to be used as an excuse to abandon family responsibilities, or to put ‘church work’ above family life. The Apostle Paul wrote that “if anyone doesn’t provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.” (1 Tim. 5:8) But those who unavoidably suffer loss of family or home due to their faithfulness to Christ have the assurance Jesus spoke above.

crucify; and the third day he will be raised up.”

20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, kneeling and asking a certain thing of him. 21 He said to her, “What do you want?”

She said to him, “Command that these, my two sons, may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your Kingdom.”

22 But Jesus answered, “You don’t know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?”

They said to him, “We are able.”

23 He said to them, “You will indeed drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with, but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”

24 When the ten heard it, they were indignant with the two brothers.

25 But Jesus summoned them, and said, “You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 26 It shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant. 27 Whoever desires to be first among you shall be your bondservant, 28 even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

29 As they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. 30 Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!” 31 The multitude rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they cried out even more, “Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!”

32 Jesus stood still, and called them, and asked, “What do you want me to do for you?”

33 They told him, “Lord, that our eyes may be opened.”

34 Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 When they came near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethsphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying to them, “Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me. 3 If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and immediately he will send them.”

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

5 “Tell the daughter of Zion, behold, your King comes to you,
humble, and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.” Zechariah 9:9

6 The disciples went, and did just as Jesus commanded them, 7 and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their clothes on them; and he sat on them. 8 A very great multitude spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road. 9 The multitudes who went in front of him, and those who followed, kept shouting, “Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!” Psalms 118:26

10 When he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?” 11 The multitudes said, “This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.”

12 Jesus entered into the temple of God, and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers’ tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. 13 He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’ Isaiah 56:7 but you have made it a den of robbers!” Jeremiah 7:11

14 The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. 15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the son of David!” they were indignant, 16 and said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?”

Jesus said to them, “Yes. Did you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise?’” Psalms 8:2

17 He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and camped there. 18 Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. 19 Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, “Let there be no fruit from you forever!”

Immediately the fig tree withered away. 20 When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree immediately wither away?”

21 Jesus answered them, “Most certainly I tell you, if you have faith, and don’t doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ it would be done. 22 All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

23 When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

24 Jesus answered them, “I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?”

They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ 26 But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet.” 27 They answered Jesus, and said, “We don’t know.”

He also said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. 28 But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, ‘Son, go work today in my vineyard.’ 29 He answered, ‘I will not,’ but afterward he changed his mind, and went. 30 He came to the second, and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I go, sir,’ but he didn’t go. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?”

They said to him, “The first.”

Jesus said to them, “Most certainly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into God’s Kingdom before you. 32 For

John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

33 "Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a wine press in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. 34 When the season for the fruit came near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive his fruit. 35 The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way. 37 But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38 But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and seize his inheritance.' 39 So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40 When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

41 They told him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give him the fruit in its season."

42 Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,

'The stone which the builders rejected,
the same was made the head of the corner.
This was from the Lord.

It is marvelous in our eyes?' Psalms 118:22-23

43 "Therefore I tell you, God's Kingdom will be taken away from you, and will be given to a nation producing its fruit. 44 He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it will fall, it will scatter him as dust."

45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. 46 When they sought to seize him, they feared the multitudes, because they considered him to be a prophet.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

1 Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying, 2 "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, 3 and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. 4 Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My cattle and my fathings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast!"' 5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, 6 and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. 7 When the king heard that, he was angry, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

8 "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy. 9 Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.' 10 Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests. 11 But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding clothing, 12 and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.' 14 For many are called, but few chosen."

15 Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. 16 They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach, for you aren't partial to anyone. 17 Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites? 19 Show me the tax money."

They brought to him a denarius.

20 He asked them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

21 They said to him, "Caesar's."

Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

22 When they heard it, they marveled, and left him, and went away.

23 On that day Sadducees (those who say that there is no resurrection) came to him. They asked him, 24 saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.' 25 Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no offspring left his wife to his brother. 26 In the same way, the second also, and the third, to the seventh. 27 After them all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her."

29 But Jesus answered them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like God's angels in heaven. 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?" Exodus 3:6 God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

33 When the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching. 34 But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered themselves together. 35 One of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him. 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?"

37 Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' Deuteronomy 6:5 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 A second likewise is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' Leviticus 19:18 40 The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, 42 saying,

"What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?"

They said to him, "Of David."

43 He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 'The Lord said to my Lord,

sit on my right hand,

until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet'? Psalm 110:1

45 "If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?"

46 No one was able to answer him a word, neither did any man dare ask him any more questions from that day forward.

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

1 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to his disciples, 2 saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sat on Moses' seat. 3 All things therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but don't do their works; for they say, and don't do. 4 For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to help them. 5 But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad, enlarge the fringes of their garments, 6 and love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, 7 the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called 'Rabbi, Rabbi' by men. 8 But don't you be called 'Rabbi,' for one is your teacher, the Christ, and all of you are brothers. 9 Call no man on the earth your father, for one is your Father, he who is in heaven. 10 Neither be called masters, for one is your master, the Christ. 11 But he who is greatest among you will be your servant. 12 Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

13 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees*, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and as a pretense you make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.

14 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for you don't enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter. 15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much of a son of Gehenna as yourselves.

16 "Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.' 17 You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? 18 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obligated?' 19 You blind fools! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift? 20 He therefore who swears by the altar, swears by it, and by everything on it. 21 He who swears by the temple, swears by it, and by him who lives in it. 22 He who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cumin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law: justice, mercy, and faith. But you ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. 24 You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel!

25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and unrighteousness. 26 You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the platter, that its outside may become clean also.

27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. 28 Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous, 30 and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we wouldn't have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.' 31 Therefore you testify to yourselves that you are children of those who killed the prophets. 32 Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. 33 You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of Gehenna? 34 Therefore behold, I send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify; and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city; 35 that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the sanctuary and the altar. 36 Most certainly I tell you, all these things will come upon this† generation.

† 23:36 Many modern commentators want to apply most or all of the next chapter, Matthew chapter 24, including its prediction of "great tribulation" (24:21), to a future "generation" (24:34) during the end times, but they are forced to admit that Jesus applied exactly the same term—"this generation"—to his contemporary Jewish audience here in chapter 23. And both chapters form a continuous discourse. So, "this generation" in chapter 24 must be the same as "this generation" in chapter 23.

Matthew tells us Jesus spoke the words found in chapter 23, then "went out, and departed from the temple" (24:1) and spoke the words found in chapter 24. Is it reasonable to believe that Jesus would say "this generation" to refer to his contemporaries and then use the same term with a totally different meaning a few moments later?

Throughout Matthew chapter 23 Jesus was addressing the Pharisees. He called down "woes" upon them. He then reminded the Pharisees that they are "the sons of them who killed the prophets" and called them "ye generation of vipers." (vs. 31, 33)

After foretelling that they would persecute and kill his disciples the same way their fathers killed the prophets, Jesus concluded with the sentence

* 23:13 The entire twenty-third chapter of Matthew is devoted to Jesus' denunciation of the Jewish religious leaders as "hypocrites" who would provoke God's punishment upon the Jewish nation within that generation. He told them, "Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation." (Matt. 23:36 KJV) And that generation of Jews did see Jerusalem and its temple destroyed.

37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I would have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you would not! 38 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. 39 For I tell you, you will not see me from now on, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'" Psalm 118:26

1 Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way. His disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. 2 But he answered them, "You see all of these things, don't you? Most certainly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down."†

3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?‡

above: "Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation." (KJV) The punishment for their hypocrisy and their wickedness would come upon that very generation.

In his next sentence Jesus went on to say, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them who are sent unto thee." The punishment would come upon those religious leaders and their city of Jerusalem in that very generation. Jesus pronounced these words in or around 30 A.D. or 33 A.D., and the armies of the Roman empire brought the destruction Jesus predicted upon the city in 70 A.D., less than forty years later, within the lifetime of "this generation."

Even the dispensational futurist notes in the Scofield Reference Bible admit this. The footnote on Matthew 23:36 says, "Thus history runs. Judgment falls upon one generation for the sins of centuries. The prediction of v. 36 was fulfilled in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70." But then its footnote on 24:34 says that the word generation "could not here mean those alive at the time of Christ," but applies instead to a "future generation" at the end times. This contradictory reasoning shows the lengths to which some must go to try to make Scripture fit their theories.

Jesus' use of the term "this generation" in Matthew chapter 23 defines his use of the same term in chapter 24, and makes it likely that the Great Tribulation began upon the Jewish people back in the first century, and is not an end-times event yet to come.

Compare the discussion of Matthew 24:34.

* 23:38 Jesus' pronouncement to the Jewish religious leaders that "your house is left unto you desolate" (Matt. 23:38 KJV) is a key to understanding "the abomination of desolation" that Jesus refers to sixteen verses later.

Jesus warned of the coming desolation of the Holy City and its temple. And he was still speaking of the same thing when he quoted Daniel about "the abomination of desolation" and the need for "them who are in Judea" to "flee into the mountains." (Matt. 24:15-16 KJV) All of this happened in 70 A.D., when Roman armies desolated the city and temple.

† 24:1-2 The stone walls of the Temple were actually thrown down as Jesus prophesied, when Jerusalem and Temple were desolated by Roman armies 70 A.D.

This was only around thirty-seven or forty years after Jesus gave the prophecy, so it was within the "generation" that originally heard his words.

‡ 24:3 Notice that the disciples asked Jesus about the timing of different things—even though they apparently assumed all would happen at the same time: first "these things," the destruction of Jerusalem's Temple, with its stone walls thrown down, and then "your coming, and the end of the age" (or "end of the world" in many

4 Jesus answered them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. 5 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray. 6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you aren't troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places. 8 But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. 9 Then they will deliver you up to oppression, and will kill you. You will be hated* translations).

So, Jesus' answer covers the timing of both. But many readers wrongly assume that all of Jesus' answer applies to the end of the world—or that all of it was fulfilled within that generation in the first century.

Respected Bible scholar John Wesley explained that the verses of Matthew 24 must be separated into those verses that were fulfilled back in 70 A.D. when the Romans destroyed the Temple and desolated Jerusalem, and those verses that apply to the coming end of this world. Wesley wrote:

"The disciples inquire confusedly, 1. Concerning the time of the destruction of the temple; 2. Concerning the signs of Christ's coming, and of the end of the world, as if they imagined these two were the same thing. Our Lord answers distinctly concerning 1. The destruction of the temple and city, with the signs preceding, ver. 4, &c., 15, &c. 2. His own coming, and the end of the world, with the signs thereof, ver. 29-31. 3. The time of the destruction of the temple, ver. 32, &c. 4. The time of the end of the world, ver. 36."—John Wesley's Notes on the Bible, Matt. 24:3

So, as Wesley advised, we must discern which verses apply to the 70 A.D. destruction of Jerusalem, and which apply to Christ's return and the end of the world.

Of all the words of Jesus recorded in the Bible, about twenty-five percent of his teaching was devoted to prophecy concerning the destruction of Jerusalem, the scattering of the Jewish people worldwide, and the end of the world. He spoke of these events in advance and discussed the rewards and punishments that nations and individuals would experience.

Jesus had a number of things in mind when he spoke on these matters, and he sought to accomplish several things:

- to forewarn his first-century followers when to flee the city of Jerusalem so that they would survive its destruction by the legions of the Roman Empire;
- to bring others who heard his message to repentance—both those who heard him speak in person, and those who would read his words down through the centuries;
- to motivate future believers to keep on the watch for Christ's return by paying attention to world events;
- to let everyone know that God has already determined the outcome of human history, and that his victory over the nations is guaranteed;
- to make it clear that those who obey God will be rewarded and those who ignore God will be punished when God intervenes to put an end to human rule and establish the rule of the Kingdom of God over all the earth.

In Matthew's gospel, the 23rd through 25th chapters are devoted to these matters. But, because the discussion ranges from first century events through end times events, parts of it can be difficult to understand. However, the call to repentance comes through loud and clear. And the assurance of God's ultimate victory over rebellious mankind is equally clear. But the exact timing of the events foretold in these chapters is less certain—because Jesus left it that way intentionally.

§ 24:7 The end times or last days of this world would be a time when environmental disasters would plague mankind. The prophecies mention earthquakes in one place after another, along with famines, disease epidemics and wars.

 24:9 Jesus' true followers will be "hated by all the nations" as this world approaches its end.

And today we see Christians being driven out of the Middle East—even from lands where churches have thrived since the early years of the faith. Meanwhile, secularism replaces Christianity in Europe and the Americas.

by all of the nations for my name's sake. 10 Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another. 11 Many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray. 12 Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. 14 This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

15 "When, therefore, you see the abomination of desolation†, Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11 which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), 16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 17 Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in his house. 18 Let him who is in the field not return back to get his clothes. 19 But woe to those who are with child and to nursing mothers in those days! 20 Pray that your flight will not be in the winter, nor on a Sabbath, 21 for then there will be great oppression,‡ such as has not been

And Christians are hated for upholding what the Bible says about fornication, adultery and homosexual conduct.

† 24:14 Jesus instructed his followers to "go and make disciples of all nations." (Matt. 28:19 NIV) And he said here that "this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come."—Matthew 24:14 NIV

Since the Gospel message has reached the far corners of the earth—even penetrating lands where preaching the Good News has been outlawed—"the end" can come at any time.

† 24:15 The "abomination of desolation" that Jesus spoke of at Matthew 24:15 and Mark 13:14 clearly lay in the future. Jesus warned his followers to look for it in the future.

A comparison of Jesus' words about this in the Gospels shows that Jesus actually meant the Roman armies that would come in 70 A.D. and desolate Jerusalem and its Temple. Those armies were "the abomination of desolation" because they brought about the desolation.

Matthew, Mark and Luke all record what Jesus said his followers should look for, to know when to escape from Judea. All three say that when they "see" this thing that they are looking for, "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains." Matthew and Mark both say it would be when they see "the abomination of desolation," and Luke says it would be when they see "Jerusalem surrounded by armies" because then its "desolation is at hand."

So, comparing the three Gospel accounts reveals that "the abomination of desolation" is the "armies" that bring "desolation" to Jerusalem.

‡ 24:21 "For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be." (KJV) There are various opinions among Bible believers as to the timing of the "oppression" or "great tribulation" Jesus foretold.

The long-held traditional view among Protestant commentators is that the tribulation occurred or began with the Roman siege and overthrow of Jerusalem. Those in Judea who were not able to "flee to the mountains" to escape were left to face great tribulation. And the tribulation continued for centuries as the Jews and/or the Church suffered oppression at the hands of unbelieving Gentiles.

But the Scofield Reference Bible published in 1909 and the Left Behind fiction series published between 1995 and 2007 popularized the view that Jesus was, instead, speaking of a yet future seven-year interval that will come after all believers are raptured to heaven. Thus, many modern commentators teach that the "great tribulation" occurs during the second half of those seven years, a specific time period of three-and-a-half years that begins when an individual Antichrist sits down in a rebuilt Jewish temple in Jerusalem and declares himself to be God.

The traditional understanding held by Martin Luther, John Calvin and other Reformers is now called the "post-tribulation rapture" view, while Left Behind's dispensational futurist view is called the "pre-tribulation rapture." So, you may hear Bible believers identifying themselves as "pre-Trib" or "post-Trib" in their thinking.

Mark's Gospel quotes essentially the same words from Jesus' sermon as Matthew does, but Luke presents additional words. What Matthew calls "great tribulation" or "great oppression" Luke calls "great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people." It is clearly a time of suffering for the Jews, "this people," rather than an end-times tribulation on the entire world.

In his Commentary on a Harmony of the Evangelists, Matthew, Mark and Luke Reformer John Calvin drew this obvious conclusion from the parallel between Matthew's account and Luke's: Calvin wrote:

"21 For there will then be great tribulation. Luke says also, that there will be days of vengeance, and of wrath on that people, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. For since the people, through obstinate malice, had then broken the covenant of God, it was proper that alarming changes should take place, by which the earth itself and the air would be shaken. True, indeed, the most destructive plague inflicted on the Jews was, that the light of heavenly doctrine was extinguished among them, and that they were rejected by God

... And therefore Christ says that, unless God put a period to those calamities, the Jews will utterly perish, so that not a single individual will be left; but that God will remember his gracious covenant, and will spare his elect,

... But a question arises, how was it on account of the elect that God set a limit to these calamities, so as not utterly to destroy the Jews, when many of those who were saved were reprobate and desperate? The reply is easy. A part of the nation was preserved, that out of them God might bring his elect, who were mixed with them, like the seed after the chaff has been blown off." (Calvin's Commentary on a Harmony of the Evangelists)

So, Calvin applies the "great tribulation" to the sufferings that came upon the Jewish people, beginning in the first century.

Besides making it clear that it is a tribulation on the Jewish people, Luke's account also sheds light on its duration.

Matthew mentioned merely that it would be "shortened," actually the Greek word KOLOBOO, which Vine's Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words indicates means "cut off, amputate...curtail." So it is shortened in the sense of being abruptly halted, rather than in the sense of being a short period as opposed to a long period.

But Luke includes the details that the Jews would be "led away captive into all the nations" and that Jerusalem would remain in Gentile hands until "the times of the Gentiles" are fulfilled. The Jews remained scattered among all the nations until their return to the Promised Land, which culminated in the establishment of the modern state of Israel in 1948. And the Jews regained control over Jerusalem during the Six-Day War in 1967.

Writing in the late 1800s, Albert Barnes could not have known of these more recent events, but he wrote this on the subject:

"Verse 21. There shall be great tribulation. The word tribulation means calamity, or suffering. Lu 21:24 has specified in what this tribulation should consist. 'They shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations; and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles shall be fulfilled.' That is, until the time allotted for the Gentiles to do it shall be fully accomplished; or as long as God is pleased to suffer them to do it." (Notes on the New Testament, Matthew 24:21)

If the great tribulation on the Jews can be seen as spanning the entire time period of their foreign dispersion—from the destruction of Jerusalem until the founding of modern Israel—then it must have climaxed in the Holocaust of 1941-1945. With some six million Jews killed in the gas chambers and death camps of Nazi-controlled Europe, and with its stated purpose being the 'Final Solution of the Jewish problem' by exterminating the race, this tribulation would surely fit Jesus' description: unless those days were cut short, no flesh would have been saved. The Jews would have been wiped out, had it not been cut short or stopped.

Nothing in Jesus' description of this "great tribulation" allows for taking it out of its Jewish context and applying it instead to the world at large after Christians are raptured. Tyndale, Huss, Wycliffe, Knox, Calvin, Luther, Wesley and Charles Haddon Spurgeon were serious students of the Word of God, but they never encountered in Scripture a two-stage return of Christ that would give unbelievers a seven-year reprieve. The founders of the Baptist, Presbyterian, Calvinist, Congregationalist, Lutheran and Reformed traditions would not recognize the beliefs that millions of their nominal adherents today have learned from the popular novels in the Left Behind from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be.

22 Unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the chosen ones, those days will be shortened.

23 "Then if any man tells you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or, 'There,' don't believe it. 24 For there will arise false christs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

25 "Behold, I have told you beforehand. 26 If therefore they tell you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' don't go out; 'Behold, he is in the inner rooms,' don't believe it. 27 For as the lightning* flashes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 28 For wherever the carcass is, there is where the vultures gather together. 29 But immediately after† the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;‡

30 and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. 31 He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

32 "Now from the fig tree learn this parable. When its branch has now become tender, and produces its leaves, you know that the summer is near. 33 Even so you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Most certainly I tell you, this generations§ will not pass away, series.

By the same token today's churchgoers are largely ignorant of the traditional Protestant understanding of end times prophecy. Hence they are oblivious to the warnings that all the great preachers of the past gave concerning the apostasy, the man of sin, and the antichrist that arose from the ruins of the Roman Empire—entities that continue to lead much of the world's population away from Christ. These enemies of God are seldom named from pulpits today, but they were clearly identified by the great preachers of the Reformation.

See also the discussion of Daniel 12:1.

* 24:27 Jesus makes it plain that his return will be an unmistakable event. It will be like a super-bright lightning blast that illuminates the sky from one horizon to the other. You can't miss it.

Some modern preachers, however, predict a secret coming of the Son of man at the rapture, and then another coming seven years later at the end of a tribulation period.

They speak of "Two Phases to Christ's Second Coming,"—a first invisible second coming at the rapture, followed seven years later by a "glorious appearing."

This two-phase second coming is a familiar concept to counter-cult ministries that reach out to Jehovah's Witnesses. The Adventist splinter group that Watchtower founder Charles Taze Russell fellowshiped with before breaking off to form his own religion expected Christ to return in the year 1874. When nothing notable occurred on the chosen date, the die-hard members of the sect refused to accept that their chronology had been in error; instead, they decided Jesus must have returned invisibly. His glorious appearing to judge this wicked world would come a few years later. JW's later moved the date of Christ's supposed invisible return to 1914, and they expect Christ to come again a second time to destroy the wicked very soon.

The problem with both interpretations—that of Jehovah's Witnesses and the similar two-phased second coming of many modern Christian teachers—is that both depend on fancy arguments rather than on the plain reading of Scripture.

Folks who sit down by the fireplace and read only their Bible don't come up with either interpretation. You have to read the Watchtower books or the Left Behind novels to conclude anything other than what the angel said: "This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven." (Acts 1:11 NIV)

And, when Christ does return, it will be like a flash of lightning that no one will miss, not a secret event.

† 24:29a The "tribulation" or "oppression" in Matthew began in 70 A.D. After it began, it continued for centuries. The parallel expression in Luke says, "great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled." (Luke 21:23-24)

So, if the "tribulation" here refers to the centuries-long suffering of the Jews beginning with the Roman destruction of Jerusalem, climaxing in the Holocaust, and ending with the re-establishment of the state of Israel, then the time "immediately after the oppression" (or "tribulation") would be the time we are living in today. See the note on 24:29b.

‡ 24:29b Were "the powers of the heavens" shaken immediately after the Jews' centuries-long tribulation climaxing in the Holocaust and ended with the restoration of Israel and Jewish Jerusalem? Yes. It was immediately after that tribulation that the heavens lost their power as men began to rocket into outer space. The heavenly bodies figuratively fell from the sky, as they came within mankind's reach through manned space flight.

The stars cannot literally fall from heaven, since stars are huge heavenly bodies much larger than the earth. This mandates that the language Jesus uses here must be figurative. So, his words fit perfectly the view that the "tribulation" here refers to the centuries-long suffering of the Jews beginning with the Roman destruction of Jerusalem, climaxing in the Holocaust, and ending with the re-establishment of the state of Israel.

Luke reports that Jesus said, "there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars . . . for the powers of heaven shall be shaken."—Luke 21:25-26 KJV

While the Jews were returning to the Promised Land after their tribulation, the scientists who had worked on Adolph Hitler's V-1 and V-2 rockets began working for the victorious allies. Test pilots flew experimental jets above earth's atmosphere for the first time in human history. Then Soviet Russia put its Sputnik satellite into orbit in 1957, followed shortly by the first manned orbital flights. Truly, the powers of the heavens were shaken.

The Jews re-took Jerusalem from Gentile hands in 1967, and immediately after that in 1969 a series of six Apollo space flights began bringing men to the moon. Humans circled the moon, taking pictures of its hidden far side, and landed there to plant an American flag on this heavenly body. It was as if the heavens had lost their power; they were no longer unreachable, but had now fallen beneath human feet. There were signs in the sun, moon and stars that had never before been seen in human history.

§ 24:34 What generation did Jesus mean by "this generation"?

Many writers have tried to identify it with a particular generation in modern times. Watchtower founder Charles Taze Russell identified it with "the 'generation' from 1878 to 1914." (Studies in the Scriptures, vol. 4, 1908 edition, page 605) His successors in the Jehovah's Witnesses leadership changed it to "the generation that saw the events of 1914." (Awake! magazine, October 22, 1995, page 4). Left Behind authors Tim LaHaye and Jerry Jenkins say, "we believe 'this generation' refers to those alive in 1948. It may, however, mean those alive in 1967 or those alive in some yet future war when the Jews will once again gain total control of their holy city." (Their book Are We Living in the End Times? page 59)

However, the context provides the best indication of which generation Jesus really meant.

A few verses earlier he invoked a series of 'woes' upon the "teachers of the law and Pharisees" (Matt. 23:13,15,16,23,25, 27, 29) and then said, "I until all these things are accomplished. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 36 But no one knows of that day* and hour, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

tell you the truth, all this will come upon this generation.”—Matthew 23:36

Then he generalized the woes beyond just the Jewish religious leaders, to include their city: “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem.” (Matt. 23:37) All this did indeed come upon that generation of Jews when Jerusalem was besieged by the Romans in 66 A.D. and desolated by them in 70 A.D.

Could Jesus reasonably be talking about a different generation just a few verses further on, at Matthew 24:34? No, because right after saying “this generation” in 23:36, “Jesus left the temple and was walking away” when he told his disciples, “not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.” (Matt. 24:1-2) Their question, “when will this happen” (vs. 3) led to Jesus’ response which included again the same time factor, “this generation.”

What has led so many commentators to try to apply the prophecy to a future generation, such as that of 1914, 1948 or 1967? The disciples combined their question about when the temple would be destroyed with another question about when Christ would return, and Jesus answered both, which Matthew then “cooks both into one soup” in his account, according to Martin Luther. (See Luther’s full quote in the footnote at Luke 21:7.) Matthew chapters 24 and 25 include both the timing of Jerusalem’s destruction by the Romans, and references to Christ’s return. But the biblical context makes it clear that “this generation” applies specifically to the Jews in Jesus’ audience who lived to see their city and temple desolated.

Yes, the dates 1948 (when the state of Israel was restored) and 1967 (when Jews took control of Jerusalem again after nearly two thousand years of Gentile control) are significant milestones in history and in the fulfillment of Bible prophecy, but there is no biblical basis to claim, as some do, that “this generation” refers to people alive in 1914 or 1948 or 1967.

Compare the discussion of Matthew 23:36—in the previous chapter of Matthew.

24:36 When Jesus spoke these words, even the angels did not know the exact timing of these things that were to come. Bible prophecy gives us wonderful things to hope for, and assurance that those good things will happen. But not every detail is covered. There are things the Bible does not tell us. Those are among the “secret things” that belong to God. “The secret things belong to Jehovah our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.” (Deut. 29:29) Rather than speculate, and invent doctrine based on speculation, it is our duty to do the things God has given us to do.

Many have speculated on the exact timing of Christ’s return, even naming specific dates, and they have misled millions of people.

In the early 1830s Baptist layman William Miller began proclaiming in Vermont, U.S.A., his calculations that Christ would return by a certain date in 1843. He later revised the date to October 22, 1844. When that date came and went uneventfully, most of his followers lost interest, but a core group of diehard believers separated from their mainstream churches and formed Adventist fellowships.

Some time later the editor of an Adventist periodical Herald of the Morning re-worked Miller’s calculations and proclaimed that Christ would return in 1874. Rather than admit failure when that date passed uneventfully, he insisted that Christ must have returned on schedule—only invisibly.

In 1879 that periodical’s young assistant editor Charles Taze Russell quit and started his own magazine, Zion’s Watch Tower and Herald of Christ’s Presence proclaiming that Christ had returned invisibly in 1874 and would put an end to this world forty years later in the autumn of 1914. Despite that prediction proving false, it led to the formation of the Jehovah’s Witness sect, which in the late 1960s was teaching that Christ had returned invisibly in 1914 and would bring Armageddon and the end of the world in the autumn of 1975.

Jesus encouraged us to watch for his return (Mark 13:33), but he also said, “no one knows of that day and hour, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only.”—Matthew 24:36

37 “As the days of Noah† were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 38 For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, 39 and they didn’t know until the flood came, and took them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 40 Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and one will be left;‡ 41 two women grinding at the mill, one will be taken and one will be left. 42 Watch§ therefore, for you don’t know in what hour your Lord comes. 43 But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 44 Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you

† 24:37-39 Ever since Jesus departed for heaven, Christians have been watching for his promised return. He said it would be like the days of Noah, when a few favored people were saved in the Ark, and the rest of disobedient mankind were destroyed by the flood.

‡ 24:39-40 The modern reader can easily be confused as to who is taken and who is left. Some writers argue strongly for the view that it is the righteous who are left behind. The use of the words ‘took’ and ‘taken’ can cause this misunderstanding, because they are tenses of the same word in English, but entirely different words are used here in Greek.

Depending on the translation, the reader can get the impression that it is the wicked who are “taken” at the time of Christ’s return, and that believers are “left.” In the King James Version it says of Noah’s wicked contemporaries, that “the flood came, and took them all away,” and when Christ returns, “the one shall be taken and the other left.” So, some think Jesus’ words above mean that the wicked would be taken and his faithful followers would be left.

However, this confusion is based largely on the English translator’s choice of words, rather than on what the Gospel writer originally wrote. Whereas the King James Version and some other translations use forms of the same word ‘take’ in both places, the original Greek uses different words with different meanings.

When Jesus said the flood “took them all away,” it is the Greek word AIRO that is used of the fate of the wicked, and any Greek lexicon shows that it is translated ‘took . . . away,’ rather than simply ‘took.’ The flood “took them all away.” For those “taken” when Christ returns, an entirely different word is used. It is PARALAMBANO and means ‘take’ in the sense of ‘receive.’ In another passage Jesus assured disciples, “I will come again, and receive (PARALAMBANO) you unto myself.” (John 14:3 KJV) So, in Matthew 24:39 AIRO means “took” in the sense that the flood took away or swept away the wicked as some other translations render it, whereas the believers in verse 40 are taken in the sense of being received by Christ at the Rapture. So there is no basis for teaching, as some do, that the righteous are to be left behind.

See also the note at Luke 17:34-35.

§ 24:42 Jesus commanded us to “watch” for his return. But how often is this mentioned in Christian churches today?

We can “watch” by eagerly praying for Christ’s return and by paying attention to world events that fulfill prophecy and point to the imminence of his coming.

he doesn't expect it, and in an hour when he doesn't know it, 51 and will cut him in pieces, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites. There is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

1 "Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3 Those who were foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 Now while the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept. 6 But at midnight there was a cry, 'Behold! The bridegroom is coming! Come out to meet him!' 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. 8 The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, 'What if there isn't enough for us and you? You go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10 While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. 11 Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us.' 12 But he answered, 'Most certainly I tell you, I don't know you.' 13 Watch therefore, for you don't know the day nor

* 24:44 We can "be ready" by living our lives the way the Bible teaches us to live, and by doing the things the Bible commands Christians to do.

The unbelieving world does not expect Christ to return at all, so this advice must be for believers. Jesus will return at a time when we don't expect him.

This verse sets the stage for the parables that follow immediately in Matthew 24:45 through 25:46, so it is a key to understanding each of those parables, which Jesus used to illustrate that he "will come at an hour when you do not expect him." (NIV)

These are the parables of the faithful and wise servant, the talents, the ten virgins, and the sheep and the goats. Each one of the parables shows faithful followers rewarded, and those who are found unfaithful thrown into "eternal punishment . . . where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." (Matt. 24:46, 51 NIV)

We are told to keep watch for Christ's return (Matt. 24:42), but the unexpected timing takes the pressure off of us as far as calculating dates is concerned. Those like William Miller, who predicted a date in 1843 and then another date in 1844, and the Jehovah's Witnesses who predicted dates in the autumn of 1914 and then later in the autumn of 1975, clearly disregarded what Jesus said here.

Rather than attempt to set dates for Christ's return, we can "be ready" by living the way the Bible teaches us to live, and we can "watch" by eagerly praying for Christ's return and by paying attention to world events that point to the imminence of his coming. Which events? When Jesus told them about the coming destruction of the temple in Jerusalem, his disciples asked him, "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?" (Matt. 24:3) Jesus answered them with a lengthy discussion of future world events, recorded for us in Matthew chapters 24-25, Mark chapter 13 and Luke chapter 21.

Jesus devoted a significant portion of his teaching to the subject of his return and the end of the world. Many of his parables are devoted to this theme, describing how people would be caught by surprise, and would be rewarded or punished at that time, as in the parables that follow here. Shouldn't our churches be devoting similar attention to the subject of Christ's return?

† 24:50-51 Notice that the master returns and rewards the faithful and wise servant, while at the same time sending the unfaithful servant into everlasting punishment ("weeping and gnashing of teeth"—KJV). What a strong warning for those responsible for feeding the Lord's sheep!

Bible-believing Christians have traditionally understood this parable to picture Christ and the Church at his return. Methodist founding father John Wesley wrote, "If ministers are the persons here primarily intended, there is a peculiar propriety in the expression. For no hypocrisy can be baser, than to call ourselves ministers of Christ, while we are the slaves of avarice, ambition, or sensuality. Wherever such are found, may God reform them by his grace, or disarm them of that power and influence, which they continually abuse to his dishonour, and to their own aggravated damnation!" (John Wesley's Notes on the Bible, Matt. 24:51) So, Wesley expected Christ's return to plunge unfaithful clergymen into damnation, like the servant in Jesus' parable.

This parable does not fit an invisible return of Christ to rapture believers while leaving the rest behind to face seven years of tribulation, because no one is sent into everlasting punishment at such an invisible return. Nor could the parable describe a supposed second return of Christ seven years later, when all believers will display a holographic cross on their foreheads and unbelievers will wear the mark of the beast, as portrayed in the popular Left Behind novels. Those novels depict all of Christ's servants knowing that his Glorious Appearing is due precisely at the end of the seven years, rather than 'on a day when they do not expect him.' The novels also fail to depict any unfaithful servants of Christ who are found carrying on badly at his supposed second return. So, the two-stage return of Christ presented in the Left Behind novels completely ignores this parable where Jesus shows the Master returning unexpectedly with eternal rewards and punishments for his faithful and unfaithful servants.

As noted above, John Wesley expected Christ's return to plunge unfaithful clergymen into damnation, like the servant in Jesus' parable. Instead, Left Behind shows hypocritical assistant pastor Bruce Barnes receiving a second chance.

Compare, also, Jesus' parables of the wheat and the tares (See the discussion of Matt. 13:36-43.), the sheep and the goats (See the discussion of Matt. 25:31-46.), and the ten virgins (Matt. 25:1-13.). All of them point to a sudden separation when Christ returns, with some rewarded and others sent into everlasting punishment at the same time, not seven years later.

‡ 25:1 Jesus came to earth as a tiny baby born in Bethlehem, preached to humble fishermen and farmers, and allowed the governmental and religious authorities of that day to put him to death as a condemned criminal. But he will return to this earth as a powerful King—the most powerful ruler the earth has ever seen. What will it be like when Christ returns in Kingdom power?

Many of Jesus' parables are devoted to the subject of his return in power, describing how people would be caught by surprise, and would be rewarded or punished at that time.

the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.*

14 "For it is like a man, going into another country, who called his own servants, and entrusted his goods to them. 15 To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his own ability. Then he went on his journey. 16 Immediately he who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. 17 In the same way, he also who got the two gained another two. 18 But he who received the one talent went away and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 "Now after a long time the lord of those servants came, and reconciled accounts with them. 20 He who received the five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents besides them.'

21 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

22 "He also who got the two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides them.'

23 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

24 "He also who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. 25 I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have what is yours.'

26 "But his lord answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant. You knew that I reap where I didn't sow, and gather where I didn't scatter. 27 You ought therefore to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest.

28 Take away therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. 29 For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away. 30 Throw out the unprofitable servant† into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

31 "But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. 32 Before him all the nations will be gathered, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.‡ 33 He will set

† 25:28-30 Jesus used the parable of the ten talents to illustrate his coming. It serves as strong admonition for Christians to be zealously serving the Lord, rather than selfishly neglecting the work he gave us to do.

The authors of the Left Behind novels say that the unexpected coming Jesus referred to is the Rapture before their supposed seven-year tribulation. But when the Lord of the servants comes in this parable, he rewards his faithful servants and casts "the unprofitable servant into outer darkness" where "there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." (vs. 30)

Hypocritical assistant pastor Bruce Barnes in the Left Behind novels would certainly fit the picture of the unfaithful servant who failed to do business with his talent. But, instead of being thrown into outer darkness, he is given a second chance in the novels. That is not what Jesus says here will happen to an "unprofitable servant."

Writing later in Glorious Appearing: The End of Days, the Left Behind authors say it is at the end of the seven-year tribulation that some are "cast into outer darkness." (page 382) Yet Christ's appearing at that time is not portrayed as unexpected. These contradictory interpretations are a natural consequence of their attempt to divide the return of Christ into two separate events seven years apart.

‡ 25:32-33 The parable of the sheep and the goats offers strong evidence against the Left Behind view of the Rapture being followed by a seven-year tribulation.

Here the Lord separates the sheep from the goats, those who treated his followers well from those who abused him by abusing his followers, and Jesus tells the abusers to "Depart from me. . . into everlasting fire" (vs. 41) Left Behind supporters can't place this event at the rapture, because no one is sent into everlasting fire then, according to their theory. So, they must place it at the end of their seven-year tribulation.

However, the parable doesn't fit that situation either. Those who are sent into everlasting fire are surprised, and ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?" (vs. 44) And even those who are rewarded ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?" (vs. 37) How unlike the picture the Left Behind novels offer, where, at the end of the seven years, nearly everyone is clearly marked with a cross on their forehead or the mark of the beast! No room for surprises in that case; everyone is already clearly identified as being on Jesus' side or against him.

It should also be noted that Left Behind authors LaHaye and Jenkins apply Jesus' words, "whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine" to the Jews. (Matt. 25:40 NIV) They assert, "Those who honored the Jews are the sheep, and those who did not are the goats." (Glorious Appearing, pages 367-368) Was Jesus referring to the Jews as his

* 25:10-13 The parable of the ten virgins belies the Left Behind theory that nominal Christians who fail to keep watch will have a second chance to enter the kingdom. Consider the novel's prominent character Bruce Barnes, the assistant pastor who finds himself left behind at the Rapture. He is certainly a 'foolish virgin' who failed to 'keep watch,' and was not ready when the bridegroom arrived and took the rest of his congregation to heaven. But, unlike those in the parable who find the 'door shut' because they had not kept watch, Bruce and others like him get a "Second Chance"—the title of the second volume of the Left Behind "Kids" series.

Such a thought is foreign to the understanding Bible readers have had for centuries.

In the mid-1500's John Calvin (1509-1564) wrote, "all who shall not be ready at the very moment when they shall be called will be shut out from entering into heaven." (Calvin's Commentary on a Harmony of the Evangelists)

Two hundred years later in the early 1700's commentator Matthew Henry got the same point from Jesus' illustration: "The state of saints and sinners will then be unalterably fixed, and those that are shut out then, will be shut out forever." (Matthew Henry's Commentary, Vol. V, p. 371)

And in the late 1800's British pastor and teacher Charles Haddon Spurgeon wrote, "when once in the last days as Master of the house he shall rise up and shut the door, it will be in vain for mere professors to knock, and cry Lord, Lord open unto us, for that same door which shuts in the wise virgins will shut out the foolish for ever." (Morning and Evening: Daily Readings, for the morning of June 5, titled "The Lord shut him in," commenting on Genesis 7:16). Yes, Bible readers have always understood that the 'foolish virgins' would not get a second chance.

the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. 34 Then the King will tell those on his right hand, 'Come, blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; 35 for I was hungry, and you gave me food to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me drink.

I was a stranger, and you took me in. 36 I was naked, and you clothed me. I was sick, and you visited me. I was in prison, and you came to me.'

37 "Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, and feed you; or thirsty, and give you a drink? 38 When did we see you as a stranger, and take you in; or naked, and clothe you? 39 When did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?'

40 "The King will answer them, 'Most certainly I tell you, because you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' 41 Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels; 42 for I was hungry, and you didn't give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink; 43 I was a stranger, and you didn't take me in; naked, and you didn't clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn't visit me.'

44 "Then they will also answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn't help you?'

45 "Then he will answer them, saying, 'Most certainly I tell you, because you didn't do it to one of the least of these, you didn't do it to me.' 46 These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

1 When Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, 2 "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

3 Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas. 4 They took counsel together that they might take Jesus by deceit, and kill him. 5 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest a riot occur among the people."

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table. 8 But when his disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor."

10 However, knowing this, Jesus said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? Because she has done a good work for me. 11 For you always have the poor with you; but you don't always have me. 12 For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. 13 Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her."

14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, 15 and said, "What are you willing to give me, that I should deliver him to you?" They weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver. 16 From that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

18 He said, "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'"

19 The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover. 20 Now when evening had come, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. 21 As they were eating, he said, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me."

22 They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, "It isn't me, is it, Lord?"

23 He answered, "He who dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. 24 The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."

25 Judas, who betrayed him, answered, "It isn't me, is it, Rabbi?"

He said to him, "You said it."

26 As they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body."

27 He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, "All of you drink it, 28 for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. 29 But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's Kingdom." 30 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

31 Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' Zechariah 13:7 32 But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

33 But Peter answered him, "Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble."

34 Jesus said to him, "Most certainly I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

35 Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with

"brothers" here? No, because the Lord made clear that "Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother." (Matt. 12:50) And Hebrews 2:10-11 explains that those who are made "sons" of God are the ones Jesus calls "brothers." So, Jesus was referring here to his faithful followers rather than to the Jews.

you, I will not deny you.” All of the disciples also said likewise.

36 Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I go there and pray.” 37 He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled. 38 Then he said to them, “My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me.”

39 He went forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away* from me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire.”

40 He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “What, couldn’t you watch with me for one hour? 41 Watch and pray, that you don’t enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

42 Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cup can’t pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done.” 43 He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words. 45 Then he came to his disciples, and said to them, “Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Arise, let’s be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand.”

47 While he was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priest and elders of the people. 48 Now he who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, “Whoever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him.” 49 Immediately he came to Jesus, and said, “Hail, Rabbi!” and kissed him.

50 Jesus said to him, “Friend, why are you here?” Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51 Behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 52 Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword. 53 Or do you think that I couldn’t ask my Father, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels? 54 How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?”

55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, “Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn’t arrest me. 56 But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.”

Then all the disciples left him, and fled. 57 Those who had taken Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. 58 But Peter followed him from a distance, to the court of the high priest, and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests, the elders, and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus, that they might put him to death; 60 and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward, 61 and said, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.’”

62 The high priest stood up, and said to him, “Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?” 63 But Jesus held his peace. The high priest answered him, “I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God.”

64 Jesus said to him, “You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming† on the clouds of the sky.”

65 Then the high priest tore his clothing, saying, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. 66 What do you think?”

They answered, “He is worthy of death!” 67 Then they spit in his face and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, 68 saying, “Prophecy to us, you Christ! Who hit you?”

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the court, and a maid came to him, saying, “You were also with Jesus, the Galilean!”

70 But he denied it before them all, saying, “I don’t know what you are talking about.”

71 When he had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him, and said to those who were there, “This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

72 Again he denied it with an oath, “I don’t know the man.”

73 After a little while those who stood by came and said to Peter, “Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you known.”

74 Then he began to curse and to swear, “I don’t know the man!”

Immediately the rooster crowed. 75 Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said to him, “Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” He went out and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

1 Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: 2 and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him

† 26:64 Jesus will return as King of the kingdom of God. When he was put on trial before the high court of the Jews, and the high priest demanded to know whether Jesus was the Christ, the Son of God, Jesus spoke the words above.

He knew the Jewish religious leaders would understand this to be a reference to Daniel 7:13-14 where “one like a son of man” enters heaven and is given “dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him...an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away.”

* 26:39 If we are struggling with unanswered prayer, this passage can help us. Jesus wished the “cup” he was facing to pass away, but yielded his will to his heavenly Father’s will. He prayed for the cup to pass away, but he ended up drinking it, because that was the Father’s will. See also 2 Corinthians 12:7-9.

up to Pontius Pilate, the governor. 3 Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying, "I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood."

But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it."

5 He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. He went away and hanged himself. 6 The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It's not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood." 7 They took counsel, and bought the potter's field with them, to bury strangers in. 8 Therefore that field was called "The Field of Blood" to this day. 9 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

"They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him upon whom a price had been set, whom some of the children of Israel priced, 10 and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me." Zechariah 11:12-13

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus said to him, "So you say."

12 When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. 13 Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?"

14 He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly. 15 Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they desired. 16 They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?" 18 For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of him." 20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. 21 But the governor answered them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?"

They said, "Barabbas!"

22 Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do to Jesus, who is called Christ?"

They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!"

23 But the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?"

But they cried out exceedingly, saying, "Let him be crucified!"

24 So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it."

25 All the people answered, "May his blood be on us, and on our children!"

26 Then he released to them Barabbas, but

Jesus he flogged and delivered to be crucified. 27 Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him. 28 They stripped him, and put a scarlet robe on him. 29 They braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. 31 When they had mocked him, they took the robe off of him, and put his clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross. 33 They came to a place called "Golgotha," that is to say, "The place of a skull." 34 They gave him sour wine to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink. 35 When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots, 36 and they sat and watched him there. 37 They set up over his head the accusation against him written, "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

38 Then there were two robbers crucified with him, one on his right hand and one on the left. 39 Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, 40 and saying, "You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"

41 Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes, the Pharisees, and the elders, said, 42 "He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. 43 He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" 44 The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. 46 About the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lima sabachthani?" That is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Psalms 22:1

47 Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, "This man is calling Elijah."

48 Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him a drink. 49 The rest said, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to save him."

50 Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. 51 Behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split. 52 The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; 53 and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many. 54 Now the centurion, and those who were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God."

55 Many women were there watching from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him. 56 Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. 57 When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus' disciple came. 58 This man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. 59 Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. 61 Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb. 62 Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, 63 saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise again.' 64 Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead;' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can." 66 So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

1 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. 2 Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it. 3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. 4 For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men. 5 The angel answered the women, "Don't be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified. 6 He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying. 7 Go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."

8 They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. 9 As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!"

They came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

10 Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go tell my brothers that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see me."

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12 When they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers, 13 saying, "Say that his disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14 If this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and make you free of worry." 15 So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continues until today.

16 But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had sent them. 17 When they saw him, they bowed down to him, but some doubted. 18 Jesus came to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority* has been given to me in heaven and on earth. 19 Go, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

* 28:18-20 All power in heaven and on earth has been given to Jesus the Messiah. When he returns, his Kingdom government will replace not only the present government of Israel, but also the governments of all the nations on earth.

In the meantime, as his disciples, we have work to do—to "go and make disciples of all nations." (Matt. 28:19 NIV) And "this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come." (Matt. 24:14 NIV)

Making disciples involves much more than simply persuading people to repeat a simple prayer, or to say that they 'accept Jesus as Lord and Savior.' Jesus' instructions here reveal that making disciples involves baptizing them in the manner Jesus outlined, and teaching them to obey everything that Jesus taught.

New disciples need to read what Matthew, Mark, Luke and John wrote about Jesus' life, ministry and teachings. See also Matthew 4:17 and Luke 24:47.

MARK

CHAPTER ONE

1 The beginning of the Good News* of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

2 As it is written in the prophets, “Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you. Malachi
 3:1

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
 ‘Make ready the way of the Lord!
 Make his paths straight!’” Isaiah 40:3

4 John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching the baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. 5 All the country of Judea and all those of Jerusalem went out to him. They were baptized by him in the Jordan river, confessing their sins. 6 John was clothed with camel’s hair and a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and wild honey. 7 He preached, saying, “After me comes he who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen. 8 I baptized you in water, but he will baptize you in the Holy Spirit.”

9 In those days, Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 Immediately coming up from the water, he saw the heavens parting, and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. 11 A voice came out of the sky, “You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

12 Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness. 13 He was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals; and the angels were serving him.

14 Now after John was taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Good News of God’s Kingdom, 15 and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and God’s Kingdom is at hand! Repent,† and believe in the Good News.”

16 Passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. 17 Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men.”

18 Immediately they left their nets, and followed him. 19 Going on a little further from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John, his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. 20 Immediately he called them, and they left their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him. 21 They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught. 22 They were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 Immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 saying, “Ha! What do we have to do with you, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!”

25 Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet, and come out of him!”

26 The unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. 27 They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!” 28 The report of him went out immediately everywhere into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area.

29 Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30 Now Simon’s wife’s mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. 31 He came and took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them. 32 At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. 33 All the city was gathered together at the door. 34 He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He didn’t allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

35 Early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there. 36 Simon and those who were with him followed after him; 37 and they found him, and told him, “Everyone is looking for you.”

38 He said to them, “Let’s go elsewhere into the

* 1:1 The shortest of the four Gospels, Mark’s is a fast-moving account, traditionally based on what he remembered hearing about Jesus’ life and ministry at the Apostle Peter’s feet. It omits some of Jesus’ longer talks, such as the Sermon on the Mount and parables about the Kingdom recorded by Matthew and Luke, and Jesus’ final words to his followers recorded by John.

But, for the most part, the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke cover the same ground, each one occasionally supplying some details omitted by the others.

† 1:14-15 Mark says Jesus began his ministry with a call to “Repent.” And Luke shows that Jesus concluded his ministry on earth with the same theme: “that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations.”—Luke 24:47

So, Jesus calls on us to “Repent”—to change our hearts and lives.

He calls on us to do this when we first turn to him to as our Savior and Lord. But he also calls Christians to repent even later during our walk with him as his followers. For example, in Revelation chapters 2 and 3, Jesus calls five of the seven churches named there to repent for straying, in various ways, from following him.

To the members of the church in Ephesus, Jesus said: “Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your . . .”—Revelation 2:5 NIV

To the church in Pergamum, he said: “Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight . . .”—Revelation 2:16 NIV

To the church in Sardis, the risen Christ said: “Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; obey it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what time I will come to you. . . .”—Revelation 3:3 NIV

To the church in Laodicea, Jesus said: “Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So, be earnest, and repent.”—Revelation 3:19 NIV

When we regularly read the Bible and prayerfully think about the things it says and how those words apply to our lives, God’s Holy Spirit shows us the changes we need to make to grow up as God’s adopted children and to become more like Jesus. These changes often involve the need to repent from actions or attitudes that are displeasing to God.

next towns, that I may preach there also, because I came out for this reason.” 39 He went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons.

40 A leper came to him, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saying to him, “If you want to, you can make me clean.”

41 Being moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, “I want to. Be made clean.” 42 When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. 43 He strictly warned him, and immediately sent him out, 44 and said to him, “See you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

45 But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to him from everywhere.

CHAPTER TWO

1 When he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that he was in the house. 2 Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the word to them. 3 Four people came, carrying a paralytic to him. 4 When they could not come near to him for the crowd, they removed the roof where he was. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was lying on. 5 Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”

6 But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 “Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

8 Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you reason these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven;’ or to say, ‘Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?’ 10 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralytic— 11 “I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house.”

12 He arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

13 He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them. 14 As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he arose and followed him.

15 He was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him. 16 The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, “Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?”

17 When Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners* to repentance.”

18 John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don’t fast?”

19 Jesus said to them, “Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can’t fast. 20 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. 21 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made. 22 No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins.”

23 He was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain. 24 The Pharisees said to him, “Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?”

25 He said to them, “Did you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry—he, and those who were with him? 26 How he entered into God’s house when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the show bread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?” 27 He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. 28 Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

CHAPTER THREE

1 He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered. 2 They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him. 3 He said to the man who had his hand withered, “Stand up.” 4 He said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?” But they were silent. 5 When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other. 6 The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 Jesus withdrew to the sea with his disciples, and a great multitude followed him from Galilee, from Judea, 8 from Jerusalem, from Idumaea, beyond the Jordan, and those from around Tyre and Sidon. A great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came to him. 9 He spoke to his disciples that a little boat should stay near him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn’t press on him. 10 For he had healed many, so that as many as had diseases pressed on him that they might touch him. 11 The unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, "You are the Son of God!" 12 He sternly warned them that they should not make him known.

* 2:17 Don’t feel that you are too sinful to accept Jesus’ invitation to be saved. Jesus says he came to call sinners to repentance—even the worst of sinners. (1 Timothy 1:15) He also calls Christian believers to repent. (See the note at Mark 1:14-15.)

13 He went up into the mountain, and called to himself those whom he wanted, and they went to him. 14 He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach, 15 and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons: 16 Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter; 17 James the son of Zebedee; John, the brother of James, and he called them Boanerges, which means, Sons of Thunder; 18 Andrew; Philip; Bartholomew; Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot; 19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

He came into a house. 20 The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21 When his friends heard it, they went out to seize him: for they said, "He is insane." 22 The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul," and, "By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons."

23 He summoned them, and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. 26 If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he can't stand, but has an end. 27 But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house. 28 Most certainly I tell you, all sins of the descendants of man will be forgiven, including their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme; 29 but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation." 30 —because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."

31 His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him. 32 A multitude was sitting around him, and they told him, "Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters are outside looking for you."

33 He answered them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" 34 Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! 35 For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother."

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea. 2 He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching, 3 "Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow, 4 and as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and devoured it. 5 Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil. 6 When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8 Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some produced thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much." 9 He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. 11 He said to them, "To you is given the mystery of God's Kingdom, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables, 12 that 'seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.'" Isaiah 6:9-10

13 He said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables? 14 The farmer sows the word. 15 The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them. 16 These in the same way are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy. 17 They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble. 18 Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word, 19 and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 Those which were sown on the good ground are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times."

21 He said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Isn't it put on a stand? 22 For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."

24 He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear. 25 For whoever has, to him will more be given, and he who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him."

26 He said, "God's Kingdom is as if a man should cast seed on the earth, 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he doesn't know how. 28 For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. 29 But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

30 He said, "How will we liken God's Kingdom? Or with what parable will we illustrate it? 31 It's like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth, 32 yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow."

33 With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. 34 Without a parable he didn't speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

35 On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side." 36 Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him. 37 A big wind storm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled. 38 He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are dying?"

39 He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?"

41 They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

CHAPTER FIVE

1 They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. 2 When he had come out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him out of the tombs. 3 He lived in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains, 4 because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him. 5 Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. 6 When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down to him, 7 and crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me." 8 For he said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

9 He asked him, "What is your name?"

He said to him, "My name is Legion, for we are many." 10 He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country. 11 Now on the mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding. 12 All the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them."

13 At once Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea. 14 Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

The people came to see what it was that had happened. 15 They came to Jesus, and saw him who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid. 16 Those who saw it declared to them what happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs. 17 They began to beg him to depart from their region.

18 As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. 19 He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you."

20 He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.

21 When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea. 22 Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, 23 and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live."

24 He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. 25 A certain woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, 27 having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes. 28 For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well." 29 Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

30 Immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

31 His disciples said to him, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

32 He looked around to see her who had done this thing. 33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease."

35 While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?"

36 But Jesus, when he heard the message spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe." 37 He allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. 38 He came to the synagogue ruler's house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. 39 When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep."

40 They ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying. 41 Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha cumi!" which means, being interpreted, "Girl, I tell you, get up!" 42 Immediately the girl rose up and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement. 43 He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

CHAPTER SIX

1 He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him.

2 When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands? 3 Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judah, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" They were offended at him.

4 Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house." 5 He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them. 6 He marveled because of their unbelief.

He went around the villages teaching. 7 He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse, 9 but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics. 10 He said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. 11 Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom* and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

12 They went out and preached that people should repent. 13 They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them. 14 King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, "John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him." 15 But others said, "He is Elijah." Others said, "He is a prophet, or like one of the prophets." 16 But Herod, when he heard this, said, "This is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead."

17 For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, for he had married her. 18 For John said[†] to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." 19 Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn't, 20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.

21 Then a convenient day came, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. 22 When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you." 23 He swore to her, "Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."

24 She went out, and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?"

She said, "The head of John the Baptizer."

25 She came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptizer on a platter."

26 The king was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths, and of his dinner guests, he didn't wish to refuse her. 27 Immediately the king sent out a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring John's head, and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young lady gave it to her mother.

29 When his disciples heard this, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 The apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught. 31 He said to them, "You come apart into a deserted place, and rest awhile." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. 32 They went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. 33 They saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him. 34 Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things. 35 When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, "This place is deserted, and it is late in the day. 36 Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat."

37 But he answered them, "You give them something to eat."

They asked him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them something to eat?"

38 He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go see."

When they knew, they said, "Five, and two fish."

39 He commanded them that everyone should sit down in groups on the green grass. 40 They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. 41 He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before

* 6:11 Jesus cites Sodom and Gomorrah as examples of extremely sinful cities. Our English word "sodomy" comes from the name of Sodom. The "men of Sodom" were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Jehovah."—Genesis 13:13

† 6:17-18 When John called people to repent of their sins, he named specific sins, including that of local ruler Herod who married his brother's wife and was living in sin with her. Herod added to his sins by putting John in prison. We should not be surprised if we are treated similarly someday for upholding what the Bible says about homosexual practice. Powerful people in the media and government already call such Bible teaching "hate speech" and are pushing to classify it as a "hate crime." Jesus said, "Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. At that time many will turn away from the faith..." (Matthew 24:9-10 NIV) them, and he divided the two fish among them all. 42 They all ate, and were filled. 43 They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish. 44 Those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

45 Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself sent the multitude away. 46 After he had taken leave of them, he went up the mountain to pray.

47 When evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land. 48 Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, and he would have passed by them, 49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid." 51 He got into the boat with them; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled; 52 for they hadn't understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

53 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. 54 When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him, 55 and ran around that whole region, and began to bring those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was. 56 Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered together to him, having come from Jerusalem. 2 Now when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is unwashed, hands, they found fault. 3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jews, don't eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the tradition of the elders. 4 They don't eat when they come from the marketplace unless they bathe themselves, and there are many other things, which they have received to hold to: washings of cups, pitchers, bronze vessels, and couches.) 5 The Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why don't your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unwashed hands?"

6 He answered them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

"This people honors me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me.

7 But they worship me in vain, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.' Isaiah 29:13

8 "For you set aside the commandment of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things." 9 He said to them, "Full well do you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. 10 For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother;' Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16 and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.' Exodus 21:17; Leviticus 20:9 11 But you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban, that is to say, given to God;" 12 then you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, 13 making void the word of God by your tradition, which you have handed down. You do many things like this."

14 He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside of the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man. 16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"

17 When he had entered into a house away from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable. 18 He said to them, "Are you also without understanding? Don't you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can't defile him, 19 because it doesn't go into his heart, but into his stomach, then into the latrine?" thus purifying all foods. 20 He said, "That which proceeds out of the man, that defiles the man. 21 For from within, out of the hearts of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, 22 covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. 23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man."

24 From there he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and didn't want anyone to know it, but he couldn't escape notice. 25 For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. 26 Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. 27 But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

28 But she answered him, "Yes, Lord. Yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

29 He said to her, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

30 She went away to her house, and found the child having been laid on the bed, with the demon gone out.

31 Again he departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the middle of the region of Decapolis. 32 They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him. 33 He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue. 34 Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!" 35 Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was released, and he spoke clearly. 36 He commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more he commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it. 37 They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!"

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to himself, and said to them, 2 "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way."

4 His disciples answered him, "From where could one satisfy these people with bread here in a deserted place?"

5 He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"

They said, "Seven."

6 He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude. 7 They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also. 8 They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over. 9 Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away.

10 Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanutha. 11 The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, and testing him. 12 He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Most certainly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation."

13 He left them, and again entering into the boat, departed to the other side. 14 They forgot to take bread; and they didn't have more than one loaf in the boat with them. 15 He warned them, saying, "Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

16 They reasoned with one another, saying, "It's because we have no bread."

17 Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, "Why do you reason that it's because you have no bread? Don't you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened? 18 Having eyes, don't you see? Having ears, don't you hear? Don't you remember? 19 When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?"

They told him, "Twelve."

20 "When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?"

They told him, "Seven."

21 He asked them, "Don't you understand, yet?"

22 He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. 23 He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

24 He looked up, and said, "I see men; for I see them like trees walking."

25 Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly. 26 He sent him away to his house, saying, "Don't enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."

27 Jesus went out, with his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, "Who do men say that I am?"

28 They told him, "John the Baptizer, and others say Elijah, but others: one of the prophets."

29 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered, "You are the Christ."

30 He commanded them that they should tell no one about him. 31 He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 He spoke to them openly. Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. 33 But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men."

34 He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the sake of the Good News will save it. 36 For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? 37 For what will a man give in exchange for his life? 38 For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in his Father's glory, with the holy angels."

CHAPTER NINE

1 He said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see God's Kingdom come with power."

2 After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them. 3 His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. 4 Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.

5 Peter answered Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 6 For he didn't know what to say, for they were very afraid.

7 A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

8 Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except Jesus only.

9 As they were coming down from the mountain, he commanded them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. 10 They kept this saying to themselves, questioning what the "rising from the dead" meant.

11 They asked him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

12 He said to them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised? 13 But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him."

14 Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them. 15 Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. 16 He asked the scribes, "What are you asking them?"

17 One of the multitude answered, "Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit; 18 and wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able."

19 He answered him, "Unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me."

20 They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

21 He asked his father, "How long has it been since this has come to him?"

He said, "From childhood. 22 Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us."

23 Jesus said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes."

24 Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, "I believe. Help my unbelief!"

25 When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!"

26 Having cried out, and convulsed greatly, it came out of him. The boy became like one dead; so much that most of them said, "He is dead." 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.

28 When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we cast it out?" 29 He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting."

30 They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn't want anyone to know it. 31 For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of Man is being handed over to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again."

32 But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?"

34 But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.

35 He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all." 36 He took a little child, and set him in the middle of them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, 37 "Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him who sent me."

38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow us."

39 But Jesus said, "Don't forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. 40 For whoever is not against us is on our side. 41 For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ's, most certainly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward. 42 Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if he were thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around his neck. 43 If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire, 44 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' Isaiah 66:24 45 If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire that will never be quenched— 46 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' 47 If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into God's Kingdom with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire, 48 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' Isaiah 66:24 49 For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. 50 Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

CHAPTER TEN

1 He arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he was again teaching them. 2 Pharisees came to him testing him, and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

3 He answered, "What did Moses command you?"

4 They said, "Moses allowed a certificate of divorce to be written, and to divorce her."

5 But Jesus said to them, "For your hardness of heart, he wrote you this commandment. 6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female. Genesis 1:27 7 For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife, 8 and the two will become one flesh, Genesis 2:24 so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

10 In the house, his disciples asked him again about the same matter. 11 He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery against her. 12 If a woman herself divorces her husband, and marries another, she commits adultery."

13 They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them. 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me! Don't forbid them, for God's Kingdom belongs to such as these. 15 Most certainly I tell you, whoever will not receive God's Kingdom like a little child, he will in no way enter into it." 16 He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

17 As he was going out into the way, one ran to him, knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

18 Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God. 19 You know the commandments: 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not give false testimony,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and mother.'" Exodus 20:12-16; Deuteronomy 5:16-20

20 He said to him, "Teacher, I have observed all these things from my youth."

21 Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."

22 But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions. 23 Jesus looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into God's Kingdom!"

24 The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into God's Kingdom! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into God's Kingdom."

26 They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?"

27 Jesus, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."

28 Peter began to tell him, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you."

29 Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News, 30 but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life. 31 But many who are first will be last; and the last first."

32 They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him. 33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles. 34 They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again."

35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."

36 He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

37 They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and one at your left hand, in your glory."

38 But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

39 They said to him, "We are able."

Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; 40 but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

41 When the ten heard it, they began to be indignant towards James and John.

42 Jesus summoned them, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 43 But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant. 44 Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be bondservant of all. 45 For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

46 They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. 47 When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!" 48 Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out much more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

49 Jesus stood still, and said, "Call him."

They called the blind man, saying to him, "Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you!"

50 He, casting away his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.

51 Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man said to him, "Rabboni, that I may see again."

52 Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus on the way.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 When they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 2 and said to them, "Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him. 3 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs him;' and immediately he will send him back here."

4 They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him. 5 Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the young donkey?" 6 They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go.

7 They brought the young donkey to Jesus, and threw their garments on it, and Jesus sat on it. 8 Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and spreading them on the road. 9 Those who went in front, and those who followed, cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Psalm 118:25-26 10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"

11 Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

12 The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. 13 Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14 Jesus told it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" and his disciples heard it.

15 They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves. 16 He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. 17 He taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? Isaiah 56:7 But you have made it a den of robbers!" Jeremiah 7:11

18 The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

19 When evening came, he went out of the city. 20 As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. 21 Peter, remembering, said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away."

22 Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. 23 For most certainly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and doesn't doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening; he shall have whatever he says. 24 Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received them, and you shall have them. 25 Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions. 26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions."

27 They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him, 28 and they began saying to him, "By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"

29 Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 The baptism of John—was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me."

31 They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we should say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32 If we should say, 'From men'—they feared the people, for all held John to really be a prophet. 33 They answered Jesus, "We don't know."

Jesus said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the wine press, built a tower, rented it out to farmers, and went into another country. 2 When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmers to get from the farmers his share of the fruit of the vineyard. 3 They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty. 4 Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. 5 Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some. 6 Therefore still having one, his beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7 But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. 9 What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. 10 Haven't you even read this Scripture:

"The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the head of the corner.

11 This was from the Lord, it is marvelous in our eyes?" Psalm 118:22-23

12 They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away. 13 They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words. 14 When they had come, they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give?"

But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."

16 They brought it.

He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

They said to him, "Caesar's."

17 Jesus answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

They marveled greatly at him.

18 There came to him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying, 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote to us, 'If a man's brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.' 20 There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no offspring. 21 The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise; 22 and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife.”

24 Jesus answered them, “Isn’t this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God? 25 For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. 26 But about the dead, that they are raised; haven’t you read in the book of Moses, about the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’ Exodus 3:6 27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken.”

28 One of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Knowing that he had answered them well, he asked him, “Which commandment is the greatest of all?”

29 Jesus answered, “The greatest is, ‘Hear, Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one: 30 you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ Deuteronomy 6:4-5 This is the first commandment. 31 The second is like this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ Leviticus 19:18 There is no other commandment greater than these.”

32 The scribe said to him, “Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he, 33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

34 When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from God’s Kingdom.”

No one dared ask him any question after that. 35 Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple, “How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David? 36 For David himself said in the Holy Spirit,

‘The Lord said to my Lord,

‘Sit at my right hand,

until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.’ Psalms 110:1

37 Therefore David himself calls him Lord, so how can he be his son?”

The common people heard him gladly. 38 In his teaching he said to them, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces, 39 and the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts: 40 those who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation.”

41 Jesus sat down opposite the treasury, and saw how the multitude cast money into the treasury. Many who were rich cast in much. 42 A poor widow came, and she cast in two small brass coins, which equal a quadrans coin. 43 He called his disciples to himself, and said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, this poor widow gave more than all those who are giving into the treasury, 44 for they all gave out of their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, gave all that she had to live on.”

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 As he went out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!”

2 Jesus said to him, “Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down.”*

3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 4 “Tell us, when† will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be fulfilled?”

5 Jesus, answering, began to tell them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray. 6 For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he!’ and will lead many astray.

7 “When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don’t be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet. 8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains. 9 But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them. 10 The Good News must first be preached to all the nations. 11 When they lead you away and deliver you up, don’t be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

12 “Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. 13 You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. 14 But when you see the abomination of desolation‡, Daniel

* 13:1-2 Please see the note at Matthew 24:1-2.

† 13:4 In the parallel passage in Matthew’s account, the disciples ask not only, “when will these things be?” but also, “What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?” (Matt. 24:3) Mark omits the latter portions of their question, but includes the portions of Jesus’ response that touch on his coming and the end of the age; for example: “Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.”—Mark 13:26

Please see the note at Matthew 24:3.

‡ 13:14 One of the most controversial aspects of Jesus’ prophecy is his reference to ‘the abomination of desolation.’ Many modern teachers say that “the holy place” is a temple that will be built in Jerusalem in the future, and that a coming Antichrist will then desecrate that temple. But a closer examination of Jesus’ own words places “the abomination that causes desolation” in the first century, when the Romans entered the existing temple and subsequently desolated it and the city of Jerusalem.

The immediate context of the parallel passage in Matthew’s Gospel should make this clear. Just a few verses before mentioning “the 9:27; 11:31; 12:11 spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, 15 and let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house. 16 Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak. 17 But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babies in those days! 18 Pray that your flight won't be in the winter. 19 For in those days there will be oppression,* such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be. 20 Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen ones, whom he picked out, he shortened the days. 21 Then if anyone tells you, abomination of desolation," Matthew records that Jesus said, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, . . . Look, your house is left to you desolate." (Matt. 23:38 NIV) That "house" or temple would be left desolate by something that causes desolation—the abomination that causes desolation.

Two verses further on, at Matthew 24:1, we read that "Jesus left the temple" and the disciples called "his attention to its buildings." In the next verse, Jesus tells them about "these things" that "not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down." (vs. 2) In verse 3 the disciples ask, when will "this" happen? And thirteen verses later Jesus explains that the desolation will be accomplished by "the abomination that causes desolation." (vs. 15) Where, then, in this compact discussion, did Jesus switch from speaking about the temple he and his disciples were looking at, to bring up a different temple in the distant future? Nowhere! The reasonable conclusion that any reader would reach is that the same temple forms the subject of the discussion throughout these seventeen verses. It is the same temple that is left "desolate" and faces "desolation."

The differences between Luke's reporting on this sermon and the coverage by Matthew and Mark sheds light on what Jesus said and helps us understand what he meant. Writing initially for a Jewish audience familiar with the Hebrew Scriptures, Matthew included Jesus' words quoting the prophet Daniel—and so does Mark. Luke, on the other hand, captured words that would be more understandable to his Greek-speaking audience. In Luke's parallel account we read that Jesus said,

"When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, you will know that its desolation is near. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains."—Luke 21:20-21 NIV

What did Jesus say would be the signal for his first-century followers and others in Judea to flee to the mountains? That signal was "armies" surrounding the city according to Luke's account, and "the abomination that causes desolation" according to the accounts of Matthew and Mark. So, "the abomination that causes desolation" must be the Roman armies that desolated the temple and the city. This is very clear when the passages from Matthew, Mark and Luke are placed next to each other in parallel.

The Roman forces were an abomination by virtue of the idolatrous images they carried with them, and they caused desolation by desolating Jerusalem and its temple. This understanding of Jesus' words prevailed in Protestant churches for hundreds of years, until the late 1800s and early 1900s when the writings of John Nelson Darby popularized the idea of a future seven-year tribulation, and transplanted these events from the context of the Roman destruction of the Temple to a rebuilt third temple sometime in the future. The traditional understanding is more reasonable.

13:19 The "great tribulation" (KJV) in Matthew is "oppression" or "affliction" (KJV) in Mark's account, and Luke describes it as "days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled" when "there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people," the Jews, when they "will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled." (Luke 21:22-24)

So, the "great tribulation" Jesus spoke of must refer to the centuries-long affliction of the Jewish people—from the destruction of Jerusalem in the first century until Jerusalem was taken back from Gentile control during the Six Day War of 1967.

'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'Look, there!' don't believe it. 22 For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and they will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. 23 But you watch.

"Behold, I have told you all things beforehand. 24 But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, 25 the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. 26 Then they will see the Son of Man coming† in clouds with great power and glory. 27 Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.

28 "Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and produces its leaves, you know that the summer is near; 29 even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors. 30 Most certainly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 32 But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. 33 Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is.‡

Jesus will return as King of the kingdom of God. When he was put on trial before the high court of the Jews, and the high priest demanded to know whether Jesus was the Christ, the Son of God, "Jesus said to him, 'You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky.'"—Matthew 26:64

Jesus knew that the Jewish religious leaders would understand this to be a reference to the book of Daniel, where the prophet wrote:

"I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed." —Daniel 7:13-14

‡ 13:32-33 Bible prophecy gives us wonderful things to hope for, and assurance that those good things will happen. But not every detail is covered. There are things the Bible does not tell us. Those are among the "secret things" that belong to God. "The secret things belong to Jehovah our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law." (Deut. 29:29) Rather than speculate, and invent doctrine based on speculation, it is our duty to do the things God has given us to do.

Many have speculated on the exact timing of Christ's return, even naming specific dates, and have misled millions of people.

In the early 1830s Baptist layman William Miller began proclaiming in Vermont, U.S.A., his calculations that Christ would return by a certain date in 1843. He later revised the date to October 22, 1844. When that date came and went uneventfully, most of his followers lost interest, but a core

34 "It is like a man, traveling to another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch. 35 Watch therefore, for you don't know when the lord of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning; 36 lest coming suddenly he might find you sleeping. 37 What I tell you, I tell all: Watch."

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by deception, and kill him. 2 For they said, "Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people."

3 While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard—very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head. 4 But there were some who were indignant among themselves, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted? 5 For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor." They grumbled against her.

6 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me. 7 For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me. 8 She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying. 9 Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her."

10 Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them. 11 They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him. 12 On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare that you may eat the Passover?"

13 He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, 14 and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'" 15 He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Get ready for us there."

16 His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

17 When it was evening he came with the twelve. 18 As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, one of you will betray me—he who eats with me."

19 They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, "Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"

20 He answered them, "It is one of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish. 21 For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."

22 As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

23 He took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them. They all drank of it. 24 He said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many. 25 Most certainly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in God's Kingdom." 26 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

27 Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' Zechariah 13:7 28 However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

29 But Peter said to him, "Although all will be offended, yet I will not."

30 Jesus said to him, "Most certainly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

31 But he spoke all the more, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." They all said the same thing.

32 They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I pray." 33 He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. 34 He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."

35 He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. 36 He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire."

37 He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch one hour? 38 Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

group separated from their mainstream churches and formed Adventist fellowships.

Some time later the editor of an Adventist periodical Herald of the Morning re-worked Miller's calculations and proclaimed that Christ would return in 1874. Rather than admit failure when that date passed uneventfully, he insisted that Christ must have returned on schedule—only invisibly.

In 1879 that periodical's assistant editor Charles Taze Russell quit and started his own magazine, Zion's Watch Tower and Herald of Christ's Presence proclaiming that Christ had returned invisibly in 1874 and would put an end to this world forty years later in the autumn of 1914. Despite that prediction proving false, it led to the formation of the Jehovah's Witness sect, which in the late 1960s was teaching that Christ had returned invisibly in 1914 and would bring Armageddon and the end of the world in the autumn of 1975.

Jesus encouraged us to watch for his return, but he also said, "no one knows of that day and hour, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only."—Matthew 24:36

"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. . . . be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him."—Matthew 24:42-44 NIV

39 Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. 40 Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn't know what to answer him. 41 He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."

43 Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came—and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. 44 Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely." 45 When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, "Rabbi! Rabbi!" and kissed him. 46 They laid their hands on him, and seized him. 47 But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 Jesus answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? 49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."

50 They all left him, and fled. 51 A certain young man followed him, having a linen cloth thrown around himself, over his naked body. The young men grabbed him, 52 but he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. 53 They led Jesus away to the high priest. All the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes came together with him.

54 Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire. 55 Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none. 56 For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony didn't agree with each other. 57 Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying, 58 "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" 59 Even so, their testimony did not agree.

60 The high priest stood up in the middle, and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?" 61 But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"

62 Jesus said, "I am. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."

63 The high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses? 64 You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death. 65 Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, "Prophecy!" The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

66 As Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the maids of the high priest came, 67 and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus!"

68 But he denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." He went out on the porch, and the rooster crowed.

69 The maid saw him, and began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them." 70 But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it." 71 But he began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this man of whom you speak!" 72 The rooster crowed the second time. Peter remembered the word, how that Jesus said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about that, he wept.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. 2 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

He answered, "So you say."

3 The chief priests accused him of many things. 4 Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!"

5 But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled.

6 Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. 7 There was one called Barabbas, bound with his fellow insurgents, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. 8 The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them. 9 Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" 10 For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should release Barabbas to them instead. 12 Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?"

13 They cried out again, "Crucify him!"

14 Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?"

But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify him!"

15 Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and handed over Jesus, when he had flogged him, to be crucified. 16 The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort. 17 They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him. 18 They began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 19 They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him. 20 When they had mocked him, they took the purple off of him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him. 21 They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross. 22 They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull." 23 They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't take it.

24 Crucifying him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots on them, what each should take. 25 It was the third hour, and they crucified him. 26 The superscription of his accusation was written over him, "THE KING OF THE JEWS." 27 With him they crucified two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left. 28 The Scripture was fulfilled, which says, "He was numbered with transgressors."

29 Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, 30 save yourself, and come down from the cross!"

31 Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself. 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him." Those who were crucified with him also insulted him.

33 When the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Psalms 22:1

35 Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he is calling Elijah."

36 One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to take him down."

37 Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. 38 The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. 39 When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

40 There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joseph, and Salome; 41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

42 When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member who also himself was looking for God's Kingdom, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. 44 Pilate marveled if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead long. 45 When he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. 46 He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joseph, saw where he was laid.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. 3 They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" 4 for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back.

5 Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed. 6 He said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they laid him! 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you.'"

8 They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid. [Note: Verses 9-20 are not found in some of the earliest surviving Greek manuscripts.—Editor] 9 Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10 She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved. 12 After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. 13 They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.

14 Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen him after he had risen. 15 He said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the Good News to the whole creation. 16 He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned. 17 These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; 18 they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

19 So then the Lord, after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. 20 They went out, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen. [Note: Verses 9-20 are not found in some of the earliest surviving Greek manuscripts.—Editor]

LUKE

CHAPTER ONE

1 Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative* concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us,

2 even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, 3 it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; 4 that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6 They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. 7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. 8 Now while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division, 9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. 10 The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

11 An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. 14 You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. 15 For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16 He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord, their God. 17 He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to prepare a people prepared for the Lord."

18 Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

19 The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. 20 Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

21 The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple. 22 When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. 23 When the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. 24 After these days Elizabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying, 25 "Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men."

26 Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of David's house. The virgin's name was Mary. 28 Having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women!"

29 But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. 30 The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31 Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and give birth to a son, and will call his name 'Jesus.' 32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David, 33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to his Kingdom."

34 Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?"

35 The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God. 36 Behold, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. 37 For nothing spoken by God is impossible."

38 Mary said, "Behold, the servant of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word."

The angel departed from her. 39 Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah, 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. 41 When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. 42 She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43 Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy! 45 Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!"

46 Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord.

* 1:1 The physician Luke accompanied the Apostle Paul on his missionary travels among the Gentiles, and wrote his Gospel in Greek for a cosmopolitan Greek audience.

The account begins with the birth of John the baptizer who would later introduce Jesus to the Jewish people, and then goes on to relate the story of Jesus' birth from the perspective of his mother Mary, followed by Jesus' royal genealogy through Mary who was, like her husband Joseph, a descendant of king David.

Luke also wrote the book of Acts, which takes up where his Gospel account leaves off.

47 My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior,
48 for he has looked at the humble state of his servant.

For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.

49 For he who is mighty has done great things for me.

Holy is his name.

50 His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him.

51 He has shown strength with his arm.

He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He has put down princes from their thrones. And has exalted the lowly.

53 He has filled the hungry with good things.

He has sent the rich away empty.

54 He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy,

55 as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and his offspring forever.”

56 Mary stayed with her about three months, and then returned to her house. 57 Now the time that Elizabeth should give birth was fulfilled, and she gave birth to a son. 58 Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her, and they rejoiced with her. 59 On the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of the father. 60 His mother answered, “Not so; but he will be called John.”

61 They said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.”

62 They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.

63 He asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, “His name is John.”

They all marveled. 64 His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God. 65 Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. 66 All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, “What then will this child be?” The hand of the Lord was with him. 67 His father, Zacharias, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

68 “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people;

69 and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

70 (as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets who have been from of old),

71 salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;

72 to show mercy towards our fathers, to remember his holy covenant,

73 the oath which he spoke to Abraham, our father,

74 to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear,

75 in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

76 And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins,

78 because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dawn from on high will visit us,

79 to shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death;

to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

80 The child was growing, and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Now in those days, a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled.

2 This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.* 3 All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city. 4 Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to David’s city, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; 5 to enroll himself with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him as wife, being pregnant.

6 While they were there, the day had come for her to give birth. 7 She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn. 8 There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. 9 Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. 10 The angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. 11 For there is born to you today, in David’s city, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 12 This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough.” 13 Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army praising God, and saying,

14 “Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will toward men.”

15 When the angels went away from them into the sky, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” 16 They came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby was lying in the

Unlike ancient myths that are set ‘once upon a time’ in ‘a land far away,’ the history recorded in the Bible speaks of specific times, actual places and historical persons—confirmed by contemporary secular histories and by modern archaeology. The Bible relates events in Old Testament Israel and Judah, and in the life of Christ, to specific years in the reigns of Babylonian, Persian and Roman emperors known to secular historians.

This grounding in historical fact gives us solid reason to believe the Bible’s prophecies about these last days of this world: the times we are living in now, when foretold events are beginning to take place—events that will culminate in the return of Christ.

feeding trough. 17 When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child. 18 All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds. 19 But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. 20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

21 When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, his name was called Jesus, which was given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 When the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord"), Exodus 13:2,12 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons." Leviticus 12:8

25 Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. 26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law, 28 then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 "Now you are releasing your servant, Master, according to your word, in peace;

30 for my eyes have seen your salvation,

31 which you have prepared before the face of all peoples;

32 a light for revelation to the nations, and the glory of your people Israel."

33 Joseph and his mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning him, 34 and Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother, "Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which is spoken against. 35 Yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

36 There was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn't depart from the temple, worshipping with fastings and petitions night and day. 38 Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 When they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. 40 The child was growing, and was becoming strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him. 41 His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover.

42 When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast, 43 and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn't know it, 44 but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. 45 When they didn't find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him. 46 After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the middle of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. 47 All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. 48 When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."

49 He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?" 50 They didn't understand the saying which he spoke to them. 51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. 52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar,* Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness. 3 He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for remission of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

"Make ready the way of the Lord.

Make his paths straight.

5 Every valley will be filled.

Every mountain and hill will be brought low.

The crooked will become straight, and the rough ways smooth.

6 All flesh will see God's salvation." Isaiah 40:3-5

7 He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be baptized by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance, and don't begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father;' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones! 9 Even now the ax also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

* 3:1-3 Luke notes that John the baptizer began preaching in the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar, and correlates this with the overlapping reigns of other local rulers. Jesus' ministry began shortly after John's, so this helps fix the time when all the events recorded in the Gospels occurred.

10 The multitudes asked him, "What then must we do?"

11 He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

12 Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"

13 He said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you."

14 Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?"

He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

15 As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Christ, 16 John answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire, 17 whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18 Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people, 19 but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, 20 added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison. 21 Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been baptized, and was praying. The sky was opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form like a dove on him; and a voice came out of the sky, saying "You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased."

23 Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, 24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of

Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah, 27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, 28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er, 29 the son of Jose, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim, 31 the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,† 32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, 33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, 34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, 35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, 36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, 37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan, 38 the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness 2 for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry. 3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

4 Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'" Deuteronomy 8:3

5 The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all

† 3:23-31 Commentators commonly understand that Luke here gives the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah through his mother Mary. Our English word Messiah comes from a Hebrew word of similar pronunciation which means "anointed one." The word Christ comes from a Greek word for "anointed one."

Both terms originally referred to a king chosen by God, because the first Israelite kings were designated as rulers when God's prophet anointed them by ceremonially pouring oil over their heads. The promised Messiah would, himself, be a future king, one descended from the ancient kings of Israel, in the line of David.

* 3:15 The prophecy at Daniel 9:25 foretold the Messiah would come 483 years after 455 B.C.—i.e., 29 A.D., the year when John the Baptist began preaching, so Jews who understood Daniel's prophecy would be "in expectation" of the Messiah. John sent messengers to Jesus asking, "Are You the Expected One?" (NASB) or "Are you the Messiah we've been expecting?" (NLT)—Luke 7:20

the kingdoms of the world* in a moment of time. 6 The devil said to him, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want. 7 If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours."

8 Jesus answered him, "Get behind me Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.'" Deuteronomy 6:13

9 He led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here, 10 for it is written,

'He will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you;'

11 and,

'On their hands they will bear you up, lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone.'" Psalms 91:11-12

12 Jesus answering, said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'" Deuteronomy 6:16

13 When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until another time.

14 Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area. 15 He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

16 He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. 17 The book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,

18 "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor.

He has sent me to heal the broken hearted, to proclaim release to the captives,

recovering of sight to the blind,

to deliver those who are crushed,

19 and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." Isaiah 61:1-2

20 He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. 21 He began to tell them, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

22 All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

* 4:5-6 Jesus rejected Satan's offer, but did not dispute the devil's role in world rulership. In fact, he regularly referred to the wicked one as "the ruler of this world." (John 12:31, 14:30, 16:11 NKJV) Satan empowered the Gentile world powers that Daniel saw in Daniel, chapter 7, as a series of beasts, including the Roman Empire that ruled the world during Jesus' earthly ministry.

And Gentile powers continue to rule the world today. The composite beast John saw in Revelation, chapter 13, has been ruling the world for a long time. And it was the devil, "the dragon which gave power unto the beast" (Rev. 13:4 KJV), as Satan boasted here when he offered Jesus control over these human governments.

23 He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.'" 24 He said, "Most certainly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. 25 But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. 26 Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian."

28 They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. 29 They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. 30 But he, passing through the middle of them, went his way.

31 He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, 32 and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority. 33 In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 saying, "Ah! What have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God!"

35 Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in the middle of them, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

36 Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" 37 News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

38 He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her. 39 He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. 40 When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. 41 Demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" Rebuking them, he didn't allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

42 When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn't go away from them. 43 But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of God's Kingdom to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent." 44 He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Now while the multitude pressed on him and heard the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. 2 He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. 3 He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. 4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

5 Simon answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net." 6 When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. 7 They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful* man, Lord." 9 For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; 10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive."

11 When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. 12 While he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."

13 He stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean."

Immediately the leprosy left him. 14 He commanded him to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." 15 But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16 But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

17 On one of those days, he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal them. 18 Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before Jesus. 19 Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the middle before Jesus. 20 Seeing their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21 The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

22 But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts? 23 Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you;' or to say, 'Arise and walk?'"

24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."

25 Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God. 26 Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

27 After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me!"

28 He left everything, and rose up and followed him. 29 Levi made a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. 30 The scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?" 31 Jesus answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

33 They said to him, "Why do John's disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?"

34 He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days." 36 He also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else the new tears it, and also the piece from the new will not match the old. 37 No one puts new wine into old wine skins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. 38 But new wine must be put into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved. 39 No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

CHAPTER SIX

1 Now on the second Sabbath after the first, he was going through the grain fields. His disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate, rubbing them in their hands. 2 But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?"

3 Jesus, answering them, said, "Haven't you read what David did when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him; 4 how he entered into God's house, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?" 5 He said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath."

6 It also happened on another Sabbath that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered. 7 The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him. 8 But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise up, and stand in the middle." He arose and stood. 9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do

* 5:8 Are you afraid that your sins prevent you from becoming a follower of Jesus? Simon Peter was a rough fisherman, "a sinful man" according to his own estimation of himself. Yet, Jesus saved him from his sins and made him an Apostle. If Jesus could save Peter, he can certainly save you.

good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" 10 He looked around at them all, and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other. 11 But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Jesus.

12 In these days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God. 13 When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles: 14 Simon, whom he also named Peter; Andrew, his brother; James; John; Philip; Bartholomew; 15 Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Simon, who was called the Zealot; 16 Judas the son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor. 17 He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; 18 as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed. 19 All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came out of him and healed them all.

20 He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said,

"Blessed are you who are poor,
God's Kingdom is yours.

21 Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

22 Blessed are you when men shall hate you,
and when they shall exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.

23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.

24 "But woe to you who are rich!
For you have received your consolation.

25 Woe to you, you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.

26 Woe, when men speak well of you,
for their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.

27 "But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat
you. 29 To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, don't withhold your coat also.
30 Give to everyone who asks you, and don't ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.

31 "As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them. 32 If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. 33 If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. 34 If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much. 35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.

36 "Therefore be merciful,
even as your Father is also merciful.

37 Don't judge,
and you won't be judged.

Don't condemn,
and you won't be condemned.

Set free,
and you will be set free.

38 "Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you. For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you."

39 He spoke a parable to them. "Can the blind guide the blind? Won't they both fall into a pit?
40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. 41 Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? 42 Or how can you tell your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,' when you yourself don't see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye. 43 For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that produces good fruit. 44 For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don't gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. 45 The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings out that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.

46 "Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and don't do the things which I say? 47 Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like. 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock. 49 But he who hears, and doesn't do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. 2 A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. 3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant.
4 When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him, 5 for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us." 6 Jesus went with them.
When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him,
"Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. 7 Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you;
but say the word, and my servant will be healed.

8 For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel." 10 Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.

11 Soon afterwards, he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples, along with a great multitude, went with him. 12 Now when he came near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her. 13 When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Don't cry." 14 He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" 15 He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother.

16 Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited his people!" 17 This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region.

18 The disciples of John told him about all these things. 19 John, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?" 20 When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?'"

21 In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight. 22 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. 23 Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me."

24 When John's messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. 26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he of whom it is written,

'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.' Malachi 3:1

28 "For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptizer, yet he who is least in God's Kingdom is greater than he."

29 When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been baptized with John's baptism. 30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by him themselves.

31 "To what then will I liken the people of this generation? What are they like? 32 They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call to one another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.' 33 For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35 Wisdom is justified by all her children."

36 One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat at the table. 37 Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of ointment. 38 Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner."

40 Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you."

He said, "Teacher, say on."

41 "A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?"

43 Simon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most."

He said to him, "You have judged correctly."

44 Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45 You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet. 46 You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little." 48 He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

49 Those who sat at the table with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

50 He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Soon afterwards, he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of God's Kingdom. With him were the twelve, 2 and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; 3 and Joanna, the wife of Chuzas, Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others; who served them from their possessions. 4 When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable. 5 "The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. 6 Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. 7 Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. 8 Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and produced one hundred times as much fruit." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

9 Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?"

10 He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of God's Kingdom, but to the rest in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.' Isaiah 6:9 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12 Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. 14 That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15 That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and produces fruit with patience.

16 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. 17 For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light. 18 Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

19 His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd. 20 Some people told him, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you."

21 But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."

22 Now on one of those days, he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. 23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. 24 They came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm. 25 He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying to one another, "Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?" 26 They arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.

27 When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!" 29 For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

30 Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. 31 They begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss. 32 Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them. 33 The demons came out of the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. 34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

35 People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 36 Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. 37 All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned. 38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your house, and declare* what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

40 When Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. 41 Behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him to come into his house, 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. 43 A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any, 44 came behind him, and touched the fringe of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped. 45 Jesus said, "Who touched me?"

When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

* 8:39 We can do the same when relatives or work mates or neighbors notice that we have changed after becoming followers of Jesus. We can tell them what Jesus has done for us, and thus introduce them to the Gospel message.

46 But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me." 47 When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. 48 He said to her, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

49 While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Don't trouble the Teacher."

50 But Jesus hearing it, answered him, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed."

51 When he came to the house, he didn't allow anyone to enter in, except Peter, John, James, the father of the child, and her mother. 52 All were weeping and mourning her, but he said, "Don't weep. She isn't dead, but sleeping."

53 They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead. 54 But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, "Child, arise!" 55 Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat. 56 Her parents were amazed, but he commanded them to tell no one what had been done.

CHAPTER NINE

1 He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. 2 He sent them out to preach God's Kingdom and to heal the sick. 3 He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey—neither staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece. 4 Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there. 5 As many as don't receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."

6 They departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the Good News, and healing everywhere. 7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, 8 and by some that

Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. 9 Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" He sought to see him. 10 The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done.

He took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place that belonged to a city called Bethsaida. 11 But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of God's Kingdom, and he cured those who needed healing. 12 The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a deserted place."

13 But he said to them, "You give them something to eat."

They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people." 14 For they were about five thousand men.

He said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15 They did so, and made them all sit down. 16 He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17 They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

18 As he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"

19 They answered, "John the Baptizer,* but others say, 'Elijah,' and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again."

20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered, "The Christ of God."

21 But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, 22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

23 He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. 24 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. 25 For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? 26 For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see God's Kingdom."

28 About eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray. 29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. 30 Behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, 31 who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

* 9:3 Some mistakenly take this as a command for Christians today to give up providing for themselves. But the context shows that these instructions applied to a specific time period in the past—not to today's world.

This is clear from an exchange between Jesus and his disciples later in the same book of Luke, referring back to this passage:

"He said to them, 'When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?'

"They said, 'Nothing.'

"Then he said to them, 'But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword.'"—Luke 22:35-36

The first set of instructions applied when Jesus sent out the disciples to preach in Jewish towns during his earthly ministry; the second set would apply to his followers later in this hostile world. They would not need a wallet or purse when he sent them out to preach during his earthly ministry because they would find receptive audiences who would provide for their needs, but after his death and resurrection Jesus' followers would face persecution, and from then on they would need to carry their own wallet or purse.

32 Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. 33 As they were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said.

34 While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. 35 A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!" 36 When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. 38 Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. 39 Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. 40 I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't."

41 Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

42 While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43 They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44 "Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men." 45 But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46 There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. 47 Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, 48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."

49 John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow with us."

50 Jesus said to him, "Don't forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us."

51 It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him. 53 They didn't receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem. 54 When his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Elijah did?"

55 But he turned and rebuked them, "You don't know of what kind of spirit you are. 56 For the Son of Man didn't come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."

They went to another village. 57 As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, "I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord."

58 Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head."

59 He said to another, "Follow me!"

But he said, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

60 But Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce God's Kingdom."

61 Another also said, "I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to say good-bye to those who are at my house."

62 But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for God's Kingdom."

CHAPTER TEN

1 Now after these things, the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of him into every city and place, where he was about to come. 2 Then he said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest. 3 Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. 4 Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. 5 Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' 6 If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. 7 Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don't go from house to house. 8 Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. 9 Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, 'God's Kingdom has come near to you.' 10 But into whatever city you enter, and they don't receive you, go out into its streets and say, 11 'Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that God's Kingdom has come near to you.' 12 I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.

13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. 15 You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades. 16 Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."

17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!"

18 He said to them, "I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you. 20 Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

* 10:12 Jesus cites Sodom as an example of an extremely sinful city. The "men of Sodom" were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Jehovah." (Gen. 13:13) Compare Jude 7.

21 In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight."

22 Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal him."

23 Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see, 24 for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them."

25 Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"

27 He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; Deuteronomy 6:5 and your neighbor as yourself." Leviticus 19:18

28 He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."

29 But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?"

30 Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, 34 came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' 36 Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

37 He said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

38 As they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. 39 She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. 40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."

41 Jesus answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, 42 but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 When he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples."

2 He said to them, "When you pray, say,

'Our Father in heaven,
may your name be kept holy.

May your Kingdom come.

May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 Forgive us our sins,

for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

Bring us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one."

5 He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,' 7 and he from within will answer and say, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you?' 8 I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

9 "I tell you, keep asking,* and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. 10 For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.

11 "Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? 12 Or if he asks for an egg, he won't give him a scorpion, will he? 13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the

* 11:9-13 God cares for us as a good father does for his children. When we have needs, we should ask him in prayer to provide for our needs. This is true of physical needs, emotional needs and spiritual needs.

Note that verse 9 says to "keep" asking. So, we should persist in prayer, knowing that God will answer at the right time. On another occasion, "Jesus told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up."—Luke 18:1 NLT

Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

14 He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled. 15 But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons." 16 Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven. 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls. 18 If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. 19 But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges. 20 But if I by God's finger cast out demons, then God's Kingdom has come to you.

21 "When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe. 22 But when someone stronger attacks him and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he trusted, and divides his plunder.

23 "He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn't gather with me scatters. 24 The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, 'I will turn back to my house from which I came out.' 25 When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order. 26 Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

27 It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!"

28 But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it."

29 When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet. 30 For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation. 31 The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here.

33 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light. 34 The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. 35 Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn't darkness. 36 If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light."

37 Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in, and sat at the table. 38 When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner. 39 The Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40 You foolish ones, didn't he who made the outside make the inside also? 41 But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you. 42 But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. 43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces. 44 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them don't know it."

45 One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, in saying this you insult us also."

46 He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens. 47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs. 49 Therefore also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute, 50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.' Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. 52 Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn't enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered."

53 As he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him; 54 lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known. 3 Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

4 "I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid

* 12:4-5 The enemies of Christianity may persecute and even kill Christians. But life and death—eternal life and death—are actually in God's hands. So, we should not let fear of death frighten us into compromising our beliefs. Those who have the power to kill us in this world can not take away the eternal life Jesus has promised to his followers. And those persecutors themselves will eventually have to face God and answer for their actions.

of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear him, who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear him.

6 "Aren't five sparrows sold for two assaria coins? Not one of them is forgotten by God. 7 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.

8 "I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God; 9 but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God. 10 Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. 11 When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don't be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say; 12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say."

13 One of the multitude said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

14 But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?" 15 He said to them, "Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man's life doesn't consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses."

16 He spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man produced abundantly. 17 He reasoned within himself, saying, 'What will I do, because I don't have room to store my crops?' 18 He said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19 I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry."'

20 "But God said to him, 'You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?' 21 So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

22 He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. 23 Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds! 25 Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his height? 26 If then you aren't able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith? 29 Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious. 30 For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things. 31 But seek God's Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you. 32 Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. 33 Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 "Let your waist be dressed and your lamps burning. 36 Be like men watching for their lord, when he returns from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him. 37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Most certainly I tell you, that he will dress himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them. 38 They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so. 39 But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into. 40 Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him."

41 Peter said to him, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?"

42 The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times? 43 Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes. 44 Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has. 45 But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken, 46 then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful. 47 That servant, who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, 48 but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked.

49 "I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled. 50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! 51 Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. 52 For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. 53 They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law." Micah 7:6

54 He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens.

55 When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens. 56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time? 57 Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? 58 For when you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be released from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. 59 I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last penny."

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 Jesus answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? 3 I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way. 4 Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way."

6 He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none. 7 He said to the vine dresser, 'Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?' 8 He answered, 'Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it. 9 If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.'"

10 He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day. 11 Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up. 12 When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." 13 He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.

14 The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!"

15 Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water? 16 Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

17 As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 He said, "What is God's Kingdom like? To what shall I compare it? 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky live in its branches."

20 Again he said, "To what shall I compare God's Kingdom? 21 It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened."

22 He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem. 23 One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?"

He said to them, 24 "Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. 25 When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' 26 Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' 27 He will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.' 28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets, in God's Kingdom, and yourselves being thrown outside. 29 They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in God's Kingdom. 30 Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."

31 On that same day, some Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out of here, and go away, for Herod wants to kill you."

32 He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission. 33 Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can't be that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem.'"

34 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused! 35 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'" Psalm 118:26

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 When he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching him. 2 Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. 3 Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

4 But they were silent.

He took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5 He answered them, "Which of you, if your son or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

6 They couldn't answer him regarding these things.

7 He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, 8 "When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, 9 and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. 11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

12 He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. 13 But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind; 14 and you will be blessed, because they don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."

15 When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will feast in God's Kingdom!"

16 But he said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people. 17 He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.' 18 They all as one began to make excuses.

"The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.'

19 "Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.'

20 "Another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I can't come.'

21 "That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.'

22 "The servant said, 'Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.'

23 "The lord said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'"

25 Now great multitudes were going with him. He turned and said to them, 26 "If anyone comes to me, and doesn't disregard his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can't be my disciple. 27 Whoever doesn't bear his own cross, and come after me, can't be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? 29 Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, 30 saying, 'This man began to build, and wasn't able to finish.' 31 Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace. 33 So therefore whoever of you who doesn't renounce all that he has, he can't be my disciple. 34 Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it? 35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him. 2 The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."

3 He told them this parable. 4 "Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? 5 When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!' 7 I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner† who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. 8 Or what woman, if she had ten drachma coins, if she lost one drachma coin, wouldn't light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it? 9 When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.' 10 Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting."

11 He said, "A certain man had two sons. 12 The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of your property.' He divided his livelihood between them. 13 Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living. 14 When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. 15 He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into

* 14:26 As this world becomes more and more openly hostile to Jesus and the Bible, your relatives may oppose your following him.

You don't want to become some kind of religious nut, do you? 'Why don't you just stay in the religion you were brought up in? It was good enough for us and our parents, so it should be good enough for you!' 'Okay, choose between Jesus and us, your family! You can't have both.' These are some of the things people hear from their relatives and loved ones when they choose to follow Jesus—the real Jesus of the Bible. And Jesus knew ahead of time that it would be like that for many of his followers. That is why he said the words above.

But there is a reward ahead for those who face such personal loss for the sake of following Jesus. He promised, "Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life."—Matthew 19:29

† 15:7-10 Have you committed sinful acts condemned by God? That is not reason to despair. Rather, this passage gives you reason to hope. God and his angels in heaven will rejoice if you change your heart and mind, reject your sinful ways, and turn to Jesus for salvation.

his fields to feed pigs. 16 He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. 17 But when he came to himself he said, 'How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough to spare, and I'm dying with hunger! 18 I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. 19 I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants."' "

20 "He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. 21 The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 "But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate; 24 for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' They began to celebrate.

25 "Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. 27 He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.' 28 But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him. 29 But he answered his father, 'Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. 30 But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.'

31 "He said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. 32 But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' "

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 He also said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. 2 He called him, and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.'

3 "The manager said within himself, 'What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. 4 I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.' 5 Calling each one of his lord's debtors to him, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my lord?' 6 He said, 'A hundred batos of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' 7 Then he said to another, 'How much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred cors of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

than the children of the light. 9 I tell you, make for yourselves friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents. 10 He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. 11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? 13 No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and Mammon."

14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. 15 He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. 16 The law and the prophets were until John. From that time the Good News of God's Kingdom is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall. 18 Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

19 "Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. 20 A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 The beggar died, and he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. 23 In Hades, he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom. 24 He cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.'

25 "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in the same way, bad things. But now here he is comforted and you are in anguish. 26 Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that no one may cross over from there to us.'

27 "He said, 'I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house; 28 for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they won't also come into this place of torment.'

29 "But Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.'

30 "He said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

31 "He said to him, 'If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.' "

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! 2 It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. 4 If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."

6 The Lord said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. 7 But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table,' 8 and will not rather tell him, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink?' 9 Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not. 10 Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.'"

11 As he was on his way to Jerusalem, he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. 12 As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, and stood at a distance. 13 They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14 When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." As they went, they were cleansed. 15 One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice. 16 He fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. 17 Jesus answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18 Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?" 19 Then he said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."

20 Being asked by the Pharisees when God's Kingdom would come, he answered them, "God's Kingdom doesn't come with observation; 21 neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 'Look, there!' for behold, God's Kingdom is in the midst of you."

22 He said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23 They will tell you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Don't go away, nor follow after them, 24 for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day. 25 But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. 26 As it was in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise, even as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29 but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all. 30 It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed.* 31 In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back. 32 Remember Lot's wife! 33 Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it. 34 I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left.† 35 There will be two

* 17:26-30 Jesus cites examples of times in the past when God intervened in human affairs with destructive power: the Flood of Noah's day, and the fiery destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

His coming again will be like those destructive events. As in the past, the wicked will be destroyed, and those redeemed by God will be saved.

† 17:34-35 When Christ returns and this wicked world faces destruction, Christians won't need to flee to a physical place of safety like Noah's ship or the hills where Lot and his family fled, away from Sodom. As Jesus states here, a believer might be in the same bed with an unbeliever, or working side by side, and the believer will be preserved alive while the unbeliever is destroyed. God is fully able to make such a separation, and to keep his own people safe.

The verses that precede the reference to 'one person taken and the other left' are very instructive. Jesus describes his future return as being similar to the days of Noah when those left behind outside the ark were destroyed, and the days of Lot when those left behind in Sodom were destroyed. So, when the context that precedes it is taken into consideration, this passage can hardly be used to teach that those left behind at Christ's return would be left alive for seven years—as in the popular Left Behind novels.

What about the context that follows the verses in question? In the very next verse, the disciples asked the most obvious question about those who were to be left behind: "Where, Lord?" they asked. He replied, "Where there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather." (Luke 17:37 NIV) So, Jesus indicated those left behind would be "dead" — with the vultures consuming their dead bodies. How does anyone get from this that they would be 'left behind' with seven years of life ahead of them? Only by ignoring the context.

Jesus' portrayal of those left behind as dead bodies serving as food for birds perfectly parallels a passage in the Apocalypse that describes the same event. Revelation 19:7-21 tells of believers being taken to the wedding supper of the Lamb while those excluded (or left behind) serve as food for birds: "...all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves unto the supper of the great God; That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men...and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, small and great...and all the fowls were filled with their flesh." (vss. 17-21)

So, a plain reading of Luke 17:34-35 in its full context leads to no other conclusion than that those left behind at the Flood, at the rain of fire and brimstone on Sodom, and at the return of Christ are all destroyed. If those left behind were to remain alive for seven years, the return of Christ would no longer be "like" the Flood and the destruction of Sodom. Jesus said his grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other will be left.” 36 [Some Greek manuscripts add: “Two will be in the field: the one taken, and the other left.”—Editor]

37 They, answering, asked him, “Where, Lord?” He said to them, “Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together.”

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up, 2 saying, “There was a judge in a certain city who didn’t fear God, and didn’t respect man. 3 A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, ‘Defend me from my adversary!’ 4 He wouldn’t for a while, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God, nor respect man, 5 yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.’”

6 The Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. 7 Won’t God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? 8 I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”

9 He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. 10 “Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: ‘God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortionists, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.’ 13 But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn’t even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

15 They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 Jesus summoned them, saying, “Allow the little children to come to me, and don’t hinder them, for God’s Kingdom belongs to such as these. 17 Most certainly, I tell you, whoever doesn’t receive God’s Kingdom like a little child†, he will in no way enter into it.”

18 A certain ruler asked him, saying, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

19 Jesus asked him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—God. 20 You know the commandments: ‘Don’t commit adultery,’ ‘Don’t murder,’ ‘Don’t steal,’ ‘Don’t give false testimony,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother.’” Exodus 20:12-16; Deuteronomy 5:16-20

21 He said, “I have observed all these things from my youth up.”

22 When Jesus heard these things, he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me.”

23 But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

24 Jesus, seeing that he became very sad, said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into God’s Kingdom! 25 For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle’s eye, than for a rich man to enter into God’s Kingdom.”

26 Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

27 But he said, “The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.”

28 Peter said, “Look, we have left everything, and followed you.”

29 He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for God’s Kingdom’s sake, 30 who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life.”

31 He took the twelve aside, and said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. 32 For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. 33 They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again.”

34 They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn’t understand the things that were said. 35 As he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. 36 Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant. 37 They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. 38 He cried out, “Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!” 39 Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, “You son of David, have mercy on me!”

40 Standing still, Jesus commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him, 41 “What do you want me to do?”

He said, “Lord, that I may see again.”

42 Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you.”

43 Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 He entered and was passing through Jericho. 2 There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a

* 18:1 God cares for us as a good father does for his children. When we have needs, we should ask him in prayer to provide for our needs. This is true of physical needs, emotional needs and spiritual needs. Luke 11:9 says to “keep” asking. So, we should persist in prayer, knowing that God will answer at the right time.

† 18:17 Jesus taught that childlike trust is required of us. Instead of approaching religion like scholars trying to understand God, we need to get down on our knees and take hold of his hand the way a little toddler trustingly holds onto his or her father’s hand, securely confident that Dad has everything under control—that he will do the right thing and the loving thing.

chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short. 4 He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was going to pass that way. 5 When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." 6 He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully. 7 When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."

8 Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."

9 Jesus said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

11 As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that God's Kingdom would be revealed immediately. 12 He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.* 13 He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten mina coins, and told them, 'Conduct business until I come.' 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, 'We don't want this man to reign over us.'

15 "When he had come back again, having received the kingdom, he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business. 16 The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.'

17 "He said to him, 'Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.'

18 "The second came, saying, 'Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.'

19 "So he said to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.' 20 Another came, saying, 'Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief, 21 for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.'

22 "He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow. 23 Then why didn't you deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?' 24 He said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.'

25 "They said to him, 'Lord, he has ten minas!' 26 'For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him. 27 But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.'" 28 Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

29 When he came near to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples, 30 saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie it, and bring it. 31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say to him: 'The Lord needs it.'"

32 Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them. 33 As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34 They said, "The Lord needs it." 35 They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them. 36 As he went, they spread their cloaks on the road. 37 As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen, 38 saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Psalm 118:26 Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!"

39 Some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"

40 He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

41 When he came near, he saw the city and wept over it, 42 saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which pertain to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side, 44 and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn't know the time of your visitation."

45 He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it, 46 saying to them, "It is written, 'My house is a house of prayer,' Isaiah 56:7 but you have made it a 'den of robbers!'" Jeremiah 7:11

47 He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him. 48 They couldn't find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 On one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, the priests and scribes came to him with

* 19:11-12 The nobleman in this parable represents Jesus who went away to a far country—heaven—to receive the Kingdom of God, and later return in Kingdom power. When the nobleman returns, he gives rewards to his faithful servants, and punishes the unfaithful, as well as those who did not want him to reign over them.

Note that the rewards and punishments are all handed out at the same time when the nobleman returns—without the seven year delay postulated by the two-stage return of Christ imagined in the Left Behind novels.

the elders. 2 They asked him, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?"

3 He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me: 4 the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?"

5 They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why didn't you believe him?'" 6 But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." 7 They answered that they didn't know where it was from.

8 Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

9 He began to tell the people this parable. "A man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time. 10 At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out. 13 The lord of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.'

14 "But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.' 15 They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others."

When they heard it, they said, "May it never be!"

17 But he looked at them, and said, "Then what is this that is written,

'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the chief cornerstone?' Psalms 118:22

18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it falls on to dust."

19 The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on him that very hour, but they feared the people—for they knew he had spoken this parable against them. 20 They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor. 21 They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. 22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test me? 24 Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?"

They answered, "Caesar's."

25 He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26 They weren't able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and were silent. 27 Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. 28 They asked him, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. 30 The second took her as wife, and he died childless. 31 The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."

34 Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage. 35 But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. 36 For they can't die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord 'The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' Exodus 3:6 38 Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him."

39 Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well." 40 They didn't dare to ask him any more questions.

41 He said to them, "Why do they say that the Christ is David's son? 42 David himself says in the book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

'Sit at my right hand,

43 until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.'" Psalms 110:1

44 "David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he his son?"

45 In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples, 46 "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts; 47 who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation."

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury. 2 He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small brass coins. 3 He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them, 4 for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on."

5 As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, 6 "As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."*

* 21:5-6 The stones of the temple were thrown down within that generation, around thirty-seven or forty years later, in 70 A.D., when

7 They asked him, “Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign* that these things are about to happen?”

8 He said, “Watch out that you don’t get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he’ and, ‘The time is at hand.’ Therefore don’t follow them. 9 When you hear of wars and disturbances, don’t be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won’t come immediately.”

10 Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11 There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places.† There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. 12 But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name’s sake. 13 It will turn out as a testimony for you. 14 Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, 15 for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. 16 You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death. 17 You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake. 18 And not a hair of your head will perish.

19 “By your endurance you will win your lives.

20 “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation‡ is at hand.

the city and temple were desolated by Roman armies.

* 21:7 The Gospel writers Matthew, Mark and Luke all recorded this discussion, each mentioning some different things Jesus said, but all three presenting the same basic message. It is found in Matthew chapter 24, Mark chapter 13 and Luke chapters 17, 19 and 21. The great Reformation teacher Martin Luther explained the differences among the three Gospel accounts this way, starting with a comment on Matthew, chapter 24:

In this chapter there is a description of the end of two kingdoms; of the kingdom of the Jews, and also of the kingdom of the world. But the two Evangelists, Matthew and Mark, unite the two—and do not follow the order as Luke did, for they have nothing more in view than to relate and give the words of Christ, and are not concerned about what was said either before or after. But Luke takes special pains to write clearly and in the true order, and relates this discourse twice; first briefly in the 19th chapter, where he speaks of the destruction of the Jews at Jerusalem; afterwards in the 21st chapter he speaks of both, one following the other. Notice therefore that Matthew unites the two and at the same time conceives the end, both of the Jewish nation and of the world. He therefore cooks both into one soup. But if you want to understand it, you must separate and put each by itself, that which really treats of the Jews, and that which relates to the whole world.

—Luther’s “Sermon for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Trinity; Matthew 24:15-28” from his Church Postil, first published in 1525.

‡ 21:20 This verse parallels Jesus’ reference to “the abomination of 21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the middle of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein. 22 For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. 24 They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem†† will be trampled desolation” (KJV) at Matthew 24:15 and Mark 13:14—indicating that the “armies” Jesus speaks of here are the “abomination” that causes the “desolation” of Jerusalem.

Matthew, Mark and Luke all record what Jesus said his followers should look for, to know when to escape from Judea. All three say that when they “see” this, “then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.” Matthew and Mark both say it would be when they see “the abomination of desolation,” and Luke says it would be when they see “Jerusalem surrounded by armies” because then its “desolation is at hand.”

So, comparing the three Gospel accounts reveals that “the abomination of desolation” is the “armies” that brought “desolation” to Jerusalem nearly 2000 years ago—not some future Antichrist.

§ 21:23 Parallel Gospels show that the “great distress” here in Luke is the same as the “great tribulation” of Matthew 24:21 (King James Version). It refers to the suffering of the Jewish people that began with the Roman armies surrounding and destroying Jerusalem, and that continued down through the centuries as the Jewish people were carried captive to foreign lands and remained scattered abroad, exiled from the Promised Land.

See the note at Matthew 24:21 for quotes revealing how Albert Barnes and John Calvin understood these passages.

 21:24a As Jesus said would happen, the Romans carried off the surviving Jews captive and scattered them throughout the Roman empire. This was also a fulfillment of the words Moses recorded: “But it shall come about, if you do not obey the LORD your God . . . the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth.” —Deuteronomy 28:15, 64 NASB

The Jewish people remained scattered among all the nations, without a country of their own, until the re-establishment of the modern state of Israel in 1948.

†† 21:24b A few decades after Jesus’ crucifixion, Jewish zealots rebelled against the Roman empire. They set Jerusalem free from Roman occupation. However, Roman armies quickly returned and laid siege to the city. The outcome was as Jesus had said: the Roman armies destroyed Jerusalem, tore down the temple, and left not so much as one stone upon another stone. Jesus said Jerusalem would “be trampled on by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.”

Gentile Rome continued to control Jerusalem until the empire itself began to fall apart. Then the eastern or Byzantine empire ruled from Constantinople.

After Mohammed founded a new religion, the Islamic holy war of conquest spread across the Middle East and North Africa. Jerusalem fell to the Muslims in the year 638 A.D., six years after Mohammed’s death.

During the first hundred years of Muslim control over Jerusalem, ruling Caliphs built two new structures on the mount formerly occupied by the Jewish temple: the Dome of the Rock, and then the al-Aqsa mosque.

The Islamic occupation of Jerusalem eventually brought a reaction from the nations that called themselves Christian. Armies of Crusaders reached Jerusalem and took the city in 1099 A.D. But it was difficult for Europeans to control land in the far-off Middle East during the dark ages, and Crusader influence lasted a scant hundred and fifty years or so.

Egyptian influence then prevailed over the city for the most part until the early 1500s, when the Ottoman Turks took control, beginning a lengthy occupation. Napoleon hoped to extend his influence that far after capturing Egypt, but he failed. The Ottoman Turks held onto Jerusalem until their alliance with the Kaiser’s Germany in the First World War led to defeat.

British forces under General Allenby marched into the holy city in 1917. The League of Nations legitimized British occupation through an official down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. 25 There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves; 26 men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.† 27 Then they Mandate.

The prophesied Gentile trampling on Jerusalem ended in 1967, when the Jews captured the Old City and took control over it during the Six Day War. Gentiles no longer trample on Jerusalem, and have not done so since that decisive war. So, "the times of the Gentiles" must have ended.

While the Gentiles were having their "times" to trample freely on Jerusalem, the Jews were having their Tribulation. Their Holy City was trampled by the Romans in 70 A.D., a million Jews fell "by the sword" and the remainder were taken as prisoners to foreign lands. This was the beginning of a tribulation that lasted for centuries, climaxed in the Holocaust with six million more Jews killed, and ended when the state of Israel was restored and finally took Jerusalem back from the Gentiles.

See also the notes at Mark 13:14, Mark 13:19 and Matthew 24:21.

* 21:25a The parallel passage at Matthew 24:29 says, "But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken." The tribulation or "oppression of those days" lasted for centuries, with the Jews remaining scattered in all the nations, and Jerusalem remaining trampled by the Gentiles. Immediately after that tribulation ended the heavens lost their power as men began to rocket into outer space.

The stars cannot literally fall from heaven, since the stars are mammoth heavenly bodies immensely larger than the earth. The earth could literally fall onto the surface of a star, sooner than stars could actually fall to the earth. The very size relationship between earth and stars mandates that the language Jesus uses here must be figurative.

Then his words fit perfectly the view that the "tribulation" here refers to the centuries-long suffering of the Jews beginning with the Roman destruction of Jerusalem, climaxed in the Holocaust, and ending with the re-establishment of the state of Israel.

It was immediately after the re-establishment of Israel in 1948 that the heavens lost their power as men began to rocket into outer space. The heavenly bodies figuratively fell from the sky, as they came within mankind's reach. Luke reports that Jesus said, "there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars . . . for the powers of heaven shall be shaken."—Luke 21:25-26 KJV

While the Jews were returning to the Promised Land after their tribulation, the scientists who had worked on Adolf Hitler's V-1 and V-2 rockets began working for the victorious allied powers. Test pilots flew experimental jets above earth's atmosphere for the first time in human history. Then Soviet Russia put its Sputnik satellite into orbit in 1957, followed shortly by the first manned orbital flights. Truly, the powers of the heavens were shaken.

The Jews re-took Jerusalem from Gentile hands in 1967, and immediately after that in 1969 a series of Apollo space flights began bringing men to the moon. Humans circled the moon, taking pictures of its hidden far side, and landed there to plant an American flag on this heavenly body. It was as if the heavens had lost their power; they were no longer unreachable, but had now fallen beneath human feet. There were signs in the sun, moon and stars that had never before been seen in human history.

† 21:25b Jesus warned that there would be natural disasters in the days leading up to his return in power. There would be destructive ocean waves like those caused in recent years by severe coastal storms and devastating tsunamis.

People who live near the coast are anxious, as nations are perplexed over how to prevent damage from tsunamis, coastal storms and projected sea level rise.

‡ 21:26 The heavens lost their power as men began to rocket into outer space. The heavenly bodies figuratively fell from the sky, as they came within mankind's reach through manned space flight, which began to occur immediately after the nation of Israel was established will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."

29 He told them a parable. "See the fig tree, and all the trees. 30 When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. 31 Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that God's Kingdom is near. 32 Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

34 "So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. 35 For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. 36 Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

37 Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. 38 All the people came early in the morning to him in in 1948 and recaptured old Jerusalem from the Gentiles in 1967.

(See the note at Luke 21:25a for more detail.)

§ 21:28 Are we now seeing "these things" that Jesus said to watch for?—things that would indicate the end is near for this world? If so, we should be encouraged, because our redemption is drawing near.

Today's headlines cause many to feel discouraged. But when we view them in a biblical context, we have reason to lift our heads up, because these things were foretold as indicators that Christ will soon return.

The history of divine intervention in ages past identifies the types of situations that provoke God to act.

The flood of Noah's day was sent to cleanse a planet that had become full of sexual immorality and violence, much like today's world. Surely this age of internet pornography, motion picture sex goddesses, and weapons of mass destruction tries the Creator's patience to its limits.

If God sent fire and brimstone to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah, when the homosexual practices of those towns brought an outcry to his ears, how much longer will he put up with the gay pride movement that is spreading like wildfire today in a world that welcomes it with hardly a cry of complaint?

When the builders of the Tower of Babel abandoned God to create an urban society capable of accomplishing the impossible, God stopped them in their tracks. So, what about today's predominantly urban world that boasts of human achievement and looks to science to solve all man's problems? How much farther will God let this world go in crediting blind evolution for the Creator's handiwork, developing nuclear weapons, manipulating the genome, and performing sex-change operations?

The One who put a stop to Babel, to Sodom and to the pre-Flood world will soon put a stop to today's antichristian culture—this time through the promised return of his Son.

By putting faith in God and his Messiah, we can face the frightening days ahead with joy and gladness instead of fear and terror.

 21:34-36 Jesus urges us to watch for his return—which is difficult to do if we focus on material things and the lusts of the flesh. Rather, we should be prayerfully focused on God's Word and living a life worthy of those who have repented and been forgiven for their sins.

the temple to hear him.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, was approaching. 2 The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people. 3 Satan entered into Judas, who was also called Iscariot, who was numbered with the twelve. 4 He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them. 5 They were glad, and agreed to give him money. 6 He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude. 7 The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed. 8 He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."

9 They said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare?"

10 He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters. 11 Tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'" 12 He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there."

13 They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover. 14 When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve apostles. 15 He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, 16 for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in God's Kingdom." 17 He received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves, 18 for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until God's Kingdom comes."

19 He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me." 20 Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. 21 But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. 22 The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"

23 They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing. 24 There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. 25 He said to them, "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called 'benefactors.' 26 But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves. 27 For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn't it he who sits at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. 28 But you are those who have continued with me in my trials. 29 I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Father conferred on me, 30 that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

31 The Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat, 32 but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers."

33 He said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!"

34 He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know me three times."

35 He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?"

They said, "Nothing."

36 Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword. 37 For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'He was counted with transgressors.' Isaiah 53:12 For that which concerns me has an end."

38 They said, "Lord, behold, here are two swords."

He said to them, "That is enough."

39 He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him. 40 When he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray* that you don't enter into temptation."

41 He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and he knelt down and prayed, 42 saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

43 An angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. 44 Being in agony he prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

45 When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief, 46 and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

47 While he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came near to Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49 When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said to him, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?" 50 A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered, "Let me at least do this"—and he touched his ear, and healed him. 52 Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? 53 When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn't stretch out your hands

* 22:40 Prayer is crucially important to protect us from temptation in this wicked world. Just as the disciples needed to pray when armed men were about to come and seize Jesus to take him into custody, so too we need to pray today in this world where many people who follow Jesus face opposition, threats, and even arrest.

against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

54 They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest's house. But Peter followed from a distance. 55 When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Peter sat among them. 56 A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with him."

57 He denied Jesus, saying, "Woman, I don't know him."

58 After a little while someone else saw him, and said, "You also are one of them!"

But Peter answered, "Man, I am not!"

59 After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean!"

60 But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. 61 The Lord turned, and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the Lord's word, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times." 62 He went out, and wept bitterly.

63 The men who held Jesus mocked him and beat him. 64 Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, "Prophecy! Who is the one who struck you?" 65 They spoke many other things against him, insulting him.

66 As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying, 67 "If you are the Christ, tell us."

But he said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe, 68 and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go. 69 From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

70 They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?"

He said to them, "You say it, because I am."

71 They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!"

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

1 The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate. 2 They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king."

3 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

He answered him, "So you say."

4 Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

5 But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place." 6 But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean. 7 When he found out that he was in Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him. 9 He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers. 10 The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. 11 Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate. 12 Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.

13 Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, 14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined him before you, and found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him. 15 Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. 16 I will therefore chastise him and release him."

17 Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the feast. 18 But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Barabbas!"— 19 one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder.

20 Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release Jesus, 21 but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify him!"

22 He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him." 23 But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed. 24 Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done. 25 He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Jesus up to their will.

26 When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after Jesus. 27 A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him. 28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29 For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' 30 Then they will begin to tell the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and tell the hills, 'Cover us.' 31 For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?"

32 There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death. 33 When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.

34 Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing."

Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots. 35 The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen one!"

36 The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar, 37 and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"

38 An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

39 One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!"

40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Don't you even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." 42 He said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your Kingdom."

43 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

44 It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. 45 The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. 46 Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he breathed his last.

47 When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man." 48 All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts. 49 All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

50 Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man 51 (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for God's Kingdom: 52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. 53 He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid. 54 It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. 55 The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid. 56 They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 They entered in, and didn't find the Lord Jesus' body. 4 While they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. 5 Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth.

They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6 He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, 7 saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"

8 They remembered his words, 9 returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles. 11 These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them. 12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.

13 Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem. 14 They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. 15 While they talked and questioned together, Jesus himself came near, and went with them. 16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. 17 He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"

18 One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?"

19 He said to them, "What things?"

They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; 20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. 21 But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. 22 Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; 23 and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. 24 Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see him."

25 He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Didn't the Christ have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?"

27 Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.* 28 They came near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

29 They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over."

* 24:27 Dozens of prophecies in the Old Testament, written hundreds of years before Christ, foretold details of his life and death.

For example, Micah 5:2 indicates that the promised Messiah would come from the town of Bethlehem in Judah, and this actually took place when Jesus was born in Bethlehem as recorded at Matthew 2:1-6 and Luke 2:4-7.

Psalms 22, written by King David roughly a thousand years before Christ, begins with words Jesus would speak on the cross (verse 1; compare Matt. 27:46 and Mark 15:34), goes on to describe how they would pierce his hands and his feet (verse 16), how enemies would ridicule him as he hung on the cross (verses 7-8; compare Matt. 27:41-43), and how they would cast lots and divide his clothing (verse 18; compare Matt. 27:35, Mark 15:24, Luke 23:34 and John 19:24).

Other prophecies that Jesus fulfilled include that he would be born of a virgin, that he would be a descendant of King David, that he would preach in Galilee, that he would be betrayed for thirty pieces of silver, and that he would be buried in a rich man's tomb.

He went in to stay with them. 30 When he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. 31 Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. 32 They said to one another, "Weren't our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, 34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" 35 They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

36 As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

37 But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have." 40 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

42 They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. 43 He took them, and ate in front of them. 44 He said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled."

45 Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. 46 He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, 47 and that repentance* and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48 You are witnesses of these things. 49 Behold, I send out the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."

50 He led them out as far as Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. 51 While he blessed them, he withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven. 52 They worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, 53 and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

* 24:47 Luke shows that Jesus concluded his ministry on earth with a call for people to repent so that they might receive remission or forgiveness of their sins. This was the message he said should be preached in his name to all the world. Matthew and Mark record that Jesus also began his ministry with a call to "Repent!" (Matt. 4:17; Mark 1:15) Since he began and ended his ministry with the same message, it can be said to be a constant theme of his ministry—the main point of what Jesus' taught.

So, Jesus calls on us to "Repent!"—change our hearts and lives.

He calls on us to do this when we first turn to him to as our Savior and Lord. But he also calls Christians to "Repent!" even later during our walk with him as his followers. Read Revelation chapters 2 and 3,

When we regularly read the Bible and prayerfully think about the things it says and how those words apply to our lives, God's Holy Spirit shows us the changes we need to make to grow up as God's adopted children and to become more like Jesus. These changes often involve the need to repent from actions or attitudes that are displeasing to God.

JOHN

CHAPTER ONE

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him. Without him was not anything made that has been made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it. 6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. 7 The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. 9 The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him. 11 He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him. 12 But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name: 13 who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 John testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.'" 16 From his fullness we all received grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has seen God at any time. The one and only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.

19 This is John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

20 He declared, and didn't deny, but he declared, "I am not the Christ."

21 They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the prophet?"

He answered, "No."

22 Then they said to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as Isaiah the prophet said." Isaiah 40:3

24 The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees. 25 They asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?"

26 John answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know. 27 He is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." 28 These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! 30 This is he of whom

I said, 'After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.' 31 I didn't know him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that he would be revealed to Israel." 32 John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him. 33 I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to baptize in water, he said to me, 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.' 34 I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God."

35 Again, the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples, 36 and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" 37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38 Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?"

They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"

39 He said to them, "Come, and see."

They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. 40 One of the two who heard John, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Christ). 42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is by interpretation, Peter). 43 On the next day, he was determined to go out into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, "Follow me." 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

46 Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

Philip said to him, "Come and see."

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

48 Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?"

Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

49 Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!"

50 Jesus answered him, "Because I told you, 'I saw you underneath the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these!" 51 He said to him, "Most certainly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

CHAPTER TWO

1 The third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. Jesus' mother was there. 2 Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the marriage.

3 When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no wine."

4 Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it." 6 Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews' way of purifying, containing two or three metretes apiece. 7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim. 8 He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it. 9 When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom, 10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!" 11 This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

12 After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days. 13 The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting. 15 He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables. 16 To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Father's house a marketplace!" 17 His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up." Psalm 69:9

18 The Jews then answered him, "What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?"

19 Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

20 The Jews therefore said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple! Will you raise it up in three days?" 21 But he spoke of the temple of his body. 22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did. 24 But Jesus didn't trust himself to them, because he knew everyone, 25 and because he didn't need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. 2 The same came to him by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."

3 Jesus answered him, "Most certainly, I tell you, unless one is born anew,* he can't see God's Kingdom."

4 Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he can't enter into God's Kingdom! 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Don't marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.' 8 The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered him, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and don't understand these things? 11 Most certainly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don't receive our witness. 12 If I told you earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven. 14 As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son,† that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 17 For God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be

* 3:3 The Gospel message includes promise of a new life right now, as a new creature by virtue of being born again and living a new Spirit-filled life. Jesus introduced this new life when he spoke the words above to Nicodemus.

Years later the Apostle Peter wrote, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead." (1 Peter 1:3 NASB) This rebirth is a gift from God to all who put faith in Jesus, his Son: "Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God."—1 John 5:1

If you have not yet done so, tell God in prayer right now that you need Jesus as your Savior, and that you believe in him as your Lord. Jesus invites you: "Come to me, all of you who are tired from carrying heavy loads, and I will give you rest."—Matthew 11:28 TEV

And he adds, "I will never turn away anyone who comes to me."—John 6:37 TEV

When you are born again, you are a babe in Christ at first. And just as toddlers tend to fall while learning to walk, so it is with learning to walk in the Spirit. But the Father will help you grow as his child. You will form a longing for his written Word, the Bible, and the Holy Spirit will teach you as you read.

Besides learning more about God and growing in love for Him, you will also come to see yourself as part of the body of Christ—"the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven." (Heb. 12:23 NIV) The true church, Christ's body, crosses denominational lines and includes individuals both in and out of the various religious organizations that men have set up. It is composed of all those who look to Christ as Head, who have been "baptized by one Spirit into one body." (1 Cor. 12:13 NIV)

† 3:16-17 Jesus is the eternal Son of God, who was with God the Father from the beginning. God sent his Son to save us from our sins and to give us eternal life.

saved through him. 18 He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn't believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God. 19 This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. 20 For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. 21 But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God."

22 After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and baptized. 23 John also was baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized. 24 For John was not yet thrown into prison. 25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with some Jews about purification. 26 They came to John, and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, the same baptizes, and everyone is coming to him."

27 John answered, "A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven. 28 You yourselves testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before him.' 29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. 32 What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. 33 He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. 34 For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure. 35 The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. 36 One who believes in the Son has eternal life, but one who disobeys the Son won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Therefore when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John 2 (although Jesus himself didn't baptize, but his disciples), 3 he left Judea, and departed into Galilee. 4 He needed to pass through Samaria. 5 So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph. 6 Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. 7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." 8 For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9 The Samaritan woman therefore said to him,

"How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

11 The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. So where do you get that living water? 12 Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his livestock?"

13 Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' 18 for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father. 22 You worship that which you don't know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. 23 But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshipers. 24 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

25 The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah comes, he who is called Christ. When he has come, he will declare to us all things."

26 Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who speaks to you." 27 At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?" 28 So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?"

30 They went out of the city, and were coming to him. 31 In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

33 The disciples therefore said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. 35 Don't you say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest?' Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already. 36 He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37 For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' 38 I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

39 From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I did." 40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. 41 Many more believed because of his word. 42 They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."

43 After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. 46 Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48 Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

49 The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. 51 As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "Your child lives!" 52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left him." 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house. 54 This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda," having five porches. 3 In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water; 4 for an angel went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was healed of whatever disease he had. 5 A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

7 The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me."

8 Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."

9 Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked.

Now it was the Sabbath on that day. 10 So the Jews said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat."

11 He answered them, "He who made me well, the same said to me, 'Take up your mat, and walk.'"

12 Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your mat, and walk'?"

13 But he who was healed didn't know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.

14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."*

15 The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. 16 For this

* 5:14 The Gospel message includes not just forgiveness, but also a call to repentance and to stop sinning. If this man did not stop sinning, something worse than the affliction he had been suffering from might happen to him.

There is a popular notion today that it was only the God of the Old Testament who sent plagues and disasters, and that in the New Testament a kind and gentle Jesus took the place of the mean Old Testament God. But that notion is popular only among people who don't actually read Bible. Jesus said, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." (John 14:9 NCV) And Hebrews 1:3 says that Jesus is "the exact representation" of God the Father. (NIV)

A prominent Christian leader spends many years preaching the Gospel message and denouncing corruption, sin and sexual immorality. Then it comes to light that he has been leading a double life, practicing the very things he has denounced in his sermons. How do people react? How does God react? Many church members immediately jump to such a man's defense, arguing that God forgives everything. 'He is saved,' they say, 'covered by the blood of Christ,' so he is in no danger. But they say such things because they believe what popular religious books teach rather than what Jesus taught.

Jesus himself said that "many" who claim to be Christians and who preach in Jesus' name and who even accomplish great things in Jesus' name—but who live a lifestyle the Bible condemns—will be surprised to hear Jesus reject them, and turn them away from the kingdom of God:

"Not every one who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you evildoers.'"—Matthew 7:21-23 RSV

The Apostle Paul says, "don't be deceived" into thinking that it is okay for Christians to behave like that: "don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's Kingdom? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortionists, will inherit God's Kingdom."—1 Corinthians 6:9-10

The world around us today has changed, but God has not changed. So, even though their church may say it is okay for people to live like that, Jesus does not say it's okay. He says he will reject them.

But many churches have given up preaching the real Jesus, the Jesus of the Bible. Instead, they preach a fictitious Jesus—a Jesus of popular culture who loves everyone and everything, forgives everyone and everything, and doesn't require anything of anyone. It is just as the Apostle Paul warned: "the time will come when people will not listen to the true teaching but will find many more teachers who please them by saying the things they want to hear."—2 Timothy 4:3 NCV cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them, "My Father is still working, so I am working, too." 18 For this cause therefore the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God. 19 Jesus therefore answered them, "Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise. 20 For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel. 21 For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires. 22 For the Father judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son, 23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him.

24 "Most certainly I tell you, he who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. 25 Most certainly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live. 26 For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself. 27 He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. 28 Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice, 29 and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. 30 I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me.

31 "If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid. 32 It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true. 33 You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. 34 But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved. 35 He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. 36 But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John, for the works which the Father gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me. 37 The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. 38 You don't have his word living in you; because you don't believe him whom he sent.

39 "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me. 40 Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life. 41 I don't receive glory from men. 42 But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves. 43 I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44 How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?

45 "Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope. 46 For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me. 47 But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

CHAPTER SIX

1 After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. 2 A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick. 3 Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples. 4 Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. 5 Jesus then lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" 6 This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

10 Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11 Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. 12 When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world." 15 Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, 17 and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. 18 The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. 19 When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. 20 But he said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid." 21 They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

22 On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which his disciples had embarked, and that Jesus hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone. 23 However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. 24 When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn't there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25 When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

26 Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled. 27 Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has sealed him."

28 They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

30 They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread out of heaven to eat.'" Exodus 16:4; Nehemiah 9:15; Psalm 78:24-25

32 Jesus therefore said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. 33 For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."

34 They said therefore to him, "Lord, always give us this bread."

35 Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. 36 But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don't believe. 37 All those whom the Father gives me will come to me. He who comes to me I will in no way throw out.*

38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. 39 This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day. 40 This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven." 42 They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven?'"

43 Therefore Jesus answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves. 44 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' Isaiah 54:13 Therefore everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to me. 46 Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father. 47 Most certainly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. 50 This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

52 The Jews therefore contended with one another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

53 Jesus therefore said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have life in yourselves. 54 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me. 58 This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever." 59 He said these things in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?"

61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble? 62 Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? 63 It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. 64 But there are some of you who don't believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, and who it was who would betray him. 65 He said, "For this cause I have said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by my Father."

66 At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. 67 Jesus said therefore to the twelve, "You don't also want to go away, do you?"

68 Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life. 69 We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

70 Jesus answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the twelve? And one of you is a devil." 71 Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he wouldn't walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand. 3 His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do. 4 For no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be

* 6:37 Today's English Version renders this, "I will never turn away anyone who comes to me." How comforting! John 3:17 tells us that "God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him."

Have you been living in sin, ignoring God, and sharing in the corruption of this wicked world that is about to be destroyed? Repent! Turn to Jesus, and receive his forgiveness and mercy. He will not turn you away.

known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world." 5 For even his brothers didn't believe in him.

6 Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. 7 The world can't hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. 8 You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."

9 Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee. 10 But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11 The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?" 12 There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, but he leads the multitude astray." 13 Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews. 14 But when it was now the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. 15 The Jews therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"

16 Jesus therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. 17 If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. 18 He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 Didn't Moses give you the law? And yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me?"

20 The multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

21 Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. 22 Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. 23 If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath? 24 Don't judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

25 Therefore some of them of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this he whom they seek to kill? 26 Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly the Christ? 27 However we know where this man comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from."

28 Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know. 29 I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

30 They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. 31 But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When the Christ comes, he won't do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?" 32 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

33 Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me. 34 You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come."

35 The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? 36 What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come'?"

37 Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! 38 He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." 39 But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus wasn't yet glorified.

40 Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet." 41 Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee? 42 Hasn't the Scripture said that the Christ comes of the offspring of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" 2 Samuel 7:12, Micah 5:2 43 So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. 44 Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. 45 The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?"

46 The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!"

47 The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You aren't also led astray, are you? 48 Have any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees? 49 But this multitude that doesn't know the law is accursed."

50 Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them, 51 "Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

52 They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee."

[Verses 7:53-8:11 are not found in some of the earliest surviving Greek manuscripts—Editor.] 53 Everyone went to his own house,

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. 2 Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them. 3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the middle, 4 they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. What then do you say about her?" 6 They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of.

But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger. 7 But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her." 8 Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

9 They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman where she was, in the middle. 10 Jesus, standing up, saw her and said, "Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?"

11 She said, "No one, Lord."

Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more." [Verses 7:53-8:11 are not found in some of the earliest surviving Greek manuscripts—Editor.]

12 Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid."

14 Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going. 15 You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. 16 Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me. 17 It's also written in your law that the testimony of two people is valid. 18 I am one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

19 They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?"

Jesus answered, "You know neither me, nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also." 20 Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. 21 Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come."

22 The Jews therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you can't come'?"

23 He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. 24 I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

25 They said therefore to him, "Who are you?"

Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world."

27 They didn't understand that he spoke to them about the Father. 28 Jesus therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things. 29 He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him."

30 As he spoke these things, many believed in him. 31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. 32 You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

33 They answered him, "We are Abraham's offspring, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, 'You will be made free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. 35 A bondservant doesn't live in the house forever. A son remains forever. 36 If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. 37 I know that you are Abraham's offspring, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you. 38 I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father."

39 They answered him, "Our father is Abraham."

Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham didn't do this. 41 You do the works of your father."

They said to him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God."

42 Therefore Jesus said to them, "If God were your father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I haven't come of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why don't you understand my speech? Because you can't hear my word. 44 You are of your father, the devil,* and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn't stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and its father. 45 But because I tell the truth, you don't believe me. 46 Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? 47 He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don't hear, because you are not of God."

48 Then the Jews answered him, "Don't we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?"

49 Jesus answered, "I don't have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. 50 But I don't seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. 51 Most certainly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death."

52 Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, 'If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.' 53 Are you greater

* 8:44 According to the Revelation recorded by the Apostle John, the serpent that deceived the first woman Eve at Genesis 3:5 was actually Satan the devil: "the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world"—Revelation 12:9

By lying to the woman and leading Adam and Eve to sin, punishable by death, Satan showed himself to be a liar and a murderer. Jesus said, "the devil . . . He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies."—John 8:44 NIV than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God. 55 You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, 'I don't know him,' I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad."

57 The Jews therefore said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"

58 Jesus said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, before Abraham came into existence, I AM."

59 Therefore they took up stones to throw at him, but Jesus was hidden, and went out of the temple, having gone through the middle of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER NINE

1 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. 2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him. 4 I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. 5 While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." 6 When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud, 7 and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. 8 The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind before, said, "Isn't this he who sat and begged?" 9 Others were saying, "It is he." Still others were saying, "He looks like him."

He said, "I am he." 10 They therefore were asking him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered, "A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash.' So I went away and washed, and I received sight."

12 Then they asked him, "Where is he?"

He said, "I don't know."

13 They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. 14 It was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. 15 Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."

16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was division among them. 17 Therefore they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?"

He said, "He is a prophet."

18 The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, 19 and asked them, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20 His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

21 but how he now sees, we don't know; or who opened his eyes, we don't know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself." 22 His parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any man would confess him as Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

24 So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

25 He therefore answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see."

26 They said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't also want to become his disciples, do you?"

28 They insulted him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don't know where he comes from."

30 The man answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. 31 We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God, and does his will, he listens to him. 32 Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

34 They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

36 He answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?"

37 Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you."

38 He said, "Lord, I believe!" and he worshiped him.

39 Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind."

40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Are we also blind?"

41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains."

CHAPTER TEN

1 "Most certainly, I tell you, one who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2 But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. 4 Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5 They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers." 6 Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them.

7 Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door. 8 All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them. 9 I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. 10 The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. 11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. 12 He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them. 13 The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own; 15 even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd. 17 Therefore the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. 18 No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father."

19 Therefore a division arose again among the Jews because of these words. 20 Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to him?" 21 Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"

22 It was the Feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem. 23 It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch. 24 The Jews therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these testify about me. 26 But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you. 27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. 28 I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are one."

* 10:27-28 Jesus reveals himself to us as our Savior who cares about each one of us personally and intimately. Followers of Jesus may be threatened, abused, or even killed by enemies of God. But Jesus assures us of eternal life, even if we die, and promises that enemies will not be able to snatch us out of his hand.

Jesus is not just a historical figure that we read about. He is alive and is actively involved with Christians today, just as he was back in the first century. He personally saves us, teaches us, and leads us. This personal relationship with God through his Son Jesus Christ is so wonderful! The individual who knows Jesus and follows him will not even think about following anyone else.

31 Therefore Jews took up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"

33 The Jews answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."

34 Jesus answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are gods'? Psalm 82:6 35 If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture can't be broken), 36 do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? 37 If I don't do the works of my Father, don't believe me. 38 But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works; that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father."

39 They sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. 40 He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and there he stayed. 41 Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true." 42 Many believed in him there.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha. 2 It was that Mary who had anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, he for whom you have great affection is sick." 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it." 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let's go into Judea again."

8 The disciples told him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"

9 Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn't in him." 11 He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."

12 The disciples therefore said, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

13 Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. 14 So Jesus said to them plainly then, "Lazarus is dead. 15 I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to him."

16 Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let's go also, that we may die with him."

17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. 18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia away. 19 Many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. 20 Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house. 21 Therefore Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died. 22 Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you." 23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. 26 Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God's Son, he who comes into the world."

28 When she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you."

29 When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. 30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him. 31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there." 32 Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died."

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 and said, "Where have you laid him?"

They told him, "Lord, come and see."

35 Jesus wept.

36 The Jews therefore said, "See how much affection he had for him!" 37 Some of them said, "Couldn't this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?"

38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. 39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone."

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

40 Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see God's glory?"

41 So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, "Father, I thank you that you listened to me. 42 I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me." 43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

44 He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

Jesus said to them, "Free him, and let him go."

45 Therefore many of the Jews, who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did, believed in him. 46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. 47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing?

For this man does many signs. 48 If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

49 But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, 50 nor do you consider that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish." 51 Now he didn't say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. 53 So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put him to death. 54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples.

55 Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. 56 Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that he isn't coming to the feast at all?" 57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. 2 So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. 3 Mary, therefore, took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. 4 Then Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, 5 "Why wasn't this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?" 6 Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. 7 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial. 8 For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me."

9 A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests conspired to put Lazarus to death also, 11 because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

12 On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 they took the branches of palm trees, and went out to meet him, and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"

14 Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written, 15 "Don't be afraid, daughter of Zion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt." Zechariah 9:9 16 His disciples didn't understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him. 17 The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it. 18 For this cause also the multitude went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him."

20 Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast. 21 These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." 22 Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus. 23 Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24 Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25 He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life. 26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

27 "Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? 'Father, save me from this time'? But for this cause I came to this time. 28 Father, glorify your name!"

Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29 The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

30 Jesus answered, "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. 32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." 33 But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die. 34 The multitude answered him, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever. How do you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"

35 Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn't know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light." Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. 37 But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in him, 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke,

"Lord, who has believed our report?

To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" Isaiah 53:1

39 For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaiah said again,

40 "He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes,

and perceive with their heart,
and would turn,
and I would heal them." Isaiah 6:10

41 Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory, and spoke of him. 42 Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn't confess it, so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue, 43 for they loved men's praise more than God's praise.

44 Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me. 45 He who sees me sees him who sent me. 46 I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness. 47 If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day. 49 For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. 50 I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak."

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. 2 During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, 3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came from God, and was going to God, 4 arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist. 5 Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. 6 Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

7 Jesus answered him, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."

8 Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet!"

Jesus answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."

9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

10 Jesus said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." 11 For he knew him who would betray him,

* 13:3-5 Jesus set the perfect example for us in humbly serving others. After washing the disciples' feet, Jesus said, "I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you."—verse 15

therefore he said, "You are not all clean." 12 So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13 You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Lord.' You say so correctly, for so I am. 14 If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. 16 Most certainly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17 If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. 18 I don't speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.' Psalm 41:9 19 From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I am he. 20 Most certainly I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me."

21 When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me."

22 The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom he spoke. 23 One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was at the table, leaning against Jesus' breast. 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, and said to him, "Tell us who it is of whom he speaks."

25 He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast, asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

26 Jesus therefore answered, "It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. 27 After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him.

Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him. 29 For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. 30 Therefore having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.

31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. 32 If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. 33 Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you can't come,' so now I tell you. 34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also love one another. 35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

36 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?"

Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you can't follow now, but you will follow afterwards."

37 Peter said to him, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster won't crow until you have denied me three times.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 "Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many homes. If it weren't so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. 3 If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again,* and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also. 4 Where I go, you know, and you know the way."

5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me.† 7 If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on,

* 14:2-3 Jesus promised to "come again" and take his followers back home to heaven with him. He will come again as King and will also put an end to this wicked world that is in rebellion against God.

† It is this Second Coming that Bible believers look forward to and pray for, when we pray, "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."—Matthew 6:10

† 14:6 The Hebrew writers of the Old Testament presented elements of the divine plan for human salvation, shedding light on it progressively down through the ages. They pointed forward to the coming of the Anointed One or Messiah; they laid the basis for identifying him; and they hinted at what he would accomplish. Called "Christ" from the Greek word for "Anointed One," Jesus showed how all of those prophecies fit together and how they would result in human salvation—not just survival to live a few more years, but eternal life with no more death.

The way to everlasting life that Jesus proclaimed was not through church or organizational membership or through accurate knowledge of the Scriptures—although these enter into it. In order to gain life, people had to come to Jesus personally. Under the "new covenant" he instituted, there would be no other way to the Father, except through Jesus. "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."—John 14:6 New King James Version

This can be understood best by looking first at the "old covenant" that God had established centuries earlier with Israel. Jews were in a special relationship with God, through this formal agreement or covenant, by virtue of being members of the nation of Israel. This arrangement was to be superseded by a new covenant at some future time, according to the prophecy of Jeremiah, chapter 31:

"The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband to them," declares the LORD.—Jeremiah 31:31-32 NIV

Under this new covenant "they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the LORD. "For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more." (Jer. 31:34 NIV) All sorts of sinful people—even prostitutes and corrupt tax collectors—came to Jesus and received forgiveness of their sins. This forgiveness is a free gift, not earned by good works.

Jesus is still, "the way, the truth and the life," and you yourself can come to God the Father through Jesus right now. Turn to him in prayer, and tell him that you want to receive the salvation Jesus offers, and that you want to follow Jesus as your Lord. He will change your life now and give you eternal life in happiness under his Kingdom.

you know him, and have seen him.”

8 Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.”

9 Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip?

He who has seen me has seen the Father.* How do you say, ‘Show us the Father?’ 10 Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Father who lives in me does his works. 11 Believe me

* 14:9 Besides promising forgiveness of sins, the prophecy of Jeremiah 31:34 also went on to say, “‘they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,’ declares the LORD.” This did not mean just additional details of knowledge or information about God, but actually knowing God personally. How? By personally living with Jesus Christ, the Son of God, on a day-to-day basis. When Philip asked to see the Father, “Jesus answered: ‘Don’t you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, “Show us the Father?”’” (John 14:9 NIV)

† The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being,” according to Hebrews 1:3 (NIV). So, those who actually lived with Jesus could get to know the Almighty God in this new, intimate way that was not possible for people who just “study the Scriptures” as the Pharisees did. (John 5:39 NIV) The ‘knowing the LORD’ that Jeremiah prophesied about is this sort of close, personal relationship with God through His Son.

‡ And Jeremiah was not offering a new covenant for just a handful of people in the first century. Rather, it would be God’s way of dealing with people from that time onward.

§ For example, Saul of Tarsus, who later became known as the Apostle Paul, had grown up an observant Jew, studying the Scriptures under prominent scholars. He already knew a lot about God, but he did not truly know God personally. Paul’s new, closer relationship with God through His Son began when Jesus appeared to Paul on the road to Damascus. (Acts 9:4) Later on, Paul told of occasions when “Lord stood at my side and gave me strength” (2 Tim. 4:17 NIV), and when Paul spoke to the Lord about his “thorn in my flesh.” (2 Cor. 12:7-9) As a zealous Jew, Paul had had a relationship with God before, but only from a distance. Now, as a Christian, he really knew God.

¶ The new covenant was established at the Last Supper with the Son of God sitting privately to share a meal with his twelve apostles. The setting was so intimate that John leaned back onto Jesus’ breast to ask him a question. (John 13:25) That intimacy was to continue, as Jesus made clear in the words that he prayed in the hearing of his apostles:

“My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us . . . Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me. I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them.”—John 17:20-26 NIV

¶ Jesus promised his continuing presence with his disciples: “For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”—Matthew 18:20 KJV

¶ In fact, we have Jesus’ promise that

“He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. . . . and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.”—John 14:21-23 KJV

¶ The Living Bible paraphrases it this way:

“When I come back to life again . . . I will only reveal myself to those who love and obey me. The Father will love them too, and we will come to them and live with them.”—vss. 20-23

¶ Even today, “God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ‘Abba! Father!’”—Galatians 4:6 RSV

¶ It is the Christian’s privilege to “know” God through a close, personal relationship with Jesus Christ. If you have not yet done so, tell God right now that you need Jesus as your Savior, and that you want to follow him as your Lord. He invites you:

“Come to me, all of you who are tired from carrying heavy loads, and I will give you rest.”—Matthew 11:28 TEV

¶ “I will never turn away anyone who comes to me.”—John 6:37 TEV

that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works’ sake. 12 Most certainly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to my Father. 13 Whatever you will ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it. 15 If you love me, keep my commandments. 16 I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, that he may be with you forever, 17 the Spirit of truth, whom the world can’t receive; for it doesn’t see him, neither knows him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you. 19 Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also. 20 In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. 21 One who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him.”†

22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?”

23 Jesus answered him, “If a man loves‡ me, he will keep my

† 14:16-21 Rather than appear to us bodily as he did to the disciples during the days immediately following his resurrection, Jesus reveals himself now through the Holy Spirit:

“God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ‘Abba! Father!’”—Galatians 4:6 RSV

‡ You, too, can experience this intimate personal revelation of Christ, according to Jesus’ words at Luke 11:10-13: “For every one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”—Luke 11:10-13 RSV

† 14:23 Even in churches that recognize what the Bible says about sin, it has become popular to excuse churchgoers or relatives who practice sin. ‘I know they aren’t living right,’ it is said, ‘but they love the Lord.’

Do such practitioners of sin really love the Lord? No, not according to what the Lord himself said. Jesus said it repeatedly, to emphasize the point:

“If you love me, keep my commands. . . . Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. . . . Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching. . . . Anyone who does not love me will not obey my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him. 24 He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the Father's who sent me. 25 I have said these things to you, while still living with you. 26 But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. 27 Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, do I give to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. 28 You heard how I told you, 'I go away, and I come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said 'I am going to my Father;' for the Father is greater than I. 29 Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. 30 I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in me. 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. 2 Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3 You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. 5 I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. 6 If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.

8 "In this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples. 9 Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even teaching."—John 14:15-24 NIV

So those who live sinful lives contrary to Jesus' teachings do not love the Lord—regardless of the words or emotions they may express. Jesus said such people do not love him. If they don't obey him, they don't love the Lord.

* 15:5-6 Compare what Paul wrote to Christians in Rome:

"You will say then, 'Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in.' Granted. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either. Consider therefore the kindness and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off."—Romans 11:19-22 NIV as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love. 11 I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full.

12 "This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. 15 No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you. 16 You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

17 "I command these things to you, that you may love one another. 18 If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you. 19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20 Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his lord.' John 13:16 If they persecuted me, they will also persecute† you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things they will do to you for my name's sake, because they don't know him who sent me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23 He who hates me, hates my Father also. 24 If I hadn't done among them the works which no one else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Father. 25 But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.' Psalms 35:19; 69:4

† 5:18-20 Jesus' first followers experienced this persecution and hatred in ancient Palestine and throughout the Roman Empire, and today, too, there are large areas of the earth where Christians face intense persecution, most notably in China, India, North Korea, and dozens of Muslim nations. And even in the nations of Christendom there have been long episodes when true Bible-believing Christians have been persecuted by governments and by church leaders who were "Christian" in name only—such as during the Inquisition.

The 'Arab Spring' that many hoped would bring democracy to North Africa and the Middle East has instead brought the rise of radical Islam, resulting in the violent persecution of Christian communities that had thrived in those regions for centuries.

Many observers see a new wave of persecution coming in Western nations, too, as people toss aside biblical morality, making heroes of celebrities who practice sin and sexual immorality, and making it punishable as a "hate crime" to speak out against such sins. With the news media vilifying those who uphold the teachings of the New Testament on these matters, it seems only a matter of time before followers of Jesus are again persecuted in Europe and the Americas.

26 “When the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me. 27 You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 “These things I have spoken to you, so that you wouldn’t be caused to stumble. 2 They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God. 3 They will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me. 4 But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn’t tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. 5 But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ 6 But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don’t go away, the Counselor won’t come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. 8 When he has come, he will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment; 9 about sin, because they don’t believe in me; 10 about righteousness, because I am going to my Father, and you won’t see me any more; 11 about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

12 “I have yet many things to tell you, but you can’t bear them now. 13 However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you things that are coming. 14 He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you. 15 All things whatever the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes of mine, and will declare it to you. 16 A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me.”

17 Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, “What is this that he says to us, ‘A little while, and you won’t see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;’ and, ‘Because I go to the Father?’” 18 They said therefore, “What is this that he says, ‘A little while’? We don’t know what he is saying.”

19 Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, “Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, ‘A little while, and you won’t see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?’ 20 Most certainly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. 21 A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn’t remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. 22 Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

23 “In that day you will ask me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. 24 Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. 25 I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. 26 In that day you will ask in my name; and I don’t say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you, 27 for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came from God. 28 I came from the Father, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.”

29 His disciples said to him, “Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech. 30 Now we know that you know all things, and don’t need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came from God.”

31 Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? 32 Behold, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. 33 I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world.”

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 Jesus said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said,

“Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; 2 even as you gave him authority over all flesh, he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. 3 This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ. 4 I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do. 5 Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed.

6 “I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. 7 Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, 8 for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me.

9 “I pray for them. I don’t pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. 10 All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. 11 I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father,

* 16:2 During the early decades of Christianity, zealous Jews put Christians to death, thinking they were serving God by doing this, as was the case with those who stoned Stephen to death. (Acts 7:54-60)

Today it is Islam that takes such a position. ‘If you become a Christian, we will kill you.’ That is what Islam teaches more than a billion of its followers worldwide.

Sometimes the death sentence is imposed by governments. Other times the execution is carried out by neighborhood thugs. But it is the official position of Islamic authorities that Muslim converts to Christianity must be killed according to Islamic law. And it is a threat that does not have to be carried out very often to accomplish its intended result—to intimidate Muslims and prevent them from choosing to follow Jesus.

keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are.

12 "While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 "But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. 14 I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. 19 For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.

20 "Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who[†] believe in me through their word, 21 that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me. 22 The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; 23 I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me.

24 "Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world. 25 Righteous Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me. 26 I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. 2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. 3 Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went out, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

5 They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth."

Jesus said to them, "I am he."

Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. 6 When therefore he said to them, "I am he," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," 9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."

10 Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. 11 Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not surely drink it?"

12 So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, 13 and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. 15 Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; 16 but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17 Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?"

He said, "I am not."

18 Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. 19 The high priest then asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret. 21 Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said."

22 When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

23 Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?"

24 Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. 25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You aren't also one of his disciples, are you?"

He denied it, and said, "I am not."

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"

27 Peter then denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

28 Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might

* 17:16-17 It is God's written Word, the Bible, that 'sanctifies' Christians—setting them apart as holy.

Believing the Bible and obeying the instructions it contains for the Christian life style separates believers from those around them who live according to the standards of this world.

† 17:20 After praying for his initial disciples, Jesus added these words about future believers.

He prayed that they would all be one, and that they would end up with him in heaven, to behold his glory.

not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. 29 Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

30 They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you."

31 Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law."

Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," 32 that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

33 Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

35 Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"

36 Jesus answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jews. But now my Kingdom is not from here."

37 Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?"

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

38 Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. 39 But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

40 Then they all shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 So Pilate then took Jesus, and flogged him. 2 The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. 3 They kept saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they kept slapping him.

4 Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him."

5 Jesus then came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!"

6 When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!"

Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him."

7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

8 When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. 9 He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Pilate therefore said to him, "Aren't you speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?"

11 Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin."

12 At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." 14 Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold, your King!"

15 They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!"

Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?"

The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

16 So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led him away. 17 He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called "The Place of a Skull," which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha," 18 where they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus in the middle. 19 Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS." 20 Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. 21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'he said, I am King of the Jews.'"

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says,

"They parted my garments among them.

For my cloak they cast lots." Psalms 22:18

Therefore the soldiers did these things. 25 But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold your son!" 27 Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.

28 After this, Jesus, seeing that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty." 29 Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

31 Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; 33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs. 34 However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. 36 For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken." Exodus 12:46; Numbers 9:12; Psalm 34:20 37 Again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced." Zechariah 12:10

38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus' body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. 39 Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds. 40 So they took Jesus' body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. 42 Then because of the Jews' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. 2 Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!"

3 Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. 4 They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first. 5 Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he didn't enter in. 6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, 7 and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. 9 For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

11 But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, 12 and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him." 14 When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

16 Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned and said to him, "Rabboni!" which is to say, "Teacher!"

17 Jesus said to her, "Don't hold me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her. 19 Then when it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

20 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus then said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." 22 When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit! 23 If you forgive anyone's sins, they have been forgiven them. If you retain anyone's sins, they have been retained."

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

26 After eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the middle, and said, "Peace be to you." 27 Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing."

28 Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!”

29 Jesus said to him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed.”*

30 Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; 31 but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. 2 Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. 3 Simon Peter said to them, “I’m going fishing.”

They told him, “We are also coming with you.” They immediately went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. 4 But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn’t know that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus therefore said to them, “Children, have you anything to eat?”

They answered him, “No.”

6 He said to them, “Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.”

They cast it therefore, and now they weren’t able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. 7 That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!”

So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish. 9 So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. 10 Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have just caught.”

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn’t torn.

12 Jesus said to them, “Come and eat breakfast.”

None of the disciples dared inquire of him,

“Who are you?” knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. 14 This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. 15 So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?”

He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.”

He said to him, “Feed my lambs.” 16 He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?”

He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.”

He said to him, “Tend my sheep.” 17 He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?”

Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, “Do you have affection for me?” He said to him, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you.”

Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. 18 Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don’t want to go.”

19 Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, “Follow me.”

20 Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus’ breast at the supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray You?” 21 Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, “Lord, what about this man?”

22 Jesus said to him, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me.” 23 This saying therefore went out among the brothers, that this disciple wouldn’t die. Yet Jesus didn’t say to him that he wouldn’t die, but, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?” 24 This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. 25 There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn’t have room for the books that would be written.

* 20:24-29 Are you like doubting Thomas? Do you have difficulty believing what you have not seen with your own eyes?

The divine Author of the Bible understands. He does not hold that against you. In fact, his Word the Bible encourages fact-based faith, not blind faith. Hebrews 11:1 says that, “faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen.” Or, as the American King James Version puts it, “faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” The Bible contains enough proof and evidence to convince even the most skeptical mind—along with biblical archaeology, and secular history that documents the fulfillment of prophecy.

People with blind faith have followed many false messiahs who have disappointed them. But people who examine the evidence in Scripture and put faith in Jesus “will not be disappointed.” Romans 10:11 tells us, “Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed.”

ACTS

CHAPTER ONE

1 The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, 2 until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. 3 To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's Kingdom. 4 Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me. 5 For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

6 Therefore when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

7 He said to them, "It isn't for you to know* times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

9 When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. 10 While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing, 11 who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This

Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky will come back†

* 1:6-7 Jesus told them "it isn't for you to know" the answer to their question, but he did tell them what they were to do in the meantime. Essentially, he told them to 'mind their own business' and made clear what their business was—the witnessing work he assigned them to do.

We should keep this in mind. As we look eagerly for Christ's return and the end of this wicked world, our focus should be on doing what Jesus told us to do, rather than speculating about matters that the Bible leaves unclear.

† 1:11 Jesus devoted a significant portion of his preaching and teaching to the subject of his second coming—his return in power, and the end of the world. Similarly, his apostles and disciples who wrote the New Testament under divine inspiration also spoke at length about Christ's return. Sadly, the subject is seldom mentioned in churches today—churches that have lost sight of the real, biblical Jesus and the message he gave his followers to preach.

Jesus spoke repeatedly to the disciples about his return, his second coming. It will not be like his humble birth in a barn or his submissive death on the cross. Rather, Jesus said he will return with great power and glory: "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky." —Mark 13:26-27

Jesus will return as King of the kingdom of God. When he was put on trial before the high court of the Jews, and the high priest demanded to know whether Jesus was the Christ, the Son of God, "Jesus said to him, 'You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky.'" —Matthew 26:64 in the same way as you saw him going into the sky."

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. 13 When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. 14 All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

15 In these days, Peter stood up in the middle of the disciples (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said, 16 "Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus. 17 For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry." 18 (Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out. 19 It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem, so that in their language that field was called 'Akeldama,' that is, 'The field of blood.')

20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms,

'Let his habitation be made desolate.

Jesus knew that the Jewish religious leaders would understand this to be a reference to the book of Daniel, where the prophet wrote,

"I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed." —Daniel 7:13-14

Many of Jesus' parables are devoted to the subject of his return in power, describing how people would be caught by surprise, and would be rewarded or punished at that time. You may wish to read, for example, the parable of the ten virgins, the parable of the talents, and the parable of the sheep and the goats—all found in the twenty-fifth chapter of the Gospel of Matthew—and the parable of the faithful and wise servant at the end of the twenty-fourth chapter.

Jesus encouraged us to "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. . . . be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him." —Matthew 24:42-44 NIV

We can "be ready" by living our lives the way the Bible teaches us to live, and we can "keep watch" by eagerly praying for Christ's return and by paying attention to world events that point to the imminence of his coming.

Jesus went to heaven visibly; the disciples had just seen him go into heaven. Would he come back in a secret rapture—invisibly? No, the angel said "this same Jesus" will "come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."

A number of sects have taught that Christ would return invisibly. The Jehovah's Witnesses have long held to the belief that Christ returned invisibly in the year 1914. Originally, however, they taught that the second coming occurred in 1874—a date they borrowed from an Adventist splinter group that Watch Tower founder Charles Taze Russell had associated with as a young man. Certain Adventists had anticipated a visible return of Christ in 1874 but, when nothing happened, they embraced the invisible-return theory instead. (See my book Jehovah's Witnesses Answered Subject by Subject, pages 19-27 and 183-186.)

However, Christ's return "in the same way" the apostles "saw" him go to heaven precludes any teaching of an invisible return.

Let no one dwell therein;’ Psalm 69:25
and,

‘Let another take his office.’ Psalm 109:8

21 “Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection.”

23 They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias. 24 They prayed, and said, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen 25 to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.” 26 They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2 Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. 4 They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. 5 Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under the sky. 6 When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. 7 They were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, “Behold, aren’t all these who speak Galileans? 8 How do we hear, everyone in our own native language? 9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, 10 Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabians: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of God!” 12 They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” 13 Others, mocking, said, “They are filled with new wine.”

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, “You men of Judea, and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. 15 For these aren’t drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day. 16 But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel:

17 ‘It will be in the last days, says God,
that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.
Your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your young men will see visions.
Your old men will dream dreams.

18 Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days,
I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy.

19 I will show wonders in the sky above, and signs on the earth beneath;
blood, and fire, and billows of smoke.

20 The sun will be turned into darkness,

and the moon into blood,
before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

21 It will be that whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.’ Joel 2:28-32

22 “Men of Israel, hear these words! Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by him among you, even as you yourselves know, 23 him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by the hand of lawless men, crucified and killed; 24 whom God raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. 25 For David says concerning him,

‘I saw the Lord always before my face,

For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced.

Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope;

27 because you will not leave my soul in Hades, neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay.

28 You made known to me the ways of life.

You will make me full of gladness with your presence.’ Psalm 16:8-11

29 “Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne, 31 he foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was his soul left in Hades, nor did his flesh see decay. 32 This Jesus God raised up, to which we all are witnesses. 33 Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this, which you now see and hear. 34 For David didn’t ascend into the heavens, but he says himself,

‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit by my right hand,

35 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.”’ Psalm 110:1

36 “Let all the house of Israel therefore know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?”

38 Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all* who are far off, even

* 2:38-39 The Christian message is still the same today. And the promise is to us, as well, not just to those disciples back in the first as many as the Lord our God will call to himself.” 40 With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation!”

41 Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls. 42 They continued steadfastly in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer. 43 Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. 44 All who believed were together, and had all things in common. 45 They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. 46 Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 2 A certain man who was lame from his mother’s womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple. 3 Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy. 4 Peter, fastening his eyes on him, with John, said, “Look at us.” 5 He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, “Silver and gold have I none, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!” 7 He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. 8 Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. 9 All the people saw him walking and praising God. 10 They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. 11 As the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon’s, greatly wondering.

12 When Peter saw it, he responded to the people, “You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk? 13 The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. 14 But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15 and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses. 16 By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 “Now, brothers, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. 18 But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

19 “Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, 20 and that he may send Christ Jesus, who was ordained for you before, 21 whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by the mouth of his holy prophets. 22 For Moses indeed said to the fathers, ‘The Lord God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says to you. 23 It will be that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.’ Deuteronomy 18:15,18-19 24 Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. 25 You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘In your offspring will all the families of the earth be blessed.’ Genesis 22:18; 26:4 26 God, having raised up his servant Jesus, sent him to you first to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your wickedness.”

CHAPTER FOUR

1 As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them, 2 being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. 4 But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 In the morning, their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem. 6 Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. 7 When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, 9 if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, 10 be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in him does this man stand here before you whole. 11 He is ‘the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.’ Psalms 118:22 12 There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, by which we must be saved!”

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Jesus.

14 Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, "What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can't deny it. 17 But so that this spreads no further among the people, let's threaten them, that from now on they don't speak to anyone in this name."

18 They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach* in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, 20 for we can't help telling the things which we saw and heard."

21 When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. 22 For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

23 Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. 24 When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "O Lord, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; 25 who by the mouth of your servant, David, said,

'Why do the nations rage,
and the peoples plot a vain thing?

26 The kings of the earth take a stand,
and the rulers take council together, against the Lord, and against his Christ.' Psalms 2:1-2

27 "For truly, in this city against your holy servant, Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together 28 to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen. 29 Now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness, 30 while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Jesus."

31 When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. 32 The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33 With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Great grace was on them all. 34 For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, 35 and laid them at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need. 36 Joses, who by the apostles was also called Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, 37 having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira, his wife, sold a possession, 2 and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? 4 While you kept it, didn't it remain your own? After it was sold, wasn't it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You haven't lied to men, but to God."

5 Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things. 6 The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. 7 About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. 8 Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much."

She said, "Yes, for so much."

9 But Peter asked her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

10 She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11 Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things. 12 By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. 13 None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. 14 More believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women. 15 They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some of them. 16 Multitudes also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

17 But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, 18 and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody. 19 But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said, 20 "Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."

* 4:18-20 What should Christians today do when commanded by the authorities not to preach or teach the Gospel message found in the Bible—or not to teach parts of the Bible that they find objectionable? Peter and John set the example for us.

21 When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22 But the officers who came didn't find them in the prison. They returned and reported, 23 "We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"

24 Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. 25 One came and told them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

27 When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them, 28 saying, "Didn't we strictly command you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

29 But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree. 31 God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 We are His witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

33 But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and determined to kill them. 34 But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the apostles out for a little while. 35 He said to them, "You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. 36 For before these days Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. 37 After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown. 39 But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!"

40 They agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Jesus' name.

42 Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and preaching Jesus, the Christ.

CHAPTER SIX

1 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. 2 The twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. 3 Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."

5 These words pleased the whole multitude. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch; 6 whom they set before the apostles. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. 7 The word of God increased and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly. A great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. 9 But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines," and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. 10 They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. 11 Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." 12 They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, 13 and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. 14 For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." 15 All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 The high priest said, "Are these things so?"

2 He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, 3 and said to him, 'Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.' Genesis 12:1 4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God moved him into this land, where you are now living. 5 He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring after him, when he still had no child. 6 God spoke in this way: that his offspring would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. 7 'I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said God, 'and after that will they come out, and serve me in this place.' Genesis 15:13-14 8 He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

9 "The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt. God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. 13 On the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's race was revealed to Pharaoh. 14 Joseph sent, and summoned Jacob, his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls. 15 Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, himself and our fathers, 16 and they were brought back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor of Shechem.

17 "But as the time of the promise came close which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 until there arose a different king, who didn't know Joseph. 19 The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they wouldn't stay alive. 20 At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father's house. 21 When he was thrown out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son. 22 Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was mighty in his words and works. 23 But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Israel. 24 Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian. 25 He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand.

26 "The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, 'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?' 27 But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' Exodus 2:14 29 Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

30 "When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of the Lord came to him, 32 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' Exodus 3:6 Moses trembled, and dared not look. 33 The Lord said to him, 'Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. 34 I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.' Exodus 3:5,7-8,10

35 "This Moses, whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'—God sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years. 37 This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, 'The Lord your God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me.' Deuteronomy 18:15 38 This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living revelations to give to us, 39 to whom our fathers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt, 40 saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.' Exodus 32:1 41 They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned, and gave them up to serve the army of the sky, as it is written in the book of the prophets,

'Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

43 You took up the tabernacle of Moloch, the star of your god Rephan, the figures which you used to worship.

I will carry you away beyond Babylon.' Amos 5:25-27

44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen; 45 which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David, 46 who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob. 47 But Solomon built him a house. 48 However, the Most High doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says, 49 'Heaven is my throne, and the earth a footstool for my feet.

What kind of house will you build me?' says the Lord;

'or what is the place of my rest?

50 Didn't my hand make all these things?' Isaiah 66:1-2

51 "You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so you do. 52 Which of the prophets didn't your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers. 53 You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn't keep it!"

54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him with one accord. 58 They threw him out of the city, and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. 59 They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" 60 He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, don't hold this sin against them!" When he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. 2 Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. 3 But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. 4 Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word. 5 Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ. 6 The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. 7 For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. 8 There was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one, 10 to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that great power of God." 11 They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip preaching good news concerning God's Kingdom and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Simon himself also believed. Being baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, he was amazed.

14 Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, 15 who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; 16 for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of Christ Jesus. 17 Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. 18 Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, 19 saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit." 20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't right before God. 22 Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. 23 For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."

24 Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."

25 They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans. 26 But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is a desert.

27 He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship. 28 He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

29 The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."

30 Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this,

"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter.

As a lamb before his shearer is silent,
so he doesn't open his mouth.

33 In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away.

Who will declare His generation?

For his life is taken from the earth." Isaiah 53:7,8

34 The eunuch answered Philip, "Who is the prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone else?"

35 Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him Jesus. 36 As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being baptized?"

[Some manuscripts do not include verse 37.—Editor 37 Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." He answered, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."] 38 He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the

* 7:59-60 Stephen was killed, but trusted in Jesus and faithfully bore witness to Jesus to the very end. He called out to Jesus in prayer with his final breath.

Over the centuries since then countless numbers of Christians have died for their faith. And even today many who are given the choice between converting to Islam or being killed are following faithfully the example that Stephen set.

eunuch didn't see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

CHAPTER NINE

1 But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, 2 and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 As he traveled, he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him. 4 He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

5 He said, "Who are you, Lord?"

The Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 6 But rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7 The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one. 8 Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. 9 He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!"

He said, "Behold, it's me, Lord."

11 The Lord said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judah for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, 12 and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight."

13 But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem. 14 Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."

15 But the Lord said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel. 16 For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake."

17 Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized. 19 He took food and was strengthened. Saul stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus. 20 Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed the Christ, that he is the Son of God. 21 All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!"

22 But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ. 23 When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him, 24 but their plot became known to

Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, 25 but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. 26 When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 He was with them entering into Jerusalem, 29 preaching boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus. He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill him. 30 When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. 31 So the assemblies throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

32 As Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. 33 There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. 34 Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose. 35 All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated, means Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. 37 In those days, she became sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. 38 As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. 39 Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. 40 Peter sent them all out, and knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. 43 He stayed many days in Joppa with a tanner named Simon.

CHAPTER TEN

1 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, 2 a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. 3 At about the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

4 He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord?"

He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. 5 Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is also called Peter. 6 He lodges with a tanner named Simon, whose house is by the seaside.”

7 When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. 8 Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. 9 Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. 10 He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. 11 He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, 12 in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. 13 A voice came to him, “Rise, Peter, kill and eat!”

14 But Peter said, “Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean.”

15 A voice came to him again the second time, “What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean.” 16 This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. 17 Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon’s house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was lodging there. 19 While Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Behold, three men seek you. 20 But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them.”

21 Peter went down to the men, and said, “Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?”

22 They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say.” 23 So he called them in and provided a place to stay. On the next day Peter arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. 24 On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends. 25 When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. 26 But Peter raised him up, saying, “Stand up! I myself am also a man.” 27 As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. 28 He said to them, “You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn’t call any man unholy or unclean. 29 Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?”

30 Cornelius said, “Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour, I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to Joppa, and summon Simon, who is also called Peter. He lodges in the house of a tanner named Simon, by the seaside. When he comes, he will speak to you.’ 33 Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God.”

34 Peter opened his mouth and said, “Truly I perceive that God doesn’t show favoritism; 35 but in every nation he who fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him. 36 The word which he sent to the children of Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all— 37 you yourselves know what happened, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. 39 We are witnesses of everything he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they also killed, hanging him on a tree. 40 God raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed, 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that this is he who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead. 43 All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him will receive remission of sins.”

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. 45 They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles. 46 For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered, 47 “Can anyone forbid

* 10:43 The Apostle Peter points out that the ancient Hebrew prophets spoke in advance about the coming of the Messiah.

The ancient Hebrew writers of the Old Testament wrote hundreds of years before Christ, but their writings include a number of prophecies that were fulfilled centuries later in the life and ministry of Jesus. “Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.”—Luke 24:27

For example, Micah 5:2 indicates that the promised Messiah would come from the town of Bethlehem in Judah, and this actually took place when Jesus was born in Bethlehem as recorded at Matthew 2:1-6 and Luke 2:4-7.

Psalm 22, written by king David roughly a thousand years before Christ, begins with words Jesus would speak on the cross (verse 1; compare Matt. 27:46 and Mark 15:34), goes on to describe how they would pierce his hands and his feet (verse 16), how enemies would ridicule him as he hung on the cross (verses 7-8; compare Matt. 27:41-43), and how they would cast lots and divide his clothing (verse 18; compare Matt. 27:35, Mark 15:24, Luke 23:34 and John 19:24).

Other prophecies that Jesus fulfilled include that he would be born of a virgin, that he would be a descendant of king David, that he would live in Nazareth, that he would preach in Galilee, that he would be betrayed for thirty pieces of silver, and that he would be buried in a rich man’s tomb. There are actually dozens of Old Testament prophecies that were fulfilled in Christ.

these people from being baptized with water? They have received the Holy Spirit just like us." 48 He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay some days.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. 2 When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!"

4 But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying, 5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me. 6 When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky. 7 I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter, kill and eat!' 8 But I said, 'Not so, Lord, for nothing unholly or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.' 9 But a voice answered me a second time out of heaven, 'What God has cleansed, don't you call unclean.' 10 This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. 11 Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. 12 The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house. 13 He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, 'Send to Joppa, and get Simon, who is called Peter, 14 who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.' 15 As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. 16 I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.' 17 If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?"

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life!"

19 They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. 20 But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. 22 The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch, 23 who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Lord. 24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

25 Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul. 26 When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians* in Antioch.

27 Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius. 29 As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; 30 which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Now about that time, King Herod stretched out his hands to oppress some of the assembly. 2 He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. 3 When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread. 4 When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. 5 Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the assembly to God for him. 6 The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands. 8 The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me." 9 And he went out and followed him. He didn't know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. 10 When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

11 When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting." 12 Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John who was called Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. 13 When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. 14 When she recognized Peter's voice, she didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in, and

* 11:26 The first "Christians" were all Jews, but it was only a small minority of the Jewish people who accepted Jesus as their promised Messiah. These Jews formed the nucleus of congregations that met together to share encouragement.

Gentiles too accepted the message, and they soon outnumbered the Messianic Jewish believers. Unable to read Hebrew, most of these Gentile believers heard or read the message in their contemporary universal Greek language and referred to themselves as followers of "Christ." It was in such a mixed congregation of Jewish and Gentile converts in ancient Antioch that the disciples were first called "Christians."

reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

15 They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel." 16 But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17 But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James, and to the brothers." Then he departed, and went to another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. 19 When Herod had sought for him, and didn't find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there. 20 Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. 21 On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. 22 The people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" 23 Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he didn't give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

24 But the word of God grew and multiplied. 25 Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John who was called Mark.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them."

3 Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. 4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. 5 When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also John as their attendant. 6 When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar Jesus, 7 who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. 9 But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, 10 and said, "Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? 11 Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!"

Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him.

He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. 15 After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."

16 Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. 17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. 18 For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. 19 When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred fifty years. 20 After these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. 21 Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. 22 When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.' 23 From this man's offspring, God has brought a savior, Jesus, to Israel according to his promise, 24 John having first preached, before his coming, the baptism of repentance to Israel. 25 As John was fulfilling his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.' 26 Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to you. 27 For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they didn't know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28 Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed. 29 When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God raised him from the dead, 31 and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. 32 We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers, 33 that God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that he raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm,

"You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.' Psalms 2:7

34 "Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: 'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.' Isaiah 55:3 35 Therefore he says also in another psalm, 'You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.' Psalms 16:10 36 For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay. 37 But he whom God raised up saw no decay. 38 Be it known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins, 39 and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets:

41 'Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish;

for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.'" Habakkuk 1:5

42 So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. 44 The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. 45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed.

46 Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that God's word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. 47 For so has the Lord commanded us, saying,

'I have set you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'" Isaiah 49:6

48 As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed. 49 The Lord's word was spread abroad throughout all the region. 50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders. 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. 52 The disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 In Iconium, they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and spoke, so that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. 2 But the disbelieving Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. 3 Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles. 5 When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, 6 they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. 7 There they preached the Good News.

8 At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9 He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, 10 said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked. 11 When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12 They called Barnabas "Jupiter," and Paul "Mercury," because he was the chief speaker. 13 The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes. 14 But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out, 15 "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; 16 who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. 17 Yet he didn't leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness."

18 Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them. 19 But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

20 But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22 confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into God's Kingdom. 23 When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

24 They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. 25 When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. 26 From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. 27 When they had the letters of the Apostle Paul focus largely on localities that now lie in modern-day Turkey—Lystra, Iconium, Derbe, Galatia, Ephesus, Colossae. Tradition has it that the Christian church in Antioch, Turkey, near the border with Syria, was founded by the Apostle Peter in the year 37 A.D. And it was there that the term "Christians" was first used: "The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch."—Acts 11:26

Today Turkey is 99.8% Muslim. It is illegal for Christians to preach the Gospel to Muslims, and Muslims who choose to follow Jesus may face violence and even death.

According to tradition the Christian Gospel was brought to Iraq by two of the original Twelve Apostles—Thomas and Thaddeus. And Iraq was largely Christian for centuries prior to the Islamic invasion. Modern Iraq is now 97% Muslim. Christians are forbidden to preach the Gospel to the Islamic majority, and Muslims who convert to Christianity may be killed.

arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations. 28 They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you can't be saved." 2 Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. 3 They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers. 4 When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.

5 But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

6 The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. 7 When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe. 8 God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us. 9 He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. 10 Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they are."

12 All the multitude kept silence, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them. 13 After they were silent, James answered, "Brothers, listen to me. 14 Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for his name. 15 This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written,

16 'After these things I will return.

I will again build the tabernacle of David, which has fallen.

I will again build its ruins.

I will set it up,

17 That the rest of men may seek after the Lord;

all the Gentiles who are called by my name,

says the Lord, who does all these things. Amos 9:11-12

18 All of God's works are known to him from eternity.'

19 "Therefore my judgment is that we don't trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God, 20 but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood. 21 For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole assembly, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers. 23 They wrote these things by their hand:

"The apostles, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings. 24 Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, 'You must be circumcised and keep the law,' to whom we gave no such commandment; 25 it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: 29 that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell."

30 So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. 31 When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. 32 Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. 33 After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to the apostles. [Some manuscripts add verse 34—Editor.: 34 But it seemed good to Silas to stay there.] 35 But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing." 37 Barnabas planned to take John, who was called Mark, with them also. 38 But Paul didn't think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn't go with them to do the work. 39 Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus, 40 but Paul chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God. 41 He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek. 2 The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him. 3 Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. 5 So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. 7 When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn't allow them. 8 Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9 A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us." 10 When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the Good News to them. 11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city.

13 On the Sabbath day we went outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together. 14 A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 When she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay." So she persuaded us.

16 As we were going to prayer, a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. 17 Following Paul and us, she cried out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us a way of salvation!" 18 She was doing this for many days.

But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" It came out that very hour. 19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. 20 When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Jews, are agitating our city, 21 and advocate customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."

22 The multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore their clothes off of them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23 When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely, 24 who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.

25 But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened. 27 The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, "Don't harm yourself, for we are all here!"

29 He called for lights, sprang in, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas, 30 brought them out, and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31 They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.

33 He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household. 34 He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

35 But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go."

36 The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!"

38 The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, 39 and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. 40 They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. 2 Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3 explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ."

4 Some of them were persuaded, and joined Paul and Silas, of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women. 5 But the unpersuaded Jews took along some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people. 6 When they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also, 7 whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus!" 8 The multitude and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things. 9 When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go. 10 The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.

11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures* daily to see whether these things were so.

12 Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men. 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Berea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes. 14 Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there. 15 But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a command to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. 18 Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?"

Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.

19 They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you? 20 For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean." 21 Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

22 Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. 23 For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. 24 The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, 25 neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things. 26 He made from one blood every nation† of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings, 27 that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. 28 'For in him we live, and move, and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.' 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. 30 The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent,‡

31 because he has appointed a days in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead."

32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."

33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

1 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. 2 He found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them, 3 and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers. 4 He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks. 5 But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. 6 When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!"

7 He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8 Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized. 9 The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Don't be afraid, but speak and don't be silent; 10 for I am with you,

* 17:11 The writer of Acts commends those who diligently look into the Bible to verify whether what they are being taught is true. The Bereans listened to Paul's sermons, but did not just gullibly accept whatever he told them. Instead, they read the Hebrew Scriptures for themselves, to see whether his teaching was accurate.

We should do likewise today. The Apostle Paul wrote that "the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires, and will turn away their ears from the truth." (2 Tim. 4:3-4 NASB) We are living in such a time today, when many churches have hired pastors to teach a watered-down message that won't offend anyone, rather than the message found in the Scriptures.

So, it is the duty of lay people to act like the Bereans—to read and study the Bible daily for themselves, rather than simply accept whatever they hear from the pulpit in church. Pastors who object to this are not following Paul's example, and therefore make themselves and their teaching more suspect—giving us all the more reason to check whether the things they say from the pulpit are really so.

† 17:26 As detailed in the Bible book of Genesis, the entire human race is one big family, related to one another by common descent from the first human pair, Adam and Eve. This fact eliminates the basis for any boasting or claims of racial superiority.

‡ 17:30 Have you lived until now in ignorance of God and his written Word? God calls on all people to "repent" or as the New Century Version of the Bible interprets that word, "change your hearts and lives." Read the Bible for yourself. As you read, ask God for understanding, for insight, for faith to believe, and for strength to walk in his ways.

§ 17:31 That appointed day is coming soon. Will you be ready?

and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city.”

11 He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. 12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, 13 saying, “This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law.”

14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you; 15 but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don’t want to be a judge of these matters.” 16 He drove them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio didn’t care about any of these things.

18 Paul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow. 19 He came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. 20 When they asked him to stay with them a longer time, he declined; 21 but taking his leave of them, and saying, “I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you if God wills,” he set sail from Ephesus.

22 When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch. 23 Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples. 24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures. 25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John. 26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

27 When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; 28 for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples. 2 He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

They said to him, “No, we haven’t even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

3 He said, “Into what then were you baptized?”

They said, “Into John’s baptism.”

4 Paul said, “John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus.”

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied. 7 They were about twelve men in all. 8 He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning God’s Kingdom.

9 But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul, 12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out. 13 But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, “We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.” 14 There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.

15 The evil spirit answered, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?” 16 The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. 19 Many of those who practiced magical* arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted their price, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty.

21 Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”

22 Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. 23 About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way.

* 19:19 Are the “magical arts” acceptable in a Christian church? Revelation 22:15 says, “Outside are the dogs, those who practise magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practises falsehood.” (NIV) So, people who “practice magic arts” end up receiving the same judgment from God as murderers and worshipers of idols.

What if you have been involved in such practices? Is there any hope for you? Yes, by putting faith in Jesus Christ, you can be set free, and can be forgiven for all your sins. Jesus will help you put the sin of sorcery behind you, and will help you learn His righteous ways of living. When the first century Apostles of Christ went preaching the Gospel throughout pre-Christian Europe and Asia, they encountered many pagans who practiced magic, witchcraft and sorcery. Acts 19:19 tells us what these people did when they became Christian believers.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, 25 whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth. 26 You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but throughout almost all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are not gods, that are made with hands. 27 Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worship."

28 When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29 The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. 30 When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow him. 31 Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater. 32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together. 33 They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people. 34 But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

35 When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? 36 Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. 37 For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess. 38 If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. 39 But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning today's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion." 41 When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. 2 When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. 3 When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. 4 These accompanied him as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe;

Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. 5 But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. 6 We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

7 On the first day of the week, when the disciples were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight. 8 There were many lights in the upper room where we were gathered together. 9 A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third floor, and was taken up dead. 10 Paul went down, and fell upon him, and embracing him said, "Don't be troubled, for his life is in him."

11 When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. 12 They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

13 But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. 14 When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene. 15 Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the assembly. 18 When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, 19 serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; 20 how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, 21 testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus. 22 Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there; 23 except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. 24 But these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

25 "Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about preaching God's Kingdom, will see my face no more. 26 Therefore I testify to you today that I am clean from the blood of all men, 27 for I didn't shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. 28 Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of God which he purchased with his own blood. 29 For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves* will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. 30 Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. 31 Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I didn't cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. 32 Now, brothers, I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33 I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. 34 You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. 35 In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'

36 When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37 They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38 sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 When we had departed from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2 Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. 3 When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo. 4 Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. 5 When those days were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. 6 After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. 8 On the next day, we, who were Paul's companions, departed, and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. 9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. 10 As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. 11 Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

12 When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

14 When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done."

15 After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. 16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.

17 When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. 18 The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. 19 When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry. 20 They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law. 21 They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. 22 What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come. 23 Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. 24 Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law. 25 But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality."

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. 27 When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!" 29 For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

* 20:29-30 The Apostle Paul warned the elders of the church in Ephesus that leaders would arise among them who would mislead the churches. And such "wolves" have been preying on Christ's sheep ever since. So, how can you discern whether a church is really doing God's will? How can you know whether those in leadership are following Jesus, or are leading away followers after themselves?

It is your responsibility to prayerfully read the written Word of God, so that you will be able to distinguish real Christianity from counterfeit religion.

Even real Christian churches—like the seven churches addressed in Revelation chapters 2 and 3—are battle grounds, where some individuals are seeking to follow Christ, while others have a different agenda. It is your personal relationship with Jesus and your knowledge of the Bible that will help you safely navigate the spiritual and moral minefields found in churches today.

30 All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut. 31 As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. 32 Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul. 33 Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done. 34 Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he couldn't find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

35 When he came to the stairs, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!" 37 As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, "May I speak to you?"

He said, "Do you know Greek? 38 Aren't you then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?"

39 But Paul said, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

40 When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

1 "Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you."

2 When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said, 3 "I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict tradition of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are today. 4 I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. 5 As also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. 6 As I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light shone around me from the sky. 7 I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' 8 I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.'

9 "Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn't understand the voice of him who spoke to me. 10 I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.' 11 When I couldn't see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus. 12 One Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus, 13 came to me, and standing by me said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight!' In that very hour I looked up at him. 14 He said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. 15 For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard. 16 Now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.'

17 "When I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, 18 and saw him saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.' 19 I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you. 20 When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.'

21 "He said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles.'

22 They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, "Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn't fit to live!"

23 As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air, 24 the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that. 25 When they had tied him up with thongs, Paul asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?"

26 When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, "Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman!"

27 The commanding officer came and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?"

He said, "Yes."

28 The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship for a great price."

Paul said, "But I was born a Roman."

29 Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him. 30 But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

1 Paul, looking steadfastly at the council, said, "Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until today."

2 The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

3 Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

4 Those who stood by said, "Do you malign God's high priest?"

5 Paul said, "I didn't know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'" Exodus 22:28

 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

7 When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. 9 A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let's not fight against God!"

10 When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

11 The following night, the Lord stood by him, and said, "Cheer up, Paul, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome."

12 When it was day, some of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. 13 There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. 14 They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near."

16 But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul. 17 Paul summoned one of the centurions, and said, "Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him."

18 So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, "Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you."

19 The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

20 He said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. 21 Therefore don't yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you."

22 So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me." 23 He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night." 24 He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. 25 He wrote a letter like this:

26 "Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings.

27 "This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. 28 Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council. 29 I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but not to be charged with anything worthy of death or of imprisonment. 30 When I was told that the Jews lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you. Farewell."

31 So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. 33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. 34 When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said, 35 "I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." He commanded that he be kept in Herod's palace.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

1 After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. 2 When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that excellent measures are coming to this nation, 3 we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But, that I don't delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. 5 For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. 6 He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him. [According to some manuscripts the following also appears between verses 6 and 8—Editor.: We wanted to judge him according to our law, 7 but the commanding officer, Lysias, came by and with great violence took him out of our hands, 8 commanding his accusers to come to you.] 8 By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."

9 The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. 10 When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, 11 seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. 12 Neither in the temple did they find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. 13 Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets; 15 having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. 16 In this I also endeavor always to have a conscience void of offense toward God and men. 17 Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings; 18 amid which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil. 19 They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me. 20 Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council, 21 unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!'"

22 But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case." 23 He ordered the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him. 24 But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. 25 As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for the present, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you." 26 Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul, that he might release him. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him. 27 But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

1 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. 2 Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they begged him, 3 asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way. 4 However Festus answered that Paul should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly. 5 "Let them therefore," he said, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him."

6 When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. 7 When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove, 8 while he said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."

9 But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?"

10 But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well. 11 For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I don't refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go."

13 Now when some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus. 14 As he stayed there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix; 15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for a sentence against him. 16 To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him. 17 When therefore they had come together here, I didn't delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed; 19 but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be

* 24:24-25 The governor listened gladly to the part of the Gospel message about putting faith in Christ, but he did not want to hear the part about the lifestyle Jesus commanded his followers to live, and about God's coming judgment. Similarly, there are portions of the Christian message that are unpopular and that people do not want to hear.

Powerful and influential people today may join a church and consider themselves to be Christian. As major financial contributors, or as people who do a lot of the work in the church, they may tell the pastor they don't want him to preach on certain topics that they find offensive, or that they think might offend others in the audience.

The Apostle Paul faithfully preached the full force of Jesus' message, even though he was jailed and eventually killed for doing so, but many church leaders over the centuries have compromised the message to please their listeners. "For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear." (2 Tim. 4:3 NIV)

A pastor today may feel obliged to leave out offensive topics from his Sunday messages, in order to keep his job and to avoid losing church members. Some preach a Jesus who loves and accepts everyone and everything, who doesn't require anything of anyone—and who isn't ever really coming again to call people to account. But that isn't the real Jesus, the Jesus of the Bible.

judged concerning these matters. 21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar."

22 Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

23 So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. 24 Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write. 27 For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

1 Agrippa said to Paul, "You may speak for yourself."

Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. 2 "I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you today concerning all the things that I am accused of by the Jews, 3 especially because you are expert in all customs and questions among the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4 "Indeed, all the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; 5 having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, 7 which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa! 8 Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

9 "I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. 11 Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

12 "Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 at noon, O king, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. 14 When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15 "I said, 'Who are you, Lord?'

"He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16 But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you; 17 delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you, 18 to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

19 "Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but declared first to those in Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. 21 For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would happen, 23 how the Christ must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles."

24 As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!"

25 But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. 26 For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

28 Agrippa said to Paul, "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Christian?"

29 Paul said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."

30 The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them. 31 When they had withdrawn, they spoke to one another, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds." 32 Agrippa said to Festus, "This

* 26:20 Faith and works are both key elements of following Jesus. As Paul said here, converts are expected to "repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance."

In his book The Cost of Discipleship, German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer condemned "the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance" as "cheap grace." Such "cheap grace" is not the message Jesus preached. As Paul explained, ". . . by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, that no one would boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them." (Ephesians 2:8-10) We are saved by faith so that we can go on to do good works. Our good behavior demonstrates that we have truly repented of our sins.

man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

1 When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. 2 Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. 3 The next day, we touched at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. 4 Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. 7 When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. 8 With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

9 When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them, 10 and said to them, “Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.” 11 But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

13 When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. 14 But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euroclydon. 15 When the ship was caught, and couldn't face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. 16 Running under the lee of a small island called Claudia, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. 17 After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along. 18 As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. 19 On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. 20 When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

21 When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, “Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. 22 Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve, 24 saying, ‘Don't be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.’ 25 Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. 26 But we must run aground on a certain island.”

27 But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. 28 They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms. After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms. 29 Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. 30 As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, “Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved.” 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

33 While the day was coming on, Paul begged them all to take some food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish from any of your heads.” 35 When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. 36 Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. 37 In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship. 38 When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 When it was day, they didn't recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. 40 Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

42 The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. 43 But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; 44 and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So they all escaped safely to the land.

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

1 When we had escaped, then they learned that the island was called Malta. 2 The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the pressing rain, and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, “No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live.” 5 However he shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn't harmed. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. 8 The father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. 9 Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. 10 They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

11 After three months, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was "The Twin Brothers." 12 Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. 13 From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. 15 From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God, and took courage. 16 When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

17 After three days Paul called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18 who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. 20 For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

21 They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. 22 But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."

23 When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about God's Kingdom, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening. 24 Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25 When they didn't agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah, the prophet, to our fathers, 26 saying,

'Go to this people, and say,

in hearing, you will hear,
but will in no way understand.
In seeing, you will see,
but will in no way perceive.

27 For this people's heart has grown callous.
Their ears are dull of hearing.

Their eyes they have closed.

Lest they should see with their eyes,

hear with their ears,

understand with their heart,

and would turn again,

and I would heal them.' Isaiah 6:9-10

28 "Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations. They will also listen."

29 When he had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.

30 Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who were coming to him, 31 preaching God's Kingdom, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

ROMANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the Good News of God, 2 which he promised before through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, 3 concerning his Son, who was born of the offspring of David according to the flesh, 4 who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through whom we received grace and apostleship, for obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake; 6 among whom you are also called to belong to Jesus Christ; 7 to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established; 12 that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now I don't desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles. 14 I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish. 15 So, as much as is in me, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome. 16 For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. 17 For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith." Habakkuk

2:4 18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19 because that which is known of God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them. 20 For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse.* 21 Because, knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things. 24 Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves, 25 who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

26 For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. 27 Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men,† and receiving in

* 1:18-20 The New International Version renders verse 20 this way: "For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse."

Yet today, many who pride themselves on their knowledge and intellect have abandoned biblical teachings about God to embrace godless evolution, crediting the creation to blind chance, random mutations and survival of the fittest—without an intelligent Designer and Creator.

In their unrighteous desire to be free from responsibility before God, they deny his existence and look for other explanations for life and the universe around us. They even "suppress the truth" by excluding Bible-believers from employment as scientists, college professors and researchers, as documented in the 2008 motion picture Expelled: No Intelligence Allowed.

But, as verse 18 points out, they will someday face the anger of the God whose existence they deny.

† 1:26-27 God's attitude toward homosexual behavior is the same throughout the Old Testament and New Testament eras spanning thousands of years, from the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah in the very first book of the Bible (Genesis 19) to the remembrance of that event in the next-to-the-last book of the Bible (Jude 7, "Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire."-NIV) Is there any reason to think that he may have changed his view now, simply because these forms of sexual conduct have become popular and accepted in today's world?

Many false "Christians" today dismiss the Apostle Paul's words above, because they want to practice the sins that Paul named and condemned. But Peter affirmed that Paul's letters have authority like "the other Scriptures."—2 Peter 3:15-16

What about the popular notion today that people who practice these things are "born that way"—that God even made them that way—and so it is okay for them to behave that way? People are born with the desire to sin, but that does not make it okay to act out those desires. "The imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth."—Genesis 8:21

The Bible explains that those sinful desires are part of our inheritance from the first man, Adam: "sin entered into the world through one man, and themselves the due penalty for their error. 28 Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; 29 being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, 30 backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful; 32 who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve* of those who practice them.

death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned . . . through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners."—Romans 5:12, 19

So, Adam brought sin into the world, and passed on to all of his offspring a tendency to sin: For some people it is a tendency to steal. Other people have inherited a tendency toward violence. For some men, it is a very strong desire to be a womanizer; they have a sexual inclination toward multiple women, instead of just one wife. Some have a strong inclination toward homosexual relations. Some people have inherited a tendency toward dependence on alcohol or drugs.

Does that mean we should all act out our sinful inclinations, since we were born that way? Of course not. We all need to struggle against inherited sin, no matter which sinful inclination is strongest in our particular case. The Apostle Paul explains it this way:

"No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it."—1 Corinthians 10:13

So, if you're struggling with improper sexual desires—desires to behave in ways that God declares unacceptable—you should not feel condemned. All of us have inherited strong tendencies to sin in one way or another. Rather, you should feel encouraged to keep up the battle against temptation.

Paul wrote concerning himself, "I beat my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize."—1 Corinthians 9:27 NIV

So, even the Apostle Paul struggled against the tendency to sin in his own body. And the Christians that Paul addressed his letters to back in the first century had similar struggles. They, too, like all of us, had inherited sinful tendencies, and many of them had been in the habit of acting out those tendencies through sinful conduct before coming to Jesus for forgiveness of their sins, and before changing their conduct to obey him as his followers. They stopped their sinful practices and they were washed clean from their sin:

"don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's Kingdom? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortionists, will inherit God's Kingdom. Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God."—1 Corinthians 6:9-11

God is merciful today, too, and forgives the practitioners of such sins when they turn to Christ in repentance. But those who unrepentantly and intentionally continue to live in sin will not inherit God's Kingdom.

1:32 Even those who "approve of" such misconduct face God's wrath—besides those who actually engage in these sins. So, Jesus disapproves of churches that advertise themselves as accepting and affirming homosexual conduct. Compare the risen Christ's rebuke addressed to the church at Thyatira. ("I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality."—Revelation 2:20 NIV)

CHAPTER TWO

1 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. 2 We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. 3 Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? 5 But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God; 6 who "will pay back to everyone according to their works:" Psalm 62:12; Proverbs 24:12 7 to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruptibility, eternal life; 8 but to those who are self-seeking, and don't obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation, 9 oppression and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

10 But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. 11 For there is no partiality with God. 12 For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. 13 For it isn't the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified 14 (for when Gentiles who don't have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, 15 in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them) 16 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my Good News, by Jesus Christ.

17 Indeed you bear the name of a Jew, and rest on the law, and glory in God, 18 and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19 and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. 21 You therefore who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach that a man shouldn't steal, do you steal? 22 You who say a man shouldn't commit adultery. Do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 23 You who glory in the law, through your disobedience of the law do you dishonor God? 24 For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," Isaiah 52:5; Ezekiel 36:22 just as it is written. 25 For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26 If therefore the uncircumcised keeps the ordinances of the law, won't his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision? 27 Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? 28 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; 29 but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the revelations of God.* 3 For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? 4 May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written,

“That you might be justified in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment.” Psalm 51:4

5 But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do. 6 May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? 7 For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), “Let us do evil, that good may come?” Those who say so are justly condemned. 9 What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin. 10 As it is written,

“There is no one righteous; no, not one.

11 There is no one who understands.

* 3:1-2 Besides a community practicing true worship, in which the Messiah could make an appearance, God apparently wanted a Chosen People to preserve the sacred Scriptures. A pagan society would not have valued the holy writings. So, one nation on the earth had to be kept somewhat on the straight and narrow, to act as custodians of the Bible. So, the Jews were ‘chosen’ to do a job that needed to be done.

Any nation could have been chosen, and if another nation had been instead of the Jews—say, the Irish, for example—then people would have asked, “Why the Irish?” in the same way that they now ask, “Why the Jews?”

Ultimately, though, the Jews were not given a permanent advantage over other nations, because God is not the sort of parent who plays favorites: “There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile; but glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. For God does not show favoritism.”—Romans 2:9-11 NIV

God ‘chose’ the Jews with the aim of saving other people who would later be ‘chosen’ from all nations. Because of the things that God accomplished in this way, personal salvation is now available to both Jews and non-Jews on the same basis: “Is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too, since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.”—Romans 3:29-30 NIV

In fact, to avoid giving the Jews an unfair advantage over other nationalities, when it came to receiving blessings through the Messiah, God placed an obstacle in their path: “Blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in,” or “One section of Israel has become blind, but this will last only until the whole pagan world has entered.” (Romans 11:25 KJV and the Jerusalem Bible)

There is no one who seeks after God.

12 They have all turned aside.

They have together become unprofitable.

There is no one who does good,

no, not so much as one.” Psalms 14:1-3; 53:1-3; Ecclesiastes 7:20 13 “Their throat is an open tomb.

With their tongues they have used deceit.”

Psalm 5:9

“The poison of vipers is under their lips;” Psalm 10:7

14 “whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.” Psalm 10:7

15 “Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways.

17 The way of peace, they haven’t known.”

Isaiah 59:7-8

18 “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

Psalm 36:1

19 Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. 20 Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. 21 But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets; 22 even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction, 23 for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 24 being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; 25 whom God sent to be an atoning sacrifice, through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in God’s forbearance; 26 to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time; that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

27 Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. 28 We maintain therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. 29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn’t he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, 30 since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. 31 Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh? 2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not toward God. 3 For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.” Genesis 15:6 4 Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as something owed. 5 But to him who doesn’t work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness. 6 Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works,

7 “Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven,

whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man whom the Lord will by no means charge with sin." Psalm 32:1-2

9 Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. 10 How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they might be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them.

12 He is the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. 13 For the promise to Abraham and to his offspring that he should be heir of the world wasn't through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. 15 For the law produces wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. 16 For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the offspring, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. 17 As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations." Genesis 17:5 This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. 18 Besides hope, Abraham in hope believed, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your offspring be." Genesis 15:6

19 Without being weakened in faith, he didn't consider his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20 Yet, looking to the promise of God, he didn't waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, 21 and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was also able to perform. 22 Therefore it also was "credited to him for righteousness." Genesis 15:6 23 Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone, 24 but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised Jesus, our Lord, from the dead, 25 who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; 2 through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces perseverance; 4 and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: 5 and hope doesn't disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. 6 For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For one will hardly die for a righteous man. Yet perhaps for a good person someone would even dare to die. 8 But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through him. 10 For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

11 Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

12 Therefore as sin* entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned. 13 For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come. 15 But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. 16 The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. 17 For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. 18 So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life.† 19 For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. 20 The law came in later, that the trespass might abound;

* 5:12 Christ's Apostle Paul here confirms the Genesis account of how sin and death came to afflict mankind.

Skeptics who aren't so bold as to openly reject Jesus and the New Testament often begin by rejecting the creation account at the beginning of the Old Testament. But, as Paul explains here in this chapter of Romans, the salvation Jesus accomplished on the cross relates directly to how sin came into the world—through the first man, Adam.

† 5:17-18 Paul explains that Christ's sacrificial death reversed the effect of Adam's sin on the human race.

Adam plunged all of his offspring into sin and death, while Jesus redeemed us all.

but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly; 21 that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER SIX

1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue* in sin, that grace may abound? 2 May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer?

3 Or don't you know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; 6 knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. 7 For he who has died has been freed from sin. 8 But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him; 9 knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him! 10 For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. 11 Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

12 Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. 13 Also, do not present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. 14 For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. 15 What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! 16 Don't you know that when you present yourselves as servants and obey someone, you are the servants of whomever you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? 17 But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were delivered. 18 Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness.

19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification. 20 For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. 21 What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life. 23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 Or don't you know, brothers (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives? 2 For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. 3 So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. 4 Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might produce fruit to God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring out fruit to death. 6 But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet." Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21 8 But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. 9 I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. 10 The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death; 11 for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. 12 Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.

13 Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceedingly sinful. 14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15 For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. 17 So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good. 19 For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice. 20 But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 21 I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight in God's law after the inward man, 23 but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in

* 6:1-2 Some in today's churches seem to feel that forgiveness through Christ means that we are free to continue engaging in conduct the Bible calls "sin." Here the Apostle Paul answers that false teaching.

In Romans 1:26-27 Paul enumerates some of those sins that are now considered acceptable conduct in some churches.

my members. 24 What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord! So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, sin's law.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; 4 that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; 7 because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be. 8 Those who are in the flesh can't please God. 9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn't have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his. 10 If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. 12 So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. 13 For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God. 15 For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption,* by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!"

16 The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God; 17 and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. 18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. 19 For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. 20 For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. 23 Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. 24 For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? 25 But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience.

26 In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray† as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered.

27 He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God.

28 We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. 29 For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. 30 Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified.

31 What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? 33 Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution,‡ or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

* 8:14-15 When we become believers, true followers of Jesus, God actually adopts us as his children, by putting his Holy Spirit in us. This brings us into such a close, personal relationship with God that we can call him our Father—even using language equivalent to our English terms "daddy" or "papa" to express affectionate love.

This closer relationship with God—through our adoption as his children and our receiving his Holy Spirit—gives us greater appreciation of the meaning of life. And this relationship is not one that ends tragically in death, but rather an everlasting relationship that will only grow as time goes on, with a glorious future.

Knowing that this is what life is really all about helps us put our present sufferings into a larger perspective. Momentary suffering today becomes insignificant when we compare it to eternal life in happiness at the heavenly throne of God, our Father.

† 8:26 Do you feel inadequate to come up with the right things to say in prayer? Don't worry about it. Even when you don't know how to pray as you should, the Holy Spirit will help you out.

So, the burden is not on us to come up with the right words, or the right formula, in our prayers. God cares about us and knows what we need even before we ask. Jesus said, "your Father knows what things you need, before you ask him."—Matthew 6:8

‡ 8:35-39 What wonderful assurance we find here! No matter what the enemy may throw against us, we win. Even if we are killed for the sake of Christ and his Gospel, we still come out victorious.

No government or power is able to separate us from God and his love. And the love of God revealed to us through Jesus strengthens us to face any sort of trouble in this world.

36 Even as it is written, “For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter.” Psalm 44:22 37 No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER NINE

1 I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; 5 of whom are the fathers, and from whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

6 But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel. 7 Neither, because they are Abraham's offspring, are they all children. But, “your offspring will be accounted as from Isaac.” Genesis 21:12 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as heirs. 9 For this is a word of promise, “At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son.” Genesis 18:10,14 10 Not only so, but Rebekah also conceived by one, by our father Isaac. 11 For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, 12 it was said to her, “The elder will serve the younger.” Genesis 25:23 13 Even as it is written, “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.” Malachi 1:2-3

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be! 15 For he said to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.” Exodus 33:19 16 So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.” Exodus 9:16 18 So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. 19 You will say then to me, “Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?” 20 But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, “Why did you make me like this?” Isaiah 29:16; 45:9 21 Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? 22 What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience* vessels of wrath made for destruction, 23 and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory, 24 us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? 25 As he says also in Hosea,

“I will call them ‘my people,’ which were not my people; and her ‘beloved,’ who was not beloved.” Hosea 2:23

26 “It will be that in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called ‘children of the living God.’” Hosea 1:10

27 Isaiah cries concerning Israel,

“If the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea,

it is the remnant who will be saved;

28 for He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth.” Isaiah 10:22-23

29 As Isaiah has said before,

“Unless the Lord of Armies had left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, and would have been made like Gomorrah.”

Isaiah 1:9

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who didn't follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith; 31 but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, didn't arrive at the law of righteousness. 32 Why? Because they didn't seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone; 33 even as it is written,

“Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense; and no one who believes in him will be disappointed.” Isaiah 8:14; 28:16

* 9:22-24 God is ready to destroy this wicked world in rebellion against him, but he holds back that destructive power at this time, while he continues to prepare Christians for the glorious eternal life to come.

From our earthly perspective, during this life, we cannot fully understand God's timing, and why he allows this world to continue in violent and sinful rebellion against his Kingdom. But all of this will become clear to us when we look back from a heavenly perspective. Meanwhile, it is our job to trust and obey.

CHAPTER TEN

1 Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for Israel, that they may be saved. 2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn't subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. 5 For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them." Leviticus 18:5 6 But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" Deuteronomy 30:12 (that is, to bring Christ down); 7 or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?' Deuteronomy 30:13 (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)" 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;" Deuteronomy 30:14 that is, the word of faith, which we preach: 9 that if you will confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11 For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed." Isaiah 28:16

12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich to all who call on him. 13 For, "Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved." Joel 2:32 14 How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher? 15 And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

"How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Good News of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!" Isaiah 52:7

16 But they didn't all listen to the glad news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" Isaiah 53:1 17 So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. 18 But I say, didn't they hear? Yes, most certainly,

"Their sound went out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world." Psalm 19:4

19 But I ask, didn't Israel know? First Moses says,

"I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, with a nation void of understanding I will make you angry." Deuteronomy 32:31

20 Isaiah is very bold, and says,
"I was found by those who didn't seek me.

I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me." Isaiah 65:1

21 But as to Israel he says, "All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people." Isaiah 65:2

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 I ask then, did God reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God didn't reject his people, which he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel:

3 "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life." 1 Kings 19:10,14 4 But how does God answer him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal." 1 Kings 19:18 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

7 What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he didn't obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. 8 According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day." Deuteronomy 29:4; Isaiah 29:10 9 David says,

"Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,
a stumbling block, and a retribution to them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see.

Bow down their back always." Psalm 69:22,23

11 I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. 12 Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness? 13 For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. 15 For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? 16 If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches. 17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree; 18 don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. 19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in." 20 True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear; 21 for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.

* 11:19-21 Compare what Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned." —John 15:5-6 NIV

"For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. A man who disregards Moses' law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment do you think he will be judged worthy of who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has

22 See then the goodness and severity of God.* Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. 23 They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? 25 For I don't desire you to be ignorant, brothers, of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, 26 and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written,

"There will come out of Zion the Deliverer, and he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob. 27 This is my covenant to them, when I will take away their sins." Isaiah 59:20-21; 27:9; Jeremiah 31:33-34

28 Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sake. 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. 30 For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 31 even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy. 32 For God has shut up all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.

33 Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out!

34 "For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?" Isaiah 40:13
35 "Or who has first given to him, and it will be repaid to him again?" Job 41:11

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service. 2 Don't be conformed to this world,† but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God. 3 For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. 4 For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function, 5 so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. 6 Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; 7 or service, let us give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; 8 or he who exhorts, to his exhorting; he who gives, let him do it with liberality; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. 10 In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate to one another; in honor preferring one another; 11 not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; 12 rejoicing in hope; enduring in troubles; continuing steadfastly in prayer; 13 contributing to the needs of the saints; given to hospitality. 14 Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. 16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits. 17 Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men. 18 If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men. 19 Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord." Deuteronomy 32:35 20 Therefore

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him.

If he is thirsty, give him a drink;

for in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on his head." Proverbs 25:21-22

21 Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? . . . It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."—Hebrews 10:26-31

* 11:22 The Apostle Paul speaks here of "the kindness and sternness of God" (Romans 11:22 NIV)—kindness to those who accept the forgiveness of their sins and learn from God's mercy to leave sin behind and walk in God's ways, but sternness to those who disregard God's mercy and persist in wrongdoing.

The 'Jesus' of popular culture who loves and accepts everyone and everything, without a call to repentance, is not the real Jesus—not the Jesus of the Bible. People who read the Bible from cover to cover find it to be consistent from cover to cover, because God does not change.

In the book of Malachi, the last book of the Old Testament in most Bibles, God tells the prophet, "I am the LORD, and I do not change." (Malachi 3:6 NLT) And in the New Testament we are told, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." (Hebrews 13:8 NIV)

Jesus does not tolerate idol worship or sexual immorality, and he promises in Revelation 2:20-21 to severely punish the Jezebels in the churches who promote such things among believers. This is the same Jesus who taught love and forgiveness. So the revelation of God through Jesus Christ is consistent with the revelation of God in the Old Testament. He is a loving heavenly Father, but also an old-fashioned strict Father who corrects and disciplines people with the aim of bringing them to repentance. And he is a God who will ultimately punish with severity wrongdoers who reject his mercy.

† 12:2 The J. B. Phillips New Testament renders this passage, "Don't let the world around you squeeze you into its own mould." This world has rejected the Bible and its standards of morality, and ridicules the biblical worldview that Christians ought to maintain. No matter where we turn in the media today—radio, television, newspapers and magazines, the internet—we are bombarded with images and messages saying that all sorts of expressions of sexuality are okay, good and acceptable, and that those who uphold the Bible's standards of morality are the ones who are wrong.

It is clear that the world around us is trying as hard as it can to squeeze everyone into this mold. We must resist the pressure from those around us to conform to their ungodly ways.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God. 2 Therefore he who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment. 3 For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same, 4 for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil. 5 Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. 6 For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of God's service, attending continually on this very thing. 7 Therefore give everyone what you owe: if you owe taxes, pay taxes; if customs, then customs; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor. 8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

9 For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," Exodus 20:13-15,17; Deuteronomy 5:17-19,21 and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Leviticus 19:18 10 Love doesn't harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law. 11 Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. 12 The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the deeds of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light. 13 Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy. 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. 2 One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. 3 Don't let him who eats despise him who doesn't eat. Don't let him who doesn't eat judge him who eats, for God has accepted him. 4 Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for God has power to make him stand.

5 One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. 6 He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord he doesn't eat, and gives God thanks. 7 For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. 8 For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

10 But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. 11 For it is written,

"As I live," says the Lord, 'to me every knee will bow.

Every tongue will confess to God.'" Isaiah 45:23

12 So then each one of us will give account of himself to God. 13 Therefore let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion for falling. 14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with your food him for whom Christ died. 16 Then don't let your good be slandered, 17 for God's Kingdom is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men. 19 So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up. 20 Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating. 21 It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything by which your brother stumbles, is offended, or is made weak.

22 Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who doesn't judge himself in that which he approves. 23 But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

24 Now to him who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through long ages, 25 but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; 26 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen. [Following the Textus Receptus, some Bibles place Romans 14:24-26 at the end of Romans instead of at the end of chapter 14, and number these verses 16:25-27—Editor.]

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up. 3 For even Christ didn't please himself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me." Psalms 69:9 4 For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. 5 Now the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus, 6 that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Therefore accept one another, even as Christ also accepted you, to the glory of God. 8 Now I say that Christ has been made a servant of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given to the fathers, 9 and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,

“Therefore I will give praise to you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name.” 2 Samuel 22:50; Psalm 118:49

10 Again he says,
“Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people.” Deuteronomy 32:43

11 Again,
“Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles!
Let all the peoples praise him.” Psalm 117:1

12 Again, Isaiah says,
“There will be the root of Jesse,
he who arises to rule over the Gentiles;
in him the Gentiles will hope.”

Isaiah 11:10

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit. 14 I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others. 15 But I write the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God, 16 that I should be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest of the Good News of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 17 I have therefore my boasting in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Christ worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, 19 in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of God’s Spirit; so that from Jerusalem, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Good News of Christ; 20 yes, making it my aim to preach the Good News, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build on another’s foundation.

* 15:12 The Apostle Paul here applies Isaiah 11:10 to Jesus. We already see partial fulfillment of Isaiah’s prophecy, in that Gentiles worldwide have put their “hope” in the Messiah of Israel. Jesus also already “rules over the Gentiles” who look to him as heavenly King. Fulfillment will be completed when God’s Kingdom triumphs over the Gentile governments in the battle of Armageddon and replaces human rulership with Messiah’s Kingdom.

The Messiah is the root of Jesse (king David’s father). “Jesse became the father of King David . . . Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.”—Matthew 1:6-16

Jesus himself says, “I am the root and the offspring of David.”—Revelation 22:16

When Isaiah wrote that non-Jews would “hope” in a ruler from Israelite King David’s line, the odds against that ever actually happening must have seemed astronomical. The Jews were then a tiny minority in a nation that played a very small role on the world stage. But the prophecy came true when Christ’s Gospel message spread worldwide. This amazing fulfillment of prophecy should give us confidence that the Bible’s end times prophecies will likewise be fulfilled.

21 But, as it is written,

“They will see, to whom no news of him came.
They who haven’t heard will understand.” Isaiah 52:15

22 Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you, 23 but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you, 24 whenever I travel to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while. 25 But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the saints. 26 For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are at Jerusalem. 27 Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things. 28 When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain. 29 I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of Christ.

30 Now I beg you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, 31 that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints; 32 that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest. 33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is a deacon of the assembly that is at Cenchreae, 2 that you receive her in the Lord, in a way worthy of the saints, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may need from you, for she herself also has been a helper of many, and of my own self.

3 Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, 4 who for my life, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the Gentiles. 5 Greet the assembly that is in their house. Greet Epänetus, my beloved, who is the first fruits of Achaia to Christ. 6 Greet Mary, who labored much for us. 7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the apostles, who were also in Christ before me. 8 Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. 9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. 10 Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus. 11 Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. 12 Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Lord. 13 Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. 14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them. 15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them. 16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. The assemblies of Christ greet you.

17 Now I beg you, brothers, look out for those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and turn away from them. 18 For those who are such don't serve our Lord, Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech, they deceive the hearts of the innocent. 19 For your obedience has become known to all. I rejoice therefore over you. But I desire to have you wise in that which is good, but innocent in that which is evil. 20 And the God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

21 Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives. 22 I, Tertius, who write this letter, greet you in the Lord. 23 Gaius, my host and host of the whole assembly, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, as does Quartus, the brother. 24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all! Amen. [Following the Textus Receptus, some Bibles place Romans 14:24-26 at the end of Romans instead of at the end of chapter 14, and number these verses 16:25-27.—Editor]

1 CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, 2 to the assembly of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; 5 that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; 6 even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: 7 so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; 8 who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. 10 Now I beg you, brothers, through the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11 For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ." 13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, 15 so that no one should say that I had baptized you into my own name. 16 (I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I baptized any other.) 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ wouldn't be made void. 18 For the word of the cross is foolishness* to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is

* 1:18-21 As today's post-Christian world moves farther and farther away from a biblical worldview, the society in which we live increasingly regards "the word of the cross," the message of the Gospel, as foolishness—a fairytale believed only by uneducated people.

Sophisticated intellectuals are expected to believe in godless evolution as the source of life on earth, rather than creation by God. Public schools prohibit teaching the Bible's account of creation. It is hard to find a doctor or nurse who upholds the biblical view of abortion. The news media portray as an ignorant bigot anyone who publicly agrees with the Bible's condemnation of homosexual conduct.

The message Jesus commanded his followers to preach—repentance from sin and salvation through faith in Christ (Luke 24:47)—is 'foolishness' to the intellectual community and modern society as a whole.

So, believers in the Bible are systematically excluded from employment in the medical, teaching and scientific professions. When this happens to us, we can take comfort in Paul's words here, and in Jesus' words: "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants."—Matthew 11:25 written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,

I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing." Isaiah 29:14

20 Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe. 22 For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom, 23 but we preach Christ crucified; a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks, 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. 26 For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are: 29 that no flesh should boast before God. 30 Because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord." Jeremiah 9:24

1 When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3 I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. 4 My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5 that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. 6 We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing. 7 But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds for our glory, 8 which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But as it is written,

"Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, which didn't enter into the heart of man, these God has prepared for those who love him." Isaiah 64:4

10 But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. 11 For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit. 12 But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God. 13 Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. 14 Now the natural man doesn't receive the things of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15 But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one. 16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?" Isaiah 40:13 But we have Christ's mind.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Brothers, I couldn't speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babies in Christ. 2 I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren't yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready, 3 for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you walk in the ways of men? 4 For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly? 5 Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Lord gave to him? 6 I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase. 7 So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. 8 Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building. 10 According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it. 11 For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble; 13 each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is. 14 If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. 15 If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

16 Don't you know that you are a temple* of God, and that God's

* 3:16-17 God views each individual Christian believer as a temple in which his Holy Spirit dwells. Collectively, too, "You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ."—1 Peter 2:5

Spirit lives in you? 17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, which temple you are.

18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness." Job 5:13 20 And again, "The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless." Psalms 94:11 21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, 22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, 23 and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 So let a man think of us as Christ's servants, and stewards of God's mysteries. 2 Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I don't judge my own self. 4 For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord. 5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from God.

6 Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written,† that none of you be puffed up against one another. 7 For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? 8 You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you. 9 For, I think

† 4:6 What does the Bible say about birth control, motion pictures, masturbation, blood transfusions, drinking coffee or tea, and driving automobiles? It says nothing at all—not one word for or against any of these. Yet you will find religious authorities who issue rules on all of these matters as if they were speaking for God, and who will point to passages in the Bible as justification for their strongly worded proclamations or prohibitions.

Moreover, these rulings help form the dividing lines that separate professing Christians into various groups.

What is the problem? Is it that the Bible is ambiguous, confusing and open to every sort of interpretation on all sorts of matters? No, not at all. The Bible is very clear and unambiguous on most of the matters that it discusses. But there are certain matters that it does not discuss at all. And there are certain other areas where God intentionally inspired the writers of the Bible to leave the answers unclear.

Unfortunately, there are many teachers and preachers and religious authorities who are all too happy to fill in the Bible's ambiguities and gray areas with their own dogmatic statements. Really, though, they have no sound basis for assertions beyond what any ordinary person could learn from reading the Bible itself. They would do well to listen to the Apostle Paul's counsel here "not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another."—1 Corinthians 4:6 RSV that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men. 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor. 11 Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place. 12 We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure. 13 Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now. 14 I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. 15 For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the Good News. 16 I beg you therefore, be imitators of me. 17 Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly. 18 Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. 20 For God's Kingdom is not in word, but in power. 21 What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

CHAPTER FIVE

1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality* among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that one has his father's wife. 2 You are puffed up, and didn't rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you. 3 For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing. 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump? 7 Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed in our place. 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 9 I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners; 10 yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortionists, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world. 11 But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortionist. Don't even eat with such a person. 12 For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within? 13 But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked man from among yourselves." Deuteronomy 17:7; 19:19; 21:21; 22:21; 24:7

1 Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? 2 Don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3 Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? 4 If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly? 5 I say this to move you to shame. Isn't there even one wise man among you who would be able to decide between his brothers? 6 But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers! 7 Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? 8 No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers.

9 Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's Kingdom? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortionists, will inherit God's Kingdom.† 11 Such were

† 6:9-10 A prominent Christian leader spends many years preaching the Gospel message and denouncing corruption, sin and sexual immorality. Then it comes to light that he has been leading a double life, practicing the very things he has denounced in his sermons. How do people react? How does God react? Many church members immediately jump to such a man's defense, arguing that God forgives everything. 'He is saved,' they say, 'covered by the blood of Christ,' so he is in no danger. But they say such things because they believe what popular religious books teach rather than what Jesus and the Apostles taught.

Jesus himself said that "many" who claim to be Christians and who preach in Jesus' name and who even accomplish great things in Jesus' name—but who live a lifestyle the Bible condemns—will be surprised to hear Jesus reject them and turn them away from the kingdom of God:

"Not every one who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you evildoers.'"—Matthew 7:21-23 RSV

So Paul says, "don't be deceived" into thinking that it is okay for Christians to engage in the behavior he lists here.

The world around us today has changed, but God has not changed. So, even though their church may say it is okay for people to live like that, some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.

* 5:1 The Apostle Paul strongly chastized the church in Corinth for tolerating sexual immorality in their midst. How much more so would he chastize those churches today that not only turn a blind eye to immorality in their midst, but even teach that sexual misconduct Paul condemned has now somehow become acceptable to God!

12 "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything. 13 "Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. 14 Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power. 15 Don't you know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! 16 Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, "The two," he says, "will become one flesh." Genesis 2:24 17 But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. 19 Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? You are not your own, 20 for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2 But, because of sexual immoralities, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render to his wife the affection owed her, and likewise also the wife to her husband. 4 The wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband doesn't have authority over his own body, but the wife. 5 Don't deprive one another, unless it is by consent for a season, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer, and may be together again, that Satan doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6 But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. 7 Yet I wish that all men were like me. However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind. 8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. 9 But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn. 10 But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband 11 (but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

Jesus does not say it's okay. He says he will reject them.

But many churches have given up preaching the real Jesus, the Jesus of the Bible. Instead, they preach a fictitious Jesus—a Jesus of popular culture who loves everyone and everything, forgives everyone and everything, and doesn't require anything of anyone. It is just as the Apostle Paul warned: "the time will come when people will not listen to the true teaching but will find many more teachers who please them by saying the things they want to hear."—2 Timothy 4:3 NCV

People want to hear about this easy-going 'Jesus' of popular culture, not the real Jesus who told a man he healed, "Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you."—John 5:14 NIV

12 But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. 13 The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. 15 Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace. 16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? 17 Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies.

18 Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 20 Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called. 21 Were you called being a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. 22 For he who was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's free man.* Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's bondservant. 23 You were bought with a price. Don't become bondservants of men. 24 Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. 26 I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to be as he is. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. 28 But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have

* 7:21-24 Slavery was part of the social fabric of the Roman Empire, enshrined in law, and generally was not as harsh or oppressive as the enslavement of Africans in the American South. Rather than foment revolution in a society where a large percentage of the population worked as slaves, Paul gave believers the advice found here.

Compare Colossians 3:22, 1 Timothy 6:1, Titus 2:9, Philemon 1:16 and 1 Peter 2:18.

Paul also wrote, "Masters, provide your slaves with what is right and fair, because you know that you also have a Master in heaven."—Colossians 4:1 NIV oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you. 29 But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess; 31 and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away.

32 But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; 33 but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. 35 This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry. 37 But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, does well.

38 So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage does better. 39 A wife is bound by law for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2 But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. 3 But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him. 4 Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one. 5 For though there are things that are called "gods," whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords;" 6 yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through him. 7 However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better.

9 But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak. 10 For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? 11 And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whose sake Christ died. 12 Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. 13 Therefore if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forever more, that I don't cause my brother to stumble.

CHAPTER NINE

1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus Christ, our Lord? Aren't you my work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. 3 My defense to those who examine me is this. 4 Have we no right to eat and to drink? 5 Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? 6 Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work? 7 What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk? 8 Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing? 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Deuteronomy 25:4 Is it for the oxen that God cares, 10 or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope.

11 If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? 12 If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ. 13 Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? 14 Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. 15 But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void.

16 For if I preach the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I don't preach the Good News. 17 For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. 18 What then is my reward? That, when I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. 19 For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more.

20 To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; 21 to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law. 22 To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. 23 Now I do this for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it.

24 Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. 25 Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 26 I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air, 27 but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

CHAPTER TEN

1 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2 and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3 and all ate the same spiritual food; 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. 5 However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples,* to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 7 Don't be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." Exodus 32:6 8 Let us not commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. 9 Let us not test Christ, as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. 10 Don't grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come.

12 Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't fall.

13 No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. 14 Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I

16 speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, isn't it a sharing of the body of Christ? 17 Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. 18 Consider Israel according to the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

19 What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? 20 But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons†, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have fellowship with demons. 21 You can't both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons.

22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? 23 "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up. 24 Let no one seek his own, but each one his neighbor's good. 25 Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, 26 for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness." Psalm 24:1

27 But if one of those who don't believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness." 29 Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? 31 Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the assembly of God; 33 even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. 2 Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the † 10:20-21 Pagan worship is offensive to God. It involves giving what belongs to God to demons instead. So, it is not a small matter.

Some churches today offer "Yoga Classes" on signs facing the street. Yoga is a key element of pagan Hindu worship. Who knows Yoga better than Yoga's promoters at the Yoga.com web site? An article on that site titled "The Ultimate Goal of Yoga" says very plainly that "in all schools of yoga, the goal of the practitioner is the attainment of perfect tranquility and spiritual insight while meditating on Brahman (the Hindu concept of divinity)." The parenthetical remark is part of the original quote. So, even if the local Yoga teacher chooses to hide this fact, the Yoga.com web site admits that Yoga is about Hindu worship of Hindu gods.

* 10:6-11 The Bible makes mention of Israel often as a warning example for the rest of mankind, as Paul indicates here.

† In Revelation chapters 2 and 3 specific application is made to churches that repeat Israel's sins and face rebuke from the risen Christ.

man, and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. 5 But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. 6 For if a woman is not covered, let her hair also be cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to be have her hair cut off or shaved, let her be covered. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man; 9 for man wasn't created for the woman, but woman for the man. 10 For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. 13 Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? 14 Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. 16 But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies.

17 But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. 19 For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. 20 When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat.

21 For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken. 22 What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly, and put them to shame who don't have? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise you.

23 For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. 24 When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me." 25 In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 27 Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord's cup in an unworthy way will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. 29 For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy way eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he doesn't discern the Lord's body. 30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. 31 For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn't be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. 33 Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. 34 But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I don't want you to be ignorant. 2 You know that when you were heathen, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. 3 Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit. 4 Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord. 6 There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; 9 to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit; 10 and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages. 11 But the one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

12 For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. 13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink of one Spirit. 14 For

* 11:17 Paul told this church, "your meetings do more harm than good," according to the New International Version's rendering of this verse. Could the same be said of some churches today?

When false teachers preached a different gospel and "another Jesus" to the church at Corinth (2 Cor. 11:4)—not the real Jesus whom Paul preached—the church accepted them. The Corinthian church also tolerated sexual immorality in its midst. Paul similarly admonished the church at Galatia, where false teachers had introduced "a different gospel" (Gal. 1:6) that perverted the Gospel of Christ.

Speaking from heaven through a vision, the risen Christ condemned the church at Thyatira for tolerating a woman who promoted sexual immorality. (Rev. 2:20) In fact, of the seven churches addressed in the opening chapters of Revelation, only two churches were found to be following Jesus acceptably; the other five were sternly warned to "repent."

What about your church today? Is it preaching the real Jesus of the Bible, or the 'Jesus' of popular culture who accepts everyone and everything, and doesn't require anything of anyone?

If you want to follow Jesus—and not be misled by church leaders who are preaching "another Jesus"—prayerfully read the Bible on your own. Then you will be able to compare what you hear in church with what the Bible actually says.

Jesus promised: "One who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him. . . . If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him."—John 14:21, 23

Your personal relationship with Jesus and your knowledge of the written Word of God will guide you, even if you find yourself in a church where the 'meetings do more harm than good.'

the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. 16 If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. 19 If they were all one member, where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members, but one body. 21 The eye can't say to the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." 22 No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. 23 Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety; 24 whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, 25 that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26 When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are the body* of Christ, and members individually.

28 God has set some in the assembly: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? 30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. 3 If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.

4 Love is patient and is kind; love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud, 5 doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; 6 doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with. 11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things. 12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly†, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. 13 But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. 3 But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation. 4 He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the assembly. 5 Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up.

6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? 7 Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For if the trumpet

* 12:27 The true church is not some denomination formed by men, but is "the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven." (Heb. 12:23 NIV) The true church, Christ's body, crosses denominational lines and includes individuals both in and out of the various religious organizations that men have set up. It is composed of all those who look to Christ as Head, who have been "baptized by one Spirit into one body." (1 Cor. 12:13 NIV)

Ask the Lord to guide you into the fellowship he wants you to be in. He will answer your prayer.

Of course, he may put you into a local congregation like the one in Corinth, where the gifts of the Spirit were being misused and where the Lord's Supper was not being celebrated properly. (1 Cor. 14:23, 11:20) Or, he may send you into a church like the one in Pergamum, where corrupt practices and false teachings prevailed among some members. (Rev. 2:14, 15) Or, you may find yourself in a congregation like the one in Sardis that had "a reputation of being alive" but was actually "dead." (Rev. 3:1 NIV)

Such experiences can help you to grow and to deepen your personal relationship with Jesus as Lord. "Bear what you have to bear as 'chastening'—as God's dealing with you as sons," part of your training from the Father. (Heb. 12:7 J.B. Phillips) Remember that not everyone in the church building is actually a member of the body of Christ. Keep in mind that even the Apostle Paul sometimes found himself "in dangers among false brethren."—2 Corinthians 11:26

† 13:12 The Apostle Paul pointed out that there are things we won't understand or see clearly until we join Jesus in heaven. The King James Version renders this passage, "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."

The New International Version puts it this way: "Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known."

An ancient metal mirror or looking-glass might have offered a fuzzy or blurred reflection of the things viewed through it, rather than a sharp and clear image. And that is how it is with our understanding of God and his secret things. We won't see clearly until we reach his presence in heaven.

But that does not prevent us from trusting God and obeying his commands. Compare Deuteronomy 29:29.

gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? 9 So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without meaning. 11 If then I don't know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. 12 So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. 13 Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16 Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say? 17 For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. 18 I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all. 19 However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

20 Brothers, don't be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. 21 In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Lord." Isaiah 28:11-12 22 Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. 23 If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? 24 But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all. 25 And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

26 What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. 27 If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. 30 But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. 31 For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. 32 The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, 33 for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the assemblies of the saints, 34 let your women keep silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the law also says. 35 If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the assembly. 36 What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? 37 If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. 38 But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. 39 Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking with other languages. 40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, 2 by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. 3 For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. 6 Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. 7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, 8 and last of all, as to a child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was given to me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. 14 If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. 15 Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he didn't raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead aren't raised, neither has Christ been raised. 17 If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. 18 Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

* 15:19 The immediate visible benefits of following Jesus may not always seem to outweigh the visible disadvantages—in this life, before we go to our heavenly reward. The Apostle Paul wrote that he himself had been "in prison . . . flogged . . . beaten with rods . . . stoned" and had faced many other dangers as a result of his ministry (1 Cor. 11:23-27 NIV). That is why Paul wrote as above.

But our hope in Christ goes beyond this life. As Jesus said, "Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of 20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep. 21 For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. 22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at his coming*.

24 Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that will be abolished is death.

27 For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet." Psalms 8:6 But when he says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him. 28 When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all.

29 Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they baptized for the dead? 30 Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? 31 I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 32 If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." Isaiah 22:13

33 Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals." 34 Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. 35 But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" 36 You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37 That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. 38 But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. 40 There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. 41 There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown perishable; it is raised imperishable. 43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

45 So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul." Genesis 2:7 The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46 However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. 49 As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's also bear the image of the heavenly. 50 Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood can't inherit God's Kingdom; neither does the perishable inherit imperishable.

51 Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed.† 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 But when this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory." Isaiah 25:8

55 "Death, where is your sting? Hades, where is your victory?" Compare Hosea 13:14

56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain‡ in the Lord.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

† 15:51-53 This "mystery" (vs. 51) is the Rapture of the Church. Besides the resurrection of Christians who have died, the return of Christ also triggers the instantaneous transformation of Christians who are alive—in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye—from mortal to immortal and from perishable to imperishable.

What wonderful hope this gives us while we undergo the sufferings of this world!

‡ 15:57-58 The sons and daughters of this world work in vain for riches that they can't take with them when they die. But our labor is not in vain in the Lord. He gives us the victory over death, and wipes every tear from our eyes.

The meaning of life becomes clear when we have eternity in view, and when we see our present circumstances in the perspective of everlasting life in the joyful presence of God.

evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you." —Matthew 5:11-12 NIV

* 15:21-23 The return of Christ will also bring the return of those who have died as Christians.

Though enemies may kill us, as they killed Jesus, our return to life is guaranteed by Christ's resurrection.

1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise. 2 On the first day of the week, let each one of you lay by him and save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. 3 When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. 4 If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. 5 But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. 6 But it may be that I will stay, or even winter, with you that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. 7 For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits. 8 But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost, 9 for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. 10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

12 Now concerning Apollos, our brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.

13 Watch! Stand firm in the faith! Be courageous! Be strong! 14 Let all that you do be done in love.

15 Now I beg you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the saints), 16 that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors. 17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied. 18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.

19 The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, together with the assembly that is in their house. 20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21 This greeting is by me, Paul, with my own hand. 22 If any man doesn't love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. Come, Lord! 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24 My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; 4 who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ. 6 But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. 7 Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort.

8 For we don't desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. 9 Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, 10 who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us; 11 you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift given to us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf. 12 For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13 For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end; 14 as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. 15 In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; 16 and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. 17 When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be "Yes, yes" and "No, no?" 18 But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no." 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes." 20 For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amen," to the glory of God through us.

21 Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God; 22 who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. 23 But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you. 24 Not that we control your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

CHAPTER TWO

1 But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. 2 For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? 3 And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. 5 But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all.

6 This punishment which was inflicted by the many is sufficient for such a one; 7 so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. 8 Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. 10 Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11 that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

12 Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, 13 I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. 14 Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. 15 For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; 16 to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some do, letters of commendation to you or from you? 2 You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; 3 being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. 4 Such confidence we have through Christ toward God; 5 not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; 6 who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 7 But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away: 8 won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? 9 For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. 10 For most certainly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. 11 For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

12 Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, 13 and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel wouldn't look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away. 14 But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away. 15 But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. 16 But whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face seeing the glory of the Lord as in a mirror, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint. 2 But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled to those who perish; 4 in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them. 5 For we don't preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake; 6 seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," Genesis 1:3 who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. 8 We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; 9 pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; 10 always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death works in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke." Psalms 116:10 We also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. 15 For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. 16 Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. 17 For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary*, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. 2 For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven; 3 if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked. 4 For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; 7 for we walk by faith, not by sight. 8 We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. 9 Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him.

10 For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. 11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. 12 For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion for boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. 15 He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for

* 4:17-18 If we understand and keep in mind that our present circumstances in this world are only temporary, and that eternal glory awaits us, this can give us the strength and courage to endure the troubles we face now.

Today, "We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair" (vs. 8), and "we groan" (5:2) but the eternal glory ahead of us outweighs these present sorrows.

their sakes died and rose again.

16 Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. 17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, all things have become new. 18 But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. 20 We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. 21 For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

CHAPTER SIX

1 Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain, 2 for he says,

“At an acceptable time I listened to you, in a day of salvation I helped you.” Isaiah 49:8

Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. 3 We give no occasion for stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, 4 but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in night watches, in fastings; 6 in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, 7 in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; 9 as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed; 10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. 12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. 13 Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide. 14 Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? 15 What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? 16 What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, “I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.” Leviticus 26:12; Jeremiah 32:38; Ezekiel 37:27 17 Therefore “Come out from among them, and be separate,” says the Lord. “Touch no unclean thing.

I will receive you. Isaiah 52:11; Ezekiel 20:34,41

18 I will be to you a Father.

You will be to me sons and daughters,” says the Lord Almighty.” 2 Samuel 7:14; 7:8

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. 3 I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. 5 For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. 6 Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; 7 and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

8 For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. 9 I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow produces repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. 11 For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15 His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything I am confident concerning you.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. 3 For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints. 5 This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. 6 So we urged Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. 7 But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace. 8 I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. 10 I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. 11 But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have. 13 For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, 14 but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. 15 As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack." Exodus 16:8 16 But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. 17 For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. 18 We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the assemblies. 19 Not only so, but who was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness. 20 We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us, 21 having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. 23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the assemblies, the glory of Christ. 24 Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER NINE

1 It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints, 2 for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to the Macedonians, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. 3 But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, 4 so that it won't happen by any means, if anyone from Macedonia comes there with me and finds you unprepared, that we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confident boasting. 5 I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. 6 Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7 Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. 9 As it is written,

"He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor.

His righteousness remains forever." Psalms 112:9

10 Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; 11 you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which produces through us thanksgiving to God. 12 For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many givings of thanks to God; 13 seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; 14 while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. 15 Now thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

CHAPTER TEN

1 Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh; 4 for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds, 5 throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; 6 and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. 7 Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. 8 For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, 9 that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. 10 For, "His letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." 11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. 12 For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding.

13 But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. 14 For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, 15 not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, 16 so as to preach the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. 17 But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord." Jeremiah 9:24 18 For it isn't he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I betrothed you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he who comes preaches another Jesus*, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news," which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough.

5 For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. 6 But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things. 7 Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? 8 I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. 9 When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11 Why? Because I don't love you? God knows. 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in that which they boast about, they may be found even as we. 13 For such men are false apostles†, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ's apostles. 14 And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. 15 It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

16 I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. 17 That which I speak, I don't speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. 18 Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. 19 For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. 20 For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face. 21 I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet in whatever way anyone is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. 22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the offspring of Abraham? So am I. 23 Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in

* 11:4 This preaching of "another Jesus" has been happening for centuries, with the result that there are many millions of people today who think they are following Jesus, or who say they are following him, but who are not following the real Jesus at all.

Mormons, for example, make Jesus out to be one of many "gods," and Jehovah's Witnesses portray Jesus as the first angel that God created. And, while mainstream churches recognize that the Mormons and JW's teach "another Jesus" different from the Jesus of the Bible, many of those mainstream churches themselves preach the Jesus of popular culture who accepts everyone and everything, without requiring anything of anyone—especially not the repentance from sin that the real Jesus called for throughout his ministry.

Whole churches are misled by pastors and teachers who say it is okay to do the things Jesus and his Apostles said not to do.

The popular view today ignores what Jesus actually taught, and instead asserts that people who live sinful lives are in no danger of punishment if 'they love the Lord.' Those who believe this may feel happy, but they won't be happy for long—because the real Jesus is alive, and will someday call them to account. He rose from the grave and is active today among his people. And he is coming again. He is the same risen Christ who sent this message to the Christian church in the city of Thyatira:

"I know what you do. I know about your love, your faith, your service, and your patience. I know that you are doing more now than you did at first. But I have this against you: You let that woman Jezebel spread false teachings. . . . by her teaching she leads my people to take part in sexual sins. . . . I have given her time to change her heart and turn away from her sin, but she does not want to change. So I will throw her on a bed of suffering. . . . I will also kill her followers. Then all the churches will know that I am the One who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each one of you for what you have done."—Revelation 2:19-23 NCV

There are Jezebels like that in many of today's churches, preaching "another Jesus" and "a different 'good news.'" Those who follow them will someday have to face the real Jesus, and it will not be a pleasant encounter.

We should not put up with pastors or teachers who preach a different 'Jesus.' And the only way we can identify and avoid them is by reading the Bible for ourselves, so that we can spot counterfeit teachings.

† 11:13-15 While some of Satan's attacks against Christians are head-on violent confrontations, as in the case of Job, we must also be watchful for his more subtle attacks.

Satan pretends to be a good angel, and humans who work for him similarly may appear on the outside to be good people doing good works. These more subtle attacks often occur inside Christian churches where false teachers attempt to lead church members and newcomers away from following the real Jesus of the Bible—often by preaching another 'Jesus' who loves everyone and everything, and doesn't require good behavior.

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires."—2 Timothy 4:3 NASB

But Jesus warned: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"—Matthew 7:21-23 NIV stripes above measure, in deaths often. 24 Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. 25 Three times I was beaten* with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. 26 I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; 27 in labor and travail, in night watches often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation? 30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, he who is blessed forever more, knows that I don't lie. 32 In Damascus the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of the Damascenes desiring to arrest me. 33 Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven. 3 I know such a man (whether in the body, or outside of the body, I don't know; God knows), 4 how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 5 On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. 6 For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. 7 By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively. 8 Concerning this thing, I begged† the Lord three times that it might depart from me. 9 He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. 11 I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. 13 For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? 16 But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. 17 Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? 18 I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps? 19 Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. 20 For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; 21 that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established." Deuteronomy 19:15 2 I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come to be that way. Like children with limited understanding, we too may pray for things that we think best, but our heavenly Father sees aspects of our situation that we don't see and he knows what is really best in the long run—or what must be allowed to occur due to circumstances we are not aware of. See, also, Matthew 26:39, 42.

Besides helping us understand that the answer to our own prayers may sometimes be No, what Paul wrote here also refutes the false 'health and wealth gospel' that is taught in some churches today—the false teaching that Christianity is a sure path to physical health and financial prosperity, and that believers fall sick only when there is sin in their lives.

* 11:24-26 The Apostle Paul's example may serve as encouragement for us when we, too are whipped, beaten or stoned for our faith in the Good News about Jesus, or when we suffer the other hardships Paul lists that he underwent in the course of his ministry—including "perils among false brothers."

† 12:8-9 The Apostle Paul sincerely prayed three times, but the answer to his prayer was No. The Lord helped him to understand why it had again, I will not spare; 3 seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. 4 For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you. 5 Examine your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don't you know as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. 6 But I hope that you will know that we aren't disqualified.

7 Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. 10 For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

11 Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. 12 Greet one another with a holy kiss. 13 All the saints greet you. 14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

GALATIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead), 2 and all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: 3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father— 5 to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different “good news;” 7 and there isn’t another “good news.” Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the Good News of Christ.*

8 But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any “good news” other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed. 9 As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any “good news” other than that which you received, let him be cursed.

10 For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn’t be a servant of Christ. 11 But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. 12 For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jews’ religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and ravaged it. 14 I advanced in the Jews’ religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother’s womb, and called me through his grace, 16 to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I didn’t immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus. 18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. 19 But of the other apostles I saw no one, except James, the Lord’s brother. 20 Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I’m not lying. 21 Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. 22 I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ, 23 but they only heard: “He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy.” 24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. 2 I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. 4 This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; 5 to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. 6 But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn’t show partiality to man)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, 7 but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcision 8 (for he who appointed Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles); 9 and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision. 10 They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when Peter came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. 14 But when I saw that they didn’t walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter before them all, “If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?”

15 “We, being Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners, 16 yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law. 17 But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not! 18 For if I

* 1:6-7 The Apostle Paul’s letter indicates that false teachers were active, and that believers were being deceived by them. Many churches today similarly preach a “different ‘good news’” or “pervert the Good News of Christ.”

Do you attend such a church? The only way to be sure that your church teaches the real Gospel is to read the Bible for yourself—not someone’s sermons or discussions about the Bible, but the actual written Word of God.

build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker. 19 For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. 21 I don't make void the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"

CHAPTER THREE

1 Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly portrayed among you as crucified? 2 I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? 4 Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? 5 He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and does miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? 6 Even as Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness." 7 Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abraham. 8 The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you all the nations will be blessed." Genesis 12:3; 18:18; 22:18 9 So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them." Deuteronomy 27:26 11 Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith." Habakkuk 2:4 12 The law is not of faith, but, "The man who does them will live by them." Leviticus 18:5

13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree," Deuteronomy 21:23 14 that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. 15 Brothers, speaking in human terms, though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it. 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring. He doesn't say, "To descendants," as of many, but as of one, "To your offspring," Genesis 12:7; 13:15; 24:7 which is Christ. 17 Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect. 18 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

* 3:16 With millions of people of all nationalities putting faith in the Jewish Messiah descended from Abraham, it is already true that, as God promised Abraham, "And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed." (Gen 22:18 KJV) Even greater blessings for all mankind lie ahead when, as promised elsewhere in the Bible, Christ returns to rule the world in righteousness.

19 What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. 20 Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one. 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law. 22 But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. 23 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law,† confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. 26 For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring and heirs according to promise.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all; 2 but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. 3 So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world.

4 But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law, 5 that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children. 6 And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of his Son

† 3:23-25 Paul makes it clear that Christians are not under the jurisdiction of the laws given to the Jewish nation through Moses. "The law was our guardian leading us to Christ so that we could be made right with God through faith. Now the way of faith has come, and we no longer live under a guardian." (Gal. 3:24-25 NCV) Instead, Paul tells Christians to "Live by following the Spirit." (Gal. 5:16)

Those led by God's Holy Spirit produce the fruits of the Spirit, not the works of the flesh: "Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law."—Galatians 5:19-23 into your hearts, crying, “Abba, Father!”*

7 So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods. 9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again? 10 You observe days, months, seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. 12 I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, 13 but you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the Good News to you the first time. 14 That which was a trial to you in my flesh, you didn’t despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 What was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them. 18 But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

* 4:5-6 Besides promising forgiveness of sins, the prophecy of a new covenant in Jeremiah 31:34 also went on to say, “they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,” declares the LORD.” This did not mean just additional details of knowledge or information about God, but actually knowing God personally. How? By being adopted as his children, and by his Spirit coming to live within us, as stated here.

And Jeremiah was not offering a new covenant for just a handful of people in the First Century. Rather, it would be God’s way of dealing with people from that time onward.

The new covenant was established at the Last Supper with the Son of God sitting privately to share a meal with his twelve apostles. The setting was so intimate that John leaned back onto Jesus’ breast to ask him a question. (John 13:25) That intimacy was to continue, as Jesus made clear in the words that he prayed in the hearing of his apostles:

“My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us . . . Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me. I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them.”—John 17:20-26 NIV

Jesus promised his continuing presence with his disciples: “For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”—Matthew 18:20 KJV

In fact, we have Jesus’ promise that “He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. . . . and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.”—John 14:21-23 KJV

You, too, can know God in this intimate way, according to Jesus’ words at Luke 11:10-13: “For every one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”—Luke 11:10-13 RSV

Jesus invites you: “Come to me, all of you who are tired from carrying heavy loads, and I will give you rest.”—Matthew 11:28 TEV

“I will never turn away anyone who comes to me.”—John 6:37 TEV

19 My little children, of whom I am again in childbirth pains until Christ is formed in you—20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. 21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don’t you listen to the law? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant, and one by the free woman. 23 However, the son by the servant was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise. 24 These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar. 25 For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the Jerusalem that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is the mother of us all. 27 For it is written, “Rejoice, you barren who don’t bear.

Break out and shout, you that don’t travail.

For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband.” Isaiah 54:1

28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are children of promise. 29 But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. 30 However what does the Scripture say? “Throw out the servant and her son, for the son of the servant will not inherit with the son of the free woman.” Genesis 21:10 31 So then, brothers, we are not children of a servant, but of the free woman.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and don’t be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. 2 Behold, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. 5 For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. 7 You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion is not from him who calls you. 9 A little yeast grows through the whole lump. 10 I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11 But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. 12 I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. 13 For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don’t use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. 14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Leviticus 19:18 15 But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don’t consume one another. 16 But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won’t fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. 19 Now the deeds of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, 21 envy, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit God's Kingdom.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law. 24 Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. 25 If we live by the Spirit, let's also walk by the Spirit. 26 Let's not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

CHAPTER SIX

1 Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each man test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor. 5 For each man will bear his own load. 6 But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. 7 Don't be deceived.† God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. 8 For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up. 10 So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

11 See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand.

12 As many as desire to look good in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. 13 For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. 14 But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For in Christ Jesus neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. 16 As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel. 17 From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus branded on my body.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

* 5:19-21 The Apostle Paul says that those who practice the behaviors listed here will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

† 6:7-8 Some may think they can claim God's forgiveness as Christians and so ignore God's requirements for Christian behavior. They are deceiving themselves. This passage is very clear about what happens if we deliberately keep on sinning.

EPHESIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ; 4 even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without defect before him in love; 5 having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, 6 to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he freely gave us favor in the Beloved, 7 in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, 8 which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him 10 to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; 11 in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who does all things after the counsel of his will; 12 to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: 13 in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, 14 who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory.

15 For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints, 16 don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; 18 having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might 20 which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. 22 He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the assembly, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

CHAPTER TWO

1 You were made alive when you were dead in transgressions and sins, 2 in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; 3 among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. 4 But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, 5 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), 6 and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7 that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus; 8 for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9 not of works, that no one would boast. 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them.

11 Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "uncircumcision" by that which is called "circumcision," (in the flesh, made by hands); 12 that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ. 14 For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, 15 having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace; 16 and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility thereby. 17 He came and preached peace to you who were far off and to those who were near.

18 For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. 19 So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, 20 being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone; 21 in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; 22 in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

CHAPTER THREE

1 For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, 2 if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you; 3 how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, 4 by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; 5 which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; 6 that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of his promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News, 7 of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power.

8 To me, the very least of all saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, 9 and to make all men see what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ; 10 to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places, 11 according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord; 12 in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him. 13 Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.

14 For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, 16 that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; 17 that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and height and depth, 19 and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. 20 Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21 to him be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, 2 with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love; 3 being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism, 6 one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all. 7 But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 8 Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men." Psalm 68:18 9 Now this, "He ascended," what is it but that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

11 He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds and teachers; 12 for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ; 13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; 14 that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; 15 but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Christ; 16 from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind, 18 being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; 19 who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But you did not learn Christ that way; 21 if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: 22 that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; 23 and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and put on the new man, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

25 Therefore putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members of one another. 26 "Be angry, and don't sin." Psalm 4:4 Don't let the sun go down on your wrath, 27 and don't give place to the devil. 28 Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, producing with his hands something that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. 29 Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but only what is good for building others up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. 30 Don't grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. 32 And be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. 2 Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. 3 But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints; 4 nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

5 Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God.

6 Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. 7 Therefore don't be partakers with them. 8 For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, 9 for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, 10 proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. 11 Have no fellowship with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather even reprove them. 12 For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. 13 But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. 14 Therefore he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

15 Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise; 16 redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore don't be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. 18 Don't be drunken with wine, in which is dissipation, but be filled with the Spirit, 19 speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; singing, and making melody in your heart to the Lord; 20 giving thanks always concerning all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God, even the Father; 21 subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of Christ.

22 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, and Christ also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body. 24 But as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it; 26 that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, 27 that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without defect. 28 Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. 29 For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord also does the assembly; 30 because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones. 31 "For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh." Genesis 2:24 32 This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Christ and the assembly. 33 Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

CHAPTER SIX

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 2 "Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with a promise: 3 "that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth." Deuteronomy 5:16

4 You fathers, don't provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; 6 not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men pleasers; but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; 7 with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men; 8 knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is bound or free.

9 You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

10 Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. 11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces* of wickedness in the heavenly places. 13 Therefore put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace; 16 above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword† of the Spirit, which is the word of God; 18 with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints: 19 on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you all things; 22 whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptible love. Amen.

* 6:11-12 Our struggle is not really against the flesh and blood enemies we can see, but against invisible enemies—the devil and his evil spiritual forces of darkness—even when anti-Christian forces persecute us during these end times.

† 6:14-18 This is the equipment we must have in order to win the spiritual battles we face in this world—while praying at all times.

PHILIPPIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons: 2 Grace to you, and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 I thank my God whenever I remember you, 4 always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, 5 for your partnership in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. 7 It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. 8 For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus.

9 This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; 10 so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ; 11 being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; 13 so that it became evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds* are in Christ; 14 and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. 15 Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. 16 The former insincerely preach Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains; 17 but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News.

18 What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. 21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I don't know what I will choose. 23 But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. 24 Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. 25 Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

27 Only let your way of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; 28 and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God. 29 Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, 30 having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

CHAPTER TWO

1 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion, 2 make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; 3 doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; 4 each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

5 Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus, 6 who, existing in the form of God, didn't consider equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in human form, he humbled† himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross. 9 Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name; 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. 14 Do‡ all things

* 1:12-13 Paul's words and experiences serve as an encouragement to followers of Jesus today who face imprisonment or worse in many parts of the earth.

† Rather than feel sorry for himself, he rejoiced that the Gospel message was reaching even government workers—"the whole palace guard"—as a result of his imprisonment.

‡ 2:5-8 Jesus set the example for us in humility. We should imitate that example.

‡ 2:14-15 Paul encouraged his readers to behave as "children of God"

without murmurings and disputes, 15 that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without defect in the middle of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, 16 holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain. 17 Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. 18 In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. 20 For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. 21 For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News. 23 Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. 24 But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly. 25 But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need; 26 since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. 27 For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. 28 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor, 30 because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. 3 For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; 4 though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; 6 concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

7 However, I consider those things that were gain to me as a loss for Christ. 8 Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be a loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; 10 that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; 11 if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus.

13 Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you. 16 Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule. Let us be of the same mind. 17 Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. 18 For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ, 19 whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. 20 For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; 21 who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working of his power by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, my beloved. 2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord. 3 Yes, I beg you also, true partner, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. 4 Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, "Rejoice!" 5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. 6 In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God,* which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

* 4:6-7 These words of encouragement were written by a man who himself had gone through prisons and beatings and many other hardships for the Gospel of Christ. So, we can be confident that they are not mere empty words. God can and will carry us through our trials.

8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things. 9 The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you. 10 But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. 12 I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need. 13 I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me. 14 However you did well that you shared in my affliction. 15 You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. 16 For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. 17 Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. 18 But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God. 19 My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. 20 Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. 22 All the saints greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household. 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

COLOSSIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2 to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints, 5 because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, 6 which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; 7 even as you learned from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf, 8 who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 that you may walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; 11 strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; 12 giving thanks to the Father, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; 13 who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom* of the Son of his love; 14 in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins; 15 who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

16 For by him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. 18 He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. 19 For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him; 20 and through him to reconcile all things to himself, by him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of his cross.

21 You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil deeds, 22 yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without defect and blameless before him, 23 if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly; 25 of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, 26 the mystery† which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints, 27 to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; 28 whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; 29 for which I also labor, striving according to his power, which works in me mightily.

CHAPTER TWO

1 For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2 that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, 3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. 6 As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him, 7 rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. 8 Be careful that you don't let anyone‡ rob you through his philosophy and

† 1:26-27 Christians have been adopted as God's children with the hope of a glorious future forever in heaven. Christ, the captain of our salvation, suffered for us, to set us free from slavery to this sinful world. "For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings." —Hebrews 2:10 NKJV

God's purpose is to bring many sons and daughters to glory—to adopt us as his children and bring us to heaven to live with him in glory. We can't really understand the meaning of life without grasping this.

This "mystery," or "secret" as some translations put it, was kept from mankind over the centuries until God revealed it through the New Testament. Christ actually lives with us and in us by his Holy Spirit.

‡ 2:8 Like the recipients of this letter, we too need to be on guard against false teachers who would lead us astray through their philosophy or deceptions or so-called 'science.'

* 1:13 Even though we continue to live in the midst of this world, our allegiance is now given to the Kingdom of the Son of God.

vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily, 10 and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; 11 in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; 12 having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

13 You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, 14 wiping out the handwriting of ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15 having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no one therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, 17 which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. 18 Let no one rob you of your prize by a phony humility and worshiping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has not seen,* vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. 20 If you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, 21 "Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch" 22 (all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? 23 Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

CHAPTER THREE

1 If then you were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God. 2 Set your mind† on the things that are

* 2:16-18 False teachers in the churches may seek to impose the Law of Moses on their followers, or to focus on things that they claim to have received by special revelation. Beware of any who go beyond the message of the Bible or who deviate from its teachings. The message that God wants all of us to hear and believe is written plainly in the Bible for all to read.

† 3:2 If we focus on our troubles in this world—or on this world's offer of wealth and power—we will be weakened in faith. Rather, we should focus on the things above, heavenly things. Then we will not be shaken, but will be strong in faith, no matter what pressures or temptations come upon us from this world.

above, not on the things that are on the earth. 3 For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, our life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with him in glory. 5 Put to death therefore your members which are on the earth: sexual immorality, uncleanness, depraved passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; 6 for which things' sake the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. 7 You also once walked in those, when you lived in them; 8 but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth. 9 Don't lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his doings, 10 and have put on the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge after the image of his Creator, 11 where there can't be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondservant, freeman; but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has a complaint against any; even as Christ forgave you, so you also do.

14 Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord.

17 Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father, through him.

18 Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and don't be bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord.

21 Fathers, don't provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. 23 And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men, 24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ. 25 But he who does wrong will receive payment for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Masters,‡ give to your servants that which is just and fair, knowing that you also have a

‡ 4:1 Slavery was part of the social fabric of the Roman Empire, enshrined in law, and generally was not as harsh or oppressive as the enslavement of Africans in the American South. Rather than foment revolution in a society where a large percentage of the population worked as slaves, Paul gave believers the advice found here, which can also be applied to employers and employees in our world today.

Master in heaven.

2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; 3 praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds; 4 that I may reveal it as I ought to speak. 5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

7 All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, a beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in the Lord. 8 I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts, 9 together with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here. 10 Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments, "if he comes to you, receive him"), 11 and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for God's Kingdom who are of the circumcision, men who have been a comfort to me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. 13 For I testify about him, that he has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. 14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. 15 Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly that is in his house. 16 When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans; and you also read the letter from Laodicea. 17 Tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."

18 The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand: remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, 3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and enduring hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father. 4 We know, brothers loved by God, that you are chosen, 5 and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. 6 You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, 7 so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. 8 For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we need not to say anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, 10 and to wait* for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER TWO

1 For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit

* 1:9-10 Those who believe in the living and true God wait eagerly for the return of his Son.

Authors LaHaye and Jenkins present this verse as one of the reasons "why the Rapture must be pre-Tribulation." "The church is to be delivered from the wrath to come." (Are We Living in the End Times, pages 107, 110) In their view the "wrath to come" is a seven-year tribulation, and Christ delivers Christians by rapturing them just before the tribulation begins.

However, it is a stretch to claim that delivering the Church from God's wrath requires removing the Church from the earth. In the Lord's prayer Jesus taught us to pray, "deliver us from evil." Does this mean we are asking to be raptured from the earth before anything evil befalls us? No, the context indicates the prayer refers to daily temptations and every-day evils, just as it refers to ordinary "daily bread." (Matthew 6:11-13 KJV) Christ delivers us from evil without removing us from the scene. Likewise, he can deliver Christians from God's final wrath without removing Christians from the earth.

Psalms 91 tells how God will "deliver" the faithful. "Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him. I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him." (Ps. 91:14-15 KJV) The Psalm speaks of warfare, pestilence and destruction on a grand scale, but does not imply that the believer would have to be removed from the scene in order to be delivered from such wrath. Rather, the promise to the believer is that God will "cover thee...under his wings." (vs. 4) "A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand, but it shall not come near to thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked." (vs. 7-8)

In a similar manner, Jesus could deliver us from the wrath to come by shielding us as that wrath descends all around us. Of course, he may choose to rapture us before the wrath begins. But, in any case, this passage certainly does not prove that there will be a secret Rapture followed by a seven-year tribulation.

Compare 1 Thessalonians 5:9 and the discussion of that verse.

to you wasn't in vain, 2 but having suffered before and having been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. 3 For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. 4 But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. 5 For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), 6 nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

8 Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. 9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. 10 You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. 11 As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a father does his own children, 12 to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own Kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men,† but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. 14 For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews; 15 who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and didn't please God, and are contrary to all men; 16 forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, 18 because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord Jesus at his coming? 20 For you are our glory and our

†† 2:13 The Gospel message found in the Bible is not a man-made teaching. Like the rest of the Bible, it is the written Word of God.

For that reason, we do well to read the Bible so much that it colors how we think about sermons we hear and books we read. If we devote more time to sermons and books than to the Bible, then those writings of men will color how we think about the Bible.

joy.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Therefore when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, 2 and sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; 3 that no one be unnerved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. 4 For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. 5 For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. 6 But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; 7 for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. 8 For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. 9 For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; 10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? 11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you; 12 and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, 13 to the end that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more and more. 2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, 4 that each one of you know how to control his own body in sanctification and honor, 5 not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who don't know God; 6 that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. 7 For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. 8 Therefore he

* 4:3 The letters of the Apostles repeatedly emphasize that Christians are not only forgiven, but are also expected to live according to God's standards, not man's.

The New Century Version puts it this way: "God wants you to be holy and to stay away from sexual sins. . . . Don't use your body for sexual sin like the people who do not know God. Also, do not wrong or cheat another Christian in this way. The Lord will punish people who do those things as we have already told you and warned you. God called us to be holy and does not want us to live in sin. So, the person who refuses to obey this teaching is disobeying God, not simply a human teaching." (1 Thess. 4:3-8 NCV) who rejects this doesn't reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.

9 But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, 10 for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; 11 and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; 12 that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

13 But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep† in Jesus. 15 For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord,‡ will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, 17 then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. 18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER FIVE

† 4:13-14 When a loved one dies in Christ, we are not left without hope like the unbelievers. We grieve at our loss, just as we would if our loved one had been whisked away incommunicado to a distant land, but our grief is tempered by hope.

Besides knowing that our dead Christian loved ones are alive in the heavenly presence of God, enjoying happiness beyond anything we can imagine in this world, we also know that we will be re-united with them again—either when we, too, fall asleep in death and join them in heaven, or when Christ returns.

‡ 4:15-17 Paul outlines here the sequence of events when Christ returns: First, there is the bodily resurrection of Christians who died from the early days of the Church down though present times. (Their spirits went to be with Christ immediately when they died, but now their bodies are also resurrected.) Second, there is the rapture of believers who are alive on earth waiting for Christ to return; we are caught up together with them, to meet the Lord in the air.

Note that this does not imply anything about a 7-year tribulation to follow, with an antichrist ruling as in the Left Behind novels. Bible scholars like Wycliffe, Tyndale, Wesley, Knox, Luther, Calvin and Spurgeon saw no such teaching in Scripture. See the notes on the next chapter.

1 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. 2 For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. 3 For when they are saying, “Peace and safety,” then sudden destruction* will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. 4 But you, brothers, aren’t in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. 5 You are all children of light, and children of the day. We don’t belong to the night, nor to darkness, 6 so then let’s not sleep, as the rest do, but let’s watch† and be sober. 7 For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. 8 But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 9 For God didn’t appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.‡

11 Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. 12 But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you, 13 and to respect and honor them in love for their work’s sake.

Be at peace among yourselves. 14 We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. 15 See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

16 Rejoice always. 17 Pray without ceasing. § 18 In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you. 19 Don’t quench the Spirit. 20 Don’t despise prophesies. 21 Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good. 22 Abstain from every form of evil.

23 May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 He who calls you is faithful, who will also do it. 25 Brothers, pray for us. 26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. 27 I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

* 5:2-3 When Christ returns, Paul indicates that the rapture of believers to meet him in the air will be followed immediately by the “sudden destruction” of the wicked—not by a 7-year tribulation.

There were no chapter divisions in Paul’s letters as found in the oldest manuscripts; it was later scribes who divided the passage above into chapters and verses. Chapter Four flowed directly into Chapter Five as one complete thought, even though it spans two chapters in our modern Bibles. Paul here says that Christ will descend, dead Christians will rise, living Christians will be raptured, and unbelievers will be taken by surprise and suddenly destroyed.

Supporters of Left Behind don’t like to read this complete passage in context. Why not? Because a key element of Left Behind theology is the belief that Christ will return twice: first secretly at the Rapture, and then a second time openly, seven years later at the Glorious Appearing. The Apostle Paul debunks that theory by putting the Rapture and the destruction of the wicked together in one passage, above.

Apologists for Left Behind evidently recognize that unindoctrinated readers of the Bible would never come to the conclusion, on their own, that Christ returns twice, so they argue for their complex interpretation by arranging Scripture passages in charts and tables, with verses they attach to the Rapture under one heading and verses they believe are fulfilled seven years later under another heading. Thus Mark Hitchcock and Thomas Ice list 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 under the “Rapture” heading in a series of charts on pages 36-38 of their book The Truth Behind Left Behind. Strangely, though, they don’t include the verses that immediately follow in 1 Thessalonians 5:1-3. In fact, they don’t refer to these verses at all in these charts—because the conclusion would be obvious: that Paul did not separate the Rapture from the execution of judgment on the wicked. Paul presented Christ as returning once to accomplish both purposes at the same time, as his inspired words above show in their full context.

† 5:6 Jesus devoted a significant portion of his teaching to the subject of his return and the end of the world. Many of his parables are devoted to this theme, describing how people would be caught by surprise, and would be rewarded or punished at that time: for example, the parable of the ten virgins, the parable of the talents, and the parable of the sheep and the goats—all found in the twenty-fifth chapter of the Gospel of Matthew—and the parable of the faithful and wise servant at the end of the twenty-fourth chapter.

Jesus told us to “Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. . . . be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.”—Matthew 24:42-44 NIV

‡ 5:9-10 The authors of the Left Behind series consider verse 9 to be proof that a 7-year Tribulation follows the Rapture. They argue, “Since the Tribulation is especially the time of God’s wrath, and since Christians are not appointed to wrath, then it follows that the church will be raptured before the Tribulation...” (Are We Living in the End Times? page 112.) However, reading the verse in context leads to an entirely different conclusion: that “sudden destruction” comes upon the wicked without any 7-year delay. Compare 1 Thess. 1:10.

§ 5:17 Our personal relationship with God is what will carry us through difficult times. And any personal relationship depends on communication. So, we need to pray continually—not just formal prayer with our head bowed, but also spontaneous silent prayer as we speak to God from our hearts throughout the day.

2 THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds; 4 so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. 5 This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of God's Kingdom, for which you also suffer. 6 Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, 7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, 8 giving vengeance to those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey* the Good News of our Lord Jesus, 9 who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, 10 when he comes to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.

11 To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; 12 that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Now, brothers, concerning the coming† of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to him, we ask you 2 not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of Christ

* 1:7-8 Persecuted Christians will be given relief when Christ returns, while persecutors and others who refuse to obey God will be punished.

† 2:1-2 Paul here refuted the false teaching that Christ had already returned, as some were apparently arguing at that time.

Similarly in modern times certain Adventists expected the return of Christ on a certain date in 1874, and when nothing happened, they insisted Jesus must have returned invisibly. The Jehovah's Witness sect later sprang from that group, changing the date and claiming Christ returned invisibly in 1914.

had come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the falling away‡ comes first, and the man of sin § is revealed, the son

‡ 2:3b The falling away had not yet come when Paul penned these words, but there is nothing in the passage to indicate that this apostasy still lies in the future from our day. Early Church writers expected it to occur after the collapse of the Roman Empire. The reformers saw it as fulfilled with the elevation of the Bishop of Rome to the office of Pontifex Maximus. This was the title of the high priest of pagan Rome before the Empire; then the Caesars took on the title; finally, with the demise of the Empire and the rise of papal power, Pope Gregory I (c. 540-604 A.D.) took the pagan title upon himself. As a result, the pope today is commonly referred to as the Pontiff.

Along with the pagan title came a host of pagan practices: a hierarchy of priests as mediators between men and God, veneration of saints, the use of images reminiscent of ancient idol worship, transformation of Communion into the mass, the claimed miracle of transubstantiation, and so on.

Since the 1800s there has also been a falling away within Protestantism. How many churches today stand up for the Bible's creation account in the face of the teaching of evolution? How many condemn the sin of homosexual conduct? For that matter, how often are sermons preached denouncing fornication and adultery? Moreover, the "leaven of Herod" that Jesus warned against (Mark 8:15) has permeated the churches, so that political alliances and financial support from questionable sources cloud the thinking of those who should be preaching the pure Gospel message.

So, this "falling away" began centuries ago and has blossomed so fully in our day that it is easy to see why Jesus asked, "when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?" (Luke 18:8 NKJV)

§ 2:3b Who is this "man of sin." Is he an individual or a group? Does he arise within the Church or outside? Does he sit in the spiritual temple, the Church, or in a physical temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem?

The prevalent view in Protestant evangelical churches today is presented in Tim LaHaye's Left Behind novels, where a single individual man—their Nicolae Carpathia character—rebuilds the Jewish temple, and then personally fulfills the prophecy.

But that view gained ground in Protestant churches only as recently as the late 1800s and early 1900s. Before that, from the Reformation in the 1500s through the 1800s, Protestants were almost universally in agreement that the "man of sin" was the pope of Rome—not a particular pope, but the office of the papacy, and whoever held that office—and that the temple where he sits is the Church: "Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is sacred, and you are that temple." (1 Cor. 3:16-17) Martin Luther, John Calvin, Roger Williams, John Knox, Jonathan Edwards, John Wesley, William Tyndale, John Wycliffe, John Huss, and the 1646 Westminster Confession of Faith all affirmed that the Pope was the prophesied "man of sin."

The Westminster Confession of Faith (1646-1647) declared, "There is no other head of the Church, but the Lord Jesus Christ; nor can the Pope of Rome, in any sense, be head thereof; but is that Antichrist, that man of sin, and son of perdition, that exalteth himself, in the Church..." (chapter 25, section 6) According to Albert Barnes (1798-1870), "Most Protestant commentators have referred it to the great apostasy under the Papacy, and, by the 'man of sin'... an allusion to the Roman Pontiff, the Pope." (Notes on the New Testament, 2 Thess. 2:3)

Colonial American Congregationalist theologian and missionary Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) expressed it this way: "And it is prophesied, that this man of sin should set himself up in the temple or visible church of God, pretending to be vested with divine power, as head of the church, (2 Thess. ii. 4.) And all this is exactly come to pass in the church of Rome." (A History of the Work of Redemption)

Luther taught that "St. Paul prophesied all this, when in 2 Thess. 2, 3-4, he calls him: 'The man of sin and the son of perdition'" and applied the passage to the papacy. (Martin Luther's "Sermon for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Trinity; Matthew 24:15-28" from his Church Postil, first published in 1525.)

John Owen (English church leader, 1613-1683) wrote "Papal usurpation upon these offices of Christ manifests the pope to be the Man of Sin." (Two Short Catechisms, Chap. XI. — Of the Offices of Christ; and, First, of His

of destruction, 4 he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sits as God in the temple of Kingly) The London Baptist Confession of faith (1677/1689) declared, "The Lord Jesus Christ is the Head of the Church...neither can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that Antichrist, that Man of sin, and Son of perdition, that exalteth himself in the Church against Christ..."

Luther also said that supporters of the papacy argue for fulfillment in a rebuilt Jewish temple, to point the finger away from the pope: "the Papists want to turn this passage from themselves and say: Christ and Paul are speaking of the temple of Jerusalem, that Antichrist shall sit and rule there." (Luther's "Sermon for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Trinity; Matthew 24:15-28" from his Church Postil)

But Martin Luther and John Calvin themselves also spoke of Antichrist as having two legs or two horns: one leg the papacy and the other Islam, or one horn the papacy and the other Islam. Both arose at about the same time in history. So, could the "man of sin" find fulfillment both in the papacy and in the anti-Christian Islamic presence on Temple Mount? See the note on the next verse, 2 Thessalonians 2:4.

2:4 To fulfill the prophecy, is it necessary for someone or some group to say the words "I am God"? Or is sitting in God's place equivalent to declaring oneself to be God? Does he occupy God's place in the Church or on Temple Mount? Or, perhaps both?

The answer could be both, if the anti-Christian role of Islam is considered. Islam has occupied Temple Mount in Jerusalem for about as long as the pope has been exalted in Rome. And Ezekiel 43:12 says the entire top of Temple Mount is holy, so the Islamic Dome of the Rock and the Al Aqsa Mosque that are found there today constitute an Islamic presence sitting in God's place.

Cyril of Jerusalem, who lived from 315 to 386 A.D., quoted from 2 Thessalonians 2 and then wrote, "So that he seateth himself in the temple of God: What temple then? He means, the Temple of the Jews which has been destroyed. For God forbid that it should be the one in which we are!" (Lecture 15, paragraph 15) So, Cyril saw the possibility of this passage finding fulfillment within the Church and/or on Temple Mount.

Martin Luther and John Calvin spoke of Antichrist as having two legs or two horns: one leg the papacy and the other Islam, or one horn the papacy and the other Islam.

Calvin saw the Pope and "Mahomet" as "the two horns of the Antichrist." He declared, "Lyke as Mahomet saith ty his Alcoran is ye souveraine wisdom, so saith the Pope of his owne decrees: For they be the two hornes of Antichrist." (The Sermons of M. John Calvin upon the Fifth Booke of Moses called Deuteronomie, translated by Arthur Golding, first published in London, 1583, for a facsimile reprint by Banner of Truth Trust, 1987.) Or, to put that archaic English into modern speech, "Like as Mohammed says that his Koran is the sovereign wisdom, so says the Pope of his own decrees: For they are the two horns of Antichrist."

Calvin also wrote, "Paul, however, does not speak of one individual, but of a kingdom, that was to be taken possession of by Satan, that he might set up a seat of abomination in the midst of God's temple—which we see accomplished in Popery. The revolt, it is true, has spread more widely, for Mahomet, as he was an apostate, turned away the Turks, his followers, from Christ." (Calvin's Commentary on Philippians, Colossians, and Thessalonians)

If Calvin saw the papacy and Islam as the two "horns" of the Antichrist, Martin Luther saw them as the two "legs" of the same Antichrist. (Luther's Works, Weimer ed., 53, 394f.) Luther added, "the Pope is the spirit of antichrist, and the Turk is the flesh of antichrist. They help each other in their murderous work. The latter slaughters bodily by the sword; and the former spiritually by doctrine." (Luther's Tischreden, Weimer ed., 1, No. 330)

Calvin and Luther lived in an era when people who chose to read the Bible and follow Jesus were being put to death by enemies of biblical Christianity. The pope of Rome was executing people who wanted to read and follow the Bible, and Islamic armies were conquering Christian lands and leading their inhabitants to renounce belief in Christ. Luther and Calvin identified both of those enemies as the Antichrist.

For centuries the Roman Catholic papacy had been using the Inquisition to stop ordinary people from reading the Bible in their own language. The papacy was burning Bible-readers at the stake as "heretics." Prominent among these were Czech Bible translator John Hus, executed in 1415, and English Bible translator William Tyndale, executed in 1536—but there were thousands of others killed by the Inquisition and other papal authorities.

God, setting himself up as God. 5 Don't you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? 6 Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.

7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way.† 8 Then the lawless one will

And, during the same time period, the armies of Islam were threatening Christendom from the east and from the west—Moors in Spain until the late 1400's and Ottoman Turks invading eastern Europe and even besieging Vienna, Austria, in 1529.

The early disciples had obeyed Christ's command to "go and make disciples of all nations" (Matt. 28:19 NIV), and by the year 600 A.D. Christianity was the prevailing religion from the British Isles across Europe and Eurasia to the Black Sea, south to the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers, farther south to the Nile River in Egypt, and across North Africa to the straits of Gibraltar. Besides the southern European countries, the lands we know today as Morocco, Tunisia, Algeria, Libya, Egypt, Jordan, Syria, Turkey and Iraq were largely Christian by the seventh century A.D. Then came the Islamic conquest of the mid-to-late 600's and early 700's. Today those same countries of North Africa and the Middle East are almost exclusively Muslim.

God's temple in Jerusalem was destroyed by Roman armies almost two thousand years ago. Some students of the Bible expect a future Antichrist to build another temple there, to fulfill the prophecy of 2 Thessalonians 2:4. But Islam has already built a temple there. Might the prophecy be fulfilled by the structures sitting in God's place on Temple Mount since shortly after the Islamic conquest?

An Islamic temple called the Dome of the Rock sits there today, and it bears an inscription saying it was built by "the servant of God Abd al-Malik Ibn Marwan, emir of the faithful, in the year seventy-two." (The year 72 in the Muslim calendar is 691-692 A.D.) Adjacent to it sits the Al Aqsa Mosque which was built around the same time, and has been rebuilt a number of times over the centuries.

Consider what the Arabic inscriptions on the walls of the Dome of the Rock say about Jesus Christ. Are they the sort of statements we would expect of an Antichrist? These inscriptions repeatedly deny that Jesus is the Son of God. They say:

"Oh God, bless Your Messenger and Your servant Jesus son of Mary. Peace be on him the day he was born, and the day he dies, and the day he shall be raised alive!"

"God is only One God. Far be it removed from His transcendent majesty that He should have a son."

"The Messiah, Jesus son of Mary, was only a Messenger of God, and His Word which He conveyed unto Mary, and a spirit from Him."

"Such was Jesus, son of Mary... It befiteth not God that He should take unto Himself a son."

"Praise be to God, Who hath not taken unto Himself a son."

Notice how closely these inscriptions on the walls of the Dome of the Rock fit the Apostle John's definition of an Antichrist as "the man who denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a man is the antichrist—he denies the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father." (1 John 2:22-23) So, could this Dome of the Rock, which sits in God's place on Temple Mount, be Antichrist's temple?

See, also, the notes on Matthew 24:15 and 1 Corinthians 3:16-17.

† 2:6-10 If the "man of sin" were Left Behind's antichrist figure, Nicolae Carpathia, with the Church holding him back, it is hard to imagine his power being "already at work" when Paul wrote to the Thessalonian congregation. But if the traditional Protestant understanding is meant, then Paul's comments make more sense.

"Bishop Newton maintains that the foundations of popery were laid in the apostle's days, and that the superstructure was raised by degrees; and this is entirely in accordance with the statements of the apostle Paul," according to the commentary on these verses in Barnes' Notes (1884-85 edition) by Albert Barnes. "This was kept in check as long as Rome was the seat of the imperial power," Barnes continues. After the Roman be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; 9 even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10 and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie; 12 that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 13 But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning empire's secular power was taken out of the way, the pope was able to hold sway—and Islam was able to rise in the east.

Commenting on this passage in his Commentary on Philippians, Colossians, and Thessalonians, Calvin, too, explains how the iniquity was already at work:

"The mystery of iniquity. This is opposed to revelation; for as Satan had not yet gathered so much strength, as that Antichrist could openly oppress the Church, he says that he is carrying on secretly and clandestinely what he would do openly in his own time. He was therefore at that time secretly laying the foundations on which he would afterwards rear the edifice, as actually took place. And this tends to confirm more fully what I have already stated, that it is not one individual that is represented under the term Antichrist, but one kingdom, which extends itself through many ages. In the same sense, John says that Antichrist will come, but that there were already many in his time. (1 John 2:18.) For he admonishes those who were then living to be on their guard against that deadly pestilence, which was at that time shooting up in various forms. For sects were rising up which were the seeds, as it were, of that unhappy weed which has well-nigh choked and destroyed God's entire tillage."

So, Calvin saw evidence of the antichrist's kingdom at work long before the papacy took power. Rather than the Roman empire holding it back, however, Calvin's view, as explained in the same Commentary, was that "the light of the gospel must be diffused though all parts of the earth before God would thus give loose reins to Satan," and so it was the need for the Word to be spread first that was the restraining factor. Yet the timing proved to be the same.

The majority view, however was that the Roman Empire was the force holding back the Antichrist. This understanding was already common in the early Church, even while Rome still ruled. "What obstacle is there but the Roman state, the falling away of which, by being scattered into ten kingdoms, shall introduce Antichrist upon (its own ruins)?" wrote Tertullian (145 to 220 A.D.) in De Resurrectione Carnis (On The Resurrection of the Flesh). Cyril of Jerusalem (315 to 386 A.D.) wrote, "But this aforesaid Antichrist is to come when the times of the Roman empire shall have been fulfilled... There shall rise up together ten kings of the Romans... and after these an eleventh, the Antichrist, who by his magical craft shall seize upon the Roman power." (Catechetical Lectures, Lecture XV)

So, for nearly two thousand years—from Tertullian to Albert Barnes—the common view was that the Roman Empire was the force holding back the Antichrist from appearing, an antichrist whose power was already at work in Paul's day and whose full manifestation was found later in the rise of papal power.

As for Satan's signs and lying wonders, "It is hardly necessary to remark that the papacy has always relied for support on its pretended miracles," says Barnes Notes when commenting on these verses. After mentioning specific miracles claimed for various relics and shrines, Barnes adds, "In addition to these and all similar pretensions, there is the power claimed of performing a miracle at the pleasure of the priest by the change of bread and wine into 'the body and blood, the soul and divinity' of the Lord Jesus. ...The power of working miracles has been one of the standing claims of the Papacy."

for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; 14 to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, 17 comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; 2 and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. 4 We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. 5 May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us. 7 For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you, 8 neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; 9 not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. 10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, don't let him eat." 11 For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies. 12 Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing well. 14 If any man doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. 15 Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

17 The greeting of me, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write. 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 TIMOTHY

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Savior, and Christ Jesus our hope; 2 to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, 4 and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith— 5 but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith; 6 from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; 7 desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. 8 But we know that the law is good, if a man uses it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners†, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man slayers, 10 for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; 11 according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 12 And I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; 13 although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 14 The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners‡; of whom I am chief. 16 However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life. 17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

18 This instruction I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare; 19 holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith; 20 among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER TWO

1 I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all men: 2 for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; 4 who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, 6 who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; 7 to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth in Christ, not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. 9 In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; 10 but (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. 11 Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12 But I don't permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve. 14 Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; 15 but she will be saved through her childbearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety.

CHAPTER THREE

1 This is a faithful saying: if a man seeks the office of an overseer, he desires a good work. 2 The overseers therefore must be righteous, but sinners to repentance.—Mark 2:17

Like Paul, we too may have sinned "ignorantly in unbelief," but we too can obtain God's mercy when we repent and choose to follow Jesus. Like Paul, we too can change our conduct, abandoning practices that God condemns. Jesus is alive and active in the lives of those who accept him not only as their Savior, but also as their Lord—to save them from their sins and to lead them through life from now on. God's Holy Spirit can empower believers to make changes in their conduct that would have been impossible on their own. As ancient king David wrote, we can pray, "LORD . . . Take away my desire to do evil or to join others in doing wrong. Don't let me eat tasty food with those who do evil." —Psalm 141:4 NCV

§ 3:2-7 Paul sets out clearly God's standards for a man who would serve as a pastor in a local church. See also Titus 1:5-9.

* 1:3 Teachers of false doctrines were already active in the first century Church. How much more so today!

† 1:9-10 Have you committed one of the offenses listed here? The list identifies sinful conduct displeasing to God, but those who have behaved in these ways have hope, because verse 15 says Jesus came into the world to save such people.

‡ 1:15 Paul considered himself "chief" of sinners, because he had persecuted the Church before becoming a Christian himself—even participating in the killing of Stephen. (Acts 7:58) If such a sinner as Paul was could be saved, then certainly you can, too. Jesus invites you to come to him for salvation: "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching; 3 not a drinker, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; 4 one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; 5 (but if a man doesn't know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the assembly of God?) 6 not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. 7 Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Deacons, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for money; 9 holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 Let them also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons if they are blameless. 11 Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For those who have served well as deacons gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; 15 but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in God's house, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great:

God was revealed in the flesh, justified in the spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
and received up in glory.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines* of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; 3 forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. 5 For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. 6 If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. 7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward godliness. 8 For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. 9 This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. 11 Command and teach these things.

12 Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. 13 Until I come, pay attention to reading†, to exhortation, and to teaching. 14 Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. 15 Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. 16 Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Don't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows who are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is acceptable in the sight of God. 5 Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. 6 But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. 7 Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. 8 But if anyone doesn't provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, 10 being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work.

11 But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; 12 having condemnation, because they

* 4:1-2 False doctrines in the churches have demonic sources, as Paul notes here.

† 4:13 Some translations render "reading" here as "the public reading of Scripture." (NIV, NASB, ESV) Whether publicly or privately, Christians need to read the Bible regularly—the Bible itself, not someone else's book discussing the Bible. There is no substitute for the Word of God.

have rejected their first pledge. 13 Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. 14 I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for insulting. 15 For already some have turned aside after Satan. 16 If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve those who are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain." Deuteronomy 25:4 And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages." Luke 10:7; Leviticus 19:13

19 Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. 20 Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. 21 I command you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. 25 In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.

CHAPTER SIX

1 Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. 2 Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

3 If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, 4 he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, insulting, evil suspicions, 5 constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out. 8 But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. 9 But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction. 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. 13 I command you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, 14 that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; 15 which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; 16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.

17 Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; 18 that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to share; 19 laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life.

20 Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of what is falsely called knowledge; 21 which some profess, and thus have wandered from the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

2 TIMOTHY

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day 4 longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; 5 having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

6 For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control. 8 Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, 9 who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, 10 but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. 11 For this, I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. 12 For this cause I also suffer these things.

Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

13 Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14 That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

15 This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; among them Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16 May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, 17 but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me 18 (the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

CHAPTER TWO

1 You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. 3 You therefore must endure hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. 4 No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he isn't crowned unless he has competed by the rules. 6 The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops. 7 Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things.

8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the offspring of David, according to my Good News, 9 in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained. 10 Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 11 This saying is trustworthy:

"For if we died with him,
we will also live with him.

12 If we endure,
we will also reign with him.

If we deny him,
he also will deny us.

13 If we are faithless,
he remains faithful.

He can't deny himself."

14 Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord, that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

15 Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. 16 But shun empty chatter, for it will go further in ungodliness, 17 and those words will consume like gangrene, among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus; 18 men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. 19 However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are his," Numbers 16:5 and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness." 20 Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. 21 If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.

22 Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. 24 The Lord's servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, 25 in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

CHAPTER THREE

1 But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come. 2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, not lovers of good, 4 traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; 5 holding a form of godliness, but having denied its power.* Turn away from these, also. 6 For some of these are people who creep into houses, and take captive gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, 7 always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; men corrupted in mind, who concerning the faith, are rejected. 9 But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be.

10 But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, 11 persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. The Lord delivered me out of them all. 12 Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

14 But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. 15 From infancy, you have known the holy Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus. 16 Every Scripture† is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness, 17 that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 I command you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his Kingdom: 2 preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. 3 For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers; after their own lusts; 4 and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. 5 But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry.

6 For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. 7 I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. 8 From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing. 9 Be diligent to come to me soon, 10 for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. 11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. 12 But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. 13 Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. 14 Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds, 15 of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words.

16 At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. 17 But the Lord stood by me, and

† 4:3-4 The New American Standard Bible renders verse 3, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires." Many churches do this today by hiring pastors who avoid saying anything from the pulpit that might offend those practicing sin.

With apostasy infecting more and more churches during these end times, each believer is responsible before God to know what the Bible says, and to verify that the preachers and teachers we listen to are speaking the truth. Faithful pastors and teachers will not be insulted by this. The Apostle Paul welcomed it when his listeners examined "the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so."—Acts 17:11

(An old retired Baptist pastor told me privately he regrets that he failed to preach the full force of the Word because "I would have lost my ministry." And I actually sat listening to a sermon in another "Bible-believing, Christ-centered" church and heard the pastor mention something about sin and then quickly add, "I'd better not say more about sin—I could lose my job." Yes, he actually said that from the pulpit!—Editor)

So, we need to read the Bible to be sure that our preachers and teachers are telling us "the whole counsel of God" (Acts 20:27), not just the parts their audience wants to hear.

It is common today for church leaders to pay their pastors to deliver Sunday morning sermons that are positive, upbeat, and pleasantly entertaining—devoid of the warnings, rebukes and judgment messages that people really need to hear. But personal Bible reading will keep us from succumbing to these "half-of-the-Word heresies" that entertain so many churches on Sunday mornings. (See also the note at 2 Chronicles 18:12.)

* 3:1-5 Paul wrote this during the last days of the Jewish system with temple worship in Jerusalem. How much more this description is true of the last days of this present world!

† 3:16-17 Reading the Bible may seem like an overwhelming task. After all, it is a big thick book filled with strange-sounding names and places. But it is well worth the effort.

It is inspired by God, and reading it will equip you to live as God wants you to live. Reading 'Christian books' that purport to explain the Bible can never substitute for reading the Bible itself.

God produced the Bible for ordinary people to read it themselves—not for theologians to interpret it to people. "Jesus said, 'I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.'"—Matthew 11:25-26 NIV

Ordinary, uneducated people can grasp the Gospel message when prayerfully reading the Bible, while highly-educated professionals often miss the point despite their scholarly study—or perhaps because of the complex man-made systems of theology that they try to impose on the simple Word of God.

Prayerfully reading the Bible itself, over and over again (perhaps a different translation each time), is much more beneficial than reading popular 'Christian books'—even those that claim to explain the Bible.

strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18 And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for his heavenly Kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. 20 Erastus remained at Corinth, but I left Trophimus at Miletus sick. 21 Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus salutes you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers. 22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

TITUS

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's chosen ones, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, 2 in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before time began; 3 but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior; 4 to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

5 I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders* in every city, as I directed you; 6 if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. 7 For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; 8 but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; 9 holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him.

10 For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11 whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake. 12 One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." 13 This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 15 To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. 16 They profess that they know God, but by their deeds they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

CHAPTER TWO

1 But say the things which fit sound doctrine, 2 that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience: 3 and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; 4 that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God's word may not be blasphemed. 6 Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded; 7 in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in your teaching showing integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility, 8 and soundness of speech that can't be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us. 9 Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; 10 not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. 11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts,† we would live

† 2:12-13 This world in its last days has become focused on the lusts of the flesh—power, money, sensuality and sexuality, and intoxication through drugs and alcohol. In contrast to this, we believers need to live sober lives, with our focus on Christ. While we long for him to appear—to show himself in power at his return—we can already 'see' him by faith. And we need to keep our eyes on him while we wait for him to appear.

Those who promote the Left Behind view of the end times trip over themselves when trying to interpret verse 13—pointing to the superiority of the traditional Protestant interpretation.

In his book Rapture Under Attack Tim LaHaye declares that "Christians are not waiting for the Glorious Appearing." (page 51) Yet, Paul wrote to Titus above that "we" are waiting for the glorious appearing. Since Paul and Titus were Christians and were looking forward to this event, LaHaye's statement contradicts Scripture.

In the same book LaHaye comments on Titus 2:13 to the effect that "Paul's 'blessed hope' is the Rapture, for it is unique to the church. No one else will take part in it. . . . The Glorious Appearing, on the other hand, is not for the Christian but for the remnant at the end of the Tribulation." (pages 68-69) Thus, LaHaye inserts a gap of seven years between the "blessed hope" and the "glorious appearing" of Christ.

Does Titus 2:13 really refer to two separate events, seven years apart, as LaHaye claims? Clearly not, according to the New International Version's rendering of the verse quoted above, which equates the two expressions: "the blessed hope-the glorious appearing." Translators of the New Living Translation likewise show it to be a single event: "while we look forward to that wonderful event when the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be revealed."

Bible commentator Robert Jamieson wrote that in this verse, "There is but one Greek article to both 'hope' and 'appearing,' which marks their close connection (the hope being about to be realized only at the appearing of Christ)." (Commentary Critical and Explanatory on the Whole Bible, 1871) That is why translators commonly present the blessed hope and glorious appearing of Christ as a single event. Even the founder of dispensationalism, John Nelson Darby, appears to have followed this grammatical rule in the translation he himself produced, rendering Titus 2:13, "awaiting the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ."

Matthew Henry commented on Titus 2:13 to the effect that the blessed hope would be attained "At, and in, the glorious appearing of Christ" when he explained it this way in his Commentary on the Whole Bible: "By hope is meant the thing hoped for, namely, Christ himself, who is called our hope (1 Tim. i. 1), and blessedness in and through him, even riches of glory (Eph. i.

* 1:5-9 Paul sets out clearly God's standards for a man who would serve as an elder or a pastor in a local church. See also 1 Timothy 3:2-7.

soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; 13 looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ; 14 who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. 15 Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise you.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, 2 to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men.

3 For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. 4 But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared, 5 not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit, 6 whom he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior; 7 that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men; 9 but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. 10 Avoid a schismatic man after a first and second warning; 11 knowing that such a one is perverted and sins, being self-condemned.

12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. 13 Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. 14 Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

18), hence fitly termed here that blessed hope. . . . At, and in, the glorious appearing of Christ will the blessed hope of Christians be attained; for their felicity will be this, To be where he is, and to behold his glory, John xvii. 24."

PHILEMON

CHAPTER ONE

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, 2 to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, 5 hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; 6 that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Christ Jesus. 7 For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

8 Therefore though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate, 9 yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. 10 I beg you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus, 11 who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. 12 I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, 13 whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. 14 But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. 15 For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, 16 no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

17 If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. 18 But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. 19 I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). 20 Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord. 21 Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

22 Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, 24 as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. 25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

HEBREWS

CHAPTER ONE

1 God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, 2 has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds. 3 His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purified us of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4 having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they have. 5 For to which of the angels did he say at any time,

“You are my Son.

Today have I become your father?” Psalm 2:7
and again,

“I will be to him a Father, and he will be to me a Son?” 2 Samuel 7:14; 1 Chronicles 17:13

6 When he again brings in the firstborn into the world he says, “Let all the angels of God worship him.” Deuteronomy 32:43 Septuagint 7 Of the angels he says,

“Who makes his angels winds, and his servants a flame of fire.” Psalm 104:4

8 But of the Son he says,

“Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.

The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your Kingdom.

9 You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;

therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.” Psalm 45:6-7

10 And,

“You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth.

The heavens are the works of your hands.

11 They will perish, but you continue.

They all will grow old like a garment does.

12 You will roll them up like a mantle,

and they will be changed;

but you are the same.

Your years will not fail.” Psalm 102:25-27

13 But which of the angels has he told at any time,

“Sit at my right hand,

until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet?” Psalm 110:1

14 Aren't they all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

CHAPTER TWO

1 Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away. 2 For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; 3 how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; 4 God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will? 5 For he didn't subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels. 6 But one has somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you think of him?

Or the son of man, that you care for him?

7 You made him a little lower than the angels.

You crowned him with glory and honor.

8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet.” Psalm 8:4-6

For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don't see all things subjected to him, yet. 9 But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone. 10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12 saying,

“I will declare your name to my brothers.

Among of the congregation I will sing your praise.” Psalm 22:22

13 Again, “I will put my trust in him.” Isaiah 8:17

Again, “Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me.” Isaiah 8:18 14 Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in the same way partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and might deliver all of them who through fear† of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For most certainly, he doesn't give help to angels, but he gives help to the offspring of Abraham. 17 Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus; 2 who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house. 3 For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, because he who built the house has more honor than the

* 2:10 God's purpose is to bring many children to glory—to adopt us as his children and bring us to heaven to live with him in glory. We can't really understand the meaning of life without grasping this.

† 2:15 Jesus came in the flesh so that he could set the example by suffering for us on the cross, so that we might be adopted as children of God. The devil can no longer use our fear of death to force us to do evil, because we have been adopted as God's children with the hope of a glorious future forever in heaven.

house. 4 For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. 5 Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, 6 but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the rejoicing of our hope firm to the end. 7 Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says,

“Today if you will hear his voice,
8 don’t harden your hearts, as in the rebellion,
like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness, 9 where your fathers tested me by proving me,
and saw my deeds for forty years.

10 Therefore I was displeased with that generation, and said, ‘They always err in their heart, but they didn’t know my ways;’

11 as I swore in my wrath,
‘They will not enter into my rest.’” Psalm 95:7-11

12 Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; 13 but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called “today;” lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: 15 while it is said,

“Today if you will hear his voice,
don’t harden your hearts, as in the rebellion.”

Psalm 95:7-8

16 For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, didn’t all those who came out of Egypt by Moses? 17 With whom was he displeased forty years? Wasn’t it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? 18 To whom did he swear that they wouldn’t enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? 19 We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. 2 For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn’t profit them, because it wasn’t met with faith by those who heard. 3 For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, “As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;” Psalm 95:11 although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, “God rested on the seventh day from all his works;” Genesis 2:2 5 and in this place again, “They will not enter into my rest.” Psalm 95:11

6 Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news was preached before failed to enter in because of disobedience, 7 he again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said),

“Today if you will hear his voice,
don’t harden your hearts.” Psalm 95:7-8

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. 9 There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. 11 Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. 12 For the word of God is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13 There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him to whom we must give an account. 14 Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession. 15 For we don’t have a high priest who can’t be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. 3 Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. 4 Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just as Aaron was. 5 So also Christ didn’t glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him,

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.” Psalm 2:7

6 As he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever,
after the order of Melchizedek.” Psalm 110:4

7 He, in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, 8 though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered. 9 Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation, 10 named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. 11 About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. 12 For although by this time you should be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the revelations of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. 13 For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. 14 But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

CHAPTER SIX

1 Therefore leaving the teaching of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, 2 of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3 This we will do, if God permits.

4 For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, 6 and then fell away,* it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame. 7 For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and produces a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; 8 but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. 10 For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them. 11 We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, 12 that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises.

13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself, 14 saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you." Genesis 22:17 15 Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. 17 In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; 18 that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. 19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; 20 where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2 to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace; 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best plunder. 5 They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, 6 but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. 7 But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. 8 Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. 9 We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, 10 for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him.

11 Now if there were perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. 13 For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. 15 This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, 16 who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life: 17 for it is testified,

"You are a priest forever,

according to the order of Melchizedek." Psalms 110:4

18 For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness 19 (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. 20 Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath 21 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), but he with an oath by him that says of him,

"The Lord swore and will not change his mind,

'You are a priest forever,

according to the order of Melchizedek.'" Psalms 110:4

22 By so much, Jesus has become the collateral of a better covenant. 23 Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. 24 But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable.

* 6:4-6 Compare these passages about Christians who abandon Christ, and return to an unchristian, sinful life:

"I am the vine; you are the branches. . . . If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned."—John 15:5-6 NIV

"If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left, but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of God. Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. How much more severely do you think a man deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God under foot, who has treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, 'It is mine to avenge; I will repay,' and again, 'The Lord will judge his people.' It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."—Hebrews 10:26-30 NIV

25 Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; 27 who doesn't need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. 28 For the law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest*, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2 a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. 4 For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law; 5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, "See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain." Exodus 25:40 6 But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as law. 7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. 8 For finding fault with them, he said,

"Behold, the days come,' says the Lord, 'that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

9 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt;

for they didn't continue in my covenant, and I turned from them,' says the Lord.

10 'For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel.

After those days,' says the Lord; 'I will put my laws into their mind, I will also write them on their heart. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

11 They will not teach every man his fellow citizen, and every man his brother, saying, "Know the Lord,"

for all will know me, from their least to their greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness.

I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more." Jeremiah 31:31-34

13 In that he says, "A new† covenant," he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

CHAPTER NINE

1 Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. 2 For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lamp stand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place. 3 After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, 4 having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; 5 and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can't speak now in detail. 6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services, 7 but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people.

8 The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place wasn't yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing; 9 which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshiper perfect; 10 being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

11 But Christ having come as a high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle,‡ not

† 8:13 Much of this Bible book of Hebrews is devoted to comparing the old covenant mediated by Moses with the new covenant mediated by Jesus—showing their similarities and their differences.

‡ 9:11-12 The Jewish temple in Jerusalem ceased to function as the place of true worship, when Christ entered the true sanctuary—heaven itself—as the true High Priest of the new covenant.

The seven-year tribulation that is the centerpiece of Left Behind theology depends on the theory that the Jewish temple will be rebuilt in Jerusalem, that Old Testament animal sacrifices will again be offered at that temple, and that a coming Antichrist will put an end to those sacrificial offerings at the mid-point of a seven year tribulation. "That there will be a third temple is predicted by the prophet Daniel, the apostles Paul and John, and none other than the Lord Jesus Himself. They all taught that Israel's third temple will be rebuilt." (Are We Living in the End Times? by LaHaye and Jenkins, p. 122) All of this, however, ignores a basic teaching of the New Testament, namely, that God no longer dwells in a temple made of stones, but rather in the great spiritual temple, which is the Church, the Christian congregation.

Addressing "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them who are sent unto thee," Jesus went on to tell the Jews, "Behold, your house is left unto you desolate." (Matt. 23:37-38 KJV) The New English Bible renders this last phrase, "there is your temple, forsaken

* 8:2-3 The Old Testament's high priests in the family line of Aaron are replaced by the Messiah Jesus who serves as high priest for us. The tents and temples where the Jewish high priests served were patterned after the true tabernacle in heaven itself.

made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, 12 nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption. 13 For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without defect to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. 16 For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it. 17 For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives. 18 Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you." Exodus 24:8

21 Moreover he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in the same way with the blood. 22 According to the law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. 23 It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ hasn't entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; 25 nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the

by God." After the Jewish people climaxed their rebellion by rejecting, not only the prophets, but also the very Son of God, the God of Israel no longer had any use for their temple or their priesthood.

Martin Luther taught that it was the spiritual temple that the Antichrist would deal with, rather than a rebuilt Jewish temple in Jerusalem. He expressed it this way in one of his sermons:

"St. Paul prophesied all this, when in 2 Thess. 2, 3-4, he calls him: 'The man of sin and the son of perdition, he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God.' But that the Papists want to turn this passage from themselves and say: Christ and Paul are speaking of the temple of Jerusalem, that Antichrist shall sit and rule there, amounts to nothing. For Christ says here, that Jerusalem together with the temple shall have an end, and after its destruction it shall never be rebuilt. Therefore since Paul is pointing to the time after the Jewish Kingdom, and the destruction of the material temple, it cannot be understood otherwise than of the new spiritual temple, which as he says himself, we are." (Martin Luther's "Sermon for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Trinity; Matthew 24:15-28" from his Church Postil, first published in 1525) holy place year by year with blood not his own, 26 or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. 27 Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment, 28 so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.

CHAPTER TEN

1 For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. 2 Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins? 3 But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins. 4 For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. 5 Therefore when he comes into the world, he says,

"Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire, but you prepared a body for me.

6 You had no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.

7 Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.'" Psalm 40:6-8

8 Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to the law), 9 then he has said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, 10 by which will we have been sanctified through the offering* of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. 11 Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, 12 but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; 13 from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet. 14 For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. 15 The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them:
After those days,' says the Lord,
'I will put my laws on their heart,
I will also write them on their mind,'" Jeremiah 31:33
then he says,
17 "I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more.'" Jeremiah 31:34

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. 19 Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21 and having a great priest over God's house, 22 let's draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, 23 let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful.

24 Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, 25 not forsaking our own assembling* together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching.

26 For if we sin willfully† after we

* 10:24-25 Fellowship with other believers is especially important as we see the day of God's intervention approaching.

Christians gather together for Bible study, to share testimonies, to hear Bible-based sermons, to celebrate Communion, to support and send out missionary preachers, to help and pray for one another, and to sing songs of praise to God. All of these things strengthen us to endure through the end times.

Who should you meet with? In the first century it was very clear: Jesus' followers in Jerusalem gathered together with the Apostles, and in cities around the Mediterranean Sea there were congregations founded by the Apostle Paul or other traveling missionary preachers. But now in the twenty-first century a city may have ten or twenty different churches with different names, belonging to different denominations, and separated from each other by different practices, customs and doctrines—as well as small house churches meeting in private homes.

You won't be able to make complete sense of the confusing array of churches and denominations without knowing what the Bible says about the history of the early churches, and what later church history says about the how some of the original churches became corrupt, and how they broke up into various denominations and groups.

Such a study could take years to complete, and your understanding of these matters may change as you grow and mature in the faith and as you gain experience in dealing with other believers. You may find yourself moving from one church or fellowship to another as you learn more, or as the fellowship you are in changes its character, which often happens as different individuals assume positions of leadership.

But none of this should cause you to postpone fellowshiping with others who want to follow Jesus. Approach the matter prayerfully, trusting that God will answer your prayer by guiding you into a fellowship where you can learn and where you can help others—even if it eventually turns out that what you learn is that you need to go elsewhere.

Meanwhile, beware of letting any church interpret the Bible for you, especially if the interpretation turns out to teach something different from what an ordinary person would understand from reading the Bible alone.

Instead, keep reading the Bible on your own. Become so familiar with the Bible itself that you can use it to evaluate the teachings you hear at church. Some pastors may resent your doing this, but those who follow Jesus and love the written word of God will welcome your using the Bible to check up on them. The Apostle Paul was glad when his listeners "received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true."—Acts 17:11 NIV

† 10:26-27 So, the punishment for rejecting Christ is more severe than simply dying without mercy. This is, without doubt, a warning not to be ignored. Yet it should not leave any of us with an unhealthy fear of God—a fear that God might be cruel, unfair, unloving. Even those who know God personally, who feel his love, and who know that "God is love" (1 John 4:8), and who know that he is the one who teaches us to love—even we may fear for others. But to assure our hearts in this, he had recorded in his Word the fears that Abraham entertained when he heard of the punishment about to be inflicted on the city of Sodom. God patiently put up with a lengthy cross-examination by Abraham, finally assuring him that the Judge of all the earth will indeed do what is right, what is fair, and what is good. (Compare Genesis 18:23-33)

If the thought of some receiving punishment after death troubles us, the solution does not lie in denying the Bible's inspiration, nor in explaining-away Jesus' words by distorting their meaning. Rather, the solution lies in have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries.

28 A man who disregards Moses' law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. 29 How much worse punishment do you think he will be judged worthy of who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him who said, "Vengeance belongs to me," says the Lord, "I will repay." Deuteronomy 32:35 Again, "The Lord will judge his people." Deuteronomy 32:36; Psalm 135:14 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings; 33 partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so. 34 For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens. 35 Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. 36 For you need endurance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.

37 "In a very little while, he who comes will come, and will not wait. 38 The righteous will live by faith.

If he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him." Habakkuk 2:3-4 39 But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen. 2 For by this, the elders obtained testimony. 3 By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. 4 By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks. 5 By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that he wouldn't see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God.

trusting God. After all, that is what faith really means: not having God answer all of our questions, but putting our trust in God even in matters we find difficult to understand.

Jesus taught that childlike trust is required of us: "I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."—Luke 18:17 NIV

Instead of approaching the matter like scholars trying to understand God, we need to get down on our knees and take hold of his hand the way a little toddler trustingly holds onto his or her father's hand, securely confident that Dad has everything under control—that he will do the right thing and the loving thing.

6 Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him.

7 By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went. 9 By faith, he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. 10 For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God. 11 By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised. 12 Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. 15 If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son; 18 even he to whom it was said, "your offspring will be accounted as from Isaac;" Genesis 21:12 19 concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. 20 By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. 22 By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning his bones. 23 By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 choosing rather to share ill treatment with God's people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time; 26 accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward. 27 By faith, he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up. 30 By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days. 31 By faith, Rahab the prostitute, didn't perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.

32 What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets; 33 who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee. 35 Women received their dead by resurrection.

Others were tortured,* not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36 Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. 37 They were stoned. They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword. They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated 38 (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth.

39 These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn't receive the promise, 40 God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 2 looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross,† despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the

* 11:35-38 Many faithful servants of God in Old Testament times suffered the hardships listed here. They serve as examples for us when we must suffer as Christians.

† 12:1-2 Jesus set the perfect example for us to follow when we, too, must suffer for our faith.

throne of God. 3 For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls. 4 You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin; 5 and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children,

"My son, don't take lightly the chastening of the Lord,

nor faint when you are reproved by him;

6 For whom the Lord loves, he chastens, and scourges every son whom he receives."

Proverbs 3:11-12

7 It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father doesn't discipline? 8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children. 9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? 10 For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. 11 All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby.

12 Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. 14 Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord, 15 looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled by it; 16 lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal. 17 For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears.

18 For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, storm, 19 the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them, 20 for they could not stand that which was commanded, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned;" Exodus 19:12-13 21 and so fearful was the appearance that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling." Deuteronomy 9:19

22 But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels, 23 to the general assembly and assembly* of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24 to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.

25 See that you don't refuse him who speaks. For if they didn't escape when they refused him who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven, 26 whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens." Haggai 2:6 27 This phrase, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. 28 Therefore, receiving a Kingdom that can't be shaken, let us have grace, through which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe, 29 for our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. 3 Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. 4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

5 Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you." Deuteronomy 31:6 6 So that with good courage we say,

"The Lord is my helper. I will not fear.

What can man do to me?" Psalms 118:6-7

7 Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. 9 Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.

10 We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat. 11 For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp. 12 Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate. 13 Let us therefore go out to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. 14 For we don't have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come. 15 Through him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to his name. 16 But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for

* 12:23 This assembly is "the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven." (Heb. 12:23 NIV) The true church, which is Christ's body, crosses denominational lines and includes individuals both in and out of the various religious organizations that men have set up. It is composed of all those who look to Christ as Head, who have been "baptized by one Spirit into one body." (1 Cor. 12:13 NIV)

Once you become a follower of Jesus, you immediately and automatically become a member of that true church, and your name is registered in heaven in the true church's membership rolls. Jesus knows those who belong to him.

they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. 19 I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

20 Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus, 21 make you complete in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

22 But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. 23 Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. 24 Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. The Italians greet you. 25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

JAMES

CHAPTER ONE

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion: Greetings. 2 Count it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various temptations, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. 4 Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord. 8 He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

9 But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; 10 and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. 11 For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits.

12 Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. 14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. 15 Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, produces death. 16 Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. 18 Of his own will he gave birth to us by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

19 So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; 20 for the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God. 21 Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror; 24 for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. 25 But he who looks into the perfect law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.

26 If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious while he doesn't bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. 27 Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

CHAPTER TWO

1 My brothers, don't hold the faith of our Lord of glory Jesus Christ with partiality. 2 For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your meeting, and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in; 3 and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing, and say, "Sit here in a good place;" and you tell the poor man, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool;" 4 haven't you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

5 Listen, my beloved brothers. Didn't God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which he promised to those who love him? 6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Don't the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts? 7 Don't they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called?

8 However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," Leviticus 19:18 you do well. 9 But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. 11 For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18 also said, "Do not commit murder." Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17 Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom. 13 For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

14 What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? 15 And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, 16 and one of you tells them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled;" and yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it? 17 Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. 18 Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

19 You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. 20 But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? 21 Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? 22 You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected; 23 and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness" Genesis 15:6; and he was called the friend of God. 24 You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25 In the same way, wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

CHAPTER THREE

1 Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. 2 For in many things we all stumble. If anyone doesn't stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. 3 Indeed, we put bits into horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body. 4 Behold, ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. 5 So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! 6 And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna. 7 For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and sea creature, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind. 8 But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God. 10 Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. 11 Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? 12 Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth. 15 This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. 17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Where do wars and fights among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members? 2 You lust, and don't have. You murder and covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You don't have, because you don't ask. 3 You ask, and don't receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures. 4 You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"? 6 But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." Proverbs 3:34 7 Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.

11 Don't speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. 12 Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another?

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let's go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit." 14 Whereas you don't know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. 15 For you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that." 16 But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil. 17 To him therefore who knows to do good, and doesn't do it, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you. 2 Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. 4 Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Armies. 5 You have lived in luxury on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. 6 You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn't resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. 8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

9 Don't grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door. 10 Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. 11 Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the Lord is full of compassion and mercy. 12 But above all things, my brothers, don't swear— not by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no," "no," so that you don't fall into hypocrisy.

13 Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. 14 Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, 15 and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. 16 Confess your offenses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective.

17 Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months. 18 He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

19 Brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth and someone turns him back, 20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 PETER

CHAPTER ONE

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy became our father again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in Heaven for you, 5 who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials, 7 that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ— 8 whom not having known you love; in whom, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory— 9 receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, 11 searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them. 12 To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

13 Therefore prepare your minds for action, be sober, and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ— 14 as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance, 15 but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; 16 because it is written, "You shall be holy; for I am holy." Leviticus 11:44-45 17 If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear: 18 knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers, 19 but with precious blood, as of a faultless and pure lamb, the blood of Christ; 20 who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of times for your sake, 21 who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently: 23 having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever. 24 For,

"All flesh is like grass,
and all of man's glory like the flower in the grass.

The grass withers, and its flower falls;
25 but the Lord's word endures forever." Isaiah 40:6-8

This is the word of Good News which was preached to you.

CHAPTER TWO

1 Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking, 2 as newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the Word, that with it you may grow, 3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious: 4 coming to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious. 5 You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 Because it is contained in Scripture,

"Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen, and precious:

He who believes in him will not be disappointed." Isaiah 28:16

7 For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who are disobedient,

"The stone which the builders rejected,
has become the chief cornerstone," Psalms 118:22

8 and,
"a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense." Isaiah 8:14

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed. 9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: 10 who in time past were no people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 11 Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; 12 having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation. 13 Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme; 14 or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well. 15 For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: 16 as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God.

17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. 18 Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked. 19 For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God. 20 For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God. 21 For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps, 22 who did not sin, “neither was deceit found in his mouth.” Isaiah 53:9 23 Who, when he was cursed, didn’t curse back. When he suffered, didn’t threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously; 24 who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. 25 For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

CHAPTER THREE

1 In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don’t obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; 2 seeing your pure behavior in fear. 3 Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; 4 but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious. 5 For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: 6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

7 You husbands, in the same way, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.

8 Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tender hearted, courteous, 9 not rendering evil for evil, or insult for insult; but instead blessing; knowing that to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing. 10 For,

“He who would love life,
and see good days,
let him keep his tongue from evil,
and his lips from speaking deceit.
11 Let him turn away from evil, and do good.
Let him seek peace, and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears open to their prayer;
but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.” Psalms 34:12-16

13 Now who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good? 14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness’ sake, you are blessed. “Don’t fear what they fear, neither be troubled.” Isaiah 8:12 15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear: 16 having a good conscience; that, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your good way of life in Christ. 17 For it is better, if it is God’s will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil. 18 Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; 19 in which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison, 20 who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ship was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water. 21 This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the question of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

1 Therefore, since Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; 2 that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God. 3 For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. 4 They think it is strange* that you don’t run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming: 5 who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6 For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer. 8 And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins. 9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling. 10 As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms. 11 If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, don’t be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as

* 4:2-4 Unbelievers think it is “strange” if we walk in God’s ways rather than in their ways. Our persecution for following Jesus may not be violent, but we may face opposition, ridicule or contempt from friends or relatives. If our repentance from sin involves quitting certain practices or activities that we used to share with friends, those friends may react with hostility toward us and toward the Gospel message.

“The rest of your time” may be limited by Christ’s soon return.

though a strange thing happened to you. 13 But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14 If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified. 15 For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other men's matters. 16 But if one of you suffers for being a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this matter. 17 For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of God? 18 "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?" Proverbs 11:31 19 Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and one who will also share in the glory that will be revealed. 2 Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly; 3 neither as lording it over those entrusted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock. 4 When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away.

5 Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder ones. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." Proverbs 3:34 6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; 7 casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you.

8 Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 9 Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings. 10 But may the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered* a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. 11 To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

12 Through Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand. 13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you; and so does Mark, my son. 14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

* 5:8-10 Peter encourages us to take our stand against the devil, trusting that God will bring us through our present sufferings in this world. Satan is especially active now, knowing his time is short.

2 PETER

CHAPTER ONE

1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue; 4 by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust.

5 Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, to your faith supply moral excellence; and to moral excellence, knowledge; 6 and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, patience; and to patience, godliness; 7 and to godliness, brotherly affection; and to brotherly affection, love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10 Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. 11 For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

12 Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. 13 I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; 14 knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. 15 Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. 16 For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." Matthew 17:5; Mark 9:7; Luke 9:35 18 We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

19 We have the word of prophecy more sure; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: 20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. 21 For no

* 1:19 If Peter had "the word of prophecy more sure" in his day, then even more so do we today, when so much more prophecy has already been fulfilled with the re-establishment of the state of Israel in 1948, and the return of Jerusalem to Jewish hands in 1967.

prophecy† ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER TWO

1 But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers; will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. 2 Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. 3 In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber.

4 For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus, and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; 5 and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; 6 and turning the cities of Sodoms and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to

† 1:20-21 Things happen fast in times of conflict. But Bible prophecy was written thousands of years in advance, and is completely accurate—because it was written by the One "who from the very beginning foretold the future." (Isaiah 44:7 Jerusalem Bible) As the New Century Version renders Peter's words here, "No prophecy in the Scriptures ever comes from the prophet's own interpretation. No prophecy ever came from what a person wanted to say, but people led by the Holy Spirit spoke words from God."—2 Peter 1:20-21 NCV

Political hopes for peace in the Middle East swing from optimistic to pessimistic and back again as fast as the ever changing events unfold on a daily basis. One week things seem to be heading in this direction, and the next week they seem to be heading in the opposite direction. But the consistent fulfillment of Bible prophecy down through history gives us confidence that events will finally move in the in the direction foretold in Scripture.

‡ 2:1-3 False teachers in the churches are usually motivated by their lust for power, sex and money. The New Century Version renders verse 3 like this: "Those false teachers only want your money, so they will use you by telling you lies." (2 Pet. 2:3 NCV)

§ 2:6 God will again execute the same sort of punishment against those who persist in practicing sexual immorality—even referring back to God's destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah as an example. The Christian disciple Jude wrote similarly, pointing out clearly the sexual nature of the sins practiced by the inhabitants of those cities, and that they serve as a warning, an example of punishment to come: "In a similar way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire." — Jude 7 NIV those who would live ungodly;

7 and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked 8 (for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds): 9 the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; 10 but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; 11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, 13 receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and defects, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; 14 having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing; 15 forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing; 16 but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. 18 For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error; 19 promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.

20 For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse* for them than the

"I am the vine; you are the branches. . . . If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned."—John 15:5-6 NIV

"It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit, who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age, if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace. . . . Even though we speak like this, dear friends, we are confident of better things in your case—things that accompany salvation."—Hebrews 6:4-9 NIV

"If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left, but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of first. 21 For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

22 But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again," and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

CHAPTER THREE

1 This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; 2 that you should remember the words† which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior: 3 knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts, 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming?‡ For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." 5 For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God; 6 by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water,§ perished. 7 But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire,

God. Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. How much more severely do you think a man deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God under foot, who has treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, 'It is mine to avenge; I will repay,' and again, 'The Lord will judge his people.' It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."—Hebrews 10:26-30 NIV

† 3:2 The words "spoken before by the holy prophets" would include the end times prophecies of Isaiah, Daniel, Joel and the other Old Testament writers. Peter goes on to remind his readers of the earlier prophecies and of the global deluge of Noah's day as proof that God can and will intervene again in the affairs of mankind.

‡ 3:3-4 Many people today mock and ridicule the idea that Christ will return. They laugh at anyone who speaks of prophecy being fulfilled and Jesus coming again. But their behavior, too, fulfills prophecy: they are doing exactly what Peter prophesied they would do.

The public media surround us with explanations of this world, its history and current events, that completely ignore God and the Bible. Even many clergymen no longer believe the Bible, and instead dismiss it as a book filled with myths, fairy tales and contradictions—interesting poetic literature, but not to be taken seriously in much of what it says. So, it is no surprise that people reject and dismiss the thought that Christ will return and put an end to this world.

§ 3:6-7 Peter reminds us of the earlier prophecies and of the global deluge of Noah's day as proof that God can and will intervene again in the affairs of mankind.

8 But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. 11 Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, 12 looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? 13 But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.†

14 Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without defect and blameless in his sight. 15 Regard the patience‡ of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul§ also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you; 16 as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. 17 You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness. 18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

* 3:8 Why has God waited so long to put an end to this wicked world? It seems like a long time to us, because we lack God's perspective of eternity. A year seems like a very long time to a ten-year-old boy, because it represents a tenth of his life experience. But to an eighty-year-old man, a year seems much shorter, since it is just one eightieth of his experience.

† 3:11-13 This world, along with everything in it, is about to be destroyed. A righteous new world will replace it. Keeping that in mind will help us to live now as we will in that new world—in holiness, godliness and peace—not allowing ourselves to be pulled into the pursuits or conflicts of this sinful world that is about to be destroyed.

Jesus admonished, "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come." (Matt. 24:42 NIV) Peter urged similar eager watchfulness above.

‡ 3:15 When we are tempted to complain because we have had to wait so long for Christ's return, we should recall that "our Lord's patience gives people time to be saved" as the New Living Translation renders this verse. And we should consider whether we ourselves would have had time to repent of our sins and accept forgiveness in Christ, if God had swept away this wicked world last year, or the year before, or ten years ago.

§ 3:15-16 Many false 'Christians' today dismiss the letters of the Apostle Paul, because they want to practice the sins that Paul named and condemned. But Peter here affirms that Paul's letters have authority like "the other Scriptures."

 3:17 Bible prophecy allows us to know what is coming "beforehand," in advance, before God's punishing destruction is unleashed on this world that rebels against him and ignores the message of the Bible. Peter warns us here to be on guard against joining the world around us in their sinful behavior and their godless attitude. "Don't let the world around you squeeze you into its own mould."—Romans 12:2 Phillips

1 JOHN

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life 2 (and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us); 3 that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ. 4 And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.

5 This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER TWO

1 My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous. 2 And he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. 3 This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. 4 One who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth isn't in him. 5 But whoever keeps his word, God's love has most certainly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him: 6 he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just as he walked.

7 Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning. 8 Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. 10 He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

I write to you, little children, because you know the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Don't love the world or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love isn't in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's. 17 The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever.

18 Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Antichrist* is coming, even

* 2:18 John was living in "the end times" of the old Jewish system with its Jerusalem Temple and priesthood. He could also be referring to the Church Age as the final Age of this world, the Age in which we still live today. The term "Antichrist" is used only in John's letters—at 1 John 2:18, 22; 4:3; and 2 John 7. Uninspired writers have added volumes of commentary, often asserting that other Bible passages also refer to Antichrist, and claiming that a sinister individual will arise with this title. But the inspired Scriptures don't actually say this.

Here John says that "many antichrists" had already appeared in his day, and he identifies the Antichrist as any who "went out from us" and deny that Jesus is the Christ, because they did not "belong to us."

In the Left Behind novels the character Nicolae Carpathia is "the Antichrist." But does Scripture teach us to look for such an individual?

Many Bible translations refer to "the" Antichrist in this verse: New King James Version, New Living Translation, New International Version, Young's Literal Translation, Hebrew Names Version, and so on. But other translations say simply that "antichrist" is coming, without the definite article: King James Version, English Standard Version, New American Standard Bible, Revised Standard Version, American Standard Version, J. N. Darby Translation, Noah Webster Version, and more. The Jerusalem Bible actually uses the indefinite article and says, "you were told that an Antichrist must come, and now several antichrists have already appeared."

Like many other commentators, the authors of Left Behind conclude that one man will personally fulfill this prophecy, and that he will also be "the man of sin" (2 Thess. 2:3) and the "beast" (Rev. 13:2). But that requires a large leap from what is actually found written in the Word of God.

But if there is to be an outstanding Antichrist, as many believe, then why not accept the identification offered by John Calvin and Martin Luther?

Francis Nigel Lee, Professor of Systematic Theology and Caldwell-Morrow Lecturer in Church History at the Queensland Presbyterian Theological College explained in his widely-published article "Luther on Islam and the Papacy," that

"Rev. Dr. Luther believed, then, that the 'two regimes, that of the Pope and that of the Turk, are no doubt the true Antichrist'—in the broader sense of that word. . . . -Luther's Works, Weimer ed., 52, 549."

John Calvin saw the papacy and Islam as the two "horns" of Antichrist and Luther saw them as the two "legs" of Antichrist. Let's look at each 'horn' or 'leg' separately:

THE POPE

Martin Luther declared that "the Pope" is "the true Antichrist, of whom it is written that he sitteth in the temple of God, among the people." (Martin Luther's "Sermon for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Trinity; Matthew 24:15-28" from his Church Postil, first published in 1525) John Knox (1514?-1572), the father of the Church of Scotland and Presbyterianism, wrote of "the vanity of the Papistical Religion, and the deceit, pride, and tyranny of that Roman Antichrist." (History of the Reformation of Religion within the Realm of Scotland by John Knox, book 4, chapter 1)

But this notion did not arise first in the Reformation of the 1500's. During the early 1200's Eberhard II, archbishop of Salzburg, examined the history of the papacy and drew the same conclusion. In the mid-1300's Michael of Cesena (or Michael Sesenas) declared the Pope to be "Antichrist." John Wycliffe (1320-1384) wrote that "It is supposed, and with much probability, that the Roman pontiff is the great Antichrist." John Huss (1372-1417) declared a century before the Reformation that the pope was "antichrist, or at least the chief and principal minister or vicar of antichrist."

English Bible translator William Tyndale (1490-1536) is quoted in Foxe's Book of Martyrs as asking an acquaintance, "Do you not know that the pope is very Antichrist, whom the Scripture speaketh of? But beware what you say, for if you shall be perceived to be of that opinion, it will cost you your life." And, not long after that, Tyndale did indeed pay with his life.

Roger Williams and John Wesley likewise agreed in attaching the title Antichrist to the papacy, and the 1646 Westminster Confession of Faith confirmed the same teaching. In the late 1800s preacher Charles Spurgeon summed up the prevailing view this way: "Who is this Pope of Rome? His Holiness? Call him not so, but call him His Blasphemy! His Profanity! His Impudence! What are he and his cardinals, and his legates, but the image and incarnation of Antichrist, to be in due time cast with the beast and the false prophet into the lake of fire?" (Spurgeon's The Treasury of David—Psalm 108)

So for hundreds and hundreds of years, from Eberhard in the 1200s to Spurgeon in the late 1800s, respected teachers and serious students of the Bible have concluded that the pope is Antichrist. It was the majority opinion in Protestantism until the early 1900s, and many denominations still hold to this doctrine. Can it be dismissed as some sort of 'anti-Catholic prejudice'?

Why has the pope been identified as Antichrist? Please see the writings of Luther, Calvin and the Reformers. Their works can be obtained through the inter-library loan desk of most public libraries and can be found online in the Christian Classics Ethereal Library at www.CCEL.org. Their reasoning revolves around the way the papacy has usurped the position of Christ himself. As the London Baptist Confession of 1689 puts it, "The Lord Jesus Christ is the Head of the church, in whom, by the appointment of the Father, all power for the calling, institution, order or government of the church, is invested in a supreme and sovereign manner; neither can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that antichrist, that man of sin, and son of perdition, that exalteth himself in the church against Christ." The pope's self-exalting titles include Holy Father, Vicar of Christ, Successor of the Prince of the Apostles and Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church (from Pontifex Maximus, originally the title of pagan high priest of Rome).

Also central to the thinking of those who have identified the papacy with the Antichrist, is the way the popes have enforced their power against ordinary people who studied the Bible and sought to follow Christ instead as head. Over a span of hundreds of years the Inquisition imprisoned, tortured, tried and executed countless thousands of believers. In the days of Luther and Calvin the smell of roasting human flesh still hung in the air from the flames where men and women were slowly burned alive. Later, stripped of its secular power by Napoleon's conquest at the very end of the 1700s, the papacy began behaving better toward Bible-believers in Catholic lands.

Many today seem to have forgotten the papacy's abuses that Spurgeon was certain we would never forget:

"Whether it may be traced to want of will or want of inclination on the part of other establishments, it is certain that the Popish Antichrist alone has been able to drink of the overflowing blood-cup filled by familiars and tormentors. Long pampered by the state, she came to be its lord and tyrant, using fire and sword, prison and rack, to work her accursed will. The Inquisition was the masterpiece of infernal craft and malice, and its deeds were far more worthy of fiends than men. If the church of Rome could at this moment change its Ethiopian skin for ever, lay aside its leopard's spots, and become a pure community, ten thousand years of immaculate holiness and self-denying philanthropy could not avail to blot out the remembrance of the enormous crimes with which the Inquisition has loaded it. There is a deep and indelible sentence of damnation written upon the apostate church by avenging justice for its more than infernal cruelties, and the curse is registered in heaven; nor can any pretences to present liberality reverse the condemnation which outraged humanity has pronounced against it; its infamy is engraved in the rock for ever. Centuries of the most liberal policy would not convince mankind that Popery had become tolerant at heart; she wallowed so greedily in oppression, torture, and murder in her palmy days, that the foam of human gore hangs around her wolfish hugs, and men will not believe her to be a gentle lamb, let her bleat as she may. Against her common humanity is up in arms as much as evangelical religion." ("The Inquisition" by C. H. Spurgeon, from the August 1868 Sword and Trowel magazine)

Just as in our day one church after another is abandoning the biblical view of homosexual practice in favor of 'politically correct' thinking, so during the 1900s the Protestant churches put aside their founders' view of the pope in the name of broad-minded tolerance. But the papacy has not reformed. In fact, the scandal of clergy sex abuse and Vatican cover-up has undermined the faith of millions in modern times.

now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour. 19 They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. 20 You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge. 21 I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Antichrist,* he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son, the same doesn't have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.

24 Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you

ISLAM

Much less has been written about the role of Islam, perhaps because Christian writers down through the centuries had far less direct interaction with the followers of Mohammed than they did with the pope and his hierarchy. Still, as noted above, Luther and Calvin wrote of Islam as one of the "legs" or "horns" of Antichrist, the pope being the other leg or horn.

But, if the pope has made himself Antichrist by elevating himself to Christ's place, by taking upon himself vain titles and by bringing pagan practices and doctrines into the church, Antichrist's other 'leg' has been much more direct in openly denying Christ. Islam is, in fact, the only major world religion based on a foundation of refuting Christian belief. While Buddhism and Hinduism affirm their own doctrines and teachings, Islam started out from the very beginning agreeing with Christians that Jesus was a representative sent by God, while denying that he was God's Son.

Jesus is discussed over and over again throughout the Muslim holy book, the Koran, where he is called "Isa, the son of Mariam" (Jesus, the son of Mary). The Koran admonishes Mohammed's followers to believe in the revelation given by God "to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, and the Tribes, and that given to Moses and Jesus." (2:136) It says that Jesus was sent by God, empowered to do miracles and strengthened through the Holy Spirit. (2:87, 253) It acknowledges that he healed lepers, gave sight to the blind and raised the dead by the power of God. (5:110) It affirms that Jesus was born of a virgin, and that he was taken up to God's presence. (19:20; 4:157-158) But then Islam goes on to deny that Jesus is the only-begotten Son of God, and instead lowers him to a position on a par with all the other prophets. So, it is actually an apostasy from Christianity, and therefore fits John's description of "antichrists" who "went out from among us." Moreover, Islam forbids its subjects from becoming followers of Jesus, from accepting him as their Lord and Savior. Those who do embrace Christ face intense persecution, prison and even death.

If the papacy has earned the title of Antichrist, then Islam deserves this title even more so, especially in our day. Using the Inquisition and other instruments, the papacy put thousands of Bible-believers to death for their faith over the centuries, and today Islam does the same to any who dare preach the Gospel or embrace Christ within its borders. Calvin compared Islam and the papacy this way: "The revolt, it is true, has spread more widely, for Mahomet, as he was an apostate, turned away the Turks, his followers, from Christ." Calvin elaborated that "the sect of Mahomet was like a violent bursting forth of water, that took away about the half of the Church by its violence. It remained, also, that Antichrist should infect the remaining part with his poison." (Calvin's Commentaries on the Epistles of Paul to the Philippians, Colossians, and Thessalonians) See also the article "Calvin on Islam" by Rev. which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father. 25 This is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life. 26 These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. 27 As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him. 28 Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him.

CHAPTER THREE

1 See how great a love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him. 2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. But we know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. 3 Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. 4 Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. 5 You know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and in him is no sin. 6 Whoever remains in him doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him and doesn't know him.

7 Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. 8 He who sins is of the devil,* for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed: that he might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Whoever is born of God doesn't commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he can't sin, because he is born of God. 10 In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who doesn't love his brother. 11 For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; 12 unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's righteous. 13 Don't be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother remains in death. 15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

* 3:8 Satan's biggest 'success' has involved convincing the modern world that he does not exist. Not only does this allow him more easily to deceive and mislead people, but it also allows him to call into question the Bible's truthfulness, since it speaks of the devil from beginning to end. Those who call themselves Christians but do not believe the devil exists end up following a different Jesus—not the Jesus of the Bible who was tempted by the devil, who warned his followers against the devil, and whose purpose in coming was to destroy the devil's work, as Jesus' beloved Apostle John points out here.

16 By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. 17 But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of God remain in him? 18 My little children, let's not love in word only, or with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. 19 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before him, 20 because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God; 22 and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded. 24 He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

CHAPTER FOUR

1 Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit that doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of the Antichrist†, of

† 4:3 The term "Antichrist" is used only in John's letters—at 1 John 2:18, 22; 4:3; and 2 John 7. Here John says that "every spirit that doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh . . . is the spirit of the Antichrist," and he adds that "it is in the world already" in his day.

"If you become a Christian, we will kill you." That is what Islam teaches more than a billion of its followers worldwide.

Sometimes the death sentence is imposed by governments. Other times the execution is carried out by neighborhood thugs. But it is the official position of Islamic authorities that Muslim converts to Christianity must be killed according to Islamic law.

Islam forbids its subjects from becoming followers of Jesus—from accepting him as their Lord and Savior. Those who do embrace Christ face intense persecution, prison and even death. Their stories seldom become headlines in Western news media, but there are currently a number of Muslim converts to Christianity on death row in strict Muslim countries, convicted in court of such offenses as "apostasy," "leaving Islam," or "insulting the Prophet Mohammed." And there are many others who have been murdered by relatives or neighbors for the same reasons, with Muslim police and authorities turning a blind eye.

And it is a threat that does not have to be carried out very often to accomplish its intended result—to intimidate Muslims and prevent them from choosing to follow Jesus.

What could be more anti-Christ than that?

A popular notion among many American churchgoers today is that a future individual will arise who will be the Antichrist and who will make it punishable by death if anyone declares himself to be a follower of Jesus. But that is already the case in much of the world where Islam holds sway. In April 2012 alone, for example, the news media reported violent Muslim attacks on Christian churches in Kenya, Azerbaijan, Indonesia, Nigeria, Sudan and Tunisia, criminal charges of apostasy or blasphemy being brought against Christians in Algeria, Bangladesh, Egypt, Iran and Pakistan, whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already.

4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves has been born of God, and knows God. 8 He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love. 9 By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. 12 No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. 14 We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God. 16 We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. 17 In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. 19 We love him, because he first loved us. 20 If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? 21 This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

CHAPTER FIVE

1 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith. 5 Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. 7 For there are three who testify: 8 the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. 9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony which he has testified concerning his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. 11 The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn't have God's Son doesn't have the life. 13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

14 This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. 15 And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life—for those who do not sin leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this. 17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. 18 We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but he who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one doesn't touch him. 19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. 20 We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

and Christians being otherwise abused or oppressed by Muslim authorities in Egypt, Iran, Pakistan, Syria, Tunisia and Turkey.

Could anything be more "anti"-Christ than that?

2 JOHN

CHAPTER ONE

1 The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth; 2 for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever: 3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father. 5 Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. 6 This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Antichrist.*

8 Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward. 9 Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ, doesn't have God. He who remains in the teaching, the same has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him, 11 for he who welcomes him participates in his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full. 13 The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

* 7 John says that the Antichrist is the deceivers who have already "gone out into the world"—"those who don't confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh."

The founders of Hinduism and Buddhism knew nothing of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, but the founders of the Islamic religion were already familiar with the Christian Gospel message, and they rejected it—denying that Jesus is the Son of God.

In fact, one of the chief tenets of Islam—adopted to repudiate the teachings of Christianity—is the assertion that God has no son.

Unlike the major religions of the world that arose independently, Islam arose as a response to Christianity—a hostile response. And Islam has remained hostile to Christians and to Jews throughout its existence. However, that hostility has greatly increased since the restoration of the state of Israel in 1948 and Jewish control over Jerusalem in 1967.

3 JOHN

CHAPTER ONE

1 The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers. 3 For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about the truth in you, even as you walk in truth. 4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

5 Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. 6 They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a way worthy of God, 7 because for the sake of his Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

9 I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say. 10 Therefore if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly.

11 Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God.

12 Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

13 I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen; 14 but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

* 1:9-10 In many churches today, too, there are false 'Christian' individuals who love power, and who put down or throw out the true Christians. We should not allow them to discourage us from following the risen Christ and upholding the Bible as true.

JUDE

CHAPTER ONE

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: 2 Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly* men, turning the grace of our God into indecency, and denying our only Master, God, and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe. 6 Angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah,† and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are shown as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet in the same way, these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. 9 But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" 10 But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. They are corrupted in these things that they understand naturally, like irrational animals.

11 Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion. 12 These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.

14 About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, 15 to execute judgment‡ on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." 16 These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing admiration for persons to gain advantage.

17 But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. 18 They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking

‡ 1:14-15 Supporters of the Left Behind theory use this verse to 'prove' that Christ returns twice, seven years apart. They argue that he returns for his saints at the Rapture, and returns with his saints seven years later to execute judgment on the wicked. Thus in The Truth Behind Left Behind apologists Hitchcock and Ice cite Jude 1:14 with the caption, "Christ comes with His saints." (page 37)

Can they seriously claim that "Enoch...the seventh from Adam" had in mind raptured Christians returning with Christ? God evidently gave a preview of the coming judgment to Enoch, who lived before the flood of Noah's day, long before ancient Israel, and very long before Christ called out his Church. So, does Scripture indicate that Enoch was also given details about Christian believers being raptured so that they could return with Christ seven years later?

The word rendered "saints" here in the King James Version is the Greek HAGIOS which is also rendered "holy" in the expression "Holy Spirit" and in references to holy places, things, people and angels. Since Enoch lived before either the Jewish or the Christian congregation came into existence, he would likely have had holy angels in mind, rather than Jewish or Christian saints. Many commentaries make that observation. And this would be fully in harmony with Matthew 25:31: "When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him..." (KJV)

Matthew Henry's Commentary says that the holy ones include "both angels and the spirits of just men made perfect." According to Barnes' Notes, "The word saints we now apply commonly to redeemed saints, or to Christians. The original word is, however, applicable to all who are holy, angels as well as men. The common representation in the Scriptures is, that he would come attended by the angels (Matt. xxv. 31,) and there is doubtless allusion here to such beings."

But, even if Enoch was indeed privileged to foresee the raptured Church here, this still would not necessitate a seven-year gap between the Rapture and Christ's coming to execute judgment. Christians who "meet the Lord in the air" (1 Thess. 4: 17) at his coming are not meeting him to turn him around and send him in the other direction. He keeps coming, with risen saints now accompanying him, too, along with the angels.

* 1:4 Although Jude wanted to write a positive message about salvation, he had to warn fellow Christians about the false 'Christians' among them who used God's grace as an excuse to sin. Today whole churches have been taken over by such individuals, proudly flying the rainbow flag of the 'gay pride' movement.

† 1:7 Some mistakenly believe that God no longer acts as he did in the Old Testament. But the Christian New Testament here warns us that he will again execute the same sort of punishment against those who persist in practicing sexual immorality—even referring back to God's destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah as an example. The NIV says that they "gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion.." And the English Standard Version renders it, "indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire."

The Apostle Peter wrote that God "condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, and made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly."—2 Peter 2:6 NIV after their own ungodly lusts.” 19 These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. 22 On some have compassion, making a distinction, 23 and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

24 Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, 25 to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

REVELATION

CHAPTER ONE

1 This is the Revelation* of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel to his servant, John, 2 who testified to God's word, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he saw.

3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.

4 John, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us

* 1:1 The book of Revelation presents a long series of visions full of signs and symbols: "A great and wondrous sign appeared in heaven" (12:1 NIV), "Then another sign appeared in heaven" (12:3 NIV), "And I saw another sign in heaven" (15:1 KJV) The exact meanings of these signs and symbols have been the subject of debate for centuries, but the basic overall message is clear: God will intervene in human affairs to put an end to man's governments and to establish the worldwide rule of the Kingdom of God.

In the process, God sends one plague or disaster after another—diseases, scorching heat, pollution of the seas and rivers, destruction of "a third of the trees" (Rev. 8:7 NCV), and so on—to punish rebellious mankind and call people to repent. "The other people who were not killed by these terrible disasters still did not change their hearts . . . and turn away from murder or evil magic, from their sexual sins or stealing." (Rev. 9:20-21 NCV) Or, as another translation words it, "The rest of mankind who were not killed by these plagues still did not . . . repent of their murders, their magic arts, their sexual immorality or their thefts." (NIV)

The Revelation goes on to show the world's governments and armies suffering defeat at a "place that is called Armageddon in the Hebrew language" (Rev. 16:16 NCV), after which Christ rules for a thousand years.

The message that people need to repent, and that God is going to judge the world, has never been popular. But it has been the message of the prophets and the Apostles down through the ages. It may not be popular in churches today, but it was the message Christ gave to his followers to preach. And it is the message that people in today's world need to hear, as the foretold events are beginning to occur.

There is every reason to understand the Bible literally. It has proven itself to be the inerrant Word of God, so it would be a grievous sin to dismiss what God says by interpreting it to be allegorical or symbolic of something else. By the same token, it would be inappropriate to attach a literal meaning to something that the divine Author of the Bible intended to be taken symbolically.

Sometimes the Bible uses figures of speech or symbolism without plainly declaring the language to be such. For example, in Isaiah 55:12, "all the trees of the field shall clap their hands." (KJV) The prophet did not find it necessary to explain that trees don't have hands and therefore cannot literally clap; the reader understands that the language is poetic or symbolic without an explicit statement to that effect. Similarly, when Jesus said, "the stars shall fall from heaven" (Matt. 24:29) he was speaking as the very One who had created the universe (John 1:10) and clearly knew that heavenly bodies much larger than the earth cannot literally fall to the ground here.

The presence of figurative language notwithstanding, there are still rules that govern interpretation. The reader or commentator is not free to attach whatever meaning suits his fancy. Symbols must be understood consistently. When, in Daniel chapter 7, the first beast is a government (Babylon), the second beast is a government (Medo-Persia), the third beast is a government (Greece), the next beast cannot be the Devil or an evil individual.

from our sins by his blood; 6 and he made us to be a Kingdom, priests to his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

9 I John, your brother and partner with you in oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God's Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet 11 saying, "What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

12 I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden lamp stands. 13 And among the lamp stands was one like a son of man, clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, and with a golden sash around his chest. 14 His head and his hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. 15 His feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters. 16 He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. 17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man.

He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last, 18 and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forever more. Amen. I have the keys of Death and of Hades. 19 Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter; 20 the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lamp stands. The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies. The seven lamp stands are seven assemblies.

CHAPTER TWO

1 "To the angel of the assembly in Ephesus write:

"He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks among the seven golden lamp stands says these things:

2 "I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can't tolerate evil men, and have tested those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and found them false. 3 You have perseverance and have endured for my name's sake, and have not grown weary. 4 But I have this against you, that you left your first love. 5 Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent† and do the first works; or else I am coming to you swiftly, and will move your lamp stand out of its place, unless you repent. 6 But this you have, that you hate* the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my God.

† 2:5 Christ calls five of the seven churches to repent. Do many Christian churches today similarly need to repent?

8 "To the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write:

"The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:

9 "I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10 Don't be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. 11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death.

12 "To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write:

"He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:

13 "I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn't deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. 15 So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise. 16 Repent† therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth. 17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it.

18 "To the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write:

"The Son of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things:

19 "I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first. 20 But I have this against you, that you tolerate your woman, Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality,‡ and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 I gave her time to repent, but

‡ 2:20-22 Just as in that church at Thyatira, there are Jezebels in the churches today, who teach acceptance of sexual immorality (whether fornication by young couples living together, or free divorce and remarriage, or homosexual conduct) and who teach acceptance of idol worship (such as Hindu meditation or Yoga).

This passage serves as a strong warning against the modern acceptance of sexual sin and other pagan practices in many churches.

The modern Jezebels who have brought such things into today's churches are just as unacceptable to Jesus as the Jezebel he condemned in his message to the church in Thyatira.

A road-side sign advertising "YOGA CLASSES" can be seen outside many churches today. But is Yoga really a part of Hindu idolatry? Who knows better than Yoga's promoters at the Yoga.com web site? An article on that site titled "The Ultimate Goal of Yoga" says very plainly that "in all schools of yoga, the goal of the practitioner is the attainment of perfect tranquility and spiritual insight while meditating on Brahman (the Hindu concept of divinity)." The parenthetical remark is part of the original quote.

So, even if the local Yoga teacher or practitioner chooses to hide it, the Yoga.com web site itself proudly proclaims that Yoga is about "the Hindu concept of divinity." The Hindu concept of divinity involves the idolatrous worship of many gods and is totally foreign to the Bible's teachings on divinity.

The Wikipedia article titled "Hinduism" says this under the heading "Spread of Hindu practices":

"Hindu practices such as yoga, ayurvedic health, divination (astrology, palmistry, numerology), tantric sexuality through Neotantra and kama sutra have reached beyond Hindu communities and have been accepted by several non-Hindus: 'Hinduism is attracting Western adherents through the affiliated practice of yoga.'"

Jesus does not tolerate idol worship or sexual immorality, and he promises here to severely punish the Jezebels in the churches who promote such things among believers.

That was Jesus speaking in verses 20 and 21—the same Jesus who taught love and forgiveness. The Apostle Paul spoke of "the kindness and sternness of God" (Romans 11:22 NIV)—kindness to those who accept the forgiveness of their sins and learn from God's mercy to leave sin behind and walk in God's ways, but sternness to those who disregard God's mercy and persist in wrongdoing.

So the revelation of God through Jesus Christ is consistent with the revelation of God in the Old Testament. He is a loving heavenly Father, but also an old-fashioned strict Father who corrects and disciplines people with the aim of bringing them to repentance. And he is a God who will ultimately punish with severity wrongdoers who reject his mercy.

The "Jesus" of popular culture who loves and accepts everyone and everything, without a call to repentance, is not the real Jesus—the Jesus of the Bible. People who read the Bible from cover to cover find it to be consistent from cover to cover, because God does not change.

Sometimes even Bible-believing pastors of Bible-believing churches have left out mention of money, or of certain sins, or the full force of God's judgment message—at the request of influential members of their church, or out of fear of losing their job.

Some churches today that call themselves Christian preach a Jesus who loves and accepts everyone and everything, who doesn't require anything of anyone—and who is never spoken of as coming again to call people to account.

But that isn't the real Jesus, the Jesus of the Bible.

The real Jesus would be ridiculed and opposed if he showed up to preach on earth today like he did in the first century. The main theme of his preaching was a call to 'Repent!' But that word is found most commonly today in cartoons comically portraying a foolish-looking crazy person in a beard and white robe carrying a placard with that message. The call to repent is seen as a joke. And if preached seriously from the pulpit, then people are offended, because they don't want to be told that their lifestyle is condemned by God.

When we regularly read the Bible and prayerfully think about the things it says and how those words apply to our lives, God's Holy Spirit shows us how we need to repent—the changes we need to make to grow up as God's adopted children and to become more like Jesus.

* 2:6 Christian churches or organizations that speak out against sin today run the risk of being labeled as 'hate groups.' But the risen Christ here congratulates a church that hated what Jesus hated.

she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. 22 Behold, I will throw her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great oppression, unless they repent of her works. 23 I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. 24 But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don't have this teaching, who don't know what some call 'the deep things of Satan,' to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you. 25 Nevertheless, hold that which you have firmly until I come. 26 He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. 27 He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; as I also have received of my Father: 28 and I will give him the morning star. 29 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

CHAPTER THREE

1 "And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write:

"He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things:

"I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. 2 Wake up, and keep the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God.

3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent.* If therefore you won't watch, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come upon you. 4 Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. 5 He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. 6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

7 "To the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write:

"He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these things:

8 "I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn't deny my name. 9 Behold, I give some of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.

10 Because you kept my command to endure, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, which is to come on the whole world,† to test those who dwell on the earth. 11 I am coming quickly! Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown. 12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my own new name. 13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

14 "To the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write:

"The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Head of God's creation, says these things:

15 "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. 16 So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth. 17 Because you say, 'I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;' and don't know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked; 18 I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I reprove and

† 3:10 Albert Barnes comments in his Notes, "This does not mean that they would be kept from calamity of all kinds, but that they would be kept from the temptation of apostasy in calamity. He would give them grace to bear up under trials with a Christian spirit, in such a manner that their salvation should not be endangered. . . . The persecutions in the Roman empire would furnish abundant occasions for such a trial."

"One of the best promises guaranteeing the church's rapture before the Tribulation is found in Revelation 3:10," say authors Tim LaHaye and Jerry Jenkins in Are We Living in the End Times? (p. 107) Arguing that the church in Philadelphia to whom these words are addressed pictures "the present-day Bible-believing church," they go on to say, "This verse teaches that the faithful church of the open door, which will not deny His name but will practice good works, evangelism, and missions, will be kept 'out of the hour of trial (the Great Tribulation) that shall try the whole earth.'" (pp. 108-109)

Scripture does not say, however, that the Great Tribulation (Greek megas thlipsis) is the same as the "temptation" (Greek peirasmos) that the church in Philadelphia would be kept from. The word used here is the same as in "lead us not into temptation" (Luke 11:4) and "there hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." (1 Cor. 10:13) God is always faithful to keep those who are truly His from temptation. It is a huge leap to claim this verse refers to a future seven-year tribulation.

* 3:3 Jesus calls Christians and entire Christian churches to repent. He calls on us to change our hearts and lives when we first turn to him to be our Savior and Lord. And he repeatedly calls Christians to repent even later during our walk with him as his followers.

When we regularly read the Bible and prayerfully think about the things it says and how those words apply to our lives, God's Holy Spirit shows us the changes we need to make to grow up as God's adopted children and to become more like Jesus.

chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent.*

20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me. 21 He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne. 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

CHAPTER FOUR

1 After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, “Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this.”

2 Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne 3 that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at. 4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. 5 Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. 6 Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the middle of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. 7 The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. 8 The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!”

9 When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, 10 the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, 11 “Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!”

CHAPTER FIVE

1 I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. 2 I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?” 3 No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it. 4 And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look in it. 5 One of the elders said to me, “Don’t weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome, to open the book and its seven seals.” 6 I saw in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. 7 Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. 8 Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. 9 They sang a new song, saying,

“You are worthy to take the book, and to open its seals: for you were killed, and bought us for God with your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and nation, 10 and made us kings and priests to our God, and we will reign on earth.”

11 I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; 12 saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!”

13 I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!”

14 The four living creatures said, “Amen!” The elders fell down and worshiped.

CHAPTER SIX

1 I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals,† and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, “Come and see!” 2 And behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.

3 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!” 4 Another came out, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth,‡ and that they

† 6:1 From the vantage point of eternity, we may look back to realize that we lived through the seal judgments in the years running up to Christ’s return. They may have been fulfilled by wars, epidemics and natural disasters of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. Or, we may find these judgments compressed into the climactic wrath of the Lamb at Armageddon.

‡ 6:4 Might the ride of the red horse have been fulfilled by the two world wars that dominated the twentieth century? The First World War took peace away from the earth and led directly to the Balfour Declaration which laid the groundwork for the return of Jews to the Promised Land. The Second World War took peace away from the earth and saw a nearly-successful attempt to exterminate the Jewish people, followed by the actual re-establishment of the state of Israel.

The third novel in the Left Behind series, Nicolae: The Rise of Antichrist, declares “this is a prediction of global war. It will likely become known as World War III. It will be instigated by the Antichrist, and yet he will rise as the great resolver of it, the great peacemaker, as he is the great deceiving liar.” (p. 320) should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

* 3:19 Unbelievers are called to repent of their sins and turn to Christ for forgiveness. But here Jesus calls on church members to repent. Please see the footnote at Revelation 2:5.

5 When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. 6 I heard a voice in the middle of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!"

7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!" 8 And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. Hades followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.

9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had. 10 They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11 A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

12 I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. 13 The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. 14 The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. 16 They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, 17 for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"

CHAPTER SEVEN

1 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. 2 I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, 3 saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!" 4 I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand,† sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

5 of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

6 of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,

7 of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,

8 of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were to "a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages." (Rev. 7:9)

A similar sealing in the forehead was described in the Old Testament. Hypocrisy and outright idolatry were prevalent in the corrupt Jewish congregation, and God showed his prophet Ezekiel a vision in which faithful individuals received a mark on their foreheads: "And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side; And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof." (Ezek.9:3-4 KJV) Everyone without the mark was to be killed by angelic executioners. However, history does not record any visible marking or sealing in the forehead in Ezekiel's day. The mark Ezekiel spoke of was visible only to God and his holy angels.

In the middle of the fourth volume of the Left Behind series, Soul Harvest: The World Takes Sides, characters Mac and Rayford notice smudges on each other's foreheads "like what Catholics used to get on Ash Wednesday." (page 171) Looking more closely, they notice that each actually has a raised or embossed cross on his forehead—"visible only to other believers." Character Tzion Ben Judah goes on to identify it: "The seventh chapter of Revelation tells of the servants of our God being sealed on their foreheads. That has to be what this is!" (pages 193-194) From this point on during the novels' tribulation period, believers are able to identify others who share their faith by this mark.

Does the Bible really indicate that modern servants of God who are "sealed" during the final days of this world will display a visible cross or other mark, as the Left Behind series teaches. Would we expect God to abandon sealing with the Holy Spirit, and use instead some visible identifying mark?

There is no biblical basis to expect such a visible mark to appear on the faces of believers. Jesus said, "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." (John 13:35 KJV) Love is one of the fruits of the Spirit. (Gal. 5:22) Christ said that his true followers could identify impostors "by their fruits." (Matt. 7:16, 20)

Would these standards for identifying believers be replaced in the end times by a visible mark that would be indisputable? That certainly seems unlikely in view of Jesus' reference to many impostors who would masquerade successfully as Christians right up until the last day: "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." (Matt. 7:22-23 KJV) Such a masquerade right up until the Judgment would be impossible if a visible seal marked those who belonged to Christ as Left Behind teaches.

† 7:4 This 144,000 appears to be a symbolic number, along with a symbolic 12,000 from each of the twelve tribes—the Christian "Israel of God.." (Gal.6:16) The actual tribes of Israel according to the flesh are no longer identifiable among the Jewish people, since the birth records tracing ancestry to a particular tribe were lost long ago. Nor would it be reasonable to expect exactly 12,000 to come to Christ from each tribe, even if the tribes were identifiable. Evidently John "heard" of those sealed in verse 4 and then "saw" the actual multitude in verse 9. Compare the letter of James, which is addressed to "the twelve tribes" who are "believers" in Christ. (James 1:1; 2:1)

The confident assertion of the Left Behind authors notwithstanding, there is not enough evidence in Scripture to be certain which world war is meant here—a future conflict, or the world wars we have already seen.

* 7:3 Paul writes that believers are "sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise" and advises us, "do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed." (Eph. 1:13, 4:30 NKJV) Those sealed amount sealed.

9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. 10 They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

11 All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God, 12 saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

13 One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?"

14 I told him, "My lord, you know."

He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood. 15 Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them. 16 They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; 17 for the Lamb who is in the middle of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."*

CHAPTER EIGHT

1 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. 3 Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, that he should add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. 7 The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burned up, and one third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.†

* 7:16-17 The Revelation tells of many troubles coming upon this world, but the final outcome for God's people is glorious, as illustrated in these verses.

† 8:7 This prophecy appears to foretell drastic deforestation world wide.

8 The second angel sounded, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, 9 and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea; died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

10 The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. 11 The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.‡

12 The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn't shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. 13 I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound!"

CHAPTER NINE

1 The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The

A third of the trees and grass are burned up; a third of the sea is turned to blood and a third of the creatures and ships destroyed; a third of the waters are poisoned by wormwood; a third of the sun, moon and stars are darkened; locusts with scorpion-like tails torment unbelievers. The exact meanings of these signs and symbols have been the subject of debate for centuries, but the basic overall message is clear: God will intervene in human affairs to put an end to man's governments and to establish the worldwide rule of the Kingdom of God. In the process, God sends one plague or disaster after another—diseases, scorching heat, pollution of the seas and rivers, destruction of "a third of the trees" (Rev. 8:7 NCV), and so on—to punish rebellious mankind and call people to repent. "The other people who were not killed by these terrible disasters still did not change their hearts . . . and turn away from murder or evil magic, from their sexual sins or stealing." (Rev. 9:20-21 NCV) Or, as another translation words it, "The rest of mankind who were not killed by these plagues still did not . . . repent of their murders, their magic arts, their sexual immorality or their thefts." (NIV)

The Revelation goes on to show the world's governments and armies suffering defeat at a "place that is called Armageddon in the Hebrew language" (Rev. 16:16 NCV), after which Christ rules for a thousand years.

The message that people need to repent, and that God is going to judge the world, has never been popular. But it has been the message of the prophets and the Apostles down through the ages. It may not be popular in churches today, but it was the message Christ gave to his followers to preach. And it is the message that people in today's world need to hear, as the foretold events are beginning to occur.

As with the seven seals of Revelation chapter 6, the Left Behind novels portray the seven trumpet woes as literal plagues during the first half of a seven year tribulation period.

Again, as with the seven seals, we may find out some day that the trumpet judgments were fulfilled in global warming, overfishing the oceans, species extinction, and other disasters that correspond to the symbols the Apostle John was shown in his apocalyptic vision. Or, these judgments may yet be fulfilled when God pours out his wrath at Armageddon. But, again, there is no biblical basis for asserting, as the Left Behind series does, that these judgments mean unbelievers will have a seven-year-long "second chance" after the Rapture.

‡ 8:9 The planet's sea life would be threatened, with fish stocks greatly reduced, much as we see happening in the world today.

key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. 2 He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke* from a burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. 3 Then out of the smoke came locusts† on the earth, and power

* 9:2 Major volcanic eruptions have interfered with air traffic in recent years, with smoke rising up from beneath the earth to plague mankind. See also the note on Rev. 8:7.

† 9:3-9 For centuries Protestants understood these symbolic locusts as having reference to the Islamic armies that swept over the East. Colonial Congregationalist minister and missionary Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) expressed it this way in A History of the Work of Redemption:

"The two great works of the devil, in this space of time, against the kingdom of Christ, are his creating his Antichristian and Mahometan kingdoms; which both together comprehend the ancient Roman empire; the kingdom of Antichrist the Western, and the Mahometan kingdom the Eastern, empire. As the Scriptures in the book of Revelation represent it, it is in the destruction of these that the glorious victory of Christ, at the introduction of the glorious times of the church, will mainly consist. . . . First, the Saracens were some of his [Mohammed's] followers, who were a people of Arabia, where Mahomet lived, and who about the year seven hundred, dreadfully wasted the Roman empire.—They overran a great many countries belonging to the empire, and continued their conquests for a long time. These are supposed to be meant by the locusts mentioned in the 9th chapter of Revelation."

In his Observations upon the Prophecies of Daniel and the Apocalypse, originally published in 1733, Sir Isaac Newton commented similarly: "The King of these locusts was the Angel of the bottomless pit, being chief governor as well in religious as in civil affairs, such as was the Caliph of the Saracens. Swarms of locusts often arise in Arabia felix, and from thence infest the neighbouring nations and so are a very fit type of the numerous armies of Arabians invading the Romans. They built Bagdad A.D. 766, and reigned over Persia, Syria, Arabia, Egypt, Africa and Spain." (p. 298)

According to Rev. Dr. Francis Nigel Lee, Professor Emeritus of Systematic Theology at Queensland Presbyterian Theological Seminary, in his article "Islam in the Bible" (found online at <http://www.historicism.net/readingmaterials/iitb.pdf>), dozens of respected writers and preachers saw Islam prefigured in the Bible book of Revelation:

"Also among the Protestant Reformers, then, Islam is seen to have been predicted also in the Book of Revelation. Thus: Luther (1522); Melancthon (1543); and Bullinger (1577). Soon afterward, this same view was advocated also by: Foxe (1584); Napier (1793); Downham (1603); Brightman (1614); Pareus (1618); Davenport (1633); and Mede (1637). Just before, and during, and right after the time of the Westminster Assembly—which itself tells Christians "to pray for the propagation of the Gospel and Kingdom of Christ to all nations" and specifically for "the Turk"—this view is seen to have been championed also by: John Cotton (1639); Thomas Goodwin (1639); Thomas Parker (1646); James Durham (1657); and Increase Mather (1669).

"Indeed, also from the eighteenth century onward—this view has had very many advocates. For it has been maintained, among others, even by: Campegius Vitringa (1705); Matthew Henry (1712); Jonathan Edwards (1739); John Gill (1758); George Stanley Faber (1806); Edward Bickersteth (1836); Louis Gaussen (1837); Edward Elliott (1845); Albert Barnes (1851); Apostolos Makrakis (1881); Philip Mauro (1908); Leroy Edwin Froom (1948)—and by the present writer, Francis Nigel Lee (2000)."

While treating some of Revelation's signs as symbolic, the Left Behind series transforms other signs into literal events and objects. (See the discussion of Rev. 1:1 above.) So, in the popular novels, these symbolic locusts become physical realities that the fictional characters do battle with: "flying creatures—hideous, ugly, brown and black and yellow flying monsters. Swarming like locusts, they looked like miniature horses five or six inches long with tails like those of scorpions." (Apollyon: The Destroyer Is Unleashed, page 305) To fight them off, character Cameron ("Buck") Williams chooses a tennis racket as his weapon: "Buck snatched up the racket and stepped into a full, hard backhand, sending the locust rocketing through a window at the front of the house. The sensation of beast on was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4 They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads.

5 They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person. 6 In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them. 7 The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces. 8 They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions.

9 They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war. 10 They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails they have power to harm men for five months. 11 They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon," but in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon." 12 The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.

13 The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 saying to the sixth angel who had one trumpet, "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!"

15 The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. 16 The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million. I heard the number of them. 17 Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow;

strings felt as if he had smacked a toy metal car." (Apollyon, page 308) "Tson taught that these were not part of the animal kingdom at all, but demons taking the form of organisms." (page 315)

But, if we are informed by the traditional understanding the Church has had throughout history, we realize that these locusts will no more fly about literally than will a literal seven-headed wild beast appear on the sea shore, as pictured in Revelation chapter 13.

and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. 18 By these three plagues were one third* of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths.

19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm.

20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. 21 They didn't repent† of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER TEN

1 I saw a mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. 2 He had in his hand a little open

* 9:16-19 The historic view that prevailed in the Church for hundreds of years was to apply these verses to the invading Islamic armies that swept over the remnant of the eastern Roman Empire. Congregationalist Jonathan Edwards summed it up this way:

"The Mahometan kingdom is another of mighty power and vast extent, set up by Satan against the kingdom of Christ. . . . And then the Turks, who were originally different from the Saracens, became followers of Mahomet, and conquered all the Eastern empire. They began their empire about the year of Christ twelve hundred and ninety-six; began to invade Europe in the year thirteen hundred; took Constantinople, and so became masters of all the Eastern empire, in the year fourteen hundred and fifty-three. And thus all the cities and countries where stood those famous churches of which we read in the New Testament, as Jerusalem, Antioch, Ephesus, Corinth, &c. now became subject to the Turks. These are supposed to be prophesied of by the horsemen in the 9th chapter of Revelation, beginning with the 15th verse." (A History of the Work of Redemption)

As mentioned above in the discussion of Revelation 1:1, the authors of the Left Behind novels ignore the fact that this is a book filled with symbolism, and instead, when the sixth trumpet sounds, they show character Rayford Steele encountering real monstrous horses. These huge beasts have actual living snakes in the place of tails, just as in John's vision. (Assassins, p. 127) Yet, the seven-headed beast that crawls out of the sea a few chapters later is not a real monster but merely symbolic of the evil man Nicolae Carpathia. Such inconsistency!

Even if we question the traditional understanding, and seek instead to apply the verses to some other episode in history, there is no biblical basis to do as the authors of Left Behind do, and tell readers to expect these hideous horses to walk the earth literally.

† 9:20-21 The exact meanings of these signs and symbols have been the subject of debate for centuries, but the basic overall message is clear: God will intervene in human affairs, sending one plague or disaster after another—to punish rebellious mankind and call people to repent.

book. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. 3 He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. 4 When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them."

5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky, 6 and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets. 8 The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land."

9 I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book.

He said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."

10 I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. 11 They told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

CHAPTER ELEVEN

1 A reed like a rod was given to me. Someone said, "Rise, and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it. 2 Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. 3 I will give power to my two witnesses,‡ and they

‡ 11:3-5 A traditional Protestant interpretation would be to take the 1260 days as years, using the prophetic standard of "a day for a year" (Num. 14:34, Ezek. 4:6) and to understand these as Christian witnesses preaching "in sackcloth" under oppression by the papacy. Jesus declared, "ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth," and he spoke of the churches as "candlesticks." (Acts 1:8, Rev. 1:20 KJV) How would the 1260 years be counted? In his fascinating book John's Revelation Unveiled Dr. Francis Nigel Lee writes,

"While it is difficult to set an exact point of departure or an exact point of fulfillment for the 1260 years of the papal desecration of the Church, it is perhaps significant that exactly 1260 years elapsed between each of the major dates in the rise of the Papacy—and each of the major dates in the decline thereof. For example: 1260 years elapsed from A.D. 257 (the first time the primacy of the Bishopric of Rome was asserted in ecclesiastical matters)—and 1517 (the time of Luther's launching of the Protestant Reformation against that primacy). Another 1260 years elapsed between the issuing of the 533 Donation of Justinian and its enforcement in 538 (by which the State recognized the ecclesiastical primacy of the Bishopric of Rome), and 1793 (when Romanism was abolished in France)—and 1798 (when Napoleon's General imprisoned the Pope in Rome). Another 1260 years elapsed between the decree of Emperor Phocas and the first time the Bishop of Rome alone was called 'Pope' (in 606-610)—and the Pope's loss of his last Papal State (in 1866-70)." (p. 113)

So, by several different counts, there were 1260 years of papal domination.

Albert Barnes wrote in his Notes on the New Testament, "The meaning of this would be, therefore, that during that long period ...there would be will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

4 These are the two olive trees and the two lamp stands, standing before the Lord of the earth. 5 If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies.

If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. 6 These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. 7 When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. 8 Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. 9 From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10 Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

11 After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. 12 I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them. 13 In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven. 14 The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

15 The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ. He will reign forever and ever!"

16 The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17 saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who was; because you have taken your great power, and reigned. 18 The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your bondservants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the saints, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 God's temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of the Lord's covenant was seen in his temple. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.

CHAPTER TWELVE

1 A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman* clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. 2 She was with child. She cried out in pain, laboring to give birth. 3 Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon†, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns. 4 His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. 5 She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron.‡ Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne.§ 6 The woman fled into the wilderness*, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.††

those who might be properly called 'witnesses' for God, and who would be engaged in holding up his truth before the world." (1884-85 edition, reprinted 1987 by Baker Book House)

Left Behind authors LaHaye and Jenkins identify the two witnesses as "Moses and Elijah" and state, "Readers of the Left Behind series will recognize them as the two most intriguing characters in the first five volumes." (Are We Living in the End Times?, pages 292-293) They are presented in the novels as leathery-skinned ancient figures who mysteriously appear on Temple Mount and who preach there for 1260 days, despite repeated attempts to kill them. Character Buck Williams is granted the privilege of interviewing them for his magazine articles.

Regardless of how we count the 1260 days or years, there is no sound basis for the authors of Left Behind to present the vision's "two witnesses" as two literal men, surrounded as they are by symbolism: the "seven thunders" that "spoke" in Rev. 10:4, an edible scroll (10:8-10), a "beast that comes up from the Abyss" (11:7), and a "woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet." (12:1) LaHaye and Jenkins present the "woman" as symbolic, but the "men" as literal, though they are just seven verses apart in the vision; compare the discussion of Rev. 12:1-6 which follows.

* 12:1 There is reason to believe this "woman" pictures Israel. (Isa. 54:1,5,6; Jer. 3:14; 31:31,32) and that the "twelve stars" are the twelve tribes. (Rev. 7:4-8)

She is the twelve-tribed nation that gave birth to the Messiah, and she is spoken of figuratively as a woman elsewhere in the Bible. (Compare Ezekiel 23:1-49.)

† 12:3 The dragon is identified later in the same chapter: "The great dragon . . . the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan." (Rev. 12:9)

‡ 12:5a Who could this male child be, but the Messiah? (Isa. 9; Rom. 9:3-5)

§ 12:5b After his death and resurrection, Messiah ascended into heaven. (Dan. 7:13)

 12:6a Israel was dispersed "among all the nations, from one end of the earth to the other" (Deut. 28:64) including the Americas, which were an unknown wilderness at the time Daniel wrote his prophecies.

†† 12:6b The Jewish diaspora in the Americas, Australia and Africa were nourished and kept safe during the 3 ½-year Holocaust—particularly large numbers of Jews in the United States of America. Compare 12:14.

If our understanding of Matthew 24:21 is correct (see footnote), Jesus

7 There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war. 8 They didn't prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven. 9 The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. 10 I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ has come; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. 11 They overcame him because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life, even to death. 12 Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."

13 When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman† who gave birth to the male child. 14 Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.‡ 15 The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a rivers, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. 16 The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river* which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. 17 The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep God's commandments and hold Jesus' testimony.††

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

1 Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast‡ coming up out of the sea, having

§ 12:15 The river of water may picture the evil Nazi regime that sought to exterminate the Jewish people.; compare Isa. 57:20

 12:16 Perhaps a reference to the more stable elements of mankind (as earth is more stable than water) which came to the rescue of the Jewish people by destroying the Nazi regime and ending the Holocaust.

The United States of America played a decisive role in defeating the Nazi government of Adolf Hitler in the Second World War, before it could finish its methodical extermination of the Jewish people in death camps created for that specific purpose. The U.S. likewise played a key role in forming the United Nations organization at the end of that war, and in the U.N. plan to partition Palestine into a Jewish state and an Arab state.

†† 12:17 After failing to wipe out the Jewish people via the Holocaust, Satan turned to persecuting Christians: First through atheistic communist regimes that controlled much of Europe and Asia after the Second World War. Then through anti-Christian Islamic regimes that became more radicalized in response to the restoration of Israel as a Jewish state. And then through liberal democracies that legalized homosexual conduct and outlawed condemnation of homosexual conduct—making it a "hate crime" to teach the Bible's view of sin.

‡ 13:1a This beast appears to picture the world political system of human government—a composite of the individual beasts in Daniel chapter 7. An angel gave Daniel "the interpretation of these things," namely that "The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth." (Dan. 7:16-17 NIV) John likewise described the composite beast he saw as having governmental "power" and a "throne and great authority." (Rev. 13:2 NIV)

Daniel's four beasts were four separate successive kingdoms or empires that ruled over much of the earth; the composite beast of Revelation chapter 13 "was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation." (Rev. 13:7 NIV)

For centuries this beast has been identified with vast empires. Some students of Scripture have seen it as a composite of the beasts of Daniel's visions (Dan. 7:1 – 8:27); others, have interpreted it to mean either the pagan Roman empire or papal Rome, or both. The heads have been identified as individual emperors, or stages of Roman rule, and the ten horns as the ten nations that rose from the ruins of the empire. Albert Barnes took this position in his Notes:

"The reference here is to Rome, or the one Roman power, contemplated as made up of ten subordinate kingdoms, and therefore subsequently to the invasion of the Northern hordes, and to the time when the Papacy was about to rise. . . . Thus in Daniel (vii. 2-7) the lion is introduced as the symbol of the Babylonian power; the bear, as the symbol of the Medo-Persian; the leopard, as the symbol of the Macedonian; and a nondescript animal, fierce, cruel, and mighty, with two horns, as the symbol of the Roman. See Notes on that passage. In John there is one animal representing the Roman power, as if it were made up of all these: a leopard with the feet of a bear, and the mouth of a lion, . . . and with the general description of a fierce monster. . . . the beast here represents the Roman power, as now broken up into the ten dominations which sprung up (see notes on Daniel as above) from the one original Roman power, and that became henceforward the supporters of the Papacy, and, therefore, properly represented here as having ten diadems. And upon his heads the name of blasphemy. That is, the whole power spoke there of a long-lasting tribulation on the Jewish people that began with the Roman siege against Jerusalem and climaxed in the Holocaust. Hitler's extermination camps operated for three and a half years (1260 days) and killed some six million Jews, but the Diaspora who lived in the Americas, Asia, Africa and the South Pacific—all areas that Revelation's inspired writer would have considered "the wilderness"—survived. Yes, because "the woman" (Israel) had fled to "the wilderness," she truly found "a place prepared by God" to ensure the survival of the Jewish people, so that they might live to repopulate the Promised Land.

A more traditional Protestant interpretation is found in Albert Barnes' Notes on the New Testament: "The woman representing the church. . . prophetic days, in which a day denotes a year, twelve hundred and sixty years. . . referring to the proper continuance of the Papal power, during which the true church would remain in comparative obscurity, as if driven into a desert." (1885-86 edition, reprinted in 1987 by Baker Book House) Compare the discussion of Rev. 11:3-5 above.

* 12:9 Since this was invisible to human eyes, the timing would be uncertain, but apparently after Messiah's resurrection and before the Tribulation on Israel that began in 70 A.D.

† 12:13 The woman is Israel. (See the footnote on 12:1.) Satan had the Roman Empire subdue a Jewish rebellion, killing more than a million Jews, and scattering the rest of the Jews throughout the Empire, so Satan persecuted the "woman."

‡ 12:14 The scattering (See note on Rev. 12:13) served to preserve Israel from complete annihilation then and during the Tribulation's climax later in the 3½-year Holocaust. While the Jews of Europe were largely wiped out by the Nazi's extermination program, large Jewish communities in the Americas (a "wilderness" at the time Revelation was written) were unharmed. See also the notes on 12:6.

ten horns and seven heads.† On his was blasphemous in its claims and pretensions."

Matthew Henry made a broader application in his Concise Commentary on the Bible, indicating that he saw the seven-headed beast as encompassing all the Gentile world powers from the Babylonian empire through the Roman empire—those that oppressed the Jewish church or congregation prior to Christ, as well as those that persecuted Christians:

"It appears to mean that worldly, oppressing dominion, which for many ages, even from the times of the Babylonish captivity, had been hostile to the church. The first beast then began to oppress and persecute the righteous for righteousness' sake, but they suffered most under the fourth beast of Daniel, (the Roman empire,) which has afflicted the saints with many cruel persecutions. The source of its power was the dragon. It was set up by the devil, and supported by him. The wounding the head may be the abolishing pagan idolatry; and the healing of the wound, introducing popish idolatry, the same in substance, only in a new dress, but which as effectually answers the devil's design. The world admired its power, policy and success. They paid honour and subjection to the devil and his instruments. It exercised infernal power and policy, requiring men to render that honour to creatures which belongs to God alone."

In contrast to these traditional writers the Left Behind novels take quite a different position. By its title, The Indwelling: The Beast Takes Possession, the seventh novel in the series seems to imply that the beast is Satan the devil. It shows him taking possession of and inhabiting the diabolically resurrected body of fictional world ruler Nicolae Carpathia. But the verses above make it plain that the beast is not the Devil, because "the dragon gave him his power." The dragon is "that old serpent, called the Devil and Satan" (Rev. 12:9) and he gave the beast his power, so Satan is not the beast.

And, in fact, the Left Behind authors themselves agree that Satan is not the beast, despite these implications in their seventh novel. In their nonfiction works LaHaye and Jenkins clarify that they believe their human Antichrist character himself to be the beast—or at least the human Antichrist indwelt by Satan. "Satan . . . personally indwells the Antichrist and through 'the Beast' receives the worship he has always lusted after." (Are We Living in the End Times? p. 269) Their supporter Thomas Ice states this very clearly when he refers to "the Antichrist (also known as the Beast)." (The Great Tribulation: Past or Future?, p. 69) But, how could this beast be a man like the fictional character Nicolae Carpathia, rather than a vast empire? The God who inspired the apostle John to write the book of Revelation was the same God who inspired the prophet Daniel to write about a series of beasts that ruled the world, picturing specific governmental world powers. John's Jewish/Christian audience would have recognized the same metaphor. The beasts Daniel saw looked like a leopard, a bear, a lion and a fourth beast "dreadful and terrible" (Dan. 7:7), and these beasts had a total of seven heads and ten horns; John's beast was dreadful and terrible, and had the same number of heads and horns, as well as body parts of a leopard, a bear and a lion. There would be no more appropriate way to show that John's beast is a composite of Daniel's beasts—the succession of Gentile world powers all rolled into one. (See Daniel 7:3.)

This composite beast, empowered by the dragon to rule the world, is a fitting picture of the governments Satan bragged about when he took Jesus up onto a mountain top and "showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. And the devil said unto him, All this authority will I give thee, and the glory of them; for that is delivered unto me, and to whomsoever I will I give it. If thou, therefore, wilt worship me, all shall be thine." (Luke 4:5-7 KJV) Jesus rejected Satan's offer, but did not dispute the devil's role in world rulership. In fact, he regularly referred to the wicked one as "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31, 14:30, 16:11 NKJV) Satan empowered the Gentile world powers that Daniel saw as a series of beasts, including the Roman Empire that ruled the world during Jesus' earthly ministry. And Gentile powers continue to rule the world today. The composite beast John saw has been ruling the world for a long time.

By showing the devil receiving world rulership and power only through Nicolae Carpathia during a future tribulation, the authors of Left Behind minimize the power the satanic "ruler of this world" already has. This leaves readers vulnerable to his wicked influence, while they watch instead for a fictional world threat.

* 13:1b The wicked, unstable sea of mankind. Compare Isa. 57:20

While each of the four beasts Daniel saw stood for a successive empire, the composite beast John saw incorporated into one body the whole series of biblical ruling powers down through history. John's beast carried all seven heads and all ten horns on one body.

‡ 13:2a This beast is a composite of the individual beasts (animals) named in Daniel chapter 7.

§ 13:2b The dragon is Satan the devil according to Revelation 12:9.

‡ Satan the one who gives beast-like human government its power and authority? When tempting Jesus in the wilderness, "The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. The devil said to him, 'I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want.'"—Luke 4:5-6

Jesus rejected Satan's offer, but did not dispute Satan's claim.

 13:3 The head with the fatal wound that was healed evidently pictured a world power that had been defeated and had lost influence, but that re-emerged on the world scene.

The Roman empire was fatally wounded but reappeared as the Holy Roman Empire of the Germanic People, and then again later as the Third Reich (or third empire).

The Roman Empire, could be described as dying yet coming to life again centuries later. Rome fell to the barbarians in the fifth century. But the Roman Empire rose again when Charlemagne was crowned Emperor in the year 800 A.D. This Holy Roman Empire (German: Heiliges Römisches Reich), with emperors crowned by the Roman pope for hundreds of years, also came to be called the Holy Roman Empire of the German Nation (Heiliges Römisches Reich Deutscher Nation). Its borders expanded and contracted over the centuries as conflicts were won and lost and as political alliances were forged. It was this "Reich" or Empire that Adolf Hitler referred to when dubbing his Nazi government the Third Reich and seeking to reclaim lost territory.

But, naming the Germanic empire as the seventh head would be a departure from the pattern of the prior six, each of which ruled over God's people (as did Egypt when it held the Israelites as slaves) and/or the Promised Land (as did Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Greece and Rome).

As the Roman Empire fell into decline, the Islamic Empire arose and took the Promised Land into its possession, capturing Jerusalem in the year 637, just five years after Mohammed died. So, the seven heads of the 'beast' might better be listed as Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome and Islam, or the Islamic Empire.

Islam is not simply a religion but also a world power. From the beginning Mohammed not only gathered followers, but also took over territory and ruled it. The Islamic empire subjugated Christian lands across the Middle East and North Africa, as well as Spain and parts of Eastern Europe.

beast. 4 They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"

5 A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two months† was given to him. 6 He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. 7 It was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them.‡ Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him.§ 8 All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. 9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

As the seventh head of the 'beast' the Islamic empire appeared to have been "wounded to death" when, after World War I, the victorious allies carved up the territory of the Islamic Ottoman Empire into several smaller nations. But the seventh head never really died. As noted elsewhere in this book, it helped motivate its German Third Reich ally to kill six million Jews in the Holocaust, and today Islamic Jihad is striking terror into hearts around the world.

So, the Islamic Empire should also be considered as a candidate for the head that received a deadly wound but revived.

† 13:4 People worship human government—and its satanic backer—when they give it their unqualified patriotic devotion. 'You can't fight city hall,' is a common expression that carries the same meaning as, "Who is able to make war with him [the beast]?"

† 13:5 These forty-two months appear to refer to the 3 ½ years the Nazi regime's extermination camps operated, from December 1941 through May 1945. Compare Rev. 12:6,14.

Revelation here uses the same language as Daniel chapters 7 and 8, when describing the 'little horn' and what it does.

11 I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. 12 He exercises all†† the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth

 13:11 The British-American superpower arose from the earth (the more stable element of mankind) and looks like a lamb in the sense that it appears to be good and harmless, but it speaks like a dragon—deceptively. But, before elaborating on this view, here are some other interpretations:

The Mark, the eighth Left Behind novel, shows this two-horned beast to be a prominent individual, the fictional Leon Fortunato, right-hand man of Antichrist Nicolae Carpathia. "Fortunato was given the power to call down fire from heaven," we read in the words of character David Hassid on page 130 of that volume. In their nonfiction work Are We Living in the End Times? LaHaye and Jenkins describe him as "the Antichrist's primary minister of propaganda, just as Goebbels was for Hitler." (p. 285)

This Left Behind interpretation, however, ignores all of the evidence that the "beasts" in Revelation mirror the "beasts" in Daniel, which the Hebrew prophet clearly identified as kingdoms or governments. (Compare the discussions of Daniel 7:3 and Revelation 13:1-3 above.)

Commenting on this beast from the earth, Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) wrote, "This also designates the church of Rome. Fire coming down from heaven, seems to have reference to their excommunications, which were dreaded like fire from heaven." (A History of the Work of Redemption) Even medieval kings quaked in fear at the threat of being excommunicated by the pope.

Matthew Henry's Commentary says, "Those who think the first beast signifies Rome pagan by this second beast would understand Rome papal, which promotes idolatry and tyranny, but in a more soft and lamb-like manner: those that understand the first beast of the secular power of the papacy take the second to intend its spiritual and ecclesiastical powers, which act under the disguise of religion and charity to the souls of men."

Martin Luther took the first position Matthew Henry mentioned, declaring as follows: "Here, then, are the two Beasts. The one is the Empire. The other, with the two horns, is the Papacy." (Luther's "Second Preface to the Revelation of St. John" in his Works VI:484, translated by Dr. F. N. Lee)

Some modern writers have noted that man's governments today are literally able to 'make fire come down from heaven' by waging war with planes and rockets. So they see a possible fulfillment in events and entities that have come onto the world scene long after the classic Reformation and post-Reformation writers passed away.

Which world power first dropped nuclear bombs on the sky? Which power is well known for calling down flaming napalm upon targets in Vietnam? The Anglo world power, led by its two horns, Britain and America, changed the world by promoting the ideals of democracy and freedom. Hence it looks like a lamb compared to other empires, but it also speaks like a dragon, deceptively. These factors alone would make it a possible candidate for the two-horned beast, but even more important is the English-speaking combo's role in the creation of "the image of the beast," as discussed below. Steve Wohlberg, author of the books Truth Left Behind and The Left Behind Deception suggests in his article "America in Bible Prophecy" that "America is the exact power specifically mentioned in this mysterious verse." See his EndTimeInsights.com web site at https://www.endtimeinsights.com/site/v2_3/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=13&Itemid=63

Whether the passage really applies to the power of the papacy or to a modern superpower, there is no sound basis for applying it to a future fictional character like Left Behind's Leon Fortunato. To be consistent with the rest of the beasts in Daniel and Revelation, the 'beast coming up out of the earth' must be a kingdom or government or governmental alliance—not an individual man.

†† 13:12a Just as each of the earlier world powers enumerated in Daniel chapters 7 and 8 ruled for a time, so the British-American superpower has taken its turn dominating world affairs.

In Daniel 2:39 the Medo-Persian empire is described as exercising "rule over the whole earth," so here in Revelation, too, such expressions can refer to a dominant world power, not necessarily a one-world government.

and those who dwell in it to worship* the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. 13 He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth† in the sight of people. 14 He deceives my own people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image‡ to the beast who had the sword wound and lived. 15 It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause

* 13:12b How have pagans always worshiped? But setting up an image of their 'god.' Similarly, when the British-American superpower set up the League of Nations/United Nations as a miniature image of the beastly world political system, this constituted worship of that first beast, the beast of Revelation 13:2 (one of whose heads had been healed from a fatal wound). Compare Rev. 13:14-15.

† 13:13 The American arm of the British-American superpower is well known for "making fire come down out of the sky" in the form of napalm bombs that spewed fire across forests and villages during the Vietnam War, and atomic bombs that burned up the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki during the Second World War.

While Bible commentators over the centuries have attempted to identify this second beast, they always had to resort to metaphor to do so—interpreting the 'fire coming down from heaven' in some symbolic way, not literally. Why? Because no human government had ever been able to actually make fire come down from heaven to the earth in the sight of men, or as one modern translation renders it, make "fire come down from heaven to earth while people are watching." (NCV)

But man's governments today are literally able to 'make fire come down from heaven' by waging war with airplanes, rockets and missiles.

‡ 13:14 The United Nations organization is a miniature image of the beastly world political system of human governments.

The British-American two-horned beast from the earth took the lead in the creation of this image, first in the form of the League of Nations, promoted chiefly by British Foreign Secretary Lord Balfour and American President Woodrow Wilson.

§ 13:15a As a miniature image of the beast (the world-wide system of human government), the United Nations organization is itself a living, breathing thing that "speaks" through Security Council resolutions and General Assembly resolutions.

Since the U.N. did not come into existence until some four hundred years after the Reformation, the Reformers could hardly be expected to know about it. But did God foresee it and inspire John to write about it?

Before the twentieth century it would have been difficult to imagine how the nations could make an "image" of the world's governments—much less cause such an image to come "life" and to "speak." But today's United Nations organization certainly is a mirror image of the kingdoms of this world, a miniature replica of the planet's political structure. The successors of the kingdoms Daniel wrote about—Babylon (Iraq), Persia (Iran), Greece and Rome (Italy)—are all represented, as well as the rest of the nations of this world.

Without the benefit of seeing twentieth century events, earlier writers sought to find some other application for the 'image of the beast.'

In his Notes on the New Testament Albert Barnes identifies the image as papal Rome: "All that is stated here would be fulfilled if the old Roman civil power should become to a large extent dead, or cease to exert its influence over men, and if then the Papal spiritual power should cause a form of domination to exist, strongly resembling the former in its general character and extent, and if it should secure this result—that the world would acknowledge its sway or render it homage as it did to the old Roman government." In this view papal Rome is the image of the beast, the image imperial Rome.

Other writers saw the pope as the two-horned beast from the earth, spoken of above in Revelation 13:11, imparting power to a revived Roman empire under Charlemagne; this new Holy Roman Empire would then be as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed*. 16 He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given marks†† on their right hands, the image of the old imperial Rome. Martin Luther wrote, "the Papacy . . . has now become a temporal Kingdom yet with the reputation and Name of Christ . . . The Pope restored the fallen Roman Empire. . . . It is an image of the Roman Empire, rather than the body of the Empire as it once was. Nevertheless, he puts spirit and life into this image . . . and actually operates it to some extent. This is the image [of that] which was wounded, but did live." (Luther's "Second Preface to the Revelation of St. John" in Luther's Works VI:484, translated by Dr. F. N. Lee)

Although the United Nations organization takes a prominent role in the Left Behind novels, authors LaHaye and Jenkins take quite a different approach. They abandon the long-held understanding of "beasts" as representing governments or world powers, and instead present the character Nicolae Carpathia as the beast of Revelation chapter 13. His appointment as Secretary General of the United Nations marks the beginning of his rise to power as the Antichrist. So the image of the beast must then be a statue of this man. In The Indwelling, the seventh novel in the series, temperamental sculptor Guy Blod, the one-world government's Minister of the Creative Arts, is commissioned to create a metal statue, in his words "a sort of bronzy iron thingie of Nicolae" Carpathia, the recently assassinated Antichrist. (p. 60) The artist himself is taken by surprise when the metal monstrosity begins to speak with Carpathia's voice. (p. 285) Is this statue of a dead dictator's naked body really what God had in mind when he inspired the Apostle John to write about "the image of the beast"?

No, the use of 'beasts' in scriptural imagery consistently to represent governments—whether imperial Rome or papal power or a revived Roman empire or other Gentile world powers—argues against Left Behind's attempt to find fulfillment of this passage in "a sort of bronzy iron thingie" of Nicolae Carpathia.

The beasts of Daniel and the beasts of Revelation will ultimately be destroyed by the power of God. While humans may be convinced that no one can 'do battle with the beast'—they say 'you can't fight city hall'—the beastly human governments and their international organization the United Nations will all be destroyed in the coming battle of Armageddon.

¶ 13:15b Involvement with the United Nation seems to be in the vital interest of each country, to the point that failure to participate would be like financial and political death.

And this organizational image of the world's governments has taken on a life of its own, so that it "speaks" though official Resolutions and causes those resolutions to be enforced, ultimately through military action when necessary. Those who fail to bow to its authority may indeed be killed.

†† 13:16 In the Left Behind novels the "mark" is a literal tattoo-like marking inscribed on the forehead or on the hand of all who submit to Nicolae Carpathia, Tim LaHaye's "beast" and "Antichrist." The novels portray a situation where "the Antichrist will have total control of the world's economy during the last three years of the Tribulation." (Are We Living in the End Times?, p. 195) Since the mark is required for employment and for financial transactions, Christian characters set up an underground economy based on bartering goods and services.

In contrast to this view, Matthew Henry's Commentary provides a traditional Protestant interpretation:

"It is probable that the mark, the name, and the number of the beast, may all signify the same thing—that they make an open profession of their subjection and obedience to the papacy, which is receiving the mark in their forehead, and that they oblige themselves to use all their interest, power, and endeavour, to promote the papal authority, which is receiving the mark in their right hands. We are told that pope Martin V. in his bull, added to the council of Constance, prohibits Roman catholics from suffering any heretics to dwell in their countries, or to make any bargains, use any trades, or bear any civil offices, which is a very clear interpretation of this prophecy."

So, according to the traditional understanding, the mark refers to loyal support of the papal antichrist, rather than any visible tattoo. Such support and obedience was required for anyone wishing to "buy or sell" in Catholic lands during the height of papal power.

According to other interpretations of the beast and its image, fulfillment of this passage could refer to other situations where governments have required loyalty and obedience as a prerequisite to doing business. Historically, Christians have already faced such times of testing in many lands. Christians who failed to show loyalty to Hitler and his Nazi party lost or on their foreheads; 17 and that no one would be able to buy or to sell,* unless he has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

1 I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads. 2 I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. 3 They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. 4 These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed by Jesus from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. 5 In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless.

6 I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people. 7 He said with a loud voice, "Fear the Lord, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"

8 Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

9 Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand, 10 he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. 11 The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. 12 Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."

13 I heard the voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'"

"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."

14 I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. 15 Another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Send your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!" 16 He who sat on the cloud thrust his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. 18 Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth's grapes are fully ripe!" 19 The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God. 20 The wine press was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out of the wine press, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

1 I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues,† for in them God's wrath is finished. 2 I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image, and the number of his name, standing by the sea of glass, having harps of God. 3 They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvelous are your works, Lord

their jobs in Germany and in occupied Europe under the Third Reich, which, as noted above, saw itself as a revival of the Holy Roman Empire that Martin Luther identified as the image of the beast. Totalitarian Communist governments have imposed similar economic hardships on believers.

Well over a billion people today live in Muslim lands, where an open expression of faith in Christ can bring severe economic punishment. Official Islamic teaching requires that Christians pay a jizya tax and live as "dhimmis"—second-class citizens.

It would be a shame to allow Left Behind's speculation about a supposed future fulfillment to distract us from the real-world challenges Christians have faced in the past and currently face in much of the world today—the temptation to compromise their faith in order to be able to "buy or sell."

† 13:17 Already, no one can succeed economically without the mark of ownership by the beastly system of human government—or without an account number in their hand or in mind. But perhaps there will also be a further fulfillment.

This could also refer to residents of the Islamic countries that dominate the Bible lands of the Middle East, where Christians are forced into "dhimmitude" with restrictions on their economic activity. Christians in the Bible lands are required to pay the "jizya" tax, which puts them at an economic disadvantage. Muslims can often be visually distinguished from Christians, because Muslims have a mark on the forehead—a "zabiba" or "zebibah" or "prayer bump"—from kneeling in prayer toward Mecca five times a day with their forehead touching the ground.

† 15:1 Revelation speaks plainly of God sending plagues or disasters upon this rebellious world. The New Century Version renders this verse, "There were seven angels bringing seven disasters. These are the last disasters, because after them, God's anger is finished."

These end times disasters serve as warning signs, for the purpose of alerting people to the approaching end, and to call them to repent and return to God. But God knew ahead of time that many would refuse to listen:

"The other people who were not killed by these terrible disasters still did not change their hearts . . . and turn away from murder or evil magic, from their sexual sins or stealing."—Revelation 9:20-21 NCV

If many people today who "believe in God" don't believe that God sends natural disasters, the reason may be that they don't believe in the God of the Old and New Testaments, the God of the Bible—or that they are unfamiliar with what the Bible says about natural disasters in the final days of this world.

God, the Almighty!

Righteous and true are your ways, you King of the nations.

4 Who wouldn't fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?
For you only are holy.

For all the nations* will come and worship before you.

For your righteous acts have been revealed."

5 After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. 6 The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts.

7 One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. 8 The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

1 I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!"

2 The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

3 The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man.

* 15:4 This prediction will have complete fulfillment after the Kingdom of God replaces all human governments. But it is already undergoing fulfillment, in the sense that the nations of the whole world have, to a large extent, abandoned their gods and goddesses to worship the God of the Bible, or at least profess to do so.

How unlikely this must have seemed when the book of Revelation was written, at a time when the powerful Roman empire had only recently crushed Jewish nationalism, tore down the Jewish temple in Jerusalem, scattered the Jewish captives to the four corners of the empire, and was in the process of hunting down and publicly executing the remaining followers of the Jewish Messiah Jesus!

Yet, in spite of overwhelming odds, ancient biblical prophecies have proved true. Paul, Barnabas and other early Christian disciples traveled far and wide, following Jesus' instructions to "go and make followers of all people in the world" (Matt. 28:19 NCV) and trusting Jesus' assurance that, "you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth." (Acts 1:8 NASB)

Wherever they went among the Gentile nations 'ten men' would accept the message about the Jewish Messiah and would take up worshiping the God of the Bible, as foretold centuries earlier by the Hebrew prophet Zechariah: "Thus says Jehovah of Armies: 'In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, "We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you."'" (Zechariah 8:23) And those who became believers went on to share the Bible's message with others, spreading the message of the God of the Bible far and wide.

The result is that today there are Christians in every land—along with Jews and Muslims who also profess to worship the God of Abraham.

The God of Israel has worshippers everywhere, while the gods of Israel's ancient neighbors have faded into oblivion, and this is exactly what the Bible prophesied would occur.

Bible prophecies that foretold the God of Abraham would be worshiped by people of all nations can be found at Psalm 22:27, Psalm 66:4, Psalm 67:2, Psalm 67:7, Psalm 86:9, Jeremiah 16:19-20, Zechariah 14:16, Malachi 1:11 and Revelation 15:4.

The amazing fulfillment of these prophecies gives us strong reason to believe the Bible prophecies about the 'end times.'

Every living thing in the sea died.

4 The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. 5 I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who are and who were, you Holy One, because you have judged these things. 6 For they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this." 7 I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments."

8 The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire. 9 People were scorched with great heat,† and people blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues.‡ They didn't repent and give him glory.

10 The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, 11 and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They didn't repent of their works.

12 The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be prepared for the kings that come from the sunrise. 13 I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs,§ 14 for † 16:8-9 Mankind would be plagued by climate change with extreme weather events.

The "last disasters" (15:1) God would send through his angels would include "great heat" from the sun, which could be a reference to climate change and global warming:

‡ 16:9b People today ridicule anyone who says God sends disasters. Intimidated by this, very few Christians point to the heat waves and storms and floods and earthquakes, with a call for people to repent of their sins.

Don't they remember the hailstorm God sent against Egypt? (Exodus 9:23-25) Don't they remember that Moses told the Israelites, ""if you do not obey the LORD your God and carefully follow all his commands and laws. . . The LORD will punish you with disease, fever, swelling, heat, lack of rain, plant diseases, and mildew until you die.?" (Deuteronomy 28:15-22)

As predicted here, people don't repent in response to the disasters inflicted on mankind.

§ 16:13 Bible scholar and early president of Princeton University, Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) wrote in his book A History of the Work of Redemption, "these spirits are said to come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet; that is, there shall be the spirit of Popery, and the spirit of Mahometanism, and the spirit of heathenism, all united."

Christians today are circling the wagons, like a wagon train under attack in the old 'wild west.' As Jonathan Edwards stated, the attackers of biblical Christianity are three in number:

The papacy, which has undermined the faith of millions by claiming to speak for God with great pomp and ceremony while tolerating and covering up widespread sexual abuse of children;

Islam, which has driven Christians out of the Middle East while threatening believers everywhere with death or bodily harm through violent they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go out to the kings of the whole inhabited earth,* to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty.

15 "Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he doesn't walk naked, and they see his shame."

16 He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Megiddo.†

17 The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"

18 There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. 19 The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

1 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality."

3 He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. 4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth. 5 And on her forehead a name was written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." 6 I saw the woman‡

‡ 17:5-6 Commentators traditionally see "Babylon the Great" as a code name for Rome. (Compare 17:9.) But they disagree as to whether the prophecy concerns the Roman Empire of John's day or ecclesiastical Rome, which came to rule over much of the world at the height of papal power, which sat on the same seven hills, and which became drunk with the blood of Bible-believing saints during the Inquisition.

Of this blood-bath, Spurgeon wrote, "All churches, when they lose the spirit of Christ, are very prone to persecute; but a horrible pre-eminence must be awarded to the scarlet harlot of the seven hills, for no church on earth except that of Rome has had a separate institution for hunting out and destroying heretics." ("The Inquisition" by C. H. Spurgeon, from the August 1868 Sword and Trowel magazine, available online at www.Spurgeon.org/s_and_t/inq.htm)

The pope inherited the title Pontifex Maximus (today often shortened to 'Pontiff') from the ancient pagan Roman priesthood and from the Caesars who later took the title upon themselves. Extensive parallels have also been drawn between the trappings of the papacy and ancient Babylonian religious worship. The Reformers make it clear in their writings that there is no biblical basis for a powerful pope hailed as 'the vicar of Christ,' a hierarchy of celibate priests, monks and nuns, veneration of saints, miracles attributed to bones and other relics, and so on. The crass sale of indulgences has ceased, in the light of Martin Luther's objections, but the hierarchy still extracts payment for masses supposedly needed to free dead loved ones from the torments of purgatory. When ancient Jerusalem proved unfaithful, God inspired Isaiah to write that "the faithful city has become a harlot" (Isa. 1:21), so similar language could be expected regarding papal Rome.

Moreover, the church of Rome can indeed be called "the mother of prostitutes." Some of her daughter denominations and churches, while abandoning the open abuses of the papacy, have nonetheless prostituted themselves by relying on the theories of 'science' and sociology instead of on the written Word of God, and by welcoming fornication, adultery and homosexual practice among their members and even their clergy.

The Left Behind novels take a totally different view. Much of the action in those fiction stories centers around the actual city of Babylon, rebuilt on its ancient site in Iraq during the seven-year tribulation by Global Community Potentate (and Antichrist) Nicolae Carpathia. Once a great seat of empire in the days of Nebuchadnezzar and the prophet Daniel, Babylon fell and never regained prominence. Must it be rebuilt by the Antichrist, in order for Bible prophecy to be fulfilled?

Left Behind authors LaHaye and Jenkins wrote for a generation that waged two wars against Saddam Hussein, Iraq's leader who spent vast sums restoring the antiquities of Babylon and who identified himself as a modern Nebuchadnezzar. However, the Apostle John wrote his Apocalypse for a different audience.

Whether Revelation chapters 17 and 18 speak of imperial Rome or of papal Rome—or both—there is no basis in Scripture for insisting as do the authors of Left Behind that the Apocalypse requires a rebuilt Babylon to become the world capital during the end times.

terrorism—and officially threatening the death penalty against its billion members, if any of them turn to Christ;

The secular world, which uses its public education system, its news media and its entertainment industry to indoctrinate children and adults with anti-Christian propaganda, especially by promoting belief in godless evolution and by presenting sexual immorality as normal and good while condemning biblical moral values as old-fashioned, bigoted and evil—and which has now begun to impose the 'right' to abortion, gay marriage and trans-gender behavior through its law-enforcement powers.

* 16:14 All of the governments of all the nations on earth are assembled together for a final war.

† 16:16 The word rendered "Armageddon" in most English translations means Mount Megiddo, an actual location in Israel. Centuries of human habitation, and building over old ruins, long ago produced a hill there. It is now protected as Megiddo National Park, a World Heritage site.

Megiddo is mentioned in the Old Testament in Joshua 17:11 and in several other passages, as part of the territory of ancient Israel.

The pass or valley that Megiddo overlooks is a strategic location where many battles have been fought from the fifteenth century B.C. Battle of Megiddo between Egyptian pharaoh Thutmose III and a Canaanite coalition, to the 1918 Battle of Megiddo between British forces under General Edmund Allenby and the German-allied Ottoman Turks during the First World War.

The Bible makes it plain that the restoration of Jewish control over the land of Israel and Jerusalem would eventually lead to military action against Israel by the rest of the world. The prophet Joel quotes God as saying this:

"At that time, when I restore the prosperity of Judah and Jerusalem," says the LORD, "I will gather the armies of the world into the valley of Jehoshaphat" [a location in Israel].—Joel 3:1-2 NLT

And this military action would be met by Divine intervention: "The armies of heaven . . . defeat the nations"—Revelation 19:14-15 NCV

At that time human governments will be replaced by the Kingdom of God. "The God of heaven will set up another kingdom that will . . . crush all the other kingdoms and bring them to an end . . ."—Daniel 2:44 NCV

That battle of Armageddon is near, and survival is guaranteed only to those who follow the instructions outlined in the Bible.

drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement.

7 The angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and shall be present.

9 Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. 10 They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. 11 The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. 12 The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. 13 These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. 14 These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and those who are with him are called, chosen, and faithful."

15 He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. 16 The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate, and will make her naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. 17 For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. 18 The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

* 17:9 The Word of God is timeless and inspired by God to benefit readers throughout the centuries, but a proper understanding of Scripture always begins with recognition of the contemporary audience and what the passage meant to them. The Apostle John's contemporaries most certainly recognized "Babylon" as a code name for Rome. Why? Because the coins they carried in their purses displayed the very same symbols John described in these verses.

Those Roman coins bore the image and inscription of Emperor Vespasian, but on the reverse side displayed a woman sitting on seven hills, with the caption "ROMA" identifying her. Such coins were minted during Vespasian's reign, from 69 to 79 A.D., and the symbols on them would have been as familiar to John's audience as George Washington's face on the dollar bill is to modern Americans. Rome of John's day sat on seven hills, was drunk with the blood of the saints who bore witness to Jesus, and was the great city that ruled over the kings of the earth. We need not look any farther to know which city John meant when he wrote these words in his Apocalypse.

1 After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. 2 He cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen† is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird! 3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury."

4 I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues, 5 for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6 Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. 7 However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.'

8 Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong. 9 The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, 10 standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.' 11 The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more; 12 merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; 13 and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, and people's bodies and souls. 14 The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. 15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; 16 saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls! 17 For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every ship master, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, 18 and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?' 19 They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!' For she is made desolate in one hour.

20 "Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her." 21 A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. 22 The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. 23 The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. 24 In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

CHAPTER NINETEEN

1 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God: 2 for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand."

3 A second said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever." 4 The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!"

5 A voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!"

6 I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns! 7 Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready." 8 It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

9 He said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" He said to me, "These are true words of God."

10 I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, "Look! Don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy."

11 I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. 12 His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself. 13 He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called "The Word of God." 14 The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. 15 Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations.* He will rule them with an iron rod. He treads the wine press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. 16 He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

17 I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, "Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God, 18 that you may eat the flesh of kings,† the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, and small and great." 19 I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. 20 The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. 21 The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER TWENTY

1 I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 He seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, who

God will overthrow all of today's governments when "the God of heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms."—Daniel 2:44

† 19:17-20 Compare Ezekiel 39:17-21 where God says,

"Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, 'Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. 18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20 You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war,' says the Lord Jehovah. "I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them.""

deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. 4 I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor his image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years.

7 And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, 8 and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 They went up over the width of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God, and devoured them. 10 The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

11 I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. 12 I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13 The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. 14 Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. 15 If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

1 I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. 2 I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. 3 I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. 4 He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away."

5 He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." He said, "Write, for these words of God are faithful and true." 6 He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. 7 He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son.

8 But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.*

9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, that were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb's bride."

10 He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal; 12 having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. 13 On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. 14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.

15 He who spoke with me had for a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. 16 The city is square, and its length is as great as its width. He measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand stadia. Its length, width, and height are equal. 17 Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits, by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. 18 The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass. 19 The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; 20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst. 21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

22 I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple. 23 The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. 24 The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. 25 Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there), 26 and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it so that they may enter. 27 There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

1 He showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb,* 2 in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3 There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants serve him. 4 They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. 5 There will be no night, and they need no lamp light or sun light; for the Lord God will illuminate them. They will reign forever and ever.

6 He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to show to his bondservants the things which must happen soon."

7 "Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

8 Now I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. 9 He said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God." 10 He said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. 11 He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."

12 "Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each man according to his work. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. 14 Blessed are those who do his commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city. 15 Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.†

* 22:1 Also see Zechariah 14:8, which speaks of water flowing out from Jerusalem when God's kingdom rules the whole earth.

† 22:15 Churches that preach nothing but 'Jesus loves me,' and fail to include the warning given here, are doing more harm than good to those who sit under their teaching—especially churches that fly the rainbow flag of the gay pride movement. Now is the time to repent of the sins listed here, before God's judgment is executed.

Notice that "sorcerers" end up receiving the same judgment from God as murderers and worshipers of idols. The New International Version renders that "those who practise magic arts." What if you have been involved in such practices? Is there any hope for you? Yes, by putting faith in Jesus Christ, you can be set free, and can be forgiven for all your sins. Jesus will help you put the sin of sorcery behind you, and will help you learn His righteous ways of living. When the first century Apostles of Christ went preaching the Gospel throughout pre-Christian Europe and Asia, they encountered many pagans who practiced magic, witchcraft and sorcery.

16 I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David; the Bright and Morning Star."

17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely. 18 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, may God add to him the plagues which are written in this book. 19 If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, may God take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book. 20 He who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly."

Amen! Yes, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with all the saints. Amen.

Acts 19:19-20 tells us what these people did when they became Christian believers:

"Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted their price, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty."—Acts 19:19-20
